School Board Continues Patton's Tenure; Collier Still Chairman

By unanimous vote, and with all members present, the Board of the Goldthwaite Independent School District last Monday night refused to accept a tender of resignation by Superintendent H. E. Patton. In effect, Mr. Patton's resignation has been withdrawn and his contract remains in force until the end of the 1951-1952 academic year.

At the same meeting, the Board failed to act on the effort of Chairman C. C. Collier to retire. Accordingly, Mr. Collier's resignation still is pending and in a statement this week he said he continues to hope that at a later Board meeting his resignation will be accepted.

Following the meeting at which Mr. Patton's resignation was rejected, Mr. Collier said:

"We have had a good school year. Our decision not to accept Mr. Patton's resignation was a considered one. I have at all times found him to be loyal to the Board, to our schools and to the patrons. I believe that last Monday night the Board acted in the best interests of all concerned. The school year that now is drawing to a close has been marked by harmony between the Board and Mr. Patton and there has been harmony between the administration and the faculty."

In a brief statement following last Monday night's meeting Mr. Patton expressed his appreciation of the attitude of the Board and he said that he was deeply and sincerely grateful for the many expressions of confidence that had been voiced to him between the time of his resignation and its rejection by the Board. As for his own continuing desire to retire from the Board despite the refusal of his colleagues to act on his resignation last Monday night, Mr. Collier said:

"I have enjoyed my long tenure as a member and Chairman of the Board. My relationships with all concerned have been happy ones. I have not in the least begrudged the time that I have devoted to the affairs of our School Board. But I have served for a long time; I no longer have children who are in school. I believe that the time has come for me to step aside; that from time to time the Board should have the benefit of new viewpoints. So I hope that at a later date and with my resignation still pending as unfinished business, a new member will be appointed by the Board to take my place."

Mr. Collier was re-elected to the Board in the 1950 election and in the subsequent drawing he drew a two year term—although he had made it clear when he offered himself for reelection that he wished to serve for only one more year.

Sam Henry Rahl, veteran Secretary of the Board, said again this week that he would not offer himself for re-election when the voters of the Goldthwaite Independent School District go to the polls on April 7. It has been indicated also that Claude A. Wicker of Caradan will not offer himself as a candidate in the April 7 election. The only posts to be filled in that election are those that now are

Stone Of Scone Replica Stolen From E. B. Adams

Somebody stole the replica of the Stone of Scone from the E. B. Adams monument works on highway 16 south of Goldthwaite in the early part of Tuesday afternoon of this week, leading to speculation as to whether the symbol of American-British friendship had been removed as a "gag" or whether it was purloined in hope of profit.

SIR HARRY, SIR ERIC

Mills County Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield and Deputy Sheriff Clyde Cockrum made an inspection of the Adams monument works on Wednesday morning of this week but as the Eagle went to press the Stone, weighing approximately 485 pounds, had not been recovered.

Mr. Adams, who is Secretary-Treasurer of the Monument Builders of the Southwest, Inc., the organization that offered the Stone to replace the original that was stolen from the Coronation Chair in Westminster Abbey in London last Christmas, told Sheriff Stubblefield that on Tuesday he went to Llano between about noon and 2:30 p. m.

While he was absent, Mrs. Adams transacted business at the monument works. She noticed that the Stone was not in sight but supposed that Mr. Adams had moved it. Following the return of Mr. Adams and when a visitor asked to view the Stone, he could find no trace of it.

The monument works, which

Air Force Calls Allan Campbell To Active Duty

Major Milton Allan Campbell of Goldthwaite was recalled this week to active duty with the Air Force.

A veteran of World War II, Major Campbell long has had reserve duty which involved considerable flying time, but this week he was called to Carswell Air Base at Fort Worth for his physical examination, which he passed, and he received his

Sheriff Warns Of War Souvenirs

Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield requested this week that any person finding a relic or souvenir of war that might be explosive communicate with him at once so that danger could be averted by prompt disposal. The request was prompted by the recent finding of a charged shell on the grounds of the new home of Hope D. Schulze, west of the school. Mr. Schulze communicated with Sheriff Stubblefield who turned the object over to Fort Hood military authorities. Military and law enforcement authorities, in cooperation with the National Safety Council, have been making an effort to bring about expert disposal of any war souvenirs that might be dangerous if improperly handled.

Ray Duren Mobilizes Crews For Red Cross Effort In Goldthwaite

Thursday afternoon of this week saw the 1951 American Red Cross fund campaign "kick-off" in Goldthwaite under the city-wide chairmanship of Ray Duren. With a quota for Goldthwaite of $1,295.00, Mr. Duren said he was hopeful that it would be exceeded during the coming week.

At the Thursday afternoon meeting, Mr. Duren planned to brief his co-workers, provide them with supplies and exhibit to them the challenging film, "Red Cross Report."

(Mr. Duren requested that persons who receive their Eagle on Thursday and whose names are listed among his co-workers make it a point of attending the "kick-off" meeting at two o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Mills County Vocational School.)

The organization which Mr. Duren hopes will make a whirlwind Red Cross campaign in Goldthwaite during the next few days and the areas for which individuals will be responsible was announced as follows:

North Side of Square: David O. Clements and Gerald Head
West Side of Fisher Street from the Trent State Bank to the Piggly Wiggly Store: Lewis Hudson and Joe Bailey Karnes
East Side of Fisher Street and Third and Fourth Streets, East: Robert L. Steen and John L. Gwin
West and South Sides of

Square and Immediate Vicinity: O. O. Smith and John A. Hester
East Side of Square and Immediate Vicinity: V. C. Bradford and Howard Campbell
Third Street Between Parker and Fisher Streets: Dr. T. C. Graves
Goldthwaite High School: M. F. Hines
Goldthwaite Grammar School: Hope D. Schulze
Business Houses From Third to First Streets and to the Railroad: Hollis Blackwell
Business Houses on West Side of Fisher Street Northward From Third Street: The Rev. J. T. Ayers
All Outlying Business Establishments: John A. "Hangar" Jackson
Auction Barn: Malcolm Jernigan
Court House: E. B. Gilliam, Jr.
Soil Conservation Service: Ben R. Day
East of the Railroad: The Goldthwaite Garden Club, Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan, President
Reynolds Street and Westward: Self Culture Club, Mrs. Harold Yarborough, President
Fisher Street and Eastward to the Railroad: Art and Civic Club, Miss Elna Fouse, President
Fisher Street and Westward to Reynolds Street: Tuesday Study Club, Mrs. Roy Weatherby, President
With the campaign in Goldthwaite going into high gear, Warren P. Duren, who is General Campaign Director for all of Mills County, said that Red Cross volunteer workers are busy in all of the County communities outside the City. Mr. Warren Duren said he hoped to be able to make an encouraging announcement of campaign progress very soon.

Land Inquiries Renew Interest In Camp Bowie

Interest in whatever the future may hold for Camp Bowie was revived this week when a representative of the Army's Corps of Engineers worked on obtaining information regarding land titles in Brown, Mills, San Saba and McCulloch Counties.

There was nothing to indicate more than an effort to take preparatory steps, just in case Camp Bowie should be reactivated and expanded. Since the start of the recent and highly controversial movement in Brownwood to have Camp Bowie reactivated as a military establishment, there has been no word on definite plans from the Department of National Defense.

However, a representative of the Army Engineers has been compiling a list of land tracts and the names of the owners of the tracts in a considerable area not only in Brown County but extending into Mills County and thence into San Saba County and on toward Richland Springs. His activity has included visits to the office of County Clerk Earl Summy at the Mills County Court House.

In the absence of any official information on the activity, observers point out that the inquiries that are being made and the data that is being gathered do not necessarily mean that Camp Bowie will be reactivated or expanded. It was considered most likely that with an official decision yet to be reached, the Army Engineers were acting merely to be prepared for any possible eventuality in an uncertain situation.

It was expected, however, that any definite activity, even in the inquiry stage, would renew arguments pro and con on the desirability of reactivating Camp Bowie, especially if the move might result in expansion to provide a larger military reservation for maneuver purposes.

Mrs. Weatherby Voted President Of Local P.-T. A.

Meeting on Wednesday afternoon of this week at the Grammar School Auditorium, the Goldthwaite Parent-Teacher Association elected Mrs. Jim Weatherby to the Presidency of the organization.

At an immediately prior meeting of the P.-T. A. Executive Committee, the resignation of Mrs. O. O. Smith as President was accepted with regret.

Mrs. Weatherby will serve the P.-T. A. as its President through the academic year of 1951-1952 with the following other officers:

Mrs. Harold Yarborough, First Vice President and Program Chairman; Mrs. Delton Barnett, Second Vice President and Finance Chairman; Mrs. L. F. Bain, Third Vice President and Membership Chairman; Mrs. Norman Duren, Secretary; and Mrs. L. V. Benningfield, Treasurer.

The officers were nominated by a committee that was headed by Mrs. M. A. Campbell and on which Mrs. Joe A. Palmer and Mrs. Fred Reynolds also served. Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan, Acting

Young Goldthwaite Men To Take Army Examinations At Abilene

Bennie Bob Long, Royce Charles Head and Jesse Wayne Hammond, all of Goldthwaite, were scheduled to go to Abilene today, Friday, to take examinations for enlistment in the Army or Air Force.

Processing of the young men for military service began at the Goldthwaite Post Office on Friday of last week when they were interviewed by Recruiting Sergeant O. V. Ripley, who is a brother of Curtis Ripley of Goldthwaite.

A native of Comanche, Sgt. Ripley now makes his Headquarters in Brownwood but he comes to Goldthwaite on Friday mornings of every week when he is available at the Post Office to interview young men who may be interested in military careers. Between World War II and his own re-enlistment in the Army, Sgt. Ripley operated a cafe at Mullin. He now has seven years of military service to his own credit, including a tour of duty in the Pacific Theater during World War II.

In urging voluntary enlistments on young men, Sgt. Ripley pointed out many advantages that are offered by the Army and Air Force, including the privilege of high school graduates to select any one of about 15 schools to which they may be assigned for training as specialists.

Garden Club And City Designate Clean-Up Week Starting April 2

Get out the rakes and trash baskets and prepare to limber-up muscles that may be winter-bound—for the first week in April will be Clean-Up Week in Goldthwaite, with the Garden Club as sponsor in cooperation with the City Fathers.

Mayor Loy Long and Mrs. M. F. Horton, Chairman of the Civic Committee of the Goldthwaite Garden Club, said in a joint statement that details of the plans for Clean-Up Week will be announced later. Already, however, it has been arranged for the City to work with the Garden Club by providing trucks to cart away trash from grounds and vacant lots.

Mrs. Horton pointed out that many citizens have been working hard for some time to improve the landscaping around their homes but she pointed out also that in many parts of Goldthwaite numerous vacant lots are in a deplorable condition.

"For the sake of the attractive city that all of us desire we are most anxious to get rid of the unsightly accumulations of debris that clutter-up so many lots in Goldthwaite," Mrs. Horton said. She added that a preliminary survey by the Civic Committee of the Garden Club shows that in many places, Clean-Up Week is sorely needed.

"The city is giving the fullest possible cooperation to the Garden Club's big annual civic project," Mayor Long said. "We hope that this year Clean-Up Week will be more effective than ever before. The Garden Club and the city are giving plenty of notice so that everybody can be prepared to make the first seven days of April the most successful Clean-Up Week in our history."

A WISE DECISION

Last Monday night's unanimous vote of the Board of the Goldthwaite Independent School District refusing to accept the resignation of Superintendent H. E. Patton was a wise one and, we believe, in the best interests of our schools, the pupils and parents. As Chairman C. C. Collier and Secretary Sam Henry Rahl have pointed out, "this has been a good year for our schools." Continuity of administration now appears to be assured at least for the duration of Mr. Patton's contract, which will not expire until the end of the 1951-1952 academic year. In failing to act on the resignation of Mr. Collier as Chairman, the Board also paid tribute to him and recognized the value of his long service. Mr. Collier's continuing desire to retire from the Board is understandable, but the fact is that he remains as Chairman—at least until after the Goldthwaite Independent School District election that is to be held on April 7. As yet, no candidacies have been filed for the two posts on the Board that must be filled on April 7—the posts now held by Mr. Rahl and by Claude A. Wicker of Caradan. Candidacies may be filed with Mr. Rahl in his capacity as Secretary of the Board between now and five o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, March 28. Both Mr. Rahl and Mr. Wicker persist in not offering themselves for reelection. Unless candidacies are filed by March 28, their posts will be filled by write-ins on April 7. We hope that the voters will not be confronted by blank ballots and that they will have an opportunity to give a clear-cut expression of public opinion through the ballot box. Accordingly, and with time so short, candidates for election to the School Board ought to make their intentions clear. The only other happy but partial solution would be to draft Mr. Rahl by a great flood of write-in votes for him.

THE STENCH RISES HIGHER

How complacent can the American people be? At a time of national peril that is due to the continuing program of Russian Communist expansion by aggression, we ought to be sick at heart—and stomachs—because of the corruption in high places that is being disclosed to us daily. The disclosures, it is to be noted, are being made not by the "outs," but by members of the political party that has been entrenched in power so long—by Democrats. The stench from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has been made smellable to all of us by Senator Fulbright of Arkansas, a Democrat. The stench that arises from the link between big time gambling and vice interests on the one hand, and the controlling political party on the other hand, has been made smellable to all of us by Senator Kefauver of Tennessee—also a Democrat. They seem to be emphasizing all over again that, as the old adage says, "power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely."

As the stench spreads its fumes into even the most remote corners of the nation, it is to be remembered that when the Fulbright committee made its first temperate report on the political uses to which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had been put, President Truman called the report "assinine." It is to be remembered that despite the disclosures of the Kefauver committee of rotten reaching by vice and gambling interests into the very heart of the political machine that has been in power for so long, there has been no word from the White House deploring by so much as a single word the moral turpitude that apparently this country accepts cynically as something that goes with the way we govern ourselves.

In the week that the Supreme Court of the United States turned its back on the appeal of Alger Hiss and his appeal from his perjury conviction, this is a time to remember that when Hiss first was exposed as a tool of the Reds, it was President Truman who described those who exposed the former State Department official and counsellor to the late Franklin D. Roosevelt of dragging a "red herring."

Our hope for rescue from those whose moral standards are so low that they are able to smell the current stench and take it, is in the ballot box. In those parts of the country that have the advantage of the two-party system of government, it is not likely that the stench that rises higher and higher these days, will soon be forgotten. The day of reckoning is not too far away and when it comes, those who are complacent because they do not even know of the advantages of two-party systems of government, will be jolted into realization that even New Dealers and Fair Dealers can be thrown out of office by public indignation—indignation based on resentment against violations of the moral code.

Last week a committee was appointed to go to Austin and interview Highway Commissioner Ely, and possibly the entire commission, relative to the designation of the highway between Lometa and Goldthwaite. A survey having been made by the engineers of the commission, that seemed unreasonable and impossible.

Mrs. Mittie Lee Jenkins, 41 of Goldthwaite, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Roberts, 2108 Avenue D, Brownwood, at 8:25 o'clock Wednesday evening, March 11, after an illness of ten months.

Business pepped up somewhat with the County Clerk in the marriage license department this week, but it was all out of the county business and no home talent represented. Those securing license were W. H. Wakefield and Mrs. Nellie Jor-

Jan, both of McCullough County; Earl Fuston and Miss Pricie Duggan, both of Brownwood, L. A. Johnson of Rising Star and Miss Mary Hodges of Zephyr.

Harry Palmer left Tuesday for some point in New Mexico, to file on a tract of land, it only being required of ex-service men that they live on the land seven months. His nephew, John Bateman from Oklahoma, was expected to meet him in Amarillo and accompany him. Mrs. Palmer and little son will visit relatives in Norton until he gets located and establishes a home.

R. C. Mullin and family have been here from Dallas this week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mullin, and other relatives. They expect to return home today.

Washington News

Editor's Note: The disclosures coming from the Fulbright investigation of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation are such as to make the entire country become concerned over the cynical attitude toward moral standards in high places. We believe that the following article by Louis Bromfield represents the feeling of many citizens and we publish it here because, undoubtedly, many others are "sick of a ward-politics atmosphere at the heart of our government."

By LOUIS BROMFIELD

In a barbershop last week, I listened to a stranger discussing politics with his barber. The conversation was not cheerful. The stranger said, "It's heart-breaking to think that so much of our government is in the hands of such cheap people!" The barber responded, "Heart-breaking! It makes you sick to your stomach!"

In the conversation, the pair were feeling about, trying to analyze what was wrong and why it was wrong, the degree and quality of corruption and how it had come into national government. The barber said, "The trouble is, it's all so damn- cheap!" The conversation stayed with me for the better part of a week for it seemed to represent the point of view of the average citizen and the man in the street.

It's cheap the way Senator Connally's remark concerning the activities of Senator Kefauver and his committee is cheap. When someone mentioned Kefauver's whereabouts, Connally said, "Oh, he's off some place chasing a craps shooter." Senator Kefauver happens to be head of a committee which is trying in the face of every obstacle even from inside our government to break up the biggest and most evil ring of vice, corruption, gambling and prostitution that this or any other country has ever known.

The conversation in the barber shop was also concerned with Truman's remark on the report of Senator Fulbright's committee on the dubious activities of Truman's cronies in charge of the R. F. C. Fulbright, like Kefauver, is one of the most honorable and progressive and decent members of our senate. But Mr. Truman instead of cooperating with the committee called the report "assinine."

There are 100 other examples of the same kind of thing from politicians high in our government. The examples are worthy of the cynicism of the more evil periods of history.

The two men in the barber-shop knew that there was something rotten in our government, something perhaps not approaching the brash corruption of the Harding regime, but something which every decent citizen knew was wrong, and

The Eagle's

By The Editor

The editor long has suspected that the Eagle's Chappell Hill correspondent, Miss Pearl Crawford, has a touch of genius about her and all suspicions were justified this week when it developed that she has a way with electric eels. Before editorial comment, here is the core of the story in Miss Crawford's very own words. Hold your hats, for here we go:

"We have had a hint of some cheap electricity! As I went strolling, I came upon two electric eels—gasp! I carried them home and gave them a shot of good rain water and hooked them up to a six volt dry cell battery. In a few minutes they were buzzing and healthy again. They followed me around wherever I went. I named and belled each one of my species. I had just wired them up when news arrived that Dora Goode had come alive. That news sent my electric eels to taking off so much that I thought an electric storm had hit."

As you can see, gentle reader, Miss Crawford told her story so succinctly that she must have thought she was writing for a tabloid newspaper. We want to know the names of your electric eels, their sizes, why they react so spectacularly to news of our Star correspondent, Mrs. Dora Goode, and whether, Miss Crawford, you really used that battery to charge the eels or whether you used the eels to charge the battery. Do the eels recognize their own names? Are you about to compete with Goldthwaite City Utilities, which has as its slogan—"Use More Electricity—It's Still Cheap." Your story ought to be developed, Miss Crawford, and until you do you are going to have a lot of people on tenterhooks. If only P. T. Barrum still were alive, you would have him charging up Chappell Hill trying to acquire those electric eels for his circus.

W. C. Barnett, Manager of City Utilities in Goldthwaite, said he had heard about electric eels but he insisted they were not the source of the juice that is distributed by his organization. He shied away from any technical discussion as to what could be expected to happen when Miss Crawford wires her eels to a six volt dry cell battery. So, quite clearly, it is up to Miss Crawford to throw some more light on the startling events on Chappell Hill, even if she has to stuff her electric eels into a flashlight.

In The Eagle's Eye on the first page of last week's Eagle there was a discussion about whether spring starts officially in Mills County with the arrival of rattlesnakes, ty-lys, redbuds, butterflies and bluebirds. Rattlesnakes by W. P. "Proc" McCullough and bluebirds and arguments pro and con by Harry "Bear" Allen and Doc L. P. Huddleston featured the controversy which now has been settled to his own satisfaction by Mr. Allen.

"Tell them," Mr. Allen suggested, "that rattlesnakes, redbuds, butterflies and bluebirds are merely the harbingers of spring. If they do not know what 'harbinger' means, they can look it up in the dictionary." Mr. Allen's firm description of the advance agents of spring as "harbingers" came BEFORE the colder, windy weather that moved in last

HD Members Asked To Meet Saturday

All members of the Home Demonstration Clubs in Mills County were urged this week by Mrs. Tom McArthur, Chairman of the H. D. Council, to meet at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, at the Mills County Court House to arrange for attendance at the Texas Home Demonstration Association meeting at Stephenville on April 4.

While Mrs. McArthur and Miss Greta Sue Hines are the official delegates from the Mills County H. D. Council to the Stephenville meeting, all members of H. D. Clubs are invited to attend. Accordingly, Mrs. McArthur said, they are asked to meet with her on Saturday afternoon to plan transportation and other matters.

Flag Ceremony

Girl Scouts of Troop II met on Thursday of last week for a program of instruction in care of and respect for the American flag. A flag ceremony also marked observance of the birthday anniversary of the Girl Scout movement. Mrs. Virgil Geeslin, Troop Mother, attended the meeting.

Brownies To Skate

By BENNA VON REID
Brownie Scout Troop I celebrated the 39th birthday anniversary of the Girl Scouts last Monday at their regular meeting with a cake that had been baked by Mrs. Sam P. Sullivan. It was enjoyed by the whole troop. We thank you, Mrs. Sullivan, Troop I, along with the other two Brownie Troops, was scheduled to appear before the Goldthwaite Parent-Teacher Association on Wednesday afternoon of this week. We planned to sing the Brownie Song and recite the Brownie Promise. Our Troop will go to Lometa for a skating party on Tuesday of next week.

Executives Confer With Girl Scouts

Miss Nell Cox and Miss Ruth Wayne, Girl Scout Field and Area Executives, respectively, were in Goldthwaite on Tuesday of this week working with the local Girl Scout organization and helping to plan observances of the 39th birthday anniversary of Girl Scouting, which was observed this week. Among others, Miss Cox and Miss Wayne conferred with Mrs. Jim Weatherby, Girl Scout Area Training Chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sandstrom and their son Johnny, of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ellis and LaRita Morris of Democrat; and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hill and Virginia and Larry were guests last Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hill.

Garden Club To Discuss Flowers Next Wednesday

"Principles of Flower Arranging" will be the topic when the Goldthwaite Garden Club meets on Wednesday afternoon of next week at the Jennie Trent Dew Library.

The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. O. H. Yarborough, Mrs. Mary Yates, Mrs. Lloyd King, Mrs. P. R. Jordan and Mrs. Sam P. Sullivan.

The flower arrangement for the afternoon will be by Mrs. Jim Weatherby.

Next Wednesday afternoon's meeting will take the place of the annual pilgrimage, which now is scheduled to be conducted on April 18.

Art And Civic Club Plans Flower Sale

The annual Easter Flower Sale, sponsored by the Goldthwaite Art and Civic Club with flowers, bulbs and garden plants from Padgett Floral, will be held at the offices of the San Saba Production Credit Association on the north side of the Square in Goldthwaite all day on Saturday, March 24, it was announced this week. It was pointed out that the Flower Sale this year will offer not only an opportunity for the purchase of Easter gifts but, coming a week before the annual Clean-Up Week that is sponsored by the City of Goldthwaite and the Goldthwaite Garden Club, it will present opportunity to buy bulbs, shrubs and plants to beautify the gardens and grounds of homes.

Miss Ima Gene Winningham of the School of Business, Brownwood, visited Miss Celia Ann Simpson Friday.

Subscriptions to the Community Concerts to be offered on a membership basis in Brownwood during the 1951-1952 season now are being accepted by Mrs. Sam P. Sullivan who pointed out this week that since the list closes on Saturday, tomorrow, all interested persons should communicate with her at once or with Mrs. Sparks Bigham.

Mrs. Sullivan's telephone number is 116 and Mrs. Bigham may be reached by telephone at 139-M.

Mrs. Sullivan said that those who subscribe to the concert series will be given complimentary tickets for a concert tonight, Friday, to be given at Mims Auditorium at Howard Payne College in Brownwood by Pierrette Alarie, Canadian coloratura soprano who has had two seasons with the Paris Opera and who now is a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York.

Plans for the forthcoming concert season were made this week at a dinner meeting of the Community Concert Association in Brownwood.

"The programs that will be presented under the auspices of the Community Concert Association in Brownwood offer the nearest enrichment of our cultural life of the kind," Mrs. Sullivan said this week. "We hope that many persons in Goldthwaite and vicinity will take advantage of opportunity to subscribe to the forthcoming series of concerts by communicating promptly with me or Mrs. Bigham. Membership in the association will provide some memorable concerts."

The Rev. J. T. Ayers went to Corsicana Thursday of last week and brought Mrs. Ayers and Annette home from a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Leonard Stallings of Ballinger and Miss Ruby Long of Brownwood spent the day Saturday with the E. B. Gilliam family.

Mrs. Eula Nickols Has A Rock And She Wishes It Could Talk!

By MRS. EULA NICKOLS

Since reading a fine letter from another one of my Eagle friends, Mrs. Dora Goode, a few weeks ago, it made me want to say "hello" to her. There are still several of us who used to write every week. Mrs. Goode, you still write newsy letters. You spoke of grocery stores staying open on Sundays. We were not used to that in our day.

Neither were we used to a lot of things we are having to grin and endure now. You spoke about baking on Saturdays for Sunday's dinner. Well, I guess everybody did, and we took a bunch of large and small children to Sunday School and Church, and we got there on time. We went in wagons and buggies, and some had to walk quite a distance. Now, with nice cars, some can't get up on time to get to the Sunday morning services.

I've heard it said that people go where they want to go, and I'll agree that it is true. Mrs. Goode, keep up the spirit, and keep those letters coming every week.

Next is what a task Mr. E. B. Adams has undertaken! If those people are not proud of this stone, they should be. I have a large rock that sits by my sidewalk, which I'm really proud of. When I was a child and rode horse back, my brothers, Earl and Duke Clements, and I got up on this rock to get on our horses. Now you can guess how old it is. Sam Sullivan bought our old home so, of course, he got the rock. So I decided it wouldn't be any crime to ask Sam for it, so I did. He was very nice and gave it to me. If this rock could talk, it could tell lots of things.

My aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ford, lived at this home when some of their children had the small pox. My family lived across the road from this place, where Mr. H. D. Schulze now lives, and I would cook food for my sick kinfolks. My children would carry the food and sit it on this rock. Then they would run for dear life for fear they would get the small pox. It was my two oldest girls, Earline and Mary, who took the food. Glenn was too small for such a big task.

I am looking forward already for the stock show next year. I am anxious to see how fat John Weaver's pretty little calf can get. John sure did pose for their pictures with Y. B. Johnson's help. (Mrs. Nickols was peeking when Mrs. B. C. Wicker photographed John Weaver's Mighty Might.)

Hurrah! for Johnnie Wigley's good luck in San Angelo.

San Saba Peak

By MRS. DUTCH SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bail and little Jimmy spent the weekend in Baird with Mrs. Smith's brothers, Jack and Bill Harris and families. On Sunday they went to Abilene to see Mr. Smith's brother, Bill Williams, who had an operation on Friday. He is doing fine.

Mrs. Bill Hightower visited Mrs. Fred Laughlin in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hightower and children of Dallas visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hightower.

Mr. and Mrs. Ercher McCasland were in the Dutch Smith home one day last week and brought me a cute set of salt and pepper shakers that their son, Larry, sent. They also told us of their recent trip to Georgia which was very interesting.

Mrs. Dutch Smith visited friends in Lometa Friday while Dutch was at the Auction Barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas visited in the Fate Eckert home a few days this past week.

I am sorry I don't have any more news this week, but my neighbors surely do keep their news to themselves.

Joe Tucker Dies

Mrs. J. Everett Evans on Friday of last week received the sad tidings of the death of her brother, Joe Tucker, of Altus, Oklahoma. Mr. Tucker formerly lived in Center City. Because of illness, Mrs. Evans was unable to attend the funeral services.

Mrs. Karnes Is 87

Mrs. A. D. Karnes, who reached the 87th anniversary of her birth on Thursday of last week, was entertained as the guest of honor at a birthday dinner last Sunday by Mrs. Jim Rudd. Those who helped to celebrate and to dispose of the turkey were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey Karnes and Clara Karnes of Goldthwaite, the Misses Evelyn and Edna Routh of Ballinger, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Barnett and their sons, Curtis and Dana of Fort Worth, Loula Laceywell of Lometa and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rudd.

Somebody Is Plugging - And We Suspect The Rosebud Beauty Shop

Something new has been added to the Rosebud Beauty Shop in Goldthwaite in the person of Miss Robbie Gene Simpson, who is authority for the statement that the lady on the sofa in the illustration shown herewith "got her man" because of the job of work they did on her at Rosebud.

Miss Simpson got into such matters because this week Mrs. Margaret Bauman, owner and operator of the Rosebud Beauty Shop, announced the addition of Robbie Gene to her staff. The longer this reporter works on this story, the more he becomes convinced that there is a publicity agent not far away. Some notes provided by the Eagle's Miss Earlene Nix contain the following information:

1 - The Rosebud Beauty Shop is located on the north side of the Square in Goldthwaite.

2 - The Rosebud Beauty Shop has an advertisement elsewhere in this week's Eagle.

3 - The Rosebud Beauty Shop invites all ladies to "come in and be beautiful for Easter on their special prices."

4 - Miss Simpson formerly was associated with the H. of B. in Goldthwaite.

Take it away, Miss Nix—it is free publicity pure and simple. You should have boiled it down to a paragraph containing merely Mrs. Bauman's announcement that Miss Robbie Gene Simpson has joined her staff at — oh well, here we go again — the Rosebud Beauty Shop.

News Of Mt. Olive

By MRS. LLOYD REYNOLDS

We have been enjoying some real spring weather with the plum trees in full bloom, and some folks have pretty gardens, but I am afraid that the norther killed lots of the fruit and plants.

We enjoyed two fine sermons yesterday (Sunday) at the Caradan Church. Bro. James Newman, our new pastor, was there for the first time. He will be with us two Sundays a month, including Easter Sunday. Everyone who lives around Caradan come out to hear him, as he is a wonderful preacher. Mr. Leach who attends Howard Payne came down with Bro. Newman and spent the day.

Herbert Kerby of the armed forces came in from California to visit his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerby, before being sent to Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Kerby of Ballinger have moved back to Goldthwaite.

Jackie Gerald of Sonora came by to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gerald. Jackie has been in another state with some show cattle from the R. A. Holbert ranch.

Don Reynolds spent a few hours with home folks before going on home to Sonora where he is herdsman on the R. A. Holbert ranch.

Miss Judy Long of Goldthwaite visited Jemie Ray Mead over the weekend.

Mrs. Shoemaker gave the Junior Class of our Sunday School a treat Saturday night by taking twelve of them to the show. They also had refreshments in the Cafe. Everyone really enjoyed the party.

Deward Reynolds and son, Leo, came in from Odessa Saturday where they showed calves at San Angelo and Odessa. They really know how to raise and show pretty calves.

Mrs. Martin Heath visited her sister, Mrs. Ruben Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Jobe and sister-in-law, Mrs. M. M. Jobe, near Lubbock last week.

George Denman, who has been sick, is able to be up a little and is slowly improving.

Mrs. D. L. Reynolds and son, Roger, spent the week in Fort Worth with her husband who works up there.

Mr. and Mrs. Culp's son from Snyder visited them over the weekend.

Mrs. A. J. Cline of Goldthwaite spent Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds.

Mrs. I. Z. Woodard of Brady visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Featherston, Friday.

The quilting club met with Mrs. Dewey Gerald last Tuesday. They really have a wonderful turn out. They each one take a gift for the hostess and usually there will be around twenty women present. Several quilts are finished each time they meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ed Wylie came in from Roxton Friday night for a visit with relatives.

The Bold Galilean At Methodist Church

The Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor, announced this week that next Sunday night's service at the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite will be built around the message of the book, "The Bold Galilean," by Legette Blythe. Brother Lovelace said that the message will be presented in condensed form by Miss Love Gatlin.

"Those who have heard Miss Gatlin will know that she is a master in this field," Brother Lovelace said. "The public is invited to attend the service, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night."

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams of Jayton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hardgrave and children.

Raymond F. King Receives Husband's Bravery Awards

Mrs. King said the first of the decorations to the late husband were awarded to Lieutenant King for heroism in action in the last week of the war.

to the highest degree those attributes of courage, moral integrity and fidelity which make our country great and will further insure ultimate victory to the forces of freedom.

"As a soldier, I desire to pay this, my personal tribute, to the memory of an outstanding American."

"Sincerely yours,
LeR. Lutes
Lieutenant General, U.S. Army Commanding."

With the letter to Mrs. King from General Lutes there came the following General Orders:

GENERAL ORDERS 117 Section I

AWARD OF THE SILVER STAR—(POSTHUMOUS)—By direction of the President under the provisions of Act of Congress approved 9 July 1918 (WD Bul 43, 1918) and pursuant to authority contained in AR 600-45, the Silver Star for gallantry in action is awarded posthumously to the following named officer:

FIRST LIEUTENANT RAYMOND F. KING, 02011764, Infantry, Army of the United States.

FOR GALLANTRY

LIEUT. KING

States, a member of Headquarters Company, 38th Infantry Regiment, 2nd Infantry Division, is cited for gallantry in action against an armed enemy from 18 September 1950 to 21 September 1950 in the vicinity of Sing-dang-dong, Korea. During this period, as an anti-tank and mine platoon leader, he continually operated far in advance of the leading elements of the infantry and tank units. He personally undertook the dangerous task of removing enemy anti-tank mines while under direct observation and subjected to the intense machine gun fire of the enemy. On one occasion he went far beyond the leading elements of an attacking infantry battalion to clear an enemy mine field. Probing the ground, while under direct enemy small arms and machine gun fire, he removed the entire mine field, thus enabling the supporting armor to proceed in safety. Lieutenant King's gallantry in action, with utter disregard for his own safety, reflects great credit upon himself and is in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service. Entered the military service from Texas.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL MCCLURE

GENERAL ORDER 2 Section I

AWARD OF THE FIRST BRONZE OAK LEAF CLUSTER TO THE SILVER STAR—First Lieutenant Raymond F. King displayed gallantry in action against an armed enemy on 23 September 1950 in the vicinity of Chogye, Korea. On that date, as an anti-tank and mine platoon leader, he personally undertook the dangerous task, with five other members of his platoon, of removing enemy anti-tank mines while under direct observation and subjected to the intense fire of the enemy. With complete disregard for his own safety he continued to probe the ground and, after killing three enemy snipers with his carbine, resumed his task of clearing the road, although still under intense enemy fire. At the moment of removing the last mine, he fell mortally wounded. His daring and resolute action in the face of the gravest danger and at the sacrifice of his own life made it possible for the tanks to renew their advance and enabled them and the infantry to overcome the stubborn resistance of the enemy. The gallantry and high devotion to duty displayed by Lieutenant King reflect great credit upon himself and are in keeping with the fine traditions of the military service. Entered the military service from Texas.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL MCCLURE

With the letter from General Lutes and the two citations that were ordered by General McClure, Mrs. King received two certificates that were signed by Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, Jr., and by Major General Edwin A. Witzell, the Adjutant General.

Mrs. King lives with her two small children, Terrell and Charlotte.

By chartered bus, 35 persons were scheduled to leave the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite at four o'clock on Thursday afternoon of this week to attend revival services that are being conducted at the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Fort Worth by Evangelist Billy Graham, it was announced this week by the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the Church.

Brother Ayers said that seats for the Goldthwaite delegation have been reserved at the Coliseum in Fort Worth. He added that if sufficient interest should develop in chartering another bus to attend the Billy Graham services at a later date the necessary steps would be taken. Persons interested in such a project were invited to communicate with Brother Ayers.

Mrs. Lewis Pafford and Mrs. Al Truman Langford were recent visitors with their sister, Holy Week will be observed by the First Methodist Church of Goldthwaite with services every night next week, it has been announced by the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor. Brother Lovelace said that the nightly Holy Week services will start at 7:30 o'clock.

The general theme for the services will be "Personalities of the Passion" and will include consideration of some of those who shared in the Lord's Passion and some who were responsible for His crucifixion. Brother Lovelace said in extending a cordial invitation to all persons to attend the services.

On Easter Sunday, March 25, Brother Lovelace said, one of the most impressive features will be an infant baptismal service. It will precede the regular Easter Sunday morning service of worship.

"Infant baptism is a symbol that parents present their children for dedication to God," Brother Lovelace said. "Parents also assume the responsibility of endeavoring to rear their children in such a way that it will be natural and easy for them to accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior when they have reached the age to choose for themselves. In the baptism of children the Church likewise assumes a heavier responsibility for their nurture in the Christian faith. When baptized, children are enrolled as 'preparatory members,' but are not counted as Church members until they assume the vows of Church membership."

Mrs. Hilton Burleson in Grand Prairie, and with their nephew, Jimmy Holland, in Methodist Hospital, Dallas. Mrs. L. T. Reed and Mrs. Joe Holland accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Vance and Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Ford spent Sunday in San Angelo with the latter's sister and family.

Food Baskets Won At Loy Long Gro.

The lucky Mills County residents won baskets of food worth ten dollars each or more at the Loy Long Grocery on Saturday of last week when several thousand persons registered for the prizes that Mr. Long had offered. The winners were Dave Nugent of Jones Valley, Mrs. V. C. Fangelquist of Star and Mrs. F. Burkett, Walter D. Shipman, Mrs. Robert L. Steen, Mrs. E. O. Shepherd, Mrs. D. R. Edgington, Mrs. Lee Parker, Mrs. Ellen Galloway and Mrs. R. V. Geeslin, all of Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Elan Kelly and Brenda and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kelly took the latter's grandson, Jimmy Tolle, to his home at Houston Friday of last week after a month's visit here. They visited the Tolle family and also Mr. and Mrs. Leon Boeker.

HEY EVERYBODY! FINE MUSIC NEXT WEDNESDAY MORNING

Pictured above are the members of the Concert Band of Howard Payne College in Brownwood which will play at the Goldthwaite School Gymnasium at 9:15 o'clock on Wednesday morning of next week under the direction of A. T. Estes, Jr. That's right; maybe you already have read about the big concert on page 3 of this week's Eagle but this story is to remind you of what you will be missing if you do not take advantage of an opportunity to hear some stirring music. Be sure to give your child a dime next Wednesday morning before he goes to school—if he attends the Goldthwaite school—so that he will be able to hear the concert.

Director Howard E. Gill of the Goldthwaite School Band wants to remind everybody that adults, too, will be welcome at next Wednesday morning's band concert and that admission will involve merely a free will offering at the door. The proceeds from the concert will be used for the instrument fund of the Goldthwaite School Band, which has been making great progress and which will participate in the Interscholastic League Music Competition in Brownwood next month. "Be A Band Booster!" That is just what you will be if you hear the band concert at the Goldthwaite School Gymnasium next Wednesday morning.

The concert will include solo numbers, mass music and a performance by a smaller group that is called the "Stage Band." Two of the band numbers on the program will be "Victor Herbert Favorites" arranged by M. L. Lake, and a negro spiritual number, "Cabins," by Gillette. In connection with the Easter season, the Band is featuring variations of a fantasy on the hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," called "Faith Eternal."

Mrs. Blackburn Has Operation

Mrs. George Blackburn of Goldthwaite, who has been a patient in the John Sealy Hospital at Galveston since February 25, submitted to a major surgical operation on Tuesday of this week. Her daughter, Mrs. Paul Koshi, was able to report on Wednesday that despite the seriousness of Mrs. Blackburn's illness, she was progressing as favorably as could be expected.

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

March is the month for planting and sowing. Allan Hardgrave leased the grass seed drill and planted eight acres to bluestem mixture in a field he planned to turn out.

Ervin Fisher, Prairie Grove, planted two acres to Indiangrass for seed production. Mr. Fisher hand stripped enough Indiangrass seed last fall to seed the two acre plot.

W. A. Hill scattered the King Ranch bluestem hay that he harvested last fall on the pasture land where he had run the eccentric disc to prepare a suitable seedbed in a trap pasture. The eccentric disc leaves the land pitted to hold moisture and the fresh turned soil makes an ideal condition for grass seedlings to grow.

W. P. McCullough has plenty of King Ranch bluestem and Sideoats Grama on hand to sow on several fields on his ranch. He has plowed the fields and will sow the grasses with a two row planter owned by the district. The planter has a sword opener and a packer wheel that plants the grass at the proper depth.

Dr. T. C. Graves has enough hand stripped Indiangrass seed on hand to plant a nine acre field for seed production. Roy Dellis will use the two-row planter to put the seed out.

J. H. Priddy donated five used discs from his one-way plow to make an eccentric disc for use in this part of the district. Ben R. Day, Work Unit Conservationist, marked a line on each disc and W. H. Linkenhogger cut a portion of each disc off according to directions. These discs can now be mounted on almost any one-way plow and be used to prepare a suitable seedbed for grass seeding in a permanent pasture or an old field where it would be impractical to break the land.

W. A. Hill plans to use the "lopsided discs" on his one-way plow to plow the land on his Pecan Bayou farm before he scatters any seed. The discs are available for others to use if they have grass seeds to scatter on hard ground.

Hub Howard Tells About Opening Day

When Hub Howard opened his new Humble service station on the east side of the Square in Goldthwaite last Saturday afternoon he gave away 500 orchids to ladies, 2,000 key chains to men and 2,500 balloons to small boys, he said when the excitement was all over. Orchids still were in demand when the supply ran out. Totting up the results of an exciting day, Mr. Howard found that he had sold 1,225 gallons of gasoline and 68 quarts of oil.

Personals

Miss Betty Carol Woodard, her brother Bobby and her mother, Mrs. I. Z. Woodard of Brady, visited Mrs. G. C. Featherston on Thursday of last week. Mrs. Featherston is Mrs. Woodard's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sims of San Antonio were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. J. D. Sims. They also visited his sister, Mrs. R. V. Littlepage and Mr. Littlepage.

Miss Lula Jackson is in Inola, Oklahoma, visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lynch.

Waco Veterans Cheered Sunday By Our Visitors

Last Sunday afternoon was made much brighter for many hospitalized men at the Veterans Administration in Waco because of entertainment and refreshments that were provided by representatives of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Goldthwaite Lions Club.

Hospitalized men in Ward 90 were vastly entertained by piano and vocal music presented by Miss Elizabeth Haggood, Miss Betty John Jackson and the justly famous Goldthwaite High School quartet which has Virgil Terry, Fred Smart, Harvey Parker and Jimmy Hays as its members.

In addition to the entertainers, the Mills County delegation to Waco was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Archer, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Childress, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Baln and Executive Secretary Brian Smith of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Generous ladies in Mills County had baked 13 cakes, which were served to the disabled veterans at Waco. Punch and hard candy were served with the cake and the Lions Club-Red Cross delegates also distributed cigarettes and cigars. "The veterans at Waco surely enjoyed the afternoon and they

Mrs. Webb Is 79

Mrs. F. D. Webb of Goldthwaite, who was 79 last Monday, celebrated her birthday anniversary last Sunday when members of her family gathered to mark the occasion. Those who attended the party in honor of Mrs. Webb were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Steele of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed of Lometa, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frizzelle of Goldthwaite and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steele and their daughter, Mary Kay, of San Angelo.

They were most grateful for the gifts and the good time," Mr. Smith said.

The periodic visits to the Veterans Administration Hospital at Waco represent a long-standing project of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Goldthwaite Lions Club.

All At Eagle Field Night March 23 Planned By QB Club

Football at Eagle Field in Goldthwaite on the night of Friday, March 23, will offer the public generally a chance to see the results of spring training by the Goldthwaite High School Eagles.

Game time will be at eight o'clock on the night of March 23 and opposing sides will be selected from the squad of approximately 70 junior and senior gridiron candidates who have been working out under the direction of Coach Carl Knox and Assistant Coach Jack Locklear since February 23.

On Friday night of last week some 69 junior and senior football players turned out in uniform at Eagle Field to go through their paces for the benefit of members of the Quarterback Club and their families.

"The scrimmage was so successful that it was decided at a Quarterback Club meeting to have the Eagles demonstrate their prowess to the general public on the night of March 23," President E. B. Gilliam, Jr., of the Quarterback Club said.

A committee consisting of School Superintendent H. E. Patton and Coaches Knox and Locklear announced that the intramural game on Friday night of next week will be open to everybody. There will be no admission charge but a free will offering by those who attend can be placed in a receptacle that will be available at the gate, the committee said.

Mr. Gilliam said that further details regarding the game at Eagle Field on the night of March 23 will be announced in next week's Eagle. He added that last Friday night a representative group of Quarterback Club members and their families witnessed the scrimmage of the local football players. They were so enthusiastic over the results of the spring training, Mr. Gilliam said, that the intramural game that has been scheduled for Friday night of next week was decided upon at a Quarterback Club business meeting held at the school lunchroom after the scrimmage.

The Quarterback Club is an organization of citizens who have banded together to support all of the athletic programs of the Goldthwaite Schools. Mr. Gilliam said that everybody is invited to join and that Treasurer Alfred Carter will be glad to accept initiation fees and dues at the Trent State Bank.

John Gilliam was on the flu list last week.

Mrs. Weatherby Says Please Turn In End Flaps Now

If you have been saving the end flaps from packages of Mrs. Tucker's Meadolake Margarine, then for goodness sake please send them to Mrs. Jim Weatherby right away so that she may start collecting five cents for each one of them to help the Goldthwaite Garden Club to landscape the grounds of the Jennie Trent Dew Library.

Mrs. Weatherby, who is Chairman of the Garden Club's Library Committee, said this week that while end flaps from packages of Meadolake Margarine are worth five cents each to the Club until April 10, they should be sent in for collection at weekly intervals. She also reminded everybody that five cents for each end flap can be collected only by organizations.

Landscaping and beautifying the grounds of the Jennie Trent Dew Library is one of the Garden Club's major civic projects for this year. The idea of collecting end flaps from Meadolake Margarine is to help out with the financing of the project.

If it is more convenient for you, Mrs. Weatherby said, please leave the end flaps with your grocer and he will deliver them to the Garden Club's Library Committee.

Music Students In Recital Tuesday

Lorain Burdette, who studies vocal music with Mrs. Sam P. Sullivan, and Virginia Carol Hill, a piano pupil of Mrs. Hope D. Schulze, were presented in a recital by the Brownwood District Music Teachers Association in Brownwood on Tuesday night of this week. Miss Burdette sang "Rain," by Correy, and Miss Hill played "Prelude to Spring," by Mowry.

Among the many sick with the flu are the two little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Turbville.

In response to a message Saturday that their daughter in Abilene was seriously ill, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawson left at once to be at her bedside.

Crop insurance is proving successful as a result of an experimental program begun three years ago. Before then an insurance program applied to cotton and wheat turned out to be too expensive and Congress ordered it dropped.

The experimental plan which followed has been closely watched to see if such a program, carefully supervised and operated, could be actuarially sound.

Last year the reports of the previous year's experiment looked good. More counties were added to further test the plan. The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has recently announced that a net profit was made during the past year, as was true the year before.

Today, the insurance experiments are applied to cotton, wheat, flax, beans, corn, and to multiple coverage of all crops produced on a farm. New crops are added each year.

It may be a bit early to become too optimistic, but every indication now points to a permanent, actuarially sound, crop insurance program, within reach of the average farmer who desires to insure his crop against the hazards of drought, grasshoppers, insects, floods, hail, and other uncertainties that plague the average producer.

In charge of Accounting in the Crop Insurance branch office in Chicago is Wilbur Brown of Richland Springs. Brown came to Washington last week to attend a business meeting and make a report to the top men in the Insurance Agency.

Other recent visitors have included Earl Rudder of Brady, Ernest Bayett of Telegraph, Bob Reed of San Angelo, Forrest Kyle of Bangs, Wendell Mayes of Brownwood, J. V. Hammett of Lampasas, O. L. Hammett of Huntsville, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wardlow of Del Rio, M. D. Fanning, Bryan Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown, Newell Griffin, and Charles Upton Sheffield—all of San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jackson and children of Santa Fe, New Mexico have moved to Goldthwaite to make their home.

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

Old Man Winter took another whack at us this weekend, making us wonder, "Will the feed last till the grass gets green? Will there be any fruit this year? Will there be any rain?" Just a few drops on the house each night, then its "Gone with the Wind."

The Griffin peach orchard is in bloom, but its tiny Elberta blooms make only a rosy glow. Not that lovely pink cloud that is my earliest remembrance of the blooming peach orchards around that little cottage town of Thorp Spring near Fort Worth. That is the earliest home I can remember. And there my mother taught French and German and my father taught Greek and Latin in old Add Ran, now Texas Christian University.

The trip to town was unusually happy this last week. A pink-blossom peach tree was in full bloom in Effie Egger's yard, and redbuds were blooming along the way. And that Richland Springs road was almost as smooth as pavement. Great mounds of crushed rock were piled at intervals, just ready for the topping.

The town was full of teachers. Across the street from my laundry I could see their shiny cars parked for blocks around the schoolhouse. At noon at Schwartz they came in droves, all dressed in their spring best. You could not find a finer crowd. I love teachers. And teachers' meetings have long been one of my best-loved hobbies. From the summer of 1905 when Dr. Butler of North Texas State College at Denton asked us to meet him at the State Teachers' Association at San Antonio Christmas, I hardly missed a meeting throughout my long, off-again, on-again teaching career.

I wish I could have heard Mrs. Ruth Bryan Rhode as she spoke Thursday night on "There is a Road to Peace." I heard her father, the late William Jennings Bryan, speak on "The Commoner" to a huge audience at the State Teachers' Association in Houston Christmas, 1902.

The Ralph Wilmeths of Miles came by the Briley place on their way down to the river at the Wilmeth ranch Saturday afternoon. They had with them Mary Ann Mocer and Betty Gray of Miles and Vivian Vogel of Brownwood. They picked up their pony that boards at the Briley farm and took her with them. By taking turns, the children all got to ride her.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger and Jerry went to Brownwood Sunday where they met Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Egger of Seminole at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wister Egger.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Egger of Brownwood spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egger.

Sammy Howze and two friends came out from Brownwood Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howze, at the Effie Egger place.

Shirley Fisher of Mullin spent the weekend with Ynell Egger. Also at the Cecil Egger home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Orvey Egger and Layton of Indian Creek.

Mrs. Gene Egger visited her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ketchum, at Brownwood Friday.

Clayton Egger dropped by the Whittenburg place last week and found Charm helping Verla make flower beds. He said, "I see who's boss around here now." Verla said, "Well, I think you need a boss, and a cook too." Clayton answered, "Please don't tell my mamma that."

The Briley home had callers Monday, that disagreeable, rampageous, sand-storm day. Mrs. Edna Dwyer came to make soap (one of her skills). Of all days to make soap! But she defied the wind and the cold and the sand. And presto! there was a nice pot of soap. Hubert Reeves came by on the Red Cross drive. He said it was a better day for riding in the car than riding a tractor in the field. He informs us that despite the drouth, he has forty acres of corn just ready to come up. He thinks this cold will damage the fruit. He tells us that Nancy and Joe each have a 4-H club calf for this coming year.

Miss Brockie McCasland of Abilene spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCasland and Grandmother Shaw.

By PEARL CRAWFORD

We sure did enjoy a few days of warm weather. Most everyone did some kind of work.

G. H. Crawford planted corn. Bill Partin planted broom-corn and maize.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith hauled rocks and did a lot of work around their place. You may say that they just brightened up the old homestead.

Bill Partin helped J. C. Bramblett with some stock Wednesday.

O. A. Evans was helping J. C. Bramblett dress a yearling at the Bramblett home last Monday when he stumbled some way, and had the misfortune of getting his left arm broke just above the wrist. Mr. Evans is being treated at the Childress Clinic. We hope for Mr. Evans a speedy recovery.

Our mail carrier, Col. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., is in our news because he has just completed a task which he has been thinking of so long. He just turned the B. J. Crawford, N. C. Karnes, and Tom Stevens mail boxes around, so now we can drive off the highway to receive our mail. Mr. Tom Stevens gave a helping hand. He took his spade and leveled the roadbed down.

Most everyone in this community attended the Loy Long Grocery Store and Hub Howard Station Party in Goldthwaite Saturday. Friends and neighbors just had a big get-together, with lots to eat and gifts to bring home.

I was very happy to see three of my good old neighbors Saturday. They were Mrs. Maude Parker, Mrs. W. W. Johnson and Mrs. J. B. F. Wigley.

Little Jimmie Clyde Partin and little W. P. Oxford were also in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barrington and daughters of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Stevens; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. and Mrs. Maude Parker were recent guests of Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Miss Lola. We were happy to learn that Grady Stevens was doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin, Thomas and Jimmie Clyde have surely been enjoying their brand new Ford pickup. George Crawford was about the first who took a ride with them, and he said it was nice.

Mrs. Allan Hardgrave visited Mrs. Tom Stevens last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith, Sr., of Gatesville, spent Thursday and Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith, Jr.

Those who called in the Bill Partin home were: Edwin and Mildred Stevens; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bramblett; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Priddy; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Partin; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Partin; Jay Partin; O. A. Evans and Tom Stevens; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith; and H. P. Harris of Caradan.

This scribe and Tom Stevens were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans Thursday. Others who have called at the Evans home are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Conner, Mary and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ivy; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens, Mildred and Edwin Stevens; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G.; and Bob, Ruth and Ruby Reynolds. We were all happy at last report to know that O. A. was doing "much better."

Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Priddy and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Lee Priddy Friday night.

Mrs. Floyd Partin spent a few days at the Gorman Hospital. She was doing nicely Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Humphries and family were victims of the flu a few days. Mr. Humphries and Charles were able to come to the farm Saturday.

Edwin Stevens has been a representative of a northern seed company, and has called in most all the homes. He called at the N. C. Karnes, F. H. Tieman and W. P. Oxford homes Saturday. Edwin reports a happy reception.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Conner, Neal, Mary and Dorothy attended Church at Mullin last Sunday, and on their way home, they called to see Mr. Vaughan, who has been seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. were Sunday dinner guests in the B. J. Crawford home.

The Center City Cemetery Appeals For Some Urgently Needed Funds

The Center City Cemetery Association, following a reorganization meeting, has made an appeal for funds that will be essential to successful operation.

Walter M. Tubbs, Secretary of the Association, announced this week that there is to be a minimum fee of $2.00 per patron each year and he requested urgently that payments or contributions by all interested persons be sent to him at Rt. 3, Goldthwaite, or direct to the Trent State Bank for deposit to the account of the Center City Cemetery Association.

"At a meeting of the Association at the Cemetery on March 6 the Center City Cemetery Association was organized," Mr. Tubbs said. "A committee of three—Cary Owens, President; Martin McCasland, Vice President; and Walter M. Tubbs, Secretary—was elected as managers. The purpose of the organization is to clean, improve and to maintain a more beautiful Cemetery.

"A decision to meet twice a year for the purpose of working the grounds was made. But to operate successfully, we must have funds. We are deeply grateful for a donation of $1,000.00 by the late Wess Dalton. However, to add to the Center City Cemetery Account, a minimum fee of $2.00 per patron per year has been agreed upon. The Association will be happy to accept more from those who cannot attend our Work Meetings, or who feel able to contribute more to the organization.

"Please mail your contributions to Secretary Walter M. Tubbs, Rt. 3, Goldthwaite or deposit directly at the Trent State Bank in Goldthwaite, so that they may be recorded on our books, deposited to our account and used to the best advantage for the care of our Cemetery."

tion friends and appointees to sell their influence.

The name of the chairman of the Democratic national committee has been mentioned again and again in recent testimony. And how could Hannegan, former chairman, with no visible means of big income, leave an estate of $1,500,000 in times of confiscating taxes? How does an insignificant clerk, whose wife occupies a position of authority in the White House itself, increase his income overnight from $1800 a year to an admitted income high in five figures? Where there is smoke there must be fire. Apparently men high in government see nothing wrong in selling their influence. They look upon it merely as their proper reward. That is why many of them are in politics.

Worse than any financial dishonesty is the kind of decadent moral standards which lie behind all this. They are the moral standards of the cheap, conniving ward politician—snide standards, with greater loyalty to cheap fellow politicians than to the community or the nation. They are the moral standards of machine politics carried to and past the borders of corruption.

It is the kind of subtle corruption which can destroy faith in democracy and a people's trust in their own government, not to mention the aid and comfort given to the Communists.

I do not believe that the people approve of such indecencies or that they are indifferent to them. If there are any doubts one has only to look at the results of the most recent elections: The triumphant success of men of integrity like Governor Lausche and Senator Taft in Ohio, the defeat of Lucas in Illinois with his close ties to the evil Democratic Chicago machine, the triumph of Impellitteri in New York, without funds and virtually without organization, over the notorious Tammany organization and Ed Flynn's intrigues.

Intuition tells me that in the next election the prizes will go to those men who exert themselves most to clean up government, to make it respectable once more to the man in the street, to make it again a government worthy of a great people who must, whether they choose or not, lead the world. There is a revolution at hand, but not the kind counted upon by the Communists and their "pink" friends. It is simmering in the minds of men and women everywhere in the nation. The reactions of the people are sometimes slow but in the end they are sound and overwhelming. They are sick of a ward-politics atmosphere at the very heart of our government.

Christian Science Services

"Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay" emphatically states Mary Baker Eddy on page 468 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." This positive assertion that substance is spiritual - not material - therefore enduring, is the theme of the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, March 18.

The Golden Text is from Psalms 104:31, and reads, "The glory of the Lord shall endure for ever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works." Further explaining that what God made cannot decay is this verse from the Bible, Psalms 93:1, included in the Lesson-Sermon: "The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved."

FOR SALE

I have 407½ acres of land with nearly 300 acres of deep black land in cultivation and 107½ acres in pasture. The farm land produces large amounts of corn, cotton, small grains and sorghums.

The entire tract lies in the center of one of the greatest gas producing fields of Texas and has a gas well that has tested more than Thirty Million cubic feet per 24 hour day.

The gas shows a large per cent of high grade crude and casing head gasoline.

There is a large barn and a large, rambling, old style ranch type dwelling on the farm.

This giant gas well and extra good land should make this farm rate A GOOD BUY AT ANY PRICE.

See or write me, if interested.

Eagle's Eye

with the news of the loss of the Stone of Scone and the widespread search that was being made for it by Sheriff Stubblefield and Deputy Sheriff Cockrum. The Associated Press telephoned to the Eagle to inquire if the replica of the Stone of Scone really had been stolen and as I replied in the affirmative, I nearly choked up with emotion—if only because of the thought of Happy Adams and Bear Allen bereft of their Knighthoods.

There are, I think, some other tears to be shed over the sudden disappearance of the replica of the Stone of Scone last Tuesday. Consider, if you will, Sheriff Stubblefield and his minion, Clyde Cockrum. If you were the Sheriff or his Deputy, where in the world in Mills County would you start to look if you have to find an object weighing 485 pounds and that yet bore no resemblance to a calf?

In my time in Mills County I have known the officers of the law to go searching for all sorts of items, human and otherwise. They have had to cope with numerous brawls that got too social; they have had to search for unbranded cattle; they had to run bums into some other Sheriff's County. But so help me, I doubt that until Wednesday morning of this week Sheriff Stubblefield and Deputy Cockrum ever had to ponder whether hiding out in the hills there could be a cell of Scottish Nationalists.

Scottish Nationalists, you know, stole the original Stone of Scone from Westminster Abbey in London last Christmas. The British had swiped the rock from the Scots and the Irish made a lot of noise in the course of accusing the Scots of taking the Stone from Ireland in the first place. As one time, when Jacob is reputed to have used the Stone as a pillow, it was the property of the Hebrews. With all that background, Sheriff Stubblefield and Deputy Cockrum had to think over a long list of names in Mills County.

There are many names in these parts such as McLean, McDonald, Bruce, Burns, Campbell, Ferguson, Frazier, Hunt, Laird, Robertson, Shaw and others that at one time may have had their hearts in the Highlands. But they, like the Kellys, the Sullivans and those whose hearts once may have been in the Emerald Isle, are 100 years or more out of either Scotland or Ireland. Texans, they are, and Texans they always will be, and for Sheriff Stubblefield to accuse anybody in Mills County of being a fiery Scottish Nationalist might well endanger his chances for reelection some two years hence. Those with names of Irish hue are a bit more easy-going about their ancestry, but it would do the Sheriff no good to question a Kelly or a Sullivan on the subject of who swiped the replica of the Stone of Scone.

Just about the best question I have heard on this whole subject came on Wednesday afternoon of this week when Editor Jones of the Brownwood Bulletin telephoned to ask: "Did the thieves who took the Stone of Scone by any chance leave a little sprig of heather behind them?"

The next best came from the Eagle's Miss Earlene Nix who, shedding a tear over the fact that in this week's Eagle there is no advertisement for Archer Grocery, suggested that Leonard Archer doubtless was in his rowboat carrying the Stone of Scone across the Atlantic to London with, of course, Mrs. Archer at the oars.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Wilson and children were here one day last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rudd and friends.

Stone Of Scone

is open on its east side, is equipped with a hoist-crane that works on overhead tracks and anyone familiar with the equipment would have had no difficulty in loading the Stone into a truck or pickup during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

At the time the stone was stolen, Mr. Adams was waiting for word from the British Embassy in Washington as to whether the symbolic gift would be accepted and if so, where it would be shipped.

If the British should decide to accept the replica on which Mr. Adams worked so hard upon the inspiration of Harry Allen, and with the aid of W. H. Linkenhoger, who made duplicate iron rings for the Stone, he would be in the embarrassing position of not being able to deliver until the heavy object is recovered.

Beyond speculation that the Stone could have been taken by a person or persons trying to have some fun at the expense of Mr. Adams, the suggestion was advanced that it might have been stolen by someone having a mistaken idea that it had intrinsic value or that a reward for its recovery might be offered. Actually, the Stone represented merely a friendly gesture by Americans to the British people.

Sheriff Stubblefield appeared to discount the possibility that Scottish Nationalists—who were accused of taking the original Stone of Scone from Westminster Abbey last Christmas—might be operating in this area.

However, since the offer of his replica by Mr. Adams, he has heard both by mail and telephone from persons whose communications appeared to be eccentric. But they would not be likely to be familiar with the setup at the Adams monument works and Sheriff Stubblefield said on Wednesday morning that the removal of the Stone seemed to have been a job done by a professional.

Mt. Olive Services Saturday, Sunday

Services will be held at the Mt. Olive Church next Saturday and Sunday with preaching by Elder Jesse Bass of Crosbyton. It was announced this week that Elder Bass will preach at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night and again at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning.

School Board

held by Mr. Rahl and Mr. Wicker. Mr. Rahl was informed of widespread discussion of plans to draft him for further service on the Board by means of write-in votes in the April 7 election. He declined to comment on such proposals, pointing out, instead, that for the names of candidates to be printed on the ballot for the April 7 election, their candidacies must be filed with him as Secretary of the Board on or before five o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, March 28.

Commenting on the refusal of the School Board to accept the resignation of Mr. Patton last Monday night, Mr. Rahl independently made a statement that was a close parallel to that made by Mr. Collier. Mr. Rahl also pointed to the harmonious relationship between the Board and the School Administration and said that he had been gratified by the smooth functioning of the Goldthwaite schools during the past academic year.

J. Millard Cockrum Due Home Soonest

As of Tuesday night of this week, James Millard Cockrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Cockrum of Goldthwaite, weighed five pounds and five ounces and it was expected that during the next few days he would be brought home from the Scott and White Hospital in Temple. In fact, among the Cockrum clan there has been a sweepstakes on just what day J. Millard, who will be a month old tomorrow, Saturday, would make his first entry to the ancestral home. Whatever the day may be, J. Millard, welcome.

Easter Revival At Jones Valley

The Rev. L. C. Sparkman announced this week that the advent of the Easter season will be marked by revival services at the Jones Valley Baptist Church. Brother Sparkman said that the revival will start next Friday night, March 23, and that it will continue through Easter Sunday night. He issued a cordial invitation to everybody to join in the Jones Valley Easter revival.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle T. Horton and little daughter of San Antonio spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Horton and family at Caradan.

Allan Campbell

orders to active duty on Wednesday of this week.

Major Campbell entered what then was the Army Air Force—before unification of the armed services—on November 22, 1940. He trained in California before going overseas in August of 1945. After six months of service in the Pacific sector, Major Campbell served with the 346th Bomb Group. He was released to inactive service in 1946 but he continued to meet all of the qualifications of a reserve officer.

A son of Mrs. J. M. Campbell and the late, revered Dr. J. L. Campbell, Major Campbell for some time has operated the Campbell Butane Company on the northeast corner of Fourth and Fisher Streets in Goldthwaite where, at all times, he has been most generous with his premises for civic purposes such as bake sales by organizations.

Major Campbell has two children—a daughter Anita, who is 7; and a son, James, who is four. Mrs. Campbell is the former Kay Stockton, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stockton of Goldthwaite.

Since the outbreak of hostilities in Korea Major Campbell has spent considerable time away from Goldthwaite putting in flying time from Carswell Field.

Mrs. Weatherby

President of the P.-T. A. since the resignation of Mrs. Smith, presided over Wednesday afternoon's meeting which, in addition to the election of officers, observed the 39th birthday anniversary of the Girl Scout movement.

Mrs. Grady Carothers was the leader and a number of members of Brownie and Girl Scout Troops in Goldthwaite participated in the program, which included Girl Scout songs and recital of the Girl Scout Promise.

The meeting also was featured by a symposium under the leadership of Miss Mary Elna Fouse on the topic: "Shall the High Schools Educate for Marriage and Home Relationship?"

In the course of Wednesday afternoon's P.-T. A. meeting, Mrs. Weatherby made a gracious little speech in which she not only accepted the Presidency of the organization for the academic year 1951-1952 but in which she also agreed to serve out the unexpired term of Mrs. Smith, who resigned a little more than two weeks ago.

Mrs. Roger Smith, Sr., and Mrs. Roger Smith, Jr., visited Pearl Crawford Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Roger Smith, Sr., is the former Maggie Lasley. She surely has a host of old friends, who are always happy to hear from her.

Our first state college—Texas A. and M. is now in its seventy-fifth year

GEORGE PFEUFFER

An emigrant boy who came to Texas in the days of the Republic and carved out a brilliant career as merchant and statesman, George Pfeuffer was one of the early Texans of great vision who made possible the development of the A. and M. College. He came to this country with his family at the age of 15, from his native Bavaria and settled at New Braunfels, where, after a number of years he and a brother established themselves as leading merchants. Soon he spread his holdings throughout the state, in the lumber business and even established sizeable holdings in Mexico. He served as county judge of Comal County and later served with distinction as a state senator. He was appointed a member of the board of directors of A. and M. College in 1880, and developed a deep interest in its educational opportunities, which he carried with him to the Senate. Almost singlehandedly he fought the battles of the college in the Senate at a time when it was being neglected while the new State University was being created. Pfeuffer Hall, oldest building standing on the A. and M. Campus today, was named in his honor.
