Eagles Lose Billy Harrel Anderson Under New Rules

Superintendent of Schools H. E. Patton announced this week that on the basis of a ruling by Dr. Ray Williams, Director of Athletics of the Interscholastic League, Billy Harrel Anderson no longer is eligible to play with the Goldthwaite High School Eagles.

Both Mr. Patton and Coach Carl Knox expressed deep regret that because of the ten semester rule, which came into force in the Texas Interscholastic League for the first time this year, the Eagles must lose their stellar right halfback—Billy Harrel Anderson.

"The rule is that after ten semesters of attendance at school after enrollment in the eighth grade a student no longer is eligible for football competition under Interscholastic League regulations," Mr. Patton said this week. He added that he has been advised by Dr. Williams that the ten semester rule applies to Billy Har-

rel. It is understood that a situation similar to that faced by Goldthwaite also confronts a number of other High Schools (Continued on Back Page.)

Whoopie!—Mullin To Play Star In Goldthwaite On October 4th

If you never have seen a six-man football game your big chance will come at Eagle Field at 8:00 o'clock on the night of October 4 when the Mullin Bulldogs—proud of their victory over Novice last Friday night—will play a team from the Star School.

Superintendents H. Howard Homsley of Mullin and Leroy Beard of Star expect that on the night of October 4 Eagle Field in Goldthwaite will be jammed and packed as opposite ends of the County put on what is being billed in advance as a fine show complete not only with action but also keen rivalry between Star and Mullin.

So far Star has been keeping its training plans secret but part of Mullin's preparation for the contest with Star will be a game against Brooksmith at Mullin on Friday night of next week.

This year marks only the second for six-man football at Mullin and the entire community is bursting with pride because of the showing against Novice at Novice last Friday night. The score was 7 to 7 but Mullin won on penetrations 4-2 and Mullin, coached for the first time by Johnny Playing with out their star right half back, Billy Harrel Anderson, the Goldthwaite High School Eagles tonight, Friday, will play a strong Dublin team at Eagle Field here in Goldthwaite. Game time will be eight o'clock.

On Friday night of last week, playing at home, Dublin defeated DeLeon 39 to 12 while the Eagles, playing the Armadillos in San Saba, were defeated 55 to 6.

For this Friday night's game against Dublin, Coach Carl Knox figures on moving Joe Hammond from right end to Billy Anderson's old position in the backfield. Hammond will be replaced in the line by Hobson Miller, who will play at right end.

"The loss of Billy Anderson makes us lighter all around, both in the line and in the backfield," said Coach Knox, who paid high tribute to Anderson in an adjoining news story.

In addition to losing Anderson, Coach Knox was faced this week with the probability that he would not be able to play Johnny Henkes against Dublin. Coach Knox has been playing Henkes at tackle on the defensive but Henkes injured his knee in one of the first plays against the San Saba Armadillos and the chance that he can be used against Dublin is very, very dim.

As for Friday night's game here at Eagle Field, Coach Knox faced up to his problems realistically.

"Dublin will put on Eagle Field as good or a better team than Goldthwaite ever has played," Coach Knox said. "Clifford Randolph still is in the Dublin lineup and I just hope he doesn't make a touchdown every time he gets the ball."

Randolph was chiefly responsible for the Dublin scores against DeLeon last Friday night and Coach Knox made it evident this week that the less his mind had to dwell on him the better.

By way of a touch of football courtesy, the Eagles, who are entitled to play in their gold and black sweaters at home, probably will wear their white uniforms at Eagle Field tonight. (Continued on Back Page.)

Jury Says Stink Creek Polluted; Reese Undamaged

A jury, which last Wednesday considered the case of A. L. Reese against the City of Goldthwaite from 11:30 a. m., until 6:34 p. m., returned to District Judge Wesley Dice a verdict holding that waste from the Goldthwaite sewage plant does pollute Bulls Creek—popularly known as Stink Creek—but holding also that Mr. Reese has not suffered special damage and that the value of his land south of Goldthwaite on highway 16 has not been reduced.

Members of the jury, of which W. H. Welch was Foreman, were J. D. Harper, James L. Aldridge, Homer McCasland, Leon Johnson, J. R. Cobb, John L. Gwin, Robert C. Johnson, W. O. Whitehead, Jake Burkett, W. H. Hendry, and Tully P. Lee.

After two days of testimony and argument by Counsel, the jury answered eight of nine questions propounded in his charge by Judge Dice. Counsel for Mr. Reese were Byron L. McClellan of Gatesville and C. O. McMillan of Stephenville. The City of Goldthwaite was represented by J. C. Darroch of Brownwood and E. B. Gilliam, Jr., of Goldthwaite.

The questions put to the jury by Judge Dice were:

1—Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant's sewer plant is polluting Bulls Creek as it runs through the lands of the plaintiff? The jury answered YES.

2—Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that the pollution, if any, of Bulls Creek as it runs through the lands of the plaintiff, by the defendant's sewer system, is a nuisance to the plaintiff and the lands which he is occupying? The jury answered (Continued on Page 6.)

Our Roy Lee Hill Makes Accurate Rain Prediction

Mills County now is confronted with a situation that for Texas is most unique. It has a weather prophet in its midst, despite that old saw about how only fools or strangers make weather predictions hereabouts.

With painstaking care, it has been necessary to point out in the Eagle on a past occasion that the Eagle's own Roy Lee Hill is neither a stranger nor a fool. The fact remains, however, that in the news columns of last week's Eagle, Mr. Hill made the unqualified prediction that it would rain on September 16. Mr. Hill made his forecast on September 12: It did rain on September 16 and the least Mr. Hill's fellow-citizens can do now is to submit his case to the Goldthwaite Lions Club, the Goldthwaite Garden Club, or similarly civic-minded groups.

Without deigning to mention so unique a character as Roy Lee Hill, Harry Allen, who makes official precipitation recordings in Goldthwaite for the United States Weather Bureau, confirmed this week that during the past week he measured 30 inches of rain in Goldthwaite. Of that amount, 15 fell on last Saturday and the remaining 15 of an inch of rain dropped on Goldthwaite in the early morning hours of last Sunday, which was SEPTEMBER 16!

On Wednesday of last week, September 12, there was a trace of rain in Goldthwaite. (Continued on Back Page.)

Dates Of January 14 And 15 Set For Annual County Livestock Show

Lone Star Gas To Transfer Madding To Hamilton Post

E. E. Madding, Lone Star Gas Company manager at Goldthwaite, has been appointed manager of the company's distribution properties at Hamilton, according to an announcement by A. P. Rowland of Waco, division superintendent. Mr. Madding's new assignment places him in charge of gas service and maintenance operations in the Hamilton area, a part of Lone Star's Gatesville district of which W. L. Rountt is manager.

Mr. Madding, a veteran gas company employee with 18 years of service, has been manager at Goldthwaite since September, 1949. His successor here will be announced in the near future.

Born at Ranger, he was graduated from high school at Hambley where he joined the gas company in 1933. In 1937 he was transferred to Fort Worth as meter shop helper and a year later was assigned to meter repair work, meter setting, appliance adjusting and installation as well as the installation of house piping for liquefied petroleum gas customers.

In September of 1942 Mr. Madding enlisted in the United (Continued on Back Page.)

Following last Saturday's successful September Preview at the Agriculture Building in Goldthwaite, President Robert L. Steen announced that the annual Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association will be held on January 14 and 15.

Last Saturday's Preview gave promise of a fine Show in January. Although Mills County calves that will be exhibited at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas were not shown at the Preview, the experts said that the 38 calves that were at the Preview were among the best they had seen.

Distinguished visitors to last Saturday's Preview who praised the work of Mills County 4-H Club boys and girls and members of the Future Farmers of America included Tommy Thompson, a beef specialist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service; District Agriculture Agent R. G. Burwell, Walter Barrett of the Barrett Hereford Ranch in Comanche County, Ray Gamlin of the Gamlin Hereford Ranch at Blanket, Earl Floyd of Blanket, Tommy Brook of Camp San Saba, Tom Henry, Teacher of Vocational Agriculture at San Saba; Charles Nebbet, and "Toad" Parker, who is Manager of Tommy Brook's Camp San Saba Ranch.

Mr. Steen said that several hundred persons attended the September Preview last Saturday. In addition to 38 fine calves, some lambs were on exhibit but some of the better lambs in Mills County were not shown at the Preview because of fear that some of the recent abnormally hot weather might make a return visit.

Carl Casbeer, Show Secretary of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association, announced the results of the judging of hogs at the Preview as follows:

Breeding gilts, Billy Mac Newton, first place; Jack Whittenburg, second place; Leo Reynolds, third place; Van Wilson McCasland, fourth place; and Armand Zoe Clary, fifth place.

In judging pens of three fat hogs first place went to Lee (Continued on Back Page.)

Telephone Co-op Directors Meet In Washington

Secretary Ernest E. Wilson and Director Delton Barnett of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative were conferring in Washington this week with top officials of the Rural Electrification Administration on the final phases of plans to put the Co-op into operation in a nine-County area in which dial telephone service will be provided to rural subscribers.

Willis A. Hill, President of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, announced this week that Mr. Wilson and Mr. Barnett flew to Washington last Sunday from Dallas with Don Herzog, a professional telephone engineer of Wichita Falls, who has been working as a consultant with the Co-op.

Mr. Hill said that on Friday of last week a special meeting was called of the Board of Directors of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative to discuss a message from Richard F. Richter, head of region 10 of the application and loans division of the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington. Mr. Richter had requested that members of the Board of the Co-op go to Washington, along with Mr. Herzog, for conferences that began in the national capital on Monday morning of this week. At last Friday's meeting it was decided that Secretary Wilson and Mr. Barnett, both of them Directors, should make the trip to Washington in response to the request from Mr. Richter.

It was understood in Goldthwaite that upon the arrival of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Barnett and Mr. Herzog in Washington, the telephone division of the R.E.A. "cleared the decks" so that the engineering department of the R.E.A. could (Continued on Back Page.)

Glynn Collier Buys Registered Jerseys

Cattle stock in Mills County has been improved greatly as the result of the recent purchase by Glynn Collier of the Trent State Bank of two outstanding registered Jersey heifers. At a recent sale by the Texas Jersey Club at Sulphur Springs Mr. Collier bought his heifers from the registered herd of Hulon T. Riggsby & Sons of Dixon and from the registered herd of Carl Newsome of Mount Vernon.

TB And Bang's Tests Due Next Thursday

Erle D. Roberson, Director of the Mills County Vocational School, announced this week that tests for TB and Bang's disease among cattle in Mills County will be run on Thursday of next week by Dr. W. R. Benson, veterinarian of San Saba, under the supervision of the GI School. Stressing the utmost importance of tests for Bang's disease and TB, Mr. Roberson urged that all persons interested in having tests run on their cattle communicate with him immediately at the Mills County Vocational School—telephone 51.

Garden Club Ladies Really Do It—Even Stove Pipes Make Hats!

More than 50 ladies of the Goldthwaite Garden Club and their guests, meeting on Wednesday morning of this week at the home of their President, Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan, carried out their threat to wear vegetation on their heads.

From now on, men, just send your wives out into the back yard or off into the bosque if they start hollering for new bonnets.

Not only did the ladies let their imaginations run riot in flower beds, vegetable gardens and out where plants grow wild in the wide open spaces, but they awarded prizes for the startling and, in some cases beautiful but bewildering results.

First prize was awarded to Mrs. J. V. Cockrum who took a blue ribbon for a hat trimmed with snow-on-the-mountain—milkweed to you—and bachelor buttons.

The second prize red ribbon was won by Mrs. Jim Weatherby for a "beanie" trimmed in evergreens and pink prince feathers.

A white ribbon, denoting third prize, went to Mrs. Loyd King. Hold everything while you learn what won for Mrs.

King. It was an overturned Mexican bread basket trimmed with okra pods, iris leaves, zinnias and nandena berries—all of which were anchored to the bread basket with a clothes pin.

Men, not only did the ladies win prizes with what have been described above, but they wore them on their heads!

The judges must have had one dickens of a time. The Eagle's Miss Ruth Ervin, who is an ardent member of the Goldthwaite Garden Club, was privy to what went on at the Malcolm Jernigan residence last Wednesday morning, but she wore just an ordinary hat—no vegetables, flowers or plant life of any kind. Mrs. Jernigan, the hostess, was bare headed. But give your thought to some of the spectacles that confronted the judges and you will have some understanding of the problems of last Wednesday morning. Let's take just a few, name by name:

Mrs. T. M. Glass: A lady named Eve is reputed to have been the first to deck herself in fig leaves. According to the records, Mrs. Glass was the latest. She wore an oriental coolie hat cov-

OUR RESEPECTS TO THE FARMERS

After what was a very long, awfully hot and practically completely dry summer, there was in the news columns of last week's Eagle what amounted to an editorial tribute to the farmers of Mills County.

"We all realize that Old Man Winter is just around the corner. He won't find many large haystacks and big cribs of corn but he will find a bunch of tired farmers who battled the heat and did their best to save every bit of feed possible."

Those words by Pearl Crawford were contained in her regular weekly news letter to the Eagle from Chappell Hill. They were plucked from the news letter and made part of last week's weather story.

We have the greatest of respect for those who wrest a living from the soil—especially for those who toil in places where often it seems that Nature is intent upon defeating them at every turn.

During the drought and during the prolonged period during which temperatures hovered so consistently over the 100 degrees mark, there were many gloomy conversations around the Square in Goldthwaite—especially among those who do not wrest a living from the land themselves but who depend on those who do.

You stated a case and paid a tribute to people who deserved to have tribute paid to them, Miss Pearl Crawford. You did it so well that this week, we have taken your words that were printed on the back page last week, and we have enclosed them in an editorial.

GUEST EDITORIAL

(Editor's Note: One of the best articles that we have seen in a long time on the high cost of government has been written by David Lawrence, who makes an accurate point in underlining President Truman's attacks on those who seek economy in federal expenditures. Because of the importance of Mr. Lawrence's article to everybody's purse, it is printed herewith in full.)

By DAVID LAWRENCE

President Truman put his political foot into it with his speech attacking those who want to see the government economize on expenditures.

The truth is that while it is hard to cut the budget and keep some political fences built up, the number of citizens affected by the higher taxes is far larger in political power than those relatively few who benefit by governmental favors and benefits that could be cut.

What Mr. Truman may not realize is that his administration has not assisted congress in cutting the budget and that even on military expenses the impression is given that when the executive branch hands a figure to congress that's the last word on the subject.

There's nothing sacrosanct about executive agency figures. For a long time the habit has been to pad the figures on the expectation that congress would cut them down.

It's true that there are certain nondefense items which can't be cut, such as the interest on the public debt. But to say that all expenditures for veterans cannot be reviewed or that other established programs of governmental spending cannot be reduced is to be unrealistic.

Sooner or later the atmosphere in Washington will have to change from one of indifference to the fact that the saturation point in taxes is being reached to one of solicitude as to how future revenues are to be raised. Sooner or later also government borrowing will become more difficult when the public begins to understand that there are limits on taxation.

Sooner or later it will become apparent, moreover, that the mere increasing of rates does not bring in more revenue and actually may bring in less money. The point of diminishing returns, it is believed, already has been reached, for example, on both tobacco and liquor taxes.

The contrast between the attitude of a private business facing a financial stringency and the attitude of government is striking indeed. A private business has no compunctions about eliminating waste and luxuries when the time comes to balance the budget. But the federal government under analogous circumstances does not cut till it hurts—it rarely cuts at all.

Congress, to be sure, has the main responsibility. A few members, like Senator Douglas of Illinois and Senator Byrd of Virginia—and there are a few others—have been urging the need for economy. But the majority in both parties are afraid to antagonize the pressure groups which are interested in maintaining a flow of federal appropriations especially to certain sections of the country.

The only leadership that can be expected to deal with this kind of a situation must be national. The President represents the entire country and not any particular state or district. But when a president refuses to countenance the drive for economy and actually assails those who try to economize, then a feeling of despair arises which can be far more dangerous in the long run than is apparent today.

For eventually, as a psychology develops nationally that no matter what the arguments are the administration in power intends to keep on spending, the fear of a run on the dollar will arise. There is no exception to the rule—once a people lose confidence in the integrity of their monetary unit they do not readily regain it without a

The Eagle's A By The Editor

It seems to the editor that the action of the Board of Trustees of the Goldthwaite Independent School District in authorizing School Board Secretary Ray Duren to make public financial statements after football games in which the Goldthwaite High School Eagles compete not only merits praise but deserves also some explanatory comment.

After the opening game of the 1951 season against the Hamilton Bulldogs, the financial statement that was issued by Mr. Duren showed a net profit from the game of $442.70 and it showed also a balance in the account from the sale of season tickets of $541.25. As the season goes on there will be more income from gridiron contests in which the Eagles engage.

For example, the Eagles were due to receive 50 per cent of the receipts from last Friday night's game against the Armadillos at San Saba AFTER the payment of all expenses. Generally, that arrangement also holds for the contests with Liano, Cross Plains, Marble Falls and Comanche. For the game against Mason, however, Mason has been guaranteed a clear "take" of $200.00 before the Eagles or, rather, the Board of Trustees of the Goldthwaite Independent School District receive anything.

This early in the season and on the basis of financial statements that Mr. Duren so commendably has been authorized to make public at regular intervals, there is danger that the impression may get around that the G. H. S. Eagles are a "mint" and that they are going to pile up a substantial balance in the football account. That definitely is not so and here are some of the reasons why it is not so:

As a starter, there is locally a football deficit of approximately $2,700.00. The reasons for that deficit were explained publicly and completely in a financial statement that was issued by Mr. Duren late last autumn, after the close of the 1950 season. The deficit was incurred through the purchase of equipment, which is expensive; through improvements to Eagle Field and the Field House; and for training and other legitimate expenses. The fact remains that the deficit has to be liquidated and so no matter how good the financial statements appear to be this autumn, the red ink is there and it has to be faded out.

Further, there are 1951 expenses already incurred for the G. H. S. Eagles that have not yet been charged against their income. There will be other expenses which cannot show until the season stretches out and which may not appear until Mr. Duren issues his final statement in behalf of the School Board account about next December. Accordingly, any conclusions should await the balance sheet that can be issued only after all of the 1951 games have been played and the bills as well as receipts have been received.

major reorganization of fiscal affairs. The danger signals may appear shortly as foreign governments seek to revalue their own currencies higher to meet what they see is a depreciating dollar.

High prices aren't the only stimulus to inflation. Much more important is a possible loss of confidence in the dollar—and this could emanate from a failure to economize and a failure to tax on a basis that will produce needed revenue.

Soil Conservation Experts Tell How To Control Runoff Of Water

By CHARLES O. HAENISCH

The supervisors of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District have found that contour cultivation on a sloping field is one of the first steps in applying a complete coordinated conservation plan on your farm. Experiments have shown that terraced and contoured fields have allowed only 7.8 per cent of the water that fell to run off, holding up the remainder to penetrate into the soil.

The supervisors point out that terracing is not a cure all for erosion, nor is it a substitute for other conservation measures. Facts have shown that considerable inter-terrace erosion takes place during heavy rain storms creating the need for cover crops, crop rotation and stubble mulching.

When terraces are built, it should be remembered that the success or failure of the system depends upon the outlet. The drainage outlet is really the nerve center of your terrace system. The most desirable type of terrace outlet is that of native pasture. At times, this type of outlet is not available and the farmer must resort to a constructed waterway. The size of the waterway should be sufficient to carry all excess runoff in an efficient manner.

Cooperators of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District in the past have had good results in vegetating the waterways with both introduced and native grasses. Bermudagrass, a fast growing, fibrous-rooted, sod-grass, has given the best protection in the deeper soils. In the shallow soils, the native bunch grasses have been used with success. For the past three years, plantings of King Ranch bluestem, an introduced grass, have been tried and found to be successful in waterways. Its ability to make a fast growth makes it a desirable grass for this purpose.

Good vegetative cover is essential in all waterways and terrace construction should be postponed until satisfactory cover is present.

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

GARAGE MANAGER
 "I've had dreams of working on a Buick engine," says Lewis Stoddard, Garage Manager, Blackfoot, Idaho. "My dream came true when customer started using new Conoco Super. It cuts down trouble, but I'm a booster of Conoco Super."

RANCHER
 "I'm glad you converted me to 50,000 Miles-No Wear oil," Albert E. Lentz, Rancher, Colorado. "I really barreled through over the highway on a Buick, and all I could hear was the purring like a kitten."

Coach Carl Knox, Assistant Coach Jack Locklear, 28 members of the Goldthwaite High School football squad and Band Director W. W. Reed were guests of the Lions Club at their regular meeting last Tuesday night.

Lions President Ray Duren said also that Brian Smith, Executive Secretary of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross, presented the Red Cross bloodmobile program to the Lions, who endorsed the program unanimously and pledged their cooperation with it. Under the program, a Red Cross bloodmobile unit will come to Goldthwaite at regular intervals, starting a few weeks hence, so that Mills County blood donors may conveniently make vital contributions to the national defense effort.

At the Lions Club meeting Coach Knox introduced the members of his football squad and he exhibited and interpreted a movie film of three quarters of the Hamilton-Goldthwaite game. Another film of college football was exhibited. There were 51 persons present at the Lions Club meeting. Band Director Reed was President Duren's guest.

Boy Scout Leaders Meet At Mullin

Members of the home-making class of the Mullin High School, of which Mrs. H. Howard Homsley is the teacher, entertained adult Boy Scout leaders of the South District of the Comanche Trail Council at supper in the Mullin School lunchroom last Monday night. Following the supper Dr. T. C. Graves presided over a meeting at which plans for an autumn Boy Scout Round-Up were approved. The next meeting of the group will be held in Goldthwaite on October 15. Doves, that were barbecued by the Mullin School girls for last Monday's meeting, were provided by Rex Williams. Mullin Scoutmaster Hillerey Dufner and School Superintendent Homsley welcomed the guests.

Duren Furniture Lists At Least A Few Winners

Norman Duren came out this week as an ardent exponent of cooking schools—all because last Friday afternoon 250 ladies crowded into the Duren Furniture and appliance store next door to the Post Office to see three meals cooked on the same stove at the same time.

Mr. Duren is not sure that either he or Mrs. Duren could duplicate the performance of Maytag Home Economist Pearl Hughey, but he did know that Mrs. W. L. Lawrence and Mrs. Marvin Hammond won cooked roasts and all the fixins that went with them. Miss Myrlene Reynolds, herself no mean shakes as a home economist, won a barbecued chicken and all that went with it.

While he had so many ladies in his store last Friday, Mr. Duren awarded prizes that had been won in his recent "oldest washer" contest. A fine electric mixer went to Mrs. Farris Jones, while Mrs. George Ellis of Mullin won a radio. Mr. Duren also gave away cakes, about 40 door prizes and things of one sort or another that had been sent over to the cooking school by other merchants but he could not find the long list of the names of ALL the lucky ladies in time for this week's Eagle.

Jury Says Stink Creek Is Public Nuisance But Reese Not Damaged

3 — Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that such nuisance... was a nuisance to the plaintiff and the lands which he was occupying more than two years prior to January 12, 1951? The jury answered YES.

4 — Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that such nuisance (the pollution of "Stink Creek") was a nuisance at the time plaintiff purchased the lands on which he now resides on the 13th day of February, 1945? The jury answered YES.

5 — Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that when the plaintiff purchased the lands on which he resides on February 13, 1945, he did so with full knowledge of the existence of the nuisance of the defendant's sewer plant, if you have found such nuisance to have then existed? The jury answered YES.

6 — Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that such nuisance... is a public nuisance? The jury answered YES.

7 — Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that such public nuisance... inflicts special injury to the plaintiff? (At this point in his charge Judge Dice defined special injury as injured suffered by an individual in addition to the injuries suffered by the general public.) The jury answered NO.

8 — Do you find from a preponderance of the evidence that the market value of the plaintiff's lands has been reduced as a direct and proximate result of the nuisance... created by the defendant in the operation and maintenance of its sewer plant...? The jury answered NO.

Since the jury held that Mr. Reese had not been damaged by any reduction in the value of his land, the jury did not answer question nine, which asked it to set an amount in the reduction of value.

The jury, in other words, held that Bulls Creek is polluted by the City of Goldthwaite's sewage disposal plant and that such pollution constitutes a public nuisance, but it held also that Mr. Reese has not suffered reduction in the value of his land and that he knew of the pollution of "Stink Creek" when he bought his land.

Mr. Reese sued to restrain the City of Goldthwaite from polluting Stink Creek and as an alternative to an injunction he asked for damages totaling $25,300.00.

The next step in the case will come in motions by Counsel and in action by Judge Dice—who could enjoin the City of Goldthwaite from polluting Stink Creek, if he chooses. The jury, however, has rendered its verdict that Mr. Reese did not suffer damage in any reduction of his land value and that he knew of the situation of Stink Creek when he purchased his land.

After the jury returned its verdict Wednesday night, Counsel for Mr. Reese withheld comment.

Counsel for the City of Goldthwaite expressed opinion that the answers by the jury to the special issues propounded by Judge Dice were favorable to the defendant. Attorney Gilliam said that during the next few days Counsel for the City will file with Judge Dice a motion asking the Court to enter judgment in favor of the City of Goldthwaite.

During the trial, which started on Monday of this week, the plaintiff, Mr. Reese, heard his case supported by a long list of witnesses including Melvin Harris, Dan E. Long, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Caraway, August Kaubs, Jim Rudd, Mrs. Curtis Ripley, Dick Baker, State Game Warden D. W. "Blackie" Bowers, District Engineer Ferris of the State Department of Health, A. D. Potter, Associate Director of Laboratories of the State Department of Health, C. A. Mathers of Burnet, a former State Health Department Sanitarian; C. L. Featherston, A. W. Lilly, a real estate expert who testified on land valuations; and Floyd Larrford.

Chief witnesses for the City of Goldthwaite were City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett, J. L. Robinson, a Fort Worth sanitary engineer; L. B. Burnham, Sam Sullivan, Frank P. Bowman and Charlie Bayley.

Methodists Plan Evangel-Mission During October

Every evening at six o'clock throughout the month of October the chimes of the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite will sound, calling the people to prayer, as all of the Methodist Churches in Texas simultaneously participate in an evangelistic mission.

In preparations for observance of the evangelistic mission here the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, is being assisted by Mrs. Jerry Walker, President of the Women's Society of Christian Service; Robert L. Steen, Chairman of the Commission on Worship and Evangelism; and the leaders and members of other Church organizations.

Brother Lovelace said this week that many members of the Methodist Church here already have signed the daily prayer covenant—of which they will be reminded by the angelus of the Church chimes at six o'clock nightly throughout October. Announcing further details of the Methodist Texas-wide evangelistic mission, Brother Lovelace also said:

"Beginning October 7 and extending through October 14, all Churches in the Southwest Texas Conference, of which Goldthwaite is a member, and the Texas conference, which has Houston for its center, will be assisted in special evangelistic services and visitation evangelism by the Pastors of the three other Conferences in Texas. They are North Texas, with headquarters in Dallas; Central Texas, with headquarters in Fort Worth; and the Northwest Texas Conference, which includes the Panhandle and South Plains areas. Then, from October 26 through November 2, Pastors in the Southwest Texas and Texas Conferences will assist the Pastors of the other Conferences in similar services."

On Wednesday night a group of laymen from the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite, led by John L. Patterson, attended a laymen's rally in San Saba where the program of the Methodist Evangelistic mission was presented and where there was a report on the laymen's Retreat that was conducted at Mt. Wesley, near Kerrville, last August.

Brother Lovelace said that further information on the Methodist Texas-wide evangelistic mission will be made public later.

Auto Dealers And Bankers Asked To Confer On Titles

All Mills County motor vehicle dealers, bankers who finance the purchase of automobiles and trucks and tax collectors have been invited to attend a meeting to discuss the procedures used in obtaining registrations for and certificates of title on motor vehicles. The meeting will be held on September 27 at the Court House in Brownwood at 8:00 p. m., according to an announcement by D. C. Greer, Engineer; and E. J. Arney, Motor Vehicle Division Director; of the Texas Highway Department. Mr. Greer pointed out that the number of motor vehicles registered annually in Texas is well over three million and is expected to increase. New laws apply to motor vehicle titles and registrations. It is the desire of the Texas Highway Department to coordinate the work of dealers in automotive vehicles, financiers and County tax collectors "in order to render the best possible service to the public," Mr. Greer said. A meeting similar to that which will be held in Brownwood on September 27 was attended in Georgetown last week by Mills County Deputy Sheriffs John L. Patterson and Clyde Cockrum.

If You Call Earl Summy "Bill" Or "Willie" He'll Reply, Sure 'Nuff

A couple of 100 per cent Yankees from the historic and beautiful Finger Lakes area of Central New York—Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Stone—came down to Goldthwaite from Syracuse, N. Y., last week and divulged that when District and County Clerk Earl Summy was in the Army during World War II he was known to his comrades in arms as "Bill." Further, they forced the disclosure from Mrs. Summy that she calls her husband "Willie" and that when she does, he knows better than not to answer. Mr. Stone is Assistant Treasurer of the Onondaga County Savings Bank of Syracuse, an institution with $125,000,000.00 in deposits and which now rates as 40th in size in the entire United States. He and County Clerk Summy were "buddies" in the 86th Division during World War II and last week they had a grand reunion while their wives had to hear all about the 86th Division for the umpteenth time. Mr. and Mrs. Stone, who came to Goldthwaite all the way from Syracuse just to see the Summys, had been through a long, wet and cool summer up among the lovely Finger Lakes of Central New York. They found Mills County both hot and dry, by their standards, and Mrs. Summy puzzled Mrs. Stone no end by trying to drape her in sweaters and by trying to put warm sox on her feet while last week's "norther" was blowing across Lake Merrett.

In addition to Mills County ideas as to what constitutes hot or cold weather, Mr. and Mrs. Stone were perplexed by a number of other matters. They live in a black, rock-ribbed Republican stronghold which, however, has a Democrat for Mayor, and they were astonished to find that Republicans are a rarity in Mills County. "How can you have an election if you have no opposition?" Mr. Stone asked as he wrinkled his brow. Earl Summy's patient explanation was too long to record here and anyway, Mr. Stone went back to Syracuse still not understanding the peculiarities of Texas politics.

The Stones, with the Summys, attended a sheep and goat sale at the auction barn in Goldthwaite, and Central New York will be hearing about THAT for many months to come. You can be sure, too, that up in Central New York Mr. Stone will be bending the ears of all and sundry about Earl Summy's warnings of water moccasins in the reeds that fringe the shore of Lake Merrett.

With the Summys, the Stones also attended last Saturday's September Preview of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association at the Agriculture Building. THAT also gave them plenty of ammunition for conversation during the long, cold winter months that lie in store for snow-bound, ice-slicked Central New York.

On one point the Stones were entirely in the clear even before they arrived in Goldthwaite. They knew that W. B. Summy is one of the grandest of all the gentlemen in Mills County and they found out that the County Clerk is such a good chap partly because he was smart enough to pick a wonderful father.

The Stones left Goldthwaite for Syracuse by way of Brownsville, Texas, late last week. That just goes to show how confused a couple of Central New York Republicans can get after a week in Mills County.

Nanette Tyson On Television Show

Miss Nanette Tyson, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. N. J. Tyson of Mobeetie, Texas, former residents of Mullin, won first prize on a recent Television program broadcast over station KRLD, Dallas. Miss Tyson performed on the piano, and as her numerous friends know, she is very talented. She was presented a Braille wrist watch.

Miss Tyson is a graduate of the State School for the Blind, Austin, and attended Abilene Christian College. At present she is employed in the State Welfare Office, Dallas.

Grass Fire Monday At Mrs. Archer's

The Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department last Monday morning extinguished a grass fire at the home of Mrs. M. E. Archer, who lives just south of the Hutchins Street residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Dyas. Both fire trucks and a considerable number of volunteer firemen responded to the alarm because of reports that Mrs. Archer's home was aflame. Happily it was not true that there was any more than a grass fire, which had a short life after the firemen arrived.

Miss Woodard Wins Sunday School Pin

I. Z. Woodard of Brady and his son, Bob, visited relatives and friends in Goldthwaite last Sunday. Mrs. Woodard, the famous Izetta, remained in Brady with her daughter, Miss Betty Carol, because last Sunday was an important day for Miss Betty. She received a pin for three years of perfect attendance at Sunday School. Other news of some importance that was brought to Goldthwaite by Mr. Woodard and Bob was that last week Brady had 1.76 inches of rain. That, however, was not considered as news ranking in importance with Miss Betty Carol's Sunday School pin.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Smith and Mike McCullough took the Smith's daughter, Angeline, to Waco, where she entered Baylor University.
