'Mistake' Election Proves Costly Here

Mills County Casts 349 Votes

Costing Taxpayers $1.75 Per Vote

The special "Mistake" amendment election which was held Tuesday of last week, November 13, proved quite costly to Mills County taxpayers with 349 votes being cast and costing the county $611.13.

This picture of election costs is reflected from records compiled after the special election in which only a token vote was cast costing the taxpayers an average of $1.75 per vote in all boxes combined, including the absentee votes.

The records show that the least cost per vote in any one box is in Goldthwaite Box 19 where 67 votes were cast costing 53 cents per vote.

Highest priced votes in this special election were in voting box 16, Ridge, where six votes were cast, costing $5.58 each.

These figures which include all expenses involved such as help and election supplies are broken down to the penny, although they are not computed through the fraction of pennies.

Following is a table of voting boxes, number of votes cast in each box, cost of holding election in each box and average cost per vote cast in each box.

Mills County May Have To Drop Out Of Red Cross Blood Program

Whether Mills County will continue to participate in the Regional Red Cross Blood Program was the main topic of discussion as members of the local Red Cross Chapter met in a called session last Thursday afternoon in the commissioners courtroom.

Harold Yarborough, chapter chairman, presided at the meeting while he and blood program chairman, Norman Duren, brought the group up to date on the problems facing the county chapter with respect to the blood program.

The cost for Mills County to continue in the program has been increased for the next year from $830.00 to $1,079.82. Bloodwise the quota based on a percentage of population is 180 pints of blood for this fiscal year.

The response to the bloodmobile visits here has been light and from all indications it will be a major problem for the county to meet the quota.

Last year Mills County citizens donated 166 pints of blood to the program while patients from this county received 46 pints of blood. So far this fiscal year 28 pints of blood have been donated to the program while patients from this county have received 14 pints of blood.

Those attending the meeting expressed concern about the matter and instructed the chairman to notify the Regional Red Cross office that Mills County Chapter will have to drop out of the program unless some revisions can be made lowering the requirements as set up at present.

Another meeting will be called at a later date when final action will be taken regarding the matter.

Those attending the Thursday meeting were: Harold Yarborough, Ray Duren, Vic E. Koleber, Norman Duren, Dr. M. A. Childress, Mrs. Wm. G. Yarborough, Judge John L. Patterson, Gerald C. Head and Walter A. Bryant.

new telephone building being constructed here.

County Judges To Handle Certificates On Freight Reduction

Walter T. McKay, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, has been advised by the Secretary of Agriculture and the Governor of Texas of revised routines in the execution of freight rate certificates entitling eligible applicants to reduced freight rates under Interstate Commerce Commission Drought Orders.

These orders provide in part that the class of persons entitled to reduced rates are those designated as being in distress and in need of relief by the United States Department of Agriculture or by such State agents as designated by the Department. The Secretary of Agriculture has authorized Governors of all drought stricken states to designate persons entitled to reduced freight rates. Effective November 15, 1956 Governor Shivers re-delegated to all county judges in designated drought counties in Texas the authority to execute certificates.

"Heretofore, Farmers Home Administration County Supervisors were authorized to execute certificates and only stockmen who were eligible for emergency feed could obtain the certificates. This revised authorization will extend the benefits of reduced freight rates to all stockmen in designated counties," McKay stated.

Mills County Judge John L. Patterson has been informed by Governor Allan Shivers of this change and is now in position to issue these certificates.

SOLILOQUY

Jimmy Leonhard, local post office employee, has a wish to make. If it were possible for someone to grant him a wish and have it come true, it would be: "I wish folks would stop being so big hearted when it comes to 'dumping' cats and dogs along the highway near our home."

The Leonhards live out on the main highway a few miles from town and as Jimmy puts it: "There is no telling how many stray or unwanted cats and dogs folks have let out of their car or truck, a short distance from our home since we have lived out here. And, of course, the first thing we know they are at our door looking for something to eat."

As little as folks may think about the matter it can create quite a problem. Stray cats and dogs must have food and when turned out on their own they will naturally look for it at the nearest place where someone lives.

In relating some of their experiences Jimmy told about one instance in particular. He noticed a nice, nearly new car stop along the road only a short distance from the house. One or two passengers got out for a moment. They got back in their car and started to drive off. As they passed the house they waved greetings to him as he was out in the front yard. He didn't know them and thought they were just friendly folks. He continued by saying: "Then not 20 minutes later here came some cats they had left along the road as they stopped."

Speaking about abandoned pets, the Dallas Morning News gave editorial space to the plea against releasing unwanted pets in rural areas a short while ago.

It stated: "These surplus animals often are hard put to forage for themselves, and they are much more likely to contract and spread rabies than are animals cared for by a family. Cats forced to go wild are seriously destructive of songbirds, quail and other game birds. Both they and the stray dogs become a nuisance to families living on farms or in small communities."

As Mr. Leonhard has found out, when you pass someone along the main highways and find they are waving at you, it doesn't always mean that they are doing so merely as a friendly gesture.

Take the case of Bro. Ray V. Mayfield's experience some place in South Texas some months ago. Really it happened some time before he moved away from here.

He was traveling to San Antonio and as he got near that great southern city which is advertised as a city of charm and hospitality he met two or three cars coming from the other direction with drivers who appeared to Ray to be extremely friendly. As they passed they waved real friendly like to him.

He said: "I thought to myself, my these folks must be friendly people down this way, they surely are extending the warmest greetings with their waving." He waved back to them and kept going. About another half a mile down the highway he was right in the middle of a highway patrol radar check station.

AN EXAMPLE TO REMEMBER

The first crop had been bountiful in the new, strange land; the perils of its wilderness, while present still, were no longer unknown. So the Pilgrims offered prayers of thanksgiving on the day of the feast—girded spiritually and materially against all dangers.

As we today follow, in effect, their example in the festive turkey, so should we be girded as they were that first Thanksgiving, against all who imperil us and our heritage of freedom.

It is from our Pilgrim Fathers' grateful prayers in the wilderness that our present Day of Thanksgiving derives. They set an example in word and deed which we well might remember at least once a year. Even before the Mayflower landed them at Plymouth they had written in their Compact: "We whose names are underwritten have undertaken, for the glory of God, to establish in Virginia the first colony for the advancement of the Christian faith . . ."

So glorious our heritage, so short our memories!

10 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from the files of the Eagle November 22, 1946)

One of the largest sales of goats to come off one ranch in Mills County in many years—if not the largest in all history—was made when W. P. McCullough sold off his ranch north of Goldthwaite, 2,750 head of goats to the Raegelein Provision Company of San Antonio. The deal was handled by the Company's buyer Joe Scheske, and was at satisfactory prices.

25 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from the Eagle files of November 20, 1931)

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Head celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the old home at Center City in the presence of many happy guests. The friends came in the afternoon and when an elaborate table was set they gathered around and gave a short program in honor of the bride and groom.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Walton at Lampasas was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday evening. Mr. Walton was out hunting, and Mrs. Walton was attending a picture show with friends at the time of the fire, and it was so far advanced when discovered that nothing could be saved.

Friends of Mrs. G. H. Frizzelle here received the sad news yesterday of the death of her mother, Mrs. W. M. Johnson of Weatherford. She was over 90 and very frail and had been confined to her bed the past several months.

A telegram to Rev. J. W. Kelly Monday brought the sad news of the passing of Rev. M. F. Daniel at his home in Victoria Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Brother Daniel was pastor of the local Methodist church a few years ago.

County Clerk Porter reports the issuance of marriage licenses since last report to the following: Arthur Hohertz and Miss Fredia Tiemann of Priddy; Alfred Tischer of Comanche and Miss Hillma Grelle of Priddy; Raymond Frizzell and Miss Jimmie Faye Webb of San Saba. Inside WASHINGTON

MARCH OF EVENTS

Red China Nonrecognition | U. S.-Chinese Negotiations

Washington—The refusal by the United States to recognize Communist China is becoming more and more "legitimized." The shooting down of an American Navy plane off the west coast provides the most recent example of this.

Since this government does not recognize the Chinese Red Army, who do, were asked to obtain information about the shooting, which they did.

However, while this diplomatic maneuvering was going on, U. S. and Red China were continuing negotiations in Geneva, Switzerland. American emissaries have been talking Communist Chinese representatives for than a year over U. S.-Chinese relations.

Prior to that, we negotiated directly with Red Chinese at Panmonjorn in settling the rear war. However, officially, the U. S. government won't admit the existence of the Communist Chinese regime—not diplomatically, at least.

European children at the American Medical Association meeting. The furor over the results led to a special White House conference called by President Eisenhower to focus attention to the importance of keeping American youth physically fit.

What is not very widely known is that the results of Dr. B. tests showed that school-bus-riding, TV-watching U. S. youth is lower physically than their hiking European brothers.

SENATE SLEUTHS—Senate investigators plan to focus a spotlight on racketeers who may have been collecting large money on military uniform contracts grabbed from legitimate contractors. Top name in the inquiry so far is Johnny Dio, New gangland figure indicated as the "mastermind" in the acid test of labor columnist Victor Riesel.

Since Dio, whose real name is Dioguardi, already has been enough of his own, he may be spared further questioning by investigations subcommittee headed by Senator John L. McClellan (D), Arkansas.

Dio was quizzed by the group last spring. It was not known whether his own activities were under investigation or whether was being questioned about underworld friends.

However, the Senate group recently seized records of a Teamsters Union local in which the name of "Johnny Dio" appears. They are trying to see whether Dio is connected with union now and, if so, how.

WARREN'S TRIP—State department officials are admitting though privately—unhappy about one particular aspect of Justice Earl Warren's recent visit to India. What upsets them is the timing of the visit. Warren was receiving only a comparatively lukewarm reception from Indian officials and people until he made a speech pointing out that it was Warren's under him that the Supreme Court outlawed segregation in U. S. public schools.

From then on, however, the chief justice was up, then treated royally by a people whose friendship for the United States has always seemed to depend on how well minorities are treated.

However, while Warren was talking in India, the school opened in the U. S. and anti-integration demonstrations in several states broke out. These incidents were headlined in the Indian papers and Warren's stock dropped sharply in India.

State department officials admit they should have realized this was this danger and that Warren's visit should have been timed it would not have coincided with the new U. S. school term.

Juicy Canned Cherries
Make A Pie And Salad

ALICE DENHOFF

TO our way of thinking, we make use of canned, red cherries, or even cherry pie, in enough. Too many of us apt to serve cherry pie only Washington's Birthday, which all very right and proper. But there's no reason why we shouldn't serve it frequently and use of the bumper supply canned, red sour pitted cherries all year round.

For instance, there's an unusual cherry pie that is particularly delicious. Make 1/2 c. juice from a (#303) can red sour pitted cherries, water-packed.

Super Color
Combine the juice, 1/2 tsp. red vegetable food coloring (for rich, deeper color), 1/2 c. sugar, 3 tsp. flour and 1/4 tsp. salt. Cook and thicken.

Add 2 tbsp. butter and pour cherries in an 8-in. pastry-lined pan.

Make twisted lattice top crust of fluted edge.
Bake at 450° F. 10 min., then at 375° F. 30 min.
This is a pie that even a beginner cook can make with ease.

A jellied fruit salad that sparkles like a jewel comes next. It is versatile, serving either as a salad, topped with mayonnaise, or as an excellent dessert after a hearty meal when something light is in order. Serve with whipped cream or plain for the calorie-counters.

To prepare salad, follow directions on pkg. and prepare 2 pkg. cherry-flavored gelatin.

Drain a can grapefruit sections. Turn just enough of the gelatin into a 5 or 6 c. ring mold to cover bottom.

Add Cherries

Take a (#303) can red sour pitted cherries in medium syrup (if water-packed, add 2 tbsp. sugar after draining cherries). Arrange in the mold some of the cherries mixed well with 1/2 tsp. red vegetable food coloring and chill until firm. Chill remaining gelatin until slightly thickened.

Add remaining cherries and grapefruit sections, reserving a few cherries for garnish. Pour into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold salad on bed of lettuce. Garnish with reserved cherries.

Scout Organization Offers Living In Democratic Living

and more, today's women are assuming responsibilities that would previously have been carried only by men. A young person has influence in the community. We have to face the fact that they are not only citizens of tomorrow but are citizens today.

Girls need training and experience in democratic living to prepare them for these responsibilities. They must be understood. They need friendly counsel from people in whom they have confidence. They need normal fun, opportunities to try their skills that interest them, and above all the security that comes from membership in groups.

How can we provide these things for them? The Girl Scout organization in Goldthwaite offers girls from seven through 17 years a way of life that develops in them self reliance, resourcefulness, ability to plan and work with others, qualities essential to good citizenship.

More than a million girls, in every part of the U. S. and its possessions, are registered Girl Scouts. They form one of the largest and oldest girl's organizations in the world. Girl Scouts and Girl Guides encircle the globe. All voluntarily accept the same pledge:

"On my honor, I will try:
To do my duty to God and my country,
To help other people at all times,
To obey the Girl Scout Laws."

All live by the same code of honesty, service, loyalty and kindness contained in the Girl Scout Laws, and thus united by a bond that transcends the difference of language and custom.

There is a place for adults too. Mrs. H. B. Campbell, organization chairman of the local association, urges all women interested in contributing to the training of today's and tomorrow's citizens, volunteer their help.

Employment Questions In Population Survey

Special questions will be asked in the November Current Population Survey to determine if unemployed persons are seeking full-time or part-time work, according to Supervisor James W. Stroud of the U. S. Census Bureau's field office at Dallas, Texas, which will participate in the survey.

These special questions, asked four times a year, round out the labor force statistics provided by Current Population Survey monthly inquiries on employment and unemployment by furnishing information on the availability of part-time workers. In May of this year, around 11 per cent of the unemployed men were seeking part-time jobs while 17 per cent of the unemployed women were seeking part-time jobs. Of the unemployed men seeking part-time jobs in May, 52 per cent were between 14 and 17 years of age while 11 per cent were 65 years of age and over. Thirty-seven per cent of the unemployed women seeking part-time work in May were in the 14-17 years age bracket.

The special part-time work questions, together with the usual inquiries on employment and unemployment, will be asked during the week of November 18 as part of the nationwide Current Population Survey which is conducted each month on a sample basis by the Census Bureau. Current Population Survey information is collected locally by Nella P. Casbeer of Lampasas.

MODERN HOMEMAKING

RECIPES... HOUSEHOLD HELPS

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS COMPANY

Feeding a crowd?

The success of any large quantity meal lies chiefly in planning. Plans should include the menu, the grocery order, the service and the clean-up.

The people who are to be served will partially determine the menu.

Women's groups will best like one type menu while men's groups or mixed groups will like another. The high school set may be impressed with something entirely different.

In the first planning stage, keep well in mind the money to be spent, for a meal planned within the budget is far better than one requiring skimping at the serving stage or a financial report in the red.

Here are some other planning steps you will want to consider:

1. Suit the menu to equipment available: ovens, steamers, refrigerators, working space, cooking utensils and serving pieces.
2. Balance food that takes a lot of work with those that need little time to prepare, so all may be ready on time.
3. Plan foods that will hold up if a delay in serving arises.
4. Consider the time of year and use what is plentiful.
5. Look over the amount of help available. Determine the speed of serving and decide if foods that take last minute dishing up and garnishing can be used.

If you serve large groups often, keep a card file of each occasion with the menu, recipes, amounts of food bought, cost per person served and comments on the success of the meal. Such a file can make quick work of planning. To add variety to future menus, include in the file copies of successful recipes suitable for large groups.

Many family-size recipes are good to serve a crowd, but it is better to repeat the recipe several times rather than making twice or three times the quantity all at once. This is especially true for baked products, for in these recipes proportions may need to be altered when the quantity is increased.

Too many cooks won't spoil the broth if the work is arranged properly. So each person will know what to do, furnish her with her own copy of the menu, recipes and work schedule. Assign each person a job to do and a place to work.

The same plan of organization should go into serving the meal and the clean-up.

With a plan of work from the menu stage right through the clean-up, that Church supper or club dinner is sure to be a smooth success.

For further information on feeding a crowd send a post card to Home Economics Department, Room 601, Lone Star Gas Company, 301 S. Harwood Street, Dallas, Texas.

Second Annual Pecan Show Is Scheduled At San Saba December 8

San Saba, "Pecan Capital of the World," will be the site of the second annual San Saba Pecan Show held on Saturday, December 8, with entries from an eight county area expected to be present. The show, sponsored by the San Saba Chamber of Commerce, was inaugurated to stimulate interest in the pecan industry in this area, and also to acquaint the public with the numerous varieties of improved pecans that are being produced.

The counties from which entries will be eligible for competition are San Saba, Brown, Mills, Lampasas, Burnet, Llano, Mason and McCulloch. Entries from counties other than these will be welcomed. They will not be eligible for the prizes, but will receive ribbons.

Ribbons, cash prizes, and merchandise prizes will be offered for 10 or more classes of pecans, including the following varieties: Burkett, Mahan, Western Schley, No. 9, San Saba Improved, Hubert, Onilwon, Squirrel's Delight, Seedlings. A class will be set up for any other variety of which five or more entries are made. The grand champion and reserve champion entries will be selected from the winners in the individual classes. The owners of the first and second place entries will be asked to let their pecans be entered in the State Pecan Show at Texas A. & M. College.

Copies of the show rules have been mailed to all Vocational Agriculture teachers and County Agricultural Agents in the eight county area. Should you desire more information on the show, contact the V. A. teacher or County Agent in your area, or write the San Saba Chamber of Commerce, or the San Saba County Agent.

Entries to the show close on December 1. They may be sent to or left at the San Saba County Agricultural Agent's office or the San Saba Chamber of Commerce. Growers must send enough pecans to weigh 1½ pounds.

Judges for the show will be from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, the Texas A. & M. College Horticulture Department, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture Pecan Experiment Station at Brownwood. Growers planning to make entries should be selecting their pecans now before they market their pecans. You need not be a large producer to enter. Anyone producing pecans is eligible and welcomed. Your entry will help publicize the pecan industry in this area.

To further emphasize the value of the pecan, pecan exhibits will be displayed at this year's show.

Ten Pointers To Insure Prompt Safe Delivery Of Holiday Mail

In anticipation of the largest holiday mail volume in history, Postmaster Lucille Fairman called attention to ten basic pointers outlined this week by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield for users of the mails to follow in order to assure prompt and safe delivery of their Christmas cards and gifts.

1. Address mail fully and clearly. Write legibly or print plainly. Where applicable, use zone numbers on the address and return address. Avoid using abbreviations which might confuse mail handlers.

2. Be certain that return address is printed on the upper left hand corner of both Christmas cards and parcels. This will prevent any undelivered mail ending up in a "dead letter" office.

3. Do not enclose coins or hard objects of any kind in letters, without marking the envelope for hand stamping. High speed cancelling machines cannot process such letters, often jam and damage letters.

4. Do not mail cash in any Christmas gift. For safety's sake, use Postal Money Orders or checks.

5. Make sure parcels are well packed and securely wrapped in strong containers. Cushioning material, such as excelsior, shredded newspapers or tissue paper should be evenly and firmly placed on all sides of the Christmas gift. The carton should be wrapped in heavy paper and securely tied with strong twine.

6. Gifts of a delicate nature, such as glass, china, electrical appliances, radios and musical instruments, must be marked "Fragile" by the mailer. Food stuffs should be marked "Perishable" if subject to spoilage.

7. Insure parcels. Register letters of real value. Where only proof of delivery is required for letters of no intrinsic value use Certified Mail. Use Combination Mail where a letter or message—other than a gift tag—is to be enclosed inside a Christmas package.

8. Ask at any post office for the free pamphlet, "Post Office Department Publication No. 3" which contains rates of postage and limits of size and weight for domestic mail. Another free pamphlet at post offices entitled "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels For Mailing."

9. Mail Christmas cards and parcels early to avoid the last minute rush and waiting in line at the post office. The best times to avoid crowds at stamp windows in most post offices are before 10 a.m. and between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.

10. Every postal employee is happy to answer questions on postal rules and regulations. Anyone with problems about mailing his Christmas parcels should avail himself of the opportunity of discussing the problems with postal employees, and take advantage of their experience.

IN THE NAME OF THE LAW

CONTRIBUTED IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST BY TEXAS POLICE ASSOCIATION

WINTER BRINGS PROPERTY CRIMES

By Inspector Paul H. Ashenbust
Police Department, Dallas, Tex.

It is said by criminologists, police and newspaper reporters that heat breeds crimes of violence. The summer months always bring an increase of crimes against the person, notably murder and assault. Just as surely as this is true the approach of winter forewarns us of an increase of crimes against property. Thus we are now entering the season of thefts, burglaries and robberies.

Throughout November and December night time burglaries especially are more numerous. This is particularly true of the burglary of business houses at night time.

What can the business man, the store owner, the factory manager do to prevent the forcible entry of his business at night? Can he personally do anything to lessen the possibility that one morning he will discover that during the hours of darkness a burglar or burglars entered his office or store, rifled the cash register, ransacked the building or even knocked the knob from his safe?

Yes, there are measures often overlooked which he can take. Of these the most important is to provide light, outside light and inside light, plenty of illumination. This is his best remedy, to light up the premises.

A service station, a lumber yard, a drug store or other business house, where the lights are all switched off at closing time, is much more liable to entry than the well lighted business. In closing your place of business at night leave the lights on, inside and outside. Light up the rear of the building as well as the front. Leave the blinds open. Make it possible for the passer by to see anyone moving about inside. Make the burglar work in plain view. If he turns out the light a policeman or neighbor will observe the change and an investigation will be made. If he closes the shades, which are normally open, that too will attract attention and an investigation will be made.

Many business men leave lights on as suggested, the same lights night after night. The police officer must be governed by changes from the ordinary. If things are not as he is accustomed to see them he will stop and investigate. If you leave your blinds open for twenty nights and on the twenty-first night they are drawn he will notice and investigate. If the light has been burning over your safe every night he looks at that safe every time he passes your business. If something is wrong he will notice it. Many burglars are caught every year in this manner, a neighbor notices the change and calls in or the officer on patrol notices it and investigates.

Install lights in the alley or at the rear of your store. Leave lights burning inside and outside, the same lights every night. Can you do something to avoid a property loss? Yes—use plenty of illumination.

Points to remember to prevent burglaries—

1. Plenty of light.
2. Lock up securely.
3. Burglars often cut through the roof. Do not leave a ladder handy for their use.
4. Keep large sums of money in the bank.
5. Put money on hand in the safe at night.
6. Heavy screen over rear and side doors is good protection.

7. Watches, guns and jewelry in window displays invite the window smasher.

8. Burglar alarms are excellent preventive measures.

9. If burglarized, call the police immediately. Do not clean up or move things until they arrive.

10. Get acquainted with your police department. See that it is provided with the men and equipment to protect your property.

Day of family get-togethers, fun and THANKSGIVING!

Yes, Thanksgiving is a day for family-get-togethers, good fun and reverence. Although they had little by comparison, the little band of Pilgrims attended divine worship and gave thanks before sitting down to the first Thanksgiving meal with their Indian friends.

This Thanksgiving and every day let us give thanks, each in his own way, for the many gifts which many of us in rich America take for granted.

So that our staff may spend Thanksgiving with their families we will be closed throughout the day.

Clementine Wilmeth Briley Writes from Temporary Home in El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

I almost had two visitors last week. Tuesday evening my new, Joe Bateman, called and he was at the airport. He was returning from a business trip to San Francisco. Joe is an electrical engineer for The Consolidated in Fort Worth. I had him to come out for supper and he almost promised, but he would have to find out how long his plane would be there. He said, "If you don't hear from me again, just forget about it." Anyway we didn't get to see him.

Wednesday morning early Mrs. Brownie Reeves White surprised us. She was on her way to her home in Los Angeles after a four months stay with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Ann Reeves, in the Pioneer Nursing Home in Brownwood. Just lately she had been spending some time at Ebony helping Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves gather their pecan crop. For this service Stanley had rewarded her with the pecans from one small Burkett tree, and she was able to send a nice quantity of pecans to each of her children.

Hubert Reeves had been threshing for them until he fell from a pecan tree not long ago, dislocating his shoulder and breaking some ribs. He had to put up some time in the hospital, and the doctor says it will be several months before he will be able to work again. This must put the Reeves family in a most distressing plight, since Joe is attending John Tarleton College at Stephenville, Mrs. Reeves is teaching school at Mullin, and Nancy and Joe are going to school. It was Hubert's job to take care of everything at the ranch while the rest are gone. Now what can he do? We hope something heartening will happen along to relieve the serious predicament.

Brownie wanted to go to Juarez while she was here, so Grace took us over there after school Wednesday. Brownie enjoyed every bit of it—the wares of the market place, the narrow streets crowded with little shops, the picturesque Mexican people coming and going.

It has been rather tragic having our neighbors move away as they did—the Simmons next door and the Lanes second door.

Somebody has bungled Thanksgiving this year. Bill and Grace have different days off. Isn't that the limit? Now how are we going to have our Thanksgiving dinner?

Plans Shaping Up For Homecoming Of GHS Ex-Students And Teachers

The executive committee of the Ex-Students and Ex-Teachers Association of the Goldthwaite School is putting the final touches on what they think is a program well worth attending on Saturday evening, December 1.

The local Lions Club is going forward with plans for a big barbecue dinner to be served in the school lunch rooms. Well over 100 tickets have been sold already, most of which are from out of town. The Lions say they will be prepared to serve those buying lunch tickets as late as Thanksgiving Day, November 29. They are making this concession in order to accommodate any who might come to Goldthwaite for the Thanksgiving weekend and make their decision after they reach here. They especially insist, however, that the local people should go ahead and purchase their tickets far in advance of that date by contacting ticket salesmen at Hudson Drug, Little's or Yarborough and Duren.

Added to the program as it appeared in last week's paper will be a special style show depicting the styles typical of all the periods within the history of the schools. This, in itself, should make a good program especially from the standpoint of fun and frolic.

A welcoming committee will be at the school gymnasium before the five o'clock hour on that afternoon. It is hoped that from that hour on into the night there will be much fun and reminiscing.

Some few people have expressed to members of the committee that they did not receive an invitation. The committee is very sorry that anyone of our local ex-students, ex-teachers, or friends of the school would feel the need of a special invitation, for every newspaper article has urged all who are friends of the school whether they have attended or not to attend.

A letter from Dr. Caraway confirms the fact that he will be here. His subject is to be related to the future outlook while Mr. Thompson in his talk is to take the look into the past.

Mrs. Roy Wilkins returned home last week after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Bill Harper, Mr. Harper and daughter, Gay, at San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Lawson of California are visiting in the home of his parents, other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Weaver and children of Robstown spent the weekend with Mrs. Liva Weaver and Miss Laura Nelson and other relatives here.

Duren News

Rev. J. L. Jones filled the pulpit here Sunday and a large crowd attended the services.

Arthur Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert of Dublin attended church here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Daniel and Glenda visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris and Mrs. W. W. Johnson near Caradan Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Duren, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Duren and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pyburn and girls, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Jones and girls visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duren in Goldthwaite Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hobbs have moved from Brownwood to our community. We welcome them to their new home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlon King and son visited Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Warren and family this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cox and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Duren and family Friday night.

M. Y. Stokes Is Guest Speaker At F. H. A. Meeting

On Thursday, November 15, the local F. H. A. Chapter held a meeting with M. Y. Stokes as guest speaker. He showed a film on the customs of foreign countries. As he showed the film he explained all points of interest. In the short film the F. H. A. members traveled through several foreign countries, Portugal, Egypt, England and Sweden.

A business meeting was held and sending Christmas cards to mental and tuberculosis hospital patients were discussed. After the meeting refreshments were served.

Shrubs can be marked now and transplanted to the grounds during the winter. It's easy to spot shrubs which have attractive berries and bright fall leaves at this time of the year. It's also easy to select the evergreen shrubs you may be looking for.

Valuable native plants are often found growing in nearby pastures, old fields, canyons and breaks. Those found near your home will be especially well adapted to the soil and climate and will usually thrive when moved to the home grounds. They may take less care than introduced plants.

Eagles Defeat Yellowjackets 12-0; Cross Plains Represents District

BY JERRY COLLIER

The Cross Plains Buffaloes will represent this district at bi-district. They won over Rising Star last Saturday night with a score of 32-0. They will play Eastland at Eastland this Friday night for bi-district. Earlier in the season the Buffaloes defeated Eastland with a bare margin of 7-6.

Goldthwaite came in second in this district having lost only one conference game all season. This was to Cross Plains by a score of 18-14.

The Goldthwaite Eagles journeyed to Llano last Friday night where they played their last game of the season against the Llano Yellowjackets. The Eagles won by a score of 12-0.

Tri-captains for the Eagles were Connie Todd, Johnny Vaughan and Charles Reynolds. The Yellowjackets tri-captains were Gordon Donop, Walter Ligon and Don Lee Williamson.

The Yellowjackets received and were forced to kick on the fourth and then recovered the ball on the 40 yard line. Llano then fumbled and Covington recovered for the Eagles. The Eagles worked their way down to the 'Jackets 40 and quarterback Tilmon Kirby threw a 40 yard pass to Eddie Jones for six points. The extra point was no good. The 'Jackets were again forced to kick on the fourth and the Eagles were stopped on their own 25. They worked the ball down to the 46 before the end of the first quarter.

Johnny Vaughan started the second quarter off with a 30 yard run. Todd, Vaughan, and Kirby picked up another five yards apiece. Then fullback Johnny Vaughan picked up the remaining 11 yards for the Eagles final TD. The extra point was blocked. The Yellowjackets fumbled on the 28 and Goldthwaite recovered. The Eagles were forced to kick on the fourth. Kirby made 11 yards then fumbled and Donally recovered for Llano. Ward made two yards then the 'Jackets were forced to kick on the fourth. The Eagles were stopped on the 25 before the half.

The Eagles received in the third period and Connie Todd carried the ball back to the 31. Vaughan made eight yards, then the Eagles were forced to kick on the fourth. Ligon brought the ball up to the 45 for Llano then fumbled and the Eagles recovered. Todd and Vaughan made nine and 12 yards respectively, then the Eagles fumbled and Llano recovered. Fraser made eight yards before the 'Jackets had to kick on the fourth. The Eagles got the ball on the 48 and Todd made 16 yards, then they were forced to kick. Llano got the ball on the 20. Lawley made 24 yards and Ligon made four before the end of the third quarter.

The 'Jackets had to kick on the fourth. Vaughan made about 11 yards and Kirby made 12 before having to kick on the fourth. Llano got the ball on their own four yard line. Ward, Ligon, and Lawley each made good yardage for Llano, then a pass was completed to Fraser for 23 yards. The 'Jackets were down on about the four or five yard line and had four downs to go and the Eagles held them and the ball went over on the one yard line. The game ended with the score 12-0 in the Eagles' favor.

Mrs. Forest Straley Hosts H. D. Club

The Goldthwaite Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, November 13, with Mrs. Forest Straley. The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the decorations and program. Arrangements of autumn flowers were used in the party rooms. The refreshment table was centered with a cornucopia with fruit and lighted candles. Tyenby members were present and Miss Burrus was a visitor.

The program consisted of readings, songs and poems of Thanksgiving after which the members marched in a group to the dining room and circled around the beautifully decorated table and Mrs. Fox voiced a Thanksgiving prayer. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

In the business meeting the club voted to have the Christmas program with Mrs. Rena Smith, December 13.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Lee Tesson.

Jack Locklear of Brady was a supper guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Locklear last Monday night.

Worldwide Daily Bible Reading Program To Start Thanksgiving Day

Participation by this community in the Worldwide Bible Reading program, sponsored annually by the American Bible Society, will begin on Thanksgiving, it was announced today by the Rev. Walter J. Cartwright, pastor of the Goldthwaite First Methodist Church.

Members of his congregation, he stated, are circulating lists of Scripture selections to be read daily from Thanksgiving through Christmas. The reading lists are in bookmark form, to be kept in the Bible. Nearly 50 million copies of the Worldwide Bible Reading booklets have been published in some 50 countries all over the world.

Other churches in this community will also distribute the booklets, and additional supplies will be made available to the public through local libraries, leading stores, hotel and bank, the Rev. Mr. Cartwright stated. A special distribution of the Bible reading lists will be made by Superintendent J. T. Jones and teachers in the local schools.

Ministers and laymen throughout the country—from over 40 denominations assisted in the selection of readings. Each selection is without note or comment and is non-sectarian in character. The period of intense reading includes observances of Universal Bible Sunday, December 9.

Worldwide Bible Reading is sponsored by a distinguished committee of laymen, headed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Other members are: Industrialist R. G. LeTourneau; Novelist Faith Baldwin; Helen Keller, Admiral Nimitz, businessman J. C. Penney, movie stars Roy Rogers and Dale Evans and many others.
