School Opening Is Postponed To September 13

Officials of Goldthwaite Independent School District have announced it has become necessary to postpone the opening of school for one full week to allow extra time for renovation of the present buildings and proper installation of equipment.

The delay is unavoidable according to Supt. Jones that says the carpenter work, painting and refinishing of the floors just requires a lot of time. Officials feel that the change is necessary for the best operation of the school program. The opening date has been set for Monday September 13 instead of September 7.

The opening date will find things somewhat ill adjusted because only one wing of the new building will be open. It is certain that grades four, five and six will be housed in the old three story building while the first three grades will be in the new building. Agriculture, homemaking, science and band will remain where they have been.

Mrs. Frank Kilpatrick and children, Mike and Steve, of Killeen were recent guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perkins.

John Gilliam's Grand Slam Home Run Brings Victory; Playoff To Red Sox

By CHARLES CONRADT

The Goldthwaite Red Sox baseball team has done it again. They have fought their way into the play-off of the Hill Country League by defeating Medina last Sunday with a score of 12-9. The Red Sox were hitting the ball Sunday as they collected 14 hits.

John Gilliam, Red Sox third baseman, pulled the game out of the fire by hitting a "Grand Slam Home Run" in the fourth inning. The setting just prior to Gilliam's home run was perfect. Two Red Sox hitters were already on the bases when Y. B. Johnson came to bat. Since Y. B. had just batted out two solid hits in his two previous times at the plate, the Medina manager decided to walk him in order to get Gilliam. The result, a home run for Gilliam, and a red face for the Medina manager.

Bill McClain collected four hits while McCasland, Clifton, Y. B. Johnson and Gilliam collected two each. Clyde Estep states that the first game of the play-off between Goldthwaite and Comfort will begin Sept. 12 or maybe a day or so before that date. If Fredericksburg wins their game from Camp Stanley in all probability Comfort will come here for the first game. Watch the local paper for time.

GHS Class Of 1924 Plans Second Reunion Here Saturday September 4

By SID PASS

The Goldthwaite High School graduating class of 1924 will hold its second class reunion at Lake Merrett Sept. 4. Members of the class have been notified of the meeting through a series of bulletins and cards mailed out by various officials of the class.

One year ago on Labor Day weekend this class gathered for its first reunion twenty-nine years after graduation. Only one of the thirty-eight graduates is deceased. This is Alvis Taylor. Twenty-five of the remaining thirty-seven were present for the 1953 reunion. This many, or more, are expected again.

Class members will begin arriving Friday night and Saturday. Those arriving in Goldthwaite by noon Saturday will have lunch together at a local cafe at 1:00 o'clock, after which they will drive to the lake for the afternoon fellowship which will be the principal interest.

Swimming Pool To Close After Monday Night

Goldthwaite Municipal Swimming Pool will be closed after Monday night September 6, Labor Day, it was announced Wednesday by the pool and park committee.

In making the announcement the committee stated that due to cooler weather in the evenings it is unwise to keep it open after that date.

Folks are reminded that the pool will be open through Monday, Labor Day, so everyone can make plans to take a last dip of the season before it is closed.

Inside WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

Administration May Profit by Indo Peace Unsatisfactory Truce Still is Good Politics

WASHINGTON—The Eisenhower administration may profit politically from the Indochina truce—a type of peace it did not want and vigorously criticized in advance of the agreement.

Yet, Republican orators can be counted on this fall to emphasize that there is no war in the world now and point out that President Eisenhower was elected with his promise to end the fighting in Korea.

On the other hand, if plans seriously considered earlier this year to rush United States planes to the aid of Dienbienphu had been carried out, the result would have probably proved costly to GOP congressional candidates.

Republican Senate leader William F. Knowland of California has strongly denounced the settlement in Indochina. Yet, it may turn out that because of the cease-fire—he will retain his post of majority leader instead of stepping down to the minority role.

Victory for Republican candidates in a few close states will retain a margin of control for the party and it may well be that peace now may give the GOP this victory.

The division in the Senate now is 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and one Independent.

STRATEGY FOR WAR—Military experts reject the wishful thinking that neither side will want to be first to use atomic weapons in any new war—and that, therefore, the atomic and hydrogen bombs will never be dropped.

These experts have come to the conclusion, sadly but firmly, that a third world war will begin with a nuclear or thermonuclear assault, not on cities, but on military forces. The enemy will aim at wiping out all effective resistance at the source, and will try to take over the cities intact.

With this in mind, the experts think it would be useless for the free world to plan on a quick mobilization to take place right after a war starts. They say that the issue will be decided on the basis of the armed forces which are ready—and are able to survive—the initial onslaught.

Military leaders say we must make the necessary plans immediately—and, at all costs, must not sit back and wait for a war to start to think about getting ready to fight it. That, they say, would be much too late.

SAME TUNE: NEW ARRANGEMENT—The Pentagon's new plan to draft men for service, both active and reserve, had a familiar ring on Capitol Hill and opponents of universal military training immediately began to bristle.

John A. Hannah, who has bowed out as the Defense department's manpower chief, indicated that the proposal will be ready for detailed submission to Congress soon after it reconvenes in January.

Of course, by that time the temperament of the legislators may have been completely changed by the November elections. But up to now neither GOP nor Democratic administrations have been able to convince Congress that UMT is desirable.

This time the Eisenhower administration probably will avoid calling its plan universal training as such, although Hannah said it would apply to all youths in the eligible age brackets.

There seems little likelihood that one of the strongest foes of UMT, Rep. Dewey Short (R), Missouri, will change his mind between now and January. And if the GOP wins in November Short will continue as chairman of the House armed services committee which must clear the legislation the Pentagon and the White House want.

25 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from Eagle files of September 6, 1929)

Bascom, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton of Newburg, died in the San Angelo sanitarium the early part of the week and his remains were carried to Newburg for burial Wednesday.

Last Sunday morning at an early hour Mr. John Aubrey Reynolds and Miss Marene Hawkins of Cleburne were quietly married in a pretty home wedding.

Mayor H. G. Bodkin has purchased from J. A. Hester the two-story building on the north side of the public square, now occupied by Hester's Variety Store in the lower story and offices in the upper story.

The members of the Davis family, formerly of Newburg, enjoyed a reunion at the Fair Park in this city last week and spent the time camping. They are the sons and daughters of the late I. H. Davis, together with their families, and the reunion was one of the most pleasant they ever spent.

W. G. Smith of the Bull Springs section was in to see the Eagle editor Friday and told of his barn having burned a few days previous. The fire started in the day time shortly after he had stored his last load of corn, and he believes it to have been caused by spontaneous combustion in the hay stored in the barn.

Mrs. Hettie Urbach returned the first of the week from San Saba where she had been the past week or more. VIC'S... SOLILOQUY

Sometimes a newspaper will carry a story that leaves the wrong impression with the readers. This can come about because of a term that may be used in the story, if it happens to be an expression that isn't used very much in day-to-day conversation. So when that happens the ball starts rolling and folks are asking questions and others are answering them, until the matter is cleared up.

That's what happened a few weeks ago when the Eagle carried a story which stated that Houston Duren, city alderman, was elected Mayor Pro-Tem by members of the city council.

During the days and weeks following that announcement a number of folks asked Mr. Duren and also Mayor Wm. G. Yarborough about the matter. Some of them wanted to know whether the mayor had resigned or was planning to do so.

The truth of the matter is he hasn't resigned and has no intentions of doing so. Mr. Duren was elected president pro tempore of the city council—which in many instances is referred to as mayor pro-tem.

The Texas statutes provide: "At the first meeting of each new council, or as soon thereafter as practicable, one of the aldermen shall be elected president pro tempore, who shall hold his office for one year. In case of the failure or inability of the Mayor to act, the president pro tempore shall perform the duties... of the mayor."

That makes the one elected president of the council and at the same time he serves as mayor in the absence of that.

MRS. JIM BOB STEEN

Miss Katheryn Leigh Bunton Becomes Bride Of Jim Bob Steen In Marfa

Miss Katheryn Leigh Bunton,
daughter of Mrs. Oren Mc-Culloch Bunton and the late Mr. Bunton of Marfa, Texas, and Jim Bob Steen, son of Mr.
and Mrs. Robert L. Steen of Goldthwaite, exchanged marriage vows in a candlelight ceremony held here in the First Christian Church Saturday evening, August 21, at 8 o'clock. Officiating at the double ring service was the Rev. Nelson Wurgler of Las Cruces, N. M., assisted by the Rev. W. Claude Pearce, Christian Church minister.

White tapers in brass candelabra entwined with huckleberry foliage formed a background for the altar, on either side of which were tall white floor baskets with giant white mums. Large white pom poms and foliage tied with white satin ribbon marked the reserved pews.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her uncle, W. E.
Bunton, wore an exquisite gown of classic design of diamond white imported Italian silk satin. The lily neckline framed the shoulders and was enhanced with alecon lace in applied detail, reembodying with tiny seed pearls. The moulded bodice was buttoned down the back with satin covered buttons, and the long fitted sleeves came to petal points of lace with seed pearl decor at the back of her hands. The princess gores fanned to a wide circular skirt which cascaded into a round cathedral train.

Her veil of imported French illusion was in misty tiers to a long finger length and was attached to a pillbox made of al-con lace, reembodyed with seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and bougardia on a small white Bible having the same lace and seed pearl detail as her wedding dress.

Mrs. J. E. White Jr., attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Tommy D. Wood, Mrs.
Tucker B. White, Miss Jane Ann Steen of Goldthwaite, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs.
Martin F. Bauman of El Paso, cousin of the bride; and Miss Carolyn Crites of Houston, the bride's college roommate.

The attendants wore identical gowns of rouge pink velveteen, waltz-length, and designed along princess lines. They were fashioned with low portrait necklines, accented in the black with draped bows, and with off the shoulder cap sleeves.
Their satin shoes matched their dresses, as did their hats which were tiny circles fashioned of stylized velvet bows.
They carried cascade bouquets of candlelight Fuji mums. For their jewelry they wore rhinestone earrings, gifts of the bride.

Mr. Steen's attendants were his father, Robert L. Steen, who served as best man, and Clay

WASH DRY IRON
the clothes
All on a Monday Morning

Grandmother used a boiling pot, lots of homemade lye soap, an old-fashioned washboard, and all the energy she could muster up for the back-breaking task. It's no wonder she didn't feel like singing on washday.

Today — what a difference! The modern housewife leaves all her washday chores to her electrical servants.
With an automatic washer, an electric clothes dryer, and an ironer in her home, she saves both time and energy doing the family wash the easy, efficient, economical ELECTRIC way, without even leaving the house!

It Takes SO LITTLE PURINA to Grow GOOD PULLETS

GOOD PULLETS pay best

This is a fine year to see what a really good growing feed will do. Good egg prices are expected again next fall. Extra eggs from well-developed pullets should pay you well for the small cost of good growing feed.

Purina GROWING CHOWS are BETTER this year

Always the nation's leading growing feeds, Purina Growing Chows are better than ever this year. Eight small but mighty growth and health boosters are MICRO-MIXED into the feed so each bird gets her full share each day.

Purina Will Make Good Pullets at LOW COST

Whether you use a complete growing ration or one to balance your grain, you'll find PURINA mighty low in growing cost. It takes less PURINA than poorer quality feeds—and you grow a bigger, better pullet besides.

PRECAUTIONARY USE OF INSECTICIDES-HERBICIDES

A word of warning to farmers who spray their own fields: Never use the same equipment for applying herbicides and insecticides without a thorough cleaning between jobs.

In the long run, it is actually better to use two sets of equipment.

Many farmers fail to recognize the killing power of herbicides on broad leaf plants. The chemical 2,4-D is especially powerful. It does an excellent job on weeds—but its effects are just as potent on your cash yielding row crops.

Even a very small residue of 2,4-D will remain in your spraying equipment from one season to the next. If an insecticide is mixed in the tanks, that leftover bit of 2,4-D will still be enough to cause serious damage to the crop.

Near Round Rock, Texas, this year, a farmer sprayed his entire cotton crop with the same equipment he used to kill weeds around the barn and house. Even though he had cleaned the tanks, the residue was enough to blight his field. Fortunately, he still had time to replant his cotton.

Cases like this are frequent and thousands of dollars are lost each year. In other instances, herbicides are carelessly applied, resulting in extensive damage.

An employee of a Texas Air Force Base once used far too much herbicide chemicals for the job at hand. He sprayed 100 yards of weeds along a railroad track, using 100 gallons of undiluted 2,4-D. Actually, only one gallon of chemicals properly diluted was needed.

The concentrated spray from this job drifted into adjacent cotton fields and killed the plants.

In 1952, some 1,054 cases of damage from herbicides were reported to the Texas Department of Agriculture. Last year, this number was cut to 239—but it is still too much waste from carelessness.

Remember to clean your equipment with the solutions recommended by the Texas Dept. of Agriculture. But to be really safe, use two sets of equipment for the two jobs.

TEXAS RANGERS

The Texas Rangers have played an effective, valiant and honorable role throughout the early years of conflict within its borders. Stephen F. Austin employed them as early as 1823 to protect frontier colonies against the Indians. Each Ranger provides himself with a good horse, a rifle and a brace of pistols. One of the most celebrated exploits came in 1871, with the killing of Sam Bass and his robber band at Round Rock. The Texas Rangers of today are charged with the enforcement of laws governing major crimes.

DEBT LIMIT: The Senate reluctantly agreed to raise the ceiling on the national debt from 275 billion dollars to 281 billion dollars, after Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, fiscal expert and vigorous advocate of governmental economy, urged the increase.

Senator Byrd led the fight last year against the Administration's proposal to increase the debt limit by 15 billion dollars, and I supported his stand. In agreeing to a temporary increase—for only one year—the Virginia Senator made it clear that he did so because it was unavoidable to keep the Treasury from breaking through the 275-billion-dollar ceiling between December and March.

ECONOMY NEEDED: Senator Byrd urged the Administration to return to its quest for a balanced budget despite the troubled international situation. "This period of international crisis may continue for years," he said. "We must live with it, and we must adapt our financial affairs to it."

TANKS STAKED: Tanks have been staked this week for C. D. McMillan, Charley Hall, E. T. Singleton, and Ward Carlisle. Farm ponds have been completed for Ernest Kohler, D. R. Edington and Ray O. Eubanks.

With the approach of fall many farmers are making preparations for winter cover crops. Many fields are being worked so that with the first good rain, vetch or other crops can be planted.

Clyde Jones near Mullin has made application to the Supervisors of the District for assistance in developing a conservation plan on his farm. After preliminary surveys can be made of the farm, Mr. Jones with the assistance of a technician of the Soil Conservation Service will develop a conservation plan on his farm.

national crisis may continue for years," he said. "We must live with it, and we must adapt our financial affairs to it."

The Senator also pointed out that his opposition to a larger and permanent increase in the debt limit was not motivated by any desire to embarrass the Administration. "To the contrary," he said, "the effort to hold the lid on the debt is to strengthen the Administration's hand for economy, leading to the balanced budget which the President sorely pledged."

BIGGER DEBT: Facts released by the Commissioner of the Public Debt show that the national debt is now 18 billion dollars more than it was when the present Administration took over.

In fact, figuring the public debt on the same basis that has been used in the past, it now stands at the highest point in our history.

The present Administration adopted a different method of figuring interest on saving bonds, entering on the books only the current value of the bonds. In the past the debt was figured on the basis of the bonds' maturity value. This is a legitimate bookkeeping method, no doubt, but it may have caused people to believe mistakenly that the national debt has been reduced in the last two years. It hasn't.

Incidentally, the only year in which the United States had no Public debt was 1836.

SOCIAL SECURITY: One of the most important measures acted on in the Senate as this session of Congress neared its close was a bill revising the Social Security system.

Social Security coverage was extended to some six million additional persons. The Presdent proposed to bring in ten and a half million more, but the Senate excluded some 3,000,000 farm workers and about 400,000 self-employed professional persons.

The bill increases benefits at least $5 a month for single retired persons and as much as $31.25 for some families. Benefits at present range from $25 to $168.75.

Social Security taxes will be increased $12 a year for employees and the same amount for employers. Taxes on self-employed persons coming under the law will increase $18 a year.

Provisions governing the earnings of retired persons were liberalized.

4 Important Reasons why you should buy a PONTIAC RIGHT NOW!

1 Pontiac is One of the Greatest Cars Ever Built!
Match today's Pontiac with America's finest cars and you'll get a dramatic picture of Pontiac value. First of all, Pontiac is bigger, in fact, than many cars costing hundreds of dollars more. Pontiac is beautiful—with its distinctive Silver Streak styling. Inside, you'll find genuine fine-car luxury and appointments—along with the roominess and comfort that come only with a long wheelbase. But the big surprise comes when you test Pontiac's performance. See how alert it is to every demand in traffic, how it handles and corners almost without effort, how it takes to the open road with plenty of power to spare and saves money every mile.

2 Pontiac has the Best Resale Value in its Price Class!
Along with all its fine-car size, luxury and performance, Pontiac has a very special attribute no car at any price can beat—its unsurpassed reputation for year-in, year-out dependability. Pontiac's carefree, economical long life and its proved record of amazingly low maintenance expense are so widely known and acknowledged that it commands the highest resale value in its price class. Because Pontiac is America's most desirable used car, your original investment comes back in greater measure when you trade.

3 Pontiac is Priced Just Above the Lowest!
After you've convinced yourself of Pontiac's value, after you've considered all the good things you've heard about its dependability—see how it compares dollar-wise. Despite the fact that it's a fine car in every sense of the term, Pontiac is priced so near the lowest that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac.

4 We'll Make You a Deal You Can't Afford to Miss!
Right now we're making such liberal trade-in allowances that you just can't afford to pass up the greatest opportunity you ever had to become a fine-car owner. Come in and get the facts.

Attendance at church Sunday quite an increase over last year. Now that family reunions and summer vacations are practically at an end we expect larger crowds through out the winter. Griffin and Mrs. Griffin were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall. Sunday they had luncheon guests of Mr. Mrs. Bill Bishop. The people of Scallorn are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Burk for the beautiful gift they contributed for baptistry at the Scallorn Mills County annual association will meet with the Scallorn church Sept. 7th for an all day meeting. We will be expecting a good attendance from the different churches throughout the entire county. Mr. and Mrs. Silas Burk met with quite a painful experience while driving over their ranch one evening last week. The steering gear broke and the pickup which they were driving ran into a tree, throwing Mr. Burk against the windshield which broke and left cuts and bruises about his face. Mrs. Burk was thrown against the steering wheel causing internal injuries of her chest, shoulder and back. They went to Lampasas hospital where they received treatment. John Kuykendall is known by his friends as a regular fisher-

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Matthew 5:43-48; 18:21-35; Ephesians 4:25-5:2; I John 4:7-21.

Jesus said "Ye have heard it said thou shalt love thy neighbor and hate thine enemy, but I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you."

Peter came to Christ and asked Him how many times should he forgive a brother who had sinned against him—seven times seven? But the Lord said, "I say not unto thee, until seven times seven; but until seventy times seven."

"Wherefore," Paul writes to the Ephesians, "putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor; for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not; let not the sun go down upon your wrath."—Ephesians 4:25-26.

"Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given Himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God."—Ephesians 5:1-2.

Padre Lopez Map Tells Of Buried Treasure On Dry Pond Near Gwaite

(Continued from Last Week) Kirkpatrick basked in the limelight long enough to promote the services of several local men from Goldthwaite and Mullin while another band of treasure hunters from Oklahoma appeared. They attempted to chisel into the Doctor's treasure hunt and an argument developed over whether the sun was rising or setting upon the copper plates. When both factions carried their shooting irons to the site of the current diggings about the demolished altar for a showdown battle the law from Goldthwaite stepped in and sent the Oklahomians back home. Meanwhile Holmes and Shultz, remembering the copper spike in the nearby bee tree and the Mexican's story, volunteered a scraper to uncover the tree's roots. In them they found the duplicate copper spike, pointing southwest and with 72 engraved upon its head. When they paced off this distance in varas they discovered a buried copper triangular plate with an arrow engraved upon it, pointing back uphill toward Dry Pond, together with a distance. Accurate measurements were impossible through the thick shiner brush so a surveyor was hired to run the lines while all hands fell to work clearing a pathway. At the designated point, about halfway up the hill, a rectangular copper plate was found buried which extended the surveyed line to the foot of a large elm tree at the edge of Dry Pond. Here Bob Urbach, whose credit was really financing Dr. Kirkpatrick, himself dug up the first copper box. Lopez' gold crucifix and rosaries were still in it. Upon the lid was engraved a group of loaded pack mules, the name, Padre Lopez, and the number, 1762. Entirely overlooked and crumbled into moldered remains about a quarter inch thick in the box's bottom was a disintegrated hide map which might have showed the way to other treasures buried along the backtrail to New Mexico by Mendoza's soldiers. What Kirkpatrick's copper plates had to do with this was overlooked in the promoting Doctor's enthusiasm to attach them to the local topography which they didn't fit. Then he died suddenly in 1904 before he could uncover the uncounted millions upon the secret location he had in mind.

There the trail ended while legends of gold and silver continued to grow, sparked by the number mistakenly supposed to be the year 1762. This brought thoughts of the silver bullion from San Saba—a near century before that Presidio was established. The bullion-loaded mine which James Bowie saw upon the other side of the Llano River was added to the folktales. And all of them expanded themselves into the location of a banking mission holding millions in gold and silver. Yet Padre Lopez' leathern sacks of gold coin would probably be worth just about as much considering the price coin collectors pay nowadays. Then in 1932 "Dutch Hollenback" came to Roach Fox's house in Goldthwaite. He was a treasure hunter and he had a radio gadget to find metals with. He wanted to try Dry Pond. Fox took him up the hill north of town, and then "just foolin' around" with Hollenback's instrument he "got a buzz" over something. It turned out to be another copper box covered with location signs which couldn't be pinned down.

Weldon Hill Dies Monday Night: Funeral Services Are Held Wednesday

J. W. Johnston Family Has Reunion At Bastrop Park August 19 - 22

The descendants of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnston, pioneer residents of San Saba County, met for a reunion at the Bastrop State Park at Bastrop August 19 through August 22. Approximately seventy of the immediate family, relatives, and friends enjoyed recalling old times, swimming, baseball, and dancing. Mr. Johnston, known to many who knew him as Uncle Johnny, came to Texas as a young man from the North, arriving by stagecoach at Williams Ranch. He died in 1946. Mrs. Johnston was the daughter of early settlers of San Saba County, Mr. and Mrs. David Harris. She died in 1935. The only remaining member of the Harris family, Mrs. Janette Zumwalt of Spokane, Washington, was present. Others who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Collier, Mullin; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thanks A Million!

I want to sincerely thank everyone that voted for me or helped in any way to elect me your County Commissioner of Precinct No. 1. I cannot express in words my appreciation.

To my friends (and you are still my friends) that supported my worthy opponent in this race, I want you to know that I hold no ill will against anyone and I want the cooperation of everyone of you when I take over my job.

THANKS AGAIN,
O. H. SHAW

For the first time here was something definite—doubloons and escudos of gold located in a "fortified entrenchment". No one recognized that this simply meant the contents of the leathern moneybags shown upon the mules had been "put down" into either a natural or man-made cavern in the rocks and sealed over with the same crude lime mortar that had cemented the altar. To reach it the map said "orient oneself southeast 2500." The 1762, mistakenly thought to be a date, deducted from 2500, left 738, probably varas. Whatever other qualifications were made by the cabalistic symbols upon the box itself, at least on orientation to the north star or true north seemed called for—something which no compass course based upon magnetic north would agree with. The possibilities entirely escaped notice. So did the buried treasure. (Continued Next Week.)
