FREE CHEST X-RAYS TO START NEXT WEEK

CHAIRMAN

HOST

VICE CHAIRMAN

HOWARD CAMPBELL

V. C. BRADFORD

LOY LONG

Starting on Saturday of next week at the Central Pontiac Company on the east side of the Square in Goldthwaite, every person in Mills County over the age of 15 will have an opportunity to have a free chest X-ray and thereby contribute to the detection and eradication of tuberculosis.

Through the cooperation of a representative Mills County Citizens Committee and the Texas State Department of Health, free chest X-rays will be available at the Central Pontiac Company on May 5, 7, 8 and 9. Howard Campbell is Chairman of the local committee and Mayor Loy Long is the Vice Chairman. V. C. Bradford has donated the show room of his Central Pontiac Company so that all persons who wish to have chest X-rays may move through spacious accommodations with a minimum of delay and a maximum of privacy.

Mr. Campbell said this week that organization work for the anti-tuberculosis campaign has been completed by County Judge Lewis B. Porter and Mrs. V. A. Hudson, Assistant County Superintendent of Schools, both of whom have given generously of their time and effort.

Last year more than 1,800 residents of Mills County took advantage of the opportunity to have free chest X-rays and, Mr. Campbell said, it is hoped that this year many, many more will do so.

Deadline Nears For Service From Telephone Co-op

Applications for service from the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative will continue to be received during the next two or three weeks at most and so residents of rural areas who wish to have modern, dial telephone service have only a little time in which to join the Co-op, Secretary Ernest E. Wilson said this week.

"We can accept applications for service only until the end of the period of the engineering survey, which will be completed very soon," Mr. Wilson said.

He added that applications will be received and processed immediately at the office of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, which is located in Goldthwaite on Fourth Street, between Fisher Street and the railroad tracks. The office is open daily from 9:00 a. m. until noon and from one o'clock until four o'clock in the afternoon with Mrs. Delton Barnett in charge.

Mr. Wilson said that on Thursday of last week Richard F. Richter, regional head of the telephone division of the Rural Electrification Administration, was in Goldthwaite where he conferred with the officers and directors of the Central Telephone Cooperative. Mr. Richter approved all of the organizational arrangements that had been made by the Co-op and he said that upon his return to Washington he would order the immediate start of an engineering survey. Mr. Richter, whose jurisdiction includes all of the deep South and much of the Southwest, went to Washington from Goldthwaite after praising the work that had been done by the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative in the course of the planning of the organization to date.

The Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, of which Willis A. Hill is the President, will provide dial telephone service to rural residents in an area that includes all or parts of nine Counties. Despite shortages that have been imposed by the national emergency, material for stations, exchanges and transmission lines have been allocated to the Co-op with assurances of delivery, Mr. Wilson said this week.

Put Out Old Magazines And Paper Monday Night To Help Garden Club

Next Monday night everybody will have the long-awaited chance to dispose of accumulations of old newspapers, magazines and cartons and at the same time help the Cemetery Committee of the Goldthwaite Garden Club.

Mrs. John G. Berry, Chairman of the Garden Club's Cemetery

Scouts will collect your old newspapers and magazines, which will be sold in Waco to provide funds for the fine work that is being done in the erection of Austin stone posts along the eastern border of the Goldthwaite Memorial Cemetery. Mrs. Berry made the following requests:

1 — Please tie newspapers and magazines securely in bundles that may be handled easily.

2 — On Monday night place the bundles on your front porch or in front of your house and light the porch light or a light in a front room as a signal to the Boy Scouts that you have paper and magazines for them.

3 — If you live outside Goldthwaite, please tie up your old newspapers and magazines and take them to H. E. Moreland & Son's feed store on the south side of the Square.

Mrs. Berry emphasized the desire of the Garden Club's Cemetery Committee to have all residents of the County participate in the paper collection. She urged persons who live outside Goldthwaite to bring old newspapers and magazines to the Moreland warehouse on Monday of next week, when arrangements will be made to unload them quickly.

In order to help the Cemetery Committee of the Garden Club, Mrs. Berry said, Jesse C. Moreland has agreed to accept bundles of old newspapers and magazines at the feed store. The bundles that will be collected by the Boy Scouts will be warehoused at the H. E. Moreland & Son establishment and then Mr. Moreland will truck them to Waco, without cost to the Garden Club, so that the full proceeds from the campaign to collect paper will be realized by the Garden Club's Cemetery Committee.

If the Garden Club is to continue the work at the Goldthwaite Memorial Cemetery, Mrs. Berry said, additional funds must be obtained and the campaign to collect old newspapers and magazines has been decided upon as a means of raising money — which also will help householders and operators of business establishments to clear their premises of accumulations of paper.

Rainfall Brings Joy Throughout All Mills County

Moderate to hard showers that on Wednesday of this week followed soaking rains of last Friday night and early Saturday morning brought joy to everybody in Mills County who depends upon rain. That was everybody.

As this news of the rain was being written the skies still were cloudy and there was promise of more rainfall. The precipitation on Wednesday was general and varied from a quarter inch to half an inch. The rainfall of late last week varied from one inch out Starway to as much as 2 1/2 inches in the Pecan Bayou country.

Wednesday's rain, incidentally, had been predicted by Roy Lee Hill, thereby bringing into grave question the accuracy of the old Texas saw that down here anybody who predicts the weather is either a stranger or a fool. Mr. Hill is neither. He kept an Eagle weather story out of type right up until Wednesday afternoon because of his strong conviction, which he nurtured even before the high winds of last Tuesday night, that it would rain on Wednesday.

As for the rainfall of last Friday night and early Saturday night (Continued on Back Page.)

Henry W. Turney Assumes New Post In Soil Service

Henry W. Turney, who has been designated to succeed Ben R. Day as Chief of the Goldthwaite Work Unit of the United States Soil Conservation Service, assumed his new duties in Goldthwaite this week although he does not contemplate establishing residence here until after the close of the school term.

servation District with headquarters in the San Saba office of the Production Marketing Administration of the Department of Agriculture, is spending more and more time on his new assignment although he will continue to maintain his home in Goldthwaite until the schools close for the summer vacation.

Mr. Turney, who was Range Conservationist with headquarters at Dublin until he was assigned to the Goldthwaite post, is well known in Mills County. A native of Colorado, Mr. Turney has lived in Texas since infancy and he calls the Dublin area "home." He was graduated from Texas A. & M. College in 1935. Then, until 1940, he worked out of Dublin as a range conservationist. From 1940 to 1941 he was Work Unit conservationist at Hamilton and until January of 1942 he held a similar post at Glen Rose.

Death Calls H. B. Gilbert, Vice President Of Trent State Bank

H. B. Gilbert, Vice President of the Trent State Bank of Goldthwaite, died at 3:20 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon of this week in hospital at Wichita Falls. He had been taken to Wichita Falls only recently from hospital in Brownwood, where he had been treated after having been stricken at his desk at the bank in Goldthwaite in mid-March.

Mr. Gilbert had been an executive officer and a member of the Board of Directors of the Trent State Bank since April 1 of 1950. When he was stricken, he was alone in the bank except for Warren P. Duren, another Vice President, who summoned medical aid and arranged for the removal of Mr. Gilbert to the Brownwood hospital.

A former national bank examiner, Mr. Gilbert had a long and successful career in banking. Following his secondary education in preparatory school, he majored in business administration at Dickson College. His under-graduate work was followed by post-graduate studies at Harvard University, Columbia University, and at Southern Methodist University, where the emphasis of his studies was on sociology, economics and law. He also pursued studies in journalism.

For a number of years Mr. Gilbert's banking activity was in the 11th Federal Reserve District. His additional experience included posts in Atlanta, Boston and St. Louis. He had traveled widely, thereby broadening his horizons of business, intellectual and cultural interests.

Mr. Gilbert was a prominent layman in the Baptist Church for many years and he was the author of several works relating to man and his spiritual life. He made his home in Dallas for many years.

Funeral services for Mr. Gilbert were scheduled for ten o'clock on Thursday morning of this week at the First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls. Interment will be at four o'clock on Friday afternoon of this week at Murray, Kentucky, where Mr. Gilbert was born.

Vice President Duren announced that in respect of the memory of Mr. Gilbert the Trent State Bank in Goldthwaite will be closed until eleven o'clock on Thursday morning of this week.

Mr. Gilbert, who was 73, is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth McCoy of Houston and Mrs. Mary Sue Douglas of Wichita Falls. In addition, he is survived by three grandsons and two grand-daughters. Mrs. Gilbert died several years ago.

PMA And SCS To Merge Offices At Court House

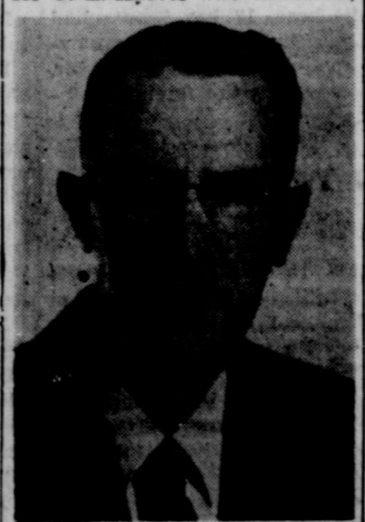

A recommendation to the Texas State Agriculture Mobilization Committee that combined offices of the Production Marketing Administration and the United States Soil Conservation Service be established in the Mills County Court House resulted from a meeting on Tuesday of this week.

Present at the meeting were Willis A. Hill and J. H. Priddy of the Board of Supervisors of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District, Leston F. Bain, P.M.A. Administrative officer; Henry W. Turney, Chief of the Goldthwaite Work Unit of the S.C.S., Don Clark of Mullin, representing teachers of vocational agriculture; County Agriculture Agent George G. Reese, George Dorman of the Farmers Home Administration, and A. A. Downey, Harry Welch and Luther Soules of the Mills County Agriculture Committee.

Following the meeting and as result of a prior conference with County Judge Lewis B. Porter, Mr. Bain said that adequate accommodations for the combined P.M.A. - S.C.S. offices could be provided at the Court House and that accordingly, the appropriate recommendation had been made to the State committee. It was expected that the recommendation would be approved and that Mr. Turney and the technicians (Continued on Back Page.)

Cub Scouts To Ride Y. E. Hoover's Doodle Bug To Brownwood Saturday

Medals for bravery in line of duty for the Santa Fe Railroad were being struck off this week for Y. E. Hoover who tomorrow,

Y. E. HOOVER

Saturday, will escort some 50 Cub Scouts from Goldthwaite on a train ride to Brownwood. At 7:45 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday morning, the Goldthwaite Cubs will rally at the railroad station. Each one of them will have to have 51 cents for a half-fare ticket to Brownwood — including the federal transportation tax. Fathers of the Cubs are also invited to make the trip, which will cost fathers $1.00, including the federal transportation tax.

This month the Cubs have been studying railroading. So, the Goldthwaite Cub Scout Pack Committee went to Mr. Hoover and asked for the cooperation of his Santa Fe Railroad, which went right to work in a big way. When train number 73 pulls into Goldthwaite tomorrow morning, it will have an extra, special car for the Cubs. Further, it will be drawn by a steam locomotive and so tomorrow it cannot be called by its usual undignified name, the "Doodle Bug." The train is due in Brownwood at 9:00 o'clock. Loyally, Mr. Hoover points out that number 73 has been running fairly on time recently. That is why the Cubs are being asked to gather at the railroad (Continued on Back Page.)

Sheriff Offers Tips On Filing Property Taxes

Mills County citizens were reminded again this week by Sheriff-Tax Assessor-Collector C. F. Stubblefield that this is the time to be certain that all property assessments are on file at his office.

"Please be sure that your property has been rendered for 1951," Sheriff Stubblefield said. "As you know, homesteads are exempt from State taxes. The only way for you to insure that you will receive this exemption is for you to make a personal rendition of your property."

"Property owners also will find it to their advantage to see to it that the correct acreages and descriptions of their property are given on all assessments. This will frequently save needless trouble and expense in later years."

"If your property has not been assessed for the year 1951, please come to the Tax Assessor's office and file your rendition as soon as possible."

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN CHINA

One of the most important portions of the truly great speech that General Douglas MacArthur made to the Congress last week has been overlooked by most of the editorial writers and radio commentators. But the words with which General MacArthur tried to underline the significant changes of the past 50 years in China are so important that we believe they ought to be hammered home to every American.

In the terrific Chinese upheavals of 1911 and 1912, the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen lit the fires of nationalism in even the most distant marches of China. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek used nationalism in his effort to unify China and the ravages of the long series of civil war and the cruelties inflicted by the invading Japanese all served to make the Chinese despair of being able to live at peace.

In the midst of heart-rending poverty, in the depth of despair that multiplied human suffering created, and with the recognition by a proud people that they had been exploited repeatedly for the enrichment of "foreign devils" of various nationalities, the Chinese became aggressive.

As events continue to unfold, all of us will have sad reason to regret the change in the individual philosophy of the Chinese. For 30 years, Moscow indoctrinated a Chinese leadership which, in turn, passed on its thinking to the peasantry.

As we continue to debate the issues that stand out so boldly between General MacArthur and the Washington Administration, we shall be missing the boat if we fail to give due consideration to General MacArthur's warning that the Chinese are not what they used to be in their minds and hearts.

GUEST EDITORIAL

Editor's Note: Under the title, "Duty Made Plain. We Fall at Peril," the Dallas Morning News last Friday morning commented on General Douglas MacArthur's address to the Congress. The editorial follows in full.

"This is a military estimate, one to which I have yet to hear any military leader take exception."

The gist of Douglas MacArthur's brief report to the Congress and his country is exactly as he describes it. It is the military estimate that the President and the carping critics attacking his character and his conduct have not dared to admit. In all the effluvia of administrative words from the policymaker in the White House and the demagogue in Congress and the radio predictors unscarred in battle but with fine courage to knife a fighting soldier in the back, not one has given the answer that the general said he did not have to give when his soldiers in Korea ask: "Why are we not permitted to use every means in our power to win in the face of the enemy?"

As his military estimate, MacArthur summarized once more the measures necessary to win, including the vital necessity of complete air reconnaissance and attack on the Chinese concentrations outside of Korea. Without these, the best we can hope to achieve is stalemate at high cost in attrition. And in saying that he believes the simple military need of these measures is the belief of all capable military leaders, including the Joint Chiefs of Staff, MacArthur has had as corroboration both what Omar Bradley pointed failed to say Tuesday as well as his statement that there could be no decision.

To the microphone in Washington MacArthur brought a new conception in his appraisal of the Red Chinese as an imperialistic, expansionist power on the march whose interests for the moment parallel those of Russia, but which must be feared for itself. MacArthur from the point of actual contact sees the new China as an effective military unit and the driving power that is doing all of the fighting in Korea on its own. So to the fear that the measures he urges will bring Red China into the war, his answer is that Red China is already in the war with all the force it is able to command. As to Russia, his considered opinion is that any move we make against Red China will have no bearing on what the Soviet does. Russia will attack when and where it is ready and it is best deterred by our proven ability to hold the line of the Pacific from the Aleutians through Formosa to the Philippines.

MacArthur viewed as sound Truman's decision to go into Korea "in which I was not consulted," but he spanked the President sharply without direct naming when he tore apart the criticism of the four measures necessary to win in Korea. And our major U.N. allies got their own merited reproof when he warned that the era of colonialism in Asia is through and that it had best be written (Continued on Page 11.)

Congressman Fisher Sided With MacArthur Even Before Address

(Editor's Note: Because of lack of space in last week's Eagle, we were not able to print the usual weekly letter from this district's Congressman, Representative O. C. Fisher of San Angelo. Congressman Fisher wrote before General Douglas MacArthur made his address to the Congress. Since it is most interesting to note the attitude of Representative Fisher even before the address by General MacArthur, his letter is published here, even though it is a week old.)

Final debate and passage of a draft-UMT bill by the House last week was overshadowed by President Truman's removal of General MacArthur from his command posts in the Far East. Not since the Soviet-directed Communists invaded South Korea last May has the capital been so stirred. After all, here was a case of one of the great soldiers in American history ending his career in dismissal from high office. And many felt that but for the foreign policy bungling the incident could have been averted.

Congressional mail doubled immediately. Telegrams by the thousands came to Congressmen, mostly protesting the replacement of the Pacific hero. One Texas Congressman said he received 1500 telegrams in two days. I received 26 telegrams, with 57 signers; 15 letters and one petition signed by 40 people. Suggestions of impeachment flooded the capitol. Others pointed out, however, that our Constitution does not permit impeachment of a President for exercising a legal right. Article II, Section 4, of the Constitution states: "The President, Vice-President and all civil officers of the United States shall be removed from office on impeachment for a conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

Transcending the immediate issues between the President and the General, there is the fundamental principle of the superiority of civilian over military control. In certain South American countries a Commanding General is often above civil control. But under our constitutional system the military is made subservient to civilian authority. Our Constitution says that policy with respect to the conduct of a war is made by the President of the United States. That policy under our system may be wise or unwise; but the Constitution puts the making of policy in the civilian hands of the Chief Executive, whomever he may be.

At the end of the war President Truman, exercising his constitutional authority appointed General MacArthur Supreme Commander over the islands of Japan; in 1951, exercising the same authority, he replaced him with General Ridgway.

General MacArthur has served with great distinction in the Pacific. There he has performed for the United States, the United Nations and the Far Eastern Command enjoyed almost complete immunity in the main island itself. In this triple role has been under the caps. He has been vague directives from the East. And there has been sparing criticism in Europe, which has followed his efforts to give directives at face value. He has been faced with the problem in the "perpetual" of Manchuria, all of these factors to cause the General more and more on his initiative.

I personally believe that we should support Chiang Kai-shek fight against the Communists. Above all, equipment, guns and General MacArthur's command in Korea course, suffered from prohibition against the aggressor's arms and lines inside the island is indeed a strange Commanding General handicapped.

General MacArthur annoyed at these lack of policies. And strong-minded individuals frequently expressed their opinion publicly. His views were apparently to some of the President. The recent that on two occasions and March 24 the General warned by the Joint Staff that no further commands should be issued without first being in Washington. Subsequent by General MacArthur precipitated the President in replacing him.

In any event, we hope the resulting appearance of the General and Congress and committees, and his the American people to clarify the issues and subject his firm on to the scrutiny and Congressional reaction. He opinion. If the should lead to appoint the enemies of freedom the consequences of the ment will, of course be.

Certainly the present situation over MacArthur's on the part of some nations which have effort by doing least hard to take.

There is every indication the successor—Lt. Gen. B. Ridgway—is a man of high courage, of high and genuine military

Mrs. Roy Weatherby Reviews Book Garden Club Installs Officers:

Officers of the Goldthwaite Garden Club who will start their terms next September were installed by Mrs. Earl T. Fairman at a meeting of the Club at the Jennie Trent Dew Library on Wednesday afternoon of last week. In addition to the installation, a highlight of the meeting was a book review by Mrs. Roy Weatherby. Members who were present at the meeting said that Mrs. Weatherby did more than merely review a book—she told a deeply moving story in memorable fashion. It had special appeal for ladies with green thumbs.

MRS. JERNIGAN

The officers who were installed by Mrs. Fairman were Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan, President for a second term; Mrs. Philip Nickols, First Vice President; Mrs. W. M. Johnson, Second Vice President; Mrs. Eric D. Roberson, Third Vice President for a second term; Mrs. Lloyd King, Recording Secretary; Mrs. R. C. Johnson, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. Norman Duren, Treasurer.

Also installed at the meeting were Mrs. E. O. Shepherd, Reporter; and Mrs. M. F. Horton, Assistant Reporter.

"Old Herbaceous" by Reginal Arrel was the title of the book on horticulture that was reviewed by Mrs. Weatherby, who held her audience spellbound as she traced the life of a flower-lover from his start as a founding until he achieved an ambition to become a Flower Show judge. Mrs. Weatherby was a guest of the Club and her presentation was praised enthusiastically by the members.

Mrs. Jernigan said this week that the next meeting of the Goldthwaite Garden Club on May 16 will take the form of a local Pilgrimage, when members will visit various gardens in and near Goldthwaite. Places to be included in the Pilgrimage will be announced later.

Mrs. Stallings Reviews Book At Study Club Tea

A review of the humorous book, "Wrap It As A Gift," was presented last Saturday afternoon at the Jennie Trent Dew Library to members of the Tuesday Study Club and their guests by Mrs. Leonard Stallings of Ballinger.

Mrs. E. B. Gilliam, Jr., was the hostess for the afternoon which, in view of the rain of last Friday night and early Saturday morning, had "April Showers" as a theme that turned out to be most appropriate. The tea table was decorated with a small, pink-ruffled umbrella which shaded a colonial bouquet.

Guests from out-of-town included Mrs. Stallings, Mrs. E. B. Gilliam, Sr., and Miss Ruby Long of Brownwood, and Mrs. Gilford Scott of Coleman.

Midnight Dinner To Tired Firemen Really Rang Bell

A surprise midnight dinner party at which they had not expected to be hostesses was given as Thursday of last week rolled into Friday by Mrs. Preston Slaughter, Mrs. Pete Smith and Mrs. Francis Cobb.

At the time, the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department and volunteer smoke-eaters from Mullin and Zephyr had been fighting a huge grass fire, on which there is a report elsewhere in this week's Eagle. At midnight, the weary and begrimed fire-fighters were pleased and delighted when Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. Slaughter and Mrs. Smith appeared, seemingly out of nowhere, with a repast that had the Goldthwaite firemen still talking about it this week.

"It sure was good," Jesse C. Moreland of the Goldthwaite Fire Department said as he started in, beginning with cheese, to run off a list of the good food that was served at the midnight dinner by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Slaughter. If you could hear the firemen talk about it, ladies, you would be deeply happy over your good deed. "Coffee never tasted better," Mr. Moreland said this week.

Senior Class Wants A Cat For Role In Its Play On May 11th

A cat capable of being an actor is being sought by the Class of 1951 of the Goldthwaite High School for the Senior Play, "The Adorable Imp," which will be presented at eight o'clock on the night of May 11 at the Grammar School Auditorium. Under the caption, "Does Anybody Have a Cat?" Miss Angeline Smith, press agent for "The Adorable Imp," sent out an appeal this week as she sought to cast a cat.

"Without revealing any secrets of the Senior Play and without disclosing any information of the plot, the Senior Class wishes to advertise for a cat," Miss Smith said.

"This cat is a necessity in the play and has an important role. So, if anyone has a cat, especially one that is dramatically inclined, the Senior Class would appreciate being able to borrow it. It is to be kept in mind that here is an opportunity offering good experience for the cat!

"The cat must be a sturdy character able to endure a loud Irish brogue from a rough, red-faced Irish cook, and a dreadful, nasal twang from an awkward butler. Another qualification this cat must have is the ability to withstand adverse criticism from a cat-hating woman, who has an allergy to cats. The Senior Class would prefer that the cat NOT be subject to stage fright in the presence of many people—because a large crowd is expected on May 11 to see "The Adorable Imp."

Miss Smith requested that any member of the Senior Class be notified of the availability of a cat to join the cast of the Senior Play, other members of which are Eunice Lockridge, Mildred Hale, Barbara Blackburn, Miss Smith, Janetha Welch, Joyce Hart, John Carothers, Fred Smart, Harvey Parker, Virgil Terry and Jimmy Hays.

Red Cross Course In Child Care Starts May 2 If Enough Enroll

Anybody interested in taking an instructive American Red Cross course on mother and child care that places most of the emphasis on the rearing of children from infancy to six years of age may have an opportunity to do so simply by telephoning Mrs. T. C. Graves at Goldthwaite 199-J before the end of this week.

Mrs. Graves, who is Mills County Home Nursing Chairman for the American Red Cross, said that a new course in mother and child care will be started next Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist Education Building on Fisher Street by Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., if sufficient persons enroll for the course before the end of this week.

"If 14 or 15 persons enroll, Mrs. Stokes will teach the course three afternoons a week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday—from three o'clock until five o'clock," Mrs. Graves said. "The course will be exceedingly helpful to mothers of small children or to those who are entrusted with the care of children from infancy to six years of age. Also, it will provide valuable instruction in the care of new mothers and infants."

The course, Mrs. Graves said, can be completed in 12 hours of instruction or in two weeks. She emphasized, however, that if a new course is to be given, 14 or 15 persons should enroll with her in time for Mrs. Stokes to start her class at three o'clock next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Stokes recently completed such a course and certificates were awarded to Mrs. J. C. Long, Mrs. Clarence Heath, Mrs. J. D. Harper, Mrs. Fred D. Reynolds, Mrs. Charles Haenisch, and Mrs. Dayton Boren.

The course, as has been the case with previous courses, is part of the nationwide effort that is being made by the American Red Cross to educate at least two per cent of the American people in home nursing as a contribution to the national defense.

Lieut. James L. Ervin Identified As Navy's "Korean Lamplighter"

First Lieutenant James L. Ervin of Ranger, a nephew of the Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin of Goldthwaite, was identified this week as the man who has been called the "Korean Lamplighter" by American troops in Korea.

Lieut. Ervin, who also is a nephew of Mrs. W. M. Johnson of Goldthwaite, is a Wing Technical Inspector. Just before the present Chinese Red offensive began in Korea, he devised a method of dropping Navy flares activated by a static cable attached to a C-47 plane for the purpose of illuminating hostile targets for American artillery and fliers.

In addition to having devised an effective means of lighting up enemy targets and communications, Lieut. Ervin also has been busy dropping tacks and roofing nails on the network of Red roadways for the purpose of puncturing the tires of hostile troop and supply transport.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ervin of Ranger, Lieut. Ervin was born in Goldthwaite. He attended school here through the primary grades. With his family he moved to Ranger a number of years ago—but Goldthwaite is able to claim him as a man who made an outstanding contribution to the hard task of fighting an implacable foe in difficult terrain and under conditions that have hampered American fighting forces because of the night movements and guerrilla tactics of the enemy.

During the past two weeks battle front reports from Korea have made frequent grateful references to the "Korean Lamplighter," who has been credited with enabling American gunners and bombers to pinpoint and hit targets such as troop concentrations and ammunition dumps that otherwise could not have been spotted.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Johnson, Marsha and Chas. Wilkins visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Roy Wilkins who is in the Scott and White Hospital at Temple for treatment.

Obenhaus Is Sad About Nurses And Big Hypodermics

Justice of the Peace E. A. Obenhaus, who recently underwent a surgical operation in a Brownwood hospital, was back on the job this week on a schedule that will remain on a limited basis during his period of recuperation.

Mr. Obenhaus said that he was making steady progress toward regaining his strength and, as he was welcomed back into the fellowship of the Square, he promised that he would do his best to obey the orders of his physicians.

When he was asked whether, while in hospital, he was able to perform what to him is the best part of the office of a Justice of the Peace—the solemnization of marriages—Mr. Obenhaus looked distressed. The only possible candidates who came to his attention, he said, were nurses. Unhappily, he added, just about every time he saw the nurses they were equipped NOT with prospective bridegrooms but with hypodermic needles which, invariably, they stuck into none other than E. A. Obenhaus.

4-H Club Boys Judge Saturday At Stephenville

They will be accompanied by County Agriculture Agent George G. Reese.

District Agent R. G. Burwell said that at Stephenville tomorrow the contestants will be 300 boys from 18 Counties.

Four-man teams composed of three boys and an alternate will judge dairy cattle, livestock, poultry, and grass classification. Judging will get under way at 9:30 a. m. at the college farm, and President E. J. Howell will present the awards at 2:30 p. m. in the college auditorium.

Other counties in District 8 are Stephens, Palo Pinto, Eastland, Erath, Hood, Johnson, Ellis, Somervell, Comanche, Brown, Bosque, Hill, Hamilton, Coryell, McLennan, Limestone, and Falls.

Hey, Franklin!—News Of Myrlene

This story is written especially for Franklin Dew Weathers, who is in boot camp at the U. S. Naval Training Center at San Diego, California. Yoo hoo, Franklin! Now for the story: Miss Myrlene Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds, was one of 50 girls who were selected to be models in the finals of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram styled dress review in Fort Worth on Wednesday of last week. There were 276 entries in the show.

Miss Reynolds was accompanied to Fort Worth by her mother, Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., and Margaret Anne Stokes. After the dress review they visited Mrs. Reynolds' sister, Mrs. W. K. Holeyfield, and her family, in Fort Worth.

Mrs. J. D. Urquhart had as weekend guests her niece, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Holderness of Carlsbad, New Mexico. Mrs. Holderness also went to Temple to visit her brother, Marshall Miller, who has been in the Scott and White Hospital for some time. Mr. Miller was brought home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Melvin Harris and Marshall and Judy spent Saturday in Lampasas visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Casbeer and family.

J. S. Smith Becomes Press Agent For Mrs. Grover Dalton's Goats

A letter to the Eagle this week from J. S. Smith of Rt. 1, Goldthwaite, who has been reading this newspaper for 56 years, sought to persuade the editor to go out to Grover Dalton's Heart o' Texas goat farm, photograph one of the Dalton goats, and then print the picture on the front page.

"I want you to go and visit Mr. and Mrs. Dalton and see their milk goats," Mr. Smith wrote. "You will see some of the prettiest things you have seen in a long time if you will get Mrs. Dalton to put her arms around one of the goats. Their picture in the newspaper will get you 50 new subscribers."

When Mr. Smith's letter fell into the hands of this reporter he went in to interview the editor and to tell him that among other things, Mr. Smith, who said he liked the Eagle, gave high credit for the standard of this newspaper to Miss Earlene Nix and to Franklin Dew Weathers, now of the United States Navy. After the editor and the reporter saw eye to eye on a fervent hope that Miss Nix would not follow our Franklin into the Navy, the matter of the Dalton goats was disposed of with the editor's observation that he had already visited and admired the Dalton goats—and that the mere prospect of 50 new subscribers would give him nightmares because of the increasingly more serious shortage of newsprint.

As for the remainder of Mr. Smith's good letter, he said that he and Doc L. P. Huddleston were reared in Cumberland County, Kentucky, where "Doc dug ginseng for a living and where he saw the coconuts." The coconuts referred to by Mr. Smith were the strange critters that were found recently by Jimmy Culwell and which Doc Huddleston identified as moths in their preliminary stages.

Finally, Mr. Smith wrote that "according to an agreement between me and the former owner

Mark Fades Into Memory As Shipman Dismantle Old Gin

After it was es-were in what then was the Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, and the remainder were in Texas. The Goldthwaite gin was built on what now is known as the property of the late J. E.

Greathouse.

Mrs. Greathouse said that in 1905 the property was bought by B. F. Geeslin, who now lives in Edinburgh. Later the late A. J.
Gatlin became associated in the business with Mr. Geeslin.

In 1911, Mrs. Greathouse said, her late husband purchased the property. Subsequently, with the exception of a period of two years, it was in his possession until it ceased operations.

Mrs. Greathouse recalled that in 1919 there were two gins in operation in Goldthwaite and although they ran 24 hours a day during the ginning season there were times when they were behind in their schedules by as much as 60 bales a day.
That indicated that only 30 years ago cotton was "king" in Mills County.

Liss Walker Is Hot Defender Of Luther E. Booker

On April 13 the Eagle printed a story about how J. V. Black-burn's dog, Shep, had obeyed orders and had found Mr.
Blackburn's lost purse, and about the tall tales that Luther Booker is fond of telling about his late dog, Doc. That story has brought a communication from Liss "Old Friday" Walker, who now lives in Austin.

"I want you folks at Goldthwaite to leave my old friend Lute Booker alone," Mr. Walker wrote. "He and I belong to the International Liars' Association and, as single liars, we are duly entitled to all the favors shown this Association. We have free passes over all railroads, rivers, bridges and canals—provided we walk and carry our baggage."

After his admissions regarding himself and Mr. Booker, Mr.
Walker:

1 — Condemned President Truman in scorching words for firing General Douglas MacArthur.

2 — Blasted President Truman to bits for retaining Dean Acheson as Secretary of State.

3 — Castigated both the President and the Secretary of State for not having listened to General MacArthur's address to the Congress.

4 — Laid out the United Nations in little pieces for being "useless."

5 — Reiterated his conviction that what is needed in Washington is a "house-cleaning."

6 — Said that we should either take American troops out of Korea or let them win the war there.

in the fire alarm when he smelled the fragrance of burning pine. The hot stove league at the G. I. School was greatly

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

With humbleness of heart and thanksgiving to the Giver of all Good Gifts, we rejoice over the good rain that fell here Friday night. My husband slipped out early Saturday to the creek and to the tank to see what it really had done in the way of stock water. He came back beaming with joy and thankfulness. He said, "The creek has run through and is running still. The tank is full and has run around."

The cattle, which we had been having to water in a tub at the well, let us alone all day. Some came back late in the evening for cake. Sunday they didn't even come for cake. We can just see the grass getting green and beginning to grow. And the mocking bird is singing again, now we shall have to work overtime to plow and to plant again the corn and the maize and the garden that didn't come up.

Our rain gauge recorded 2.2 inches. Ezelle Thompson said the amount was less than two inches at their place, but it was over three inches at the Reeves place. We had some hail, but there wasn't much it could damage except that it battered my tomato plants and knocked some of the apples from my little apple tree.

Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley and Mrs. Edna Dwyer went to Brownwood to hear their cousin, P. D. Wilmeth, of San Antonio, who was holding evangelistic services at the Southside Church of Christ. After services they and P. D. had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth. Mrs. Lena Crowder was also a guest.

Cecil Egger took a load of sheep to the sale barn at Goldthwaite this past week.

Little Annette Duncan spent Thursday with Mrs. Edna Dwyer while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Duncan, rounded up sheep.

Joe Horton of Bangs and his son and son-in-law were fishing on the river Saturday night.

Perry Day has taken over the Day Ranch at Ebony and has had the timber knocked.

Mr. and Mrs. Raz Malone of Springfield, Ohio, spent Thursday night with his uncle, Ernest Malone. They had been visiting his brother, W. D. Malone, at Odessa and were on their way home.

Monday morning a car drove up. Its inmates said they knew us all right, but we just had to stare. We couldn't recognize them. It was Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hobbs of Albuquerque, N. M. Mrs. Hobbs is the former Lottie Yates. They both grew up in this community, but had not been here for forty years. Lee has been in the dairy business for many years, but has sold out, and they are enjoying life.

Since arriving in these parts over a week ago, they have visited his sister, Mrs. Bob Egger, at Brownwood; his niece, Mrs. Dewey Smith, at Ebony; her cousin, Charlie Griffin, at Ebony; his sister, Mrs. Callie Jones, at Goldthwaite; his niece, Mrs. Ruth Hanke at Cross Plains; her brother, Willis Yates, at Stephenville, and another brother, Frank Yates, at Waco. They have spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meek near Brownwood, and have attended a singing at Clear Creek and the Pioneer Reunion at Brownwood. They seem happy and prosperous, and are delightful visitors.

Little Miss Pamela Berry, complete with a mischievous smile, was a visitor to the Eagle office on Wednesday of this week. She watched the press in operation, leaving her mother, Mrs. J. D. Berry of Jones Valley, to sit outside in the car and entertain her sister, Becky, who is 2 1/2 months old.

Mrs. Luther Ward and her daughters, Carol and Odena, spent last Saturday in Brown-

Before a hushed and tense joint session of the House and Senate, General Douglas MacArthur appeared last week to make a dramatic report to the country on his stewardship in the Pacific.

It was estimated that a million people lined the streets to cheer the Pacific hero, and around 18 million witnessed the performance on television. So, although others have had receptions somewhat comparable, none approached the total who saw and heard MacArthur because television is of recent origin.

Mrs. MacArthur, dressed in blue with a white orchid given her by the Tennessee DAR, of which she is a member, preceded the General into the House. She sat in a gallery seat, looked down on the Senators and military attaches as they were announced. Then at exactly 12:30 the arrival of MacArthur was announced amid a tumult of cheers and applause. He spoke for 35 minutes.

This occasion was reminiscent of the other returning heroes of the war—Eisenhower, Nimitz, Bradley, Clay and Wainwright. Each of them were received in Washington when victory was abundant. It is difficult to pick out any one and say he was received with the most enthusiasm, but the post-war triumphal entry of Admiral Nimitz into the Capitol will be recalled for generations. It was probably the most grandiose of all history, and this is no reflection on the others.

The MacArthur message was firm, dramatic and challenging.

L. A. "Dickie" Sparkman Reports May 9 To 11th Airborne Division

First Lieutenant Lewis A. Sparkman, son of the Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Sparkman of Rt. 3, Goldthwaite, will report on May 9 for active duty with the 11th Airborne Division at Fort Bragg

L. A. SPARKMAN (Eagle Photo by Wicker.) North Carolina. Lieut. Sparkman last week received his orders recalling him to active military service.

A veteran of World War II, Lieut. Sparkman entered the Army on October 17, 1940. In January of 1943, he sailed to the Pacific Theater where for a year he was attached to the 39th Military Police Company. He saw service on Guadalcanal and on the Philippines island of Luzon. When he was discharged on January 25, 1946, he held the rank of First Lieutenant.

Lieut. Sparkman has been a member of the staff of the Goldthwaite Post Office since September of 1946. As an officer in the Organized Reserve Corps, he commanded the ORC unit in Mills County.

One of Lieut. Sparkman's brothers, William C. Sparkman, has been on duty for the past eight months in Korea, where he is attached to the 25th Infantry Division. While on a three-day pass and just 17 days before he landed on Guadalcanal, Lieut. Sparkman was married to the former Lorine Konze of Blanco on Christmas Day of 1942. They have two children — Ricky, 4, and Danna, 19 months.

He defended his belief that Chinese bases in Manchuria should be bombed, that Formosa should be defended, that Chinese Nationalists on Formosa should be aided and encouraged, and that an effective naval blockade be thrown around the Chinese coast.

The speech has set the stage for House and Senate committee hearings on the over-all Far Eastern policies. The General himself will have a chance to detail his plans and his strategic concepts in meeting the global challenge of Communist aggression.

The morale of Troops in Korea is running high these days. At least that is true with the 5th Marine division now engaged in the vicinity of Hongchon, according to a letter I just received from my former Secretary, Lt. Latham Ables of Brownwood. He was a Marine reservist and was recalled last August.

"I landed in Korea on February 16 (my birthday)", he reported, "and was assigned to 'B' company, 5th Marines. Upon reporting in I was given command of a rifle platoon and told that we were moving up in the attack. . .

"Our movement toward the 38th parallel has been slow and cautious in accordance with General Ridgway's policy of keeping the line intact and taking no chances".

Speaking of morale, Lt. Ables commented: "I can say that there is a mistaken idea in the States of 'low morale' of the troops over here—or at least so far as the 5th Marines are concerned. The boys are the finest I have ever seen and morale is about as high as it can get. . . Nothing at all seems to faze them and their combat efficiency is terrific".

Red Sox Baseball Team Limbers Up For Opening Game

Veterans of the Goldthwaite Red Sox baseball team have been working out in preparation for the 1951 season, the opening of which has been scheduled for later than usual because of chilly nights, Manager Howard Hoover said this week. He added, however, that there probably will be a game early next month.

By that time, Mr. Hoover said, the roster of Red Sox players is expected to be increased by baseball talent home from college.

Meanwhile, some of the old wheel-horses have been limbering up. They include Charlie McLean, Y. B. Johnson, Jr., Charles Conrad, Voyd Lee Doggett, and Lee Roy "Jake" Stacy.

Mr. Hoover hoped that by the time next week's Eagle comes off the press he would have an announcement of a game with a visiting team at the Goldthwaite Municipal Ball Park.

Mesdames V. C. Bradford, Eula Nickols, J. D. Harper and J. M. Hicks spent Thursday of last week in Brownwood, where they attended a District meeting of the Baptist Missionary Union.

Eight O'clock Is Set As New Time For DMBC Singing

W. C. Frazier, Song Leader of the Downtown Men's Bible Class, said this week that a new time—8:00 o'clock—has been set for the regular fortnightly singing of the Class tonight, Friday, at the Baptist Education Building on Fisher Street.

Mr. Frazier said that until further notice, the singing will be held every other Friday night at eight o'clock. He added that a fine program has been planned for this Friday night.

"We have invited some singers from out-of-town and we hope that they will be able to be with us," Mr. Frazier said. "In any event, we want everybody to know how happy we shall be to have them join in our singing."

County Officials Confer In Austin On Proposed Laws

County Judge Lewis B. Porter and Mrs. V. A. Hudson, Assistant County Superintendent of Schools, attended important legislative hearings in Austin on Monday of this week.

They were accompanied to Austin by Mrs. Hudson's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hudson of Evant, and by her son, Ray Campbell Hudson—who was described by Judge Porter as a fast young man on getting on to the complicated procedures of legislative hearings.

While in Austin Judge Porter attended a Senate committee hearing on the so-called gas tax bill, which would increase the tax on natural gas by one cent per 1,000 cubic feet. Judge Porter said the forecast in Austin was that the bill would not be enacted into law.

Judge Porter and Mrs. Hudson, with Ray Campbell continuing to learn about government, also participated in a hearing by the Committee on Education of the House of Representatives.

In Austin, Judge Porter paid a courtesy call on Col. Homer Garrison of the Texas Department of Public Safety and he conferred on highway matters with Major A. F. Temple of the same department. While the Mills County delegation was in Austin the members of it met up with Judge Porter's son-in-law, Earl Harkey of San Saba, who was in Austin on business.

Mullin Scouts Rate Highest At Spring Camporal

Scoutmaster Ray Barnett and the fifteen Scouts of Troop 46 from Mullin returned home last Sunday with the first place honors of the Spring Camporal that was held at Lampasas April 21 and 22. The Troop won the honor of being rated the "best all round Troop" of the camporal. The members won the distinction by their performance in the Scouting Skills contests held Sunday morning. The events consisted of contests in knot-tying, fire-building, flag folding, compass-reading, etc.

The camporal started Saturday afternoon. A Council-Fire was held Saturday night with each Troop presenting stunts and skits. Sunday morning worship services were held by the Rev. Hugh Baker of Lampasas. After the services were over, the Scouts began the competition of the camporal events.

Sunday afternoon the regular monthly Pow-Wow of the South District Scouters was held in conjunction with the camporal. Dr. T. C. Graves presided at the session. The forthcoming Scout Circus was discussed in detail and assignments were made to the various units. The Scout Circus is to be held at Memorial Hall, Brownwood, on May 12th.

The two Goldthwaite Scout Troops were unable to participate in the camporal because several of the Scout leaders were ill.

Why Ira O. Harvey Struts These Days

If you see Ira O. Harvey walking to or from the Post Office with a bit more of a strut than usual, it is because he won at canasta from Mrs. Harvey on Tuesday night of this week for the very first time since they became addicts of the game while visiting their daughter, Mrs. Lilla Harvey Broadbudd, in Chicago during the past winter. Now Mr. Harvey can quit bragging on his BIRD DOG, Ted, and on his prowess on the croquet court over in "Arkansas," for he has won a lot of "face" after long, patient months of canasta against Mrs. Harvey. Even the Harvey bird, a Budgeriga named Pat, was heard to cheer the big event in the canasta world last Tuesday night.

Methodists Launch Campaign For "Program Expansion" At Dinner

A dinner to launch the Program Expansion Campaign of the First Methodist Church of Goldthwaite was scheduled for Thursday night of this week with Dr. Harold G. Cook, President of McMurray College, as the principal speaker.

The Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor, said the dinner was designed to culminate the educational phase of the campaign, which has been in progress during the past four weeks. The campaign now has entered its financial phase.

Those who were scheduled to attend the "kick-off" dinner included all of those who have been working on the campaign, along with their husbands and wives, Brother Lovelace said. During the next two weeks campaign workers will solicit Church members for pledges, he added.

"The Church is endeavoring not only to set up a program that will be adequate for the needs of the membership in all departments but it also will take care of the Church's responsibility to suffering humanity throughout the world."

Llano Ball Team To Play Burnet Here On Friday

Tonight, Friday, at eight o'clock at the Municipal Ball Park in Goldthwaite, Llano will play Burnet in a District 22-A interscholastic league baseball game. It was announced this week by Coach Carl Knox — who added that the game will be played here because of Goldthwaite's superior ball park.

Coach Knox said that the game that had been slated for last Friday night between Llano and Goldthwaite here will be re-scheduled. It was washed out by the rain that made everybody so happy. On Tuesday of next week, the Goldthwaite High School team is scheduled to play Fredericksburg at Fredericksburg.

In the first real game of the season last Tuesday afternoon
Lampasas defeated Goldthwaite 8 to 0 at Goldthwaite. Throughout the first six innings the Goldthwaite players performed extrenely well and Coach Knox said the prospects were encouraging.
John Gilliam pitched all the way for Goldthwaite and held the visitors to three hits. Errors were responsible for Goldthwaite's defeat.

On Thursday night of this week Goldthwaite was scheduled to play a previously postponed game with Burnet at the Municipal Ball Park here.

Mrs. Kenneth Fisher, Kenny and Jack, of Beaumont, and Mrs. Robert Herron and Patricia of Silsbee were here over the weekend with their mother, Mrs.
A. B. Sheppard and their sister, Mrs. Melvin Harris and family.

Goldthwaite Volunteer Firemen Aid In Fighting Big Grass Blaze

Members of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department labored from Thursday evening of last week until the early hours of Friday morning to help to extinguish a spectacular grass fire that spread over the lands of Mrs. Ira Portwood, Pete Smith and Francis Cobb in the northwestern reaches of Mills County.

Early last Thursday night Jesse C. Moreland and Leonard Archer went to the scene of the big blaze which, after dark, was visible for many miles. Upon arrival, Mr. Moreland and Mr. Archer called for reinforcements from Goldthwaite.

In response to their call, Chief Jack Reid, W. C. Barnett and Fred Laughlin rushed to the scene of the fire with the tank truck of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department. It was about two o'clock Friday morning before the weary smoke-eaters returned to Goldthwaite. They reported that before the fire was extinguished it had spread over approximately 2,000 acres.

Volunteers from Mullin and Zephyr also labored to grapple with the flames which also burned over portions of land owned by Francis Kyle of Brownwood, Bunk Clayton, Henry Williams and the Buckner Orphans Home.

While fine grass and much improved pasture land was destroyed or damaged, no buildings were consumed by the flames. No loss of livestock was reported. For the most part the fire burned between U. S. Highway 84 and the Williams Ranch Road.

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

V. C. Segelquist of Payne Gap started last February when he planted an old field to Johnsongrass and Hubam clover. About 10 acres that was sown before a good rain really came up and produced such an excellent temporary pasture that a lot of people visited the Segelquist ranch to see it.

Carl Casbeer, technician of the Soil Conservation Service, Goldthwaite, made a clipping of the pasture in June and found that it would produce 11 tons of green grazing per acre. The growth of Johnsongrass and Hubam clover was shoulder high to the average man. Mr. Segelquist was saving this pasture until he needed the grazing.

In July, he turned 35 cows and their calves into the pasture where they could hardly be seen. The pasture furnished good grazing for 4 weeks. Mr. Segelquist mowed the field to kill some big weeds. When the September rains came, the Johnsongrass came out and furnished 10 days grazing for the some cows and calves.

This year Mr. Segelquist has sown 125 acres to Johnsongrass and Hubam clover for grazing. He also has 66 acres planted to oats and Hubam clover that he will use for temporary grazing.

Other farmers and ranchers in this area are trying Mr. Segelquist's pasture idea. They like the way Johnsongrass volunteers, and a good growth of clover will add nitrogen to the soil, and furnish high protein feed.

Highway Patrol Gives Lions Club Shooting Lessons

Representatives of the Highway Patrol of the Texas Department of Public Safety provided the program for the Goldthwaite Lions Club at a meeting on Tuesday night of this week. The high spot of the occasion was an astounding demonstration of marksmanship by Highway Patrol Captain Lawrence, who has held twelve world records for sharpshooting and who now holds six such records.

The Highway Patrol delegation to the Lions Club meeting included, in addition to Capt. McElroy, who is on duty in this area.

Brief speeches were made at the meeting by Captain Butler and Chief Elliott.

Also at Tuesday night's meeting the Lions Club nominating committee presented its slate of new officers, who were elected unanimously to take office on June 1. Those who will be installed on June 1 are Ray Duren, President; L. F. Bain, First Vice President; George G. Y. B. Johnson Takes Army Examination

Y. B. Johnson, Jr., teacher of vocational agriculture at the Goldthwaite High School, was ordered to one day of active military duty on Tuesday of this week for the purpose of taking a physical examination at Fort Hood. He passed the examination. Mr. Johnson, who is an officer in the Organized Reserve Corps with the rank of Captain, is an infantryman. He had temporary active duty during the past summer at the Red River Arsenal.

Henry W. Turney

Mr. Turney served in the Army of the United States from January 1942 until February of 1946, when he was discharged with the rank of Major. Since then, he has been Range Conservationist at Dublin. During World War II he served with the 38th Division, which fought with such distinction in New Guinea and on the Philippines islands of Leyte and Luzon after having been shipped to the combat areas from the Hawaiian Islands.

While in Goldthwaite early this week, Mr. Turney said that if he had been given his choice in selecting the post he would have preferred most in the current shifting around of Soil Conservation Service personnel, it would have been Mills County.

Mr. and Mrs. Turney have three sons—Bill, 7, John, 4, and Dick, 2.

Cub Scout Train station a 7:45 a. m.

Although tomorrow is Mr. Hoover's day off, he plans to escort the Cubs to Brownwood and, upon arrival there, take them through the roundhouse and other places of interest to young gentlemen who have been studying railroading.

After the Cubs have inspected the roundhouse and other railroad installations at Brownwood, they will hike to the Austin Avenue Park where they will play games, receive awards and eat the "nose-bag" lunch that each Cub has been asked to take with him. Then, the mothers of the Cubs will meet them at Austin Avenue Park and drive them home—along with any fathers who may have survived the day.

The whole idea for what will take the place of the April Pack Meeting of the Cubs was cooked up at a Cub Pack Committee meeting on Wednesday of last week, according to Mrs. T. C. Graves. At the meeting it was planned also that the Cubs will go to Memorial Hall in Brownwood on May 12, when they will perform as Cub Twirlers at the Scout Circus. More about that next week; it is enough for one week for Mr. Hoover and as many fathers as possible to expose themselves heroically to the hazards of a train ride with 50 Cubs to Brownwood.

of the Work Unit of the Soil Conservation Service soon would be operating from the same offices as the P.M.A. in the Court House under the general coordination program that has been ordered by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Bain said also that at the meeting last Tuesday it was decided that the group which met then and which is responsible for coordinating agricultural improvement activities in this County would meet on the first Tuesday of every month at the Court House.

Good Rainfall

day morning, Harry Allen measured it in Goldthwaite at 1.41 inches. Mrs. Clementine Wilmeth Briley reports an Ebony measurement of 2.2 inches and Miss Pearl Crawford reported the rainfall on Chappell Hill at 1.5 inches.

In Big Valley E. H. Hapgood, the Sage of Rancho Nueces, reported the precipitation of late last week as 1.1 inches while at Shady Oaks Ranch on the Lampasas highway the fall was 1.25 inches, according to Mrs. Flo Wilkie. One reason that Roy Lee Hill was so happy about the rain on Wednesday arose from the fact that at his place 3 1/2 miles southwest of Star the rainfall of last Friday night and Saturday morning measured only one inch—which was the least reported from anywhere in Mills County.

Eagle's Eye

has drawn a very clear picture of the situation in which we find ourselves now and, for that reason, I reprint in the following paragraphs a reflection of the thinking of one of our country's soundest and most experienced commentators. The following paragraphs are by Mr. Lawrence:

President Truman has split America. He has stirred up such dissension and division among the American people that the disunity which prevails today transcends in importance even the issues which led to his dismissal of General MacArthur.

From all over the country the evidence is piling up that Mr. Truman has stirred up bitterness such as has not been noted since the days before the Civil War. The emotional reaction to the dismissal of General MacArthur has not been lessened by the strangely partisan behavior that has developed in congress itself.

Thus, the Democrats at first resented the idea of a joint meeting to hear General MacArthur. Only upon further reflection did they decide to go along with plans to welcome the general.

Then came the sniping and the innuendoes. Mr. Truman, who told the Democrats gathered at the Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner to put the national interest above personal interest, promptly disregarded his own political impulses and started off another wave of bitterness by his innuendo against General MacArthur.

Then another incident brought more irritation when it was announced that the man to be sent by the White House to greet General MacArthur was General Vaughan.

No more studied way of belittling MacArthur's visit could have been dreamed up at the White House. If this is a sample of the political judgment of the President or of his advisers, it indicates that the poor strategy which led to the peremptory firing of MacArthur has not been followed by any better understanding of the public temper.

There were half a dozen ways by which the President could have relieved General MacArthur of his command. There were many ways by which the split in this country could have been avoided. But what is much worse is that the Democratic party in congress has lined up against General MacArthur and in defense of President Truman's arbitrary action. Conversely, the Republicans, seeing the whole thing take on a political flavor, have themselves lined up in self defense and in defense of General MacArthur.

Thus has the most important issue before the country—how to prevent a big-scale war—been turned over to political handling. This cannot bring a bipartisan approach to world policy. It cannot bring a united spirit behind any program of the administration. It is about the worst tragedy that could have befallen America.

President Truman must accept full responsibility for the blunder. One may in the White House suddenly decided to dismiss a general who had served
