The Eagles Show Splendid Promise In Opening Game Against Hamilton

The score at Kookan Field in Hamilton last Friday night showed that the Hamilton Bulldogs won a football game from the Goldthwaite Eagles by a score of 26 to 6, but the Eagles won the respect of a large, enthusiastic crowd and they came home with what should have been great pride in a fine performance.

With the odds against them in experience, weight and numbers, the Eagles showed a surprising polish that reflects splendidly on Coach Carl Knox and Assistant Coach Jack Locklear. From start to finish the Eagles played with spirit that bodes well for the remainder of the season. With only five lettermen in the entire squad and with only two experienced players on the line, the Goldthwaite boys showed form and team-play coordination that demonstrated how quickly and how well they have learned the T.C.U. Horned Toad formation from Coach Knox.

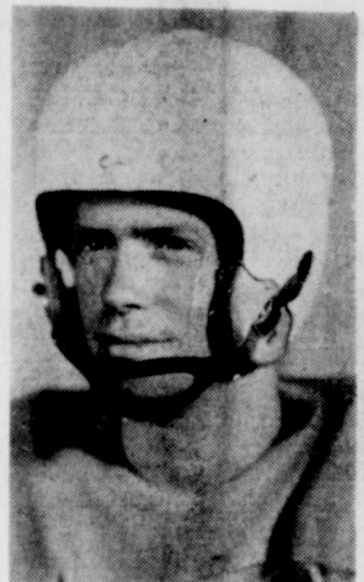

Throughout the game Dean "Dizzy" Clifton was virtually a one-man football team, both on the defensive and on the offensive. In Dizzy Clifton, Coach Knox has a half back who is going places. If the game could have lasted longer, the Eagles might well have uncorked an upset. In the final quarter, with their confidence mounting steadily, they crossed the Bulldog goal line after an advance featured by a pass from Quarterback John Gilliam to Clifton, followed by a 33 yard run by Left Halfback Billy Anderson. Failure to convert, when the ball glanced off a goal post, denied the Eagles what might have been another point.

The game began with the Hamilton Bulldogs literally oozing confidence, especially after an early score and conversion. But with Goldthwaite's Clifton playing all over the field on the defensive and with all of the Eagles showing they take their football very, very seriously, the Bulldogs quickly and visibly developed a respect for the opposition that they had not displayed at the start of the game. The extent to which the Bulldogs had been thrown off balance was shown by two penalties against Hamilton before the half, which ended with the score at 14 to 0 in favor of the home team.

At the start of the third quarter, there was another 15 yard penalty against the Bulldogs for holding but then their Fullback

DIZZY CLIFTON President Names Lucile Fairman As Postmaster

The nomination of Mrs. Lucile Fairman to be Postmaster at Goldthwaite was sent to the United States Senate this week by President Truman from the White House. Confirmation of Mrs. Fairman's appointment now is a mere formality.

Mrs. Fairman was notified of the White House action by Representative O. C. Fisher. Other persons in Goldthwaite received telegrams from U. S. Senator Tom Connally saying that Mrs. Fairman's nomination had been received by the Senate from the White House. Senator Connally said he would make every effort to expedite Senate confirmation of Mrs. Fairman's appointment.

If the Senate does not confirm Mrs. Fairman's nomination before Congress adjourns for the general election campaign, Mrs. Fairman will serve as Postmaster under what will be tantamount to an interim appointment by the White House.

Mrs. Fairman joined the Postal Service as a temporary substitute clerk on November 16, 1936. On April 1, 1938, Mrs. Fairman was classified as a substitute clerk and she received appointment as a regular clerk on August 16, 1942.

Mrs. Fairman has served as Acting Postmaster in Goldthwaite since December 1, 1948.

They were married in Mills County, near Goldthwaite, on September 12, 1900. Mrs. Reynolds was the former Jemmie Burrows.

For Tuesday's celebration, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds walked down an aisle formed by ten of their eleven children, their grandchildren and three great grandchildren to the strains of "Here Comes The Bride."

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds have lived at their present home for the past 48 years. All of their 11 children are living. Mr. Reynolds, a native of North Carolina, (Continued on Back Page.)

PREVIEW AT THE BARN SATURDAY OFFERS A LOOK INTO FUTURE FATSTOCK PROSPECT

At 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, at the "Barn" or Agriculture Building in Goldthwaite, proud 4-H Club and F.F.A. members will start parading the calves that later will vie for championship awards at the January Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association and then, still later, at the big fatstock and commercial shows in Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio. All is in readiness for the Preview, which will represent months of hard work by 4-H Club and F.F.A. girls and boys and by their sponsors. The remaining necessary and desirable factor is a good attendance.

This week President Robert L. Steen of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association and County Agent George Reese renewed their invitations to everybody to turn out at the "Barn" for Saturday's Preview—not only to see what the 4-H Club and F.F.A. members have been accomplishing under the feeding sheds back on the ranches and farms, but also to encourage the young persons to whom everybody must look for the economy of the future.

WALTER A. BRYANT

Mills County this week when a number of young men were summoned to the service of their country.

Toby Bryant, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bryant of Goldthwaite, a member of the Army's reserve, was ordered to active duty, effective September 28, at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Last September 6, Lieut. L. A. "Dickie" Sparkman of the Post Office was ordered to one day of active duty at Fort Hood for the purpose of taking a physical examination with a view toward extended active duty. Lieut. Sparkman, who commands the Army's Organized Reserve Corps unit in Goldthwaite, is expecting orders momentarily.

Welcome W. Wilson, nephew of Ernest Wilson of the Goldthwaite Electric Company and also a nephew of C. T. Wilson, has been ordered to active duty in U. S. Navy communications intelligence. The son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. "Jack" Wilson of Humble, he served until the receipt of his Navy orders to active duty on the public relations staff of the University of Houston.

Back in Mills County, four men who already have taken their examinations under Selective Service have been ordered to report for induction, it was announced this week by Charles Frizzelle, Mills County representative on Draft Board number 84.

Those ordered to report next Wednesday are Lawrence W. Strumples, who lives near Priddy; and L. L. Spinks, son of Mrs. Joe Spinks of Goldthwaite.

Ordered to report for induction on October 4 are Robert Lewis Harris, the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Harris of Goldthwaite; and Claud G. Smith, the son of Mrs. Rena L. Smith, now of Abilene.

Local Livestock Raisers Prepare To Enter Shows

In addition to planning their first appearance of the year with their hogs and calves at Saturday's Preview at the Agriculture Building in Goldthwaite, Mills County 4-H Club and F.F.A. members are preparing for a number of exhibitions and competitions in the immediate future.

County Agent George Reese said this week that seven Mills County steers are being prepared for exhibition at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas.

Fifty turkeys also will be shown at Dallas. Also, Mills County will be represented at the Central Texas Fair at Temple next week, and Mills County hogs will be shown and judged at Coleman early next month.

In chronological order, the schedule is as follows:

Merion Reynolds will show a calf, a boar, a gilt and a pen of barrows at the Cen-Tex Fair, which is scheduled for September 19 through September 23 at Temple.

On October 6, Mills County turkeys must be in their coops ready for showing and judging the next day at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas. They will be entered by Armond Zoe Clary, Harold Clary, Kay McCasland, Van Wilson McCasland and Joe Bill Welch, each of whom will enter pens of five toms and five hens. Armond Zoe Clary won the grand championship with Notifications went out this week to breeders and feeders to bring their animals to the "Barn" on Saturday morning in preparation for the parading on Saturday afternoon. Also in the morning, there will be a hog show at which Durocs raised under the incentive of the Sears-Roebuck program will compete for entry in the District Show at Coleman on October 7.

Mr. Steen said that some distinguished visitors are expected for Saturday's Preview. They will include A. L. "Whisky" Smith, Extension Service beef specialist from Texas A. and M. College; James A. Deer, Extension Service entomologist; and possibly R. G. Burwell of Stephenville, Extension Service district agent. But the most distinguished persons present will be the 4-H Club and F.F.A. members who have been feeding and caring for the calves that will be on parade.

In addition to emphasizing the cordial welcome to the public to attend next Saturday's Preview, Mr. Steen and Mr. Reese said this week that the occasion is not limited merely to the hog competition in the morning and the parade of fat calves in the afternoon. It will be open, they said, to all 4-H Club and F.F.A. members who may wish to bring in their projects so that the public generally may have a comprehensive look at the work being done by young Mills County club members.

If weather conditions are right, it may be that some of the animals that will be exhibited at the Cen-Tex Fair at Temple this month and at the State

Red Cross Moves To Prepare For Its Part In Civilization Defense Plan

Ray Duren, Chairman of the Disaster Relief Committee of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross, announced this week that plans for meeting Red Cross responsibility in the civilization defense organization are well on the way toward implementation.

Last Monday night Mr. Duren and Executive Secretary Brian Smith of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross met with officials of the Goldthwaite Independent School District to work out disaster relief arrangements. A similar meeting was held at Mullin last Tuesday night and still another meeting was held at Star last night, Thursday. A meeting with school district officials at Priddy will be held next Monday night.

"The Red Cross has a direct part in the overall civilian defense organization," Mr. Duren said. "Civilian officials, including the Governor, Mayors and County Judges in Texas are the civilian defense authorities but on both the national and local levels the responsibility for disaster relief has been delegated to the Red Cross."

Mr. Duren emphasized that in the planning now in progress there is no cause for alarm but that preparation is essential in case emergency comes. Coordination of planning is proceeding among civilian defense officials, the Red Cross, and such organizations as the American Legion.

The meetings that Mr. Duren and Mr. Smith have been conducting and will conduct have been approved by the County School Board and they have received the utmost cooperation of both the County and the various district school board members, Mr. Duren said.

At the meetings held so far, the Disaster Relief Committee of the Red Cross has asked specifically for the use, in the possible event of emergency, of school buses for transportation, for the use of school lunch rooms for mass feedings, and

"If I Had Only Known," Sheriff Mahan Says About His Pay Hike

The Mills County Commissioners Court, meeting at the Court House last Monday, approved the 1950 tax roll as presented by Sheriff Wiley L. Mahan, who also is Tax Assessor-Collector.

Now that the Commissioners Court has acted, you may expect to have in your mail any day missives from which you can take a three per cent discount on October 1, two per cent on November 1 and one per cent on December 1.

Following the meeting, County Judge Lewis B. Porter announced that work has been completed on repairing the Jackson's Crossing bridge, a County project that was undertaken under the Supervision of Commissioner K. B. Henry of Precinct 3.

As a routine matter, County accounts were read and approved.

The Commissioners Court also voted a readjustment in the compensation of County Clerk Earl Summy and the Sheriff was voted an annual increase of $375, retroactive to the first of this year.

When he heard of the action taken by the Commissioners as affecting his office, Sheriff Mahan said: "If I had known they would do anything like that — and his voice trailed off as he gazed off wistfully into the distance.

IF EMERGENCY COMES

During the past three months the American people have been properly shocked because the news showed us that we were not prepared for the job against aggression that we undertook in Korea. All of the current news tells us that the times ahead could be more serious and more fraught with danger than any we ever have known. Accordingly, it is a matter of gratification that preparation is being made right here at home to deal with whatever emergency might develop in the future.

As a news story in this week's Eagle says, those who are responsible for civilian defense in the United States and right here in Goldthwaite and Mills County hope not to be caught napping. The emphasis is on preparedness. That should give reassurance and should not be a cause for alarm.

Under the civilian defense program that now is being set up, a master plan is being worked out in Washington. In turn, it goes to the Governors of the various States. In Texas, the program then is passed on by the Governor—in our own case to Mayor Loy Long of Goldthwaite, to County Judge Lewis B. Porter, and to the component, cooperating organizations such as the American Red Cross and the American Legion.

Civilian defense is primarily the responsibility of the civilian authorities. But organizations such as the American Legion and the American Red Cross have their clearly delineated roles in it. The program has been worked out on a national level and among the national organizations and from there it comes down to the local level.

A news story tells this week of a conference between Executive Secretary Brian Smith of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross and the American Legion. Another tells of the work being done by Mr. Smith and Ray Duren, who is Chairman of the Disaster Relief Committee of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Through the County School Board and the Boards of the respective school districts, Mr. Duren and Mr. Smith are organizing for the part that Mills County people will play in cooperation with the civilian defense authorities, the Red Cross and others—if emergency comes. That calls for the cooperation that has been requested and it calls for calm realism and not alarm.

We are a long way from a metropolitan center. We do not face the grim prospect of becoming a target for enemy bombers. But that does not mean that we can sit back and do nothing about a future that is, to say the least, uncertain. For example: saboteurs could strike anywhere, especially at shipping points on railroads. In the case of major disaster in a large city, we might be asked to provide shelter for refugees. And, over the entire world, there are the shadows of the atom and hydrogen bombs, which can send radioactive clouds into regions far beyond the original targets. Guided missiles, developments of the "buzz bomb" and rocket bombs of World War II, can fall anywhere, especially when off course or out of control. Such tragedies may not happen, but they can happen, and whenever the proper person or organization calls for preparation, the fullest possible public understanding and cooperation must be forthcoming without stint in the interest of the general welfare.

As you read the news of steps toward preparedness that are being taken by responsible men and women at the expense of their own time and effort, we suggest that their load can be lightened if they know that they can depend on public cooperation and understanding—without alarm, but with the knowledge that the fate of society as a whole may be found in the balance and that without adequate preparation, reality could be worse than even the prospect, if emergency does come. It may be years before any of us can breathe freely again. Until we can, there ought to be the deepest gratitude to those who are trying to see to it that at home, we shall be ready for whatever the future may hold.

CHEERS FOR THE G.H.S. EAGLES

When high school boys go in and play the way the Eagles played against Hamilton in the football curtain raiser last Friday night, we are achieving in scholastic sports exactly what we set out to achieve in the first place. The Goldthwaite boys played all the way as though they were winning; they played hard, clean and with fine sportsmanship.

Our sincere congratulations go to them and to Coach Carl Knox. We can be and we are proud of our 1950 football team.

W. W. Reynolds and Miss

Last week the House worked on conference reports, passed a bill to authorize the drafting of certain doctors and dentists, approved a strong anti-communist measure, and took a swing at slot machines. I voted for all of these measures.

The doctor draft will enable the armed services to obtain the necessary number of medical men and dentists to serve the increased number of men being called to duty. At present we have 6,226 doctors and 2,358 dentists on active duty. By July 1, 1951, we will need a total of 11,250 doctors, and 5,000 dentists.

Most of these will be obtained from young doctors and dentists who got all or a portion of their professional education at government expense during the last war. They were enrolled in so-called ASTP and Navy V-12 programs.

This latter group, who served less than 20 months during the recent war, will be the first called; then will those with similar service but who didn't get their education at the expense of Uncle Sam. Then will be others generally in the order of length of prior service, and finally the Reservists.

A bill which will make life more miserable for our domestic communists was passed in the House with but 20 dissenting votes. It was much stronger than was recommended by the President and if favored by the Senate, some observers think Mr. Truman will veto it. But if so, it can probably be passed over his veto.

This measure is in addition to other anti-sabotage and anti-espionage bills previously enacted. It clamps a heavy penalty upon a government employee who transmits, or on a Communist who obtains, security information. Secondly, it would bar Communists or members of the communist front organizations from holding non-elective jobs in government.

A third provision makes it a crime for an officer or employee of the government to contribute funds or service to a Communist organization, and it is made illegal for a Communist to apply for or renew a passport.

The bill requires the Communist party to label all literature which it publishes or distributes and to identify Soviet-sponsored radio and television programs. And there are a number of other provisions that will add to the discomfort of these traitorous characters who live among us.

The Anti-Slot Machine Bill which we passed would make it illegal to ship one of the one-armed bandits or parts thereof in interstate commerce. It is true, of course, that no law alone can end the mulcting and racketeering associated with these devices. But this bill when enacted, will make it easier to control the hookups with racketeers who often escape across State lines. This law, with real effort by local authorities over the country, can do a lot toward breaking down this nefarious gaming device. And it will probably become law this year.

Jimmie Burrows were married in the Center City Community Wednesday, Rev. J. J. Taylor officiating.

R. C. Johnson of Nabors Creek was a visitor to this office one day last week.

The Eagle's Ac

By The Editor

What may we expect in Korea? The editor of the Eagle has written considerably on this subject from his experience as a war correspondent in the past. He believes, however, that a newspaper, especially a "one man" newspaper, should present more than one viewpoint. Accordingly, we present herewith an estimate of the situation that was written by Hanson W. Baldwin, military editor of the New York Times, Mr. Baldwin, who was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, is one of the most respected writers on military subjects in the country.

By HANSON W. BALDWIN

Wishful thinking — an old American habit — which has distorted so many of the recent assessments of the Korean fighting received a rude jolt last week when the Communists began a major offensive.

After a pause of almost two weeks, broken only by strong but limited enemy thrusts in the north which almost took Pohang, the North Koreans, despite our air superiority, completed regrouping and reinforcement and began in the south a determined attempt to take Pusan—the port gateway for our entire beachhead, an area now somewhat larger than the state of Delaware.

The main assaults, made over a forty-five-mile front by at least four enemy divisions with at least two others in reserve, were heavily supported by some of the most concentrated artillery fire of the campaign and by tanks—many of them newly imported from Russia since the Korean fighting began. The initial gains were in some cases stable, although the enemy losses were very large.

U. N. Position Stronger

The numerous bridgeheads across the Naktong, which in this season of the war is fordable in most places and is almost inconsequential as a river barrier, and the early advances of the Communists were not, however, nearly as dangerous to the United States beachhead positions as they would have been two or three weeks ago. For a breakthrough, even if achieved, must be paced, if it is to be exploited, by armor. Despite replacements from Russia, it was probable that the enemy armor was now considerably outnumbered by our own and it was questioned whether his heavy initial losses could be quickly replaced.

Moreover, this mobile reserve armor represented only a part of the reserve power that Lieut. Gen. Walton H. Walker could call upon to plug any serious breach. In addition to very strong air power, a sizable ground reserve was available to General Walker for the first time since the Korean fighting started. The Twenty-fourth Division and the First Marine Brigade, plus perhaps the separate Twenty-ninth Regimental Combat team, and two newly arrived British battalions apparently have been held in rear areas as a strategic reserve and for rest and replacement. Some of these units may have been committed to the southern front at the weekend to help meet heavy enemy pressure, but in any case they represented an ace-in-the-hole for the U. N. forces.

The drive on the forty-five-mile front in the south may well be the prelude to general pressure along the entire front; indeed, it is certain that the enemy attempt to capture Pohang and probably Taegu will be resumed. If the force to commit on reserves to stem of interest to conduct attacking attacks—more local offensives—elsewhere the front to prevent ing of any of our troops threatened points. Several assault, though have been successful enemy have mounted two or three weeks likely to succeed in our beachhead today it may make threat vances) unless the strength is far greater intelligence estimates cated.

End Is Not In

Despite this somewhat optimistic, it was the enemy still held. ber opened and fall of the strategic initiative he was still capable offensive effort. All offensive that started day had long been appeared to be premar that as his "last gasp" "break his back."

For there are many that indicate that fighting may well be even if the present crushed or containing gains.

In their homes, the girls practiced various phases of home-making which they had studied during the previous academic year.

In each case, at least 90 hours of work was completed. In many cases, more than the required 90 hours was accomplished. One student spent 262 hours on her program.

The girls who completed the summer course were: Bobby Blackburn, Jo Ann Duren, Dorothy Featherston, Elizabeth Hapgood, Mary Ann Jones, Merlyne Kemp, Corene and Dorene Kerby, Eunice Lockridge, Thelma Montgomery, Joy Newman, Patricia Rahl, Myrlene Reynolds, and Marjorie Whitt.

The following results were accomplished: nine rooms improved, 12 pieces furniture refinished, 3 floors refinished, 21 pieces household linens made, 147 meals planned and prepared, 37 garments made, 9 garments remodeled, 556 pints foods canned, 37 pints jellies and preserves made, 24 pints pickles made, 700 pounds foods frozen, 4 assisted with care of children, 3 worked in Vacation Bible Schools.

For group work carried on in the homemaking department, the girls worked on a silk patchwork bedspread, cared for flower beds, made cord baskets, papered the bedroom partition walls, refinished the clothes hamper and nightstand, and made a magazine rack from an old oil stove.

For recreation, the girls participated in District III F.H.A. Camp at Lampasas, where they taught tie-dyeing and purchased all food for the group; went on a picnic and swimming party; and sponsored a slumber party.

Did you hear it last Friday night? That bell? That Freedom Bell for the first time ringing clear and strong, calling the world to listen? Yes? listen to the truth as it comes from the lips of many nations. It sounded beautiful coming over the stillness of night, strong, vibrant, hollowed. Then it faded slowly tolling — tolling — tolling — it seemed for the death of a world which had failed in self defense.

Listen, folks, it's touring the states, and will finally be installed in the tower of West Berlin city hall in late October. It is the symbol of the "Crusade for Freedom."

Hurrah! and again hurrah for General Ike.

Fairman Serves On Governor's Board For Pasture Improvement

On Wednesday night of last week, Earl T. Fairman, President of the Trent State Bank in Goldthwaite, attended a dinner in Austin as a guest of Governor Allan Shivers. The purpose of the dinner was to complete plans for a long-range pasture improvement program for Texas.

Mr. Fairman is a member of the executive committee of the program, which will be coordinated with the activities of the Association of Soil Supervisors and with those of the Conservation Committee of the Texas Bankers Association.

The Governor's committee for a statewide pasture program will continue as a separate organization but it will not overlap the activities of the Soil Conservation Service or those that are sponsored by the Texas Bankers Association.

It was emphasized by Governor Shivers that his Committee, the Soil Conservation Service and the conservationists among the Texas bankers all are working toward a common goal. The primary purpose of the Governor's Committee is to improve pasture lands in Texas under a program that will need ten years for its execution.

Methodists Hear Missionary From Bolivia Thursday

Murray S. Dickson, Methodist missionary from Cochabamba, Bolivia, will speak at the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite next Thursday night at

MURRAY S. DICKSON
7:30 o'clock. It was announced this week by the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor.

A native of Hillsboro, Texas, and a graduate of Texas University, the Rev. Mr. Dickson was associate director of the Methodist Wesley Foundation at the University of Texas prior to his going to Bolivia as a missionary in 1942.

A gifted and popular speaker, the head of the American Institute in Cochabamba, Mr. Dickson has been in the United States during the summer to lead in the training of 50 young Methodists who are going out to Latin American countries as missionaries. At present he is visiting Methodist Churches in the Southwest Texas Conference to tell of the work being done by that church in Bolivia. Bolivia has been assigned to this Conference as its special foreign missionary field during the current quadrennium.

The general public is invited to hear this missionary speaker, Brother Lovelace said.

Judson Strickland of Waco came through Goldthwaite Friday and stopped for the day with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Roberts.

Curator Lucile Fairman Unveils Art Gallery To Eclipse Sheriff

Curator Lucile Fairman, otherwise known as Goldthwaite's Acting Postmaster, now is the boss of an Art Gallery.

Until this week, Postmaster Fairman was able to boast of an art gallery similar to, but smaller than, the wall full of mugs in the office of Mills County Sheriff Wiley L. Mahan. Sheriff Mahan still has more pictures of wanted murderers, safe crackers and wife beaters than Postmaster Fairman has on display at the Post Office, but it is doubtful that he ever will be able to catch up with Curator Fairman.

On the south wall of the Goldthwaite Post Office there hang eighteen (18) pictures. They are new. They have nothing to do with the "wanted" crooks. In fact, they put so much into the shadow the men for whom the Long Arm of the Law is reaching that if anybody really wants to study crime and criminals, it would be wiser to adjourn the research from the office of the Postmaster to the office of Sheriff Mahan.

In the Goldthwaite Post Office, you now can go back to the year 3,000 B. C., to Chaldea. From that point, through 17 more framed pictures, complete with stories, you will be able to trace the stories of the mail-right through the Pony Express, postage stamps and the "Tea Kettle" to the airplane.

The Eagle's art critic is on a permanent vacation so this newspaper can report only on the fact of the Art Gallery in the Goldthwaite Post Office, without criticism.

It is known that due to the Economy Program of the Department of the Post Office, which presumably sent the Art to Curator Fairman, the Postmaster put up the dough for framing 18 pictures at the G. I. School.

The frames, made of cedar, were varnished by the Curator herself. Hanging the Gallery proved a delicate problem, because nails could not be driven into the concrete south wall of the Post Office. Curator Fairman and her Assistant Curator, one Dickie Sparkman, had the advice of about half the population of Goldthwaite before they were able to devise means of anchoring strips of lath from which hang the pictures in the

Christian Science Services

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 17.

The Golden Text is: "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up" (Matthew 15:13.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away" (1 Peter 1:24.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortals must look beyond fading, finite forms, if they would gain the true sense of things" (page 264.)

Hillside Mission

No doubt, many people wonder about the salvation of their children, or other members of their household. We find in Acts 16:31 where a jailer asked Paul and Silas what must he do to be saved and we find this passage: "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Earl Nix of Waco was a recent visitor with his father, J. D. Nix, Sr., and brother, Lynn Nix and family.

After all the good rain and a cool norther the first of last week, Roger Smith says that it rained so much at his ranch that he got his car stuck in the mud. Mr. Smith, being a newcomer, his first experience with the mountain's mud was a little tough.

Another rain fell at the B. J. Crawford home Sunday and Monday morning. The Crawfords have prospects for a fall sweet potato and turnip patch.

At this writing the cotton will turn out. It has begun to open.

T. F. Adams planted a few rows of cotton in his garden. Mr. Adams said the boll weevils just ate it all up.

Bill Partin combined his maize Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin and son, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Karnes, and G. H. Crawford gathered corn last week.

Will Hill of Goldthwaite and

Bill Partin combined at the Roger Smith farm Friday.

N. C. Karnes took a load of hogs to Evant Thursday and received a very satisfactory price for them.

We are glad to report C. M. Bramblett to be much improved after a few days of sickness.

We were sorry to hear of Mrs. Ira Harvey being sick. Mr. Harvey was our good old faithful mail carrier. My nephew, J. B. Crawford, visited us Sunday and said he would surely like to meet Mr. and Mrs. Harvey. His mother had told him how nice Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were during his sickness when he was very small. We all wish Mrs. Harvey a speedy recovery.

Betty Bramblett, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bramblett, was very sick Saturday. We all hope Betty is feeling fine and able to return to school soon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crawford and Pat, Mrs. S. W. Samford and David were in Goldthwaite Saturday afternoon. They had been called to Dublin to attend the funeral of Joe Bishop. Mr. Bishop was a brother-in-law of Mrs. C. J. Crawford. He was also a former resident of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cravy of San Diego, California visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bramblett a few days last week.

Recent guests in the A. L. Crawford home were: Mrs. Bill Partin and son, Miss Pearl Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens, Mildred and Edwin, Alvis Stevens of Lubbock and Mrs. John Reynolds of Lubbock.

Hollis Blackwell And Spot Saylor Give Facilities To Coach Carl Knox

Coach Carl Knox of the Goldthwaite High School was happier this week because he had a desk for his office—a desk that resulted from the generosity of Hollis Blackwell, who couldn't bear the thought of Coach Knox sitting on the floor to do his paper work.

Coach Knox also was happy because he has what amounts to a new athletic field for his juniors—the youngsters of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades.

Thanks to the generosity of

W. G. "Spot" Saylor and Hollis Blackwell, the tract of land between their respective homes on the Hannah Valley Road has been made available to Coach Knox so that he may put his "B" football team through its paces there and so that other athletically-inclined juniors may have their baseball, softball and other sports.

Coach Knox also plans to use the Blackwell-Saylor land for his classes in physical education.

Ebony News

By Clementine Wilmeth Briley

We are having weekly rains now, Sunday and Monday. They are fine on the grass, but hard on feed-harvesting.

Our cotton crop last year was the delight of the community. Those who had cotton sure did take in the money, and the pickers had money to jingle too. But this year cotton is practically a failure. Only a small acreage was allowed, and insects and root rot have taken most of that.

The Russell place, where cotton was so promising early in the season, will produce a very small amount. About half the cotton stalks are dead. Those that remain, look pretty, but insects have robbed them of most of their fruit. However, as we passed there on our way to town Friday, pickers were going after what they could find.

Edward Egger helped Charm Whittenburg build him a goat shed last week.

The Griffins, with Albert Hardin and Kay Roberts helping, tried harvesting maize this week, but rain stopped them.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ketchum of Brownwood is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Egger. Her son, Bill, of Goldthwaite also spent the weekend there.

Charm Whittenburg was scheduled to cut feed for John Briley Monday and to help Edward Egger haul in feed Tuesday, but rain interfered.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley and Mrs. Dwyer were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves Sunday after church. There is a fine looking crop of peanuts on the Reeves place this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cawyer and Elizabeth of Orange slipped in on Mrs. Edna Dwyer Saturday night. They were on their way to Abilene to put Ednabeth in Abilene Christian College.

They left Sunday morning for Brady where they were scheduled to attend church, eat dinner, and visit with Mr. Cawyer's mother before going on to Abilene.

On the way to town Friday we were thrilled to see REA workmen busily setting posts in the newly cleared right-of-way extending up to Ebony road from Kay Roberts' place on by P. R. Reid's place, the Russell place, the Tallent place, to the beautiful new Mahan Ranch house and beyond.

Eagle's Eye

With millions of fellow-citizens, I believe that General Marshall is and has been a good soldier. But he rates very low as a Statesman—as witness his performance in the further sell-out of the Chinese People that was started by Franklin D. Roosevelt at Yalta. If, as Secretary of National Defense, his course is to be that as charted by the Department of State, then the future is dark. Very dark, indeed.

It is to be remembered that this is only September and that there will be general elections in November. Even down where everything is "in the bag" after the primaries, we ought to remember that in Washington politics rule the day, and Harry S. Truman is trying to dazzle the country by taking General Marshall out of the moth balls. My deepest sympathy is extended to General Marshall—and to the country.

Sgt. Jack Simpson of Connally Air Force Base at Waco spent the week end in the home of his mother, Mrs. Elan Kelly, and family.

Personal Paragraphs

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Matson had as their guests for several days this week, their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Russel M. Matson from Marshall. Also visiting during that period were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matson from Zephyr and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Matson from Brownwood.

After spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stockton of Goldthwaite, Miss Virginia Stockton has returned to her position as a teacher in the school system at Randolph Field.

Mrs. J. H. Sims and her sisters-in-law not seen each other had a wonderful visit last week. Mrs. J. Sims Sunday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carol spent the week Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson City. They and their son, Hubert, family at Kerrville.

Mr. and Mrs. Max attended the funeral of their cousin, Mr. W. R. Brownwood Sunday.

Our Democrats Go To Mineral Wells And Return Whole

Mills County delegates returned from the State Convention of their Party at Mineral Wells this week intact and happy with the proceedings of last Tuesday.

With the usual twinkle that comes to his eye when he makes political announcements, Chairman Joe A. Palmer said that at Mineral Wells last Tuesday "everything went off well and smoothly."

Mr. Palmer, who is Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Mills County Democratic Committee, was accompanied to Mineral Wells by County Attorney A. M. Pribble, who took instructions from Mrs. Pribble with him; and by George Fletcher of Mullin.

Allen Campbell, who also had been designated as a delegate to the Convention, was unable to attend. As a major in the Air Force Reserve, Mr. Campbell has been devoting considerable time to his military duties of late.

O'Neal Reunion

The O'Neal family held its reunion at Hancock Park in Lampasas on September 10. A number of relatives and friends from all over Texas attended. There were sizeable delegations from Goldthwaite and Mills County as well as from more distant points.

Mrs. Harvey Gains

Mrs. Ira O. Harvey of Fisher Street, who has been ill for several weeks, has shown improvement during the past week. Mrs. Harvey now is able to leave her bed for meals and the prospect is that she will continue to gain if she behaves herself and leaves the household chores to Mr. Harvey.

Star Future Farmers Of America Start Off New Year With A Bang

The Star Chapter of the Future Farmers of America has been going places.

John Howard Owens, Chapter Reporter, is out with his report that the Bronze Emblem has been awarded to the Star Chapter by the Texas Association of the Future Farmers of America for achievements by individual members.

In commenting on the award, Leroy Beard, Superintendent of Schools at Star, said that "it shows what hard work and cooperation can do."

Further, citizens of the Star Independent School District have donated registered breeding gilts to the F. F. A. Chapter in Star. In this connection, J. H. Owens reports as follows:

"Members receiving a gilt will be obligated to return a gilt pig from the first litter to the chapter to be placed by another member and so on until all members desiring breeding stock have been satisfied. This program will work similar to the well known Sears Foundation Program, but will only be on a community level."

"The Star F. F. A. Chapter also elected to purchase several feeder hogs to feed cooperative this fall and winter.

"The chapter is looking forward to a great year, and are hoping that they will warrant their friends, neighbors, and parents wholehearted cooperation in their undertakings."

On Thursday night of last week, the Star F. F. A. initiated its Greenhand Farmers, who are: Jerald L. Carroll, Harold H. Carter, John T. Cleghorn, Bobby Zane Egger, W. V. Horton, Jr., Thomas Ed Hurst, Billy Mac Newton, Charles M. Sheldon, W. Lee Watson and N. Joe Winner.

In welcoming the new members Chapter President Davis Owens said: "Farm work has been hard. Every farmer competes with his neighbors in the markets of the world. Farm income has been low. In the past the farm family has had to go without many of the conveniences that city people enjoy. Only through cooperation can this situation be changed. Here we learn scientific production and marketing. We practice thrift. We have recreational and educational entertainment. If you develop your leadership ability, you may become leaders. We need you and the country needs rural leadership. May you prove worthy and capable."

Concluding the initiation ceremony, Chapter Adviser J. C. Yearly, Jr., said:

"Your future is before you and you can obtain a high place in your organization and in society if you will be malleable but never crushed, ductile but never drawn into anything base or dishonorable; glowing with enthusiasm but unaltered by the heat of conflict."

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hamilton of Sierra Blanca came Sunday night to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton. Mrs. Dick Hamilton remained for a longer visit, Mr. Hamilton leaving for his home Tuesday.

Friends of Sherman Robertson, Jr., celebrated his birthday anniversary last Saturday. Fourteen boys and girls enjoyed games and the birthday cake.

Judge Porter Has Reminder On The Child Labor Law

County Judge Lewis B. Porter issued a reminder this week that all persons who employ any children under 15 years of age during the school term must comply with the Texas "Child Labor" law.

Judge Porter said that the law requires that any person who employs a child under 15 in his business must keep posted on the premises a Child Labor Permit. These permits are procured from the County Judge who generally requires before issuing such permit proof of the child's age; that the child has completed the 5th grade in public schooling; a physician certifies that the child's health is good or adequate; and facts to show that the child's parents are in economic stress.

It was pointed out by Judge Porter that an employer may be fined or even be imprisoned in the County jail for wilful failure to observe or comply with this provision of the Texas "Child Labor Law".

Bible Class Singing

W. C. Frazier announced this week that tonight, Friday, the Downtown Men's Bible Class of Goldthwaite will have its regular singing at the Baptist Education Building on Fisher Street. Mr. Frazier, Song Leader of the Class, said he would like to have a large crowd.

In commenting on the meeting, Mr. Smith said that in the event of any emergency, the American Legion would render invaluable service. He pointed out that as military veterans, the members of the American Legion have been tested under stress and could be relied upon to meet their responsibilities calmly and with poise.

becomes more likely when and if U. S. forces start a victorious drive northward and move toward the Thirty-eighth Parallel. If such intervention should take place, not only would the fighting be prolonged, but we might well be pushed off the peninsula altogether if Peiping, Pyongyang and Moscow chose to exert enough force.

The fifth factor that tends to make for a long war in Korea is the inherent difficulty of building up, preparing and sustaining a large-scale land offensive against any determined foe. A three-to-one superiority in combat effectiveness—some think even a six-to-one superiority—is, if not essential, advisable to insure success. In fighting our way back in Korea, even if the campaign should be simplified by amphibious assaults, we would find terrain and mountains, shattered bridges and blasted roads allied with the enemy.

Cold Weather Coming

And soon, a sixth factor—winter—may also tend to protract. Already the men in the foxholes in Korea are complaining of the cold at night; temperatures may drop to freezing, snow will lie on the hills. This will complicate the supply problem.

There is, however, a potentially important seventh factor which might conceivably operate in our favor and might tend to shorten the war. Korean morale is best described as volatile—in victory ruthless and aggressive, but in defeat perhaps uncertain. The North Korean Army is, however, bolstered by a hard core of fanatical Communists—some of them

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

Because of the varied uses of Madrid Sweetclover, David Watters of the Pleasant Grove No. 2 Neighbor Group is well pleased with his 10 acres of clover. On November 12, 1949, Mr. Watters leased a combination fertilizer grain drill equipped with the special clover attachment from W. A. Hill, Supervisor of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District. With this drill, Mr. Watters planted 10 acres of Madrid Sweetclover and oats as part of his coordinated conservation plan made with the District. Enough moisture was available to bring up the clover to a good stand. The oats protected the young clover plants during the cold winter months.

Charles Haenisch of the Soil Conservation Service examined the clover field in April of this year and found that insects had eaten the clover to the ground. Mr. Watters decided to leave the clover and see what would happen. On June 1st Mr. Watters combined the oats, harvesting approximately 15 bushels per acre and turned in 43 head of lambs and 22 head of goats on the clover. They stayed on the clover during the time the three awn (needle grass) was seeding, making a higher grade wool end mohair. The sheep and goats were returned to the pasture August 1st and on August 20th, 28 lambs were put into the clover field. Mr. Watters plans on leaving these lambs another month and returning them to the field this spring for approximately another two months grazing. In July or August of 1951, this field will be harvested for seed.

Mr. Watters realizes that while he has received excellent grazing from this 10 acres and will receive a good seed crop, he also received another benefit from the clover. The soil-improving value of this crop cannot be put into dollars and cents. This deep-rooted legume has opened the soil to increase water penetration and soil aeration in addition to adding nitrogen to the soil, therefore making it a more tillable field.

Mr. Watters plans to plant an additional 7 acres this fall to be used as a hay crop in the summer of 1951.

veterans of many battles, some of them possibly Chinese, Japanese or Asiatic Russians—and there may not be much opportunity for lowered morale to express itself in the hard and practical terms of disintegration, even if the North Korean Army should endure massive defeats. Still, no man may gauge the moods of battle; the North Korean will-to-fight may wane. This slim and intangible factor remains—aside from negotiation, which at the moment is impossible—almost the only hopeful sign pointing toward a quick end of the Korean fighting. Yet we cannot count upon an enemy's psychological disintegration, and despite our defensive victories in Korea and the prospects of better days ahead, we should, to be safe, stir ourselves for a long struggle.

This week Dr. T. C. Graves is getting the winter grass seeds that he purchased scattered on his ranch. With the assistance of Paul Koshi, Range Conservationist with the Goldthwaite Work Unit, Dr. Graves selected Common Ryegrass, Perennial Ryegrass, and Harding Grass for planting this fall.

A 9 acre field will be seeded to Harding grass alone for seed production. Harding grass is a cool-season, perennial grass that has shown great promise on Dr. Graves' ranch. A two year old planting made seed this summer and with the good rains he has had recently the grass is already green. Livestock eat the Harding grass above all other winter grasses and Dr. Graves' only concern is being able to control the grazing in order to maintain his grass. He is sowing all the Harding grass in a 100 acre pasture so that the livestock can be taken off the grass at the proper time.

The Common Ryegrass and Perennial Ryegrass will be seeded in approximately 80 acres of brush pasture to furnish winter grazing. Five acres in a cultivated field will be seeded to perennial ryegrass for seed production. The grazing will be managed in such a way that the Common Ryegrass will reseed itself.

To help out with the winter grazing, Roy Dellis is sowing oats and Madrid Clover together in a 60 acre field on Dr. Graves' ranch. He is grazing his goats now in a field of John-

Preview

Fair of Texas in Dallas next month will be on parade at the Preview at the Barn next Saturday afternoon.

While there will be no judging at the Preview, except of Duroc hogs in the morning, the absence of the competitive element will make the Preview no less interesting, Mr. Steen said. He emphasized that the Preview will provide opportunity for the public generally to see what 4-H Club and F.F.A. members have been doing on their various projects and it will provide further opportunity for looking ahead to measure the prospects of Mills County youngsters in the big-time competition of the next few months.

The Preview also will be preliminary to the Spring Show that will be sponsored at the Agriculture Building in Goldthwaite on January 15 and 16 by the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association.

Mr. Steen said that at Saturday's Preview there will be a concession stand so that those attending will be able to purchase soft drinks and food. The proceeds from sales at the concession stand will be used toward completing payment of the Agriculture Building, Mr. Steen said.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds received many gifts from members of their family and friends.

Mrs. Reynolds, a Clergyman's daughter, was born in McCullen County but she has lived in Mills County since 1886.

Football

Winkles tore away for a 64 yards run which gave Hamilton its third score that was, however, followed by failure to convert. At the end of the third quarter a pretty pass to Dizzy Clifton gave the Eagles another flash of class, but they were unable to capitalize on it.

The final quarter opened with the Bulldogs scoring on a long end run. Because of a personal penalty, Hamilton had to make a second attempt at conversion which failed from 25 yards—and that was the end of the scoring by the Bulldogs, who beat Goldthwaite 36 to 0 last year.

It was noteworthy that Hamilton's scoring always was early in each quarter, and usually despite heavy penalties against the Bulldogs by alert and strict officials who were, nevertheless, admirably impartial.

Both Superintendent of Schools H. E. Patton and Coach Knox expressed their gratification over the performance of the G. H. S. players.

Coach Knox pointed out that Curtis Lawson, Tom Lawson, Bobby "Puss" Carr and Charles Batchelor were playing their first football game and all four of them gave a good account of themselves.

There was another conspicuous performance, by Vernon Whitely. Alvidoyle Roberts also played a good brand of football.

The Eagles will play next against Dublin at Dublin on September 22.

This year, the Mills County entry of turkeys at Dallas will be the biggest in history with five youngsters each showing ten birds. Finally, seven steers from Mills County will be exhibited and judged at the State Fair of Texas in mid-October. They will go to Dallas on the morning of October 16. For the State Fair of Texas competition at Dallas, there will be the following entries:

President Robert L. Steen of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association and County Agent George Reese indicated this week that there is reason for confidence and optimism as local 4-H Club and F.F.A. members prepare for the shows ahead.
