Local School Trustees Take Office, Board Re-organized For New Year

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Texas.—Atty. Gen.
John Ben Shepperd grabbed the spotlight with his announcement that he would not be a candidate for "any state office."
Although he had forewarned his friends of the impending decision, they were stunned at the announcement. Most expected him to run for re-election. Many had urged him to enter the race for governor.

In giving his decision, he outlined the many accomplishments of his office, including the house cleaning in Duval County;
the veterans block-land exposure; the exposure of fraudulent insurance companies; and the establishment of an effective system of co-ordinating law enforcement activities in Texas.

Shepperd intends to remain where he is until his term ends on Dec. 31. It has been reported that he would accept a business offer in Odessa.

His decision not to run for any state office was announced in a letter to Harry Kates, publisher of his hometown newspaper, the Gladewater Mirror.
Close friends of Shepperd say that the announcement does not remove him from the list of prospective entrants in the race for U. S. Senator, if and when Price Daniel resigns from the Senate.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE
An individual's right to express his opinions, within the bounds of libel, for or against any candidate for public office, or any public issue, will be tested in court by the Texas Press Association.

Under the new Texas Election Code, candidates themselves may publish any amount of advertising, limited only by their own personal finances, and contributions. But an individual is restricted to a $25 expenditure during the entire campaign.

On the average, that is approximately 30 words over the radio; a few seconds of TV time; and less than 20 inches of newspaper space. And it is below the minimum requirement for billboard advertising.

Hearings on the subject will be before the Court of Criminal Appeals.

LOWRY GETS PRISON TERM

Former Beaumont Mayor Leslie Lowry has been found guilty of perjury, in the organization of an insurance company, and sentenced to seven years in prison.

District Judge Charles O.
Betts pronounced the sentence.
Lowry, now a Kansas school teacher, was accused of making false statements in an affidavit filed five years ago in connection with organization of the now defunct Texas Fire Insurance Co. of Beaumont and Ennis.

debtedness, hiring of a principal for high school, written policies and hand books for students and parents and other items, the board hired J. W. Fisher of Brownwood as auditor of the 1955-56 school funds. Mr. Fisher audited the books for the term now in progress.

The board decided to continue meeting on the first Monday night of each month in to emphasize the fact that all public and everyone is invited to bring complaints to the

LAFF-A-DAY

"Take my word for it, Mister, you need a shine."

Inside WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

Washington's Young Senator | GOP May Name Hoover, Jr., Jackson Demo VP Possibility | If Nixon's Not Candidate

Special to Central Press Association

WASHINGTON—Senator Henry M. (Scoop) Jackson of Washington is a young Democrat now being discussed in high party circles as a possible vice presidential nominee.

Should that hard-hitting, 43-year-old, former prosecuting attorney create sensational headlines, he will, politicians reckon, be in a position to jockey for the nomination.

Adlai E. Stevenson, probable Democratic presidential nominee, is known to think well of Jackson. Other party strategists are said to feel that the personable, earnest Democrat from the Pacific coast would be an excellent balancing factor against Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Jackson and Nixon are the same age, but politically are poles apart, with the Democrat leaning to the liberal side on issues which have found Nixon following a conservative line.

President Eisenhower, the possibilities include the name of Herbert Hoover, Jr., the under secretary of state.

Aside from bearing the name of his former President father, the young Hoover has the unqualified support of his State department colleagues and has quietly won the respect and admiration of many on Capitol Hill.

It is argued that Hoover would be the ideal vice presidential nominee to win approval of the Republican right wing—and also to take over some of the social and diplomatic functions which Mr. Eisenhower has said he must forego if re-elected.

HEALTH ISSUE—Political veterans say, meanwhile, that the President's health will be a key issue in the forthcoming campaign despite GOP warnings that it might "boomerang" against the Democrats.

You can look, they say, for increasing Democratic attacks stressing the theme that Ike is running as a "part-time" President and the White House is a job for a healthy, vigorous man.

Democrats put little stock in Republican National Chairman Leonard Hall's boomerang theory. They say that Hall's comparison of Ike's case with that of the late President Roosevelt is baseless. These Democrats note that Ike himself has injected the issue of health into talks to the public while FDR never mentioned the subject publicly despite his obvious physical handicap.

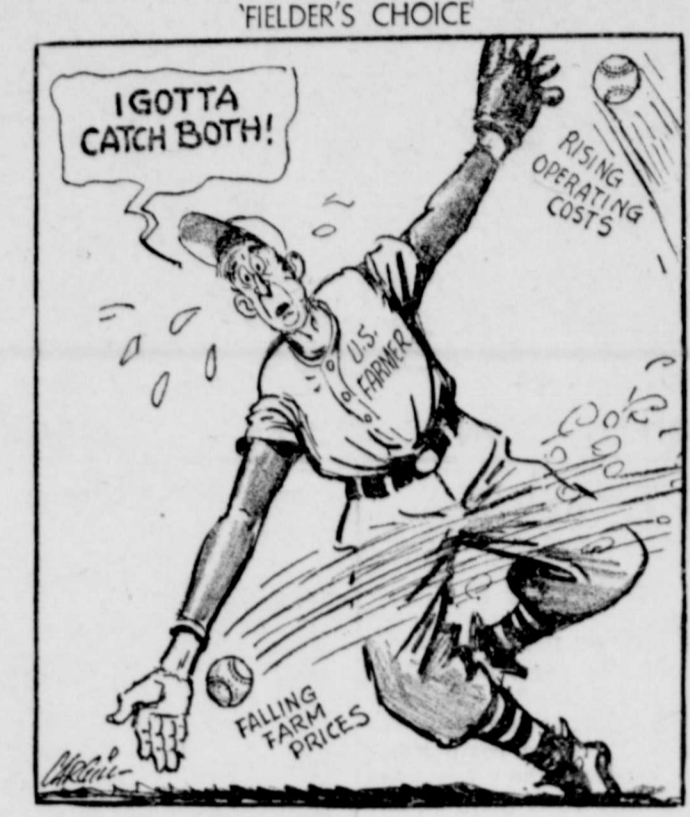

Many Democrats, mainly National Chairman Paul Butler, are convinced that they can win votes away from Mr. Eisenhower by stressing that his health makes him a risk in the White House, and they will push this issue in the campaign.

EASTLAND ISSUE—Republican strategists are expected to seize on the elevation of Senator James Eastland (D), Mississippi, to chairmanship of the Senate judiciary committee as a potent political issue. Eastland, who gained the post through seniority upon the death of Senator Harley Kilgore of West Virginia, is an outspoken foe of racial integration in the schools.

His chairmanship gives Eastland power of confirming all federal judgeships nominees and the latter, particularly judges, will play key roles in deciding whether southern localities are making progress toward ending segregation.

As head of the judiciary committee, Eastland is in a position to block confirmation of any judges who might not share his anti-integration views.

GOP strategy will focus on the fact that if the Republicans control the Senate, Eastland will no longer be chairman of the powerful group. Republican leaders feel this will constitute a strong political issue in northern states where close Senate races are anticipated.

WHEN THE OLD BIRD WAS YOUNGER

10 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from the Eagle files of April 12, 1946)

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Jackson Crawford, Route 1, Caradan, were selected as the "Golden Couple of the Week" and were honored at 3 p.m. last Sunday on a radio broadcast over WBAP-WFAA and the Texas Quality Network.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ritchie received a message Wednesday morning that their son, Aubrey Ritchie, had passed away at his home in Claypool, Arizona.

A birthday dinner was given for Mrs. M. E. Archer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hamilton by her children, who served a bountiful dinner and and last, but not least, the beautiful cake with a number of tiny candles.

New Arrival—Announcing the arrival of Harlan Byron, April 4, at the Memorial Hospital, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Jernigan.

Our little city of Goldthwaite, Texas, was greatly honored this week when the Goldthwaite Garden Club was hostess to the Annual Spring District Convention of the Texas Council of Garden Clubs District 5, in the Goldthwaite Methodist Church all day Wednesday.

Delegates from the thirty counties of District 5 were here for that day for the convention.

John W. Roberts the first of this week moved from his fine stock farm west of town to his home here in Goldthwaite next to the Goldthwaite Inn, where he will make his home.

25 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from the Eagle files of April 10, 1931)

The Lions Club members and their wives enjoyed a banquet at the Goldthwaite Inn Monday night, and it was indeed one of the most delightful entertainment of the kind ever planned for the club.

A committee was appointed to formulate plans for the beautification of home yards in the city and a decision was reached to offer three prizes: First, $10.00, for the best kept flower ward and premises; second, $5.00 for second best, and third, $2.50, for the prettiest porch box.

The scholastic census for the Goldthwaite district shows a decrease of 28, unless some have been overlooked and are reported to the enumerator, Mrs. Bowman or F. P. Bowman's office in the next few days. The total is 436, as against 464 for last year.

Hon. Phil H. Clements, door-keeper for the House of Representatives at Austin, spent Sunday in Goldthwaite with relatives.

Mrs. Schweining, mother of Mrs. Henry Martin, will celebrate her birthday today. A number of her children and grandchildren have already arrived to be with her on this occasion and others are expected today.

District Clerk John S. Chesser has been in Brownwood a part of this week serving as a witness in court.

Mrs. C. G. Featherston and daughter spent Tuesday with Mrs. Hugh Moreland and Mrs. Henry Featherston.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Miss Mable Frances Fowler, daughter of Dr. W. W. Fowler, and Mr. Loran I. Gram, which was solemnized March 26 in Dallas. The bride spent her childhood in this city and is well remembered by many friends.

I. O. Harvey, rural mail carrier on Route 1 out of Goldthwaite, has moved with his family to the O. A. Carothers ranch at Cedar Knob.

50 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from Eagle files of April 14, 1906)

Mrs. Luvena Fulton died at the residence of her son, J. C. Fulton, at Center City Sunday afternoon about 5:00 o'clock after an illness of six weeks. Mrs. Fulton was 76 years of age and had been a resident of that community for thirty years.

Garrett Morgan, the young son of Mr. W. H. Morgan of this city, had a narrow escape from being killed last Sunday afternoon. He and some other boys caught onto a freight train that had stopped at the water tank and intended to ride to the top of the grade near the reunion grounds and then jump off, but young Morgan remained on the train too long and it had gained considerable momentum on the down grade before he attempted to jump. He was thrown to the ground with

VIC'S . . . SOLILOQUY

Mrs. Etta Keel writes from San Antonio: "I was very ill in the hospital from an accident when my subscription expired, and of course, I found that my paper has been coming regularly. Although I have been away from Goldthwaite so long that I know very few people there any more I am sending a check to have the Eagle continue for another year. To Ruth and Abbie Ervin, I want you to know that I remember you with sincere best wishes."

"Fessor" G. H. Frizzelle had a birthday celebration not too long ago and one of the many expressions of good will and happy birthday wishes coming to him during his 91st birthday anniversary season was a letter from his congressman, O. C. Fisher.

Congressman Fisher wrote to him as follows: "I have just read in the Goldthwaite paper of the celebration of your 91st birthday anniversary, and would like to extend to you my congratulations and best wishes. Your life has been intertwined with, and bound up in, the progress and happiness of the people among whom you have lived. For your service and sacrifices the younger generations owe you an everlasting debt of gratitude. With my personal regards and best wishes."

A LOOK BACKWARD

History is always interesting—and sometimes it makes sad reading. Take, for instance, the history of the individual income tax.

In 1929, the tax on a $2,000 income was $2—and for a married person with two children and a $10,000 income it was a mere $40. Now the tax begins at 20 per cent, on the lowest taxable income levels. From there it goes swiftly up the ladder, reaching 91 per cent at the top. It's no wonder that people still talk, wistfully and nostalgically, of the good old days. Who dares to predict what taxes will be 25 years hence, with government functions being expanded like the proverbial green bay tree?

CHILD TRAFFIC VICTIMS

The Texas Safety Association

great force and was unconscious for sometime. Mrs. Fred Peck and children have returned to their home at Sherman after a visit to relatives here and in Big Valley, Miss Sibbie Nelson accompanied them home for a visit.

Mrs. Carrie Whitaker has rented the Mountain Cottage to Mrs. J. W. Kelly of Brownwood, sister of the Eagle editor, and will give possession May 1. Work was begun Monday morning on an addition to the house and Mrs. Kelly will continue the high class boarding house.

W. C. Kirby of this city has in his possession a rare and valuable coin that was dug up in the Senterfitt neighborhood about 12 years ago. It is of Mexican coinage and bears the date 1009. Its face value is about 6 1/4 cents, but its age makes it much more valuable. Leon Harris made a visit to Lampasas the first of the week.

announces that this month in rural and urban communities, both lay and official, will unite in a mass attack on the problem of the appalling number of young people who die after day are killed and injured in traffic accidents.

In 1954, according to the National Safety Council, 1,850 child pedestrians under 15 years of age were killed and 70,000 injured by motor-vehicles on our streets and highways.

Out of 100 of these child accident victims, 19 were hit while crossing at intersections, 34 while crossing between intersections, 28 while walking or running from behind parked cars, and 13 while playing in a roadway. Other actions precipitating deaths and injuries to young people in traffic were getting off and on a street car or another non-motor-vehicle, hitching on to a vehicle, and walking in a roadway.

The Council's figures substantiate the fact that traffic accidents have in recent years become the No. 1 killer of school age children, taking precedence over such long-established killers as pneumonia and cancer.

The fight against this traffic "disease" is undeniably a serious problem, but it can be solved. It calls for a stepping up of the slow, patient, persistent assault upon the complexity of factors which, acting together, produce a traffic accident. One of the most difficult barriers to hurdle in this drive for greater traffic safety is that of public apathy—the failure of people to recognize that traffic safety is the mutual responsibility of all.

It is encouraging to know that some progress is being made in the accident prevention program in this country and that we are apparently on the right track. But we must not become complacent, for we have a long way to go before we can justifiably feel reassured that our children are safe from death and injury on our streets and highways.

The ultimate responsibility for the safety of our children in traffic lies with parents, schools and motorists. Parents and schools fulfill their duties by inculcating safe habits as a sixth sense in youngsters and if motorists learn to protect child life on streets, there is no doubt that in time we shall see this rampant killer brought under control.

Miss Hermina Agnes Pekar of Granger served as maid of honor and wore a tiered gown of yellow nylon net and lace over taffeta. Other attendants were: Mrs. Olon Lowrance of Floydada; Misses Jewell Melugin of Dallas, and Kathryn Caldwell and Mrs. Billy Collins of Austin. They all wore dresses identical to the maid of honor's in green.

Richard Jennings of Wichita, Kansas, attended the bride-groom as best man and groomsmen were: Olon Lowrance of Floydada; Billy Earl Gemm of Dallas and brothers of the bride, Robert Edwin and Grady Mar-ion Easley of Austin.

At the reception, held in the education building of the church, Miss Joyce Newton of New Orleans, La., registered the 400 guests. Mrs. Jack Hensley served the cake and Mrs. Tommy Nelligan ladled punch from a beautifully decorated table.

The young couple left immediately after the reception on a wedding trip to Mexico, New Mexico and Oklahoma before going to their home in Wichita, Kansas.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Basham was employed by the Defense Research Laboratory at the University of Texas. Her husband is employed by the Beechcraft Corporation at Wichita.

Mrs. Basham's mother, Mrs. Easley, will be remembered here as the former Vonnie Laughlin and is a sister of Fred Laughlin and Mrs. Lina McLean.

Out-of-town relatives attending the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laughlin and Mrs. Lina McLean of Goldthwaite, uncle and aunts of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. George Easley of Riverside, California, grandparents of the bride.

Mrs. Alva Dalton and her mother, Mrs. W. P. McCullough spent Sunday with their sister and daughter, Mrs. Albert Grumbles, Mr. Grumbles and son, Jack, at San Saba.

Clementine Wilmeth Briley Writes From Temporary Home In El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY
(Written For Last Week.)

Trees are getting a beautiful green even in El Paso. I've been busy getting up chrysanthemum plants, labeling them and putting them in boxes for Grace to take to her friends.

The daffodils, pansies, and Dutch iris at the front of the house are still a constant joy. And our three little pyracanthas are just as full of buds as they can be—a promise of plenty of red berries this fall.

We are still enjoying our new-found old friends—the Herbert Whites and the Clendenens. We had them come home with us from church Sunday night that we might have more time for visiting. Since Young Peoples' meeting at 5:30 and church at 6:30, we promised the boys we would have something to eat. We put the card table in the TV room for them, and the five of them seemed to have a jolly good time. The rest of us had a talkfest and supper, cafeteria style, in the living room.

A letter from Mrs. Edna Dwyer said Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cawyer would take advantage of the Easter holidays to bring her home March 29, and then go on out to Abilene to visit their daughter, Mrs. Harold Everett. Mrs. Blue Thompson had written her that the Griffin orchard still had fruit. There was no hint of the much-needed rain, but the April number of The Farm Journal says there will be plenty of rain for Central Texas in April and May, though June, July, and August are to be dry.

Billy got his name in the paper this week for flying his kite the highest in a kite flying contest at Clardy School.

Yesterday (Friday) letters came from my sister, Mrs. Grace Bateman of Fort Worth, and our cousin, Mrs. Bessie Briley Jennings of Garland. Each contained a clipping from the Dallas News telling of the death of our cousin, Mrs. Annie Wilmeth Cook of Dallas. She had been ill for a long time.

Sister Grace attended the funeral held Monday in the beautiful new building of the Skillman Avenue Church of Christ in Dallas. Interment was in Grove Hill Memorial Park, Dallas. She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Griffie Lewis of Shreveport; a son, Brice Wilmeth Cook of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. Mary Wilmeth of Los Angeles, widow of my half-brother, the late A. C. Wilmeth; and a brother, Brice Wilmeth, also of L. A.

GUESTS IN SIMS HOME

Mrs. Alma Hall of Ardmore, Oklahoma spent last week with her sister, Mrs. J. D. Sims. Other guests in Mrs. Sims home were her daughters, Mrs. Myrtle True of Big Spring and Mrs. Ima Wallace of Fort Stockton and her son, Rev. Kyle G. Sims of San Saba. They and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Littlepage attended funeral services for their sister and aunt, Mrs. S. A. Moore at Cottonwood on Tuesday.

Clyde and Cecil Locklear of Hot Springs, Ark., were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Locklear and their sister, Mrs. Cecil Williams, last week before leaving Hot Springs for the Eastern Racing Circuit for the summer and fall.

By LUCY MAY BURRUS

The Mills County 4-H "Share-The-Fun" Festival which was held last Saturday night at the Youth Center was a great success. I was very proud of the 4-H'ers of this county for doing such a fine job on such short notice. I helped judge the Brown County "Share-The-Fun" Festival the night before and ours was just as good if not a little better.

There were five acts of the Junior division, or those not eligible to go to the District Eliminations. Ann Hohertz of the Mullin 4-H Club blacked her face and gave us a spirited rendition of "Shortening Bread". A quintet from Star composed of Crystal Ann Miles, Rounda Nell Duncan, Margie Beth McCasland, Kathy Witty and Bettie Jo Sheldon sang, "Beneath the Old Olive Tree." Reta Gayle Pyburn sang "Make Love To Me," accompanied by Glenda Calder who also accompanied Ann Hohertz on "Shortening Bread." Johnnie Beth Elliott of the Goldthwaite 4-H Club sang "In The Garden" and the Star 4-H Club chorus sang a 4-H Club song.

The winners of this division were: 1st—Johnnie Beth Elliott, Goldthwaite 4-H; singing "In The Garden," and second—Reta Pyburn of Mullin, singing "Make Love To Me."

Four acts were eligible to go to district. Glenda Calder of Mullin played "I Hear You Knocking" on the piano. The Star 4-H girls presented a pantomime "The Naughty Lady of Shady Lane". Linda Jewell pushed a doll buggy down the street and the other Star 4-H'ers that were present were admirers of the "Naughty Lady." Tommie Sue Copeland and Lula Mae Hurst pantomimed "The Little Shoemaker," while the record was playing. Tommie Sue, you made a very handsome shoemaker, and Lula Mae, no wonder the shoemaker was so bewitched.

Jane Evans from Priddy presented "Flapper Daze." Now, I didn't live in the "Flapper" period, but I've seen pictures—and she was a typical flapper.

"The Little Shoe Maker" was chosen second place in this class and "Flapper Daze" was chosen first; and as first, the act to represent Mills County in the District eliminations at Tarleton College, Stephenville, on Saturday, April 14.

I want to again express my thanks and appreciation to the 4-H leaders who worked with their girls in presenting these acts and to Mrs. Harvey Hale and Mrs. Norman Duren, who judged for us and of course to the girls for participating. We also appreciate the folks who were interested enough to come and be the audience.

STORING WINTER WOOLENS

Before storing those winter woolens be sure they are clean. Perspiration weakens wool, grit cuts it, and spots attract moths.

Examine garments carefully and clean or wash as directed on the label.

Before washing, give special treatment to spots and stains. Also measure your knitted garments so they can be pulled back into shape after washing.

Guard against damage from clothes moths. Dry cleaning kills all forms at the time of treatment, but does not insure permanent protection. Garments placed in sealed paper bags immediately after cleaning will be protected indefinitely.

Moth-proof washable woolens when you launder them. Directions for doing this are given in the Extension leaflet 156, "Clothes moths." Get a copy today from my office.

Mrs. Bill Means and children of Odessa visited her grandmother, Mrs. W. P. McCullough, Mr. McCullough and her aunts, Mrs. Alva Dalton and Mrs. Joe B. Karnes and Mr. Karnes during the past weekend.

Mrs. S. A. Moore Is Buried Tuesday At Cottonwood

Funeral services for Mrs. S. A. Moore, 82, of Brady were held at the Wilkerson Funeral Home chapel in Brady at 10:00 o'clock Tuesday morning, April 3, and a second service was held in the Cottonwood Baptist Church at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in the Cottonwood Cemetery.

Mary Frances Toby Moore, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Toby, was born March 22, 1874, in Burnet County. She passed away in the Brady hospital, Sunday April 1, 1956. She was active in church work all her life and taught a Sunday School Class at the First Baptist Church in Brady until six months ago.

Survivors are two sons, Doris Moore, Brady and S. A. Moore Jr., Linderhurst, N. Y.; four daughters, Mrs. Katherine Tipton, Marysville, Tenn., Mrs. W.

L. Taylor, Brady, Mrs. O'Dell, Santa Maria, Cal., and Mrs. Mamie Terry, 18 grandchildren. Three granddaughters, Mrs. Alma Hall, Ardmore, Okla., Mrs. Lucy Sims, Goldthwaite and Mrs. Rose M. Corpus Christi.

MILLION DOLLAR COTTON SAVING
Texas cotton farmers can look forward to a million-dollar saving in ginning costs this year.

The Texas Department of Agriculture has revised pink bollworm regulations to eliminate sterilization of cotton seed during ginning operations. The new provision applies to seed moving to areas within the state.

Until now, some 928 gins in Texas have been required to treat seed with high temperatures. The heat killed any larvae inside the seed without damaging its growing qualities. The added cost of this service was passed to the farmers by the gins at approximately $1 per bale. Gins where this measure was in effect normally process about a million bales or more a year.

The new regulations eliminating this treatment resulted from findings of a three-year research project by Texas and United States Departments of Agriculture pest control men. Modern methods of some 35 gins were studied during this period. Goal of the survey was to determine whether normal ginning operations killed enough larvae in the seed without the added burden of sterilization. Studies of cotton processed in the gins showed the lowest rate of kill to be 89.5 per cent. The highest was 100 per cent.

These figures indicated that the kill ratio of pink bollworm larvae was effective enough to reduce the threat of destruction in cotton fields. As added proof, all but five gins killed 97 per cent or more of the insects and 18, or half the gins, registered complete kills.

Gin operators will find the new regulations to their advantage also. Sterilization involved costly equipment and was time-consuming. U. S. Department of Agriculture officials are in complete agreement with the regulation change in Texas. A revision of federal regulations will follow later in the season.

C. T. Johnson Admits $1,200.00
Unreported In Campaign Expenses

Charges by Russell W. Bryant, president of the Texas Press Association, that C. T. Johnson, defeated 1954 candidate of Lt. Governor, was ineligible to have his name on the election ballot, brought a quick reply from Johnson.

In answering Bryant's charges that he had violated the election law by reporting only $125 in travel expenses for the entire 1954 campaign, Johnson stated that actually he had spent $1,200.00 more than reported, but that he only had to report expenditures that exceeded $10.

To this Bryant replied: "With that statement C. T. Johnson just convicted himself. Apparently we are more familiar with the Texas Election Code than C. T. Johnson. Section 244 (e) says that a candidate is not required to list the names and addresses of persons with whom he spends less than $10, but this does not relieve him of the responsibility of reporting the expenditure itself. "We appreciate the fact that C. T. Johnson has plead guilty to the charges that I made against him in Tyler, in which I stated that he had not reported all his campaign expenses."

Speaking before the North and East Texas Press Association in Tyler, on Friday, Bryant said that in a deposition taken in 126th District Court at Austin on Oct. 1, 1955, Johnson testified under oath that he spent only $125—"no more and no less"—in traveling the length and breadth of Texas while campaigning for Lt. Governor. Bryant supported his contention with a copy of the deposition in which these facts were presented.

Under Texas' election laws any candidate filing a false campaign expense statement is ineligible to have his name placed on the ballot at any subsequent election.

FHA Authorized To Make Emergency Loans To Farmers And Stockmen

The Farmers Home Administration is authorized to make emergency loans to eligible farmers and stockmen in Mills County who because of losses suffered from the drought or local economic conditions need credit to continue their normal operations according to a statement released today by Aston W. Cole, County FHA Supervisor.

Emergency loans for 1956 are primarily for farm and home operating expenses. This may include funds for feed, seed, fuel, machine repairs, insectiicides, and essential home operating expenses.

Security requirements are the best lien obtainable on livestock, farm machinery and equipment owned by the applicant at the time the loan is made and a first lien on crops growing or to be grown.

Interest rate on this type loan is three per cent per annum. Funds loaned for operating expenses are repayable within the crop year for which the funds are advanced depending on date farm and ranch income is received.

Refinancing with Emergency loan funds is not permitted. Before an Emergency loan is closed, the applicant will be required to obtain nondisturbance agreements from creditors holding liens on equipment essential to the farming operations to be financed with proceeds of the loan. Applicants obtaining loans to purchase feed or produce feed for livestock being fed for market will be required to obtain an agreement for division of income to be received from the livestock and/or livestock products.

County FHA Committeemen in each county are responsible for certifying eligibility of applicants. A determination must be made that the applicant is unable to obtain from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources the credit necessary for continuing his farming operations; and the applicant has the necessary experience and ability and will honestly endeavor to carry out the undertakings and obligations required of him under the loan.

Further details on this and other loan programs available through the Farmers Home Administration may be received by contacting the Unit headquarters PHA office servicing Lampasas, Mills, and Burnet counties located in the Briggs Building, Lampasas, Texas. Mills County farmers and stockmen may contact the Supervisor at the FHA sub-office located in the courthouse, Goldthwaite, on Tuesday morning of each week.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

By CHARLES HAENSCH

The week of May 6-12 is Soil Conservation District Week in Texas. It begins on Soil Stewardship Sunday, May 6, when many churches will hold special services to recall man's duty to the land. During the rest of the week, most SCDs will present special tours, programs and field days to publicize District accomplishments and objectives.

Texas has 172 soil conservation districts which embrace 96 per cent of the land area of Texas. These districts represent the greatest force—and the first organized, locally controlled force—for the conservation of soil, water plants and wildlife.

Each soil conservation district was organized only after landowners of the area voted to have such a district. SCDs are legal subdivisions of state government, comparable to counties and school districts, but they have no tax voting power. Each is governed by a board of five supervisors who must be landowners themselves and who are elected by farmers and ranchers in the district.

A soil conservation district helps its cooperating farmers and ranchers plan and apply conservation measures on their land. Following a master plan which was carefully prepared by farmer and rancher committees, each District works toward the goal of complete conservation for all the land in the District. Supervisors function as a coordinating body to stimulate and guide the efforts of local groups and individuals toward achievement of the District goal. Technical assistance is provided by various agencies, such as Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service, Farm Home Administration and Vocational Agriculture teachers.

Any landowner can become a SCD cooperator by applying to the board of supervisors. Becoming a cooperator does not involve any financial obligation. Texas SCDs have now 172,000 farmer and rancher cooperators, and the figure grows by 15,000 each year. Last year these cooperators cover-cropped 1,180,000 acres and stubble-mulched 256,000 acres of Texas land. They controlled brush on 1,322,000 acres and had 6,963,000 acres under deferred grazing. They built 10,700 miles of terraces, 7,540 miles of waterways, built over 10,000 pounds

Clementine Wilmeth Briley Writes Temporary Home In El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

I heard over the radio today (Thursday) that it was raining in Big Spring, San Angelo, and Abilene. Of course I'm wondering, "could it be raining at home?"

The Herbert Whites said they heard from their children at San Angelo last week and it was still dusty there. Their voices had a kind of homesick note. "But," they said, "if it is still dry there, we just as well stay on here and help daughter Bernice a while longer." Probably we had better make them that promised visit soon, for if they hear of rain at San Angelo they might be off like a jug handle.

Mrs. Mordant Grady called me Wednesday to tell me that Miss Maggie Grady and her mother of Brownwood are at their home. They arrived in El Paso Sunday night by train. Mother Grady is 90. She stood the trip fine. And they are so glad to have her here. Mrs. Grady says we are going to have a Brown-Mills County party while they are here.

I noticed in the Goldthwaite Eagle that Lathon Jernigan, Mills County's talented young musician, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan and grandson of Luther Jernigan, sang in the 65-voice SMU Choral Union which appeared with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra March 12-13. Lathon is a freshman music major at SMU. And we are proud of him!

Freedom Of Speech Is Basis Of TPA Election Code Suit

WACO, Tex. (Spec.)—Any law which places a dollar and cents limit on a man's right to express his opinions, violates the Federal and State Constitutions. That is the summation of the remarks made here by Russell W. Bryant, president of the Texas Press Association, relative to the Texas Election Code.

Bryant was in Waco for the habeas corpus hearing of Vernon T. Sanford, who seeks an immediate hearing by the court of criminal appeals on the constitutionality of a law under which he was indicted by a McLennan County grand jury in February.

Sanford was charged with spending a total of $76 for three ads in Waco newspapers in 1954 in behalf of Ben Ramsey, candidate for re-election as Lt.

Governor of Texas. "Neither TPA nor Vern Sanford has violated any phase of the Texas Election Law," Bryant stated. "This case was politically inspired and is politically motivated. We intend to take it out of the realm of politics. That is the prime purpose of this hearing today."

Bryant contended that freedom of speech and freedom to print are one and the same. . . . It is a matter of an individual's rights.

"We feel that any law which says a newspaper, or a handbill printer, or a radio station, or a TV station, can accept only $25 worth of advertising from any individual, is unconstitutional. Any law which says a man can speak $25 worth—and no more—for or against any candidate, or proposition to be voted upon at any election — is an abridgement of his right of freedom of speech. We intend to fight to preserve man's right to this freedom of expression." Bryant concluded.

Monday in Austin the court of Criminal Appeals issued a writ of habeas corpus upon the application of Sanford, which application has as its purpose proceedings to test the constitutionality of the advertising restrictions in the Texas Election Code.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Woodard of Gatesville visited his mother, Mrs. Pauline Woodard, and other relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic E. Koleber spent the weekend in Denton with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Massey.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Womack spent the weekend in Colman and Bronte.

FHA Authorized To Make Emergency Loans To Farmers And Stockmen

The Farmers Home Administration is authorized to make emergency loans to eligible farmers and stockmen in Mills County who because of losses suffered from the drought or local economic conditions need credit to continue their normal operations according to a statement released today by Aston W. Cole, County FHA Supervisor.

Emergency loans for 1956 are primarily for farm and home operating expenses. This may include funds for feed, seed, fuel, machine repairs, insectiicides, and essential home operating expenses.

Security requirements are the best lien obtainable on livestock, farm machinery and equipment owned by the applicant at the time the loan is made and a first lien on crops growing or to be grown.

Interest rate on this type loan is three per cent per annum. Funds loaned for operating expenses are repayable within the crop year for which the funds are advanced depending on date farm and ranch income is received.

Refinancing with Emergency loan funds is not permitted. Before an Emergency loan is closed, the applicant will be required to obtain nondisturbance agreements from creditors holding liens on equipment essential to the farming operations to be financed with proceeds of the loan. Applicants obtaining loans to purchase feed or produce feed for livestock being fed for market will be required to obtain an agreement for division of income to be received from the livestock and/or livestock products.

County FHA Committees in each county are responsible for certifying eligibility of applicants. A determination must be made that the applicant is unable to obtain from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources the credit necessary for continuing his farming operations; and the applicant has the necessary experience and ability and will honestly endeavor to carry out the undertakings and obligations required of him under the loan.

Further details on this and other loan programs available through the Farmers Home Administration may be received by contacting the Unit Headquarters FHA office servicing Lampasas, Mills, and Burnet counties located in the Briggs Building, Lampasas, Texas. Mills County farmers and stockmen may contact the Supervisor at the FHA sub-office located in the courthouse, Goldthwaite, on Tuesday morning of each week.

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

By CHARLES HAENISCH

The week of May 6-12 is Soil Conservation District Week in Texas. It begins on Soil Stewardship Sunday, May 6, when many churches will hold special services to recall man's duty to the land. During the rest of the week, most SCDs will present special tours, programs and field days to publicize District accomplishments and objectives.

Texas has 172 soil conservation districts which embrace 96 per cent of the land area of Texas. These districts represent the greatest force—and the first organized, locally controlled force—for the conservation of soil, water, plants and wildlife.

Each soil conservation district was organized only after landowners of the area voted to have such a district. SCDs are legal subdivisions of state government, comparable to counties and school districts, but they have no tax voting power. Each is governed by a board of five supervisors who must be landowners themselves and who are elected by farmers and ranchers in the district.

A soil conservation district helps its cooperating farmers and ranchers plan and apply conservation measures on their land. Following a master plan which was carefully prepared by farmer and rancher committees, each District works toward the goal of complete conservation for all the land in the District. Supervisors function as a coordinating body to stimulate and guide the efforts of local groups and individuals toward achievement of the District goal. Technical assistance is provided by various agencies, such as Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service, Farm Home Administration and Vocational Agriculture teachers.

Any landowner can become a SCD cooperator by applying to the board of supervisors. Becoming a cooperator does not involve any financial obligation. Texas SCDs have now 172,000 farmer and rancher cooperators, and the figure grows by 15,000 each year. Last year these cooperators cover-cropped 1,180,000 acres and stubble-mulched 256,000 acres of Texas land. They controlled brush on 1,322,000 acres and had 6,963,000 acres under deferred grazing. They built 10,700 miles of terraces, 7,540 miles of waterways, built over 10,000 pounds

Wilmeth Briley Writes Temporary Home In El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

It was quite a day in El Paso. There were dark grey clouds, the wind blew violently, it was cold. Dust filled the air. It rained a little, sleeted for two, snowed a flake or two, and before the day was over a few golden sun rays were seen. We had sunshine but it's been cold the week.

Rock, my best baby-sitter, said her mother-in-law Sunday from her home in El Paso. She said the snow lay up to the eaves of the house. So maybe weather we had wasn't all that bad. But wouldn't it be nice to have moisture!

Freedom Of Speech Is Basis Of TPA Election Code Suit

"Neither TPA nor Vern Sanford has violated any phase of the Texas Election Law," Bryant stated. "This case was politically inspired and is politically motivated. We intend to take it out of the realm of politics. That is the prime purpose of this hearing today."

Bryant contended that freedom of speech and freedom to print are one and the same. . . . It is a matter of an individual's rights.

"We feel that any law which says a newspaper, or a handbill printer, or a radio station, or a TV station, can accept only $25 worth of advertising from any individual, is unconstitutional. Any law which says a man can speak $25 worth—and no more—for or against any candidate, or proposition to be voted upon at any election — is an abridgement of his right of freedom of speech. We intend to fight to preserve man's right to this freedom of expression." Bryant concluded.

Monday in Austin the court of Criminal Appeals issued a writ of habeas corpus upon the application of Sanford, which application has as its purpose proceedings to test the constitutionality of the advertising restrictions in the Texas Election Code.

Social Security News For Farmers

Many farmers, when filing their 1955 income and self-employment tax returns, found that their records were incomplete or inadequate for filing a complete and accurate account of their income and expenses.

James B. Marley, manager of the Austin social security office, pointed out recently that because of this, it is doubly important for the farmer to begin now to keep a complete record of all his income and expenses. Farm record books are available at the County Agent's office and at many banks. Farmers who do not yet keep a systematic record of their finances are urged to get one of these record books and to maintain it on a daily basis.

Marley emphasized that by keeping an up-to-date and accurate record of income and expenses, the farmer will be better able to file a correct return and to prove his should his return be questioned by either the Internal Revenue Service or the Social Security Administration.

it's twice as nice
when you have both
Remember the old-fashioned ice box — the huge blocks of ice required to keep it cold — the overflowing drip pan to be emptied every day? Looking back, you wonder how you ever got along without an electric refrigerator.
Just as the refrigerator preserves food for a short time, the home freezer provides longer storage at lower temperatures. And with both in your kitchen, how much easier is the job of meal planning and preparation!
Both refrigerators and freezers are indispensable for good food preservation. Each supplements the other. When you have both, it's twice as nice!
Plan today to have double-convenience with both refrigerator AND freezer. Your appliance dealer will be happy to show you the beautiful new models.

Reduction In Automobile Insurance Rates Is Announced By Commission

AUSTIN — (Spec.) — Residents of smaller cities and towns and rural areas, as well as farmers and ranchers, grabbed a larger slice of the automobile rate reductions announced this week by the Board of Insurance Commissioners than did their city cousins, Morris Brownlee of Houston, a member of the Board, said.

The new rates estimated to save Texas drivers a grand total of $9,500,000 will apply to policies effective on and after May 1st.

Attention was called to the fact that reduced insurance losses had made possible reductions totaling $21,000,000 in automobile rates in the past two years, and commissioner Brownlee commented that the reductions announced this week indicated that rural drivers contributed greatly toward making these reductions possible.

All residents of 246 of the 254 counties, excluding 11 larger cities (Arlene, Amarillo, Austin, Denison, Laredo, Lubbock, San Angelo, Sherman, Texarkana, Waco and Wichita Falls) will secure the following reductions:

Private passenger collision rates 9.8%; private passenger bodily injury and property damage 6.4%; classes 3, 4, and 5, commercial vehicles bodily injury and property damage 2%; farm and ranch vehicles with a registered gross weight not exceeding 6,000 pounds bodily injury and property damage 10%; class 6 commercial bodily injury and property damage 4%.

The 11 cities previously named, along with the counties of Harris, Galveston, Jefferson, Nueces, Bexar, El Paso, Dallas and Tarrant will secure generally lesser reductions and some increases, particularly in Harris County, where automobile liability increases will range from 1.2% to 25%.

The comprehensive coverage (Which covers any damage to an automobile except damage as a result of collision or upset) will be reduced 9% for the counties in the central portion of the state and 4% for the southern part of the state. However, the Panhandle and counties in the northwestern section of the state will face a 25% increase in this coverage, due primarily to windstorm and hail losses prevalent in that area.

Commissioner Brownlee called attention to the fact that the reductions prescribed for the rural areas were in addition to the 20% discount already applicable to bodily injury and property damage and collision coverage on private passenger automobiles owned by farmers and ranchers and the 25% discount allowed for farm and ranch commercial vehicles with a registered gross weight not exceeding 6,000 pounds.

GOVERNOR SETS TEXAS CANCER CONTROL MONTH—Governor Allan Shivers is shown above as he signed a strongly worded proclamation this week declaring April as Cancer Control Month in Texas, urging all citizens to support the educational fundraising crusade of the American Cancer Society. With the Governor are Joe Polichino (center), 1956 ACS crusade chairman for Texas, and Maxwell T. Dalby (right), crusade director for the Society's Texas Division. Governor Shivers designated April 17 as Texas Cancer Control Day—a day on which thousands of ACS volunteers will make a concerted statewide effort to tell all Texas citizens lifesaving facts about cancer.

garaging were reduced 25% and 34% respectively; fire and theft and collision rates for commercial vehicles operating not more than 150 miles from the place of principal garaging were reduced 20.1% and 12.8% respectively; fire and theft rates for commercial vehicles operating regularly or frequently beyond a 150 mile radius of the place of principal garaging were reduced 11.5% and the collision coverages for such vehicles were increased 2.3%. These changes apply in all sections of the state.

Commissioner Brownlee pointed out that the private passenger changes applied to all classes of drivers and that the 10% discount allowed for male and female drivers under 25 years of age who complete the driver education course approved by the State Department of Education was continued without change. He said that statistics were not yet available to indicate whether this discount should be higher or lower.

GAS COMPANY WINS

Companies which paid gas gathering tax "protest" will get their back.

In the first test case the Third Court of Civil Appeals held that Tennessee Transmission Co. is entitled to a refund of the $1,000,000 paid in taxes. Interest paid of $249,576 was not granted.

Since the gas gathering was declared unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court state has returned more than 25 million dollars in taxes "under protest." Last year Texas legislature granted remission for about 30 companies which paid without protest for recovery.
