Sheriff Stubblefield Breaks Up Cattle Rustling Over Wide Area

Mills County Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield this week was receiving thanks from cattlemen throughout an area covered by nine counties because his persistent police work led to the break-up of a ring of alleged rustlers who will be tried for the high crime of stealing livestock.

Mayor Loy Long Asks Continuance Of Rabies Fight

Mayor Loy Long this week urged all owners of dogs and cats to continue to keep their animals confined until further notice because of a case of rabies that was confirmed last week after Wellie Saylor and L. B. Burnham shot a rabid fox that had attacked their dogs.

Public cooperation in rabies control has been excellent, Mayor Long said. He added, however, that while many owners of dogs have had their animals inoculated against rabies, it continues to be necessary to keep the animals penned up.

"The fact that a dog has been inoculated against rabies does not mean that the animal can be allowed to run at large," Mayor Long said. He said that the advice and instructions that were issued by Dr. M. A. Childress, City Health Officer, when the case of the rabid fox was confirmed by the Texas State Health Department remain in full effect and will continue to remain in effect until further notice.

In his request for public cooperation in rabies control Mayor Long has been joined by County Judge Lewis B. Porter and Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield, who said that the same precautions that are being taken in Goldthwaite also should be observed in Mills County outside the City limits.

Street Repairs

Repair work on paved streets throughout Goldthwaite began this week under the direction of City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett. Mr. Barnett said that work began last Tuesday in front of the Goldthwaite High School. By Wednesday, repair crews were patching broken pavement on Parker street just north of the Square. The work will continue, Mr. Barnett said, until repairs have been made on all of the paved streets in Goldthwaite.

leaves Goldthwaite tomorrow.

The police-detective work by Sheriff Stubblefield began early last month when Pete Calder and Blackie Lawson of Mullin complained to him that cattle had been stolen from them on the night of March 3. While the Mills County Sheriff was working on the case, 18 cattle were stolen from the Coke Carpenter Ranch near China Spring.

Of all of the cattle that were reported as stolen to various law enforcement officers, only three were branded or marked. Despite the magnitude of the task of trying to locate unbranded animals, Sheriff Stubblefield with only a description of numerous stolen cattle, attended or checked sales in auction rings in Mills, Comanche, Brown, McCulloch, Mason, San Saba, Coleman, Tom Green and Runnels Counties.

He worked in consultation with Sheriffs in other Counties and in cooperation with Texas Ranger Clarence Nordyke of Brownwood and with Texas Ranger Joe Thompson of Waco. His first break came on March 23 when four stolen cattle were recovered. Sheriff Stubblefield established another "hot" lead on April 6 and as a result, 13 more stolen cattle were recovered on April 7 and 8. One of the steers stolen from the Coke Carpenter Ranch and the cattle that were stolen from Pete Calder and Blackie Lawson have yet to be recovered but the work to suppress cattle rustling continues unabated, Sheriff Stubblefield said.

The cattle that were recovered were widely scattered. Because of the detective work by Sheriff Stubblefield, they were traced through as many as nine buyers. They were found at such widely scattered points as Brady, San Angelo, Brownwood, San Saba, Mason, Comanche and Stephenville.

Now charged with cattle theft are Marvin Moore, 25, and Dwayne Moore, 30, both of Winchell. Bonds of $15,000 each were posted for them by Charles E. Rice, 52, of Brownwood. Subsequently, Rice himself was arrested and charged with the same offense. His own bond was set at $20,000. At Waco, Assistant District Attorney Burney Walker said the arrest of Rice would have no effect on the Moore bonds because they were covered by other sureties.

PMA, SCS Move Toward Merging Service Offices

Further steps toward coordination of U. S. Department of Agriculture activities in Mills County were taken on Monday of this week at a meeting in the District Court Room at the Mills County Court House.

Those who attended the meeting were A. A. Downey, representing the Production Marketing Administration committee for Mills County, Willis A. Hill and J. H. Priddy of the Board of Supervisors of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District, L. F. Bain, PMA Administrative Officer; and Ben R. Day, formerly of the Goldthwaite Work Unit of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Also present because their activities tie-in so closely with those of the Department of Agriculture were County Agent George G. Reese, George Dorman of the Farmers Home Administration, and Y. B. Johnson, Jr., teacher of vocational agriculture at the Goldthwaite High School.

Following the meeting Mr. Bain said that those who attended considered possible locations for the combined PMA-Soil Conservation Service office that will be created under the coordination plan ordered by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan. A final decision was not reached but the physical consolidation of the local agencies of the Department of Agriculture was expected to become a fact by the end of this month, Mr. Bain said. Another meeting will be called by Mr. Downey during the next week or two.

EDITORIAL

The news this week that this community is to lose Ben R. Day of the United States Soil Conservation Service comes as a blow. Both in his profession and as a citizen of this community, Mr. Day has served all of us well. He has been an asset to all of Mills County. We can ill afford to lose a man of Mr. Day's distinction and whose most outstanding characteristic has been his high sense of responsibility and duty.

A modest man, Ben R. Day is the last man in the world who would wish to be praised publicly. But no community can lose a man like Ben R. Day without profound regret. He is a man equipped with "know how," with a willingness to devote himself to his appointed tasks and, withal, he is a courteous, considerate person who has proved by his deeds that he knows the true meaning of the words, "the brotherhood of man."

We believe that on many a farm and ranch in Mills County there will be aching hearts this week as men and women read the leading story in this week's Eagle. For Ben R. Day has left enduring monuments behind him in saved and improved land in Mills County. Men have learned from Ben R. Day and all of us are better off for the work he has done with such conscience. We wish you continued success in your new work, Mr. Day, but we are sorry indeed that you have received transfer orders. You will be missed very, very much.

Gerald Head Elected Chairman Of School Board, Ray Duren Secretary

Meeting last Monday night for the first time since the elections of last Saturday, the Board of Trustees of the Goldthwaite Independent School District elected Gerald Head as Chairman to succeed C. C. Collier, whose resignation was accepted with deep regret. Ray Duren was elected Secretary to succeed Sam Henry Rahl, whose term of office expired and who did not stand for reelection.

School Elections Attract Big Vote At County Polls

Voters in the Independent School Districts of Mullin, Priddy and Star last Saturday cast an unusually heavy number of ballots to elect two Trustees to the Board of Trustees of the Mills County Board of School Trustees. J. H. Priddy was elected unopposed from Precinct 3 and A. A. Downey was elected Trustee-at-Large, also unopposed.

In Priddy, where eight candidates sought the two posts on the Board of Trustees of School District number 14, Albert Goerdel was elected with 19 votes and Charles Niemann was elected with 17 votes.

Voting at Mullin, where there were four candidates for two vacancies on the Board of the Mullin Independent School District, H. L. Pyburn was elected with 77 votes and Fowler White was elected with 70 votes.

At Star, where four candidates ran for two posts on the Board of Trustees of the Star Independent School District, W. O. Whitehead was elected with 41 votes and Paul Lee was elected with 31 votes.

The results of last Saturday's elections were certified to the Commissioners Court last Monday by Mills County Superintendent of Schools, ex-officio, Lewis B. Porter.

Weather Report

Wind carrying dust blew into Mills County from the north on Tuesday of this week but, according to Harry Allen, the weather was not unusual. "I always figure on a cold spell on the tenth of April," Mr. Allen said. During the past week Mr. Allen has measured .10 of an inch of rain—.02 last Friday night and .08 last Monday night.

Goldthwaite F. F. A. Teams Score Well In Coleman Judging Contest

Judging teams of the Eagles Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, the Goldthwaite High School—freshly equipped with high honors that were won at Coleman last week—will fly their colors in Area IV competition at Stephenville tomorrow, Saturday.

Y. B. Johnson, Jr., Advisor of the Eagles F.F.A. Chapter, said this week that the local competitors at Stephenville Saturday will be:

Dairy judging: James Kemp, Kenneth Wesson and Bob Parker.

Poultry judging: John Weaver, Curtis Lawson and Gene Woods.

Livestock judging: John Carothers and two others who were named after the Eagle went to press.

In competition against teams from 67 schools at Coleman last week the Eagles Chapter won two banners for poultry and dairying judging. Three F.F.A. members—Curtis Lawson,

No action was taken at Monday night's meeting on filling the School Board vacancy that was created by the resignation of Mr. Collier. Secretary Duren said that an appointment to fill the place left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Collier will be made by the Board at a later date.

Mr. Collier's resignation as a member of the Board automatically vacated the Chairmanship, to which Mr. Head was elected. Mr. Collier's place as a Board Member, however, will have to be filled by appointment.

Walton Daniel of Big Valley, who was elected to the Board last Saturday, met with his colleagues on Monday night as successor to Claude A. Wicker of Caradon. Mr. Daniel is the only member of the Board who resides in a rural district.

Results of last Saturday's elections were canvassed and certified at Monday night's meeting of the Board. The count of ballots, which elected Mr. Head and Mr. Daniel to the Board, was as follows:

Mr. Head, 111 votes; Mr. Daniel, 95 votes; Delton Barnett, 58 votes; Homer McCasland, 45 votes; Horace Brooks, 18 votes; and W. C. Koen, 15 votes. In addition, in Goldthwaite, A. A. Downey, who was unopposed, received 35 votes as a candidate for election to the Mills County Board of School Trustees.

At Monday night's meeting the Board also approved the recommendation of Superintendent of Schools E. E. Patton that all members of the faculty of the Goldthwaite Schools be reappointed for the 1951-1952 academic year.

Following the meeting both Chairman Head and Secretary Duren said that in accepting the resignation of Mr. Collier with profound regret, members of the Board spoke with gratitude and appreciation of his many years of service. Gratitude also was expressed for the public service that had been rendered by Mr. Rahl, who was Secretary for about seven years, and for the service of Mr. Wicker, whose term expired and who did not offer himself for reelection.

Bob Parker and John Weaver—came home with scrolls as high point men. At Coleman the Goldthwaite boys took second place, as teams, in dairy judging and fourth place in poultry judging. In individual ratings Curtis Lawson won a third place in poultry, Bob Parker a fourth place in dairy, and John Weaver an eighth place in poultry.

At Stephenville the Goldthwaite Future Farmers of America will compete against teams representing 150 schools.

"I am proud of the showing our members are making as they compete in judging contests this year," Mr. Johnson said. "We shall go to Stephenville on Saturday prepared to do our best."

Clean-Up Work Goes On Because Of Fine Results

So many people are working with so much zest to beautify Goldthwaite that although the first week of April is history the Garden Club and the City Fathers still are keeping clean-up time going.

"We are continuing to truck away rubbish that has been cleaned from yards and lots and Harve Wilson, Amos Hawkins and Watson Wright will keep right on trucking so long as there is anything to be carted away," City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett said this week.

Mr. Barnett added that Mr. Wilson and his crew are doubling back on routes previously covered in their clean-up work but he suggested that persons who have accumulations of trash that may have been overlooked telephone 186 and leave word as to where clean-up work remains to be done.

Mayor Loy Long and Mrs. M. F. Horton, the latter the Chairman of the Civic Committee of the Goldthwaite Garden Club, said that clean-up time this year has been most successful. They expressed gratification over the cooperative spirit that has been demonstrated by so many persons.

"Pride is shown in almost all yards and around many business houses in Goldthwaite," Mrs. Horton and Mayor Long said in a joint statement of thanks to the public. "We wish especially to thank the County Commissioners Judge Lewis B. Porter, Mr. W. C. Barnett and many others who have made clean-up time so successful."

Mayor Long and Mrs. Horton emphasized the help that was provided through donations of earth by Malcolm and S. D. Jernigan for civic projects and, with pride, they drew attention to landscaping at the Jennie Trent Dew Library, on the Court House Grounds, and at Boy Scout and Girl Scout headquarters.

CHEERS FOR SHERIFF STUBBLEFIELD

Commendation of the highest order is due to Mills County Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield for the splendid police-detective work that is described in a page one news article this week. Thanks to his persistence and devotion to duty, Sheriff Stubblefield is being credited over an area of nine Counties not only with recovering nearly a score of stolen cattle but with the arrest and indictment of the men who are charged with being the rustlers. The performance by Sheriff Stubblefield took a lot of doing and because of it, owners of livestock may feel much more secure. Further, rustlers have been given warning that livestock stealing is a high crime that simply will not be tolerated by our law enforcement officers. Congratulations, Sheriff Stubblefield—and more power to you!

THANKS TO SAM HENRY RAHL

After more than seven years of service to his community, Sam Henry Rahl attended his last meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Goldthwaite Independent School District last Monday night. Mr. Rahl, who has been the conscientious and hard-working Secretary of the Board, did not offer himself as a candidate in the elections of last Saturday. His voluntary retirement was a matter of deep regret to many persons who had expressed the hope that he would offer himself for reelection. Since he did not do so and now that he has retired, the Eagle believes that it speaks for many persons when we extend to Mr. Rahl sincere thanks for his capable and devoted service during the past seven or more years. He will be able to look back on the years of his stewardship with a knowledge of a job well done and certain of the gratitude of his fellow citizens.

AS FOR THE SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS

In the school elections in Goldthwaite this year 125 persons who voted last year apparently stayed home. Last Saturday there were 342 votes cast in the Goldthwaite school election as against the record turnout of 467 a year ago. Gerald Head of Goldthwaite and Walton Daniel of Big Valley now are members of the Board as successors to Sam Henry Rahl and Claude A. Wicker of Caradan. Our best wishes for effective public service go to the new members, who were selected for their positions in competition which saw six candidates running for two posts. Mr. Head and Mr. Daniel were able to start their new responsibilities with a sense that confidence in them had been registered at the ballot box.

CONTINUE RABIES CONTROL

Mayor Loy Long this week expressed his thanks to the dog owners of Goldthwaite for their cooperation in assisting the authorities in the task of seeing to it that every effective precaution be taken here against the possible spread of rabies. Dog owners, generally, have complied with the request of the Mayor, County Judge Lewis B. Porter, and Dr. M. A. Childress, City Health Officer, that dogs and cats be confined until further notice. Mayor Long emphasized, however, the necessity of continuing to maintain every precaution until further notice. He gave special emphasis to a request that even if a dog has been inoculated against rabies the animal still be confined and not be allowed to run at large. At a time when running dogs have to be destroyed in order to safeguard the public health, nobody wishes to hurt a pet. So, until the authorities consider that the danger of spreading rabies infection has passed, please keep your dog penned up—even if the animal has been inoculated. In places where strict quarantines against rabies are enforced, the usual period of enforcement is six months. So it is likely to be some time until Mayor Long can regard the emergency as over. Meanwhile, the voluntary cooperation that has been so gratifying during the past week ought to be continued—both for the sake of the public health and so that disaster may not befall somebody's beloved pet.

MAKE GOLDTHWAITE ATTRACTIVE

If you did not get around to making your premises attractive during the past two weeks when the City of Goldthwaite and the Goldthwaite Garden Club cooperated in sponsoring the annual effort to make our city look its most attractive, it is not too late to clean up, even now. Any accumulation of trash and rubbish raked up from yards and lots can be trucked away merely by telephoning 186 and advising City Utilities where to pick up debris. The more cleaning up, the prettier our town will be.

NEWS OF

(Editor's Note: In an article from Frankfurt, Germany, Joseph Alsop—one of the most astute observers of the international scene—writes that we now have entered the critical period for world peace. Mr. Alsop's article is reprinted here because it underlines clearly a factor that often is overlooked in consideration of world relations—the Russian effort to frustrate the adequate defense of free nations. Mr. Alsop's article follows in full.)

By JOSEPH ALSOP

Perhaps it is wrong to try to find a pattern in all the strange, unnumbered signs and symptoms that mark the face of Europe in this critical, bleak spring of 1951. At first glance, for example, the behavior of Andrei Gromyko at Paris seems to have no connection with the increase in Soviet stocks of aviation gas in Eastern Germany. Yet after a month of intensive inquiry in Germany, this reporter would hazard a guess that an underlying pattern is there.

Indeed, this pattern was actually forecast as long ago as last spring in London by one of the greatest British wartime leaders, who is especially well qualified to judge the balance of military and other power between East and West. He was explaining that if the Western Allies did not soon begin to see to their own defenses, they must expect disaster. Being reminded of the great Soviet superiority in all conventional weapons, he took up the central question—whether the Kremlin would permit the weakened West to re-arm.

"You know," he said reflectively, "there will certainly be two or three very bad years when they are strong and we are only growing strong. It will be a very tricky time and we shall just have to get through it on nerve and the atomic bomb." He paused for a few moments, as though to consider the question, then resumed: "I am convinced that the Western lead in the atomic field is good enough, or at any rate can be good enough, to prevent a Soviet attack. To tell you the truth, I am much less worried about the atomic bomb than I am about our nerve."

This "tricky time" has now begun, and all the evidence suggests that this wise Englishman foresaw the main difficulty very clearly. The essential features of the existing situation can, in fact, be very simply summarized.

First, the effort of rebuilding Western power is in itself disagreeable and in some aspects politically unpopular. The task of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, to construct a solid defense of Western Europe, is especially complex and troublesome, because it necessarily involves bringing additional American troops to Europe, which is disliked in the United States, and creating German armed contingents, which is disliked in Europe.

Second, in order to frustrate the whole plan for Western rearmament, the Kremlin needs

The Eagle's Aery

By The Editor

When J. V. Blackburn and Luther Booker get to telling stories about their dogs, Ira O. Harvey and his BIRD DOG, Ted, had better sit up and take notice. To make all readers understand why, here is the whole story: In the March 23 issue of the Goldthwaite Eagle, Mr. Blackburn, who has a place at Caradan, advertised for a lost purse that contained both money and valuable papers. He offered a reward. For the first time in the history of this newspaper, a classified advertisement failed to get results.

After a reasonable time had elapsed and Mr. Blackburn had heard nothing of his lost purse either at Hawley or at Caradan, he got to thinking. He remembered that at his Caradan place he had been clearing some brush with a bulldozer. So, with his German Shepherd dog, named Shep, Mr. Blackburn climbed into his pickup and drove out to the site of the brush clearing.

Upon arrival, Mr. Blackburn turned to Shep and said to the dog: "Now, if you are any good, you will go out and find that purse." It is the conviction of the editor that in all probability Shep had been reading the Eagle's classified page and knew all about the lost purse. Anyway, after Mr. Blackburn's challenge to him, Shep disappeared into the brush. Within 15 minutes he was back, carrying the purse in his mouth. Mr. Blackburn, of course, put the purse in his pocket with a sigh of relief and presumably gave Shep the promised reward.

The editor first heard the story about Shep and Mr. Blackburn's lost purse from Hugh B. Dennard of Goldthwaite. And late last week Mr. Blackburn visited the Eagle office. He had Shep with him so that the dog could confirm the whole story. Not being able to set type in dog language, the editor tells the story here as it was told by Mr. Blackburn to Mr. Dennard.

It was because of Mr. Dennard's fascination with the story of Shep and the lost and then found Blackburn purse that Luther Booker gets into the act. One day last week Mr. Dennard was telling the story of Shep to Mr. Booker, School Superintendent H. E. Patton, and Steve Weathers over at the Post Office.

Mr. Booker, who boasts that San Saba Peak was only a foot high when he first saw it, took over the conference and told Mr. Dennard, Mr. Weathers and Mr. Patton about a dog—a BIRD DOG named Doc—that he had a number of years ago. "Why, that Shep of Blackburn's is just nuthin'," Mr. Booker told his audience. "Now take my dog Doc, he really understood English. Not only was he the best squirrel dog in the whole State of Texas but he knew just what to do and when to do it. One day Doc heard me tell my wife it was a good day to go fishing and when I looked out in the yard there was Doc digging worms for bait!"

After he heard that one, the editor made a call at the Booker home to check up on the story. Luther was not at home but Mrs. Booker and Miss Pauline were there. First thing you know the editor had to flee back to the peace and quiet of the Eagle's Aery because right away both Mrs. Booker and Miss Pauline began recalling stories about Doc—how he had come down to the store for home meat for the household. The only thing to the story is that the poisoned Doc. But Luther still is talking about it and so will Mrs. Booker Miss Pauline if any long enough to listen.

Last week a letter in the Eagle said that the Goldthwaite Independent School District election was in the Commission Room at the Mills County House. Well, as it is the voting was in the Court Room on the second floor. Please don't blame the huffing and puffing that was required in the election. The election was available and that election was switched to District Court Room.

Mrs. Fields, the former Nora Mason, and her husband completed the trip by bus. They suffered bruises and scratches in the wreck of their car but otherwise were unhurt.

"It was a fine celebration," Mr. Mason said this week. "We had lots of presents, a fine dinner and good visits with our friends and our children."

Mr. and Mrs. Fields returned to their home in Paris last Monday. They rode as far as Grand Prairie with Mrs. Fields' brother, J. D. Mason. Other children who attended last Sunday's party were Mrs. Edith Eill of Lawn and W. Freeman Mason of Grand Prairie.

Mr. And Mrs. E. B. Adams Reach Silver Wedding Day Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Adams, who have lived in Goldthwaite for the past ten years, reached their 25th or Silver Wedding anniversary on Wednesday of this week, but the celebration was quiet because Mrs. Adams was recuperating from a bout with influenza.

It was Mr. Adams who remembered the anniversary, and Mrs. Adams admits it.

"He reminded me for several days about it," Mrs. Adams said, but she was unable to explain why the event was so much on the mind of the man who recently has had so much international publicity over his lost replica of the Stone of Scone.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams were married at Hico. At the time she lived in Carlton.

"We just drove over and got married," Mrs. Adams said when she was asked why the ceremony was solemnized at Hico. As for Mr. Adams' idea of an explanation, it was this:

"Both of us are Baptists, so we were married by a Methodist Minister."

By way of elucidation he added merely that Mrs. Adams, then Grace Morgan, was 20, and he was 22. He then changed the subject to a discussion of the business of building monuments, in which Mrs. Adams helps considerably.

"I've taught her everything she knows," Mr. Adams added, as though that bold statement might help the story. When Mrs. Adams was asked about such a wide-swinging statement, she said it was correct—which probably provides the explanation for a quarter of a century of wedded bliss.

"Did you teach her how to chisel?" Mr. Adams was asked. "No, she knew that," he replied. "She started by chiseling at my wallet."

With Mr. and Mrs. Adams for their Silver Anniversary were their daughter, Mrs. Frances Langford and her two sons, Thomas F. III, who is 5, and Jimmy, who is 3. Also among the celebrants was Mrs. Adams' mother, Mrs. Mattie Morgan.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Adams are natives of Hamilton. It was from Hamilton that they moved to Goldthwaite.

The best testimony that Mr. Adams is happy, though married, came early this week when he was overheard conferring with the Eagle's Miss Earlene Nix. The subject of the conference? He was trying to persuade Miss Nix to be married—but to somebody else, of course.

time in classes and after school hours was spent studying and judging all kinds of livestock - hogs, beef cattle, work stock, Jerseys, Holstein-Friesians, and Guernseys.

Judging day finally came. The boys anxiously waited for the results. Finally C. B. Spencer was called in. He was told his team had done the impossible - it had won both the livestock and dairy divisions. Something had to be done. One team could not represent Texas in the national contest in two departments.

The Reese brothers and Ed decided to choose the livestock division. Members of the team decided to continue their education by going to college. Ed Bobbitt, after finishing his college work, became a practicing physician in Hillsboro. George Reese finished his work toward a degree in agriculture and took a job as county agent. Evans decided to put his college and high school training in agriculture into actual practice. He took over the seed corn business of his father, the late Carl Reese, (who had developed the famous Reese Drouth-Resister Seed Corn). While Evans developed several varieties of new corn himself, he was also interested in the dairy business. He visited Mr. Herman Heep, who was one of the leading breeders of Jersey cattle, and found that Mr. Heep was interested in entering into a dairy farming partnership with him.

The partnership herd with Mr. Heep was set up for five years. But at the end of 4 1/2 years, Evans bought out Mr. Heep's interest. However, it wasn't long before Evans found he couldn't run both the dairy and seed corn business. So Evans chose the Jersey cows. Today, he has a herd of over 150 head, all on official test.

During this time, he served as president and director of Texas Jersey Club. Not the least of his interest was Roland, his son, whom he watched grow into a dairy showman.

All through grammar school Roland and his chums heard the big boys talk about how much they liked one of their high school subjects, vocational agriculture, and their Future Farmer organization. They were quick to ask on registration day as freshmen to be put in Agriculture Teacher Othel Neely's

Goldthwaite Fans Go To Ball Game

Mills County fans went to Fort Worth on Friday of last week and let everybody know that the baseball season is just around the corner by seeing the New York Giants of the National League defeat the Cleveland Indians of the American League by a score of 10 to 9 in an exhibition game. For the game Mills County Attorney A. M. Pribble was accompanied by Billy Rahl and Emzy McLean. Also present at the game from Goldthwaite were Clyde Estep, Howard Hoover and Forest Frazier.

class.

Roland made an outstanding record as a Green Hand during his freshman year. Mr. Heep gave him a seven-months-old calf that was named Draconis Jester Countess. Neely, like Spencer, aided his Future Farmer. In 1947 she took first prize senior yearling at All-American Junior Jersey Show, also junior and grand champion at Columbus, Ohio. He sold her in the Sale of Stars for $3,800. Showing a trait he evidently picked up from his dad, he took the money and invested it in a herd of his own. Right now this herd numbers 15 or more.

Mr. Neely began early in 1950 teaching his entire class the fine art of dairy judging. After a series of eliminations the Robinson community boys led the ticket. Now it was time for Mr. Neely to start sitting on the judging rail and watch his team. First places in judging contest came fast—first in area; first in state. Then the big event—the All-American Jersey Show to be held in Dallas. Not until the Sears-Roebuck Foundation awards banquet was it announced that the Texas team, the Waco Future Farmers, had won the coveted first place. Roland Reese was the high point judge of the nation. Also, while attending the All-American, Roland picked up two sterling silver trophies—title of best showman, first prize, a three-year-old cow, reserve grand champion of boys' dairy show, and purchased the junior champion heifer of the All-American Jersey Show in the Sale of Stars for $1,150. So, like father, like son—an All-American family.

Poet Bill Clements, 9, Takes To Composing Music For His Verses

William Earl Clements, more familiarly known as Bill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David O. Clements, not only is keeping up with his poetry but he has taken to composing melodies for his verse. Before going on with the remainder of the story, here is Bill's latest poem:

YOU AND ME

By BILL CLEMENTS
Everything looks
Just like spring.
Bees a buzzin'
And the birds sing.
Everybody's happy,
Yes sree — Especially
You and me.

Bill, who is nine, wrote that poem last Sunday morning. At the time he was a guest of his grandfather, R. E. Clements, while Bill's parents were in Fort Worth. Bill was about to take off for Sunday School and the muse inspired him while he and his grandfather, also a poet, name of Rog, were walking to the car for the trip to Sunday School.

This might have been just another story of Bill's poetry except that he did not stop with his verse. The young man is a student of the piano under the instruction of Mrs. Hope D. Schulze. So he decided to set his verse to music. Several efforts at composition finally resulted in just the right melody and the right accent for the words of "You And Me." The title, it will be noted, involves some liberty with the King's English but in the realm of the muse such violations of the laws of grammar are accepted as poetic license.

After satisfying himself that he had the proper melody for his lyric, Bill set about to write the score. The first draft in-involved setting down simply the letters for the notes—such as c, b flat, f, a and so on. But by the time this story breaks into print, Rog expects that Bill will have progressed to the stage of clefs, measures, bars, notes and time.

Eagle readers with long memories will recall that last year this newspaper printed the first poem by Bill Clements to be published. Then, of course, he was eight. He has written many others but the "You And Me" that is printed above is the second published work by Bill.

Rog, who naturally encourages his grandson, is proud that Bill continues to regard him as a high advisor—and he is proud, too, that Bill practices his music on the R. E. Clements piano up on the Mountain. Incidentally, "You And Me" was inspired by the activity of bees seeking nectar from a hackberry tree on the grounds of the R. E. Clements home. Bill really felt spring in the air last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody Perkins visited relatives near Mullin on Sunday.

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY
Cold, high winds loaded with sand, wresting moisture from the soil and hope from our hearts, have been our lot again this past week. However, the lilacs have bloomed out rather well, and the woods are getting green in spite of the drouth.
Not 'till last week, when I was scanning old papers for items of interest, did I discover that I was supposed to explain to Mrs. Dora Goode of Star what a ty-ty is, and to Miss Ruth Ervin what is a cydonia. My apologies to each of these interested friends.
A ty-ty is a native privet shrub which grows profusely in our woods. It is the first thing to put out its green leaves in the spring. A cydonia is the blooming quince. It has beautiful red flowers, and in ordinary years, begins to bloom in January. This year it did not bloom until March. We see it in many yards.
Mrs. Griffin says their orchard has some fruit. She hears also that the Reeves orchard has some. But there won't be much.
Clayton Egger's corn is up to a good stand. Charlie Griffin also has corn up.
We see Dewey Smith has quit his team and is doing his farming with a tractor this year.
Lem Egger, Mrs. Henry Egger, Taylor Duncan, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Egger are all recent victims of the flu.
Edward Egger stayed home from Church last Sunday because Jerry seemed to have the measles. Her playmate, John Reeves, has just recently recovered from them.
Mr. and Mrs. Gene Egger went to town Sunday to be with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Egger, and Mrs. Elizabeth Ketchum. Both their mothers have been quite sick, but are better.
We were glad to have Mrs. Lee Boren of Farris, Oklahoma, with us at Church Sunday. She says they have had plenty of rain, and everything is green and thriving. Mrs. Boren is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Taylor Duncan.
Charles Henry Griffin of the U. S. Air Corps is now stationed in Fort Worth. He has been home twice lately on a twenty-four hour leave.
Sheep shearers sheared sheep for Cecil Egger and Taylor Duncan Friday.

100 yards dash: Ray Campbell Hudson, Dick Lindsay and L. Geeslin.

as the Congress might desire to make. In all likelihood, the training could be integrated with high school and college in the form of junior and senior ROTC. It would emphasize physical training along with the military, a need made obvious by so many rejections by Selective Service because of physical defects.

Under the proposed UMT program, every young man after completing his six months of training would become reserves, thus creating a reservoir of trained men who could be called up with the minimum of delay if an emergency should develop. General Bradley told our committee this sort of program should enable us to reduce the size of the standing army, perhaps down to two million if conditions continue about as they are. This should enable us to keep prepared at a much-reduced cost compared with the present $10,000 a year per man that we are paying. That figure includes the direct and indirect outlays necessary to keep up a $35 billion a year 3 1/2 million man armed force.

Universal military training should, therefore, be not only the most effective but also the most inexpensive method of giving our country a long-range preparedness program during the foreseeable future. It is generally agreed that the present international tenseness will continue for 10, 20 or perhaps 30 years. It all depends on what the war-makers in the Kremlin choose to do.

It is unfortunate, of course, that any kind of military training is necessary. Our whole concept is anti-military, peace-loving and peace-making. But a realistic approach is imperative. That is why, according to a dozen tests that have been made by the Gallup poll during the past eight years every one of them have shown a ratio of at least two-to-one of the public in favor of universal training for all young men who have not previously seen military service. Congress, on the other hand, has shied away from show-down votes on the subject, and have trailed far behind public opinion on the subject.

The reasoning of public opinion is sound and understandable. As distasteful as military involvement is to the people, they nevertheless are realistic and recognize the grave danger that confronts us and the free world today. They remember Pearl Harbor and our woeful state of unpreparedness. And they remember World War I and a like condition. They have not forgotten that we were favored by fate on two occasions and were, by the grace of God, permitted some two years during which to get prepared for the show-down. And those same people are realistic enough to know that fate will not be so kind to us the next time.

Free Chest X-Ray Plans Are Made For Next Month

Arrangements for the free chest X-ray examinations that will be given to all Mills County residents over 15 years of age at the Central Pontiac Company in Goldthwaite on May 5, 7, 8 and 9 moved forward rapidly this week under the general direction of Howard Campbell, Chairman.

Mr. Campbell sent a letter to all members of his Citizens Committee, who will cooperate with the Texas State Department of Health in the campaign to detect and eradicate tuberculosis, urging them to confirm their appointments to him or to County Judge Lewis B. Porter.

It was announced also that the first day of the free chest X-ray examinations, May 5, will be County Day—although residents of areas outside Goldthwaite may come on other days, May 7, 8 and 9 if such days should be more convenient.

On May 5 persons taking the chest X-rays will be registered by the business class of the Mullin School. Priddy students will be in charge of registrations on May 7, while the Star business class will be in charge of the registration desk on May 8. Commercial students at the Goldthwaite High School will register applicants for chest X-rays on May 9.

Hostesses for the various days will be members of the Home Demonstration Clubs in Mills County.

Mr. Campbell said that a tentative schedule has been worked out designating "reserved" times for various groups to receive their free chest X-ray examinations with a minimum of delay. Further announcements regarding the schedule will be made later, Mr. Campbell said.

Prayer For Peace

By BRUCE PERRY

In this old world of sin, and grief, Quit lookin' for men to give us peace. Don't put your faith in sinful man. For none of his plans will ever stand.

We have fought three wars, on the foreign shores, but that's nothing new. We have done that before.

Our boys are dying over there. The world is in trouble everywhere. And sinful man has done it all. He is riding high, but doomed for a fall.

So let's get down on our knees and pray. For God to send us a brighter day. Oh! God give us peace instead of wealth. And let us quit thinking so much of self.

J. P. Ervin of San Antonio is visiting his sisters, Miss Abbie and Ruth Ervin.

E. B. Adams of Goldthwaite was cheered this week when the news was flashed from Scotland that the original of the Stone of Scone had been found. Now, Mr. Adams, who had his own Stone of Scone stolen, will not have to make any more replicas.

Social Security Answers Queries On Old Age Laws

It is not necessary to be wholly or permanently "retired" to get retirement payments under the old-age and survivors insurance system, according to James B. Marley, Manager of the Austin-Social Security office. The number of persons coming into his office confused on this point prompted him to make this explanation.

Actually, the new social security law makes it possible for insured persons 65 and over to collect retirement benefits while still earning up to $50 per month on covered jobs. The old limit of $14.99 was changed on last September 1. The $50 limit doesn't apply to persons age 75 and over.

The law is simply that a person between 65 and 75 years of age cannot collect benefits for any month in which he earns more than $50 from work covered by social security. No amount of earnings or income from other sources will affect his right to benefits. Insured persons age 75 or over can collect even though working full time on jobs covered by social security, or for that matter, on any job, Mr. Marley said.

"Another point we'd like to get across," he added, "is that anyone now age 65 or over very likely is insured if he has worked as much as a year and a half, at any time back to January 1937, on social security—in covered jobs."

Residents of this area who are eligible for benefits under the new law are invited to get in touch with the Austin office, located in the Brown Building in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Nix and Miss Earlene Nix visited in Brownwood Saturday afternoon. They also stopped in Mullin for a short visit with Mrs. Nix's sister, Mrs. L. B. Bramblett and family. Miss Patsy Bramblett returned home with them to spend the weekend.

Revival services that will continue for two weeks will start next Sunday night at 7:45 o'clock at the Gospel Hall on the west side of the Square in Goldthwaite with preaching by the Rev. Raymond Campbell of Booker.

This week the Rev. E. W. Dickson of the Gospel Hall said that until recently Brother Campbell was Pastor of the People's Chapel at Perryton. Since his work at Perryton, Brother Campbell has been in evangelistic work.

"During the two weeks starting next Sunday night our services will be conducted every night at 7:45 o'clock," Brother Dickson said. "The services will be undenominational in character and there will be a warm welcome for everybody. We shall be glad to have persons with Church affiliations worship with us but it is to be emphasized, also, that those who do not have any Church home may regard the Gospel Hall in Goldthwaite as their own."

Brother Dickson said there are persons who feel reticent about attending Church services or revivals and he added that "we shall be especially glad to have them with us at the Gospel Hall."

Special music has been planned for the series of revival services, Brother Dickson said.

Bible Class To Have Another Big Singing Tonight

Brimful of enthusiasm over the most successful Singing of the Downtown Men's Bible Class two weeks ago, W. C. Frazier, Class Song Leader, reminded everybody this week that there will be another Singing tonight, Friday, at 7:30 o'clock at the Baptist Education Building on Fisher Street.

"For Friday night's Singing we shall have some Goldthwaite quartets and we have invited the quartet from the Brown-wood Men's Bible Class to be with us again," Mr. Frazier said.

Since the Singing two weeks ago was such a notable event a large turnout was expected for this Friday night. After the gathering of two weeks ago Mr. Frazier turned a corps of press agents loose — the most notable of whom were Mrs. Eula Nickols and Mrs. Dutch Smith. Anybody who may have met up with Mrs. Nickols or Mrs. Smith during the past two weeks is likely to attend the Singing this Friday night — or run the risk of having to live forever afterwards with reminders of what was missed.

Letter From British Embassy Is Final Chapter On Stone Of Scone

Even if his replica of the Stone of Scone had not been stolen from his Monument Works on highway 16, south of Goldthwaite, E. B. Adams would have been stuck with it anyway. That fact became apparent this week when Mr. Adams was notified officially that the replica could not have been accepted to replace the ancient symbol of British Kings that was stolen from under the Coronation Chair in Westminster Abbey last December 26.

Following news of the theft of the Stone of Scone from London and prompted by Harry Allen, Mr. Adams, in his capacity of Secretary-Treasurer of the Monument Builders of the South-west, Inc., made a replica as a gesture of British - American friendship. Not only did he make his replica of sandstone to the proper dimensions, but he fitted it with a pair of iron rings that had been forged by W. H. Linkenhog. And he engaged in correspondence with Secretary of State Dean Acheson and British Ambassador Sir Oliver Shewell Franks regarding the delivery of the replica. Then, while he was waiting for official instructions as to the disposition of the replica, it was stolen in broad daylight. No clue as to its whereabouts has been turned up.

Accordingly, Mr. Adams was philosophical rather than disappointed when, this week, he received the following letter from Alan Davidson, private secretary to the British Ambassa-

British Embassy
Washington
5th April 1951

Dear Mr. Adams:

You will remember that I wrote to you, at the request of the Ambassador, on 23rd February, in reply to your kind offer to present a duplicate of the Stone of Scone to His Majesty the King.

The King's pleasure has now been taken and I have to inform you to his great regret, he is unable to avail himself of the offer. I am to say, however, that he greatly appreciated your kindness and courtesy in making it.

Yours sincerely,
Alan Davidson.

The letter from the British Embassy had been anticipated by Mr. Adams in view of the fact that before the replica of the Stone of Scone had been stolen from Goldthwaite, the Dean of Westminster Abbey had told the press that such a gift could not be accepted by the King.

News Of Chappell Hill

By PEARL CRAWFORD

Our cold weather holds on, and we had a light northerly Friday. It brought some light showers and a light shower fell early Monday morning. As prospects for corn and grain look so good, all the farmers would appreciate another nice rain.

Smokey Manuel and Sam Hillman sheared goats for G. H. Crawford Friday.

O. Y. Lockridge sheared sheep for Bill Partin Friday. Roger Smith purchased a nice herd of Angora goats Friday. We hear that Mr. Smith got his cows branded with the help of his father.

A. C. Welch and Orvil Harris have finished shearing their goats.

F. H. Tiemann was at the Bill Partin home last Tuesday getting bundled feed.

A. L. Crawford took mohair to town Saturday for G. H. Crawford.

Bill Partin helped Jay Partin sow grain Wednesday of last week.

We were glad to learn that C. F. Jeske of Priddy was able to return to his home from a Brownwood hospital. Mr. Jeske suffered bruises from a car wreck which occurred near the Bill Spipp home in Priddy, on April 7.

We were happy to see another old neighbor in town Thursday. Mrs. C. A. Karnes, and her daughter, Mrs. Benton Allridge and children of Brownwood. They had come to Goldthwaite for some shopping and they also called awhile with Mrs. Stone Shipman and family.

Mrs. Verda Price and Sonny Fisher underwent surgery at the Lampasas Hospital during last week. Mrs. Price, being a daughter, and Sonny, a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Stevens, it has been keeping the family very busy caring for their sick folks. We hope for them a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Charlie Partin spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin and Tommie and Jimmie. Mr. Charlie Partin had gone to Comanche to get 500 little chickens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. attended the School program at Priddy Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Knowles and family at Fort Worth.

Mrs. A. L. Crawford visited with her good old neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Creek, in town Wednesday. Mr. Creek told about his daughter and grandchildren being badly hurt in a car and tractor crash on the highway near Comanche.

Mrs. O. A. Evans was sick with flu a few days during last week. We are glad to report that Mr. Evans' arm is on the mend.

W. L. Conner said that his mother had been very sick. We were happy to learn that Grandmother Conner was much better.

Most every one was sick with the flu and bad colds a few days. We are happy to know that Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bramblett keep well and able to attend preaching every Sunday.

Mrs. Tom Stevens returned home late Saturday after a two weeks' visit with relatives in and near Lubbock.

Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens, Mildred and Edwin Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Crockett and baby of Brownwood spent Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith.

W. L. Conner and Tom Stevens visited at the H. P. Harris and Bill Horton homes in the Caradan community last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin and Jimmie and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ivy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Billie McNeerlin and Gene during last week.

This community was saddened by the news of the tragic death of Mrs. Henry Harkey and her two children. The former Mordine Brown, with her twin sister and mother, spent several school terms in this community. We express our sympathy to Mordine's loved ones in this hour of sorrow.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hill were Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morgan and their children of Sweetwater, David Hill of Wichita Falls, Dorothy Helen Featherston, Bess Hutchings, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hill and their children of Goldthwaite, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ellis and their children of Democrat, and Gerald and Eddie Morris.

 block a part of it. Half divisions will not be better than one-tenth or one-quarter enough, the accumulation of a deterrent effort of our lead in atomic weapon fact, has set out to the Western defense preventing any German contribution.
 the so-called atomic the Western nations is really all that prevents a Kremlin aggression in Europe tomorrow. But the Europeans, seeing the great power of Soviet army, deeply conscious of their own weakness, are hardly aware of the invisible protection of the atomic deterrent. Thus they tend to forget the basic rules, that an imperialist dictatorship attacks when it thinks it can win, that this kind of government cannot be goaded into attack by provocation, and that it cannot be dissuaded from attack by sweetness. Hence, there is a natural desire, in the Western European governments as well as among the peoples, to avoid doing what is regarded as "provocative," such as re-creating German armed contingents.

It is precisely this situation which the Kremlin has now set out to exploit. Here in Germany, you find exceedingly shrewd officials who expect the Soviet armies in Eastern Europe to be reinforced by about two corps, one of armor and one of artillery, in early May. But these same officials do not say the purpose will be to overrun

Western Europe the next morning. On the contrary, they say most emphatically that the only immediate purpose will be to inspire terror and the loss of nerve that the wise Englishman indicated he feared.

If the Soviet threats, empty although they probably are at this time, should carry conviction in Paris or in London, then there will be a break in the Western alliance, probably when the foreign ministers meet.
 If this happens in turn, the ally whose nerve breaks will seek to barter off the German contribution to Eastern defense or perhaps some other essential feature of the Western defense plan, against some such empty concession as a temporary reduction of the number of Soviet divisions in Eastern Germany.
 That way, the Kremlin will be sure to win in the long run.

There is no better way to tempt the Kremlin onward than to seem to lose nerve.
 Fortunately, so far as the transactions in Paris can be judged from here, there seems to have been no loss of nerve as yet. But the two things that must now be guarded against as fatal are this loss of Western nerve that the Kremlin seeks, and the loss of tempo in the Western defense effort that political convenience pleads for.

 Most of those who go through the 4-H Club program become ranchers or feeders for large stock ranches, said Reese. What they learned as 4-H Club calf feeders has made them better livestock men, he added.

"We don't look on a calf as simply some meat on the hoof for the boys to take care of," Reese said. "We look on it as a classroom where these boys and girls can learn the procedures that build good meat."

"Making the shows over the state puts the boys into contact with ranchers from all over Texas. They learn to conduct themselves as competent livestock raisers, and can talk on equal terms with other livestock raisers. By the time our kids make the stock show circuit once or twice, they develop self-confidence that makes the whole program worth while."

$988 Is Raised
 For Boy Scouts
 By Early Birds

Four teams, with which some 40 men worked as members, raised $988.00 in Goldthwaite on Wednesday of last week for the Comanche Trail Council of the Boy Scouts of America, it was announced this week by Joe Bailey Karnes, Finance Chairman. After an "early bird breakfast," the teams solicited funds for the Boy Scouts and encountered a most gratifying response, Mr. Karnes said. He added that the amount raised by each of the teams was about equal.

In behalf of the Scouts and the adults who work as Scouters, Mr. Karnes expressed gratitude for the public support that was given so promptly to the Boy Scout organization in what amounted to a dawn to dusk campaign last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hester and

 Mr. and Mrs. John Hester and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keese. Mr.

 here. Mrs. Boyd and David will spend this week with her parents, the Keeses.

Time Has Come For Payment Of Taxes On Wages Of Farm Workers

(Editor's Note: Frank Scofield, Collector of Internal Revenue with headquarters in Austin, this week issued clarification of new laws applying to the Federal Social Security taxes that now must be paid on the incomes of farm, ranch and household workers. In the public interest, the Eagle publishes the following statement by Mr. Scofield in which he quotes George J. Schoeneman, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.)

George J. Schoeneman, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, reminded farm and household employers that they must report wages and pay Federal social security taxes on those farm and household employees who were brought into the old-age and survivors insurance system on January 1, 1951. Whether or not a farm or household employee's wages are subject to the taxes depends on the number of days worked for the employer and the amount of cash earnings. The Federal social security tax and information return for the quarterly period of January-February-March 1/2 due on or before April 30, 1951, together with payment of the taxes.

A farm employer should make a return on Form 941 reporting the cash wages paid to each employee who meets all three of the following tests:

(a) He was employed by the employer (whether or not doing farm work) continuously throughout the quarterly period of October - November - December, 1950; and

(b) He was employed by such employer in agricultural labor on a full-time basis for at least 60 days in the quarterly period of January - February - March, 1951; and

(c) His cash earnings for such agricultural labor are $50 or more.

This three-part test of liability applies not only to agricultural workers but also to household employees in a private home on a farm which is operated for profit.

A different test, sometimes called the "$50-24-day test," should be used in determining whether or not the taxes apply to cash wages paid by an employer for household work in a private home which is not on a farm operated for profit. The employer should make a return reporting the cash wages for household work performed after 1950 paid to each employee (a) who received from such employer, during the quarterly period of January - February - March, 1951, $50 or more in cash wages for household work and (b) who performed household work for such employer on 24 or more different days in that quarter or on 24 or more different days in the quarter of October-November-December, 1950. If the employer also pays wages to business employees whom he reports on Form 941, he may include the household employees on the same form. Otherwise, the employer should report the household employees on a return Form 942.

Every farm employer or household employer who is required to file a return on or before April 30, 1951, but who does not have a blank return form to use for this purpose, should promptly request a form from the Collector of Internal Revenue for his district.

About Monday of next week Leonard Cole expects to open his own business in the premises formerly occupied on Third Street, east of Fisher Street, by the Carl Letbetter Weldery— which now is the Letbetter Machine Shop and which is doing business on the stand of the former Linkenhoger Machine Shop.

For the past two years, Mr. Cole has been employed by Carl Letbetter. Previously he had worked 13 years for W. H. Linkenhoger, who still is going strong in business for himself in part of the Letbetter Machine Shop.

"Nothing too large or too small," is the slogan of the new "Cole's Blacksmith And Welding Shop."

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Horton and baby spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Horton. Those who called on the Hortons Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. We Lose Ben Day

 vationist of the Soil Conservation Service.

Pending the outcome of intra-service conferences, it is not yet certain just when Mr. Day will assume his new duties at headquarters in San Saba. Confirmation that Mr. Turney has accepted his new appointment to Goldthwaite has not yet been received. His present headquarters are at Dublin.

As the Eagle went to press
 this week, there had been no news affecting the status of other members of the staff of the Soil Conservation Service in Goldthwaite. They are Charles Haenisch, Roger Powell, Carl
 Casbeer, Paul Koshi and Mrs.
 Millard Cockrum. Mrs. Cockrum returned to her duties on Monday of this week following a leave of absence, during which her post was filled temporarily by Mrs. E. P. "Connie" Shaw of San Antonio.

The appointment of Mr. Day to San Saba and of Mr. Turney to Goldthwaite coincides with Department of Agriculture developments which are designed to coordinate the activities of such organizations as the Production Marketing Administration and the Soil Conservation Service in cooperation with County Agriculture Agents,
 Teachers of Vocational Agriculture, and other interested personnel.

Mr. Day has been Chief of the Goldthwaite Work Unit of the United States Soil Conservation Service since September of 1947. He came to Goldthwaite from Rising Star, where he had been an engineer with the S.C.S. Previously, he had served in similar capacities at Hamilton and Gatesville. A native of Plainview, he is an alumnus of the Texas A. & M. College.

Mr. Day and his wife, the former Evelyn Weiss of Plainview, have been active in community affairs during their residence in Goldthwaite. They have three children—Larry, 11, Laine, 10, and Edward, 7.

In addition to being one of the leading laymen in the First Methodist Church of Goldth-

Scallorn News

By ORA BLACK

Sunday after the eleven service several from the congregation left for Novice to be present for the ordination of four deacons. Rev. Cloud, a recent pastor of the Scallorn Church, but now pastoring the church at Novice had charge of the meeting. We enjoyed meeting the Clouds and learned from the good people of that little city that the Clouds were highly esteemed and we realized our loss was their gain.

We will say to our old time friend John Livergood who once lived in our home and worked for Mr. Black that those rocks he spoke of are still on the old Elliott place but we didn't know he put them there. Thanks for the Christmas card you sent us.

We welcome into our community Mr. and Mrs. Worley Laughlin who have recently moved here from Goldthwaite.
 They now occupy the farm home of Mrs. Cora Ford.

Jane Black from Howard Payne, Brownwood, came home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simms and Jo Bobby of Brownwood spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. John Kuykendall.

The writer visited last week
 in Brownwood with her sister, Mrs. S. M. Black and brother,
 H. B. Bradley.

Miss Ladell Casbeer came over from Fort Worth for a weekend visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Casbeer.

Sunday morning after nine stolen cattle had been traced to his possession and after he could not explain where he had obtained them. Other stolen cattle were traced to the Moore brothers. When he was arrested, Rice already was under an appeal bond of $7,500 after receiving a ten year sentence for cattle theft. That case is before the Court of Criminal Appeals.

As Sheriff Stubblefield worked patiently over a period of five weeks he found, in tracing back recovered cattle, that the trail always led back to Rice or the Moore brothers, who have refused to make statements about animals that were or had been in their possession.

H. B. Gilbert, Vice President of the Trent State Bank in ill for some time. Only a slight improvement in his condition was reported this week by his colleagues at the Trent State Bank.

will regret it, along with the rest of us. The peril that General MacArthur has seen so clearly and about which he has tried to tell his own country is very real. Now his dismissal certainly ought to serve to focus the attention of all of our people on the vast and perplexing menace in Asia, which is infinitely greater than merely the question of what to do about the war in Korea.

T. F. White was in my office the other day and, before the dismissal of General MacArthur, he asked the simple question:
 "How come that any American with red blood in his veins would want us to ask a man to fight with a hand tied behind his back?" That is what the United Nations and his own government have asked General MacArthur to do.

With the terrible responsibility of thousands of American and other lives on his shoulders, General MacArthur wanted to strike back at the Chinese-Russian bases in Korea. He was told "no," by the United Nations, by Harry Truman, and by the scared men in Whitehall in London and in the Quai d'Orsay in Paris. General MacArthur wanted to use the troops of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to fight the Red Chinese who were and are killing Americans, but again, he was told "no." General MacArthur wanted to blockade the Chinese coast so that supplies from countries whose men were dying in Korea could be kept from the Communist Chinese. Once again he was told "no." All of which was taken with the utmost compa-sion by all too many Americans who never did stop to ask why young Americans, torn from their homes, their families and their schools, should do the fighting and dying when there were plenty of Asiatics who wanted to be armed to fight for the same principles in which we pretend, at least, to believe.

In the face of all efforts to silence him, General MacArthur raised pertinent questions, as a military man, and now he has been chastised. As the Fort Worth Press puts it: "Even the second-guessers now concede that his handling of the war has been admirable, particularly considering his limited resources and the restrictions imposed upon him." So General MacArthur has been fired. Why?
 Here is why:

Our nation, prodded by Great Britain, India, France and other wishy-washy members of the politically and morally bankrupt United Nations, is engaged in appeasement. We are engaged in appeasement of the Chinese Reds, who have murdered so many Americans. We are engaged in appeasement in the face of the lessons taught by Hitler, Mussolini, Tojo and Stalin that in the end the appeaser has only one alternative—to knuckle under, or to fight. If you think that I am alone in what I say, then ponder the following, from the Scripps-Howard newspapers:

Recalling or reprimanding General MacArthur will not clarify the question of our war objectives, and it must be clar-ified. Nothing will be settled by trying to silence the legitimate spokesmen for the American troops who are fighting in Korea and who want to know why they are there. There is the issue.

American intervention in Korea as an agency of the United Nations made sense when it was understood to be a part of a larger plan drawing a line against further Communist aggression everywhere. But that plan has been abandoned in favor of appeasement, under

 We put up with but the inevitable oning cannot be ever.

So what are we fighting for now?
 Are we merely holding a line,
 at a fearful cost in American lives, until the Communists can be bought off by giving them Formosa, and perhaps additional territory? Nothing else can be inferred from the only plans for a settlement which have been approved or seriously entertained by the United Nations.
 General MacArthur has repeatedly asked for new instructions, but has received none. In the absence of such instructions, he has offered his own plan to win the war. That has been disapproved without the formality of a vote by the organization he is supposed to be serving. So there is no plan. That is General MacArthur's complaint, and it is a legitimate one.

If President Truman will take counsel with himself he will see that the fault is not with his commander in the field but with the British Socialists and their yes-men and fellow travelers in the State Dept. who have taken the conduct of the war out of the General's hands and now do not know what to do with it.

That is it. The story is only beginning. I hope with all my heart that General MacArthur comes home, that he talks before committees of Congress —
