Army Negotiates Land Permits For Spring Maneuvers

Representatives of the Fourth Army Headquarters, which is at Fort Sam Houston, soon will negotiate with Mills County land owners for permits for the use of land over which troops will deploy during the massive military maneuvers that have been scheduled for this area next spring.

A Fourth Army announcement said that trespass agreements will be sought to permit the free passage of troops during what will be a joint Army-Air Force exercise to be called the Longhorn Maneuvers.

Lieut. Gen. LeRoy Lutes said that one million acres of private land westward of Fort Hood, including much of Mills County, will be needed for the maneuvers. No permanent acquisition of land is anticipated. The Army's Corps of Engineers, which will negotiate permits, will guarantee the restoration of property and the settlement of any damage caused by the passage of troops. There will be no expense to any land owner who grants maneuver permits, General Lutes said.

Maneuver permits will be requested for periods of from 90 to 120 days but the maneuver actually will cover a period of only three weeks. At least 150,000 men will be involved. Already, Fourth Army officers and Santa Fe railroad officials have conferred in Goldthwaite on troop movements and use of the railroad in this area for that purpose.

The Army has requested the cooperation of land owners in the granting of permits for maneuvers, pointing out that the purpose is to give troops actual field experience with battle problems so that they may be better prepared to defend this nation.

In the matter of permanent acquisition of land for military purposes in the event that Camp Bowie is reactivated and its maneuver area is expanded, there have been no new developments beyond repeated assurance by Congressman O. C. Fisher that no Mills County land will be used without an advance public hearing. E. B. Gilliam, Jr., Advisor to a Steering Committee of Mills County citizens of which Hollis Blackwell is Chairman, received a letter from Congressman Fisher in which Fred Korth, Deputy Counselor of the Department of the Army, promised public hearings before the acquisition of any Mills County land for Camp Bowie.

Weather Report

There is nothing the least bit amusing about the weather any more. The prolonged drought continued during the past week with the result that in the face of no rain at all it has become more and more difficult to keep smiling—although to the great credit of most people they do deport themselves more cheerfully than conditions warrant.

Eaglets Vs. Lometa This Thursday Night

The Goldthwaite School Eaglets, the crack local junior football team, were scheduled to play the Lometa Juniors at Eagle Field in Goldthwaite on Thursday night of this week. To see some good football and to see Goldthwaite take revenge from Lometa, all Eagle readers who receive their Eagles on Thursday were urged by Coaches Carl Knox and Jack Locklear to be on hand at Eagle Field in Goldthwaite at 7:00 o'clock on Thursday night of this week.

Telephone Co-op Federal Loan Due Within Few Days

Secretary Ernest E. Wilson and Director Delton Barnett of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative returned to Goldthwaite on Friday of last week after three weeks in Washington where they conferred with officials of the Rural Electrification Administration and where they believed they completed all arrangements necessary to make the Co-op a reality.

Upon their return Mr. Wilson said he expected that within a matter of days an initial federal loan of $1,540,000.00 would be granted to the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative through the telephone division of the R. E. A.

While Mr. Barnett and Mr. Wilson were in Washington, Attorney William G. Yarborough applied for a charter for the Central Texas Telephone Co-operative. Under the corporation laws of Texas the charter was granted to the Co-op as a corporation by the office of Secretary of State John Ben Sheppard.

In Washington, Mr. Wilson said, the representatives of the Co-op had the utmost cooperation from R.E.A. officials and from Jim Farley, former Chairman of the Democratic National Committee; Senators Tom Connally and Lyndon B. Johnson, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, and Representatives O. C. Fisher, W. R. Poage, and Lindley Beckworth.

Comanche Indians Play Eagles Here This Friday Night

At 8:00 o'clock at Eagle Field in Goldthwaite on Friday night of this week the Goldthwaite High School Eagles will face one of their toughest opponents of the 1951 football season—the Comanche Indians.

As Coach Carl Knox worked with his squad in preparation for the invasion by the Indians, Confronted with the likelihood of a still further depleted squad, Coach Knox said that if John Gilliam was unable to be in the lineup, Jimmy Dale Thorn probably would be in his place.

Goldthwaite School Board Secretary Ray Duren announced this week that the Goldthwaite share of last Friday night's football game at Lometa between the Lometa Hornets and the Goldthwaite Eagles was $126.26. Goldthwaite received half of the proceeds from the game after the payment of expenses.

Grass Fire Desolates 2,000 Acres Southeast Of Goldthwaite Tuesday

Weary members of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, aided by scores of other persons, including a few women, and reinforced by about 20 members of the Air Force bombardment range unit that is stationed at Lometa, fought a serious grass fire just southeast of Goldthwaite on Tuesday of this week.

Starting in mid-morning, the fire spread through Arthur Cline's pasture adjoining the unsightly "dump," and then

MILLS COUNTY 4-H CLUB LIVESTOCK TEAM WINS JUDGING CHAMPIONSHIP AT DALLAS; MERION REYNOLDS, DANA SAYLOR HIGHEST

Mills County's 4-H Club livestock judging team, tutored by County Agriculture Agent George G. Reese, won the Texas-wide livestock judging at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas on Tuesday of this week, thereby qualifying to represent the entire State of Texas at the Chicago International Livestock Exposition in November. In addition to the grand championship won by the 4-H Club as a team, the individual top high point man in the competition at Dallas on Tuesday was Merion Reynolds while the second high point contestant was Dana Saylor.

Harold Clary, 9, Takes Champion Spot For Turkeys

Harold Clary, who is only 9, took the tom turkey championship at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas on Saturday of last week, thereby breathing hard down the neck of his brother, Armand Zoe Clary, who exhibited grand champion turkey pens at the 1950 and 1949 Fairs and who took the reserve grand championship for turkeys at the 1948 Fair.

Armand Zoe, who is 14, and Harold, are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clary of Star. At Dallas last Saturday, Armand Zoe's 1951 entry won blue ribbon rating but he did not place in the finals. Harold, in the fullness of his nine years, did.

County Agriculture Agent George G. Reese said that 900 turkeys showed up for competition at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas and that there were 500 of them, even after the sifting had been completed. It was in high-powered competition of that sort that Harold Clary took his championship.

At Dallas next week Fred Daniel of the Mullin Chapter of the Future Farmers of America will exhibit four Suffolk cross-bred lambs and Myron Hillman, also of the Mullin F.F.A., will exhibit a Southdown lamb and a crossbred Southdown. Don Clark, Advisor to the Mullin F.F.A. Chapter, said that judging of the sheep in the boys' division will be on Wednesday of next week.

In the class for sheep breeders at Dallas on Tuesday of this week Myron Hillman took two third places and Y. B. Johnson, Jr., Advisor to the Goldthwaite F.F.A. Chapter, took second place with his Mills County champion buck. Tuesday's competition was only for breeders.

Judge Dice Rules In Favor Of City In Pollution Suit

Sitting at the Mills County Court House on Thursday of last week District Judge Wesley Dice denied a petition by Counselor for A. L. Reese for an injunction restraining the City of Goldthwaite from emptying waste from its sewerage disposal plant into Bulls Creek, which flows through the land owned by Mr. Reese just south of Goldthwaite on highway 16.

Judge Dice also over-ruled a motion for a re-trial by Counselor for Mr. Reese. Byron L. McClellan of Gatesville and C. O. McMillan of Stephenville, Counselor for Mr. Reese, took exception to the refusal by Judge Dice to grant a re-trial and entered notice that they now will take the case to the Court of Civil Appeals for the Third Supreme Judicial District of Texas at Austin.

In addition to denying an injunction to Mr. Reese and to over-ruling the motion of his Counselor for a re-trial, Judge Dice also ruled that costs of the action were to be assessed against Mr. Reese.

Inspectors Check Livestock Truckers

Inspectors for the Texas Railroad Commission recently have been active in Mills County, weighing vehicles that transport livestock for hire and filing charges against drivers not in possession of Commission permits and registration papers. During the past week at least three fines have been levied by Justice of the Peace E. A. Obenhaus as the result of charges filed by Railroad Commission inspectors.

The docket of Justice of the Peace E. A. Obenhaus also showed a fine of $19.00, including costs, against Noble Humphries, following entry of a plea of guilty to charges of reckless driving as signed by a citizen, Mrs. H. R. Ekins.

As top man in the entire competition, Merion Reynolds emerged with 552 points for his individual score. Second place was won by Dana Saylor with 522 points and Bobby Zane Egger nailed down fifth place among all of the contestants with 501 points. While only the scores of the three top individuals counted to make up the team ranking, Davis Owens registered 469 points—which was far higher than the scores of many of the other contestants in the competition.

The Mills County 4-H Club livestock judging team qualified for the competition at Dallas last Tuesday by taking the State 4-H Championship at Texas A. & M. College last June. The Future Farmers of America of the Goldthwaite High School, Y. B. Johnson, Jr., Advisor, qualified for the Dallas competition on Tuesday of this week by taking the State-wide F. F. A. livestock judging championship last May, also at Texas A. & M. College.

County has the top livestock judging team at Dallas this year. Merion Reynolds, Dana Saylor, and Bobby Zane Egger brought great prestige to the entire county. They have proved they are worthy followers of the Mills County livestock judging team who for several years have taken the top place in the major livestock judging at the State Fair.

step is for County Agent George G. Reese to make the Mills County livestock judging team an international livestock judging team at Chicago. Our boys are to be honored for the entire State in livestock judging at Chicago. But it is not to get them to Chicago. That money is to be put to use in coming at once, as a matter of pride and expression of gratification.

Robert L. Steen of Mills County livestock association will accept the certain 4-H Club livestock judging team to Chicago and to the contributions from a nickel or a dollar or to as much as $50.00. But, please, once to Bob Steen, and see one thousand give Bob Steen 50 cents to have just 20 cents put up the whole thing. Let's get everybody in just making empty in the direction of county's fine winning.

Friday, several citizens recognized the tremendous contribution by our 4-H boys at Dallas this year to Bob Steen and made contributions to the 4-H team trip to Chicago. That is just fine. Make more than give a few. If everybody country chipped in a amount needed would

ARMY MANEUVERS AND MILLS COUNTY

In connection with a news article that is printed on the first page of this week's Eagle about activity by the Fourth Army in obtaining permits from land owners in Mills County for the major military maneuvers that will occur in this area next spring, we would like to emphasize a statement by Fourth Army Headquarters at Fort Sam Houston. It said that "the Army anticipates hearty cooperation from the land owners." And it went on to explain that the impending huge training maneuver is intended primarily for the purpose "of giving troops actual field experience with battle problems so that they may be better prepared to defend this nation."

We hope that everybody will read "Why In God's Name?" on this same page and then think about it in relation to the request by the Fourth Army for the hearty cooperation of land owners in conducting maneuvers. No American would want a single one of our fighting men to go into battle without adequate training. The fact is, however, that young Americans have had to go into battle before they were ready. Many of them have died, and the pain of sorrow that always must be with those who mourn them is cut through cruelly by the knowledge of combat before fitness for the rigors of war. We know personally of parents in Mills County whose sons gave their lives in battle when they should have been in training camps.

The Fourth Army maneuvers next spring merit the whole-hearted cooperation of anybody upon whom the military authorities may call. It will not be a matter of "how much do I get for a permit to use my land" but, rather, "here is one way I can have a small part in preparing for the defense of my country."

We feel sure that the Fourth Army will find the finest possible spirit of cooperation in Mills County.

AGE NINE AND A CHAMPION

When a Mills County young gentleman nine years of age can go to the State Fair of Texas at Dallas as an exhibitor and win a championship it makes us realize that the world is not quite so bad as the headlines in the daily newspapers would make it appear to be. At the State Fair of Texas at Dallas last Saturday Harold Clary, 9, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clary of Star, showed the champion tom turkeys. His older brother, Armand Zoe, exhibited grand champion pens of turkeys at Dallas in 1950 and in 1949 and he had the reserve grand champions at the 1948 Fair. If our arithmetic is correct, Harold Clary not only is following in Armand Zoe's footsteps but is setting a record on his own hook.

The combination of whatever it is that the Clarys may have and the 4-H Club work that is directed so ably by County Agriculture Agent George G. Reese is something not only to be cheered, but to be cherished and respected as well. The Eagle extends hearty congratulations to Harold Clary, to his parents and to Mr. Reese. We suspect that never again will we be able to carve a turkey without thinking of Harold. In turn, such thoughts will make us wish that the birds before us could even begin to measure up to the Clary standards.

That is not as frivolous as it may seem. The work, practice and teaching that made nine-year old Harold Clary a champion at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas last week is raising standards, not only for turkeys and other products of the farm, but also educational standards. After all, Harold Clary's turkeys did not just grow, like Topsy. They were raised in accordance with scientific standards—through the application of knowledge that had been developed through a process of trial and error.

Keep on learning and applying, Harold. There are many other championships that you can win as you go deeper into life. We have more than just a strong hunch that you are not through at nine—not by a heap sight.

PASSING ON HIGHWAYS

Every day we hear and read about fatalities on our highways resulting from automobile accidents. This week started with the deaths of six persons and injuries to three others near Austin. One of the dead was A. B. Knickerbocker, former Texas State Adjutant General and son of the late Rev. W. H. Knickerbocker. The latter once was a Methodist Pastor in Brownwood and was well known in Mills County. The accident in which A. B. Knickerbocker and five others were killed was due to negligence in passing on a highway. It ought to be obvious that there is good reason for the constant efforts that are made in behalf of careful driving.

GUEST

(Editor's Note: In the following condensation of an interesting article by Peter Molyneux, the editor of the Southern Weekly states his reasons for believing that as a candidate for the Presidency, Chief Justice Vinson would not be acceptable to the South generally and to Texas specifically.)

By PETER MOLYNEUX

Growing opposition among Southern Democratic leaders to Mr. Truman's renomination has revived talk about the President's intentions. Nobody seems really to know what course Mr. Truman intends to follow, but there are well informed persons who express the belief with renewed confidence that he will step aside and propose Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson of the United States Supreme Court as his successor.

Democratic leaders generally take it for granted that the Democratic National Convention will nominate any candidate Mr. Truman favors.

"It's Truman or Vinson," about sums up a view that is growing at present. Things could happen to change the whole picture by the time the convention meets.

But assuming that it will be either Truman or Vinson, what is likely to be the attitude of Southern leaders?

There are special objections to Judge Vinson, especially among Texans. He was one of the four justices who handed down the decision despoiling the school children of Texas of their submerged coastal oil lands. He was the author of the opinion in the Sweatt case, abolishing segregation in the law school of the University of Texas. Moreover, he has concurred in all the so-called "civil-rights" decisions of the Supreme Court since he was appointed to that tribunal.

However, aside from the fact that he has been a member of the inner circle of Truman advisers from the first and is favored by Truman because the President believes he will carry out the Truman policies, Judge Vinson will have to accept the convention's platform in toto or he will not be nominated.

Mr. Truman did not originate the legislative program he has been urging upon Congress since he succeeded to the presidency. He inherited it, and he will pass it on to whoever succeeds him on the Democratic ticket.

That program, which is designed to set up a politically managed socialistic economy in this country, was drafted in 1943 under the direction of Harry Hopkins and Sidney Hillman and was presented to Congress for the first time by President Roosevelt in his state-of-the-union message in January, 1944.

It is the exact opposite of the original principles of the Democratic party. It is a program of centralization in government and socialization of the nation's economy, whereas the Democratic party has always stood for local self-government and a free economy.

It was against that program that Sen. Harry Byrd directed his fire in his now-famous Atlanta speech, and that he proposed the Democratic party abandon as the price of continued Southern support.

In effect, Senator Byrd contended that to place the Democratic name on the ballot in Southern States as the designation of the party for centralism and socialism is to perpetuate a fraud, and he proposed that the national party be given the choice of repudiating that program or of being denied the use of the Democratic name in Southern States.

The nomination of Judge Vinson or of anybody else on that program would not change the ground for Senator Byrd's opposition.

"WHY IN GOD'S NAME?"

(Editor's Note: That query, "Why In God's Name?" headed two top columns on the first page of last Sunday's Dallas Morning News. What was printed under those words should be read by everybody. The editor of the Eagle, appalled by the apathy among people right here in Mills County, has changed the makeup of this page this week in hope that at least some readers will give their attention and their thought to the following reprinting of "Why In God's Name?")

Three minutes of your time, please — three minutes away from the World Series, football scores, the comics.

A man in Korea who loves his baseball, football and L'il Abner paid a high price for these three minutes.

He lost a leg in a see-saw game of death on a Korean hill. He questions not the loss of a leg, the shattering of the other. He is a soldier.

The question on his boyish lips is bigger than personal tragedy.

Lieutenant X, U. S. Marine Corps, Dallas, U. S. A., wrote a couple of letters home in the last two weeks. To his Mom went the first. To an uncle, the second.

They are recommended reading. The words of this 26-year-old leatherneck will burn into your soul.

"Dearest Mom:
... My platoon was called on today to clear an assembly area and a trail of enemy mines. We did this without mishap and then went back down the hill and led the infantry boys up. We watched the battalion as it laboriously moved up the long, steep climb. They carry all their possessions on their backs—rations, ammunition and weapons. It is a terrible load, but there is no other way.

"Soon they jumped off in attack. The colonel hit a mine up the hill. He was badly injured and had to be flown out by helicopter.

"It is a mighty rough go for the infantrymen. The casualties are high. The North Koreans dig into the mountains and stay until someone kills them. But they take a terrible toll before they die.

"The boys who go in after them have all the courage in the world. Their superhuman efforts can never be fully appreciated. Climbing the hill is hard enough without having to pack 60 to 100 pounds and then fight for their lives.

"The nights are cold and damp and the days are hot. They are never warm enough at night or cool enough during the day. The world owes each and every one of them a debt that cannot be repaid.

"I'm telling you this, Mom, in hopes that more people can learn just what hardships these boys are going through. Maybe more people will demand that this war be given all-out support.

"Why in God's name do we let them say this is a police action that should be fought on a limited basis?

"Every available means should be brought to bear to bring this

A. Announces Big Plans For Hallowe'en Carnival October 27th

October 27, has been selected for the annual Hallowe'en Carnival of the Goldthwaite Schools under the direction of the Parent-Teacher Association.

Following the precedent that has been set in previous years, the Carnival itself will open at 5:00 o'clock. Supper will be served by room mothers of the sophomore class in the lunchroom while room mothers of the freshman class will sell cakes and pies. They will also sell cake by the slice and serve coffee.

"So as to be sure that there will be enough supply to meet the demand, we would like to have 100 cakes and pies donated by the public generally for the Hallowe'en Carnival." Mrs. Horton said. "Please notify the mother of any student in the freshman class that you will donate a cake or a pie. They will be glad to pick them up on the day of the Carnival."

"At the Carnival," Mrs. Horton said, "members of the senior class will operate a booth for games, and members of the junior class will be in charge of a sidewalk cafe."

By the time the Hallowe'en Carnival rolls around, the grammar school grades will have announced the attractions which they will offer to the public.

"There will be fun and food for everybody and the Carnival will be climaxed with the crowning of the Hallowe'en Queen in the school gymnasium," Mrs. Horton said—adding a reminder that the P.-T.A. relies to a considerable extent on the Hallowe'en Carnival proceeds for funds for playground and other school improvements.

Food booths will be kept open so that patrons may be served after the crowning of the Hallowe'en Queen.

The Hallowe'en Parade on October 27 will be in charge of Mrs. Sparks Bigham while Mrs. H. C. Schunke will be in charge of the Coronation.

Art, Civic Club Meets To Discuss World Relations

With "How Can We As Individuals Further International Relationship?" as the theme, the Goldthwaite Art and Civic Club met on Thursday afternoon of last week at the Jennie Trent Dew Library and heard M. Y. Stokes, Jr., speak on the inter-dependence of people.

Mrs. Marvin Hodges was the program leader and the hostesses were Mrs. Lee Doggett and Mrs. Oran Carothers.

The program also included the projection of two motion picture films—"Operation Mercy," depicting application of the Christian Rural Overseas Program in western Europe; and "Glimpses of Japan's Romantic Industries."

Col. Stokes, who was introduced by Mrs. Hodges, made use of charts to show the comparative economic situations of the United States and other countries and a map to show the "have" and "have not" nations. The map also showed the extent of communist domination.

The Art and Civic Club also received a letter that had been addressed to Mrs. J. H. Saylor by Captain Francis J. Bloom of San Antonio from the headquarters for German Youth Activities at the Wurzburg Military Post in the American zone of occupation in Germany.

In the letter Captain Bloom thanked Mrs. Saylor "and all the other gracious ladies who so generously contributed to the General Clay Fund." They had sent a box of sewing supplies which, according to Captain Bloom's letter, will be distributed among German Youth Center on the border of the American and Russian zones. Presumably the distribution was made inasmuch as the letter was dated last May 9.

Scrap metal, sorely needed by the United States for the national defense effort, should be gathered up immediately and made available for the manufacture of steel, A. A. Downey said this week.

Mr. Downey is Chairman of the Mills County Agricultural Mobilization Committee. Through the Texas organization, Mr. Downey has received an urgent appeal from Washington for the collection of scrap metal of all kinds.

"There is old metal in the back yards in towns and there is plenty of it on the farms," Mr. Downey said. "It should be gathered up at once. Steel is a vital necessity for the country and, in the making of steel, 50 per cent of what goes into the blast furnaces is scrap metal."

In Mills County, H. E. Moreland & Son of Goldthwaite are buyers of scrap metal. Following the appeal by Mr. Downey, Mr. Moreland said this week that all scrap metal that is taken to him on the south side of the Square in Goldthwaite will be bought on the spot and then channelled for the use of defense industries.

Mr. Downey said there is special need for the lighter grades of scrap metal but all kinds is in demand.

"Please hunt up the scrap metal on your farms and in your back yards and take it to H. E. Moreland & Son or any other dealer who will channel it into the national defense effort," Mr. Downey said. He urged, however, that there be no dismantling of farm machinery that still might be of use in working the land.

Mrs. Jennie Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Nix and Earlene, and Miss Lois Randles of Pritchitt, Colorado, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bramblett and family at Mullin last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Worley Laughlin visited their son, Jack, and Mrs. Laughlin at Sanderson last week. They also visited the Big Bend National Park and Santa Elena Canyon.

Soil Man Tells How Cover Crops Increase Yields

By CARL CASBEER

Farmers and ranchers have been buying fertilizer and legume seed for fall plantings of winter cover crops. Very little has been planted due to the scarcity of available moisture.

Recently, a farmer was asked what kind of fertilizer he bought. His reply was, "I don't know. Some white stuff in a paper sack. I put some with some peas last year and the corn following sure was good."

This farmer used 0-20-0 and gave the phosphate all the credit for the increased yield. He did not take into consideration that a good crop of vetch or peas will add about 120 pounds of nitrogen, 20 pounds of phosphate, 185 pounds of potash and 3 to 5 tons of organic matter to the soil. All of them are essential to get an increase in yield.

The nitrogen gives a plant its green color and part of its fast growth. The phosphate stimulates early maturing and faster growth. The potash assures a full head of grain or a good ear of corn, while the organic matter improves the structure and tilth of the soil and increases the water holding capacity of the soil and reduces erosion.

Some people who give all the credit to the phosphate have wanted to fertilize cash crops. They may show an increase in yield for a year or two, but soon they will burn all the organic matter out of the soil and use the rest of the plant food out of the soil. Your bank account can stand a certain amount of checking if you put something back in the bank. Your soil should be treated the same way.

Legumes that are planted this fall need 200 pounds of 0-20-0 or its equivalent as phosphate is the principal food of legumes.

As you will remember, we stated in our last week's communication that we were looking forward to a great day at the Church the following Sunday, and so it was. A record attendance gathered in the afternoon for the ordination services. There were sixteen ordained Ministers and deacons present to assist in the ordination of our good layman, Bill Bishop.

The W. M. U. associational meeting which met Tuesday with the Scallorn Church was well represented by the societies of different organizations.

Saturday evening, October 13, there will be a weiner roast at the Church. The entire community will be cordially invited. Of course, you will be expected to furnish what you and your family will consume.

Mrs. Bill Bishop and the writer went to Lake Brownwood Friday of last week to the District W. M. U. meeting. As we went through Goldthwaite we picked up Mrs. Eula Nickols, who was a very welcome guest.

Yvonne Johnson and Imola Henry were among the students who attended the Dallas Fair Saturday.

Due to bad telephone connections, we were not able to collect news for this communication.

Hornets Win 27-20 Over Eagles Last Friday At Lometa

By R. C. McCOLLUM

A Lometa field extremely poor Goldthwaite High lost a football game to the Lometa Hornets by a 27-20 score on Friday last.

Wayne Wicker was conspicuous for his hard tackles, his recovery of a fumble and his blocking of two Lometa attempts for extra points. Gary Head also was conspicuous both on the offense and defense. He led interference well and he was all over the bad field on hard-driving tackles.

A lesser feature of the game was the failure of either team to intercept any passes. The contest itself was hard-fought; at times its pace was furious.

The Eagles chose to kick and Lometa took the kickoff and went some 23 yards in three plays. On the fourth play Johnny Henkes pounced on a Lometa fumble and the Eagles took over. But they could pick up only six yards in three plays and when they were forced to kick John Gilliam got off a 25-yard punt into the wind. Then the Hornets took over and they were not stopped until they hit pay dirt.

After the first Lometa score, the Eagles brought the kickoff back to their own 30-yard line. John Gilliam received the snap from center and behind beautiful blocking he went all the way for a touchdown—out-running several of the Lometa players. The try for an extra point was blocked.

Thereafter, neither team was able to get a sustained drive under weigh until late in the second quarter when the Eagles took the ball over on a 25-yard punt, of which ten yards was erased by the return of Hobson Miller. Dick Lindsey completed two passes—one to John Gilliam for ten yards and a screen pass to Vernon Whitley for 20 yards. Then Gilliam carried for three yards, Whitley picked up six yards, and Gilliam gained the remaining twelve yards for the second Goldthwaite

Star-Telegram Can Put Lapse At Door Of Human Frailty

For the edification of Eagle readers the following from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram of last Sunday is reprinted here with precisely as it was published in the Star-Telegram. Here is what the Fort Worth Star-Telegram printed last Sunday:

Lometa, Oct. 5 (Spl.)—Goldthwaite Back Al Dannheim had himself a field day here Friday night, accounting for 24 points in the Eagles' 27-20 victory over the Lometa Hornets. He clicked off a 13-yard run for the opening tally in the first period, carried over twice in the third, once on a 46-yard romp and the other time on a three-yard lunge. He put the finisher on a 40-yard drive by plunging over from the four. The Eagles' John Gilliam raced 70 yards in the first quarter, and Dick Lindsey followed suit with a short gallop in the second. A pass, Lindsey to Joe Hammond, paid off in the third period for the hosts. Joe Stevenson's kicks accounted for the visitor's three extra points, and Gilliam marked up the Eagles' bonus counters with his boot.

touchdown. After Bobby Letbetter kicked the extra point for Goldthwaite, Lometa ran only one play before the half ended.

At half time the Eagles were ahead for the first time this season but during the last half at Lometa they played sluggishly.

After the half, Lometa took the kickoff and on the first play from scrimmage Lometa's Al Dannheim raced 68 yards for the second touchdown of the night for the Hornets. The try for the extra point was good and Lometa was leading 14 to 13.

On Lometa's kickoff to the Eagles the ball was fumbled and the Hornets recovered. From there, the Hornets went in six plays for their third touchdown with Al Dannheim again carrying over. The try for extra point was blocked by Wayne Wicker and Gary Head. The Eagles were penalized to the one-yard line for unnecessary roughness and Lometa was given another chance at the extra point. Wicker again blocked the kick for extra point.

On a build-up of steam, the Eagles scored their third and final touchdown in five plays. Gilliam carried for 11 yards and a first down. Whitley bulldozed for two yards and a pass, Lindsey to Gilliam, was good for 12 yards and another first down. A pass, Lindsey to Joe Hammond, was good for nine yards. With a pass, Lindsey hit Wayne Roberts who was tackled at the goal line but he fell across for the touchdown. That play was good for 21 yards. Bobby Letbetter kicked the extra point and the score was tied—20 to 20.

Lometa took the kickoff and the Hornets were stopped short of pay dirt because of fine defensive work by the Eagle line and line backers.

Lometa fumbled on the fourth down and Wayne Wicker pounced on the ball for an Eagle recovery. The Eagles, however, were not able to go anywhere; they were forced to punt on the fourth down. Gilliam kicked a 25-yard punt and Lometa went from there to score their fourth and final touchdown in nine plays with Al Dannheim again carrying over. The try for extra point was good.

John Gilliam received the kickoff but he was injured in the play and had to be carried from the field. He was replaced by Jimmy Dale Thorn. Whitley picked up nine yards, a pass by Lindsey was incomplete, but then a pass, Lindsey to Thorn, was good for first down. The Eagles were held for downs and were forced to punt. After Lindsey kicked 25 yards into the wind Lometa not only was held for downs but lost three yards in three plays. After the Hornets punted for 30 yards the Eagles ran two plays before the ball game ended.

Spectacle Of V. C. Bradford Aboard Bruce Perry's Horse Causes Gasps

What undoubtedly was the spectacle of the year had Goldthwaite gasping and goggle-eyed on Friday of last week when V. C. "Central Pontiac" Bradford was seen on the public thoroughfares aboard Bruce Perry's horse.

Vaquero Bradford was wearing a ten-gallon hat, a blue jacket, cow-poke's boots and blue jeans. There was no question about the fit of the jeans. They were tight. The rumor that there were spurs on the boots turned out to have been baseless.

To explain the spectacle without having to write a book about it, here are the salient facts of the matter:

1— Hollis Blackwell and Charlie McLean heard last Friday that Brad was about to acquire some land about 3½ miles from Goldthwaite in the general direction of Caradan.

2— They plotted, then acted, pausing only long enough to tip Lewis T. Hudson to load a Hudson Drug camera, complete with flash gun and bulb.

3— Blackwell and McLean, with Hudson trailing them with his photographic equipment, stalked Brad to a coffee shop. By what means is not certain, but it is a fact that the budding

Ranchero was transferred to the mercantile establishment known as Yarborough & Duren. There, on the second floor and out of sight of the lady sales personnel, Brad was stripped of his outer clothing. The hat that he was wearing was tossed onto the Y. & D. roof, under a plan to leave it there until rain falls.

4— When next seen, Brad was attired in accordance with the best Mills County notions as to what a well-dressed cow-poke should wear. Just who arranged the timely appearance of Bruce Perry's horse is a subject for conjecture but the new Ranchero himself admitted that Carl Letbetter should have been around to double-weld a ladder to have made easier the mounting.

5— Strange as it may seem, the populace was not frozen into complete stupefaction by the sight of Ranchero Bradford aboard Bruce Perry's horse. One pretty matron called out to Bradford from the sidewalk and offered him $1.50 for the hat. And the horse bore himself with great dignity.

6— This is the clean-up paragraph. Messrs. Blackwell and McLean have been charged with the new hat, the blue jacket and the blue jeans. Brad relented and paid for the cowboy boots himself—but not until after he had gone back to Y. & D., and had exchanged the $10.00 hat for one that cost $20.00. Ray Durer and Harold Yarborough said that in the course of the entire episode innumerable cups of coffee were consumed by all concerned but their statements as to who paid for the coffee were confused. Now, and finally, the reason that Ranchero Bradford had each leg of his jeans tucked in a boot was because the boots were rubbing his legs and raising warts.

P. S.—As of the time this story was written, there was not so much as a single cow on Rancho Bradford. In fact, there wasn't even a goat.

P. P. S.—One of the most touching elements of the episode described above was the grief of Dow Hudson that he, an "Old Cavalryman" as he described himself, was not given opportunity to see with his own eyes the sight of Brad as he joined the fraternity of the booted. He had seen Brad and Bruce Perry's horse separately, but never together, Mr. Dow moaned.

Postmaster Says Mailing Time Here For Xmas Overseas Parcels

Postmaster Lucile Fairman emphasized this week that the time to mail Christmas packages to members of the United States Armed Forces who are serving overseas is between October 15 and November 15.

"It is expected that this year many parcels will be mailed by persons in this country to their loved ones serving overseas and if the parcels are to reach their destinations by Christmas, they MUST be mailed between October 15 and November 15," Postmaster Fairman said.

"Parcels to be sent to Korea, Japan and the islands of the Pacific should be mailed not later than November 1. Those to be sent to Navy men and Marines serving in the most distant areas should be mailed not later than October 15, if they are to be delivered in time for Christmas and in good condition.

"Greeting cards for the Armed Forces should be mailed at the first class rate of three cents an ounce and should be mailed before November 1. Those sent by air mail at the rate of six cents per ounce should be mailed before December 1 if they are to be delivered before Christmas."

Mrs. Fairman said that members of the Goldthwaite Post Office staff will be glad to advise patrons on weights, wrappings and package sizes.

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

These autumn days are lovely even if the drought is still holding on with a death-like grip. We see no golden rod along the road, no asters on the creek, no tints of autumn on the hills. But we do see dead timber in the woods, and holes that are almost dry. Yet one can hardly be unhappy with such lovely dawns and sunsets with sunlit days between.

Stanley Reeves says he is using his artesian water from the oil well to water grass in his pasture, and his cattle are enjoying it immensely.

Since we are being haunted by the specter of the drought of 1886, I am reminded of an instance related to me of that time. When we moved to Dallas in the fall of 1912, we got rooms from a Mrs. Charlie Wilson, who lived on Jefferson Avenue near the Oak Cliff Car Earnings. When she learned we were from near Goldthwaite, she told me that her father had lived at Goldthwaite, and was in the grocery business there. I can't remember his name.

She said he went broke in 1886. She heard him say he just couldn't turn down the men who came to him for groceries for their families, though he knew they couldn't pay him.

Blue Thompson lost only four sheep from eating castor beans. He got them out of there in a hurry. I remember when we first came to this country, my father planted castor beans. He was always experimenting to see what would grow here. He shelled out a lot of them in a trough where he had fed horses. An old mare came along and ate some of them. That came near being the last of her, but she finally recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger and Mr. and Mrs. Daz Oliver of Brownwood spent Saturday at the Egger ranch. We think they must have separated cows and calves from the number of nice calves we have seen walking the fence in Edward's pasture since then.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Reid of Goldthwaite spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whittenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger visited awhile with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egger Saturday night. They are looking for Ynell home from Southwest state College for next weekend. She gets to come with someone to San Saba, and Cecil meets her there.

The Ernest Russell family were getting the cotton out for Dale Reid as we passed there Friday.

Wallace Perkins has turned under his Sudan field at the foot of Russell Hill.

Jim Wilmeth and Ralph Wilmeth and his children, Lucy, Nancy, and Joe were at the Briley home for a little while Sunday afternoon. Lucy came by to get her horse, then they went on to the Wilmeth ranch. Lucy and Nancy both say they are delighted with Mozelle.

We hear that our Jerry Egger, who started to school this year at Brownwood, not only made the second grade there, but she also made the best division of it. Jerry's birthday is September 30, which makes her start to school almost a year late, but she got even with it by studying at home.

Sealy Reid Still Serves Under Fire

Sealy Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reid of Rt. 3, Mullin, now is aboard the U. S. S. Moore, a destroyer escort, in Far Eastern waters. In a recent letter to his parents—the last one that they received, in fact—Sealy said that he had gone without mail for more than two weeks and then received 12 letters all at one time. When he wrote, Sealy's ship was off Wonsan, Korea. He said that a sister ship to the U. S. S. Moore and several minesweepers had been hit by Red enemy fire just before he wrote. Sealy himself is a member of the ship's band and he served off Korea months ago.

JEFFERSON DAVIS

"No occupation would be more acceptable to me..."

Jefferson Davis, former president of the Confederacy, and one of the best-loved men in the South, was the first man elected to the presidency of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas in 1875, the board of directors for the newly authorized school. Bryan and voted to offer the post to Davis, then living in his native Mississippi. Governor Richard Coke, chairman of the board, tendered the offer in a manner typical of the feelings of the times. "As the representative, not only of the Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas," he wrote in behalf of the State of Texas and all her people, "I ask you to come and live with and be one of us, and make your home here, after a long and eventful public service, among a people who will never cease to love and honor you." The former President of the Confederacy, "In the consciousness that I could not satisfactorily perform the duties of the office," he must decline to accept it. In poor health, he never again able to assume major public duties. He recommissioned friend, Thomas Gathright, then Superintendent of Public Instruction for Mississippi, for the post, and Gathright became the college president.

As Bill and Marvin Yeager continued their activity with tile and cement, Truitt Aldridge and Luther Ward went to work on the carpentry end of the expansion of the Youth Center that has been made possible by a gift of $15,000.00 from Walter Fairman.

Walter "Heavy" Reeves was very much in evidence on the scene of bustling activity and so was John H. Long, who was one of the assistant supervisors—a bit above the grade of just an ordinary sidewalk superintendent.

The Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, said that at the Youth Center—formerly known as the Baptist Education Building—there will be, in addition to already established facilities, separate shower and locker rooms for boys and girls and a new room, 34 feet by 40 feet, which will have an asphalt tile floor.

A new door is being made on the north side of the building, where there will be an office, adjoining the present assembly room. There will be another new door on the south side of the building, providing a separate new entrance to the kitchen.

The Youth Center will have an attractive brick front facing Fisher Street with tile copings to set off the roof. New sidewalks are being built to the new north and south entrances.

There will be an impressive main entrance, over which there will be an appropriate inscription that, in all probability, will contain the words, "Youth Center."

While the Youth Center will be an integral part of the First Baptist Church and under the supervision of that body, its facilities will be available to all of the youth of Mills County. It is expected, also, that there will be many times when it will be used by adults, since its facilities for group activities, including the feeding of considerable numbers of people, will be so complete.

At a recent meeting of the Faithful Workers Class at the home of Mrs. W. B. Wooster, officers were installed for the coming year. Mrs. Harvey Hale is teacher of the Class and Mrs. Lois Scooby is the Assistant Teacher. Mrs. A. L. Reese is Class President. The new officers were installed by Mrs. R. V. Littlepage. With Mrs. Wooster, Mrs. Luther Rudd was co-hostess for the meeting.

Here's why Fordomatic puts them all in the past!

In the past year, automotive writers, engineers and owners have been talking about a new kind of automatic driving... here's why you get it in Ford Cars:

power you need when you need it!

But Fordomatic has this

It gives you instant "GO"! It practically drives itself!

Yes, Fordomatic has a torque converter plus automatic gears. It brings you only the advantages of both drives. Unlike cars with only a torque converter (which start and cruise all in one drive gear), Fordomatic starts fast and smooth in Intermediate Gear then shifts itself into Drive Gear.

Star Tigers Beat Mullin Bulldogs As A Dog Named Ching Steals Show

R. C. McCollum Tells How Star Beat Mullin 19-0

By R. C. McCOLLUM

After a scoreless first quarter in which the victorious Star Tigers and the hard-playing Mullin Bulldogs gave the spectators time in which to become accustomed to six-man football, Ray Pruitt's boys from the eastern end of the County uncorked some real stuff at Eagle Field in Goldthwaite on Thursday night of last week.

The first score in the second quarter—it was almost at the end of the half—came on a pass, Davis Owens to Joe Winner. The attempt for extra arithmetic, a drop kick by John Howard Owens, failed.

In the third quarter Joe Bob Brown scored after a run of 19 yards on a handoff from Davis Owens. Then Star got an extra point on a pass, Davis to Brown.

Star scored again in the fourth quarter after a march down the field and on a pass, Davis Owens to Wilbert Rudolph. The attempt at an extra point failed.

With the above accounting of a score of Star, 19, and Mullin, 0, some information on six-man football is in order. The teams play on a field 80 yards long instead of the regulation 100 yards. It takes 15 yards instead of ten yards for a first down and the quarterback must pass the ball. Further, if a pass does not go beyond the line of scrimmage, the pigskin becomes a free ball. And every team member is eligible for a pass.

In six-man football, a successful kick after touchdown counts for two points. Usually, six-man football is played on a field 40 yards wide instead of the regulation 54 yards, but last Friday night the Tigers and the Bulldogs played the entire width of the field so as to avoid bothering the officials with imaginary lines.

As for the statistics of the Star-Mullin game, there were 13 first downs for Star and three for Mullin. Star gained 263 yards rushing and passing and lost eleven yards for a total of 252 yards. Mullin gained 126 yards rushing and passing and lost 59 yards for a total of 67 yards.

Before a crowd of about 800 at Eagle Field in Goldthwaite on Thursday night of last week the Star Tigers defeated the Mullin Bulldogs at six-man football 19 to 0.

The yellow-clad Bulldogs, coached by Johnny Smith, might have been clawed worse by Ray Pruitt's red and black Tigers except for the fine defensive performances of Harley Ethridge, Lynn Shelton and Alvin Bramlett.

Aside from the football, the pretty girls of the Mullin Pep Squad in their gold blouses and purple skirts were a feature of the night. Between halves, they formed on the field a "T" for the Tigers and a "B" for the Bulldogs, and many hearts were won by their tiny mascot, Annette Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Duncan.

Another feature was a black chow dog named Ching. He is owned by Coach Carl Knox of the Goldthwaite Eagles, who was one of the officials of the game, along with Jack Locklear and Charles Conrad. In the final quarter Ching strolled out onto the field, pulled a red flag from the pocket of his master, who had to call time out while the pooch was returned to the custody of Ray Lynn Robinson on the sidelines. A few minutes later Ching was back on the field. Upon his return he was ignored by the officials and the players. He spent most of his time in the scrimmage line of the winning Tigers but in the final minute of play he strolled over to extend condolences to the Bulldogs.

For a time, many spectators stopped watching the game and concentrated on Mike Conrad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conrad. He will not be two years old until next January, but he was out there on the sidelines handling not just one, but TWO footballs. He was not paying any attention to his Dad's officiating, either.

After the game, the most obvious remark of the season came from Ray Pruitt. "The Star boys played good football," he said. There was no argument about that.

R. T. Ratliff of Mullin made one of the most interesting post-mortem explanations of a football game ever recorded.

"The Mullin Bulldogs intended to score but they never did get

Fred Conradt Made Major In USMCR

Fred W. Conradt, Jr., brother of Charles Conradt of Goldthwaite and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conradt of Rt. 2, Lometa, has been promoted to the rank of Major in the United States Marine Corps Reserve, it was announced this week by headquarters of the Eighth Marine Corps Reserve District. His previous rank was Captain. Mrs. Conradt is the former Monnie T. Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Rose of Goldthwaite. Now in the dairy business at Waco, Major Conradt has held a USMCR commission since December 4, 1942.

around to it," Mr. Ratliff said. The Star cheer leaders must not be left out of this story. They wore red boleros and black skirts and from all the spectators could hear on the opposite side of the field, Star girls have good lungs.

The game was announced by Y. B. Johnson, Jr., with Joe Shelby Langford as spotter for Star and Don C. Clark as spotter for Mullin. Mr. Johnson did a mighty fine job, especially when it is considered that in his career to date he has seen two football games in which six-man teams were engaged. One was when he was a little boy and the other was at Eagle Field in Goldthwaite last Thursday night.

As officials, Coaches Carl Knox and Jack Locklear and Charles Conradt donated their services, for which they were thanked by Superintendent H. Howard Homsley of Mullin and Superintendent LeRoy Beard of Star. Mr. Homsley said that spectators paid admissions totaling $273.25. After deduction of expenses, the net proceeds were divided between the Tigers and the Bulldogs.

Lynn Shelton was injured in the game but after an examination by Dr. M. A. Childress he went right back into play. Following an X-ray examination last Monday Dr. Childress expressed opinion that Lynn may have temporarily dislocated his jaw, "but apparently it snapped back into place."

Our Franklin Dew Weathers Delays Eagle From Afar

The tables were turned on the Eagle staff last Friday afternoon when Miss Myriene Reynolds, equipped with two cameras and escorted by County Treasurer Bertha Weathers, photographed the Misses Ruth Ervin and Earlene Nix, Roy Lee Hill, Arnold K. Kelly, Joe W. Baldwin and the editor—all in a group.

With Miss Myriene and the County Treasurer in the story, anybody can guess that the members of the Eagle staff dropped all of the important matters in which they were absorbed so that Our Franklin Dew Weathers, United States Navy, now of the U.S.S. LST 975 in drydock at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, could have a picture of the people he used to drive crazy.

Amateur photographs never are made without a great deal of conversation. In the course of making a group picture of the Eagle staff for Our Franklin, it developed that by now Miss Reynolds has "a whole drawer full of letters" from Seaman Apprentice Weathers." The Eagle staff also had to devote valuable time to oohing and ahing over snapshots that had been sent by Our Franklin to his mother and to Miss Myriene. There were a couple of dozen of them showing palm trees, the LST 975 in drydock, panoramas of the island of Oahu, the Honolulu Y.M.C.A. and, naturally, Our Franklin.

In the photograph of the Eagle staff that you will receive, Franklin, you will note the absence of Mr. Chester Edward Brooks. That was because, and although school was out, he had not shown up for work. Just like old times, Franklin.

Mrs. Leland Kerby left Tuesday of last week to join her husband, who is in the base hospital at Camp Roberts, California.

Foundation Built For Center City Methodist Church

Work on pouring the solid, steel-reinforced foundation for the new Methodist Church at Center City was started this week and the Rev. C. A. Hogan, Pastor, said that the edifice itself would begin going up during the month of October.

The new Church, Brother Hogan said, is to be of brick veneer—either light gray brick or brick of the lightest possible buff color.

Plans have been made for Floyd Manuel to oversee the construction of the Church, in which there has been a great deal of volunteer effort already.

Z. Karnes has been one of the hardest working of all of the volunteers, Brother Hogan said. Others who have volunteered in the building of the new Center City Methodist Church were listed in last week's Eagle.

With construction work on the Center City Methodist Church now in progress, Brother Hogan said that financial help in the project will be most welcome. Checks or money orders should be sent to Brother Hogan at Star or to Carey Owens, Rt. 3, Goldthwaite.

What's the fastest-growing line of trucks in America?

LOOK around you—in cities, on farms, at terminals and loading docks—wherever goods are moved on wheels.

More and more, the pay load's packed on a GMC.

You see those letters on medium and heavy Diesels, the most economical workers in their field. For GMC means first in Diesel power.

You see gasoline-powered GMC's front-running the highways of America—pace-setting delivery of the necessities of peace and war.

You see nimble bantamweights of the family—the highest-powered 1/2- to 2-tonners made—outpulling, outhauling every other truck in their class.

Ever wonder why GMC is gaining a greater percentage of the industry than any other truck-maker?

Ask the truck drivers themselves.

See the confident way they talk of the power plants, the broad-shouldered chassis—the way a GMC handles.

Ask about the tons they've hauled, the miles they've logged—the nip-and-tuck schedules they've licked time and again.

Ask these cost-wary haulers why they've made GMC the fastest-growing fleet in the land.

They'll tell you it's because GMC is the finest motor truck made.

If you'll come in, we'll show you why we think they're right.

News Of Chappell Hill

By PEARL CRAWFORD

We only had a little mist of rain during the sand storm of Saturday. A lot of folks are wondering if the drought continues, just what will become of us all. If we could be fortunate enough to catch a few showers, we have plenty of time for a winter pasture.

Mr. and Mrs. John Calloway received a letter from Dan and family, who live in Kansas, stating that their farm crop was cut very short during the recent freeze.

It was a pleasure to see and talk with Mrs. P. R. Reid in town Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Reid reside north of Goldthwaite on the old Linkenhoger farm. They are former residents of Regency, where Mr. Reid ran a general merchandise store, post office, and cotton gin until World War II and Camp Bowie was moved to Brownwood and Regency was involved in the Maneuver area.

Dad told me the worst drought and hard times he ever experienced was in 1895, the first year he spent in Mills County. It was a very hot and dry year. What little crop which was made, the deer came in and ate it up. He had to go back to Hamilton to get groceries and corn for meal. Sometimes he would be overtaken by cold northers, and he also had sickness in the family. With the help of the late Dr. J. D. Calloway, Jim Evans, and other help from neighbors, he pulled through.

In a few years Dad got acquainted with Mr. Eli Fairman and his sons who ran a mill and cotton gin at Goldthwaite. Dad said Mr. Fairman was a very sympathetic, kind hearted gentleman and from then on Dad had his business close to home. "We will say credit."

We all enjoyed the write-up in the Goldthwaite Eagle about Jamie Brown. Jamie is a brother of Mrs. N. C. Karnes. We were happy to hear that Jamie got a few days rest. Dale Reid, who is farming his father's farm, has taken three bales of cotton to the Priddy gin, a distance of thirty-two miles.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Stevens finished picking cotton and went to Brownwood during last week to do their winter shopping.

Mrs. Charlie Partin and Mrs. Elkin of Priddy were called to San Angelo Wednesday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coly Elkin. Mr. and Mrs. Elkin's infant twins, Jimmy and Jerry, died Thursday, October 4, and were buried October 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin, Jimmy and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Partin, Mr. Charlie Partin and a host of other relatives and friends went to the Elkins home in San Angelo. We express our sympathy.

Annual Staff Named

Members of the student body of the Goldthwaite Schools on Thursday of last week confirmed the members of the staff of the school Annual. They are John Weaver, editor; Ann Dellis, assistant editor; Jo Ann Duren, business manager; Chester Edward Brooks, assistant business manager; Joan Jones, art editor; Betty John Jackson, layout editor; Joe Hodges, sports editor; Myriene Reynolds, class editor; Patsy Hale, special features; Sarita Howard, subscription manager; and Virginia Hill, assistant subscription manager.

Mrs. J. H. DuBose of Brady, formerly of Goldthwaite, came over Saturday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Matson, and to attend services at the First Baptist Church. She returned home Sunday afternoon. Other guests in the Matson home over the weekend included Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Perry I. Matson of Brownwood.

Mrs. James R. Wilmeth, Twice A Gold Star Mother, Passes Away

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY
All of Ebony and surrounding communities, and a host of friends in Brownwood, lament the passing of Mrs. James R. Wilmeth, who died Friday evening, September 28 at Memorial Hospital in Brownwood.

Mrs. Wilmeth, the former Miss Callie Dickens, was born April 23, 1883, at Algerita in San Saba County. She was the youngest of the four daughters of Mrs. Mary Dickens. Her father died when she was eleven months old. She was married to James R. Wilmeth October 11, 1908, and came to live at the Wilmeth Ranch, where she lived until they moved to Brownwood five years ago. To them were born seven children.

Early in life Mrs. Wilmeth obeyed the gospel, and was a devout Christian all her life. She was the generous-hearted, the genial friend, the helping-hand. Her industry knew no bounds. She not only labored unceasingly to provide for her own large family, but she also reached out her hand to her sister's orphaned children, mothering them, loving them, often keeping them in her home for many days. She was beloved of all her nieces and nephews. My own little girl's greatest delight was to come from Dallas out to Aunt Callie's in the summer time. One Christmas when we were buying our little gifts for the family, she wanted to pay twice as much for Aunt Callie's present. "Because," she said, "she's the goodest one."

She was the family booster. Her children shared in all the work of the farm and walked miles to the little country schoolhouse, yet the six who lived to be grown each obtained a college degree, and each became a devout Christian.

In later years grief bowed her spirit and broke her health. Twice she was brought the heart-breaking message that a son had died in war. She saw her youngest son, Lt. Eugene Wilmeth graduate from A. & M. and go right on into the war. She never saw him again.

Prominent Speaker At Mullin Sunday

Dr. Samuel B. Thompson, Minister and professor of government at McMurry College, Abilene, will speak at the Mullin Methodist Church next Sunday night when the recently organized Men's Club of the Church will receive its charter. Dr. Thompson formerly was Dean at Daniel Baker College in Brownwood and on one occasion he spoke at graduation exercises in Mullin.

Beakley and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Beakley of Placid; Willie Beakley of Brady and his daughter, Gwen, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cawyer of Orange; Lowell Wade of Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Prewitt and Sylvia Gene Wilmeth of Fort Worth; Mrs. Forest McGregor and son of San Saba County, and Mrs. Grace Bateman of Fort Worth.

The last meeting of the Mullin Methodist Men's Club was held on October 2 with the Rev. Guy B. Birdwell of Johnson Memorial Church in Brownwood as the guest speaker. Membership cards were issued at the meeting, at which the Club adopted a campaign for subscriptions to the Christian Advocate as a project and undertook to aid in raising funds to pay for recent repairs to and new pews for the Mullin Methodist Church.

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Here was a man to hold against the world
A man to match the mountains and the sea
The color of the ground was in him, the red earth,
The smack and tang of elemental things
And when he fell in whirlwind, he went down
As when a lordly cedar, green with boughs,
Goes down with a great shout upon the hills
And leaves a lonesome place against the sky.

Our 4-H Livestock Judges Bring Bacon Home From Fair At Dallas

Convoys by Mr. Reese, the victorious 4-H Club livestock judging team from Mills County returned to Goldthwaite at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning of this week. The boys and Mr. Reese were tired but also happy and proud. They had worked long and hard and conscientiously boys worked to make themselves championship judges of cattle, sheep, hogs and quarter horses. They worked on farms and ranches; they learned from others and they studied books.

to achieve the great distinction that came to them at Dallas last Tuesday. Last winter and in the early spring they toiled to get their feet on the first rung of the ladder in District competition at Tarleton State College at Stephenville. Then they went on to win the Texas 4-H championship at College Station. Now they have won the highest honors at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas and before them lies the greatest competition of all—at the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago.

During hard weekends and in the course of many hours of skull practice in the office of County Agent Reese, the 4-H

GEORGE G. REESE

The effort paid off handsomely, as this news shows.

A most helpful share in the coaching and training of the Mills County 4-H Club livestock judging team should be credited to Billy Mace Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Collier. On Tuesday of this week Billy Mace Collier answered the call of Uncle Sam and he was inducted into the Armed Services. But he helped Mr. Reese to coach the Mills County 4-H team—both before they won the Texas championship at A. & M. College, and afterwards. Following his graduation from A. & M., Billy Mace was an Assistant County Agent in traiping at Waco. He now would be Assistant County Agent at Corsicana—except that on Tuesday of this week he was summoned to serve his country in the armed forces.

Telephone Co-op

(Continued From First Page.) receipt of federal funds in the very near future, work already has started on modernizing the headquarters of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative—on Fourth Street in Goldthwaite between the Square and the Santa Fe railroad tracks. From the headquarters in Goldthwaite, the Co-op will provide the most modern dial telephone service to rural residents in an area including all or part of nine Counties.

During the next few days consultants from the R.E.A. will come to Goldthwaite to work with officials of the Central Texas Telephone Co-operative on preparations to begin construction of the system.

Officials of the Co-op, in addition to those who have been named above, are Willis A. Hill, President; Warren P. Duren, Vice President; and Walter Marwitz, Director.

Grass Fire Rages

(Continued From First Page.) desolation. It took about four hours to bring the fire under control and then for several hours afterward vigilance was required to extinguish burning brush and logs that at one moment would be merely smouldering but which at the next moment would burst into flame.

Members of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, who toiled to fight fire right through the noon-day hour without taking time out to eat, praised the assistance of the Air Force fire fighters from Lometa.

The Air Force sent a truck, a pickup and a jeep and the men were equipped with shoulder tanks that were filled from the tank truck of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, from wells near houses, or wherever water could be had.

Observers expressed opinion that except for the prompt response and hard toil by the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, the consequences of the fire would have been much more serious than they were. Some of the land owners, especially Mr. Cline, lost stands of winter grazing—especially valuable after a period of prolonged drought. Mr. Cline also suffered very heavy damage to his fences.

Mr. Gilliam pointed out that the community as a whole benefits from operation of the sewerage disposal plant, that it is in the best possible location available and that "an individual cannot constitute himself a guardian of the public even if he is a member of a community where a nuisance exists."

City Wins Suit

As the Eagle went to press this week, District Clerk Earl Summy said that the formal appeal papers by Counsel for the plaintiff had not yet been filed.

The City of Goldthwaite was defended by J. C. Darroch of Brownwood and E. B. Gilliam, Jr., of Goldthwaite.

Prior to the argument of opposing motions before Judge Dice on Thursday of last week a jury had found that the sewerage plant of the City of Goldthwaite does pollute Bulls Creek and does create a nuisance and a public nuisance, but that Mr. Reese had not suffered special damage and that he knew of the situation when he purchased his land in 1945.

After arguments by opposing Counsel on Thursday of last week Judge Dice said from the bench that he understood the case as a suit to abate a nuisance on the basis of special damage. He said that the Court had passed upon the law and that the jury had passed upon the facts.

"On those findings of facts, it now is up to this Court to enjoin the City of Goldthwaite or deny an injunction," Judge Dice said. "The Court has had quite an experience in nuisance and injunction cases. . . . In this case the question of damages is not before the Court. If it were, it would have been barred by the statute of limitations.

"This case is one involving a public nuisance. The jury so has found. The nuisance is in violation of the penal law of the State. . . . But the question is whether Mr. Reese as an individual can maintain a suit to enjoin. To do so, he would have to show special damage. That is to root of the law in injunction cases. . . . This Court feels that the balancing of equity is to be considered in any injunction case. The City of Goldthwaite operates its sewerage disposal plant as a necessary facility. Mr. Reese knew about the plant and the pollution of the stream when he bought his property. The jury has found no special damage. Equity is in favor of the City under the circumstances and under the facts. Therefore, the petition for an injunction is denied."

In a written, signed judgment the Court said substantially the same thing but in more legal phraseology. The judgment upheld the contention of Attorneys Darroch and Gilliam that in order to obtain an injunction Mr. Reese would have had to have suffered special damage. They cited numerous judgments in support of their position, not only on special damage, but on the performance of governmental functions, on the balance of equity, on limitations, and on failure of Mr. Reese to prove a private nuisance.

The Eagles, with no reserves, will be playing a formidable foe tonight, Friday. Coach Pug Galiga of Comanche plays the two platoon system and he has substitutes for both his offensive and defensive teams. Coach Knox said wistfully this week.

During the past week, the Eagles elected Vernon Whitley and John Gilliam as their Captains. They have been working hard despite the setbacks up which suffered all of this season.
