SOLILOQUY

Tornado 'Season' Is Here

Tornadoes, the most violent and spectacular storms produced by nature, are a menace to the life and property of almost everyone living between the Rockies and the Atlantic. They occur in the eastern Gulf States at the beginning of the year, then advance north-westward to reach Iowa and Kansas in June, remaining in that area until late September.

But in knowing what to do when a tornado is observed may mean the difference between life and death even though there is no universal protection against them except in caves or underground excavations, such as the so-called "cyclone cellar." Regardless, here are a few suggestions:

If you are in open country:
1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

If in a city or town:
1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strong reinforced building. Stay away from windows.

2. In homes: Usually the safest part of the house is in the corner of the basement toward that from which the storm is coming. However, when you are unable to determine from which direction the tornado is coming, go to the southwest corner of the basement, which usually offers the greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements should find other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar, although a depression, such as a ditch or ravine, can offer some protection. If time permits, electricity and heating appliances should be shut off. Doors and windows on the north and east sides of the house may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

If in schools:

1. In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums with large, poorly-supported roofs.

2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

If in factories and industrial plants:

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Employees should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

KEEP CALM! DON'T RUN INTO STREET

Keep calm! It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

Keep tuned to radio or television station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the area.

Spring Clean-Up Campaigns Promote Fire Safety, Health

Throughout America each year, a period—usually a week—is devoted to Spring Clean-Up. Some communities conduct a campaign in March, others may prefer to do so in April. But whatever the time, the campaigns result in greater fire safety and better looking and healthier communities.

One of the first campaigns of record was undertaken about 47 years ago by a Cleveland, Ohio, school teacher, Miss Bertha Chapman.

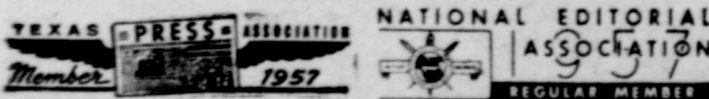

It started when Miss Chapman one fine spring day presented a bright blue pinafore to a particularly unimpressed pupil whose mother—so the story goes—was so impressed by the change in her daughter that she decided then and there to do a little cleaning up around the house. Her activity encouraged the neighbors to do something about their places. The result was a Spring Clean-Up campaign that swept the community. Later, the campaign developed on a city-wide scale and spread to other communities. Now nearly every community observes this practice.

According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, these campaigns do much more than promote fire safety. For instance, they help foster community spirit. Streets are cleaned, homes are beautified and repaired, and accumulated waste and rubbish, a major cause of fire, disposed of. In addition, public buildings often are renovated and vacant grounds improved.

WHEN THE OLD BIRD WAS YOUNGER

10 YEARS AGO—

Taken from the Eagle files of February 21, 1947.

Mrs. Cecil Starnes of Mullin (nee Miss Mattie Little), daughter of Aaron Little was instantly killed a little before five o'clock Tuesday afternoon when the car she was driving went out of control, turned over four or five times and ran through two fences just this side of Brown's Creek. Mrs. Starnes was alone in the car and was thrown clear as it turned over, rolling 35 yards from the highway.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, 4023 Moffett Court, Dallas Park, Dallas, was the scene of a quiet wedding at 6:00 p.m. on February 7, when Mrs. Davis' son, C. D. McLean and Miss Charlene Stark, both of Goldthwaite were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony by the Rev. J. E. Glenn, pastor of the Cockrell Hill Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Davis were the couple's only attendants.

Rev. Bedford Renfro was taken to a Brownwood hospital early Wednesday morning suffering from a neck injury received when his car collided with one driven by Lyndon Morris on the southwest corner of the courthouse square.

Announcements have been received here by friends telling of the new baby girl, Susan Christi, who made her arrival February 10. She weighed seven pounds and 14 ounces and plans to make her home in Dallas with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith. Mrs. Smith is the former Louise Gartman.

Mrs. Sam Sullivan went to Grand Saline where she spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pope. She reports a fine grand-nephew who made his arrival February 12th. Michael Patrick weighed eight pounds and seven ounces. The mother and son are doing nicely.

Mrs. J. W. Edwards passed away at the family home in the west part of town Tuesday night at 8:10 after suffering a stroke last Saturday.

25 YEARS AGO—

Taken from the Eagle files of February 19, 1932.

The "Poor Boy" cafe, owned by H. J. Kelly, located in the Harrison building on Fisher Street, was destroyed by fire last Saturday night. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it was discovered about 11:00 o'clock and was too far advanced for the fire fighters to save any of the contents.

On the 12th day of February 1932, Dr. William Marwitz and wife Minna had the pleasure of celebrating their 50th wedding Anniversary amongst a group of children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, relatives and friends.

J. M. Oglesby, the Center City merchant, lost a number of checks and some money Wednesday, when his pocket book was rifled by some one in his store, while he was busy at his gasoline pump at the front of the store.

County Clerk Porter issued a marriage license this week to Oscar Rape and Miss Jewell Rose, both of Comanche. Notice to secure license for Floyd Benningfield and Miss Reba Bullard both of Goldthwaite.

Monday's Dallas News carried a picture and short write-up of Mr. J. C. Burdette of this city, which was quite pleasing to his friends. The paper states he has 160 descendants. In this number are 11 children, 76 grandchildren, 69 great-grandchildren and four great, great-grandchildren.

The death of Mrs. Mansur, wife of Rev. I. M. Mansur, occurred at the family home at Priddy last Friday morning after a long illness, and her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at St. John's Church, in the Priddy community Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Webb and children who are spending the winter with her parents in San Saba visited several days this week in the F. D. Webb home.

50 YEARS AGO—

Taken from the Eagle files of February 23, 1907.

G. S. Trowbridge and Miss Mary Brooks were married last Sunday, Judge L. E. Patterson officiating.

G. H. Frizzelle had a narrow escape from being hurt in a runaway last Sunday evening shortly after dark. He was on his way home from a visit to the Center City community and was about four miles east of town on the South Bennett road when he turned a corner, his buggy struck a guard post with such force as to break the buggy pole. This frightened the team, which commenced to run and the pole made it impossible to control them. Mr. Frizzelle started to jump out of the vehicle just as it struck some other object and he was thrown out. Fortunately he was not hurt.

George Sheffield and Miss Alma Davis, both of the Triger Mountain community were united in marriage by Rev. Tempelin at his residence in this city Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

G. W. Cunningham of San Angelo was here Sunday visiting his daughters, Mrs. R. E. Clements and Miss Mary Cunningham.

Inside WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

Political Insiders Convinced Knowland Eyes White House Coast Salon's Announcement Of '58 Retirement

Special to Central Press Association

WASHINGTON—Despite his denials, political insiders are convinced that Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland will be a very active candidate for his party's 1960 presidential nomination.

Knowland's announcement that he will retire from the Senate in 1958 is viewed in these circles as a strategy move to put him in a better position to fight Vice President Richard M. Nixon—a California—California—for the nomination.

It is a foregone conclusion among many Republican strategists that Nixon will seek the top spot on the GOP ticket in 1960. Knowland is known as a bitter foe of Nixon in his own Republican circles, however.

By leaving the Senate in 1958, Knowland would run for the governorship now held by George Knight and thus capture control of his state's big bloc of delegates to the Republican nominating convention.

Meanwhile, by having served notice that he is going to leave the Senate, Knowland can secure an independent status enabling him to ignore Nixon's lead in furthering administration policies.

They say some sort of congressional action probably will be necessary before steps can be taken with Canadian regulatory agency to put a lid on newsprint prices.

If newsprint makers go through with a rumored plan for another price rise, demands for action on Capitol Hill will be further intensified.

GERM BOMBS—Germ warfare, sometimes represented as more terrible than the hydrogen bomb, has at least been developed at a point where the U. S. Army Chemical Corps needs a much larger area in which to test such weapons.

Approximately 400,000 acres of the Air Force's Wendover bombing and gunnery range in Utah are being transferred to the Army's adjacent Dugway proving ground, where experiments with biological, poison gas and other chemical weapons of mass destruction are in progress.

Pentagon sources say the Air Force was glad to hand over the land, because it couldn't afford the medical expense of assuring safety in this area against the possible effects of even controlled experiments with germs.

Wendover will be maintained by the Air Force, however, as one of its three main gunnery centers. Even after the transfer to the Army, there will be about two million acres in the Air Force tract. The other Air Force gunnery centers are Tonopah in Nevada and Yuma in Arizona.

The Defense department's firm policy with respect to germ warfare is the same as for poison gas—the weapons will be developed to their utmost destructiveness in the hope they are never used. It is the belief of the Chemical Corps that America's large stockpiles of gas prevented the Germans from using the weapon in World War II.

TODAY'S Menu

Something New In Food? Here's A Varied Choice

By ALICE DENHOFF

ODDS and ends today, including recipes we think may be of general interest.

First, a recipe is requested for that continental favorite, Bouillabaisse, so popular at restaurants along the Riviera and especially in Marseilles where some waterfront places do it magnificently.

Here is a version of it worked out by a good New Orleans cook.

To serve 6 as a main course heat 1/2 c. salad oil. Add 1 medium lobster cut in 1 1/2-in. pieces (shell and all) or use 1 can lobster meat; 1 lb. shrimp, cleaned and shelled; 1 1/2 lbs. fish cut in 1 1/2-in. pieces; 1 1/2 c. sliced onions; 2 garlic cloves, crushed. Simmer for 10 min.

Add (#2) can tomatoes, 1 sliced leek, 1 bay leaf; 1/2 tsp. thyme. If desired; 1/8 tsp. saffron, 1/4 tsp. chopped parsley, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper, 1 qt. water and a strip of orange peel. Simmer over low heat for 30 min. Remove bay leaf and orange peel.

Remember Bibs. Serve immediately. Don't forget big table napkins or, better still, lobster bibs!

Sauerkraut is a fine, healthful food any time, but it becomes even more appetizing when cooked with caraway seeds—about a teaspoonful to 2 cups sauerkraut—2 or 3 peeled, cored and quartered apples; a small sliced onion and 1 1/2 tsp. brown sugar. Especially fine with any pork dish on a cold winter night!

Looking for an easy recipe for pickled beets as are some of our friends?

Buy a can of baby beets. Remove beets and juice from can. Bring 1 c. vinegar to boil with 1/2 tsp. mixed pickling spice and 1/2 c. sugar.

Pour over beets and juice. Serve chilled.

Want to change apple sauce to something special? Add a little grated orange or lemon rind, a good dash of mace and a big shake of cinnamon.

A mashed carrot ring is a pretty dish to set before the family and party guests, too.

Carrot Ring. Combine 3 c. mashed, cooked carrots with 2 tsp. butter, salt and pepper to taste and a handful of minced parsley or chives.

Pack into a greased ring mold. Set in a pan of water and bake at 400° F. for 30 min. Remove from oven. Let stand 10 min. Unmold onto platter and fill center with any sort of creamed mixture.

Here is a fruit salad dressing to serve at your next bridge luncheon. It looks as pretty as it is palate-pleasing. Into 1/2 c. stiff mayonnaise dressing, fold 2 tsp. whipped cream, then 2 tsp. pineapple juice, then 1/2 tsp. paprika.

Mullin Quilters Meet February 13

All Businesses Hard By Tight Money, Says Johnson
All business concerns are being hit harder by the "tight money" policy than big companies. Lyndon B. Johnson said last week.

Johnson, in a Senate speech, also pointed out that high interest rates add greatly to the charge of servicing the national debt and place a heavy burden on municipal governments. "The continual trend toward mergers of big companies leaves a smaller share of the market for the average businessman," the Texas Senator told his colleagues. "Rising costs all along the line add to the difficulties of a small firm in meeting expenses. Of those increasing costs, one of the most important is the increasing cost of money."

"This is something that is felt all along the line—by business, by government, and by the average citizen."

Johnson said if 1952 interest rates had been applicable to the national debt last year, American taxpayers would have saved approximately $717,000,000. He added that high interest rates also cause municipalities to assume excessively heavy obligations in order to see their bonds.

"This is a situation that can change our whole economy," he declared. "The rising cost of money and other necessities represents a constant squeeze on small business—and the squeeze will eliminate many as time goes on."

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

The tax folks say that thousands of us fail to send in a check for the tax we owe when we file our income tax returns. They think a lot of people read the instructions, check their records, figure their tax, check their arithmetic, get all their W-2's attached, but then fail to enclose their check. These fellows sure went to a lot of trouble to get their tax right and then forget to enclose a check. Most of us know we have to pay the tax. Let's all save Uncle Sam time and money by putting in our checks with our tax return. Don't send in your check without identifying what the check is for. The tax office has thousands of payments. They have trouble finding who to credit the payment to when you don't attach the check to your return.

Timely Tips For The Landscape

Pests, such as aphids, red spiders and pill bugs, begin working early on fruit trees, ornamentals and young flowers. Use an all-purpose insecticide, or identify the insect and follow L-199, CONTROL OF INSECTS ON ORNAMENTAL PLANTS IN TEXAS.

Early spring is a good time to feed the lawn. Use L-166, HOW MUCH FERTILIZER SHOULD I USE, to calculate the amount for 100 square feet or for 1,000 square feet.

Plant all flowers and bulbs in one bed. It will save work this summer when you spray, water and weed or gather cut flowers. Shrubs competing with bulbs and other flowers may not live during a drought.

Winter is pruning time for most plants. It is recommended for practically everything except plants that bloom early in the spring, such as red buds, peaches, other fruits, spirea and flowering quince. Prune those just after blooming. Remember you prune shrubs for the same reason you landscaped—to improve comfort, convenience and beauty. Cut off limbs that obstruct driveways or walks. Cut the oldest stems of nandina. Cut back pfitzer juniper branches to make the plant more compact and easier to live with. Crape myrtles can be cut back to the ground to make them form a bush rather than awkward shrubs. Now is a good time to move crowded crape myrtles to a better area. The full sun helps keep off mildew and will cause them to bloom more than shaded plants. Summer flowering shrubs, such as althea, butterfly bush, crape myrtle and vitex, should be pruned now.

ROSES FOR TEXAS

Anyone can grow roses. The most common error made by many gardeners is to try to grow too many varieties or too many plants.

Essentials for success with roses are: proper planting, a sunny location, well-drained soil and plenty of water during the growing season. Start with No. 1 grade plants of a recommended variety. Have the ground ready when plants arrive and make sure roots are never exposed to sunlight and drying winds.

Water plants thoroughly. Do not apply fertilizer to newly-planted bushes until the root system is well established, then feed at least twice a season. Never fertilize late in the fall. Keep plants free of insects and diseases with a regular spraying or dusting schedule.

For details on selection, soil preparation, pruning and care of roses, get a copy of TAP-1, "Roses for Texas," from my office.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Tired of potatoes the same way all the time?

Try this tempting variation: Potato Puff, 4 cups seasoned mashed potatoes, 2 eggs, separated and beaten; 1½ cup cream or evaporated milk; 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Add egg yolks to potatoes and mix. Fold in egg whites, cream, melted butter. Heap lightly in 1½ quart baking dish. Bake in a 305 degree F. oven 30 minutes until puffed and brown. # State Capitol NEWS

By VEIN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex.—Gov. Price Daniel's proposed reorganization of the Insurance Department provides a brand new "big issue" for the Legislature.

Daniel asked the lawmakers to give emergency status to a plan to abolish the present commission and substitute a set-up similar to the Highway Commission, but full-time. This would mean a three-man policy board appointed by the governor and an administrator of the entire operation by the board. Present three-member board of Insurance Commissioners is charged with both policy-making and administrative functions. Individually, each is an administrator of regulation for one segment of the industry—life, casualty and fire. Collectively, they act as over-all policy-makers.

It's an inefficient operation, says Daniel. He said now is the appropriate time to change it before new commissioners become wedded to the old way. He asked Atty. Gen. Will Wilson to draw up a bill.

Only Fire Commissioner Mack Weste has a "definite seat" at present. Casualty Commissioner Morris Brownlee's term expired Feb. 16, but he is being kept on temporarily until a successor is named. Life Commissioner John Austin was appointed late last year by Gov. Shivers, but has not been confirmed by the Senate.

Daniel said he made his decision "long before" the recent insolvency proceedings against ITC Insurance Co. of Dallas. Industry groups, nevertheless, were taken by surprise. Most were unable to decide immediately whether to oppose, endorse or take a "hands off" attitude.

ALFRED RETURNED—Benne Alfred is back on the job as attorney in the Insurance Department liquidation division.

Alfred was fired as the division's chief attorney by the Insurance Commission in 1954. He protested at the time before legislative committees that he was responsible only to Travis County's district judges, who handle insurance liquidation.

His new appointment was made by Dist. Judge Charles O. Betts. Alfred is a brother of Former Gov. James V. Alfred.

WATER PROGRAM GOES FORWARD—Both House and Senate constitutional amendment committees have okayed the $29,800,000 Water Development Fund.

Under the plan a state bond issue would raise money to assist local governments in financing water conservation construction—up to $5,000,000 per project.

House committee made some changes which would require a special Legislative appropriation to pay principal and interests when necessary. House Sponsor Leroy Sul of Kress protested that this would make the bonds a less attractive investment, resulting in a higher interest rate for the state.

LOCAL LEGISLATION FOUGHT—Local vs. state control battles have assumed almost the proportions of the more usual state vs. federal government controversy.

At least a half-dozen bills now before the Texas Legislature are being opposed on the grounds that they represent unwarranted legislative interference in local matters.

House constitutional amendment committee voted down a proposal by Rep. John Crosthwait of Dallas to allow the Legislature to pass bills applying to specific counties. It would do away with local self-government, said opponents. Crosthwait said it would eliminate the present practice of passing laws applying only to counties with a certain population.

Several bills by which firemen and policemen seek better hours and pay are being labeled "legislative dictation" by the League of Municipalities.

Two bills to give the State Highway Department greater powers to condemn land for right-of-way met similar protests. "Too much power," said Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas. "They'll take your courthouse and anything else they want." Senate Jurisprudence Committee approved them anyway.

OIL IMPORTS HIT—President Eisenhower was asked to take "immediate steps to curb foreign oil imports" in a resolution passed by the State Senate.

Resolution was proposed by Senators Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo and William Fly of Victoria.

Railroad Commission Chairman Olin Culbertson quickly congratulated the Senate. "That's always been the fly in the buttermilk," said Culbertson, "those excessive imports."

PAY BILLS ADVANCE—Plans to give teachers and lawmakers better pay are moving forward in both Houses of the Legislature.

House members approved, 115 to 26, a proposed constitutional amendment providing for annual sessions of the Legislature and $4,800 annual salaries for members. Original proposal was for $7,500 a year.

No one appeared to oppose the Senate Education Committee's unanimous vote for a bill to give teachers a $300 a year boost.

BUSY PANELS—Other Legislative committee action brought:

1. Protests against Sen. George Moffett's proposal for a study on diverting lease and bonus income from school lands from the permanent to available school fund. "A foot in the door" would be fatal, said opponents. Resolution went to probable subcommittee grave.

2. An appeal from National Democratic Committeeman Byron Shelton for Rep. Tony Korloich's bill to require voters to register by party preference 30 days before each primary. Sent to subcommittee for one week.

3. Tentative plans by the House Committee on State Hospitals and Special Schools to visit the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation near Livingston the latter part of the week. Administration of the reservation has been in a state of confusion, resulting in resignations, audits, law-searching and a committee suggestion that they "give it back to the Indians."

4. Rejection by a Senate committee of a bill to strike the word, "knowingly," from law forbidding sale of liquor to minors. Proponents contended liquor sellers used it as a loophole. Opponents said it would make dealers liable for innocent mistakes.

SHORT SNORTS—Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo has introduced a bill to set up a Texas Council on Migrant Labor to improve conditions for "Texas citizens who are migrant laborers." Federal government has control of braceros in interstate commerce. County officials serving 4-year terms would be required to resign their post to run for another one under a bill proposed by Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

CHARLES HAENSCH
You interested in seeding Blue Panic grass this spring? Supervisors of the Brown-Soil Conservation District each one who plans to seed this grass to prepare now. The land will be seeded to Blue Panic should be bedded now to the beds to settle. This like all grasses, should be bedded on a firm seedbed. Blue Panic is an introduced grass that has proven its adaptability to this area. It is a high producer and has the ability to withstand drought.

Another favorable characteristic is its long growing season. This grass begins growing in the spring and continues until frost. Cooperators of the District have found that this crop has many uses. One of its popular uses is that of a rotation crop. Blue Panic is planted on a field and left for two or three years and then plowed up and the field planted to another crop. It has been used for temporary grazing. Those who have used the grass for summer grazing have found that they are able to defer one of their pastures in the summer while grazing this grass. Blue Panic hay has been fed to livestock and has proven to be a good quality hay. A number of cooperators have taken advantage of the Conservation Reserve Program of the Soil Bank Program and are establishing cropland to grass. This grass will fit well into this program. Whatever the use you plan to make of the grass, prepare now for seeding Blue Panic this spring.

In planting Blue Panic grass, the Supervisors recommend that you follow the precautions listed below:

Sickness And Disability Benefits For Income Tax Purposes Explained

Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for the Dallas District, today explained the Federal income tax rules which apply to amounts received as compensation for sickness or disability.

Any of the following payments which are received on account of illness or personal injury should not be reported on your Federal income tax return: Damages in settlement of a claim.

Payments under Workmen's Compensation Acts. Payments under an accident or health policy on which you pay the premiums.

Payments on account of your contribution to an accident or health plan jointly financed by you and your employer.

Payments under an employer financed plan for sickness or injury to you or your dependents if received as reimbursement for medical care or as compensation for the permanent loss or loss of the use of a member or function of the body or for permanent disfigurement.

Pensions or annuities to an individual for injury or sickness resulting from active service in the armed forces of any country or in the Coast and Geodetic Survey or the Public Health Service; or payments to the beneficiaries by reason of the death of such individual.

The law also allows you to exclude from income amounts received as wages or in place of wages under a wage continuation plan financed by your employer when you are absent from work due to injury or sickness. The amount to be excluded is limited to a weekly rate of $100. In cases where you are paid more than $100 per week, the amount to be excluded is computed by multiplying the amount received by $100 and dividing the result by your weekly rate of payment. For example, assume your pay is $150 for a five-day week. You are absent from work for three days due to an injury and are paid your regular pay of $90. Of the $90 received, you would exclude $60. ($90 multiplied by 100 equals $9,000, and $9,000 divided by $150 equals $60.)

Keep in mind, however, that you cannot exclude wages received for the first seven days of absence from work due to illness, unless you were hospitalized at least one day during your illness. If you are absent from work due to an injury, the exclusion applies from the first day of absence.

If you received pay while you were absent from work due to injury or illness and the amounts received are included on your W-2, enter your gross wages on line 5, page 1 of your Form 1040, and enter the amount to be excluded on line 6. You should attach a statement to our return showing your computation of the amount excluded, and listing the dates of absence, the nature of your injury or sickness, and whether or not you were hospitalized.

Mr. Campbell advised taxpayers who have questions concerning sickness and disability benefit payments or any other matter on their Federal income tax return for 1956 to telephone or visit the local office of the Internal Revenue Service.

GI Insurance Dividends No Longer Tax Free

Interest earned on GI life insurance dividends left on deposit with the Veterans Administration no longer is tax free, Dr. George T. McMahan, Manager of the VA office in Waco, said today.

The Internal Revenue Service has ruled that the interest accumulations now are taxable and should be reported on 1956 federal income tax returns as such, Dr. McMahan said.

Veterans benefits that are tax free and need not be reported in 1956 federal income tax returns include:

Dividend and all other proceeds except interest on dividends from GI insurance policies.

Education and training allowances for veterans of the Korean conflict period who are in school or training establishments under the Korea GI Bill.

Subsistence allowances paid to World War II veterans training under the original World War II GI Bill.

Subsistence payments made to disabled World War II and Korean conflict veterans training under Public Law 16, the Vocational Rehabilitation Act.

Disability compensation and pension payments received by veterans for service-connected and nonservice-connected disabilities.

Grants to seriously disabled veterans for homes designed for wheelchair living.

Grants for motor vehicles to veterans who lost their sight or lost the use of their limbs.

World War I Emergency Officers retirement pay.

VA death benefits to families of deceased veterans also are exempt from taxation. They include death compensation and pension indemnity and all GI insurance payments.

Golden Esso Extra GASOLINE

"knock you cannot hear!"

Engineers call it "trace knock," and only the trained ear can hear it.

But trace knock, like any knock, robs your engine of its power, forecasts engine damage.

If yours is a modern car in any price class—especially if it's a 1957 model—prevent trace knock with Golden Esso Extra, the gasoline with the highest octane rating ever.

Use Golden Esso Extra. Added value from full performance offsets the small extra cost. Stop at the golden pump under your neighbor's Humble sign.

If you answer yes to any one of these questions, you should try Golden Esso Extra—world's finest gasoline.

- Does your car knock on "premium" gasoline?
- Is your car air-conditioned? (On an average, the engine pulls a 3-ton air conditioner.)
- Does the engine have a compression ratio of 9 to 1, or higher?
- Does your car have more than one carburetor or a "Power-Pack"?
- Is the engine rated at 200 horsepower or higher?

(These points become even more important as you add miles to a new car; anti-knock requirements increase when you pass the break-in point.)

told me Sunday that they had had light rains at San Saba. I see in the Oakland News where light rains at home have been fine for the grain. A note from Gene Meek, near Bangs, said light rains around there were enabling him to graze his grain. Gene told of the passing of Mrs. Callie Jones, who was buried at Elkins Feb. 7. Her brother, Lee Hobbs, and wife of Albuquerque, N. M. attended the funeral. At Lubbock they encountered so much rain it seemed that they might not be able to go on to the funeral, but they finally made it.

A letter from Granddaughter Carol Jean of Abilene, written Feb. 12, said it seemed that this might be going to be a rainy year in Texas. It had rained for two straight weeks at Abilene. She hoped Brownwood and Ebony got some. Once she checked the paper. It said a trace at Brownwood. Carol Jean will graduate from ACC May 27. I'm thrilled over prospects of getting to go by to see her graduate.

A letter from Mrs. George Mears, mother of Mrs. Lewis Porter of Goldthwaite, told me of the recent passing of her husband. For a long time the old Mears homestead stood on the road to Brownwood, and was about the only house we passed after we left Ebony till we got near Brownwood. Mrs. Mears was formerly Miss Arkie Jackson. When I taught my first school at Lanes Chapel in Mills County, I boarded with her family, who lived on the old Jack Grady place on the Bayou. It was then we formed a lasting friendship. Miss Arkie is now living with her youngest daughter in Austin. She says all her father's family are gone now except her sister, Mrs. Maude Curtis. Maude married George Curtis of Goldthwaite.

PARENT PROBLEMS

Children Learn Quickly In A Happy Atmosphere

By EASY CLEVELAND WYER, Ph.D.

Fortunate is the child who grows up in a home where there is laughter, where all members of the family enjoy one another and the children are inclined to laugh often. Laughter is easily bred in a relaxed and cheery atmosphere.

Infant's Pleasure

Just most of the fun we and our children have is not expressed in laughter, not even in smiles. Long before the infant first laughs aloud, he enjoys pleasure from staring at lights and shadows, at watching his own hands or other objects, at hearing new sounds, some of which he makes himself.

See his curious pleasure as he senses things with his mouth, his one object with another, gradually gains control of his body, rolls, crawls, walks, and talks. At these new acquisitions give him pleasure. They are fun.

Skills and Speech

A child enjoys himself as he learns more skills with his hands and with speech, as he eventually learns to coordinate sounds and sights of words with meaning, as he reads. All his achievements at learning seem to afford him fun, for they don't often cease him on to a laugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edd Hurst were honored with a miscellaneous shower and tea Sunday afternoon, in the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Soules of Star.

The refreshment table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with a cut glass punch bowl surrounded by pink peach blossoms and flanked by pink candles. Mrs. John Shelton of Katy served the cake and Mrs. E. D. Hamilton of Goldthwaite poured punch from the cut glass bowl which belonged to Thomas Edd's grandmother, the late Mrs. Thomas Edd Hamilton. ### GOD and COUNTRY AWARDS the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Van Straley of this city.

A large number of Cubs, Boy Scouts, Explorers and Scout leaders attended church services in a body on this Sunday.

The God and Country award is not a merit badge in Scouting but is a recognition given by the Church for service and spiritual achievement. The God and Country award is a program that aims to help fulfill the first part of the Scout Promise, "On my honor I will do my duty to God." Therefore the Boy Scout receives the award at a service in his own church from the hand of his pastor.

To be eligible for this award a boy must have attained the rank of First Class in the Boy Scouts or have had one year of experience in Exploring. This program is designed to help the Scout become active in the five areas of Christian faith, Christian witness, Christian world outreach, Christian citizenship, and Christian fellowship. It took these boys approximately one year to complete this program. They worked with their pastor to advance in the God and Country program.

This program teaches the boy to discover trails that lead upward to God, inward to a better understanding of spiritual needs, outward in service to others, and forward in Christian citizenship.

Urging Better Government Legislation

A Senator from the Panhandle and a West-Texas Representative have joined hands in sponsoring one of the 15 anti-secrecy bills requested of the Texas Legislature by the Texas Press Association. Measures advocated by the press stem from recent scandals in Duval County, the Land Office, and in a less spectacular way in several areas of the state. Pictured above are Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth (standing) and Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress (seated), as they confer on HB 167 and SB 224. Their companion bills require that suits be filed by county and district attorneys for the recovery of misappropriated or unlawfully expended monies belonging to a county, school district or other political subdivision. Should those officials refuse to act, then the Attorney General is empowered to do so.
