Mills officials praised Mills County club boys and girls for the outstanding job they did during the past year in setting this record. While they have presented awards in this county each year, this year was somewhat of a record in number.

You've Earned Wool Payments, Apply By April 30

If you have sold wool or unshorn lambs since April 1, 1957, chances are you have earned a payment under the Federal wool incentive program. To collect it, be sure to file an application with your County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office not later than April 30. The County ASC Committee recommended farmers today.

These applications, according to the Committee, are to cover wool and unshorn lambs marketed not later than March 31, 1958.

Wool incentive payments are made under the National Wool Act of 1954. Payments on shorn wool are a direct incentive to increase production. Payments on unshorn lambs are made to encourage normal marketing of lambs with the wool on and avoid unusual shearing to get the shorn wool payment. The goal of the program is to increase U. S. production to 300 million pounds of shorn wool—about a one-third increase over production in recent years.

Loy Long Announces Change To Super Market After Remodeling

Loy Long this week announces the change of his store to the Super Market class after an extensive remodeling program during which many new additions were made.

The remodeling and improvement program has been underway for the past three months. It started shortly after January 1, and work has been going on in the transformation of the store until the past week.

During this three months period the following new equipment has been added. A new refrigerated fresh fruit and vegetable case, new refrigerated dairy case, new 18 foot long self service frozen foods case, new display gondolas throughout the store and the entire store has been repainted and redecorated.

The main part of the store has been enlarged and a special office has been constructed in part of the former stock room. All motor equipment was moved outside the building in a specially built house.

Announcement of the change from Loy Long Grocery to Loy Long Super Market was made this week by Mr. Long as preparations were underway for his big "After Remodeling Sale" this weekend.

Mr. Long states that he is happy to announce changing his store into the super market class. "The changes and additions make it the most complete food market in Mills County," he said.

WE'LL MISS YOU

We are in receipt of letter from one of our long time correspondents now residing in El Paso that we want to pass on to our readers, as follows:

"I'm using my last envelope and I'm quitting—not because it's my last envelope, I suppose I should have quit long ago. Then maybe you could have got someone from Ebony to write who really knew what people were doing down there.

"I began writing for the papers in Brown and Mills Counties when I was a girl. However I didn't write continuously, I moved away from there in 1911. We moved back in 1931. Almost immediately I began to write for the papers again, and I kept it up most of the time until now — 27 years.

"You might get Nancy Reeves to write from down there. Her grandmother, Mrs. Stanley Reeves, would really be a good one, but I doubt that she would want to be bothered with it. Very sincerely, Clementine Wilmetth Briley."

So you see we lost a long time correspondent and you can also see that we have an opening for someone to send us the news from the Ebony community in Western Mills County.

We will be happy to hear from some of the folks who reside in that area regarding someone who might be interested in sending us the happenings of their community.

We are sorry to lose Mrs. Briley who has been one of the many faithful correspondents for the Eagle for many years. It is only fitting and proper to express our appreciation to her at this time for the good work she did as Ebony correspondent during the years. And to Mrs. Briley we want to say: WE'LL MISS YOU.

There is little question but that there will be many others who will join us in saying those words. Because we have heard many, many favorable comments through the years from readers far and near that they certainly have enjoyed reading after "Clementine." We know that many of our readers will join us in saying to Mrs. Clementine Wilmetth Briley, WE'LL MISS YOU.

25 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from The Eagle Files of April 7, 1933)

Jack McKenzie, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKenzie, was badly hurt one day this week when his horse fell with him while he was riding in his grandmother's pasture, east of town. His foot was caught in the stirrup and his ankle badly wrenched. He was carried to the hospital at Brownwood, where he has since been under treatment. It is hoped he will recover without permanent injury.

There were 29 votes cast in the city election Tuesday and the three candidates for reelection as aldermen received all the votes. They were Neal Dickerson, Joe A. Palmer and W. J. Weatherby. No other city officers were to be elected at this time, the mayor and other officers having been elected for two years in the 1932 election.

Two members of the school board of Goldthwaite were to be elected last Saturday and 321 votes were cast. Four names were on the ticket and D. O. Simpson and J. E. Greathouse were elected.

A cat belonging to Wiley Henry of this city, lost her only kitten several weeks ago and lost no time in adopting into her household six little squirrels with wide open wondering eyes that were pets. The cat is very devoted to her baby squirrels and mothers them frequently, and affectionately shampoos their fur with a carressing tongue or just plain love licks. Seeing is believing. It is interesting to see the cat and her family of squirrels.

The Prairie School has elected Frazier Henry, Miss Elizabeth Aldridge, Ray Duren and Mr.

and Mrs. Sparkman for another year.

Duren School this week re-elected their faculty for another year, which is composed of W. H. Wasserman, Miss Shaw, Misses Katherine and Mae Dur-Alvie Beck has returned attending a business college at Fort Worth. He is the son of Mrs. J. S. Beck of Nabors community.

Mrs. S. F. Harper reported her husband well and recovering.

50 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from The Eagle Files of April 4, 1908)

Frank Jackson of this city and Miss Jennie Morrow were married at noon last Saturday in Llano and arrived in this city on Monday evening's train.

After an illness of only a few days the soul of Grandma Hickey returned to the God who gave it Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. She was the mother of Mrs. R. A. Slack and had made her home with Mr. Slack and family for many years and was dearly loved by the children and in fact the entire family.

E. M. Dickerson and wife left Tuesday for San Saba where he has bought an interest with Will Carroll in a meat market, and they expect to make their home in that city.

Dr. Brooking of Star was here Monday en route home from Temple, where he had been to assist in an operation on S. F. Harper of Star in a Temple hospital.

MARCH OF EVENTS

See Johnson the Best Bet for 1960 Demo Nomination | Politicos Give Texan Edge Over Senator John Kennedy

By HENRY CATHART
Central Press Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—Many politicians believe that Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson is the best bet for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination. Polls show Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts as the frontrunner but the consensus of experts is that the Bay State legislator couldn't command the nationwide support a really formidable aspirant for the White House must have.

Senator Johnson

Johnson has given every indication that he wants to be President. He is leaving no stone unturned as he proceeds systematically in the path that may lead to that prize.

In the Senate, Johnson took charge of the Space Age issue, and, when his position in that field was solidified, he tackled the business recession by proposing his own "back to prosperity" program.

The Texan's friends also argue that Johnson would be in the best position to challenge the probable Republican nominee, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, because of his Senate leadership.

● AFL-CIO RETRENCHMENT—Some staff members of the AFL-CIO have recently wondered what the future holds for the united labor movement.

The reason is that the big labor federation has undergone quite a retrenchment program. AFL-CIO President George Meany has given two reasons for this: The loss of about $1 million a year as a result of the expulsion of the Teamsters, Bakery Workers and Laundry Workers on corruption charges and the fact that the merger left them overstaffed.

In any case, the AFL-CIO has released or retired about 100 persons, many of them organizers, others in its publications department.

The question for the future is whether additional unions are to be expelled. If so, it may mean a further retrenchment program with loss of additional jobs.

● MALARIA CONTROL—Malaria—the scourge of the builders of the Panama canal—has jolted complacent officials in the Canal Zone once more.

Officials, who felt that they had the deadly anopheles mosquito—the carrier of the disease—under control, began relaxing control measures. Drainage systems were allowed to deteriorate.

The result has been an alarming comeback of the disease and Canal Zone officials have rushed to Congress for more funds to revive their control program.

The seriousness of the situation is indicated by the fact that in March, 1956, the Canal Zone had no cases of malaria for the first time in its history, but in the last eight months of 1957, there were 397 cases.

● HOFFA FEEVED—Teamsters President James R. Hoffa became indignant when reporters in Miami Beach recently wrote that he had heart trouble. However, there is evidence that at least he had received a warning from his physician.

When the reports were published, Hoffa ridiculed them and even offered to run a 100-yard dash with the newsmen to prove that he was in the "pink" of condition.

The union leader's physician refused to comment when asked about the reports except to say that Hoffa's appearance "speaks for itself—and just try to keep up with him for a day."

Nevertheless, it was generally acknowledged that Hoffa delayed a meeting of the union's executive board early this month while he had a physical check-up.

NEW COLORED LIGHT BULBS COMPLEMENT HOME FURNISHINGS

The new colored bulbs recently introduced to the American public can be used to good advantage in complementing home furnishings and complexions. Earlier colored bulbs were heavily coated and created a pronounced color effect in a room that was not always pleasing. The amount of color from the new bulbs is very slight and simply heightens or enhances the related colors in a room. For example, the green-blue or aqua bulb gives a soft light which emphasizes furnishings that are predominately blue or green; pink bulbs flatter pink and red hues.

Colored bulbs produce about one-third less light than white ones of the same wattage. For this reason homemakers should buy 150-watt colored bulbs to replace 100-watt white bulbs. Fixtures in which 60-watt white bulbs are adequate will need 75-watt colored bulbs. Colored bulbs should be used in ceiling and wall fixtures and in lamps that are used for decorative purposes rather than for reading, sewing or other demanding visual tasks. Never neglect the principles of good lighting simply to create decorative color effects.

USE RIGHT TREATMENT TO FIGHT FIRE

Fire-fighting generally is considered a man's job. But when fire breaks out in the home, it's likely to be the homemaker who needs to know what to do in a hurry. How urgently she needs this information is shown by the yearly toll of deaths and injuries in home fires. It is most important to know that different types of fires need different treatments. For example, water will put out ordinary wood, paper or rubbish fires, but may be hazardous in other fires. Water can spread and scatter burning grease or gasoline, and it can cause shock if applied to burning electric equipment. Your local fire department can advise on the selection of fire extinguishers for your home but here are some points about their use:

FOR CLASS A FIRES—burning paper, cloth, wood or household rubbish wet down to remove heat. A 5-gallon pump tank kept filled with water and in a convenient place is good for quenching such fires. Also recommended is a soda acid extinguisher.

FOR CLASS B FIRES—burning oil, grease paint or gasoline. The foam extinguishers are excellent for this type of fire. If grease gets on fire during cooking, it may be smothered by putting a tight lid on the pan or by scattering baking soda over it. Baking soda absorbs grease and gives off carbon dioxide to suffocate the fire. Keep a package near the kitchen range for a safety precaution.

FOR CLASS C FIRES—electrical equipment, smother with a substance that does not conduct electricity. The carbon dioxide extinguisher and the dry chemical extinguisher both are excellent for this type of fire.

need for a spiritual awakening in the home, in the Church, and in the nation. May God help us to stop and place the value on the local Churches that our forefathers did. God help us as Christian people to be more loyal to our Church homes and attend its services, share the responsibility, and cast a vote for the cause of Christ.

I think of the prayer (St. John 17) that Jesus prayed for all of us. Dear Brothers and Sisters, those must have been the sweetest words ever spoken. In this prayer Jesus prayed that we may be one as he and the Father are one. I do not believe we will ever be one in faith or Church relationship until Jesus comes, but I am persuaded that we can be one in Spirit.

In this hour of selfishness, indifference, and evil it certainly behooves us in the different Churches to unite in one spirit to raise the wonderful standard of Christian living. If it was necessary for Jesus to pray and that he prayed for us, certainly it is essential to Christian living that we pray.

I shall call your attention to one other petition in the prayer that Jesus prayed. He prayed that we be kept from evil. In that, we are not of the world, even as he is not of the world. Prayer is the greatest weapon on earth. I am not so concerned with satellites, sputniks or space ships, but the space one should fill on Sunday in worship. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of the world, and against spiritual wickedness in high places. (Ephesians 6:12)

The highest place I know anything about this side of heaven is the local Church. God help us to pray for it and for the man of God, your pastor. He proclaims the word of God and feeds the hungry souls of God's people. When the great apostle Paul came to the end of the way, he was able to say, I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, and I have kept the faith. (2nd Timothy 4:7).

Sheepmen Expand Budget To Promote Their Own Products

Optimism for the future of the sheep industry in America was prevalent at the annual meeting of delegates to the American Sheep Producers Council in mid-March at Denver, Colorado.

Delegates, representing every major sheep producing area of the United States, attended the meeting to hear of past accomplishments and plans for the future in the self-help program of promotion and advertising conducted by the council for sheepmen.

With sheep numbers on the increase, the directors of the council boosted the budget for lamb and wool advertising and promotion. Wool advertising and promotion for the fiscal year beginning July 1, is set at $900,000, compared to $800,000 for the current fiscal year. The lamb budget was increased from the present $1,153,000 to $1,350,000, and includes the addition of four promotion areas to the present—Toledo, Minneapolis -

St. Paul, New York City and expansion of the Southern California promotion to include the San Diego marketing area.

G. N. Winder of Denver and Craig, Colo., was re-elected president of the American Sheep Producers Council, and chairman of the board. Other officers are J. R. Broadbent of Salt Lake City, vice-president; Farrell Shultz of DeGraff, Ohio, treasurer; J. M. (Casey) Jones of Denver, executive-secretary; and Mrs. Eunice L. Gray, assistant treasurer.

vided that motorists take their cars immediately in order that there will be no delay period between the handling of one vehicle and the next."

The Public Safety Director pointed out that every minute of the inspection station's time will be at a premium between now and midnight April 15, and that waiting lines will be in store for those who wait as the deadline draws nearer.

Auto Inspections Lag Is Announced

Roughly, 1 out of 5 Texas autos have not been inspected as required by State law and there remains but 14 more working days prior to the inspection deadline on April 15.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today that some 700,000 motor vehicles must still pass through the inspection lines prior to that date if their owners are to avoid being handed tickets for violation of the Motor Inspection Law. Enforcement will begin April 16, he said.

"It is still possible," said Garrison, "for the State's 4500 licensed inspection stations to handle the last minute rush pro-

Scouting Expedition To Be Held In Brownwood Saturday, April 19

Hundreds of Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers throughout the eight-county Comanche Trail Council will stage their fourth annual spring Scouting Exposition on April 19.

The county fair style show will be held in Memorial Hall in Brownwood beginning at 2 p. m. and lasting until 9:00 p. m. This is a walk-around show and people will feel free to come and go at will.

The Scouts will exhibit and demonstrate "Scouting in Action." More than thirty Scouting activities will be featured which will include achievements and merit badges such as pioneering, cooking, camping, Indian Lore, leatherworking, geology, forestry, handicrafts, first aid, sky observers, games, stunts, skills and others.

"The Exposition will be the biggest boys' show in our area. It will feature boy activities and all sorts of displays which depict skills and hobbies staged by the boys," stated Lowell Pouncey, Chairman of Camping and Activities for the Comanche Trail Council.

Packs, Troops and Posts that have registered to participate are from Brownwood, Breckenridge, Cisco, Lingleville, De Leon, Stephenville, Priddy, Goldthwaite, Lampasas, Bangs and Early with more coming in soon.

The booths are set up before noon and boys will be in the booths demonstrating their subjects starting at 2 p. m.

Tickets may be secured through the boys and each Scout Unit will receive a percentage from ticket sales which will be used for the summer camping and activities. Local Scout officials urge the public to secure tickets and attend the show.

There will be stage attractions which will give the show added appeal. Awards will be presented to all units participating.

Norton McCullough, Brownwood and E. R. Weatherford, Breckenridge, are District Chairmen of Camping and Activities.

Local Girl Scouts Enjoy Weekend At Lake Brownwood

By JUDY DALTON

Jan Moreland, Linda Yarborough, Judy Benningfield, Norma Faye Duren, Lynetta Duren and I went to a Girl Scout Weekend Camp at Lake Brownwood March 21 through 23. The camp was a tryout to see who will get to go to Regional Camp this summer, in Grapevine, Texas.

We left Friday afternoon right after school. After we registered we got acquainted with the other girls. They were from Baird, Cisco, Breckenridge and Weatherford.

Friday night we were told about the National Encampment which will be held in Colorado in 1959. We learned lots of new songs.

Saturday morning we made a unit kitchen and cooked our lunch in it. We learned a lot of camp-craft skills that morning and afternoon. That night each patrol had a skit and we sang songs and played games.

Sunday morning we had a Scout's Own. We came home Sunday afternoon. Everyone had a lot of fun and are hoping to get to go to Regional. My one regret was that the weather was so bad we had to sleep inside.

1958 Bond Sales Are Going Strong

February Savings Bonds sales show a ten per cent increase in Texas.

This announcement was made by W. P. Duren, Chairman of the Mills County Savings Bonds Committee.

"February sales in Mills County were $11,378 and sales for the first two months of 1958 totaled $34,744, which is 16.3% of our 1958 goal of $213,000," Chairman Duren said.

Sales in Texas during February were $16,051,086 and sales for the first two months of 1958 totaled $32,660,448, which is 18.6% of the State's 1958 goal of $175,000,000.

"The slogan for the 1958 Savings Bonds program is 'Share-in-America'. Every American who buys a Savings Bond is providing for his own future, adding to the strength of his country, both militarily and economically, and is putting real meaning in the slogan 'Share-in-America,'" Mr. Duren concluded.

EGG MARKET NEWS—A NEW SERVICE FOR TEXAS

Sometime in April, thousands of Texans connected with the state's mammoth egg industry will benefit from a new and important Texas Department of Agriculture service—regular reporting of prices and conditions on Texas eggs.

Since the recent inauguration of the Texas Egg Law made possible more uniform egg marketing conditions over the state, the need for such a service has been voiced from every direction. The main problem facing the Market News Section of the TDA is setting up an egg market report was to make certain all areas of the state benefitted equally when reporting began. And that was a lot of territory to cover.

It was determined that no less than six areas should have individual price reports, at least at the beginning, in order that regional differences in prices and conditions would not be overlooked.

Therefore, present plans are to report a Texas six-area market including the Lubbock-South Plains Area, Dallas-Fort Worth Area, Tyler-East Texas Area, Houston Area, Corpus Christi-Rio Grande Valley Area, and Austin-San Antonio Area. The report is tentatively scheduled for bi-weekly release, on Monday and Thursday of each week. Prices will be given at first on five grades—AA Extra Large, AA Large, A Large, A Medium, and B Large—with possibly other classifications to be added later.

Sources for price information in each of the six areas will be bona fide egg buyers who directly purchase the producer's eggs. They will be contacted directly by personnel from each of the TDA's regional offices.

The Texas Egg Market will be made available to all interested persons through the press and radio as well as through the Texas Poultry & Egg Market News bulletin, mailed free of charge on request.

Requests for information should be addressed to John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

Hillside Mission

By LIDA WYRNE

Do you believe the Bible? Is there everlasting fire? What does God's Word say?

St. Matthew 5:41 tells us: "Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels."

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson have returned home after several months stay in Rule.

Questions And Answers About Social Security

Question: My wife is 5 years younger than I am, and she never worked under social security. Could she receive benefits when I reach 65 and retire?

Answer: Your wife could not receive benefits until she reached age 62 unless she had a child in her care who is eligible for benefits.

Question: How much could she receive at age 65 if my benefit is $88.50? I understand something about a "reduction" if she applies before she is 65.

Answer: A wife's benefit is 1/2 of her husband's. However, if she does not have a child entitled to benefit payments in her care, and files at age 62, it will be reduced by 25%. That would result in a wife's permanently reduced benefit in the amount of $33.30. If, on the other hand, she decided to wait until she became 65, she would receive $44.30 per month as your wife. The amount she would receive if she applied for benefits at any time after 62 and before 65 would depend on the number of months before 65 she filed her application.

PARENT PROBLEMS

Good Cause Worthless If Kids Learn To Steal

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D. SOMETIMES after they have made a collection for a worthy cause, children will be tempted to use the money themselves. If they succumb to the temptation, they will have had their first lesson in stealing. This might happen to children from the very best families. One time I served on a committee that planned to send children of six to ten about the neighborhood on Halloween asking for coins to be put into small cardboard boxes. Good Purpose This form of trick or treat had a good purpose. The child made a request for something for others—needy foreign children—instead of for himself. Like anybody else, I was enthusiastic over the enterprise. However, I wanted to know if there was any danger that the children might be tempted not to turn in all the money they collected. The majority of the committee were sure this would be no problem. They saw it a good way to raise a sizable fund. To that degree, it worked. No Check Made Looking into the matter later, I learned that a careful check had not been made. Several of the children never returned their boxes at all and a few passed them on to other children to make the collections. On a certain Veterans' Day, children under twelve of a certain community were asked to sell poppies. The collections were very high. But some reliable observers noted that a few children never turned in their money they collected. One group went on a spree. Often children have given coin cards to the March of Dimes, always struck me as a doubtful procedure. If a child succumbed to temptation to use the money himself, would the parent in which he participated morally justified? Children in day school, Scouts, Girl Scouts and all sorts of building groups are asked to sell things, collect money, serve as treasurer of a group, often without supervision against temptation to steal. If your child served on the foregoing campaign, certainly should tell him yourself, help him keep an accurate account of money collected, and be sure he turned it all in. Responsibility for the collection could be lessened by children who are asked to use a budgeted allowance. (My bulletin, "Parent Problems," may be had by sending address, U. S. stamp, and envelope to me in care of this paper.) ANSWERING PARENTS' Q. We live on a farm, 13, is a poor reader. I have spent much time in catalogues of farm equipment. I want to know how to get a good book. A. He may be doing the best thing to improve himself. ©1957, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

hunting in certain parts of the state now is furnishing sport for a good many hunters.

This hunting is done for the benefit of one of the game warden's currently on the job. However, some hunters drive down country lanes to shoot coyotes that dare to roam the roads. This latter method is dangerous. Also it's a violation of the law.

Recently a group of us went coyote hunting in Zapata County, down on the Mexican border. We were with Raymond Davee, the game warden. Raymond knew where the coyotes were running, and also how to use a mouth call.

It was a bad morning. The wind was blowing strong from the north. This meant the call didn't carry very far in that direction, and the animals could get our scent down wind.

We did get one coyote, however, which proves it can be done.

It was the first time the three of us had met. Yet when we showed up for the hunt each of us had a scope-equipped 222 Remington. Proof enough that this is an ideal calibre for coyote shooting.

Although this gun is not recommended for deer, it is effective in the hands of a good shot. My gun, the pump action, was used by three wildlife biologists during the deer season to take three deer specimens. Each was killed with a single shot.

The gun is equipped with a Weaver K 4 scope, and you can put the bullet just about where you want to.

Incidentally, Remington has just announced a souped up version of the 222 in the model 722. It is a magnum load, and is not interchangeable with the present cartridge. The bullet weighs 55 grains. It leaves the muzzle at 3300 fps, dropping to 2340 at 200 yards.

It has 1330 ft. lbs. of energy at the muzzle, dropping to 670 at 200 yards. It's mid-range trajectory at 200 yards is 2.3" and 6.1" at 300 yards, which makes it a flat shooter for varmints.

Shooting coyotes and fox with a gun like this can furnish a lot of good sport and serve a good job of varment eradication.

First, however, you need the land owner's permission, and you should use every precaution. There is less danger in one of these high-speed bullets than in a heavy bullet because they go to pieces on impact with most anything. However, they'll kill a steer just as dead as they will a coyote.

Coyote calling has become quite a pastime with ranch owners in West and Southwest Texas. Game wardens also have taken up the craze and many coyotes have been lured into shooting range.

Mostly the calls have been made by individuals who have perfected the reeds to produce noises like a crying rabbit. Some hunters are adept at calling with their mouths, or sucking against the shoulder of the hand. Still others buy reed horns in 5 and 10 stores. With a little practice they are very effective.

The task is to mimic as nearly as possible the cry of an injured rabbit. The coyote can hear this for two or three miles. Unless he's been shot at before he'll get there in a hurry.

Growing Popular—A sport which is showing a rapid increase in Texas is bow and arrow hunting. Advances in the manufacture of archery equipment have made it possible for enthusiasts to get high quality at prices that are within reason.

Unlike firearms, the bow and arrow can be shot in the back yard of your own home. It also is a deadly weapon in the field.

I have just finished reading a new book, Modern Bow Hunting, by Hiram J. Grogan and published by the Stackpole Co., which gives a new insight into archery.

The book deals with all aspects of archery and hunting. It tells how to hunt upland game birds, how to make multi-barbed arrowheads, and very important, the use of a reel and line to save arrows.

Since it is now legal in Texas to use a bow and arrow in shooting rough fish, many hunters will be interested in this phase. In fact there is an entire chapter in the book on bow fishing, telling how to shoot rough fish.

Another chapter deals with the use of squealer calls in predatory hunting. You can put this book on your list of recommended reading.

Snake Hunt—An interesting group recently held its annual field meet on the banks of the Rio Grande in Southwest Texas. It is the Texas Herpetological Society, made up of some 70 men and women who like to hunt snakes and lizards.

Actually it is more than just a hobby with them. Most of them are zoology teachers in schools and colleges of the state. Others, however, are in related work, where they need to know all about the things that crawl and hide under rocks and old logs.

This year's field meet was held on the Trevino ranch, 40 miles northwest of Laredo. More than 600 individual specimens were taken by the "Herps."

Although they turned over thousands of big rocks, they unearthed only one rattler. It was a big four-footer. This area generally is infested with these reptiles. However, the field meet was in the middle of March, just after a heavy norther, and perhaps the snakes were still in their dens.

Dr. Richard Baldouf of Texas A&M College was elected president and Al Flury of the Game & Fish Commission at Mathis, vice president of the group.

Camping Out—If you are planning a camping vacation this summer you may want a book just off the McMillan press. It is "The New Way of the Wilderness." In it Calvin Rutstrum draws heavily on a long background of wilderness living.

Rutstrum owns a small acreage in Minnesota where he lives six months of the year, in a house of stone he cut by hand. The other six months he spends in the wilderness. For 12 years he has supervised play programs in children's camps. Each year he takes 200 youngsters on canoe trips.

All this experience has been reduced into an interesting volume for all who like the outdoors.

Two Abilene Women Killed, Others Injured In Car Accident Here Sunday

Sunday evening about 6:15 at the intersection north of Goldthwaite two women were fatally injured in a head-on auto collision. Three other persons were hospitalized as a result of the accident.

The two ladies killed were Mrs. Minnie Irby Choate, 54, an employee of Abilene State School, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ida Mauldin Choate. Mrs. Minnie Choate died en route to a Brownwood hospital. The other Mrs. Choate died later at the Medical Arts Hospital in Brownwood.

Others hospitalized were Pamela Choate, daughter of Mrs. Ida Choate, and Mrs. J. A. Griffin of Waco, also Miss Lorene Vogt, a patient of the Abilene State School. Miss Vogt and Pamela Choate were carried to Medical Arts Hospital in Brownwood and Mrs. Griffin to the San Saba Memorial Hospital in San Saba by Roy Wilkins Ambulance. Mrs. Griffin suffered a broken right limb and a fractured pelvis in addition to lacerations. Miss Vogt received multiple lacerations about the face and a fractured right arm, and Pamela Choate suffered head injuries and a fractured lower jaw. At last report, Miss Vogt and Pamela had been dismissed from the Brownwood hospital while Mrs. Griffin remained at the San Saba hospital.

Mr. Griffin and the other two Choate children were not injured enough to be hospitalized.

The accident happened one mile north of here at the intersection of Highways 183 and 84, and was investigated by the Mills County Sheriff, C. F. Stubblefield, and a San Saba Highway patrolman. Mrs. Minnie Choate was driver of the 1951 Ford, while Mr. Griffin was driver of the other car involved. Mrs. Choate was headed north toward Brownwood and the Griffins were going toward Waco on Highway 84.

Both Mrs. Minnie Choate and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ida Choate, were buried at Abilene Tuesday.

By GAIL FEATHERSTON

The Goldthwaite High School Homemaking classes had their annual style show March 28 in the High School Auditorium. It was presented in the form of a skit entitled, "There is an Easter Bunny." The characters were Peggy and Betty played by Maria Eubank who wanted to be beautiful and popular and didn't believe there was an Easter Bunny, Judi Reid who couldn't understand why she wanted to be beautiful and popular and didn't believe there was an Easter Bunny. The two girls dropped off to sleep talking and Betty dreamed that the Easter Bunny brought her everything she wanted. Mr. and Mrs. Easter Bunny were played by Johnette Medford and Norma Faye Duren.

Girls from all three homemaking classes modeled the clothes they made this year. Homemaking I girls modeled skirts and blouses, Homemaking II girls modeled dresses and the Homemaking III girls modeled suits.

Barbara Burns sang a solo, "Easter Parade," and was accompanied by Benna Reid at the piano.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas—It's "needling" time in Texas. That is the period when those in office start feeling the barbs of those who have their eyes on the same office.

Filing deadline for the summer's primaries is May 5. In any pre-election period the "outs" have a busy season of looking for "bugs under chips." Any likely looking "bug" is hauled out to test public reaction on its value as future campaign fodder against the "ins."

But this year no one has to look hard. Texas' problems are all too obvious. Unemployment highs persist stubbornly into spring weeks. Oil, the state's No. 1 moneymaker, is seriously bogged down. A multi-million-dollar deficit in state revenues is in prospect.

Hence: an open season for "viewing with alarm" and prospect of lively campaigns if some hard runners line up for major offices.

No More Specials—He sees no need of a special legislative session now, says Gov. Price Daniel, because the state government is already pushing an anti-recessional program.

Governor Daniel's statement was in reply to a demand by the president of the Texas AFL-CIO for an 8-point program to combat unemployment. Jerry Holleman challenged the governor to back up his philosophy of "states rights" by meeting "states responsibilities." His "points" included revision of unemployment compensation laws, speeding up spending programs for buildings, highways, water projects, etc.

Daniel retorted that Holleman's demands took no note of work already moving apace. Texas, he said, "did not wait for a recession to exercise its responsibility of providing highway, water conservation, attraction of industry, increased salary and building construction programs."

"This is one reason the situation in Texas is much better than in most other states."

"I have every confidence," said the governor, "that the prophets of gloom and doom will not talk us out of a continuation of our unparalleled progress."

Water Board Commended—Governor Daniel fired back a specific reply to the AFL-CIO's urging to "push the water conservation program."

Water conservation has been one of Daniel's "most-pushed" projects since gubernatorial campaigning days.

Daniel said, in effect, the new Water Development Board had moved in a cloud of dust to get organized, set up rules, establish procedures, begin hearings and give preliminary approval to two projects—all within 90 days after taking oath of office.

Two projects, if finally approved, would lend $5,000,000 to the Sabine River Authority for a new lake and $350,000 to the Williamson County Water District No. 1 for a water diversion project.

TEC In Fuss Parade—Internal fussing contagious with state boards has spread to the Texas Employment Commission. AFL-CIO is stoking the fire from outside.

TEC's member representing labor, R. F. Newman, blasted the fuss into orbit by accusing the other two members, Chairman Perry Brown and Maurice Acers, of dealing him out of policy decisions. Brown represents the public and Acers the employers.

Argument focused initially on policy toward employees within TEC itself. Newman contended morale of TEC's 2,000 employees was shot. They live in fear, he said, of knife-in-the-back retaliations, salary cuts and demotions when their decisions offend trade groups, corporation lawyers or volunteer legal counselors.

Acers retailed in a letter to trade organizations and employers charging Newman and "representatives of organized groups" with using the recession to gain their own ends.

That brought AFL-CIO leaders into the fray. State President Jerry Holleman fired back that Acers was flagrantly wasting state funds for propaganda purposes. Acers was also accused of denying just claims for unemployment compensation and forcing workers to go to court for rightful benefits.

Acers had a reply for that, too. Merely another attempt by AFL-CIO to influence commission policies, he said.

TEC supervises collection of unemployment taxes from employers and payment of benefits to unemployed workers.

No Help From Ike—More tears than oil flow these days in Texas as petroleum circles. President Eisenhower's token tightening of the voluntary oil import quota plan just won't help, oilmen say.

They had pled for an import crackdown to relieve the slump in demand for domestic oil. What they got was "much too little and much too late," said J. J. O'Brien of San Antonio, president of Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association.

Governor Daniel called the action from Washington wholly inadequate. Railroad Commissioner William J. Murray didn't see how the effort could be effective.

Eisenhower's plan called for a minute curtailment of voluntary imports of crude oil but left products untouched and the import door wide open to newcomers.

Texas fields were on a nine-day production pattern throughout March with an eight-day pattern ordered for April.

Two Plus Two—In most educational circles, prime interest has shifted from "Why Johnny Can't Read" to "Why Johnny Can't Calculate the Orbit of a Satellite."

But even before Sputnik, the State Board of Education set up a special 20-member commission to study the effectiveness of mathematics teaching in Texas public schools.

School administrators, teachers and board members making up the commission began their one-year study at a meeting in Austin. Broad aims are to discover whether requirements are adequate, courses sound and teaching methods effective.

No Break Yet—Payments to the jobless hit a record high of $1,568,958 in one week, according to the Texas Employment Commission's latest report.

Number of persons filing compensation claims inched up from 89,309 the previous week to 92,435.

TEC's mid-February report showed some 75,000 persons covered by unemployment insurance out of work. At that time it was hoped that approach of spring would bring the usual pick-up in jobs.

Instead, unemployment has increased more than 20 per cent.

Short Snorts—Miss Doris Connerly, legislative reference director for the State Library, was cited as "Public Employee of the Year" at the first awards banquet of the Austin chapter, American Society for Public Administration.

Mrs. Cordie Jones spent Sunday in San Angelo with her brother.
