March Of Dimes Campaign To End Here On Saturday

Howard B. Campbell, Chairman, said this week that the 1952 March of Dimes campaign in Mills County will come to a close tomorrow, Saturday, when the miniature "iron lungs" that have been where everybody could see them for the past month would be picked up.

Between now and Saturday hope that everybody will do her part in fighting infantile paralysis by placing contributions in the canisters so that when we count the returns on Saturday the results will be gratifying," Mr. Campbell said. He pointed out that the need to fight polio and aid in caring for victims of the disease is greater than ever before.

Mr. Campbell also expressed gratitude for the generous help that has been given to the March of Dimes in Mills County by the Goldthwaite Volunteer Demonstration Club, by individuals who have made contributions, and by the Scouts, who have worked under the leadership of James M. Cooper in the distribution of the miniature "iron lungs."

A financial report on the March of Dimes in Mills County probably will be ready, at least in part, in time for next week's issue of the Eagle, Mr. Campbell said. He reminded everybody that polio is no respecter of persons, that it may appear anywhere at any time, and that the help in aiding victims received in Mills County from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has exceeded the contributions that have been made here. Be sure to place your dimes, even nickels and pennies—the little iron lung canisters seen now and Saturday," Campbell said.

Member Title and Receipts In Printing Plates

Motor vehicle registration for 1952 go on sale today, at the office of Sheriff Stubblefield at the Mills County Court House. April 1 is the deadline for obtaining motor vehicle registration plates.

Sheriff Stubblefield said this that it will help his staff—James Miller and Deputies L. Patterson and Clyde Sum—if everybody will be sure to remember to take their receipt of title and last registration receipt when they go to apply for their 1952 registrations. Delay can be avoided if applicants for plates bring their title certificates and their registration receipts, Sheriff Stubblefield said.

Sheriff also pointed out that effective today, Friday, the County and State taxes will be subject to a one per cent.

Deadline of this week was set for making poll payments at the Sheriff's office. Eagle readers who have not paid their poll taxes should receive their Eagles on Monday were reminded by the Sheriff that poll taxes can be paid before closing time on Monday.

Telephone Co-op Will Start Soon On Construction

Completing all of the necessary paper work and paving the way for start of actual construction, 32 pounds of documents were shipped during the past week to the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington by officers of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative.

Secretary Ernest E. Wilson of the Co-op said that the legal documents that had been prepared by Counselor William G. Yarborough included loan contracts and acquisitions of exchanges that will be absorbed as the organization provides modern, dial telephone service in rural areas of nine Counties, with Goldthwaite as the hub.

Mr. Wilson said also that a contract now has been signed with Joe E. Ward of Wichita Falls, who will be in charge of engineering for the Co-op. Even in advance of signing the contract, Mr. Wilson said, the Ward organization had completed its preliminary engineering work.

"Work on actual staking of rights of way for the lines of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative should be started in the very near future," Mr. Wilson added.

The Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, which has been granted a first federal loan of $1,540,000.00 through the telephone division of the Rural Electrification Administration, has been described officially as being "far in advance" of any other similar undertaking in the field of improved communications in Texas.

County School Board To Meet On Monday To Reconsider Bus Routes

The Mills County Board of School Trustees will meet in regular session at the Court House next Monday afternoon when, presumably, it will consider the still unsolved situation created by the effort of the Priddy School District to operate a bus in the Mt. Olive area of the Goldthwaite Independent School District.

Last January 10 Associate Commissioner L. P. Sturgeon of the Texas Education Agency in Austin called upon the Mills County Board to reconsider its action of January 7 in which it voted to approve duplication of Goldthwaite bus route 3 and Priddy bus route 17 in the Mt. Olive area. Mr. Sturgeon's suggestion that the County Board take further action was based on the findings of an official investigator that the William Seider family, with five school children for the Priddy School, was not in residence in the Mt. Olive area.

Some time ago the Texas Education Agency refused to approve duplication of Goldthwaite and Priddy School bus routes in the Mt. Olive area and warned that such duplication would jeopardize State transportation payments to Priddy. A Priddy appeal from that ruling was heard in December by Commissioner of Education J. W. Edgar of the Texas Education Agency and his ruling, based on testimony at the hearing, was expected to be issued soon. Meanwhile, the County Board, so far as is known, has not replied to the January 10 letter from Com-

Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield said this week that the next Mills County Grand Jury will be asked to indict Max Darrell Wolfe of Dallas on a charge of cattle theft.

Since Thursday of last week Wolfe has been in the Mills County Jail. He was brought to Goldthwaite from Dallas by Sheriff Stubblefield after many months of effort by the Sheriff, who has achieved a widespread reputation for his determination to track down cattle thieves.

Sheriff Stubblefield said that Wolfe has made statements in which he has implicated himself in the theft of cattle from Pete Calder and Blackie Lawson of Mullin in March of last year. He also has admitted, according to the Sheriff, to having been implicated in cattle thefts in other Texas Counties.

Although Sheriff Stubblefield suspects that others were involved in cattle thefts with Wolfe, others who might have been implicated had not been identified as the Eagle went to press this week. Also as the Eagle went to press, Wolfe still was being held in the Mills County Jail, pending Grand Jury action, because of his inability to post the required bond, which was set at $2,000.00.

Evidence against Wolfe will be presented to the next Mills County Grand Jury, with District Judge Wesley Dice presiding, by Jim K. Evetts, District Attorney. If indicted, Wolfe will be tried in the 27th Judicial District Court at the Mills County Court House.

Sheriff Stubblefield indicated that by the time due process of law had operated in the Wolfe case there would be solutions to other cattle thefts, along with warning of the consequences of rustling.

missioner Sturgeon; in fact, there has been no meeting of the County Board since January 7, when Howard B. Campbell and Cecil Egger voted against the Priddy application for duplicated bus routes and when Chairman Jim Soules broke a tie by voting with A. A. Downey and J. H. Priddy in favor of the application, as presented personally by T. M. Cash, Priddy Superintendent of Schools. It was after the January 7 meeting of the County Board that Clyde E. Boyd, Chief of the Transportation Division of the Texas Education Agency, made a personal investigation in the Mt. Olive area and disproved allegations that had been made regarding the place of abode of the William Seider family.

A majority of the members of the Board of the Goldthwaite Independent School District continue to oppose any operation of Priddy School buses in Goldthwaite territory. Priddy School bus route 17 has not been operating in Goldthwaite territory since the original adverse ruling by Commissioner Sturgeon. Also, nothing official has been heard recently of Priddy-inspired efforts to detach territory from the Goldthwaite Independent School District in the Mt. Olive area and attach it to the Priddy District.

Loy Long Makes Decision Not To Stand For Mayor

Loy Long, who has served as Mayor of Goldthwaite for the past six years, announced this week that he will not stand for reelection in April, when municipal elections will be held.

"I have notified the City

MAYOR LOY LONG

EAGLE PHOTO BY WICKER STUDIO Council of my decision," Mayor Long said. "Having served for six years as Mayor I believe that the time has come for someone else to be elected to the office. We have several among the businessmen of Goldthwaite who are competent to carry out the duties and functions of the Mayor's office."

Mayor Long said that his decision was final and that he would not be available as a candidate in the April municipal election even if a movement to draft him for another term of office were to be started among the citizens of Goldthwaite.

During Mr. Long's service as Mayor, Goldthwaite has benefited from many improvements.

The water supply has been doubled—in fact the supply is considered adequate by the State Fire Insurance Commission. In checking the records, City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett found that during Mayor Long's term of office two miles of additional six inch water mains have been put down and five new standard fire plugs have been installed.

Mr. Barnett said that pumping facilities for the water system have been increased from a capacity of 200 gallons per minute to 700 gallons per minute.

Also during Mr. Long's term in office an additional tank-type truck has been added to the equipment of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department. Mercury vapor lamps have been installed in the Goldthwaite Square and two additional miles of streets have been paved. There also has been a steady growth in the services rendered by all of the city utilities, including electricity, water and sewerage disposal.

Mr. Long has represented Goldthwaite ably at many gatherings and he has participated in numerous conferences on municipal affairs.

At the same time that Mr. Long's term of office expires the terms of City Councilmen Jack Reid, Howard Hoover and R. E. Worley also will expire. Jesse Moreland and Everett Holland will be the only two hold-over members of the City Council. They were elected last year.

Mayor Long operates a justly famous grocery and meat market on Fisher Street. He and Mrs. Long have a son, Bennie Bob, who is married and who now is stationed with the Air Force at Fort Hood.

Army Basketball Team Will Play Here February 7

Crack basketball players from C Company of the 46th Engineers, who are camped south of Goldthwaite, will scrimmage in exhibition with Goldthwaite High School Players at the Goldthwaite School gymnasium at 8:00 o'clock on Thursday night of next week.

The public generally is invited to attend what is bound to be an entertaining evening. Coach Carl Knox said.

Since the Army Engineers are not members of the Texas Interscholastic League there will be no admission charge to the basketball exhibition and an official score will not be kept. But the public is assured of an evening of splendid fun.

For players Coach Knox will use John Gilliam, if he has recovered from a foot injury; Joe Hammond, if he has recovered from an injured thumb; Bobby Letbetter, Joe Hodges, Ruben Lippe, Wayne Long, James Partridge, Ray Campbell Hudson and James Gilliam.

Captain G. C. Hunter of C Company of the 46th Engineers said that his team is coached by Cpl. Bobby Geeslin. Now, please, play "On Wisconsin," because all of the members of the Army team are from Wisconsin. They are Eugene Bauer, six foot three center from Durand; forward Robert Ziesch from Madison, forward William Bolding from Bedford, guard the same division. Also at Fort Worth, Mills County boys brought special honor to Tommy Brook of Camp San Saba. The Breeders' Special, awarded for the best group of three calves from the same breeder, went to Tommy Brook for calves that had been fed by Davis Owens, Bill Parker and Bob Parker.

Mills County also made the headlines because of outstanding performance at Fort Worth when J. D. Cook of the Goldthwaite F. F. A. Chapter won the Grand Championship for a Corridale ram and the Grand Championship for a Corridale ewe. J. D. Cook is only a freshman at the Goldthwaite High School.

(At Houston on Wednesday of this week the judging of calves ran far behind schedule and judging in the Hereford division only was completed. Other classes of Club calves were to be judged on Thursday of this week, preliminary to the selection of the Grand and Reserve Champions of the Houston Fat Stock Show and Livestock Exposition.)

E. A. Obenhaus Seriously Ill In Nearby Hospital

Justice of the Peace E. A. Obenhaus, who submitted to major surgery at the Medical Arts Hospital in Brownwood on Tuesday morning of this week, was holding his own as the Eagle went to press.

Mr. Obenhaus was taken to hospital on Thursday of last week after he had been seriously ill for several days. Deep anxiety among his legion of friends was somewhat relieved when the tidings came on Tuesday that after having been operated upon Mr. Obenhaus was resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Last month Mr. Obenhaus celebrated his 77th birthday anniversary. He had not been well for some time but he was in good spirits when members of his family lit 77 candles on his birthday cake.

Further Arrangements Made Here For Benefit Of Maneuver Troops

Goldthwaite took further steps during the past week to provide facilities for off-duty Exercise Longhorn soldiers.

Mayor Loy Long and members of the City Council, in collaboration with Chief Jack Reid of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, arranged for the Fire House on the west side of the Square to be used as a convenience for visiting troops. After he was approached on the subject by Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield, District Manager John D. Allen of the Southwestern States Telephone Company arranged to install telephone stations in the Fire House so that soldiers may make long distance calls to their homes if they wish to do so.

Brian Smith, Executive Secretary of the American Red Cross, has stocked the Fire House with magazines, pocket books and other reading matter for soldiers. Mr. Smith is a member of a citizens committee, headed by Harold Yarborough, that has made its business the translation of the word "welcome" into actuality for soldiers who come into Goldthwaite for rest and recreation.

At the instigation of Sheriff Stubblefield improved arrangements, including better lighting, have been made at the comfort room in the basement of the Court House.

Andrew Baxter, whose sign-painting rates the word "artistic," has donated a large sign indicating that the Eagle office is an information center for visiting troops. Mr. Baxter's sign also bids welcome to the U. S. Army in behalf of the people of Goldthwaite. Mr. Baxter's work is in red, white and blue and can be seen readily by anybody approaching Goldthwaite from the south.

During the past week City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett concluded arrangements with officers from Fort Hood under which, during the actual maneuvers that have been named Exercise Longhorn, Goldthwaite will supply 100,000 gallons of water daily to the Army and Air Force. Already engineer and signal corps units that are encamped south of Goldthwaite have drawn water from city facilities.

Dallas headquarters of the United Service Organizations announced recently that soon its representatives would visit all towns in the area to be covered by Exercise Longhorn to survey recreational facilities for troops. When the U. S. O. representatives come to Goldthwaite they will find that the citizens here acted on their own initiative and provided such useful facilities for troops as free showers at the field house adjoining the Goldthwaite High School football field, use of the American Legion Hall, and the arrangements at the Fire House. Tables and chairs have been added to the Fire House equipment.

Volunteer workers will be needed, especially after additional troops arrive in this area. Any men or women who would like to aid in the effort that Goldthwaite is making to make life off duty as pleasant as possible for men in the uniforms of their country should communicate with Harold Yarborough at Yarborough & Duren's. Mr. Yarborough may be reached by telephone at Goldthwaite 42 or 258.

TRIBUTE TO LOY LONG'S SERVICE

We believe that Loy Long's decision not to seek reelection as Mayor of Goldthwaite can be only a matter of deep disappointment to his fellow citizens. Goldthwaite has profited during the six years that Mr. Long has been Mayor. There have been many improvements which will stand as monuments to his administration and they have been made in the face of difficulties that at times seemed unsurmountable.

Many times Mr. Long must have felt that he had a thankless job. During the past two years the Eagle has taken note of the apparent apathy on the part of the citizens when it came to casting their ballots in a municipal election. For both the Mayor and members of the City Council there are more headaches than there are bouquets. But despite the headaches and despite the fact that "thank you" has not been said nearly enough times to Mr. Long, we think he ought to know that many, many residents of Goldthwaite are deeply grateful to him and recognize that many of the improvements that have made Goldthwaite a better place in which to live are due to his quiet efforts in the general welfare.

It has been our hope that Mayor Long would change his decision and that he would be a candidate for reelection in April. He insists, however, that he will not run again and so Goldthwaite faces the problem of finding another man to fill his official shoes. That will be difficult, if only because Mr. Long has done his job so well, and so conscientiously. He has given a great deal of time to it. He has set a high standard for his office that all of us hope will be maintained.

For our part, disappointment over Loy Long's decision is accompanied by abiding gratitude to him. Both our disappointment and gratitude are shared by hundreds of others and we hope that fact will give satisfaction to Mayor Long as he looks back over the past six years of his good service.

MORE MILLS COUNTY ACHIEVEMENTS

As this editorial was being written the returns from the Houston Fat Stock Show were not in. Returns from the sheep judging at Fort Worth also were not available. But Mills County was able to take pride in Davis Owens, who won the Reserve Angus Championship at Fort Worth with his calf, "Andy." In the same Angus middleweight division, in which Davis Owens placed first, Bob Parker of the Goldthwaite F.F.A. was second. Bill Parker took third place in the lightweight Angus division at Fort Worth and in the heavyweight Angus division fourth place went to John Weaver. All of the Mills County boys who showed calves at Fort Worth placed in the top ten of their divisions. And Davis Owens and Bill and Bob Parker won the Breeder's Special for Tommy Brook of Camp San Saba. That coveted award for three calves from the same breeder shown at Fort Worth went to Tommy Brook because of the skill of Mills County boys as feeders, because of the abilities of County Agriculture Agent George G. Reese and Goldthwaite Vocational Agriculture Teacher Y. B. Johnson, Jr., and, of course, because of the interest of parents.

Great credit also goes to the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association, an organization of citizens who have made it their business to encourage the work of 4-H Club and F.F.A. members. In that connection, we think that the best editorial that could be written on the subject came spontaneously from W. B. Barret of the Barret Hereford Ranch at Comanche. Mr. Barret judged breeders' cattle at the recent Goldthwaite Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association. He has an enviable standing throughout the Southwest. In a letter to Glynn Collier, Secretary-Treasurer of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association, Mr. Barret wrote as follows:

"I consider it to have been an honor and great pleasure to have had the privilege of assisting in such a wonderful Show as you had in Goldthwaite. It is very commendable of the people of Mills County to get behind the 4-H and F.F.A. boys and girls to the extent that it was possible to put on the great Show you had and it certainly shows a lot of thought and labor in the great leadership that you have in such men as yourself, the County Agent, the Vocational Agriculture Teacher and last, but not least, Bob Steen."

We think that the words above from Walter Barret mean a very great deal, coming as they do from a highly respected authority from outside Mills County.

The members of the school board and some of the other citizens summoned Dr. Matthews from Mullin Thursday afternoon to diagnose the case of alleged smallpox and give an opinion as to whether or not it was really smallpox. Dr. Matthews was summoned as an expert, he having suffered with the disease and having treated many cases in San Antonio and elsewhere. He gave as his opinion that this disease was not really smallpox, but stated that it was of the same nature as the eruptive fever that prevailed in some portions of this county last year. That disease was pronounced smallpox by some physicians and, therefore, if that was smallpox this is smallpox but it does not appear that there are many of the symptoms of smallpox about these cases.

GUEST EDITORIAL

(Editor's Note: The following column by Walter R. Humphrey, editor of the Fort Worth Press, takes the position that except for the campaign for the Presidency itself, the race between Price Daniel and Tom Connally for a seat in the United States Senate is the most important political campaign in the country. The Eagle reprints the article by Mr. Humphrey in full because of its significance to all citizens of Texas.)

By WALTER R. HUMPHREY

The Houston Press, our sister Scripps-Howard newspaper at Houston, came out Wednesday with a plain statement asking the election of Price Daniel to the U. S. Senate.

In a strong accompanying editorial, it stated the case against Tom Connally.

The El Paso Herald-Post, the other Texas Scripps-Howard paper, joined the Fort Worth Press Tuesday in plain-spoken editorial announcement for Mr. Daniel.

Thus, the largest unduplicated circulation in Texas, was thrown behind the campaign of the young Texas attorney general.

Editor Ed Pooley at El Paso said he was "sorry that we must oppose Mr. Connally... he has served well." But, "Senator Connally should retire and rest on his laurels. He does not seem to be able to give up his place in Washington. The protocol and folderl have become a large part of his life. They are an irresistible attraction for him."

"For several years he has paid little attention to Texas. His visits have been few and far between. His heart has been in Washington, not in the Lone Star state. His latest visit was forced on him... there's an election coming up."

He added his paper's feeling that the people will find no man in Texas "better fitted to take Mr. Connally's place in the Senate."

Editor George Carmack at Houston takes Senator Connally's current record on major issues before the people and picks it apart.

I've trimmed some here and there and offer below the case for a change as stated by The Houston Press:

Our opposition... is not based on personalities. It is based on principles.

Tom Connally has been an honorable man with many things in his record down through the years that he and Texas can point to with pride. We are not attacking Tom Connally the man.

Here is why we oppose Tom Connally on principles—why we think his defeat this year is so important to the future of our country.

We think the whole direction of our country must be changed if we are to survive as the greatest nation in all the world's history.

We think Tom Connally has not recognized the evils that have grown up in our country—that he has absented himself from the fight on these evils.

What are the evils that threaten to destroy our country and what stand has Senator Connally taken on them?

We think this country will fall unless the entire moral tone of government in Washington is changed.

There is too much crookedness, too much graft—too much stealing, to put it bluntly.

The Truman Administration is going down in history with the Grant Administration as one in which the thieves almost took over the government.

Senator Tom Connally has had no hand in exposing any of this graft and crookedness.

The fall of every mighty empire or nation in the past has been preceded by crookedness in high places. History has taught that lesson.

Tom Connally has not carried his share of the load in investigating.

The Eagle's Aerie

By The Editor

Last week the editor reprinted the "Dear Virginia" letter in which Ed Creagh of the Associated Press humorously tried to write Texas away. Since there is so much interest in the great debate as to whether there is a Texas, "Dear Virginia" is another letter to "Dear Virginia" by Old Man Texas, the fictitious character created by John Krott, the cartoonist. From time to time the Eagle publishes Mr. Krott's cartoons.

The second article, "I Am A Texan!" is by Robert R. Ruark, a syndicated columnist who lives in New York but who came to Texas once upon a time and caught the flavor of it. Mr. Ruark's article has come to be a classic but in view of the hubbub raised over the "Dear Virginia" letters, this is a good time to reprint Mr. Ruark. First, however, here is the "Dear Virginia" letter by Old Man Texas:

"DEAR VIRGINIA:

"So Ed Creagh tells you there is no Texas. Don't you believe him. He probably would tell you there is no Heaven. They mean just about the same thing, anyway.

"We must believe in good things, Virginia, in these days; things like God and love and true friends and Santa Claus—and Texas.

"Things have gone to the bowwows almost all over the world. But Texas is still prosperous, still honest, still healthy.

"You just can't let these cynics mislead you or there will be nothing to live for. They pose as image breakers, my dear, but their business is to break hearts.

"That's what's the matter in Russia. Her people have lost their faith. They don't believe in God. They don't even trust themselves. They started the rumor that there is no Texas.

"Texas is built on faith. Times were when tyranny threatened it but Santa Anna was defeated and freedom restored. At times the earth dried up but every drouth was followed by rains which filled the streams and watered the fields.

"It took faith, Virginia, as it takes faith for mankind's every venture. Suppose we had quit when our first oil well was a dry hole. We kept on drilling and drilling and faith paid off.

"No other state is like Texas physically. No other state wants to be. Life is about as good in one state as another. In Texas it's simply better because it is bigger.

"It's not the soil or the climate that makes a state, it's the people. Unless they have faith the state is no good, no how. Thank God they have faith, all of the states. May they hold on to it. It will see them through.

—OLD MAN TEXAS.

Now here is the article, "I Am A Texan," by Mr. Ruark. Remember, please, that as you read the following, Mr. Ruark wrote it after having been in Texas for only three days. "I Am A Texan" follows:

"Today I am a Texan, podner. I'm a roper and a fighter and a wild horse rider, and a right fair windmill hand. I got cattle in the bank and old ground, and my hat is whiter than any hat you ever did see.

"Yessir, amigo, we are the biggest old state and the trest little girls and the est old sun and the wester rain you ever saw, even Lone Star monument is than the one in Washington you count the base. It's be taller than the one in ington, because after the Union joined us, We didn't the Union. Never did.

"The State of Texas is ed by the United States, a significant colony we from defeat in the last could have won it sooner hadn't a-been all the down with the other of us.

"What with Oryeta and the Wacs and Nimitz and the Navy and the whole Force working out of us, it's a wonder we didn't get a separate peace. Why, Jesse Jones and Anna and George Kelly and Baugh, and Pappy O'Day, H. R. Cullen and Glenn Baugh and the big King Baugh.

"We got the Gulf of Mexico and Rio Grande and the channel all the way to Galveston, and Ann Street. We got the oil and the grass and the meat and grapefruit and the water and the wheat and the Boy, what we ain't got we need.

"We still got the Texas just in case we ever get the Rangers. We got some jingle jangle lunge and wear picketed boots and gallow hats with our spurs; everybody's rich as a King. Shoot the other three miles.

"It won't take any longer to get rich in Texas, podner, just bore a little old hole and then all you have to do to go buy a diamond pair of hand-tooled boots, six or eight Cadillac and wait for some more of the shooting up out of the sky.

"Or else you ketch an olive and throw her away, carve your initials on her and byemby you got a pair of rump roast. Git him a doggie, and come home with a million dollars in your tail.

"We got the tenderest and the biggest shrimps, the hottest barbecue and the fiery peppers and the most digestible chili. We was feet in Bourbon whiskey and slick our hair with tannin grease.

"We can holier louder love-struck coyote with moon working on his chords, and we're always half ready to play for marbles or nungets. See next four million.

"Texas women are and stand straighter and lips are redder and are brighter than any women's in the world. Hair piles higher and the sprout slimmer and their eyes look trimmer. As seems to be a lot more.

"Well, the music is in the streets are wider and sunsets are prettier and moon is bigger and horses run faster. The Tex is smarter and the better.

"Our clover is knee-

John Briley Proves To Be Model Husband; Even Mops Kitchen Floor

Editor's Note: Eagle readers have been missing the usual column of Ebony news by Mrs. Clementine Wilmet Briley. The Eagle itself was quite worried about not receiving "copy" from Mrs. Briley until she up and disclosed not only that she had a new grand-daughter but that when she got back home to Ebony from Beaumont "John had the house looking nice and had mopped the kitchen." Following is Mrs. Briley's own explanation of why her column has been missing from the Eagle:

By CLEMENTINE W. BRILEY

Early in the morning of the day after Christmas, I went to the Dwyer home to catch a ride with the Cawyers as far as Beaumont. At five o'clock we arrived at the home of my daughter. On Friday, December 28, my new granddaughter, Margaret Jan Mitchell, was born.

Margaret Jan had not been expected until after the first of the year, but she was very accommodating in the timing of her arrival. Her parents were happy that she came before 1952 as that would enable them to get back $100 on their income tax. Her grandmother was pleased that she did not have to spend precious time waiting around when she was needed so badly at home. Then it was Christmas week and her two big sisters were out of school and could help carry on the household affairs.

She and her mother came home from the hospital New Year's Day, and we all promptly fell in love with the precious, little, darling. Even Robert, the only boy, who had wanted a brother, was pleased with her from the first. He decided he was glad he was the only boy and was in the middle, and would probably always get the most petting. Baby Jill, 15 months old, would say, "Baby, baby," with such a depth of feeling. She would put her little hands across it and lay her head against it ever so gently trying to love it.

The family runs this way: Marilyn, 16 (17 in March);

Carol Jean, 15; Robert, 6; Jill, 15 months; and then Baby Jan. It was a real pleasure to have this opportunity for a visit. Especially was it a pleasure to get acquainted with Jill—pretty as a picture and too cute for words.

Robert might be crying because of a spanking for hurting her, yet she would put her arms around his neck and love him 'til he quit crying. Tutored by Sister Carol Jean, she can tell you how the dog goes and how the cow goes. Ask her how old she is, and she holds up one little finger. Play Jingle Bells for her and her little body begins to move in perfect time to the music. Her Daddy said he guessed it wouldn't be wrong for Jill to dance. It was in her bones.

I always enjoy seeing that country around Beaumont and Houston. I love those tall pine trees, that mild climate, and Oh! those azaleas and camellias. While there I got to see my first television program, and I got to attend a camellia show. Of all the lovely things they seem the most lovely.

The day before I left I dug up a lot of daisy plants and two azalea plants. I wrapped them well and put them in a large paper sack. My daughter said I would look funny carrying it, but I didn't mind. I spent a night in Houston that I might visit my girlhood friend, Stella Reeves Pinette, and my mother's cousin, Virginia Stansfield, who was 90 in October. At Stella's I put some wax leaf ligustrum cuttings in my sack. When I got to Cousin Jennie's, she said she would give me some yellow jessamine plants. It was too late to get them that night, and I had to leave on the seven o'clock bus next morning. I hardly saw how she could get them, but when I came down stairs before it was good day there was Cousin Jennie out in the yard digging yellow jessamines for me.

I love to ride a bus and watch the country-side roll by. Between Beaumont and Houston there were showers and green fields. Between Houston and Austin there was fog and green fields. Not far this side of Austin the green fields ceased and the sun came out. But in spite of the drought, the country was pretty. Goldthwaite always bursts into view with such delight, a clean, pretty, little town among the hills.

It was good to be home again. John had the house looking nice, and had mopped the kitchen. I had to get busy watering and digging to get my plants out.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. DuPuy, Jr. of Austin are the parents of a daughter, Sheri Jo, born January 24.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Horton of Goldthwaite. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. DuPuy, Sr., of Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen Perkins of Fort Worth have announced the arrival of an eight pound girl, born Tuesday, January 22, at 3:00 o'clock a. m. in the Fort Worth Osteopathic Hospital, Inc. She has been named Shirley Nell.

On January 27th, at 9:31 p. m. at the Parker County Hospital, Weatherford, Jimmy Lee Manuel was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Manuel of Springtown. He weighed 7 pounds and 12 ounces at birth.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Avery Manuel of Rt. 3, Goldthwaite, and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Geeslin of Goldthwaite.

Story Telling Hour

The weekly story-telling hour, conducted every Tuesday afternoon from 2:30 o'clock until 3:30 o'clock at the Jennie Trent Dew Library by the Art and Civic Club of Goldthwaite, has been so successful that it will be continued through the Spring for children of pre-school age. Mrs. George Gilbert, Art and Civic Club Reporter, said this week that attendance every Tuesday afternoon ranges from 15 to 35 children and that when the weather is good they also play on the swings at the Methodist Church. All children between the ages of three and six are urged to attend the story-telling hour every Tuesday afternoon with their mothers. A record player is one of the attractions of the Tuesday story-telling hour.

Baptists In Star Invite Soldiers

In preparation for the forthcoming Army and Air Force maneuvers, Exercise Longhorn, the First Baptist Church of Star this week extended a cordial invitation to troops in the area to attend both Church and Sunday School services. Mrs. B. P. Goods said that there will be a warm welcome for all Army and Air Force men at the First Baptist Church of Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sanson visited relatives in Bangs Sunday.

Boy Scouts Here Join In National Birthday Anniversary Observation

Goldthwaite Boy Scouts, starting on Wednesday of next week and continuing through February 12, will observe the 42nd birthday anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

James Nickols, Scoutmaster of Troop 77, and Charles Conradt, Scoutmaster of Troop 45, said that with Scouting on parade during its birthday week, the high aims and purposes of the Scouts will be brought home to the public through displays in the windows of business establishments. In addition, there will be social functions and on Sunday, February 10, the Goldthwaite Boy Scouts will worship in a body at the First Methodist Church at 10:45 a. m. Mr. Conradt said that Troop 45 observed the approach of Boy Scout week by re-registering.

"This year we registered 20 members, an increase of five members over last year," Mr. Conradt said.

During Boy Scout week, all members of the organizations will wear their uniforms every day. On the night of February 8, Troop 77 will have a gala birthday party at the First Methodist Church. For the morning service at the Church on February 10 the Scouts will serve as ushers.

In announcing the approach of Boy Scout Week Mr. Nickols said that "the purpose of Scouting is to help boys to grow from boyhood into manhood as better citizens." He said, also, that on the night of February 8 Church bells will ring throughout the nation and the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia will be sounded in tribute to the Boy Scout movement.

A birthday party also has been planned for Troop 45 but as yet a date has not been set for it, Scoutmaster Conradt said.

Old Timer, W. M. Lewis, Plans To Visit His Old Haunts Here

W. M. Lewis of Houston, whose family moved to what now is Mills County in 1880, hopes to come back to visit old friends and to see old sights during the coming summer.

Mr. Lewis, who now is 80, has written two letters to the Eagle in which he shows not only that he is homesick but also that memories of Mills County are etched clearly in his mind.

When he was only 8 years of age, Mr. Lewis moved with his family to what then was part of Lampasas County.

"I was married at Williams Ranch and I lived in Mills County until 1899," Mr. Lewis wrote. "I have been wanting to come back for many years but my health has not permitted the trip. But I will be up there this summer if I possibly can."

A number of members of the Lewis family are buried in the Rock Springs cemetery, to which Mr. Lewis wants to make a sentimental pilgrimage.

In one of his letters to the Eagle he wrote to recall when Odum's blacksmith shop was on Fisher Street, when Lewis Hudson ran a meat market, when "Saddler" Allen ran a harness shop, and when Gatlin and Vickers were "the leading merchants and cotton buyers."

In those days there was an Abney's general store and even then, there were Rahls around the Square, Mr. Lewis wrote. In reaching back into memory Mr. Lewis recalled Sullivan the grocer, Judge Grundy the Postmaster, the Sextons, and Ben Harris, who also was a grocer.

Mr. Lewis remembers the late Phil Clements, Whit Smith, and George Cunningham who, he says, was the first Mills County Sheriff.

Mr. Lewis lives at 3803 Zephyr Street in Houston. In all probability he would be most happy to hear from some of the old timers who would like to have their memories refreshed by such names as Bill James, Bratton and Conro, Ed Kirby and Bob Burns.

How about some letters or postcards to Mr. Lewis? They might include some warnings to him that Goldthwaite now and Goldthwaite in 1899 are different.

In his letter to the Eagle Mr. Lewis described Dow Hudson's father as "one of the finest men who ever lived." When he was told about that, Mr. Dow smiled very happily and for a little while—a very little while—he refrained from berating bureaucrats in government.

Mrs. McArthur's Pearls Returned In Triple Play

On a triple play that started with Truman Vaughan and that continued with assists from Mrs. Arch Collier and Mrs. Virgil Geeslin, Mrs. Tom McArthur recovered her lost pearl necklace—about which the Eagle wrote last week.

When the Eagle hit the Post Office last week Mrs. McArthur still was bemoaning the loss of an 18-inch single strand of pearls that had been a gift to her and which she prized for its sentimental value. But her worries were over by last Friday.

Mr. Vaughan had found the pearls right where Mrs. McArthur thought she had lost them—in front of "Hi Neighbor" Gwin's business establishment. After the Vaughans had read about Mrs. McArthur's loss they recognized the pearls that Mr. Vaughan had found as belonging to her. Mrs. Vaughan took the pearls to the School lunchroom and passed them on to Mrs. Collier, who in turn passed them on to Mrs. Geeslin, who finally went out to Rt. 1, Mullin, and put them in Mrs. McArthur's hand.

When she came to Goldthwaite on Monday of this week Mrs. McArthur not only was all a-smile but she was wearing the pearls. Right pretty they are, too.

J. P. Ervin of San Antonio, accompanied by the Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin and Robert L. "Uncle Bob" Ervin, visited relatives in Ranger last Sunday.

News Of Chappell Hill

By PEARL CRAWFORD

This scribe has just begun to wonder about the whereabouts of our beloved pen pal, Mrs. Clementine Wilmeth Briley of Ebony. I've missed her so much. I hope she isn't away because of sickness or sickness of her loved ones; and just think, what if she packed up and moved away to Arkansas or some other greener pastures as so many are doing after our long, tiresome drought?

(Miss Crawford, please see story about Mrs. Briley's new granddaughter in this week's Eagle.—Editor.)

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Karnes and children were business visitors in Brownwood last Wednesday.

We have enjoyed some warm sunshine. The norther which blew in during the weekend was gentle and mild. Early Sunday we had some loud thunder and a shower of rain.

Bill Partin did some plowing during last week. It looks like most all the farm land has been plowed and about all the farm folks have to do is to go to town and buy feed for their livestock.

Bill Partin sawed wood for A. L. Crawford last Wednesday. G. H. Crawford helped them.

O. A. Evans attended the auction sale last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Lola were visited Monday by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford.

This scribe was a recent victim of the flu. W. P. Ledbetter said this year's epidemic was the worst one we have experienced in quite a few years.

O. A. Evans helped J. C. Bramblett with the livestock during last week. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford, Mrs. T. V. Stevens, and Mrs. Verda Price visited Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Miss Lola Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Bramblett spent Monday morning with Mrs. Bill Partin and children.

O. A. Evans made a business trip to the auction barn at Goldthwaite Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. visited at the B. J. Crawford home Sunday.

We were sorry to learn that Mrs. Sam Koen was on the sick list. We are hoping for all the sick folks a speedy recovery.

Bruce Perry's Horse Assuages His Long Injured Ego In Master's Poem

For some time Bruce Perry's horse has been hurting inside himself because when V. C. Bradford first became a cowpoke the selfsame Mr. Bradford dismounted from Mr. Perry's horse on the wrong side and in front of the Post Office, at that. Everybody was looking and everybody talked about what had happened and that hurt Mr. Perry's horse all the more.

Recently, Mr. Perry's horse felt worse than ever when he heard that Mr. Bradford was feeding a Palomino that allegedly had been given to him by Puny Barnett. Then Mr. Perry's horse became confused in his emotions when he heard that the Palomino had thrown Mr. Bradford or, as Mr. Bradford put it— "the horse went one way and I went t'other."

To make the horses and Mr. Bradford feel better Mr. Perry, who is a kind-hearted soul, has written a poem. The Eagle prints it despite the fact that it contains free plugs for both Levis and Yarborough & Duren. Mr. Perry did not give the poem a title but "Beyond Redemption" might be a good one. Harry Welch, who believes that Mr. Bradford is feeding his goats and cattle too well, has publicly expressed the opinion that Mr. Bradford is "beyond redemption." Mr. Welch even went so far as to tell John Elliott in the presence of Toby Bryant and a representative of the press who happened by that Mr. Bradford was undertaking to support and maintain the feed industry, which is quite an industry, all by himself. So, without further ado, with thanks to Mr. Perry and with commiserations to Mr. Perry's horse, here is the poem that probably will become immortal under the title, "Beyond Redemption."

By BRUCE PERRY

This little poem I'd like to write, is about Mr. Bradford— He's a mighty fine guy. And there's not anything Brad won't try.

He's bought him a ranch out east of town, He's wrecked the old house and knocked the brush down. You can see the ranch for miles around.

He's stocked his pasture with goats and cattle, He's bought a palomino and a western saddle.

So one day this week Brad went to the ranch, And being in a hurry, he didn't change his pants. Those pants are like all dress pants we buy; You can't ride with them though hard you may try.

Well Brad saddled the palomino and started to ride, But his pants caught on the cattle and threw him sky high. But Brad came up without much harm Just a few minor bumps and a very sore arm.

Now, Brad, you can't ride him with those big-legged pants, But don't be discouraged, just take another chance. Just go up to Yarborough's and get a pair of Levis, You can ride that palomino 'til he reaches the skies.

Those Levis are made to ride in you see, And after you have tried them, with me you'll agree.

W. Earl Summy Runs Strong Among Even Upstate New York Republicans

County and District Court Clerk Earl Summy, who is a candidate for renomination and reelection this year, is running strong in the rock-ribbed Republican County of Onondaga in Central New York. Up there, Mr. Summy is known as "Bill."

The Eagle's information on Mr. Summy's strength came from Benjamin W. Stone, Assistant Treasurer of the Onondaga County Savings Bank of Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Stone and Mr. Summy were "buddies" in the 86th "Blackhawk" Division during World War II.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Stone came to Goldthwaite to visit the Summys. While they were here they tried to learn about politics—something that caused them no end of bewilderment when they learned that in Texas nomination is equivalent to election. Lack of the two-party system baffled the Stones. But now the Stones know precisely where they stand on politics in Mills County.

"Naturally," Mr. Stone wrote after learning of Mr. Summy's announcement that he would stand for renomination and reelection, "a couple of prejudiced Yankees are backers of Bill in anything that he ventures. It might be well for you to inform the democratic proletariat of Mills County that two black Republican Yankees would cast their votes for Bill—or they might vote him out for reasons of association."

Mills County now has been informed, Mr. Stone. It might be well to inform you that "Bill" is running very strong right down here in Mills County, where the few Republicans who exist have gone on record as saying that they will vote for him, too.

Head Breaks Ankle

F. M. Head of Caradan was recovering this week from a fall in which he suffered a broken ankle and for which he was treated by Dr. M. A. Childress of Goldthwaite. Mr. Head will need the aid of crutches for some time to come.

Wills A. Hill, President of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, was ill this week of a bronchial infection.

Big news on Capitol Hill last week was the President's budget. In a nutshell, the budget request is for $25.4 billion in the next fiscal year beginning next July—by far the greatest outlay of any year since the Second World War.

Over three-fourths of this amount—$65.1 billion—has been earmarked for our armed forces, foreign economic and military aid, atomic energy and other items related to defense. The balance of $20.3 billion has been set aside in the budget proposal for running the Government, paying interest on the public debt and carrying out normal projects not directly connected with preparedness. In the latter category the figure is $1 billion below the amount being spent during this current year.

Of the amount proposed for the military, the Air Force will be provided with a 143-wing organization, but at a later date than General Vandenberg originally sought; The Army will be built up from 18 to 21 divisions; The Navy will get additional air power and perhaps more ships.

As against this proposed spending of $85 billion there is an estimated income from taxes of $71 billion—indicating a deficit of more than $14 billion. This is alarming. There will and should be some cuts made by Congress. Now—of all times—when the preparedness cost is becoming so burdensome, non-essential spending should be cut to the bone. At the same time the defense spending will be closely scrutinized with the view of trimming the waste and extravagance that keeps cropping up.

The big job at this session will be to use the pruning knife freely where it can be done without damage to our preparedness program. Many of us believe several billions can be cut by reducing personnel, duplications, waste and other non-essentials.

Miss Nix Can Vote

The Eagle's Miss Earlene Nix is not yet 21 but she will be 21 before the national election day next November. So this week the machinery of Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield's office operated in high gear to provide Our Miss Nix with an "exempt" poll tax payment certificate. She says she will vote next November if the ballots carry candidates who meet with her approval. She refused, however, to have any truck with talk by the Eagle's Roy Lee Hill that he might run for County Commissioner, Precinct 2. At the end of all the gab Mr. Hill decided not to run for fear he would be elected. That was the laugh of the week in the Eagle office.

Fire Put Out At Shelton Brothers

Responding to an alarm that had been turned in by two soldiers attached to Captain Boytano's signal corps company that is encamped south of Goldthwaite, the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department extinguished a small fire at the Shelton Brothers Garage on Fisher Street about 11:00 o'clock last Saturday night. Chief Jack Reid of the Goldthwaite Fire Department said the blaze was confined to a metal waste container and that because of the prompt alarm by the soldiers and the speedy response by so many firemen damage was inconsequential.

Hillside Mission
By LIDA BYRNE

A preacher said: "In a revival not long ago, a man said to me: 'Why do you preach so much about a thing that is so unpleasant as sin?'"

Concerning rebellious people, the Bible tells us: "That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the Lord: which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits."

evangelistic service will start at 7:30 p. m.

Next Monday night, the guest speakers at the Gospel Hall will be the Rev. and Mrs. Norman Parish of Guatemala. Gordon Jones Makes Favorable Progress

Miss Florence Jones last Sunday visited her brother, Gordon Jones, who has been in hospital at Waco for a long time because of injuries that he suffered in an automobile accident. She was accompanied by Jim and Sue Childress, children of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Childress.

Mr. Jones is making such favorable progress that he hopes to be able to come home to Goldthwaite about March 1. As

J. T. Ayers Goes To Fort Worth Revival

Last Monday the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite, went to Fort Worth to conduct revival services at the Inspiration Point Baptist Church there. The Rev. Next Sunday and again on February 10 the morning and evening services of worship at the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite will be conducted by the Rev. Noted Film, "Mr. Texas," To Be Shown To Baptists February 11

When the Mills County Baptist Workers Association meets for its regular monthly conference at the Goldthwaite Baptist Church on Monday night, February 11, the main feature of the program will be a film, "Mr. Texas," it was announced this week by the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Moderator.

Since Brother Ayers will be conducting revival services in Fort Worth at the time his place will be taken on February 11 by the Rev. Henry C. Garber, Pastor of the Mullin Baptist Church.

"Mr. Texas," a film that was produced professionally, is the story of an episode arising from revival activity in Fort Worth by Billy Graham, noted evangelist.

The role of "Mr. Texas," a rancher who was converted to Christianity by Billy Graham, is played by a Hollywood actor who, himself, became a convert. The film, Brother Ayers said, was shown at the recent Baptist Convention in Houston where it attracted widespread favorable attention. Brother Ayers expressed hope that a great many people would respond to the invitation to witness the showing of "Mr. Texas" at the Goldthwaite Baptist Church on Monday night of February 11.

Home Quartets For Bible Class Singing

You Can Help SAVE 10,000 LIVES - Maybe Your Own!

You—the man, woman or teen-ager behind the wheel—have a big responsibility! In 1950, 35,000 persons were killed in traffic accidents. Last year there was an increasing crescendo of death on the highways—the worst fatality toll in a decade.

What can you do about it?

Your acts of safe driving are your contributions toward a greatly lessened death toll. Every time you lower your speed to stay within safe limits, drive more carefully as night and weather conditions demand extra care, stay in your own traffic lane and abide by all the rules of the road, you are contributing to greater highway safety. Being a safer driver is like giving blood for a transfusion to save a life. Taking a heedless chance may spill your blood—or someone's—and waste it on the highways.

10,000 lives to be saved in 1952 is a goal worth striving for by all who drive or walk. Even half that number saved would help stem the rushing tide of death on our highways. Don't ride with the reckless! Most drivers play fair and observe the traffic rules, but some—the speeders, cowboys, road hogs, drinking-drivers and chronic accident repeaters—must be forced to conform. Temptation to follow their bad examples means that more lives will become death statistics.

Be selfish with your own life—careful with the lives of others.

Baptist Parsonage Being Redecorated

The Parsonage of the First Baptist Church, which was moved late last year from Fisher Street to a lot adjoining the home of Mrs. J. W. Weathers on Reynolds Street, was redecorated during the past week. Also, the yard and fences were tidied up. James Nickols and Hobson Miller did the interior work while the outside job was done by Dick Baker. The Baptist Parsonage, which is the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Ayers and Annette, was moved so as to provide outdoor recreation space for the Mills County Youth Center of the First Baptist Church.

 tations and demands for prosecution that would result in cleaning up this mess.

The second big problem in government is to get the Reds and the pinkos out of high places. If America is to survive we must have unquestioned loyalty to America and sound judgment by those who have a hand in our destiny—particularly in the State Department.

Again Tom Connally has served on no congressional committees that exposed all these people. He has not denounced them on the floor of the Senate and taken action that has led to prosecution or removal from government.

Because of his seniority and his influence, Tom Connally's voice would have been a powerful one in getting these people and their ideas out of government. Connally has chosen to remain silent.

Many times, The Press Washington correspondent tried to get an interview from Connally seeking his views on His and Lattimore and Jessup and Vincent and Service—and even Acheson. Again on Connally's recent visit to Houston, reporters tried to get his views.

 He chose in no uncertain terms to remain silent.

If America is to survive, the power of organized crime must be smashed. The Costellos, the Capone heirs in Chicago, the Mickey Cohens, the Binaggios of Kansas City and their counterparts everywhere must not be allowed to dominate the country as they have threatened to do.

The crime syndicate, the gangs, control communities, have some public office holders in their hip pockets and threaten the freedom of us all.
 The American people are getting more and more conscious of the evils of organized crime. And this knowledge came chiefly from the Kefauver Committee of the United States Senate.

Senator Connally had nothing to do with exposing the crime syndicates. His voice has not been raised on the floor of the Senate denouncing these criminals and their political tie-ups.

In fact Senator Connally tried to throw cold-water on the exposure.
 Senator Kefauver was absent from a roll call in the Senate on one occasion.

Senator Connally commented, he said:
 "Oh, I guess he's off somewhere chasing crap-shooters."

Another thing that threatens to bring America to her knees is the reckless waste of money, the spending without end.

Sure America must spend, and spend billions, for defense.
 But we cannot continue to spend the billions necessary for defense and still waste the billions that the bureaucrats are throwing to the four winds.

Tom Connally has served on no committees that have tried to bring about a reduction in our non-defense expenditures. He has not advocated economy on the floor of the Senate in other than the most general terms.

Senator Connally has been on the side of the "spend and spend" boys.

We don't think this country can survive if people such as Dean Acheson are the architects of our foreign policy.

Tom Connally has not raised his voice against Dean Acheson in interviews or on the floor of the Senate. Tom Connally's bitter opposition to Dean Acheson might well have been the difference—might well have been the last straw that pushed Truman into calling for Acheson's resignation.

Instead Tom Connally has remained silent and has even been the instrument by which Acheson's foreign policy got the money from Congress to make its spending possible.

Finally we think Tom Connally has gotten out of touch with Texas and Texans.

We doubt if one person in 20 now living in Texas has ever seen Tom Connally.

Senator Connally has divorced himself from Texas—and he can't represent Texas without being with Texas people occasionally and finding out what they are thinking.

After all, we think that a little shoulder rubbing with ranchers and farmers and storekeepers and oil men and lawyers and school teachers and Rotarians and Kiwanians and firemen and policemen—and all the people in Texas—is just about as educational and give as good a picture of America as continued association with the Achesons and the Trumans—the diplomats and the "foreign policy experts."

In conclusion, we want to say that in our opinion there is only one race in the United States this year more important than the campaign for Connally's Senate seat.

 That race is the choice of the President of the United States.

Best Grasses Are Boosted In Talk By Renner Expert

By CHARLES O. HAENISCH

Speaking to a group of approximately 120 farmers and ranchers of the Mills County area, Fred Shaw, Educational Director of the Texas Research Foundation at Renner, on Wednesday night of last week gave a report on the work that has been done at the Foundation. In his talk, Mr. Shaw discussed the work now being done in summer and winter pastures and how this could be applied on the farms and ranches in this area. Mr. Shaw pointed out that all the grasses used at the Foundation are not adapted to this area but many of the grasses used there have been tried here with success.

The term pasture must not be confused with native ranges. Cultivated fields planted to grass for the purpose of grazing are considered pastures. When planted as pastures, the grass should be fertilized with phosphate and nitrogen. After seedlings are about six inches high they should be cultivated once or twice. It is highly desirable not to graze the pasture the first year but to allow the seedlings to become well established. Summer and winter pastures should be planted on separate fields so as to let one pasture rest while grazing the other.

Winter grasses that have shown good results at the Foundation, even during the drought, are alta Fescue, Bromegrass, Dallis grass, Black Medick clover, and Button clover. The adaptability of Bromegrass, dallis grass, and black medick clover to this area is doubtful, however a substitute for these grasses might be Harding grass and perennial rye grass.

For summer pasture a mixture of Tuscan strain of Sidecoats grama, Blackwell switchgrass, King Ranch bluestem, and Hubam sweetclover is used. All of these grasses have been grown in this area and are high storage producers.

The value of using grasses and legumes in ordinary farming operations cannot be over emphasized; however the planting of new grasses should be on a small scale until they have been proven on your farm stated Mr. Shaw.

Will Burkes And Jess Tullos Give Jail A Clean-up

Precinct 1 Commissioner Jess Tullos and Will Burkes this week made the grounds around the jail look much more attractive, thereby making it possible for self-respecting citizens to go into the south and east entrances of the Court House without closing their eyes in shame.

Mr. Burkes got busy with a rake and gave a thorough tidying to the grounds around "Stubblefield Inn"—as the Mills County bastille is known in certain circles.

Then along came Commissioner Tullos. For weeks, even months, a great pile of trash had been accumulating behind "Stubblefield Inn." It made an eye-sore that detracted from the generally good appearance of the south side of the Square. So Commissioner Tullos trucked away the awful mess and now it looks just fine all around the jail and people no longer mutter apologies to themselves as they go into the Court House through the east and south entrances.

Something else is needed—rain. That would make the grass green and would raise spirits to where they ought to be.
