Mills Co. Ministers Meet With Governor

Forty ministers from City and County Ministerial Associations over the state of Texas met Tuesday afternoon with Governor Price Daniel to express appreciation for his effort and efforts by other state authorities to clean up crime in the state and to get suggestions from him as to how the church and law enforcement agencies might work together more effectively. Both the Governor and the ministers recognized the fact that much of juvenile crime comes from a lack of respect for authority. Governor Daniel called on the home, church and law enforcement agencies to help restore respect for the laws of man and laws of God.

A problem faced in working with delinquents was cited by the governor when he quoted from Mr. Cal Farley of Boys Ranch to the effect that many of them have no fear of punishment. Certainty of prosecution could help solve this problem, and no exception should be made of traffic offences. Governor Daniel made an appeal to the churches and ministers to help promote safety on our highways. He stated that in 58% of fatal accidents in Texas, excessive speed was involved and in 39% of fatal accidents persons were driving while intoxicated. The governor deplored the practice of some officers in filing lesser charges against drivers guilty of D. W. I. He stated he had refused and would continue to refuse restoration of driver's license to such convicted persons.

In answering a question concerning a clean up of our juvenile correction institutions, the governor stated that the proposal would be made in the next state legislature for establishment of an institution for separating-hardened juvenile offenders from first offenders. Mr. Daniel said that in the investigations of the Senate subcommittee which he directed found that 90% of the major crime in urban areas was related to home and 25% in rural areas.

Representing the Mills County Ministerial Alliance were the Rev. Walter J. Cartwright of Goldthwaite, President, and Rev. Jesse Long, Star, Secretary.

MRS. AMERICA FROM GOLDTHWAITE? IT COULD BE, INDEED.

The 1958 Mrs. America contest to find the Nation's No. 1 Homemaker offers opportunity for local clubs and organizations to enter into a project that would bring a great amount of honor, acclaim and recognition to our community.

The search for Mrs. America is a search for a housewife 21 years of age or older who is an ideal average homemaker, one whose interest is centered in her home, who has children, who takes care of her home under fairly normal conditions, who participates in church and community activities.

There are many women in our town who possess all these attributes of a homemaker. And it would be fitting for our community to enter one or even a dozen participants in the Mrs. America contest. Here is an opportunity for women's clubs, garden club, Lions club, the parent-teacher association and other organizations to individually or collectively sponsor local housewives who are potential holders of the Mrs. America title. You probably have one in mind right now. Such an effort would be a worthwhile community project. And think of the good that would accrue to our community if we should produce the champion homemaker of the nation.

Mrs. Linwood Findley of Arlington, Virginia, was the most surprised person on the scene when the judges announced her as the winner of the 1957 Mrs. America finals at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, last May. She had minimized her chances at winning and entered the contest only at the insistence of a friend who had confidence in her ability as a homemaker.

Let us follow the lead of Mrs. Findley's friend by encouraging our homemakers to enter the contest this year. Let's strengthen this encouragement by coming up with sponsoring groups among our clubs and organizations, even though such sponsorship is not required to enter the contest.

The national homemaking championship in the Mrs. America contest is the biggest reward in the competition, but victories in the regional or state finals would prove fitting victories and bring acclaim to our community. A housewife is required only to fill out an official entry form to get into the contest and these forms are available at Lone Star Gas Company offices and participating gas appliance dealers.

The next Mrs. America lives in some community, town or city of the United States. It might be ours. Let's not overlook the possibility of discovering the next Mrs. America right here in our home town.

GUNS SLATHERED WITH BUTTER

The old saying about having our cake and eating it too has taken on a new and deep significance.

There is no doubt whatsoever that military spending is due for a big jump—perhaps much bigger than the President indicated in his budget message. And, along with this, there is considerable doubt whether non-defense spending will be materially reduced in any direction.

Those who want the government to everlastingly take on more and more responsibilities, at everlastingly increasing costs, are mobilizing now. A last ditch fight will be made to get maximum appropriations for welfare, grants to states, socialized power projects, greater farm subsidies, pork-barrels as usual, and all manner of hand-outs.

If this fight is successful, the nation will face two choices. One is higher taxes on top of already staggering taxes. The other is deficit financing and a further cheapening of the dollar—that is, more inflation.

This isn't a question of whether we shall have guns or butter. It is a question of whether vast gobs of political butter will be slathered onto the guns. Economic undermining of this country would serve the Soviets as surely as military undermining. Never did a Congress, an Administration or the people face plainer facts. Will they recognize them and act accordingly or will they continue on the road to bankruptcy via inflation?

PREP SCHOOL FOR COMMUNISM

Spruille Braden, formerly U. S. Ambassador to several Latin American countries and later Assistant Secretary of State, observes: "Let us face it, socialism is nothing more than a prep school for communism." This was said in a speech in which he vigorously opposed giving U. S. aid to such countries as India and Yugoslavia.

It would seem that the cost of helping our friends is heavy enough, without spending huge sums on nations which have close ties with Moscow, our ideological enemies, and whose sole interest in this country is signified by the dollar sign.

DEFENSE SECRETARY McElROY Highly Popular in Capital

Wilson, His Predecessor Target of Many Criticisms

By HENRY CATHCART Central Press Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—In the few months that he has been in the White House, Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy has achieved a popularity that astounds veteran politicians in the nation's capital. McElroy, who gave up a top industrial post as president of a huge soap company to enter President Eisenhower's Cabinet, has won praise from Democrats and Republicans alike.

What's more surprising is that he has been in Washington "hot seat" where his predecessor, Charles E. Wilson, felt the barbs of many political attacks.

McElroy, however, enjoys one advantage Wilson did not have. He took office at a time when just about everybody in the capital was anxious to give him anything he wanted to do in the arms race.

However, the former Cincinnati industrialist has won many friends on Capitol Hill in his appearances at hearings and now is being regarded as possible presidential timber.

ADAMS' ASSAULT—Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams has replaced Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the Republicans' most uninvited campaigner. This was evident in Adams' recent speech at Minneapolis in which he savagely attacked the Democrats' record on national defense issues.

Political experts who are close to the White House say that Adams' role as the top GOP "give 'em hell" orator is being taken into consideration in shaping Adams' name for the 1960 election.

There is a determination among certain influential Republicans to make Adams better known, in preparation for a drive to place him in the GOP ticket in 1960.

Since neither Mr. Eisenhower nor Vice President Richard Nixon wants to make defense a partisan issue, Adams has been invited to take on that chore because he is convinced that the Democrats will exploit the United States lag behind Russia in weapons development.

Adams, after five years of White House experience, has wished to return to private life when Mr. Eisenhower's second term ends and is now taking steps to place himself in the position of being an "indispensable" man from a party standpoint.

BUTLER-FOR-SENATOR—Democratic National Chairman M. Butler will have to make a decision soon on whether he will run for the Senate in Indiana. The primary is in May.

Butler, a resident of South Bend, had been giving serious consideration to the idea before Senator William E. Jenner, a Republican, made the surprise announcement that he would not seek reelection.

When Jenner dropped out, Butler admitted it would make it easier for Democrats in Indiana. Some observers thought that Butler's remarks indicated he would be a candidate. However, he has tossed his hat into the ring yet, and the time for decision is not yet.

TAX REFORM—Amid efforts to find ways to pay for the space-age budget, some congressional leaders are demanding sweeping reforms of the nation's income tax laws.

Aroused by disclosures of tax avoidance and evasion, key figures have joined in urging creation of a Hoover-type commission to study the tax laws and propose a general revision to Congress.

Although new drives are underway to get Senate and House action on measures to create such a commission, the House ways and means and Senate finance committees feel Congress should make any survey.

Senator Alexander Wiley (R), Wisconsin, has renewed his campaign for the Hoover-type group. And Senator John J. Williams (R), Delaware, the Senate's tax sleuth, has asked for a new

4-H GIRLS PLAN COVERED DISH SUPPER

Representatives from the girls 4-H Clubs met in my office Saturday morning, February 22, for the purpose of planning activities by which National 4-H Club Week would be observed in Mills County.

National 4-H Week is March 1-8. Each club was to plan some means of observing it in their clubs. The representatives formulated plans for a county-wide observance.

They planned a covered dish supper at the Youth Center in Goldthwaite for all 4-H members—girls and boys and their parents. Each family is to bring a dish or two of food—meat, vegetables, pies, cakes, etc. We will spread the food together for supper. Plates, cups, silverware, bread, and a drink will be furnished.

Supper will be served at 8:00 p. m., Friday, March 21, followed with a talent show or Share-the-Fun contest. The Share-the-Fun contest will be in two divisions—junior and senior. The winner of the senior division will go to Stephenville April 9 as the entry from Mills County.

To be in the Senior division the 4-H Club members must have passed their 13th birthday by January 1, 1958. All those younger will be grouped into the junior division. Each group can have 1 to 9 members. Either 4-H boys, 4-H girls or both can be members of the group. Let us urge as many as will to participate.

Winners will be selected on the basis of talent, showmanship, costumes (if needed), appropriateness to 4-H Club standards, and audience reaction.

We would like for you to join us at this time to share in this 4-H event.

It is being held March 21 instead of March 1 and 8 because of conflict between dates already set.

4-H'ers learn to do clearer thinking... It's part of their pledge. They do this by taking part in club meetings, learning to lead and follow, and they do it by carrying out many kinds of activities in home economics and agriculture. They learn to keep records, organize their work, and think through problems.

Mills County has 220 members, boys and girls ranging in ages from 9 to 18. We have 23 adult leaders who help plan and conduct 4-H Club work in our county.

Supporting Your Town

Merchants who do not advertise are invited to read the following from the American Bankers Magazine, as it might give you a new slant on business, your own business, as well as the matter of building your town.

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man."

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

Coast waters. With so many more boats and a rapidly increasing number of fishermen it is becoming more and more difficult to find places to launch boats, without having to spend hours awaiting your turn.

Building new launching ramps, and improving the old ones, is a job that might well be undertaken by local groups, or the city, or the county. It also is possible that the State Highway Department might be able to build a few access spots where highways cross some of our streams.

Certainly all of us agree that it is important that state gasoline tax funds be used to build roads for the use of those who pay the tax. It must be remembered, however, that a trailer and a boat drain much gasoline from the car. Then once the boat is in the water it becomes a motor fuel consumer too.

While there is a tax exemption on non-highway use of motor fuel, it is seldom if ever claimed by the small boat owner. For that reason our road builders might look ahead just a little and assist in providing access.

A SONIC FISHING IDEA
It is interesting to note how some of the primitive methods that we use to catch fish eventually are improved upon—then placed on the counter to sell. For instance, we have, for a long time, been rigging up jigs on foot-long leaders to follow after deep running plugs.

They were good for both white and black bass. Now comes Heddon with an improvement on the idea. It is the firetail sonic. It makes a noise the fish can hear, and has a tail section that glows. This is supposed to irritate the bass and if he hits a little short, he still gets hooked.

This firetail won't be a particular menace to the fish population—especially in Texas, because we have so many fish. By the time it gets to working good the fish will get smart and then someone else will come up with something new to lure the fish and fishermen.

SAND BASS ARE ACTIVE
Sand Bass now are running in all their glory. We've seen some tremendous catches made within the last couple of weeks. They are especially active where fresh water creeks are flowing into lakes, and in the tailraces just below some of the big dams.

They are hitting on everything. Some like minnows. Others take spoons or plugs. There has been some fine sand bass fishing in the Rio Grande. Sandies from Falcon Lake have gone up the river as far north as Laredo, according to reports.

Biologists also are stocking Lake Houston this spring, with some sand bass brood stock. One good stocking in Lake Houston and in a couple of years it should provide fabulous fishing.

Incidentally, black bass and crappie fishing is going begging in this fine lake, according to reports. It can stand much heavier fishing pressure than it is getting. This is one of the most beautiful lakes in Texas.

HOW ABOUT YOUR VACATION?
Right now a lot of people are beginning to think about their summer vacations. The kids will be out of school almost before we know it. How about vacationing in Texas? There are so many interesting places to visit and so many beautiful sights to see that it will be easy to pick out a place.

Sheep And Goat Raisers To Meet At Texas A&M

The second quarterly meeting of the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers Association will be held in College Station, Monday and Tuesday, March 10 and 11, T. A. Kincaid, Ozona, TS&GRA president, announced here.

"This is a two day meeting," Kincaid said, "With Texas A&M College officials using all of Monday to show the visitors the type of work being carried on that is of interest to them."

You can take a wonderful Texas vacation at little cost, and it can be done for every member of the family.

An excellent map of Texas is provided by the State Highway Department. Your local highway engineer can give you one, or you can write the Austin office. Also, all the major oil companies have excellent maps. Most of them provide a special service from the home office, giving you interesting information on the various localities. Filling stations can, of course, furnish maps. Some have descriptive folders, especially of lake areas. Another good contact is your Chamber of Commerce, where you can obtain folders about many Texas areas.

QUAIL HUNTERS PLEASE NOTE

If you want some good quail hunting this Fall right now is the time to get ready for it. If you have acreage that will provide cover and feed for the birds contact your local game warden, or write to the Game & Fish Commission in Austin. You can make arrangements with them to get these birds for restocking at a very reasonable price.

Some hunters also have found it advantageous to buy a few quail and place them on land to assure good fall hunting. Might try it.

Headquarters will be in the Memorial Student Center on the college campus and all meetings will be held there on Tuesday, he added.

Association officers will report on activities in Washington where all out efforts are being made by the National Wool Growers Association for extension of the Wool Act of 1954. President Kincaid and Secretary Williams recently spent ten days there on this business.

"Of particular interest to the women will be a style show at 3:00 p. m., Sunday, March 9. Both Miss Wool and Miss Mohair as well as several young ladies from Texas Women's University will model wool and mohair garments, Kincaid said.

"I want to urge all sheep and goat raisers in that section to attend the meeting. They will hear discussion of great interest to them," he said.

Requests for rooms should be addressed to Dr. Tom Watkins, Animal Husbandry Department, A&M College, College Station.

Roy Simpson Attends Land Bank Stockholders Meeting

Roy Simpson of Goldthwaite has just returned from Houston where he represented the Brown - Comanche - Mills Nat'l Farm Loan Assn. at the Annual Stockholders Meeting of The Federal Land Bank of Houston.

Mr. Simpson said one of the purposes of the meeting was to get a report on the condition and operations of the bank. He was impressed by the strong financial condition of the bank, and pleased with the progress which it and national farm loan associations in Texas have made in cutting operating expenses. Some changes were necessary to off-set the increased cost of money which the bank has had to pay on the bonds which it sells to secure the funds to make loans.

Of special interest to national farm loan association members, as well as all farm and ranch owners, was an announcement which Mr. Sterling C. Evans, President of the Bank, made at the meeting. It was that the bank had reduced the interest rate to 5% for new loans, and voluntarily cut the interest to 5% on loans which were closed at a higher rate. Also it will now close additional loans. This is a new practice and enables a borrower with a 4% Land Bank loan of $1,000 or more to get an additional loan at 5% on the new money and leave his old 4% loan undisturbed.

Officers and directors of the local association, other than Mr. Simpson, are: Joe Weedon, president; Gail P. Dudley, vice-president; Amos Porter, director; L. H. Soules, director; W. C. Pettit, director; W. E. Burseson, secretary-treasurer; John M. Robertson, asst. secy-treas. & Loan mgr., and Mrs. Dolores D. Lanford, office assistant.

MR. AND MRS. C. LOCKEY ARE NEW RESIDENTS HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lockey have recently moved here from Arkansas and are now at home in Mrs. Leora Barton's apartment. Mr. Lockey has accepted employment at Jack Long's Gulf Station. The Lockeyes are originally from North Carolina.

Jack Earl Long and Mr. Lockey were Army buddies at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Light Leads Our People

Each day a new door opens. What it reveals on the other side, for the people who must pass over its threshold, depends upon the conditions under which they lived their yesterdays.

Those in some countries look through the door upon a new day shadowed with oppressions, where there are few freedoms, tyrannies abound and living is hard and cold.

Those of us in America are more fortunate. Opening the door each day, we are met by the light of freedom which has led our destiny for many years. Protecting that freedom has been — and always will be — a Press that will not succumb to dictation or overpowering despotism.

For the light that leads to all freedoms is Freedom of the Press: Education . . . information of all kinds . . . news of all that transpires . . . and the open discussion of opinions and ideas that sharpens understanding.

Complete freedom of speech and of the press is the light that builds understanding, helping all mankind to advance onward and upward through the opening door of each tomorrow.

The Church and World Evangelism ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 13:1-3; Romans 1:14-18.

Jesus came to the 11 apostles, telling them to go and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, and reminding them, "I am with you always."

In the church which was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers. Among them were Barnabas; Simeon, called Niger; Lucius of Cyrene; Manaen, who was brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

As they ministered to the Lord and prayed, the Holy Ghost said to separate Barnabas and Paul, "for the work whereunto I have called them." After fasting and prayer the two went on their way.

Paul writes to the Romans that he is indebted to both the wise and the unwise, to the Greeks and Barbarians, and is "ready to preach the gospel . . . at Rome also."

MEMORY VERSE—Matthew 28:19.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

farmers and ranchers in county part of the Brown-District stocked 50 ponds last year. In the last year approximately 180 ponds have been stocked. To fish in farm ponds, they are fed and the best feed is fertilizer.

When bluegills stop spawning in the fall, the bass continue their heavy consumption of bluegill fingerlings. As the bass reduce the number of fingerling bluegills, the adult bluegills begin to grow—slowly at first, then more rapidly. Growth is slow again during the colder days of winter, as fish feed very little in cold temperatures.

Then when the water begins to warm a little, bluegills are ready to grow larger; but only if the water is fertile enough to grow a lot of microscopic creatures that are an essential part of the food cycle. A pond owner who waits until late spring to renew his pond's fertility cannot expect big bluegills. The season when they grow most rapidly is only 100 to 120 days, usually February to June. (In the southern part of the state—the growing season for big bluegills is December through April.)

Bluegills begin to spawn in May or June. Within two or three weeks after the eggs hatch, the thousands of little bluegills are eating all the spare food. When that happens, their parents cannot get food enough to grow even with full water fertility, yet they continue to spawn all summer and until the first chilly nights in the fall—usually October. During this summer period the production of bass is high. They are growing rapidly on the thousands of little bluegills which are the chief bass food.

Pond fertilization was first begun in America about 1938. For a time technicians recommended delay in applying fertilizer "until the spring rains are over." Farmers waited until May or June. Hundreds were disappointed because the bluegills quit growing after the second year. Now it has been shown that even April fertilization is too late to obtain satisfactory bluegill growth.

Bluegills begin to spawn in May or June. Within two or three weeks after the eggs hatch, the thousands of little bluegills are eating all the spare food. When that happens, their parents cannot get food enough to grow even with full water fertility, yet they continue to spawn all summer and until the first chilly nights in the any case may have to lose a little fertilized water to get his bluegills to grow to a profitable size.

"To get the first 3 to 5 applications in quickly, fertilize every week or 10 days as you begin the year's program of water culture," are the SCS instructions. "Fertilize until a white object cannot be seen 12 to 14 inches deep."

Another tip for good fishpond management—don't just fish bass. There is a lot of fun and good eating in the fat bluegills in a pond and it keeps the pond in good condition to fish for them. Many ponds that get over populated with bluegills have not been fertilized properly and have never had enough bluegills caught. Bass fishing alone in a pond is not good water management.

If you need help on types and amounts for fertilizer contact your SCS technician in the courthouse.

Farm Bureau Meets Mon. Night, Mar. 3

Mills County Farm Bureau held their regular directors' meeting at McLean's Cafe Monday night, March 3. David Waters, president, gave an informative report on the all-day District 7 Board of Directors meeting which he and secretary, W. W. Fox, attended in Brownwood, March 3.

There were only nine worker's reports turned in on the Membership drive with 20 worker's reports still out, the nine reported 53 new members. This brings the membership to date of the Mills County Farm Bureau to 97 in the newly organized Farm Bureau. By the time the other 20 workers turn in their reports, the group hopes to have many more names to add to their list of farmers and ranchers who will benefit from this organization, according to Mrs. V. Z. Cornelius, publicity chairman.

A motion was made, seconded and carried, to have a covered dish supper for all members on April 12. The directors also voted to change the regular meeting time from the first Monday night of each month to the second Monday night, so that the meeting will not conflict with church meetings of some of the directors.

Savings Bonds Quota For 1958

W. P. Duren, chairman of the Mills County Savings Bonds committee, announced that the 1958 Savings Bonds goal for Mills County will be $213,000.

"During the month of January, the people of this county purchased $23,365 in Series E and H bonds which was 11% of our 1958 goal," Duren reported.

The 1958 goal for Texas is $175,000,000. Sales during January totaled $16,609,361, which represents 9.5% of the 1958 sales goal.

"January set new national sales records," Chairman Duren said. "Nationally, January was the best sales month in two years and the amount of E and H bonds outstanding reached a new record peak of $41.6 billion which is held by more than forty million Americans. Another encouraging note was the fact that redemptions decreased 5% during January," Mr. Duren concluded.

Questions And Answers About Social Security

Question: If I file for benefits as my husband's widow next month when I will be age 62, will I be getting less than I would at age 65?

Answer: If you have not remarried since your husband died, you will receive widow's benefits beginning with the month you are 62. These benefits are not reduced because you are under 65. The law permits widows to receive full benefits at age 62.

Question: I own a share in a business operation and receive over $1200 a year; I am disabled and cannot work in the business. Must I sell my share in order to receive social security benefits?

Answer: No. You may have ownership in the business; if you do not engage in substantial services in its operation, you will be considered retired and eligible for benefits.

Clementine Wilmeth Briley Writes From Temporary Home In El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

Here we are at March. And we really had a taste of March this last week of February with a cold wind up to 75 miles per hour part of the time, lifting the roof from a motel and blowing down a number of trees. It also delayed the arrival of the Maid of Cotton in El Paso today (Thursday). Her plane was grounded at Midland for awhile, but she arrived all right this afternoon. And tonight the Popular Dry Goods Store is sponsoring a style show for her at Liberty Hall. She has with her an all cotton wardrobe of 42 outfits created by 42 noted American designers. The paper said she paid glowing tribute to the long staple SuPima cotton grown in this irrigated South-west. It really is a lovely fabric. It has been fair in El Paso today, but with a cold north wind blowing. The weather man says it will be 25 in the Valley tonight. Our peach tree is just ready to burst into bloom. The radio speaks of blizzards, snow, tornadoes, and floods in other parts of the nation. I guess we'll have to wait a while for spring. But I can just see our irises growing. The early white ones are budded. A row of daffodils will soon be in bloom. A few hyacinths are blooming, and the pansies are so large and lovely. For the first time my few violet plants are in full bloom.

Today at 12 o'clock Johnny got to dress up and go to Cooley School where he had lunch with his mamma. Then he and she rode the buses with the school children to Texas Western College where they were invited to see the play, "The Sleeping Beauty."

Tomorrow night the Cub Scouts are having a banquet at Clardy School, and Billy is receiving his Lion award and also a Golden Arrow. We are appointed to bring the dessert for the banquet. I have chosen to make two big cherry cobblers. But I won't get to go, for I have promised Mrs. Daniel that I will baby-sit with David and Baby Elisa while she and Capt. Daniel and their two school boys attend the banquet.

A letter from Mrs. Edna Dwyer from Victoria said she is hoping to return to her home at Ebony by March 10. They had expected the Mitchells from Beaumont to eat dinner with them Saturday, but a card from Ruth said that Jill had the chicken pox.

I am jubilantly happy over my Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary which I purchased at town last Saturday. I had wanted it so long. My last dictionary I bought at the Methodist Publishing House in Dallas some 30 or 40 years ago. It was really a good friend. It is still at home, but it is practically all to pieces.

What's For Dessert? Something Very Special

By ALICE DENHOFF
WHETHER they admit it or not, most of your dinner guests have a sweet tooth. So here are some recipes to keep on file so that you will always be ready to serve something special at dessert time.
The first is a delicious cake made with one of those wonderful mixes.
Empty 1 pkg. instant butterscotch cake mix into bowl. Add 3/4 c. water, 2 unbeaten eggs, 1/2 c. canned applesauce, 1/2 tsp. cinnamon, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg and 1/2 c. raisins, chopped.
Beat 3 min. until smooth and creamy. Pour into greased cake form.
Bake at 350° for 1 1/2 hrs. Cool.
Special Frosting
To make frosting, beat 3 egg whites until stiff. Add 1/2 tsp. cream of tartar. Gradually add 1 lb. (3 1/2 c.) confectioners' sugar, beating until frosting holds its shape. Cover with a damp cloth until ready to use.
If desired, tint with a few drops of pink or green vegetable coloring.
Here's a pudding that youngsters go for in a big way.
To serve 9, beat 4 eggs and combine with 1 1/2 c. sugar, 2 qts. toasted 1/2-in. bread cubes, 1/2 tsp. cinnamon, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. almond extract and tsp. vanilla extract.
Bake in well-greased 9-in. square pan in 325° oven for 45 min. Cut in 9 squares and serve with whipped cream.
An easy-to-make dessert for a buffet starts by slicing a small loaf pound cake into 3 equal layers.
Combine 3/4 c. heavy cream that has been whipped and 1/4 c. drained, crushed pineapple. Spread whipped cream mixture between layers and on sides of cake.
Sprinkle 2 tbsp. chopped walnuts over top of cake. Refrigerate until ready to slice and serve.
Pound Cake Treat
Another tasty treat can be made with commercial pound cake.
To serve 12, melt 2 tbsp. butter in a saucepan.
Blend in 1 1/2 tbsp. flour. Add 1/2 c. grated orange rind, 1/4 c. orange juice and 1/4 tsp. salt. Cook until thick, stirring constantly.
Gradually add small amount of hot mixture to one beaten egg yolk until both are combined. Cook for an additional 2 min., stirring constantly.
Place between 2 layers of a small loaf pound cake. Serve with walnut sauce.
To make the sauce, melt 1/4 c. butter or margarine in top of double boiler.
Combine 2 tbsp. cornstarch and 1/2 c. firmly packed c. brown sugar. Blend with butter. Add 1 1/2 c. boiling water and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add 1/2 c. chopped walnuts and 1/2 c. lemon juice. Serve hot.

CHRIST CAN CHANGE
THE WORLD

By John Striepe, Pastor
Zion Lutheran Church
Priddy, Texas

God forbid that I should save in the cross of our Jesus Christ" (Galatians 2:21). During the first part of the twentieth century Sir John Bowring, British Consul at Hong Kong, made a trip to the south-west part of China, and came to a place where the explorer Vasco De Gama had erected a beautiful cathedral on a hillside not far from the coast. But a violent typhoon had destroyed all the cathedral except the front wall. On top of that wall was a large bronze cross. It had defied storm, lightning, and typhoon, and seemed to be pointing like a finger toward heaven in the midst of the devastation round about. Sir John Bowring was so thrilled at this sight that he was moved to write these beautiful words:

"In the cross of Christ I glory
Towering o'er the wrecks of time,
All the light of sacred story
Gathers 'round its head sublime."

What is the glory of the cross and why does the Christian Church proclaim that cross? Certainly there was no attractiveness about the cross previous to the time of the Apostle Paul. It meant the same in those days as an instrument of punishment as the electric chair, or the lethal-gas chamber, or the hangman's noose mean for us today. The cross was an emblem of suffering and shame, of torture and death. But since the days of Jesus Christ on earth the old rugged cross has had a wonderful attraction for us. Why?

Despite all the progress the cross of Jesus Christ shows us that we have not progressed one inch away from sin. Though man has been making wonderful progress in all lines of human endeavor, still he has come short of the glory of God. Sin still separates between God and man. It is the cross on Golgotha that reveals the terrible condemnation that man deserved. So when we begin to depend on our own self-righteousness, our own wisdom and accomplishments, it is the cross that puts us in our proper place, that gives us a proper view of ourselves. But the cross does more than that. It also gives us a proper view of God. The cross shows us that "while we were yet sinners, God commended His love for us in that Christ died for us," that "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities. The chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed." That is the glory of the cross.

WINS IN ARGENTINA—Arturo Frondizi, leftist lawyer, casts his ballot in Buenos Aires during Argentina's presidential election. Coming hard on the heels of the worst cotton harvesting conditions in 50 years is a serious aftermath which threatens

If we would see the glory of the cross, we must see in Jesus the Anointed One, our Prophet who declares the will of God and reveals the way of salvation; our High-Priest who as the innocent Lamb of God gives Himself as the sin-offering for His people; our King who rules over all His creatures, who protects and governs His Church, and who lives and triumphs with the saints in heaven.

Let us come to the cross with this prayer in our hearts, "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief." Confess with your heart, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God," and "Neither is there salvation in any other, nor is there any other name given among men under heaven whereby we must be saved." Then, and then alone, will you see the glory of the cross.

14 major cotton producing states have had to lower their minimum for certification of cottonseed from 80% of germination to as low as 50% of germination. Seed will be offered for sale which normally would be fit only for crushing at the oil mill.

Although Texas suffered the same bad harvesting conditions as did the other states, Texas certification standards have thus far remained unchanged. This means that, with optimum planting conditions this spring, it is possible there will be enough reliable seed to take care of the state's needs.

But good seed is not plentiful, and the speculators who freeloader for profits on such disasters are aware of this and are already set up for business.

Spring planting in most areas is still some weeks away. It is not too early, however, to begin thinking about getting ready to plant, and the farmer's most reliable source of dependable seed is, as always, his certified seed dealer whom he knows and trusts.

The cotton farmer will long remember those who take unfair advantage of present conditions to skyrocket prices beyond reasonable levels. The outcome of this present unusual situation can affect good producer-buyer relations for years to come.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas—What will happen to Texas without a sure flow of oil money to grease the wheels of government and business?

March oil allowable was set at 2,517,249 barrels a day (a drop of 513,814 barrels from February) with only nine producing days. Railroad Commission said the cutback to lowest level since pre-World War II days was necessitated by excess stocks.

Over-supply developed this way, according to officials;

THE OLD HOME TOWN By STANLEY

Texas production was shoved to record highs a year ago to supply Europe while the Suez Canal was closed. Then Suez reopened, Middle East Oil flowed to Europe again and Texas was left holding unwanted surplus.

Further aggravating the situation was the gush of foreign oil into the U. S., taking part of the market from Texas producers.

Digging into causes and effects is Governor Price Daniel's Oil Imports Study Commission. At first-round hearings in Austin these views were presented:

By Gov. Daniel—Texas is facing its most serious economic threat in 25 years. "Mandatory federal controls" are apparently the only way to stop excessive importing.

By State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert—Continuation of the present oil production pattern for another 90 days would put the state $20,000,000 further in the red by the end of the current fiscal period. This would mean a $32,000,000 shortage rather than the $12,000,000 deficit estimated earlier.

By Maurice Acers, Texas Employment Commission—Employment in the Texas oil industry has declined 8,000 since last July. A drop of five per cent in oil employment takes $50,000,000 in wages from the Texas economy.

By A. T. Mullins, General Land Office—One company has said it will stop seeking oil from state-owned lands, and others have said they will, unless the state reduces lease prices.

By J. Warren Hitt, Texas Education Agency—Approximately 31.3 per cent of state school money comes from the oil and gas industry.

By Marshall Formby, Com-

CYPRIO TURKS DEMONSTRATE—A young boy with placard "Partition or Death" around his neck is held by his father during a demonstration by Cypriot Turks in Trafalgar Square, London. Thousands of persons marched from headquarters of the "Cyprus is Turkish" Association to the mass meeting.

mission Chairman—Reduced oil production would eventually cut back construction of highways.

By John H. Winters, Commissioner of Public Welfare—Loss of oil revenue could reduce payments to the aged, the blind and dependent children.

By Rep. Max Smith, House Appropriations Chairman—Next Legislature faces the prospect of spending money it doesn't have or finding new sources of taxation.

Dr. Phillip E. Coldwell, Dallas Federal Reserve Bank—Imports are only partly to blame for Texas oil troubles. Problem of oversupply is world-wide and likely will continue for some time.

French Robertson of Abilene is chairman of the Study Commission. Governor Daniel called hearings held today "very successful." Next meeting is to be March 18 in Abilene.

Meantime, the governor has wired governors in 20 other states asking them to join in the effort to get federal government action limiting imports.

Search for New Industry—Long-dormant Texas Industrial Commission has new members and a new job.

Gov. Daniel named E. B. Germany of Dallas chairman and gave the commission the task of enticing new industries to Texas to help relieve unemployment.

Originally designed to study labor-management troubles, the commission had been inactive for some years. Its new industry-attracting work is to be financed by private contributions and conducted cooperatively with chambers of commerce and other local groups.

Members are Houston Harte, San Angelo Standard-Times publisher; A. G. McNeese Jr., banker and lawyer, Houston; George T. Hinson, former state representative, Mineola; Chester C. Wine, power company employee, Laredo.

New Receiver—James M. Williamson succeeds J. D. Wheeler in the often-spotlighted job as liquidator for the State Board of Insurance. Williamson is a former district judge in Laredo and prior to his appointment was attorney for several Fort Worth insurance companies.

State liquidator has responsibility for winding up affairs of insurance companies that go broke. For some years the office has been caught in the middle of a struggle between an Austin district court and the State Insurance Board as to which has authority to appoint receivership attorneys for the bankrupt companies.

Prison Farm Cotton Cut—Texas taxpayers face an extra burden unless the Prison System can get a more favorable cotton acreage allotment, says Gen. Mgr. O. B. Ellis.

Ellis protested to the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture that acreage for prison farms has been cut disproportionately, costing the system $2,500,000 in income. No chance for improvement is seen this year since the USDA refused to interfere with locally set quotas. Court action is planned, but could not bring help before the '58 planting season.

Texas Prison System is heavily dependent on income from inmate-run industry and agriculture to foot the upkeep bills.

Credit Order Holds—Credit insurance rates in Texas will be slashed by about 50 per cent beginning May 1—despite howls of protest from affected companies.

State Board of Insurance first issued an order cutting credit insurance rates last December. Order was withdrawn for re-study after companies declared it would ruin their business.

New order is only slightly changed. Estimates are that it will cut income from credit insurance from $16,500,000 to $8,000,000 annually. Only possible roadblock would be the re-summing of a suit filed earlier to halt enforcement of the December order.

Short Snorts—Dr. Robert Strain, associate professor of insurance at the University of Texas, has been named to the State Board of Insurance to replace Joe P. Gibbs of Seguin, who has resigned. . . Building construction authorized during January was up five per cent from December, but ran 15 per cent short of the January, 1957, level. Total for state this January was $83,191,000. . . It's okay for the State Hospital Board to use funds from a private organization (the H. E. Butt Foundation) to supplement the salary for an executive director, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled. State-set pay is $15,000 annually. Board chairman said they've had trouble finding a director because competent men in similar positions are getting $25,000 to $50,000. . . Merit System Council of the State Department of Health has announced examinations for posts in accounting, administration, nursing, medicine, psychology, social work, engineering and sanitation. Applications can be obtained from Merit System Council, 630 Littlefield Building, Austin 18.
