WASHINGTON.
The House Committee on Elections on the 13th instructed Representative Manning to submit to the House the Washburn-Donnelly case in behalf of the committee, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

First, That William D, Washburn is not entitled to his seat, for reasons submitted and which are embodied in the majority report already published; and Secon I, That Ignatius Donnelly is not entitled to a seat in the House from the Third Minnesota District for reasons embodied in the minority report, also published. The receipts ity report, also published—The receipts from tobacco tax for the first six months of present fiscal year, compared with corresponding period of last fiscal year in all districts which returned $30,000 and upwards during last fiscal year, show a total increase of $776,790 — At the Cabinet session on the of $776,790 — At the Cabinet session on the 13th the question as to whether or not the perpetrators of the outrage on Deputy Collector Stewart and family in Fannin County Georgia, were amenable to the United States laws, was the subject of discussion, and was sinally referred to the Attorney General for his opinion—The Secretary informed the Cabinet that Gen. Miles who is now in the city, reported the Sioux Indians desirous of surrendering themselves to the Government as comparatively few, and it is not anticipated that there will be any more Indians surrender than can be properly fed. Those surrender than can be properly fed. Those that present themselves will be received as prisoners of war and cared for accordingly.

In the session of the Ways and Means Committee of the House on the 15th Representative Tucker made a motion to place dut; on all hoop, scroll and band from at 35 per cent, ad valorem. The vote resulted yeas, Tucker, Mills, Carlisle, Morrison, Felton and Wood—six. Nays, Garfield, Kelley, Phelps, Frye, Dunnell and Conger—six. The understanding is Representative Gibson upon return to the city will be allowed a vote upon the proposition. A resolution was then offered adop ed that several matters now pending before this several matters now pending before this committee relating to the tariff upon imported goods and all other matters pertaining to tariff be referred and to select a committee of five members with instructions to report to this committee in whole or in part at its meeting Thursday next. The Chairman appointed as committee Carlisle, Tacker, Mills, Garfield and Dunnell.

Stringfield, of Topeka, Kansas, testified that the Kansas Freedman's Relief Association was managed and controlled from the very start by Republican officeholders and politicians and that Gov. Democratic members of the Senate Committee on the subject of counting electoral votes, held a long private meeting on the 17. and substantially decided to recommend Congress to adopt a new point rule providing that in case o ily one certificate of the electoral vote of a State be presented to Congress, it shall not be rejected except by an affirmative vote of the two Houses, and that in case of dual returns neither shall be counted unless the two Houses agree one of them is a true and valid return. The proposition is substantially the same as that offered by Senator Morton in the Forty-fourth Congress, and adopted by the Senate in the form of a bill, which however, failed to receive final action in that body in consequence of Thurman having entered a motion to reconsider its passage. The former 22d point rule on the subject reany objection was sustained by House—Sometime ago a man ob-numbers of some United States tained numbers of some United States bonds held by an acquaintance, and to raise money 'on them' concocted a story to the effect that the original owner was dead; that previous to his death he gave the bonds to abrother, who embarked for Europe on board a vessel which went down with all on board. This story was related to Treasury officers, where he appeared with letters of administration, and the bonds were duplicated reissued, and at once redeemed. Now the original bonds have been presented for redemption, and an investigation showed the presumed administrator to be an impostor, the signatures istrator to be an impostor, the signatures on his papers forgeries, and the bonds had never been on shipboard, having been held by an old gentleman, who didn't need any money, hence refrained from presenting them for redemption. The bonds will have to be redeemed again and the Treasury Department is in doubt if a special appropriation will be needed.

as well as in the North, must be secure in the enjoyment of civil and political rights, and every power of the national New Orleans Democrat. government must be exercised to this Mr. John Sherman delivered what end." The first part of this proposition may be regarded as a carefully prepared and thoroughly digested speech, on the thirtieth ultimo, at Mansfield, Ohio, in which he took occasion to formally announce himself, like Barkus, as "willin" to accept the nomination for the Presidency on the Republican ticket. Mr. Sherman has been so long before the public in positions of honor and trust, that his merits as a politician have been pretty thoroughly canvassed by those who take an interest in such matters, and we venture the opinion that very few who have noted, even casually, the events of the past few years, will agree with him in the statement that his candidature has been brought about "by the course of recent events, and not by his own seeking." In fact, if one may be permitted under any circumstances to employ the slang of the period, such an assertion will impress an intelligent public as being altogether "too thin" and unworthy of belief, even among the credulous "marines." Were it necessary facts might readily be produced, going to show that ever since he assumed the responsible trust of Secretary of the Treasnry in the Cabinet of President Hayes, he has systematically pursued a course of action leading to the inference that he was more desirous of advancing his own political aims than those of the administration of which he is a prominent member. Particularly has this been apparent during the past few months, since the public mind has begun to be agitated by the question of Mr. Hayes' successor, and the most undeniable evidence has already been brought forward through is no accounting for the vague ideas that the public press, tending to show that the vast influence of the financial depart-yer, who has spent many days and nights in the preparation of a Fourth of July address, appears before an intelligent audience in his own State and intimates that he has been "suddenly waited upon" with a request to become a candidate for the most exalted office within the gift of the American people! Such demagogury as this may do for the back country precincts, where the inhabitants have not yet learned that the rebellion is ended, or, as General Grant puts it, "the past is gone;" but intelligent men of all parties will cordially agree that it is unworthy of a statesman, such as Mr. Sherman's friends claim him to be. Even so stalwart an organ as the New York Times feels constrained to say in this connection that Mr. Sherman's repeated and extensive abuse of the high office which he holds, in the interest of his personal ambition, shows "a condition of things highly discreditable to the Secretary of the Treasury, and that it reflects directly upon the party which has so long and greatly honored him, and now as he appears of his own motion to present his claims to promotion to a position of infinitely greater. tion to a position of infinitely greater d'Imecourt, a young lady belonging to one of the richest and most distinguished infidelity to the requirements of his trust families in the Faubour; St. Germain. infidelity to the requirements of his trust cannot be brushed aside with a hypocritical phrase." Of course the Ohio statesman makes resumption an important feature of his speech; and boldly declares that the Republican party "proclares that the Republican party "proposes now to maintain the policy of resumption and refunding which has been to Paris, and the mother has applied to so successfully executed thus far, but must be supported hereafter by the friendly action of the government," In banns, and that it is, therefore, illegal. this it will be seen that the modest sec- It is said that the young wife has been retary embodies a nice compliment for put into a convent. himself, which it would perhaps be ungenerous to object to in view of the fact that such words of commendation are not likely to everwhelm him from any other source. It might, perhaps, be well to remind the earnest and determined self-boomer that the great mass of the himself, which it would perhaps be unself-boomer that the great mass of the people of the United States have long since deliberately arrived at the conclusion that a "higher law" had rather more to do with the return of our country's prosperity than the resumption law, name. He states that he was born in and that consequently John Sherman was not so specially commissioned with was not so specially commissioned with its "execution" as he is disposed to claim. He alleges that he has present national prosperity and should become an American citizen in fact, and be regarded as the object of our thanksgivings. After the financial question is so ancient that it will not admit of argument, while the latter portion may be considered as especially aimed at Southern lawlessness as viewed from the Radical standpoint. Coming from such well defined hostilities as Blaine or Edmunds, this sentiment would appear perfectly orthodox, but from a member of the Haves administration it is likely to excite unfavorable comment, even in Republican circles. In fact the leading Republican newspaper above mentioned has already said that "that there is a well founded impression in the Republican party that the administration of which Mr. Sherman is the chief member has failed signally to do what could and ought to be done for the security of equal rights, and that impression is not favorable to the selection of Mr. Sherman as a presidential candidate." It would thus appear that the Secretary of the Treasury does not start out with a very big boom as a bloody shirt candidate, while there are others and far more accomplished agitators of the ensanguined garment in the Republican ranks, and it is to be feared that by No-

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVEN

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

A delegate convention of the Democratic party of the State of Kansas, is hereby called to meet in the hall of the House of Representatives, in the city of Topeka, at 3:39 o'clock, pm., on Wednesday, May 28th, 1880, for the purpose of selecting ten Delegates and ten Alternate Delegates to represent the Democratic National Convention, to be held in the city of Cincinnati, on Thesday, June 22, 1880.

The basis of representation in the State Convention, will be three delegates from each representative district. We recommend that the primary conventions for the election of delegates and alternates to the State Convention be held in the several Counties or districts as the several County Committees may determine, on Saturday, May 15, 1880. The manner of selecting the Delegates and Alternates whether by County on District, mass or delegate conventions, to be determined by the several County Committees, each for itself.

The Secretaries of the several Conventions, County and District, are respectfully requested to forward to the Chairman of the State Committee at Topeka, and to the Secretary of the Committee at Topeka, and to the Secretary of the Committee at Leavenworth, each, full and accurate lists of the Delegates and Alternates chosen, immediately after the adjournment of said conventions.

We carnestly arge upon the Democrats of Kansas the absolute importance of prompt Elegant Day Coaches, Furnished with be Run Hereafter Between this City and Chicago.

The "Old Reliable" Hannibal and St. Joe railroad will bereafter run magnificent day coaches, furmished with the Horton reclining chairs, between this city and Chicago, without change, by way of Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway. This is one of the most direct and safe routes to the East, and this stop places it in the very first rank in point of elegance and perfection of accommodations.
Without doubt it will early become the most popular line in the West with the traveling public. The Horton reclining chair is immeas urably superior in point of comfort and ease of management to all others now in use, and those placed materials; but to the traveling pub lic it is useless to speak of the excellence of these chairs. Literary Revolution & Universal Knowledge.

Wm. G. Emslie are some of the "boys;" but the writer must say they are nice fellows.

An Encyclopædia in 20 volumes, over 16,000 pages, 10 per cent. more matter than any Encyclopædia over before published in this country, and soid, handsomely and well bound, in cloth for $10, in half morocco for $15, and printed on fine heavy paper, wide margins, bound in half Russia, gilt top, for $20—an enterprise so extraordinary that its success, beyond all precedent in book publishing, may be fairly claimed to inthat its success, beyond all precedent in book publishing, may be fairly enamed to in-augurate a Literary Revolution.

The Library of Universal Knowledge is a reprint entire of the last (1879) Edinburg edition of 'Chamber's Encyclopædia,' with about 40 per cent. of new matter added, upon topics of special interest to American readers, thus making it equal in character to any similar work, better than any other suited to the wants of the great majority of those who consult works of reference, and altogether the latest Encyclopedia.

Leading principles of the AMERICAN BOOK EXCHANGE;
I. Publish only books of real value.
II. Work upon the basis of present cost of making books, about one-half what it was a few years ago.

III. Sell to buyers direct, and save them the 50 and 60 per cent. commission com nonly allowed to dealers.

IV. The cost of books when made ten thousand at a time is but a fraction of the V. The cost of books when made ten thousand at a time is suit a fraction of the cost when made 500 at a time—adopt the low prices and sell the large quantity.

V. Use good type, paper, etc., do careful printing, and strong, neat binding, but avoid all "padding." lat and heavity—leaded type, spongy paper and gaudy binding, which are so commonly resorted to to make books appear large and fine, and which greatly add to their cost, but do not add to their value.

merce.]

A delicate surgical operation was performed a few days ago by Drs. Dickerson and Stark, of the Surgical Institute, Kansas City, which, for the success attending it, we consider decidedly worthy of notice. The patient was Willie Reed, son of Nathaniel Reed, of Douglass, Butler county, Kansas. The lad had for two years past been afflicted with a diseased jaw-bone, which, in connection with the tinkering of unskilled practitioners, had grown so very unskilled practitioners, had grown so very bad as to endanger the life of the child Hearing of the remarkable cures by Drs. Dickerson and Stark, the child was brought to this city and placed under their charge. Two weeks ago the little fellow was subjected to the knife, and the lower jaw was taken out, the operation taking about twenty minutes. The incision was made at a point near the tip, of the ear, and ex-tended to midway the chin. The jaw-bone was disarticulated and removed. In performing this operation the surgeon compelled to cut around and close to the internal maxillary and external carotid arteries, to have cut either of which would have produced death. The operation is one which only the most skilled surgeons attempt.

The patient is now rapidly recovering, and will soon be as sound as ever, with the exception of having less jaw than nature designed he should have. The gentlemen performing the operation also successfully cure hip-joint diseases, spinal complaint and straighten club feet, and are so successful in all they undertake that we feel a pride in knowing that our city has an in-stitution presided over by such skilled

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir: My little daughter Stella has been afflicted a long time with Scrofula, suffering everything. I employed different physicians in East Boston, but they helped her none. I bought some of your Powder Form Vegetine, and my wife steeped it and gave it to the child according to the directions, and we were surprised in a fortnight's time to see how the child had gained in flesh and strength. She is now gaining every day, and I can cheerfully recommend your remedy to be the best we have ever tried.
