Pupil Transfers Should Be Made During This Month

Any person in Texas desiring to attend any school outside their home district during the 1954-1955 school year must make application for transfer during the month of May— this month.

This law is new in that heretofore this task was performed in the month of July but the 53rd Legislature passed laws moving both census taking and transferring up by three months. This was necessary to allow all county and local boards to provide the opportunity of transfers so that receiving schools can arrange programs of classes and transportation for transferees coming in. Also the school losing the pupils will not be in attendance even though they may live within the school district.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

New Haven, Missouri, Leader: "In a recent study made for Pathfinder... by the National Research Bureau, Inc., to find out 'Who Really Runs America'... it was found that it is the 51 per cent of Americans who live in cities and towns under 10,000 and on farms, in what Pathfinder terms 'Country-side America.' 'Country-side' strength will be surprising to most. For example, it controls far more than half of the seats of Congress."

Windom, Minnesota, Reporter: "Perhaps the best answer to those who advocate compulsory government health programs is the remarkable growth of voluntary health insurance. Virtually unknown in the early 1930's, hospital insurance today covers almost three out of five persons in the United States. The huge expansion of health insurance in this country has been 100 per cent voluntary. No American has been compelled by government or any other agency to spend a dollar for health insurance."

Cuero, Texas, Record: "On the strong backs of the nation's production workers depends prosperity for most of us. Also riding along are twelve government employees for every one hundred workers. We know the load is heavy anyway, and the additional luggage is not always necessary."

Inside WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

Democrats Will Concentrate On Three Campaign Issues Price Support, 'Favoritism' In Taxes, Business Decline

WASHINGTON—A Democratic member of Congress was recently striding down the marble halls of the House Office building. He wore an unusually happy smile. Asked why he was so happy, the legislator grinned and cracked a rather poor pun. "Butter days are ahead for us Democrats," he said. "Look at this." In his hand he held a newspaper carrying a headline that Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson had announced that the government would drop price supports on butter and other dairy products from 99 per cent of parity to 75 per cent, effective April 1.

Alongside the big headline were stories of reaction from farm groups, mostly anguished screams of protest.

As the major political parties jockey into position for this autumn's congressional elections, the Democrats as of today plan to concentrate their fire on three major issues: the farm situation, as typified by the hassle over butter price supports; alleged tax favoritism of the rich at the expense of middle and low-income taxpayers, and the business decline, which they warn, is the beginning of "hard times"—"another Republican depression."

HUMPHREY WHO?—Senator Hubert H. Humphrey (D), Minnesota, wants his constituents to know that there are two Humphreys around Washington, particularly when they read headlines about "Humphrey Opposes Income Tax Relief."

The senator objects to "picking up my daily paper and reading 'Humphrey Raises Interest Rates,' 'Humphrey Against Tax Reduction,' and 'Humphrey Finds No Urgency in Action to Stop Recession.'"

Humphrey—the senator—thinks it is necessary to make one thing clear: "There's no relationship between Senator Hubert H. Humphrey and Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey."

The senator said even the White House gets confused at times and calls him instead of the Cabinet official. He wants it clear "just for the record" that "this Humphrey is for tax reduction; this Humphrey is for action now to stop the recession."

HOW EAGER THE BEAVER—Problems of the "eager beaver"—the over-conscientious worker—are problems for government agencies as well as for private business.

A good case in point came to light in recent testimony before the Senate appropriations committee by Guy Farmer, chairman of the National Labor Relations board.

Farmer said that one NLRB trial examiner handled only two cases while another took care of 34 disputes during 1953.

He said the "slow producer" took a long time in conducting hearings and put in many hours on his reports. On the other hand, he reported, the flies turned in by the big producer "were not of the high quality they should have been—34 is too many for one man."

He reported that there were 521 unfair labor practice cases pending between July and December of 1952 and that this total was reduced to 308 in the comparable period last year.

SILENCE IS CONSENT—There are well-supported reports in Washington that the National Broadcasting company and the Columbia Broadcasting system received tacit White House support when they refused Senator Joseph R. McCarthy free time to answer Adlai Stevenson.

Well-informed sources said the White House let it be known to the two major networks that they had the unspoken support of the so-called inner circle in bucking the Wisconsin Republican.

An official in the know refused to come right out and say that NBC and CBS were given that understanding in so many words, but he did say: "That is the White House sentiment."

President Eisenhower himself has taken the position that the Republican national committee did right in handling the situation when it picked Vice President Richard M. Nixon to make the GOP reply instead of McCarthy.

Down in Mills County the little town of Goldthwaite has just reaped a harvest of $300,000 from the mohair crop in that section. It is another example of profits on lands unsuited to the growth of any kind of crops. The goat is king in several of our Texas counties. He is about the hardiest animal known, he can make his living among the rocks, is not subject to disease, and invariably brings his keeper a rich reward.—Denison Herald.

VIC'S... SOLILOQUY

A number of local farmers and ranchers are watching with interest the development in connection with the flood prevention project that is being carried on in the Deep Creek watershed in McCulloch and San Saba counties. Many folks are looking for the time when a similar program of flood control and conservation can be undertaken in watersheds of some of the creeks in Mills County.

R. L. Burdette, who owns land near the Colorado River, some of it under irrigation, has been giving considerable study to the project and has gone further than that, he has been in touch with Congressman O. C. Fisher and has received a reply to his inquiry on the possibility of land owners getting federal loans for building small dams for flood control and irrigation purposes.

Fisher's reply states, in part: "I have read with much interest your letter of April 9, concerning a suggested program whereby the Federal government would loan money to land owners for the construction of small dams. I think you are pointing to a program that has great merit. As you probably know, the Soil Conservation Service has been experimenting with flood prevention projects of this type. One example is the Deep Creek watershed in McCulloch and San Saba Counties, where small dams about the size you mention in your letter have been built. They all contain a conservation level and then a flood level, with a large conduit to permit the gradual run-off of the flood water down to the conservation level. The remaining water belongs to the landowner, and many of them use it for irrigation as well as for fish and wild life.

The people of Brady Creek watershed have recently completed obtaining more than 400 easements from land owners for the construction of 46 of these flood prevention projects, and the first dams are now under construction. Funds, however, are quite limited. This is being done under the supervision of the Soil Conservation Service. All easements are furnished free, and the Federal government pays for the construction work.

The House recently passed a bill which implements existing authorization for these programs. I believe this type of development has a great future and eventually most of our watersheds will be controlled through this method.

"You can understand this undertaking a conservation program in a watershed, the serve a double purpose—taken together, prevent actively control floods in the streams, and at the same time provide considerable which can be used for irrigation.

"It may very well be through the expansion of program, the objectives have in mind can be realized. This program has been hindered by a shortage of funds but perhaps more money gradually be made available. It strikes me as being a better approach to controlling flood waters than just relying on the larger reservoirs on main streams.

"These projects are initiated by local people in cooperation with the local Soil Conservation offices."

The information that sets forth is of interest to land owners and they can be by that, such a program need to be initiated on the local by local people and in with the local Soil Conservation Service office.

The original thought Mr. Burdette had in mind is also important to land owners. It is based on the philosophy of dependence, with the land owner securing a federal loan to do the job of small dam building, and, repaying the loan.

Whether the project is carried out by land owners getting loan to do it or have it as Soil Conservation sponsored program, it would mean much to the economic condition of Mills County.

There a number of creeks in watersheds in Mills County through such a flood control and conservation program that could prove most beneficial.

PARENT PROBLEMS

Ways of Expressing Affection For the Child Grow With Him

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

AT various times, I have pointed out that the baby or young child needs an abundance of affection.

He needs affection from an increasing number of persons as he grows older. While caressing and the like are important to him in his early months and years, such physical expression needs to be gradually displaced by more enduring gestures—smiles, tender tones, listening raptly to what he says, answering his questions kindly, enjoying his achievements and creations.

Love Equals Understanding
The older this child grows, the more nearly this affection and love become synonymous with understanding and appreciation of him as a person.

The child who, at two or three, may like to be kissed and cuddled by his parents, may merely tolerate or spurn such endearments at eight or ten. This is even more true at fourteen or seventeen.

The Adolescent Needs
But the adolescent boy craves affection from his parents no less, perhaps, than when he was three or four, only he wants it to be of a more enduring type—more through symbols of understanding and appreciation.

Recently, I casually dropped the foregoing idea in a brief conversation with a business executive, the father of three children from 9 to 15 years of age. A little later, he volunteered, "I had never thought of affection expressed as you suggested. I can see that it affords no end of opportunity to a parent for cultivating media for expressing love to one's older children and eliciting their love."

Enduring Expression
We agreed that this way of expressing love need not end with the child in his teens, but can go on even more richly as he becomes an adult. It can also operate with growing richness between husband and wife, father and mother.

Parents should warmly express affection to their son, 12 to 16, when they often smile at him and evoke his smiles, when they look leisurely, but clearly, at his eyes as they speak to one another and listen attentively.

He is shown affection when they thus make it easy for him to relate some observation or experience or offer an opinion. While his parents may not agree with his opinion, they prove to him his right to have it and express it. This prepares the way for him to change this opinion, if such is the parents' wish.

If, on the contrary, he felt his parents didn't consider what he was saying worthy of attention, or that they would ridicule or rebuke his utterance, and thus make him feel inferior, he might soon feel a great lack of affection.

Micaiah Withstands False Prophets ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—I King 22:1-40.

Syria had taken possession of the Israelish city of Ramoth-gilead. When King Jehoshaphat of Judah visited King Ahab of Israel, Ahab asked him if he would join in battle with him to recover it.

Jehoshaphat said, "Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord." Ahab gathered 400 men, asking them, "Shall I go to battle?" All said the Lord would be on the side of the king.

Jehoshaphat was not satisfied and called for a prophet of God. Ahab hated the prophet Micaiah but sent for him. Micaiah prophesied that Israel would be scattered as sheep having no shepherd.

During the battle Ahab was killed by an arrow through joints in his armor. He was propped up in his chariot so the enemy would not know he was dead. MEMORY VERSE—I Kings 22:14.

Scallorn News

(Written for Last Week)

Weather conditions out our way are still unpredictable. Just when you think for sure it's going to shower away goes the prospect and the sun shows up. At this writing the clouds look very encouraging and we hope for rain. Some sections of the country near by report an inch or more precipitation.

Rev. Freeman from Brownwood was the speaker at the Scallorn Church Sunday.

Guests Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines were Mr. and Mrs. Cox of Goldthwaite.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hightower gathered at their home Saturday evening for turn and reap another harvest of misery— unless we are prepared. We must get down to some basic fundamentals. The good Lord has entrusted to us a certain amount of natural resources. The most precious are soil and water. Without them, we cannot live. Without them, there can be no future for ourselves and our children. We cannot increase those resources no matter what we do. We can only make intelligent use of the resources we have! If we exercise our God-given intelligence, they will last indefinitely for ourselves and our children. We can even increase their yield. But if we sit idly while they blow away, there will be no future! At the present rate of population expansion, we will feel the pinch in less than a generation!

What can we do? We can build dams that will hold back the flood waters and leave our topsoil intact. We can build reservoirs that will store water as though it were more precious than rubies— which it is! We can step up our research into converting fresh water from sea water. We can investigate rain-making further— so we can dump the moisture in the air on dry— rather than sodden— land.

Above all, we can become water conscious! We have plenty of plans. We have plenty of skill. What we need is action! Action will come when we are determined and that can't be too soon!

April relented as she left and made our hearts glad with rain — 1.1 inch the 27th and 1.6 inch on the 30th, making a total of 4.5 inches for the month. Counting through April of each year, we had in 1951 6.1 inches; in 1952, 11 inches; in 1953, 6.15 inches; and in 1954, 5.6. May brought a cold norther. I had to wear my winter coat to church Sunday night. But now we look with joy across the countryside, beholding the exquisite beauty of our emerald hills.

Another source of joy to me this spring has been a bed of volunteer sweet peas. They came up of themselves and grew luxuriantly, and have bloomed beautifully and profusely.

Mrs. Effie Egger had for her weekend guests her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tippen, of Abilene; her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tippen of Houston; and her son, Clayton, also of Houston.

Ernest Malone and Jim King made a trip to San Saba Saturday.

Mrs. Edna Dwyer writes from Orange that now it is May her folks will soon be going to Abilene after her granddaughter, Ednabeth Cawyer, who will graduate from ACC this spring. At that time Mrs. Dwyer thinks she will get to come by and see us all again.

Daughter Grace writes from El Paso that she is very happy over the completion of their new house, but they will not move in till school is out.

We attended church in Brownwood Sunday and heard Evangelist Hugh Clark of Bay Town at the Austin Avenue Church of Christ. We were guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth. They had strawberries from their own patch. They have a fine garden, and they expect to have beans and potatoes next Sunday.

We also called on Mr. and Mrs. Bob Egger. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egger were there. Mrs. Egger was able to be up, but Mr. Egger was not any better. Last week he had to be taken to the hospital and given three pints of blood.

Daughter Ruth writes that Carol Jean has received the award of the American Chemical Society—the first time it has been given to a girl for years.

Variety Club Meets Last Wednesday

Mrs. Harvey Hale gave the devotional and prayer was led by Mrs. A. L. Cole. The theme for the meeting was "Flowers" and as each member and guest arrived they were given a lovely corsage. One game, "Flower Romance," was played in connection with the program.

During the business meeting the club voted to meet at 2:30 p. m., and to study parliamentary procedure at the next meeting.

Refreshments were served to club members and two guests, Mrs. Ruby Simpson and Miss Lola Stevens. Mrs. Ola Wrinkle became a member of the club.

Mrs. C. S. Smith will be hostess to the club May 12 at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Local Firemen Called To San Saba

Goldthwaite firemen were called to San Saba early Monday morning to help fight a huge fire which destroyed the Cameron Lumber Company of that city. Those making the trip were Jack Reid, Jesse Moreland, Joe Bailey Karner and Everett Holland.

Fire departments from Llano and Richland Springs also answered the call.

Mrs. Ovella Sperry and children, Charles A. Knight of Dallas, James Wesson from the Naval Air Base, Kingsville and Kenneth Wesson of A. and M. College were weekend guests in the Craig Wesson home. Guests Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Jernigan and children and J. C. Wesson.

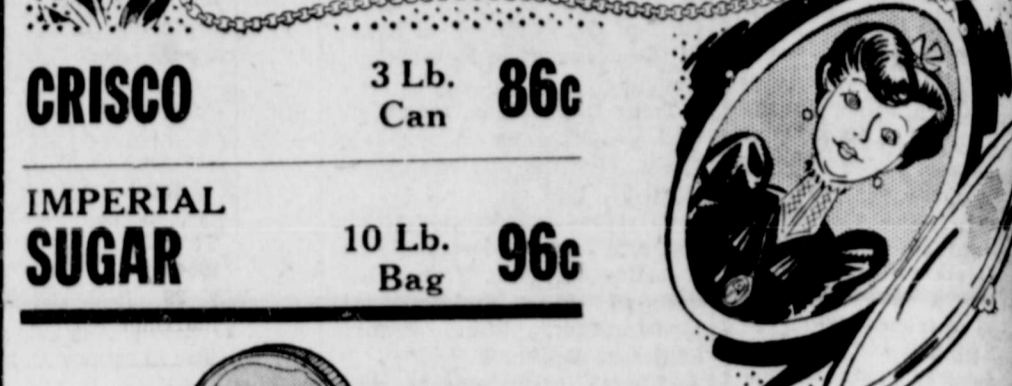

Little Miss Gloria Jean Booker spent the weekend with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stephan of Star.

Marvin Hamilton of Kingsville was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton.

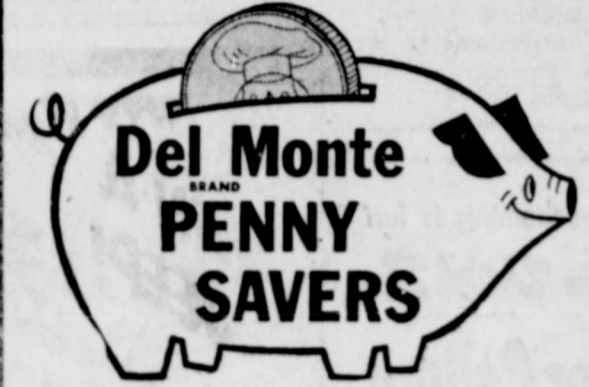

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Booker and Linda Lou accompanied the Girl Scouts to San Antonio last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Wilkinson of San Antonio and his mother of Blackfoot, Idaho, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hill and other relatives here last weekend.

ADDITIONAL DROUTH AID REQUESTED

Despite recent rains, many more millions of relief dollars may have to be plowed into our agricultural economy before the disastrous effects of the drouth are nullified.

The situation remains serious enough to warrant the direct attention of the president of the United States for the second straight year. The problem still remains unsolved.

Governors from five states, including Texas, met in Washington recently to place their recommendations before the national administration. Their initial plan was for a grant of $15 million to combat dust and wind problems in disaster areas. This amount would be in addition to the $195 million already earmarked for the agricultural conservation subsidy program this year.

The $15 million figure is not an unreasonable sum. It would go a long way in relieving the strain imposed by the three-year dry spell. However, the request was not accompanied by any concrete recommendations as to how the money should be used.

The governors frankly admitted they had made no attempt to find any long-range solution to the dust bowl threat and added that the requested sum would cover "emergency and immediate" problems for the next two months, only. It was not stipulated whether this would be by direct relief grants or on a loan basis.

Rains over the state during April were an encouraging factor in the present optimism for good crop production this year. Row crop farmers have a good chance of recovery without much additional drouth aid. But many arreas are still far below normal in rainfall and much of our pastureland is in extremely poor shape. Here is where the money must be spent, if any becomes available.

Two supplemental recommendations were made to the federal government. They were:

1. That loan and credit facilities of the federal government be used to give "maximum benefits on a long-range basis" to farmers in the drouth-stricken area.
2. That farmers and ranchers in the five states be "encouraged and helped" in the proper use of land.

It is in the second recommendation that the true solution to our problem lies—conservation and proper use of our land. To this we might also add the need to conserve our water.

The State of Texas, alone, is not prepared to assume the full burden of responsibility at this time. Help is needed from the federal authorities. But in the long run, Texas must prepare to take care of its own in times of natural disasters.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ward, Colburn and O'Denna, spent Sunday in Wichita Falls, guests of Sgt. and Mrs. Bobby Brown and son, Guy Gene.

Mrs. Elmer Horton of Corpus Christi visited relatives here last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Berry and Louine and Mrs. Carl Letbetter and Barbara Ann were recent visitors in Austin.

Coryell County Plans Big Show

Gatesville (Spec)—Coryell County has whipped up great plans for celebrating the county's 100th birthday May 6-7-8. The biggest event in the full calendar during the three-day celebration period will be the nightly performance of "Coryell Centurama" at the Firemen's Rodeo Arena in Gatesville at 8:15 p. m.

"Coryell Centurama" will be a mammoth stage spectacle with a cast of 300 local people, under the supervision of a director with John B. Rogers Producing Company, world's largest producers of such outdoor entertainment. It will portray, in vivid reality, the history of Coryell County from its early days up to the present.

A full slate of free daytime entertainment has also been arranged. Special days are Armed Forces and Veterans' Day on May 6, Education and Agriculture Day on May 7, and Old Settlers' and Homecoming Day on May 8.

Mrs. C. F. Williams returned home Saturday night from an extended visit with her daughters in Oklahoma City, Mineral Wells and Iran.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harris and children of Fort Worth were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris and other relatives last weekend.

FORD Weatherby Auto Company

Worth more when you buy it... Worth more when you sell it!

IF YOU'RE INTERESTED IN AN A-1 USED CAR - BE SURE TO SEE YOUR FORD DEALER

Ford's new 130-h.p. V-8 in the low-price field! And Ford's 115-h.p. V-8 Six is the industry's newest Six. Both of these engines give you the smoothest, savigest performance you've ever experienced.

You'll see more Fords parked in front of the finest homes and country clubs than any other car in its field. One reason is that many people who have owned the costliest cars realize that Ford offers the same beauty, quality and distinction—and for a far more practical price.

Ford is unsurpassed in riding comfort or ease of handling. A big reason is Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension . . . which allows more total up and down front wheel travel for a smoother ride . . . keeps front wheels in line longer . . . so handling stays easy longer.

Surveys show Ford cars return more of their original cost when they are sold than any competitive make. So a Ford car costs you less to own.

Over the latest seven-month period covered by available figures, Ford has been the nation's best seller. That's because Ford has proved that it offers the most . . . in engineering advancements—in trend setting styling—in value! Ford is America's best seller because it's America's best buy!

Local FHA Members And Sponsor Attend Convention At Fort Worth

Over 3,000 girls and their sponsors attended the State F. H. A. Convention held in Fort Worth, April 22 through 24. The highlight of the meeting was the theme, "Happy Home Life For All."

Goldthwaite Chapter was represented at the State meeting by Peggy Jones, Rosaline Saylor, JoAnn Jones and their sponsor, Miss Patty Wright.

Peggy Jones, acted as a member of the State Nominating Committee from Area IV. She had an important responsibility in studying the qualifications and selecting the future State F. H. A. leaders.

Rosaline Saylor was voting delegate and participated in the voting of such matters as: Revision of By-Laws, State Degrees and State Camping Fund.

Throughout the meeting several chapters portrayed events pertaining to the theme, "Happy Home Life." These included skits on "Families Together," "World Christmas Festival," and "Civil Defense."

Since this is the Centennial year of Public Schools Education in Texas, part of the program was dedicated to observing this event. As Future Homemakers of America, realizing that education is important in fostering Happy Homes, these girls feel that they can make them a reality, not a dream.

JoAnn Jones, the newly elected president of Goldthwaite Chapter, brought back many ideas to present to the chapter for future use.

Mr. and Mrs. George Willis and Tommy Joe of Comanche spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kendall visited relatives in Lubbock last week.

Brownies Have Busy Schedule Of Activities During Month Of April

Brownies of Troop 4 have had a busy schedule for the past month. At the April 5th meeting the Troop's project was finished. Plans were made at this meeting for their "Father-Daughter" party on April 12 at 7:30 p. m., at The Little House. All members of the Troop were present.

The Brownies met again on April 12 for their regular meeting. Final plans for the party were made and the girls drew for their jobs at the party. One group, under the leadership of Mrs. Rhoades, decorated The Little House and planned games. The other group, under the direction of Mrs. Booker, prepared the refreshments for the party. The party invitations were also written at this time.

Due to the Easter holidays, the next regular meeting was changed from the 19th to the 26th. The Brownies discussed the party and all decided it was a great success. Mrs. Booker taught the Troop a new song, "Lord! Lord! Lord!", that she had learned at the Day Camp Course which was held at Lake Brownwood. The entire group sang, "Happy Birthday" to Carolyn Rhoades and helped her blow out the candles on her cake.

On May 3 the Troop met again for their regular meeting. After roll call, dues were collected. Mrs. Rhoades was absent and Mrs. Booker discussed the American flag and how to fold it. A flag ceremony was presented at this time with Bebe Harper, Linda Lou Booker and Sammy Rahl as Flag Bearers and Carol Nan Gage and Maria Armendarez as Color Guards.

An Investiture Ceremony was held for Barbara Davee. She received her Brownie Pin. Linda Kay Miller, Ann Kemp and Sammy Rahl received their Year Pennant. After the ceremony, Carol Nan Gage, as hostess, served "Nibbles." Then each member present drew a picture of an animal they had seen at the Zoo in San Antonio. Thirteen girls from this Troop made the trip to San Antonio.
