Manual Ralph Woods, 25, Suffers Fatal Accident At Work In Odessa

Sudden death while Manual Ralph Woods, formerly of Goldthwaite, was on duty as an electrical service worker at Odessa last Saturday brought tragedy to his wife and three children and caused deep grief to his many relatives and friends in Mills County and elsewhere.

MANUAL RALPH WOODS
He was only 25.

While working last Saturday, Mr. Woods fell from an electrical utility pole. He suffered a broken neck, a broken right leg and a lacerated left arm. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Medical Center Hospital in Odessa. It is believed that while at work he touched a live wire and suffered shock, which caused his fall. Ironically, Mr. Woods was working "outside" at his own request. He had been transferred to work out-of-doors from an office position. He had been employed for four years by the Texas Electric Service Company.

In addition to his widow, Jane, Mr. Woods is survived by two sons, Manual Ralph, Jr., 4, and Leonard Carl, 2; a daughter, Nancy Lamoine, six months, and six brothers, Johnny M., Carl D., and Dean E., all of Odessa, and Gene, Donald and Denny L., all of Goldthwaite. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Tom Moore of San Saba, and Miss Carlene Woods of Goldthwaite.

Mr. Woods was a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Woods of Goldthwaite, both of whom survive.

Funeral services were conducted last Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Odessa. The Rev. Arthur DeLoach officiated. Mr. Woods was a member of the Baptist Church. Interment was in the Odessa Cemetery.

Mr. Woods had lived in Odessa since 1943. He was married in 1945. His widow is a native of Odessa.

R. E. Clements Seeks Williams Ranch Data For Historical Files

Any and all information regarding persons who formerly lived at Williams Ranch or who continue to reside in what once was regarded as the Williams Ranch trade territory will be welcomed by R. E. Clements.

Mr. Clements is engaged in a labor of love. Along with others who are working towards the establishment of a Mills County Historical Society, Mr. Clements is gathering and compiling historical information regarding Mills County in anticipation of the time when a Society will have accurate and adequate files.

"I will appreciate it if I may have sent to me the names and addresses of all persons who live or who did live in the Williams Ranch territory," Mr. Clements said this week. "I would like to have short family sketches, where the families came from, and information regarding the businesses in which they engaged while in the Williams Ranch trade territory."

Mr. Clements pointed out that persons who now live away from Mills County have a rich fund of information regarding Williams Ranch and the people who lived and traded there before the coming of the railroad resulted in the establishment of Goldthwaite. Such information, he said, should be compiled, indexed and filed for safe keeping for the benefit of posterity. So please send your information on Williams Ranch and the people who have Williams Ranch ties so that precious Horse racing, starting at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 23 at the airstrip by the Hangar three miles south of Goldthwaite, will be offered by John A. Jackson and Jack Locklear, it was announced this week.

Mr. Jackson and Mr. Locklear said there will be six races, three of which will be local — open to youngsters on ponies, to cowboys and to cowgirls. In addition, there will be three open races which are expected to attract fine horseflesh and talented riders from near and far. Purses and specifications will be announced later. Meanwhile, Mr. Jackson and Mr. Locklear wanted to be sure that everybody knows that the first race will be run at 2:00 p. m. on Saturday, June 23.

RECOVERING

V. C. BRADFORD

V. C. Bradford, who suffered a slight apoplexy last Saturday afternoon, returned on Tuesday from treatment at the Scott and White Hospital in Temple under strict orders to rest, "not to worry," and to obey orders from the doctors and Mrs. Bradford. After Mr. Bradford was stricken, he and his wife were accompanied to Temple by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gilliam, Jr., and the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph L. Emery of Houston. Mr. Bradford was to be allowed to undertake limited activities starting on Thursday of this week. But take it easy, Brad, or the Eagle will ban use of the words PONTIAC and BRADFORD'S WESTERN AUTO ASSOCIATE STORE.

Edgar Leonhard Goes To Germany

Edgar Leonhard, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Leonhard, has been assigned to Army duty in Germany. Edgar, who recently spent a furlough in Mills County, reported back to duty at Fort Dix, New Jersey, whence he was "shipped out" for duty with United States occupation forces in the American zone of Germany.

Ten More Miles Of Farm Road Set For Mills County

Ten more miles of farm-to-market road will be built in Mills County as result of action last Monday by the Commissioners Court in accepting a Minute from the Texas Highway Department.

The new farm-to-market road will extend from highway 16, at a point 3 of a mile south of Priddy, westward for 10.2 miles to a road intersection one mile west of Democrat.

By accepting the Minute from the Texas Highway Department, the Commissioners made the proposed highway improvement subject to eligibility for inclusion in the Federal Aid Secondary system. The road will be improved to provide a two lane dustless surface. The Commissioners agreed that Mills County will provide the right of way free of cost to the State.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer now will be directed to proceed with construction of the road "in the most feasible and economical manner and to assume the road for maintenance upon completion of construction."

County Judge Lewis B. Porter said this week that County Clerk Earl Summy had sent a certificate of the Commissioners Court Minutes to the Texas Highway Department.

Jack Davis and daughter, Miss Wanda Davis, spent several days visiting relatives at Houston recently.

24 County School Buses Will Travel 2500 Miles Daily

A preliminary survey of school bus routes in Mills County has been completed by County Judge Lewis B. Porter and has been filed with the Texas Education Agency in Austin. It shows that for the academic year 1951-1952, twenty-four buses will be needed for the four schools in Mills County and that they will travel over more than 1,247 miles of paved and dirt roads.

Judge Porter, who also is County Superintendent of Schools, ex-officio, advised the Texas Education Agency that a preliminary survey shows that for the next school year Goldthwaite will require nine school buses. Six will be needed for Mullin, five for Star and four for Priddy.

Of the routes to be traveled by the school buses, 346.3 miles, one way, will be on pavement, while 901.3 miles, also one way, will be on dirt roads — most of which may be classified as all-weather roads.

The shortest school bus route in the County, Judge Porter said, is 14 miles, while the longest is 106 miles, both one way. The average one way route for a Mills County school bus is

RAIN TOTAL OF 3.85 INCHES IS MEASURED DURING WEEK

Rain, which started with a series of thunder showers last Sunday night and which continued intermittently throughout most of Tuesday, was measured officially in Goldthwaite as 3.85 inches by Harry Allen for the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Between Sunday night and Monday night, Mr. Allen said, the rainfall was .53 of an inch.

For Real Beards Go To San Saba—The Rodeo Is On

San Saba's 13th annual rodeo, sponsored by the active and alert Junior Chamber of Commerce in that neighboring village, started on Thursday of this week. It will continue through Saturday and everybody from Mills County is invited to attend the "three big performances" at Rogan Field.

The opening of the San Saba Rodeo gives the Eagle opportunity to correct a recent reference to Louis Crump. In his column, The Eagle's Eye, the Eagle editor should have

From Monday night until Tuesday night, it was 3.32 inches. The heaviest precipitation came on Sunday night and on Tuesday morning in the form of torrential showers that soaked the ground, filled tanks, made the creeks run — and proved the wisdom of putting Mills County in the hills as a safeguard against the floods from which Brownwood, for example, suffered.

The rainfall was general over a wide area in central Texas but there was nothing uniform about it. At his home 3 1/2 miles southwest of Star, Roy Lee Hill measured a total of only 2.2 inches of rain for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

By Tuesday morning, however, Miss Pearl Crawford had measured 3.7 inches of rain on Chappell Hill. That was correct. Harry Allen said—there was more rain north and west of Goldthwaite than fell on the city. Mr. Allen took a look at his records and reached into his memory and said the heavy precipitation was unusual for this time of June. "We had this week what we very often get in May," he said.

By Tuesday afternoon, such streams as the Colorado river, Bennett Creek and Pecan Bayou were in spate. The turbid streams made Mills County look anything but like its old self. The sight of so much water provided a big attraction.

On Tuesday afternoon Ira O. Harvey drove down highway 15 to have a look at the rushing Colorado.

"It was about 15 feet higher than normal (whatever that is)," Mr. Harvey said, "and was rising about a foot an hour. Even so, there were many more people down there than there was water."

Adams Names Linkenhoger, Allen To Welcome Andrew Baxter Family

Arrangements were completed this week by E. B. Adams, Goldthwaite monument maker, for the sailing soon of Andrew Baxter and his family of Greenock, Scotland. The Baxters will come from Scotland to settle in Goldthwaite—all as a result of the manufacture several months ago of a duplicate of the legendary Stone of Scone by Mr. Adams.

All the publicity which coincided with the offer by Mr. Adams of a replica of the Stone of Scone to King George VI in behalf of the Monument Builders of the Southwest, Inc., brought much correspondence to the local monument builder. It included a letter from Mr. Baxter, who is a versatile Scotsman adept at plumbing and at stone masonry. Mr. Baxter, his wife, and his daughter, Susan, wanted to come to Texas. So Mr. Adams arranged for them to come.

Visas permitting the Baxters to enter the United States have been granted by the U. S. Consulate in Glasgow, Scotland. Sailing dates are being arranged.

Charles Haenisch Named Acting Soil Conservation Service Chief

Charles O. Haenisch last week was appointed acting Chief of the Goldthwaite Work Unit of the United States Soil Conservation Service, succeeding

CHARLES O. HAENISCH
Henry W. Turney.

Mr. Turney, former Range Conservationist with headquarters at Dublin, was appointed recently to the Goldthwaite Work Unit to succeed Ben R. Day, who was transferred to the San Saba-Brady district. Soon after assuming his new duties, however, Mr. Turney resigned so as to devote himself to ranching near Dublin.

Following the resignation of Mr. Turney last week, Mr. Haenisch was appointed acting Work Unit Conservationist in Goldthwaite by W. R. Heizer, District Conservationist who makes his headquarters in Dublin. In sending his appointment to Mr. Haenisch, Mr. Heizer said that the Soil Conservation Service wishes well to Mr. Turney as a livestock farmer.

Mr. Haenisch, who was graduated from Texas A. & M. College, has been a member of the Goldthwaite staff of the United States Soil Conservation

HENRY W. TURNEY
Service for the past six years.

For the present there is no indication as to who will be appointed permanent successor to Mr. Turney.

Goldthwaite On Record Against Electricity Tax

Acting in behalf of the City of Goldthwaite, W. C. Barnett this week wrote to Representative O. C. Fisher in Washington urging him to vote and work against the proposed tax on the gross receipts of municipal-owned electrical systems.

"This tax would cost our citizens approximately $1,700.00 per year and, as you are well aware, would be paid by small businessmen and domestic users who have no high assembly line wages or excess profits," Mr. Barnett wrote to Congressman Fisher.

"We are the little fellows whom the large utility interests would like to destroy as an example for future exploitation," he added. "Our nation and its government are only as strong as the chain of links in our structure. The Municipalities, such as ours, are links in that chain. We will do well to remain aware of this fact and do nothing to bankrupt the structure from the bottom."

Mr. Barnett, who is Manager of Goldthwaite City Utilities, also sent a copy of his letter to Congressman J. M. Combs and to the League of Texas Utilities.

Action was urgently necessary, he said, because the House Ways and Means Committee in Washington already has voted to levy a tax of 3 1/3 per cent on gross receipts derived from the sale of electricity to the domestic and commercial consumers of municipal electrical systems.

A CHAT ABOUT THE EAGLE

More than a year ago we published an editorial entitled, "Our Policy on What Is For Sale." In that editorial we stated firmly that nobody, no matter what the consideration, could buy space in either our news or editorial columns. Of late, however, a number of persons have wandered into the Eagle office and, after having proffered what they thought were news items, asked, "how much?" So, we thought it might be a good idea to reiterate our belief that anybody responsible for the publication of a newspaper who would accept payment of money or any other consideration for the content of news or editorial columns ought to be regarded as utterly unworthy of American journalism. That means that so far as the Goldthwaite Eagle-Mullin Enterprise is concerned, no person and no group of persons can influence the news or editorial content of this newspaper. Nobody can pay this newspaper anything for our publication of other than what appears definitely as advertising. That goes for pictures, too.

We believe that the American people want their press to be free. It cannot be free or objective if the news or editorial columns of American newspapers are for sale. We believe that our own integrity and the integrity of other American publications must be based on an undeviating policy of firmly and consistently refusing to sell news and editorial space. We have absolutely no respect for newspapers that do not have the same policy. In fact, if they sell their news or editorial space, we would not consider them to be newspapers.

We have advertising space for sale. We not only try to sell it; we have to sell it in order to carry on. But the purchaser of advertising space has NO influence upon our news or editorial columns. We try in every way we know how to help our advertisers to sell their goods and services. Part of our responsibility is to do our share to encourage a flourishing economy in Mills County. The public interest ought to be a newspaper's interest. Of late, we have scattered lines throughout the Goldthwaite Eagle-Mullin Enterprise which read: "Support Our Advertisers." That has been in line with our desire to have people in business in Mills County prosper. Unless they did prosper and if they did not advertise, there could be no newspaper here.

As for our advertisers, not a single one of them in Mills County has tried in any way, shape or form to influence the news or editorial content of this newspaper since March 1, 1950—when the present ownership became effective. We have a very few advertisers whose headquarters are not in Mills County and who every once in a while try to obtain a quid quo pro. In other words, they try to obtain in the news columns what in the newspaper craft is called a "knee cap" or a "puff"—free space in the news columns in consideration for buying advertising space. We simply tell them to go climb a tree or jump in the lake and we toss their "knee caps" into the wastepaper basket.

We have, of course, been threatened by readers. That has been wonderful. It shows that the Old Bird still must have some vitality. We continue to be on speaking terms with persons who have threatened to run us out of the County. We're still here and even if the doctor permitted athletics, we wouldn't run any way. We would have to be dragged out—an operation that would require quite a bit of tugging. Furthermore, somebody else might get hurt in the process. But the point is that the readers who have done the threatening have NOT been advertisers and, as our Miss Earlene Nix would say, "I don't guess" they ever would be likely to be advertisers. Anyhow, we welcome honest disagreement with us—first, because we can be as wrong as anybody else, and second, because we can think of nothing duller than having everybody agree with everybody else. Dictators try to have everybody see eye to eye and their efforts make for miserable living—as we can certify from personal experience with life in lands that were ruled by Dictators who, incidentally, are not around any more.

Finally, we repeat what we said in the Eagle more than a year when we first stated our policy on what's for sale. It goes for politicians and political hopefuls too. If we think a candidate for political office is a good guy and everybody loves him, we shall say so. But he will not be able to buy news or editorial space to say so himself. It could be that some political hopeful might want to mislead our readers. We wouldn't want that to happen.

GUEST EDITORIAL

(Editor's Note: In one of his columns last week David Lawrence pointed to the great solicitude shown for Russia by certain pro-Administration Senators as against the fact that "scarcely a whisper is heard about American rights under international law." Because of the importance of the observations by Mr. Lawrence, we reprint them here. They follow:)

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Legalism, which is the habit of looking at things in a technical and legalistic way, came into sharp conflict with realism—the habit of looking at facts as they actually are—when Secretary of State Acheson was interrogated by Senator Morse of Oregon at the senate hearings.

The phrase "international law" was brought into the discussion—as if there is any respect nowadays for its doctrines by Russian or by Chinese Communists. In fact, the American government itself does not appear to be interested in taking advantage of the precedents of international law in the Korean situation. The following is from the testimony on Monday:

"Senator Morse: Mr. Secretary, what is your interpretation of the Russian-Chinese mutual aid security compact? Is it your interpretation that in view of existing conditions in Asia as of today, an extension of the war onto the mainland of China by the United Nations forces would place Russia in a position, as far as international law is concerned, to justify intervention on her part in the name of the Russian-Chinese treaty?"

"Secretary Acheson: Yes, Senator Morse, I believe that the treaty is of such a nature that it would give the Russians the opportunity and it would also give the Chinese a very considerable lever to demand that the Russians do that."

It seems incredible that such an issue should be raised in matters related to the Korean war.

For everybody knows that international law has not been in the slightest degree enforced by the United States as against the true enemy in Korea nor has this country sought to secure respect for international law among its own allies. Here are some of the facts of realism which make the mention of "international law" at the senate hearings seem rather ironical today:

1. The United States is blockading the island of Formosa as against invasion by the forces of Communist China and at no time has the United States declared a state of war against the Communist Chinese authority.

2. The Russian government is furnishing munitions and supplies to the Communist troops fighting against the forces of the United States and its allies. This is in direct violation of all the historic principles of international law which forbid neutral territory to be used as a base of direct supply to military forces of either side in a war.

3. The United Nations has declared Red China an aggressor as the term is used in international law, but Great Britain and several other governments supposedly allied with us in Korea have failed to withdraw recognition from the aggressor government. Under international law trade carried on with an enemy of any belligerent or ally is tantamount to assistance. There are plenty of precedents under international law to justify a naval blockade of the China coast here.

Mrs. R. A. Bryan, accompanied by her little daughter and her nephew, a son of Editor Chanceller of the Comanche Visitor made the Eagle an appreciated visit Thursday.

While in Mullin the first of the week the Eagle editor had the pleasure of seeing M. C. Kirkpatrick's thoroughbred Hereford cattle. They have been acclimated and are in fine condition and Mr. Kirkpatrick is justly proud of them.

E. P. Truck of Throckmorton was here Tuesday being treated by Dr. Broiles, the specialist. There is no need to borrow trouble and imagine there will be no more rain, the grass hoppers will eat the crops, the cattle die and the people starve. Everything is alright and prospects are good in Mills County.

The Red Store has decided to remain in Goldthwaite and will occupy the store building on the west side that has been occupied by J. J. Mills.

T. H. House of Center City was in town Tuesday.

So far, no ladies had this story except Miss Nix and the lady who is using P. O. San Saba, in her snag a husband. The being only 50, knows nothing about women knows better than to learn to learn how that to the bachelors.

HUSBAND WANTED: This is no joke—Young attractive woman in her late twenties, single, wants to marry a man with a good financial income. He must be pleasant, enjoyable, with interest in common. Write Box 64, San Saba, Texas. All letters treated confidential.

Right after the above came to the editor's attention, it happened that he met up with Glynn Collier. It happened, also, that Mr. Collier was being conveyed by Alfred Carter, and that, as luck would have it, Mr. Collier had a copy of the San Saba Star under his arm. The classified advertisement was shown to Mr. Collier, amidst guffaws that made echoes in the Goldthwaite Post Office.

With the care and caution that bankers always exercise whenever they are asked to read anything, Mr. Collier read the "ad," not once, but twice. Then, perfectly dead pan, he looked up at Mr. Carter and the editor and said: "I think I'll leave that one to Roy Lee Hill." It was noted, however, and accordingly ought to be reported, that Mr. Collier wrote down the box number before he walked away with a step that was a bit on the jaunty side for hot weather.

As he moved on, Mr. Collier left a lingering thought. "Interest in common," he had asked, "what does that mean?" With both the thought and the suggestion from Mr. Collier, the editor sought out Roy Lee Hill of Star (Texas), who at the time just happened to be in the process of leaving out a paragraph from a booklet that had been ordered for the Eastern Star by Mrs. Annie Armstrong.

"Look, Roy," the editor said as he shoved last week's San Saba Star under the mechanical superintendent's fetching face. Mr. Hill read the advertisement and pursed his lips. "I shall answer that unless Earlene Nix accepts my proposal by tomorrow night." That was on Friday last week. It is to be reported that the deadline passed without any indication that Miss Nix had accepted Mr. Hill's alleged proposal. In fact, she seemed somewhat uncertain that there ever had been any proposal that was on the up and up.

But that was not the end of Mr. Hill. By the time last week's San Saba Star was in the hands of Miss Ruth Ervin—for reasons best known to herself—Mr. Hill was back looking for the ad. He had a phoney story, if ever you heard one. "I want that ad for several people I know." Mr. Hill said, trying to look innocent. "Oh, so you know some other bachelors?" the editor queried. "Well," said Mr. Hill, more aggressively than was necessary, "that doesn't have to be of interest just to bachelors." Ladies and gentlemen, let's leave the married men out of this.

The "One And Eights" Of M.H.S. Bid Everyone To June 24 Reunion

The Mullin High School Class of 1915 — better known as the "one and eight class" because there was a lone male and eight little ladies in it — will have its second reunion at Mullin Creek Park on Sunday, June 24.

Mrs. George B. Golightly of Hamilton said the reunion will be an all-day affair and that the Class is unanimous in extending an invitation to all former teachers, friends of families of members of the Class, and, in fact, to "anyone from Mullin, Goldthwaite or anywhere" to join in the reunion any time during the day.

"The Class will feel honored to have visitors," Mrs. Golightly said.

The reunion will be the second of the Class since graduation day in 1915. The first reunion was last year—and what a time was had by all. At last year's reunion the class was organized for the first time in 35 years. Its members are Mrs. Theima Harrington Wortman of Tuttle, Oklahoma, who started the round-robin letter which led to the first reunion; Mrs. Pearl Kemp Chancellor of Hot Springs, New Mexico; Mrs. Ver-gia Taylor Robertson of Phoenix, Arizona; Mrs. Katye Wallace Pyburn of Waco, Mrs. Cora Scarborough Bowen of Dallas, Mrs. Nettie Spencer Alsbrooks of Levelland, Mrs. Winnie Clark Dixon of Bangs, Mrs. Frankie Vann Golightly of Hamilton—and the lone man—Willie Wasserman of Mullin.

Miss Erma Harrison and Frank P. Bowman, both of Goldthwaite, are former teachers of the Class of "one and eight."

Caryn Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Glass, celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary last Saturday afternoon with 35 small guests to help her. They saw a special showing of comedies and cartoons between regular features at the Melba Theater and then returned to the Glass home where, in addition to many gifts, Caryn had one of her dearest wishes—a birthday cake with green icing, and green ice cream. The high esteem in which Mrs. Soules was held by one and all was shown by an overflow attendance at final rites at the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite last Saturday afternoon. A profusion of floral offerings also were testimony to the love bestowed on Mrs. Soules by her friends and neighbors.

Pall bearers for the funeral were Loy Long, Wallace Johnson, Luther Ray Rudd, Farest Frazier, Houston Duren and Douglas Collier.

POWER-PACKED

- and then some!

There are a lot of reasons you can expect a new GMC to keep hauling a lot longer than any other truck you can buy.

First is the fact of horsepower. Whether it's a gasoline-powered 1/2- to 2-tonner with horsepower unbeaten in its class, or one of the new heavy-duty Diesels—you can't beat a GMC for "go"!

But the extra value you find in these great trucks doesn't end at the power plant.

There's the smooth GMC Synchro-Mesh Transmission linked to a sharp-shooting drive line, pouring every ounce of power back to the rugged rear axle. And the solid way horsepower becomes wheel-action—you know there's extra depth of truck performance engineered right down through the broad-shouldered frame of a GMC!

And standing guard over these long-time trucks are husky brakes with more area than most—the surest, easiest steering ever devised to direct a pay load home—all controlled from a spacious "Six-Footer" Cab that's Weathersealed for a lifetime.

GMC's are made in the widest variety of engine-body-chassis combinations to meet any trucking need. And the prices? No better buy anywhere! Come see for yourself.

opinion written by the Court does not make for a person to be a
 of the Communist
 It does make it a design to overthrow government by force or the courts have

 by some Su-Court decisions regard-rights of individuals communists. Only a ago an attempt was
 to deport Harry Bridges, Coast left-wing labor leader on the ground that he was an undesirable alien. A tremendous amount of evidence was collected pointing to his communist status, and the Attorney General ordered him sent back to his native Austrlia. But the Supreme Court nullified the order and Bridges was released, much to the elation of the CIO and other organizations that fought to keep him here.

Bridges was then given citizenship. But two years ago, as a result of a collection of incriminating evidence collected by Congressional committees and from other sources, the Department of Justice obtained an indictment against Bridges for perjury, claiming he lied when he swore he was not a Communist at the time his citizenship was granted. A jury convicted him and the case is now on appeal.

An unfortunate thing about the case of the eleven Communist is the very low penalties meted out to them. Their prison sentences were up to five years and fines of $10,000 to each. They should be executed or put away for life. I plan to introduce a bill to provide much higher penalties for such treasonable acts when and if others are convicted in the future.

The effect of the Supreme Court ruling should be very helpful in future prosecutions of this character. It will put the fear of God in every communist who collaborates with his fellow-travelers to destroy our government.

 me it's Conoco Super or none!"

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crank-shafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77%
 as good as for the first 5,000!

GARAGE OWNER
 "I recently gave Conoco Super a thorough test," writes A. E. Stan-

Commissioners Praise And Thank Arthur E. Gromatzky For Service

The Mills County Commissioners Court this week gave a pat on the back to State Representative Arthur E. Gromatzky of the 104th Legislative District for his service in the session of the Legislature that adjourned recently at Austin.

In a resolution full of "whereases" and "therefores," the Commissioners said that Mr. Gromatzky "has represented us creditably and well . . . that he has on every occasion received delegations from Mills County with the greatest of courtesy and consideration, and had endeavored in every way to learn the needs and desires of the citizens of Mills County."

The Commissioners said further that "on every occasion Mr. Gromatzky had consistently supported, worked for and voted for such acts and laws as are in the best interests of the citizens of Mills County and the State of Texas, especially in connection with the passage of laws for the benefit of the public road system of Mills County and other Counties in Texas."

It was resolved to extend to Mr. Gromatzky "sincere thanks and appreciation for a job well done," in behalf of the Commissioners and their constituents.

The Resolution was signed this week by County Judge Lewis B. Porter and Commissioners Jess Y. Tullos, Fred V. Wall, K. B. Henry and J. Frank Davis.

Billy Wallace Kirby of Fort Sill, Oklahoma, is spending a furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kirby, and other relatives.

Star News

By DORA GOODE

Beg pardon for the short letter last week. But it produced the remembrance of a nice juicy steak, which we all will get in the habit of saying "I Can Remember." I always thought editors like things boiled down, even for several boltings, and the steak proves it. Thank you, Mr. Editor.

The letter was meant to include the activities of the whole community. I'll not mention names because I'd be sure to forget some, and then somebody might be mad. It meant the menfolks in the fields, in the stores, hauling, at the auctions, or whatever else needed to be done at the moment. It meant women hoeing gardens, gathering vegetables, canning, washing, ironing, serving, tending chickens and turkeys, even going to Stanley parties, besides looking after the kiddies. And that's not all. A lot of them attended Vacation Bible School, because the men were too busy to take the kiddies. So the Mom-mies had to take time out, dress up everybody, zip over to the Church with the little youngsters, and back home in time to have the noonday meal ready for the hungry menfolks.

Well, Mrs. Avery Poe has help for the summer. Her daughter, Geraldine, who is attending school at San Marcos, is spending her summer vacation at home. She will return in September for her last year, when Mother takes over again.

After a visit in the home of Mrs. Dora Goode, Mr. Rene (Renay) Lune (Lunnay) has returned to New York City. Jimmy Johnson to Fairbanks, Alaska, and S. L. Goode to Oklahoma City.

Miss Gloria Sheldon of Snyder is spending a week's vacation in Star with relatives and friends.

Horace Dale Soules, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Soules of Big Spring, is spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton.

Mrs. J. C. Cox and children, Alvis Ray and May Belle, have gone to Seymour for the summer to be with Mr. Cox, who is working for the Howard Petrey Construction Company.

Lant Adams is scattering his enterprises far and near. He and his associates, his son, T. L., Jr., and Boots Boykin are getting their three gins ready for the extra crop. The home gin here at Star is all ship-shape and ready to go. They are now working on the one at Post. Then they will go to the Valley to get that one all in trim and fixed up for the early crop.

Mrs. Boykin and children have also gone to Post to keep the home fires burning, and to keep Boots in tiptop shape for the long and strenuous three-gin-run.

Mrs. Burt Ball visited with her friend, Mrs. Stella Hogru in San Antonio last week, while Mrs. B. P. Goode held down the post office.

Lee and Innzie Goode have returned home from a visit in Oklahoma City.

It isn't too much worry to fix

Bob Burks Is Home And Is Ready To Haul Your Soil, Sand, Gravel

Bob Burks, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. "Pete" Burks, is back home in Goldthwaite after having been away for 15 months on the Antelope Creek Ranch in Wyoming.

He is looking for customers. Customers will please find Bob in the Square—or come to the Eagle office and your order for top soil, sand and gravel will be passed to him pronto.

Bob Burks came home from Wyoming by way of Corpus Christi—probably to get warm.

Methodist School Enrollment High

The Vacation School of the Methodist Church, which now is in progress in Goldthwaite, has one of the highest enrollments ever, the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace said last week. The classes started last Monday.

Brother Lovelace said the School will continue throughout next week with classes every morning from nine o'clock until eleven o'clock. Young persons between the ages of four and 16 will be welcomed at the School regardless of denominational affiliations, Brother Lovelace said.

a noonday meal these days—with us it's just beans and squash and iced tea. Talking to the next neighbor, she says "Beans and squash." And so it is with the next one. "Sure, good, old dependable squash and beans." Now, a slice of roast would go mighty fine with such a menu.

FOR RENT—4 room house, modern conveniences on Fisher Street. A. M. Pribble, Phone 86. 6-15-1T.C.

Cheyenne had four inches of snow when Bob left the temporary capital of Wyoming only a couple of weeks ago. Last winter he lost a few finger nails when he suffered frost bite. For all of his experiences up in the cold northwest, where summer lasts or three weeks, Bob and, by his own admission, anxious to work hard right here at home.

of Mullin for seeing to it that her daughter, Frankie, became a regular reader of this publication.

Then, Mrs. C. F. Stubblefield and Sammy, who are numbered among the editor's good neighbors on Fisher Street, sent a picture postcard from Jacksonville, Florida. It showed break-ers rolling in on white sand from blue water and whole scads of people doing nothing. Mrs. Stubblefield and Sam are having a fine time and want to know how is everything at home. The Sheriff, Mrs. Stub, is being a good boy and he is working hard. Mrs. Editor's little black cocker has not been in your flower beds even once since you went away to Georgia and Florida.

Miss Elizabeth Ann "Liza" Hapgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Hapgood of Rancho Nueces in Big Valley, wrote in from Lubbock to certify that she is duly enrolled as a major in animal husbandry at Texas Technological College. Goodness only knows how anything of the sort could possibly be, but Miss Liza seems to be a bit on the lonely side. Her address is Box 45, Dormitory 3, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas. Every-body write to her, please, so that she won't get too home-sick for the Hapgood sheep in Big Valley.

Now for Charlie Evans. He didn't have to write. He just summoned the editor to see for himself how peaches and plums grow on the same tree, with the plums shaded by plum leaves and the peaches covered by peach leaves. Old Luther Burbank Ekins decided to agree with Charlie Evans that root grafting will bring about such a result. He did not establish, however, how Charlie could get away with eating all those fine plums himself. Nobody should be surprised if Charlie Evans comes up with a two-headed calf or a six-legged goat one of these days. Be careful about your root grafting, neighbor. Meanwhile, Charlie, please use a rubber hammer on that sheet tin work of yours.

Military Orders To Jack Dankers Cause A Puzzle

Sgt. A. J. "Jack" Dankers, son-in-law of County Judge and Mrs. Lewis B. Porter, now is at the Sasebo Naval Base in Japan after ten months of haz-ardous duty with the Army's Second Division up and down the long battleground of Korea. He was due to sail for home on the transport General Pope this week and Mrs. Dankers, the former Jean Porter, had planned to drive to San Francisco to greet him. On Tuesday, however, Mrs. Dankers received a cablegram saying: Dear Jean; Orders changed, stay home, love, Jack."

Whether that message meant a trip home by air, a switch to another ship, or orders to re-main on duty in the Far East will not be known until further messages have been received from Sgt. Dankers.

At the time the cablegram arrived from Sasebo, Mrs. Dankers was arranging a trip to the west coast with high hope of a reunion with her husband. Now she can only wait for further messages from Japan.

Mrs. Mary Yates Installs For OES

The Eagle this week received a belated but glowing account that was filled with praise for the manner in which the Gold-thwaite Chapter number 909, Order of the Eastern Star, in-stalled officers of the Richland Springs Chapter on the night of June 5. For the installation, Mrs. Mary Yates was the in-stalling officer, Mrs. Alma Williams was installing mar-shal, Miss Elna Fouse was in-stalling secretary, Mrs. Larry Dalton was installing Chaplain, and Mrs. Eunice Williams was installing organist. Other mem-bers of the installation team were from the Glen Rose and Richland Springs Chapters. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Annie Armstrong, Worthy Ma-tron of the Goldthwaite Chapter. ## Senator Connally Tells Ab Reid at Korea Fighting Is For U. S.

"Ab" Reid of Rt. 3, Mulman Fisher were published in last week's Eagle.

Mr. Reid, whose son Sealy is back on Navy duty in Formosan waters after having survived the sinking of his ship off Korea, asked the men to whom he wrote to read and ponder a letter that had been written by a regular Army Captain in Korea. In that letter, the Captain took issue with the claims of the Washington Administration that it was trying to prevent a war "when already there is a war."

The letter to Mr. Reid from Senator Connally follows:

Dear Mr. Reid:

I have your letter of May 25 commenting upon the Far Eastern situation and enclosing a letter from a captain in Korea. I have read this material with interest and attention. The questions raised deserve honest answers. I think the answers will be given through the present hearings before the Senate Committees on Armed Services and Foreign Relations which are making a most thorough investigation of the entire Far Eastern situation.

I understand and sympathize with your feeling toward your son in the Navy, and I regret that he must so soon return to hazardous duty after having so recently escaped danger. Certainly these brave men deserve our wholehearted support.

These men are fighting for the United States. They are fighting to make it perfectly plain to international gangsters that aggression does not pay. If they were not fighting now in Korea to establish that principle, they would have to be fighting at some later date at some other place, probably under even more disadvantageous conditions, to establish the same principle. Aggression feeds on itself, and if it is not stopped in the beginning, it will continue until it threatens the shores of the United States itself.

I can well understand the eagerness of the men in Korea to use every weapon and tactic available to defeat the enemy. However, it would be no service to these men to spread the war unnecessarily and to involve the United States in commitments beyond its resources.

These are among the questions which we are attempting to determine in the current hearings. When all the facts are in, you may be sure that I will take whatever action is necessary to protect the interests of the American people, regardless of any partisan political considerations that may be involved.

With assurances that I appreciate your interest in this matter, I am

Sincerely,
Tom Connally.

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

The windrower owned by the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District will be used in various ways this year. Due to the size of the small grain, many farmers plan to windrow the grain and combine it with the assistance of a pickup reel. It will be used to cut grain and clover that will be baled for hay. During clover harvest, the clover will be wind-rowed, as last year, and combined from the windrow. The small amount of rains this year during the growing season, reduced the size of the small grain, making it difficult to combine direct. With the use of the windrower, many farmers will be able to harvest their grain which otherwise would be lost. The windrower is so adjusted that it can cut the grain close to the ground, placing it in a nine foot windrow. The grain then can be harvested with a combine equipped with a pickup reel. Due to the shortage of grain this year, every acre harvested will be worth the extra operation.

The use of sweetclovers and oats for hay is becoming popular among farmers and ranchers. A field of Madrid Sweetclover and oats is being windrowed this week at the T. C. Graves Ranch at Mount Olive. After the sweet-clover and oats have had time to cure in the windrow, it will be baled with a pickup baler. This combination makes a desirable type of hay which is readily eaten by all types of livestock. By analysis, the protein content is unusually high, ranking with that of alfalfa.

Farmers desiring to harvest their Madrid or Evergreen Sweetclover this year should be making preparations to use the windrower. Because of the amount of bulk, it is impossible to harvest the clover with an ordinary combine. The uneven ripening of the seed makes it necessary to cut the green stalks and dry the seeds before they are threshed. Therefore the windrower is an ideal machine with which to harvest the clover. It windrows the clover in one operation. After the seed are dry, they can be threshed with a combine equipped with a pickup reel.

Henry Nauert plans to harvest his Madrid Clover in this manner. He believes more seed can be harvested with greater ease and less wear on his equipment.

Remember The Cakes For Waco Veterans

Don't forget, ladies, to bake those cakes for delivery to Brian Smith tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, at the Fire House on the west side of the Square in Goldthwaite. Mr. Smith needs at least 15 cakes so that on Sunday they may be taken to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Waco by representatives of the Goldthwaite Lions Club and the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross. If there are more than 15 cakes, then that many more hospitalized war veterans can have a party on Sunday. So be sure to take the cakes to Mr. Smith this Saturday afternoon.

 (Written for last Week.)

We had our weekly rain Saturday night, 1.6 in., for which we are very grateful. Without it grass soon begins to wither in spots in the pastures, and the ground gets too hard for plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cawyer of Orange spent Thursday night with Mrs. Edna Dwyer. They were on their way to Abilene to get their daughter, Ednabeth, who has just finished her freshman year at Abilene Christian College. After spending Friday night with Austin's mother, Mrs. Molly Cawyer, at Brady, they returned to the Dwyer home for Saturday night. Sunday morning they left for home, intending to stop at Evant for church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Egger are at home again after a visit with their nephew and foster-son, H. C. Griffin, in Houston. Henry says if he were a young man and wanted to work, he would go to Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Smith and children visited the Cecil Eggers last week. The Smiths have of "hot pursuit" and the doctrine of attacking so-called neutral territory when it is used as a base of military operations are to well established in international law to say now that Russia would have any legal right whatsoever in the realm of international law to put its troops into action in Manchuria if the Chinese bases there were bombed.

It's strange how all the emphasis of some of the pro-administration senators at the hearings is on Russia's rights, and scarcely a whisper is heard about American rights under international law.

left California and are now located in Brownwood.

John Briley visited his brother, Burt Briley, at Owen Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Reeves and their children, Joe, Nancy, and John, attended church at Mullin Sunday and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Guthrie.

Since school is out in Brownwood, Mrs. Hardin and Evelyn have come out to the farm to stay with Albert. They will go into Brownwood for the week-ends as Albert has a weekend filling station job there.

Mrs. John Briley and Mrs. Allie Wilson Spence visited Mrs. Frank Crowder and Mrs. Mary Ivy at Oakland Tuesday afternoon. They also called on Mrs. Effie Egger and looked around the old Sawyers place which has fond remembrances for Mrs. Spence, since it was the home of her uncle and aunt, the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sawyers.

Mrs. Spence left Wednesday for Brownwood and Owen where she planned to visit her consins, Mrs. Burt Briley, Elmer Sawyers, and Mrs. Virgie Mashburn, before returning to Abilene.

The Dwyer-Brileys were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves Sunday after church. After one of those country dinners, which included in its menu fried chicken, apricot ice cream (made with pure cream), and coconut cake, Stanley took us driving in their pretty, new car. We went through the orchard, devastated for this year by drouth, cold, and hail. Its barrenness made us fruit hungry. We drove out to the ridge to the oil well where is one of the most magnificent views in all the countryside. Caught a glimpse of the old

At the old Boynton place, Stanley showed us a field of early maize, very fine. He says he and Hubert have about 100 acres of combine maize. They also have some fine corn, but a good bit of their early corn had to be plowed up because of a poor stand.

News Of Chappell Hill

By PEARL CRAWFORD

Early Sunday night we had rain, hail and wind. The hail was slow and small, and our rain measured .65 of an inch. Indications at this writing are for more rain.

Mrs. J. N. Crook, who underwent surgery in Dallas, was able to be moved to her home in Abilene. Mrs. Crook is a sister of O. A. Evans. She made her home in this community most all her life, until a few years ago. We all wish for Mrs. Crook a speedy recovery.

We were happy to see Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bramblett in town Saturday. They were engaged in the same business some of the younger folks were, seeing friends and getting poultry feed. Mrs. Bramblett said her chickens are doing fine. She likes the modern way to raise and feed poultry. At the Winter Stock Show we hope to see some of Mrs. Bramblett's fine fowls.

W. P. Ledbetter visited with A. L. Crawford last Tuesday. Mr. Ledbetter and Mr. Crawford think the good rain of last week has improved the grain crop a great deal.

W. W. Williams and J. C. Bramblett helped O. A. Evans saw wood Thursday afternoon.

Smokey Manuel and Sam Hillman sheared sheep for the Crawfords, and the Seider brothers of Priddy sheared sheep for Bill Partin last Saturday. Mr. Manuel, who is a former resident of this community, said it always rains when he comes to the mountain. He thinks we have much better roads than we had when he lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. were recent visitors in the B. J. Crawford home.

Mrs. Florence Conner went to Brownwood to spend a few weeks. Mrs. Conner announced that if her health permits she will do a lot of visiting before night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stevens, Mildred and Edwin visited Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Miss Lola Friday.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hill Partin, Tom and Jim, were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Partin, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Partin and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Partin of Indian Gap.

Mildred and Edwin Stevens helped hoe cotton at the A. L. Crawford home Thursday and Saturday.

More Rain

The rainfall perked up senses of humor. On Tuesday, at the height of a teeming rain, Raymond Little, managing director of a noted Goldthwaite emporium, telephoned the Eagle to say his advertising copy was ready but not to send Miss Earlene Nix for it until it stopped raining. Mr. Little added, however, that it was quite all right for the editor to go out and get drenched. He did.

Rain caused some discom-bulation. A District encampment of members of the Future Homemakers of America at which Marjorie Whitt was to have been installed as President at Hancock Park in Lampasas was postponed because of rain on Tuesday. The Eagle, which had the story set in type,

is considering sending out all members of the staff to beg with outstretched tin cups to make up for the loss.

One of the benefits of the rain was that Neighbors Creek, south of Goldthwaite, stopped stinking for a while, to the profound relief of A. L. Reese.
So much water that was not polluted raced between the banks of Stink Creek that for a while it smelled just like agua pura. By Wednesday the sun was out, the temperature was rising, and Stink Creek

once again was Stink Creek.
Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield said he had received no reports of damage to livestock because of high water. On Tuesday, the Sheriff was in Brownwood on business and, like a good neighbor, he assisted authorities there in traffic control and public safety. High water in the Brownwood area caused the inundation of highways, made the evacuation of many homes necessary, and either slowed traffic or created detours.

At Rancho Nueces in Big Valley—now re-christened Rancho Sahara—Edwin H. "Old Hap" Hapgood measured the precipitation for the rainfall period of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 3.25 inches. He said that down there they had some hail, lots of mud on the roads, and a little damage to vegetable gardens. "Lake Des-pond running over spillway;

river up in low bottom field;
irrigation project suspended,"
Old Hap concluded.

Williams Ranch

data may be compiled. After the Williams Ranch phase of Mills County history has been assembled, Mr. Clements and others who are interested in creating archives for a Mills County Historical Society will turn to other sections of Mills County history.

Mailed material regarding Williams Ranch and its people should be sent to Mr. Clements at Goldthwaite, Texas.

San Saba Rodeo

written "W. Lee O'Crump." He now thanks Jack Bowen of the San Saba News for being so kind about tidying up information gleaned from Jack Harkey and Albert Behrens, press agents for the San Saba Rodeo.

By Sunday, John Bogard, Mr.
Bowen, Mr. Harkey, Mr. Behrens and many another San Saba citizen will be able to stop scratching. They will be able to shave—something they have not been able to do since they started letting their whiskers grow to help to give San Saba
the proper Rodeo atmosphere.

Performances of the San Saba Rodeo will be at 8:00 o'clock nightly on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. That's what Bowen wants to have printed. "Never mind the whiskers," he said, as he thought ruefully about Mrs.
Bowen and her attitude toward them.

Adams Names

ed and Mr. Adams will meet the Baxters in Galveston, New Orleans, Mobile or wherever their ship happens to dock.

In letters to Mr. Adams, Mr.
Baxter has warned that at the start of life for the Baxter family here, they may not be understood by Texans. Maybe it will be a surprise to the Baxters to find that at the start they may not be able to understand Texans.

Harry Allen, who dreamed up the Adams Stone of Scone project, and W. H. Linkenhoger, who made the rings for the Stone, that was stolen from Mr.
Adams before he could ship it to Westminster Abbey in London, have been appointed Co-
