The campaign, with a goal of $10,000 included in this amount of money to send two girls to National Camp this year, will be conducted under the leadership of Norman Duren, Scoutmaster and Chairman of the local organization.

More details of the drive will be carried in next week's issue of the Eagle, according to Mr. Duren.

"Ten Commandments" To Show At Melba Theatre For Entire Week

A fabulous screen masterpiece, the "Ten Commandments" opens at the Melba Theatre tonight and will continue showing for an entire week. This is the most monumental film of all time and is produced by Cecil B. DeMille.

The story of how one man's character was forged in the fires of power, temptation, sacrifice and love, until he was fit to receive God's Law, and lead his people out of bondage to teach them to live under the code that became the foundation of three great religions. This picture is above all timeless, enthralling human drama of man's first struggle for freedom.

Representing man's right to free will on the one hand and the other are Charlton Heston as Moses and Yul Brynner as Pharaoh Ramesses II. Anne Baxter as Princess Ne-

New Soil Bank Program Underway In ASC Office; Users Known Nov. 1

Paper work on the new soil bank program is under way in the Mills County ASC office, according to Lee W. Tabor, office manager, but three or four months will be required for completion of the rental contracts.

The average payment rate for acreage already in the conservation reserve is $8 per acre. However, the rate for acreage going into conservation reserve for the first time in 1959 will receive an average payment of $10 per acre. Although $10 per acre is the average payment rate for Mills County, the payment rates for individual farms may be as high as 150 per cent of the county average payment rate.

Sept. 26 is the final day for a farmer to apply for establishment of a maximum payment rate under the new soil bank program.

This maximum rate, established by the county ASC committee, is not necessarily the rate that the farmer will be paid for taking cropland out of production.

After the farmer has been notified of his maximum rate, he has until Oct. 17 to apply for a soil bank contract. When he applies for the contract, he specifies the lowest payment rate he is willing to accept for land placed in the soil bank.

In specifying the lowest rate he will accept, the farmer in effect is bidding against other farmers throughout Texas for participation in the soil bank program.

The state ASC office will establish priority groups from the applications for contracts. Contract applications in which farmers have specified smaller percentages of their maximum rates will have higher priority.

For example a farmer with a maximum rate of $10 an acre who is willing to accept $8 will have higher priority than a farmer with the same maximum rate who is willing to accept no less than $9.

With this bidding for participation in the program, it is possible that some counties in the state will have no acreage placed in the soil bank for the period beginning Jan. 1, 1959.

Land placed in the program will be taken out of production for three, five or 10-year periods.

Al Langford, Clint Harbors State Legumes Is Answer To Fertile Soil

BY HUBERT L. BERRY

Al Langford, like Clint Harbors, feels that a legume is the answer to more fertile soil. Al plants from one-fourth to one-half of his tillable land each year to Austrian winter peas. The peas are usually followed by small grain.

Peas as a conservation crop have a distinct advantage, Al thinks. In the first place, he believes there is no better crop for raising the fertility of the soil. He harvested approximately 85 bushels of oats per acre last spring where he had peas the year before. The thing that impressed people most from the highway, was the uniformity of height and the dark green color his grain kept throughout the growing period.

Grazing of the peas is permitted for a short period on the Langford farm. Livestock are removed in plenty of time to allow the peas to produce adequate root and top growth for maximum conservation benefits. Lambs grazing peas did the best he ever saw, according to Langford.

Now is the time to plant winter legumes. Cost sharing is available through your County ASC committee on Austrian winter peas, Dixie wonder peas, hairy vetch, Madrid clover, Hubam clover, Button clover, and fertilizer if needed.

Legumes are the only plants with the ability to take any sizable quantity of nitrogen from the air and deposit it into the soil through nodules on the roots. This cheap source of nitrogen, the building block of protein, should not be overlooked. Clint Harbors, widely known conservation farmer, says a legume is better than a plow for loosening up tight soil. Loose friable soils absorb moisture much faster and plow much easier than soils compacted by equipment and mined each year of all beneficial plant growth.

LEGUME SEEDING FIELD PROGRAM

There will be a legume seeding field day September 23 (Tuesday) on the Ernest Kohler farm four miles south of Priddy at 9:30 a. m. Seeding equipment will be demonstrated and explained. Also equipment dealers will be given the opportunity to demonstrate their equipment and tell you about it. The program is sponsored by the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District and all farmers interested are urged to be present. The program will last about two hours and will be near the highway.

D. A. Newton of Valley Mills, former Superintendent of Goldthwaite Schools, was here Tuesday visiting friends.

Eagles Lose To San Saba 'Dillos; To Play Cross Plains Friday Night

The Goldthwaite Eagles lost to the San Saba 'Dillos last Friday night on Rogan Field to the tune of 24-0.

After a scoreless first half, the 'Dillos came back to score three quick touchdowns. Their first TD was made by Dean Taff from the six inch line, conversion try was made by Chico Rodriguez giving San Saba an 8-0 lead. Following a block punt on Goldthwaite's 28 yard line the 'Dillos drove for another score by Rodriguez from the one yard line with Martin Long going over for the two extra points. Again following a block punt on Goldthwaite's 37 yard line, San Saba drove for another TD, this time with Martin Long going over from the one yard line. And again Rodriguez made the extra two points.

Although both teams were hitting very hard there were no serious injuries sustained by either team.

CROSS PLAINS TO HOST EAGLES SEPT. 19

The Eagles will be off for Cross Plains tomorrow night (Friday, Sept. 19) for their third game of the season. Last year the Eagles defeated the Buffaloes by a score of 12-6 on Eagle Field. This year according to the coach, the boys will be very evenly matched so all the fans who plan to follow the Eagles there should see a good game indeed. Game time is set for 8:00 o'clock. Let's all go and help the Eagles defeat the Cross Plains team again this year.

VIC'S . . .

SOLILOQUY

CENSORSHIP THROUGH TAXATION

Ask anyone what the Internal Revenue Service is and you'll get some such answer as this: "It's a Federal administrative agency, whose duty is to collect taxes as provided in revenue laws passed by Congress."

But the Internal Revenue Service is going far afield from its proper and established function. It is, in effect, setting itself up as a censor of what enterprises and organizations may say in their advertising, on pain of heavy tax penalties. It is also making decisions that are purely within the province of business management.

Here is the remarkable and menacing story.

Internal Revenue Service has ruled that electric utility companies cannot regard the cost of institutional advertising, which presents their side of the public-vs-private power controversy, as a legitimate business expense, deductible in income tax returns.

Internal Revenue Service has also ruled that the cost of literature opposing socialism issued by one of the country's most respected professional organizations, the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, is not exempt from tax.

Internal Revenue Service has also disallowed public relations advertising placed over a four-year period by the Timken Roller Bearing Company. This advertising discussed the Bill of Rights, Capitalism vs. Socialism, principals of taxation, and other such matter.

In other words, Internal Revenue Service holds that advertising designed to sell products or services is a legitimate business deduction—but that advertising designed to maintain an economic and political climate in which private enterprise may successfully produce those products and services is not. It is attempting to muzzle the right of people to speak their minds freely and without penalty—and, in doing that, to prevent other people from knowing and weighing both sides of controversies.

If Internal Revenue Service's incredible stand is maintained, no one will be immune. Anyone may be faced with the choice of accepting bureaucratic censorship—or of paying a heavy penalty for exerting absolutely basic rights which are supposed to be guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. This is one of the ways in which dictatorship begins.

"THERE MUST BE A CHANGE"

People should wake up and demand that Congress stop its spending spree.

That urgent need is emphasized by a member of Congress itself—Representative Byrnes of Wisconsin. And he doesn't feel he is fighting a lost cause. He says: "I think there is always hope that when people start to understand—and the people must be made to understand where we are—there will be a change in the attitude. There must be a change . . ."

"And I am sure Congress will be responsive to a feeling for economy on the part of the people. I have not given up the fight and I am still going to exert every effort I can to bring economy into our government."

Congressman Byrnes's statement of principle could not have come at a better time. It now looks as if the Federal deficit for this year will be at least $12 billion. The debt ceiling has been raised again—to $288 billion—and there is a definite possibility another increase will be requested next year. The last Congress, like its predecessors, made huge appropriations for which there was little if any justification. For instance, it voted to give the Atomic Energy Commission twice as much money for the construction of atomically-fueled electric projects as the Administration asked for.

Congressman Byrnes said the plain hard truth in five words: "There must be a change."

They climbed atop a small tin-roofed shed where Bob's toy pistol came in contact with a live wire. Tom, wearing tennis shoes, was able to pull Bob loose from the wire but not until the shock was so severe that it rendered Bob unconscious. Artificial respiration was applied continuously for six hours but failed to bring life back to the little boy.

Inside WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

U. S. Nose Counters Check | First Census Cost $400,000,000
Great Many Other Things | 1950's Tab Was $90,000,000

By HENRY CATHCART

Central Press Association Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—According to the late Mr. Phineas T. Barnum, master showman and hokum-peddler, there's a "wonder" every minute in the United States. Mr. Barnum wouldn't say it, but his estimate leaves considerable room for hope. The U. S. Census Bureau's "population clock" in the Department of Commerce in Washington ticks off a birth every seven and a half seconds—or seven persons every minute! That means some 100,000 new mouths to feed every day of the year.

Seven every minute!

The clock, designed as a visual presentation of the growth of population, has become a tourist attraction in the nation's capital. The clock contains timing flashers which illustrate America's vital statistics. Flashing blue light signifies births. Every 20 seconds a flashing blue light denotes a death. A green light every minute and a half means the arrival of an emigrant. A red light each 20 minutes indicates the departure of an emigrant.

Another set of white lights indicates the increase in the population, like your car's speedometer records the mileage it's traveled. Of course, the flash of a light on the Census Bureau's "clock" doesn't necessarily coincide with the actual taking place. However, it does symbolize the average effect of each event.

COUNTING HEADS IS ONLY A PART of the work of the census bureau's fascinating work. Tabulations of almost everything about America that can be expressed in numbers is part of its work. Besides births, deaths, taxes, divorces, prices, crimes, number of parks, farms, banks, telephones, fish and even dogs go down in the bureau's public records.

Once a year The Statistical Abstract of the United States is published by the bureau. It's the giant index of everyday goings-on in the good old U.S.A. Within this hefty volume facts come to you regarding many phases of our national life. Do more people marry in June than, say, January? Yes, of course! And there's the least popular month. The Statistical Abstract reveals that August is the runner-up month in the marriage department.

The bureau can't locate missing persons (since specific information is confidential and can only be supplied to the person to whom it relates or a proper legal representative). However, with nearly a billion names recorded on the bureau's files since its beginning in 1790, it can be helpful in establishing place and year of birth for people without birth certificates.

According to Census officials, it has helped three and a half million people establish birth records! For people without a birth certificate, the bureau supplies a census record. Providing, of course, that acceptable proofs have not been located elsewhere.

IN 1902 THE CENSUS BUREAU was made a permanent office. It conducts its research into facts and figures on a round-the-clock basis, with a special work load each 10 years for the "Big" Census. Continuous pulse-taking of the nation's economic heart-beat goes on at all times.

Population surveys yield figures on unemployment and employment, migration, income, and school enrollment, for example. Timely and reliable sample surveys of retail and wholesale trade are made monthly and annually. Surveys of some 75 manufacturing industries are conducted at monthly, quarterly and annual intervals. Yearly business surveys of manufacturing firms keep figures on major manufacturing groups current.

The Census Bureau has been built in the rising cost of living. The first census, in 1790, cost a mere $4,000. The 1850 census cost about a million dollars. The 1950 census tab cost taxpayers more than $90 million. For this, Uncle Sam gets figures on practically everything—including the kitchen sink.

TAKE BACKACHE OUT OF CLEANING JOBS

Do you usually end up with an aching back on cleaning day? ... If so, you may be interested in a study made by the Rhode Island Experiment Station. Several types of cleaning equipment were used by tall, average height and short home makers for various regular cleaning jobs to find the easiest and best methods.

Vacuum cleaning under low furniture proved one of the more difficult jobs. The study showed that it is much easier to kneel on one knee so that you can see and reach the area to be cleaned and use the stronger leg muscles instead of the back muscles for lifting.

Arrangement of furniture counts, too, in easy cleaning. About 4 feet of free space is needed in front of any item of furniture that stands close to the floor to run the vacuum tool underneath conveniently. Exactly how much space is needed depends somewhat on the type of cleaner and the clearance under the furniture. The choice would be furniture built to the floor or with considerable clearance above it.

How you use the cleaner on the floor counts, too. Many women try to push the cleaner as far as they can reach. Bending, stretching and back strain can be saved by keeping each stroke within easy reach and stepping back and forth with each stroke.

ACT LIKE DETECTIVES WHEN YOU SHOP . . .

Many young people have dollars in their pockets or bank accounts earned in summer jobs. They will spend some of these earnings for clothing and supplies for school. To get the "best buys" for their money they need to be a sort of detective.

First they must know what they are looking for and how much they can or want to spend. "Impulse buying" is usually costly.

Then they gather evidence that helps them select the just-right things out of all of the many, many offerings in the

Local HD Club Meets September 9

The Goldthwaite Home Demonstration Club met in the Mills County Youth Center Tuesday, September 9, with 15 members present. They each gave a helpful talk on "Preventing Accidents."

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served. Next meeting will be September 30, at the Youth Center with Meses. J. C. Blackwell, O. B. Bell and Oscar Burns hostesses. This will be an agent meeting, "Selection of Furniture."

Buick's New Styling Is Sleek And Low

Sleek and low describes Buick's new styling for 1959. The model shown is the luxurious two-door Electra hardtop which measures less than 55 inches in height yet retains approximately the same headroom as last year's Buick. The "delta-wing" styling of the rear fenders that flare out to a point, and twin headlights that are set on an angle give the new Buick a look that is light and jaunty. Compound windshields that curve back into the roof and eliminate wind noise are a feature on all 1959 Buicks. The Electra is powered by a 401-cubic inch V-8 engine with 10.5-to-1 compression ratio. Twin turbine Dynaflo and power steering are standard on all models in the Electra series.

TEXAS POULTRY MARKET TRENDS

Texas, as a major poultry producing state, is waging a pitched battle to show a profit this year in competition with Arkansas, Georgia and Mississippi.

The poultry industry, specializing in broilers or frying chickens, has been operating on such a narrow margin between production costs and sales price
in the late summer and fall that a 1c difference up or down on live birds per pound can mean the difference between profit and loss for many buyers and sellers. Under such tight conditions, an accurate price reporting system is a vital necessity to all the trade.

The Texas Market News Service, operated by the State Department of Agriculture in Austin, reports poultry trading prices every weekday morning.
Market trading is determined by calling both buyers and sellers of birds to determine the actual confirmed sale prices.
These prices are subject to rapid changes, often fluctuating overnight and even within a few hours.

Many people in the broiler industry believe the price reported by the market news service each morning is a fixed price for the day. They wait for the price to be announced and then accept that amount as a positive rate of trading.
Actually the market news report should be used by buyers and sellers merely as a gauge

by which to judge their own selling activities. In recent months, fully 85 to 90% of the trade has delayed setting a price on their birds until the market report is announced.

This means that 10 to 15% of the people who actually get a firm price for their birds and report their trading to the market news service are setting the price for nearly all the chickens
in Texas.

It is to the buyer's and seller's advantage to establish their own price for their chickens without depending solely on a market news report. These confirmed sales are vital to the market news service in reporting trading as it occurred. Otherwise, if no one buys or sells until the report comes out, how is the reporter going to establish any true market trends?
The buyers or sellers who report their activities to federal or state market news services and then use the final data as a check against their own sales are utilizing the market service
to its best advantage.

Those persons who allow the market reports to determine their prices exclusively, are permitting other members of the industry to do their job for them and should not complain about prices if they do not participate in the active trading which is reported by the news service.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex.—Texas Democrats now look toward 1960, the year some think they might nominate the next president.

And added to the party's tumultuous history is the 1958 Democratic convention. It was billed as a "harmony" meet, but more resembled a family reunion to fight over grandpa's will.

Gov. Price Daniel's liberal foes are hotter under their collars than ever, but despite their noisy opposition, the governor "ruled the roost" in San Antonio. And, with an executive committee acceptable to him and a platform reflecting his views, he holds the reins of party leadership for two years.

U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn also were honored by the conventioners. Johnson was urged to become a presidential candidate.

Test in the struggle between Daniel's supporters and the liberal DOT faction championed by U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough came over the selection of a presiding officer. Congressman Frank Icard of Wichita Falls, with the support of Senator Johnson, Speaker Rayburn and a comfortable majority of delegates, snowed under Corsicana Judge Jim Sewell.

But the real grudge being nursed by the Yarborough faction was over the bouncing of two executive committee nominees selected by the delegates from their districts. They were replaced, on the recommendation of the nominations committee and vote of the convention, by people regarded as more friendly to the governor.

Liberals, who haven't been "in" with a Texas governor for years, have fought bitterly against this traditional veto over the make-up of the executive committee. They feel the committee members should be like a legislature, reflecting the varying views of the sections which elect them.

Having lost out on this, as in 1956, they howled protests and finally stomped out, as before, promising revenge.

LEADERS—Jim Lindsey of Texarkana will serve a second term as chairman of the Democratic executive committee. So will Mrs. R. Max Brooks of Austin as vice-chairman.

J. E. Connally of Abilene succeeds Jake Jacobsen, the governor's administrative assistant, as secretary.

Forty of the 62-member committee are newly appointed.

PRINCIPALS—States rights and cooperation within the official party framework were stressed in the Democratic convention resolutions.

Delegates resolved against: (1) Unauthorized use of the name, Democrats of Texas, by DOT, (2) "overstepping of power" by the U. S. Supreme Court, (3) use of military troops to enforce school desegregation, (4) state income or sales taxes, (5) excessive foreign imports and (6) federal aid to schools.

They favored (1) enactment of laws to prevent members of one political party from voting in the primary of another and (2) Governor Daniel's platform for the next two years.

REPUBLICANS AGREE—Delhad little difficulty uniting on a platform to keep the country on a "Down with the Democrats!" platform.

Conservative Democrats, they declared, must join with the Republicans to keep the country from going completely socialist.

With apparent nervousness, the Republicans adopted a "kid gloves" resolution on school segregation. They recommended the "solution in Texas be left to the people, the school boards and courts within the state."

Another resolution swatted at Democratic office holders who failed to support states rights legislation in the last session of Congress.

Republicans also affirmed their approval of Sec'y of Agriculture Ezra Benson and their disapproval of federally financed hydro-electric dams.

SAME PAY, DIFFERENT WAY—Beginning this month, members of the State Board of Insurance are to be paid $50 per working day rather than a straight $15,000 a year.

This was Attorney General Will Wilson's ruling on a subject that was—and still is—a cause of strong feeling among legislators.

When the Insurance reorganization bill was being considered last session, House members strongly favored a full-time Board. Senate was just as set

NEWS from YOUR COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT TEXAS A. & M. COLLEGE EXTENSION SERVICE

BY GEORGE G. REESE

FORAGE PRODUCTION

Grazing is the cheapest source of feed nutrients for livestock. Profitable commercial beef, goat and sheep operations must be based on a good forage program. A well-rounded forage operation provides green grazing as much of the time as possible and includes forage reserves in the form of hay or silage or both for use when green grazing is not available.

In planning the forage program, the following must be considered:

- (1) Which plants are adapted that fit the particular soil and livestock situation.
- (2) Which plants provide the desired quality and amount of grazing when needed.
- (3) How much of each kind of pasture is necessary to supply the amount of grazing needed.
- (4) A fertilizer program to supply the type and amount needed for good production.
- (5) Fencing, permanent and temporary, that allows good grazing management.
- (6) Provision for making hay or silage from forage not needed for grazing and for reserve.
- (7) Provision for weed control.

The best approach to maximum green grazing is through the use of different pastures to supply grazing in different seasons. It is useless to expect 12-months' adequate grazing from one pasture plant or one combination of plants. Both permanent and temporary pastures are needed.

Pastures must have the right type and amount of fertilizer at the proper time for best production. A ton of dry-grass hay contains approximately 30 lbs. of N, 10 pounds of P, and 30 pounds of K; legumes contain about a third more. Proper fertilization increases efficiency of moisture utilization, resulting in more yield per unit of water available. A soil test is the best means of determining the type and amount of fertilizer needed. A dollar for a soil test is the best fertilizer that can be spent.

The more productive the pasture on a part-time Board. Final compromise was a measure which said the Board should be full time for the first year with each member receiving $15,000. Beginning in September, 1958, it was to become part-time with each member receiving $50 per day. Up to 300 working days a year (worth $15,000) was authorized.

Actually, to work 300 days out of 365 the Board would have to work Saturdays and holidays—or else give up vacations.

And an influential senator has openly implied there may be trouble if the Board doesn't comply with "legislative intent" that it serve part-time. Board members object strongly, say the work involved is at least a full-time job.

"SPEAKERS" STILL SPOT—So tense and tight is the race for Speaker of the House that the possibility of winning with Republican backing has become an issue.

Rep. Joe Burkett of Kerrville has accused present Speaker Waggoner Car of Lubbock of seeking support among the GOP candidates for House posts.

Twenty-nine Republicans are opposing Democratic nominees for House posts. Conceivably, if a few, or maybe even one, of the Republicans won, his could be the deciding vote.

SERUM SHIPMENTS DEFENDED—A ban on airmail shipment of serums, vaccines and diagnostic specimens could be "disastrous," says State Health Commissioner Henry A. Holle.

A proposed amendment to postal regulations would allow airlines to refuse to carry such items. Dr. Holle said he felt danger to handling personnel was small compared to the crippling effect such a regulation would have on the machinery for combatting disease outbreaks. "Numerous cases could be cited," he said, "where rapid transit was essential for diagnosis and identification."

ture, the less severe the weed problem. Weeds that appear should not be allowed to use moisture and plant food needed to produce forage. A heavy stand of weeds can reduce the grass production as much as 75 per cent.

Mowing in the bloom stage usually gives good control of most weeds. Chemical control may sometimes be more economical and feasible for some pastures. Most broad-leaved weeds may be controlled by broadcast spraying with two-thirds of a pound of 2, 4-D in 20 gallons of water per acre.

SEARS SWINE PROGRAM

The 1958 Mills County Sears Swine Show was held last Saturday at the Show Barns in Goldthwaite.

The pigs were of exceptional quality and the boys and girls have done an outstanding job in swine production this year.

Mr. E. R. Lawrence, Hamilton County Agent, judged the gilts. Following is the placing:
First—Bebe Harper; Second, Karry Harper; Third, Linda Cook; Fourth, Carroll Bunting; Fifth, Pete Miles Jr.

Jimmy Soules also exhibited his Sears Boar pig. The first place gilt, shown by Bebe Harper and Jimmy Soules' boar pig, will be shown in the District Sears Show at Brownwood on September 20th.

Clementine Wilmeth Briley Writes From Temporary Home In El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

Here we are back at El Paso again for our fifth school year, and that little Johnny who was not three till October 24 the first year we came, started to school today (Sept. 4). His mother had already registered him, but I went with him this morning. We went by his teacher's desk, and handed her his dollar for supplies. I left him in the school yard where he found one little boy that he knew. He came home for lunch. (We live only three doors from the Cooley Cottage Schools where they teach the first three grades.) He says his teacher is pretty, and he likes her. He said he and Jimmy—a nearby friend—were the quietest ones in the room.

Billy is in the 6th grade this year, and he is in the beautiful, new, nearby Junior HI building where they have put the 6th grades from both Clardy and Cooley. El Paso school enrollment totals 41,095. It is expected to rise to 42,000 by Oct. 1.

Getting ready to leave home is an exacting ordeal, and I was glad of the extra days I could have when we found that instead of Friday, Aug. 29, we did not need to leave till Tuesday, Sept. 2. It is hard to decide what to take and what to leave, to get things packed, and to get things shaped up at home for such a long absence.

We were in town Friday. Saw Joe Reeves. He invited us to his wedding. He and June Singleton were married at church in Mullin Saturday night, Aug. 30. I was keen to go, but didn't get to. Joe said they were leaving that night for Lubbock where he will work in the Telephone office.

Sunday, Aug. 31, Mrs. Edna Dwyer and John and I went to church at Austin Avenue Church of Christ in Brownwood. Then went from there to the Ebony Homecoming at Coggin Park. We surely were glad to see so many old Ebony-ites. I'm sure I won't get all the names but I'll mention as many as I can:

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Philen, Mr. and Mrs. (Ollie Philen) Paul Forsythe, and Alton Philen (son of the late Josh Philen) and family, all of Port Arthur; Mrs. Betty Philen Mashburn of Goldthwaite; Mr. and Mrs. (Mary Philen) McCarty of South Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Josh Philen, Mrs. Eva Philen Webb and Mrs. John Philen, all of Brownwood;

From Ebony, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egger, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves, Mrs. Effie Egger, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Griffin, Johnny Griffin and Ezelle Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowder and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hanna from Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Griffin from Brownwood, Percy from Dallas, John from Electra, Mrs. Lois Griffin Grogan, and Mrs. Ina Griffin Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hawthorne; from Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lovelace, Mrs. Edna Egger Boyd, Mrs. Audrey Egger Spain, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nelms, Jim Wilmeth, Gene and Lee Meek, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDearman, and Mr. and Mrs. D. Welch. Ludlow Allen from Indian Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jernigan from Goldthwaite.

From Coggin Park we went to Medical Arts Hospital to see Miss Cora Posey, who recently broke her hip. She seemed to be doing fine and hoped to be home in another week.

On our way home we stopped to see the Jim Wilmeths, and on the other side of Willis Creek we stopped for a lively visit with Mrs. Charlie Forsythe.

Tuesday at noon we were at last ready to go. In spite of the dry, hot summer, the crape myrtles were in full bloom, and the senisa was blooming, but there were myriads of buds not yet open.

We stopped in Brownwood to see the Burt Brileys. Then on to San Angelo where we spent the night with my niece, Nell Millar Norman. Next day we stopped

We arrived at 6:17 Delta, El Paso just a little before sundown, and were greeted joyously by Billy and Johnny and Grace.

This has been a wonderful summer. I have seen so many fine people. I'll quote this little verse from Joe Evans:

I'm fully aware
That my youth is all spent,
That my "Get up and Go"
Has got up and went,
But I really don't mind,
When I think with a grin,
Of all the grand places
My "Get Up" has been.

Hysterical efforts to cure abnormal situations result only in more hysteria. Consistent, NORMAL, thoughtfully-planned newspaper advertising provides convincing evidence that the great economic structure of our nation will not come crashing down. Thus, advertising the fact that when average individuals follow their matter-of-fact, normal ways of living and buy the things they want and need—they weave together the loose threads of trade, which form the fabric of our normal prosperity! Normal thinking . . . normal living . . . and normal buying keeps our dollars busy—and "BUSY DOLLARS MEAN BUSY MEN"!

Fall Planting Time Is Here!

You can SEE why a McCormick® drill seeds more accurately.

Look closely at the fluted feed on a McCormick grain drill. Notice that the feed roll turns freely on a full-length bearing. This prevents binding or wobbling—assures precision seeding even after long use. Take off one of the blades on a McCormick double-disk opener. Notice the exclusive front seed delivery. Seed is carried to the bottom of the seed trench by the movement of the disk. This guarantees even depth planting at any speed. Look closely at a McCormick drill, and you'll find dozens of little differences in design that make a big difference in accuracy, dependability, and durability. Stop in for firsthand proof of McCormick drill superiority the next time you're in town.

Questions And Answers About Social Security

Question: When can I get the increase in my security payments authorized the new law?

Answer: Your check for February, which will reflect the increase, will be about 10 percent and will be made automatically.

Question: Last year I told I was not eligible for social security credits for the three years just before I became disabled. Will I be eligible under the new law?

Answer: If you have security credits for at least one of the ten years before you became disabled, you can make a new application for the new law removed the requirement that you had to have one and one-half years of work in the last three years.

Question: My husband's social security payments. We have 3 children. Can't there be some way we can get help for the children?

Answer: The 1958 amendments to the Social Security Act have made it possible for parents and the children to receive payments. You can meet the social security representative at the Department of Public Welfare in Goldthwaite to file an application for the children. Be sure to bring the children's birth certificates. You can find the Post Office when the representative will be in Goldthwaite.

Question: When my husband died several years ago, I was told that I was not eligible for social security because I was a widow. Has the law changed?

Answer: Yes, the law changed this year. If you were furnishing one-half support, you may now be eligible for benefits even if you are a widow or childless. You see the social security representative promptly and your case with him.

COMMIT THY WAY
UNTO THE LORD

Rev. J. K. Brim, Pastor
Methodist Church

The rancher who rode the hills of Texas before the days of a night of utter darkness. He knew the way well, but before he reached his home night
there was a deep overcast and no moon. The hills were filled with fog.
The rancher found himself alone
in a night so dark
that he could not see his hand under his pony or anything. The pony was complete.

The rancher seized him when he saw his plight, for it was dark that he reach home before the dawn. The cowboy stopped and a fearful unsureness of direction. He had lost his sense of direction. He was about to make a mistake.

He prayed, but also,
he remembered
the words of the Psalmist, "Commit thy way unto the Lord, and he will bring it to pass."
There come times when we realize that we need the presence and companionship of one who knows and cares.

We are relieved of our distress and our panic is gone
when we commit our way to Him who can walk and see in
the darkest night.

In trust, the cowboy committed his way to his horse, and
in the darkness he could not see
his horse, but he could feel him.
In trust, we too can feel that
"underneath are the everlasting
arms" of God. "Commit thy way
unto the Lord," for He knows
the way home.

ing, his faith became courageous; and trustingly, the rancher gave his pony free rein and started him out into a night that was all darkness. As the horse settled down to a gait he loved, the man ceased from his panic. The sure, rhythmic motion beneath him brought comfort and assurance. A thought rang clear, "You cannot be lost with a friend who knows the way home."

The story has a lesson for our day. We are often so in need of a way out of our spiritual darkness. In our self-sufficiency we forget that we are not equal to the stresses that come to us.
How many walk alone, boasting that they are captains of their own destiny! But those dark nights when man cannot see his hand before him settle down,
and a fearful unsureness of spirit makes him realize that he is lost and does not know the
way home.

How comforting it is then to remember the words of the Psalmist, "Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in him and he will bring it to pass."
There come times when we realize that we need the presence and companionship of one who knows and cares.

We are relieved of our distress and our panic is gone
when we commit our way to Him who can walk and see in
the darkest night.

In trust, the cowboy committed his way to his horse, and
in the darkness he could not see
his horse, but he could feel him.
In trust, we too can feel that
"underneath are the everlasting
arms" of God. "Commit thy way
unto the Lord," for He knows
the way home.

IN LEGION GET-TOGETHER—At the American Legion Convention in Chicago, Albert Brown, a six-footer from San Antonio, Tex., gets into a friendly discussion with H. Everett Hoy (left) of the Seward, Alaska, Post who has become far famed in northern areas as "the Santa Claus" of Alaska. The friendly argument concerned the size challenge of the newest state.

People in Texas are very migratory in their fishing habits.
Fishermen from west Texas
quite often go into the eastern part of the state to do their fishing. Those from the north, south, east, and west frequently go fishing in the Gulf. Gulf fishermen go to the still-lake area.
Those in the eastern portion of Texas try the other sections,
for a change of pace.

A check of car tags around Texas' rivers, lakes and streams proves these facts to be true.
Editors of Texas newspapers learned long ago that their readers have varied interests—
and that the outdoorsman is no exception.

That's why you will find articles on gulf fishing in the Panhandle newspapers, and still-lake fishing stories in the valley and gulf coast press.
All of which accounts for the many boats you see trailing Texas highways in every direction.

That's why this column, which deals with all phases of fishing, hunting and boating, appears in newspapers in all areas of the state. Not in all newspapers, of course, but in more than 200 weeklies and dailies in widely scattered sections of Texas.

It is indicative of great interest in the outdoors—and of the tremendous appeal that fishing, hunting and boating have in this great state of ours.
Light Tackle Grows Popular
Many fishermen in the past few years have been weaned away from stiff casting rods and conventional reels and have turned to spin-fishing with light tackle.

They are finding much more fun. If you want still more enjoyment, try fishing with a fly
rod.
Make up your mind first which you want, pan fish or bass. Of course in fishing for either you will very likely come up with the other. But that is one of the many surprises of fishing.

Our first choice is the popping bug—for bass. These bugs are made by most of the major manufacturers. They are just about the size of your thumb.
A neat little bauble with multicolored hackle.
Personally we use a 7½ foot Montague glass rod and an Ocean City No. 90 reel. Most other fishermen we know use 8 or 8½ foot rods. Some use automatic reels, while others use just plain fly reels.

We use a six foot leader on a shooting head, tapered Cor-land line. The idea is to put that popping bug up close to the bank, near a brush pile, or beneath trees where insects or plant life may be falling into the water, or a spot where the flies are working.

Let it rest there for a few seconds, then give it a mighty pop.
Retrieve it a foot or two and let it rest again—if it does.
If you want just pan fish,
use smaller flies. Occasionally you'll get a bass but you really can sack up the bream and sometimes crapple.

Try it!
Can Fish See—Hear—Smell?
Much has been written about the ability of fish to hear, see and smell. And, the topic is one that provokes considerable discussion among fishermen.
In a very concise statement

on the subject, an out-of-state zoologist says that fish are quite capable of detecting noises. Also they spot movement easily. But their eyes don't seem to pick up details readily. However, their sense of smell is acute.

Finally, he says, "Fish not only have taste buds in their mouths, but on much of the exterior of their bodies."

Standing on a dock in Lake Travis late one recent afternoon we saw several pound-size black bass surface to feed on food particles that had collected on the oil drums that supported the dock.

We got almost within touching distance of them and still didn't scare them away. Perhaps they were so intent on feeding that our presence didn't matter. Or maybe they just couldn't see us. If they saw us they certainly didn't scare. On the other hand a loud noise that vibrated through the water did cause them to dive deep.

Anyway, the zoologist's claim that fish have taste buds on much of the exterior of their bodies is a new one to us. Had you heard that before?

To Keep Minnows Alive
Have trouble keeping your minnows alive until you reach the old fishing hole and can drop your minnow bucket into the water? Well, here's a trick that may help.

Next time you buy your minnows ask the minnow man to give you a tray full of ice from his refrigerator. Drop about five squares of the ice into the min-now bucket. It will keep the water cool and also help preserve the life of your minnows with the oxygen it adds to the water.

Lay the remaining pieces of ice on top of the minnow bucket.
As that ice melts it will drip inside and serve to keep the temperature of the water down.

Census Bureau
Gets Information
On Polio Shots

The United States Public Health Service needs to know how much polio vaccine will be required for the 1959 season.

To assist the Health Service in estimating requirements, information on polio shots will be collected in the September Current Population Survey, it was announced today by Supervisor
James W. Stroud of the U. S.
Census Bureau's regional office in Dallas, Texas. This office will participate in the survey, which is conducted on a sample basis
throughout the Nation.

The questions, to be asked of all persons under 60 years of age are: Have you had any polio injections or shots? How many shots have you already had?
When did you get the latest shot?

These special questions on polio immunization will be in addition to the usual inquiries
on employment and unemployment which are asked each month of the 35,000 "sample" households covered in the Current Population Survey.
Current Population Survey
information will be collected locally this week by Nella P. Cas-beer of Lampasas, Texas.

Girl Scout Association's Fall Meeting Scheduled For Sept. 18

GOOD TURN NEEDED

"The Goldthwaite Girl Scout Association will have their first fall meeting Thursday, September 18, in the Scout House, beginning at 2 p. m., it was announced today by Mrs. Dee Breeding, community chairman of the association. "All interested parents and friends of little girls who want to belong to a Girl Scout troop are invited," Mrs. Breeding said.

"The philosophy underlying democracy," Mrs. Breeding continued, "is the foundation on which Girl Scouting is built. Helping others, giving service whenever and wherever it is needed, working with the group toward a common goal, developing qualities of leadership and learning to work under another's leadership—all this is packed into the Girl Scout program.

"This week, as the Goldthwaite Girl Scout Association begins meeting, it is well to remind ourselves that the future of our community depends, at least 50 per cent, on the generation of young girls just now growing up. They will be, sooner than we think, the wives of our young business men and community leaders, the mothers of our next generation—they will, in large measure, determine the cultural tone of our town.

"What kind of women will they be? Well, the Girl Scout program offers heartening reassurance. Through Scouting, girls learn to accept responsibility, they learn to express their own views and to allow others to express theirs, they develop a healthy interest in the world around them.

"The Girl Scouts' moral code, with its emphasis on honesty, integrity, alertness, understanding of and compassion for others, is a pattern that can hardly be improved. If much of our future lies in the hands of women fortified by such training, equipped with such skills and stimulated by such interests and motives, our community faces bright years ahead.

"But there's a job to be done first. Girl Scouting must be made available to all girls in this area. More adult leadership is needed, thorough training for those leaders is required. The cooperation of today's adults in adequate support of this area's youth program is a requisite for that bright future."

Mrs. Breeding in inviting all interested adults to this important meeting said, "If we are to make the Girl Scout program available to the girls of our community, we must have the active support of sufficient volunteers so we can say to every little girl who wants to belong, 'Yes, we have a leader for you.'"

Susanna Wesley Circle Meets Tuesday

The Susanna Wesley Circle of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. Jesse Moreland, Tuesday morning, September 16, at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan presented a very interesting program. During a business discussion led by the president, Mrs. Loyd King, the hostess served refreshments to the following members:

Mrs. Hubert Berry, Mrs. Milton Schwartz, Mrs. Albert Tully, Mrs. Thurman Head, Mrs. Tommy Graves, Mrs. Harold Yarborough, Mrs. Norman Duren, Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan, Mrs. Jim Weatherby, Mrs. Loyd King, Mrs. Y. B. Johnson and Mrs. Ray Standley.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ray Standley, September 23.

Mr. Fred Nichols of Lampassas was a guest of his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pass, Tuesday.

FFA & 4-H LAMBS

There is to be no maximum limit.

5. It is recommended that boys use home grown feeds as far as possible. High protein feed will be needed to supplement the home grown feeds.

6. Lambs will be fed approximately 110 days. The starting date for the feeding period will be November 1st. It may be necessary to select the lambs before November since a good many lambs might be sold by that date. In that case, the lambs could be run on grass or "roughed" along until the feeding period begins.

7. At the end of the feeding period, the lambs will be brought to the Livestock Show Barns in Goldthwaite, where they will be classified into market grades by a commercial lamb buyer.

8. Feeders will accompany lambs to market. Feeders will tour the stock yards, processing and packing houses and other points of educational value.

9. Assistance given from Mills County Livestock Raisers Association, and Goldthwaite Lions Club.

A. To cooperate with the agriculture teachers, County Agent and sheep committee in sponsoring the above project.

B. To offer encouragement to the feeders by visiting their project as individuals or on conducted tours.

C. The Goldthwaite Lions Club and the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association will award ribbons on the lambs in various market grades, but no other prizes will be given. This is strictly a commercial program and will be conducted as nearly as possible on the same basis as a rancher would carry on a sound lamb feeding program. Prizes or above top market price is not a part of a commercial feeding program.

D. Because of the value they see in this type of program, the Sponsoring Committee will furnish transportation and meals expense for the boys to market and return. The boys will pay trucking expense on their lambs.

Men's Downtown Bible Class Goes On A Pleasure Jaunt Sept. 9

The Men's Bible Class, thanks to Lora and Glenn Spent a wonderful evening, and I'll tell you when. On Tuesday night, the ninth, we hied to the scene, At the old Ashton homestead, so spotless and clean.

We arrived about eight, and went hammer and tongs. With fiddle and voices, to dish out the songs. With duets and quartets and any such thing. There wasn't a number that we could not sing.

Then of lemon and orange ade, we all had a drink And something unusual, now what do you think, Real home-made cookies, such a rich golden brown You gathered a handfull each time they came round.

Thanks Dear Mrs. Ashton, and Lora and Glenn, Don't wait too long, ere you do this again. The pleasure was yours, we are sure, in the giving, But the joy of receiving, make life worth the living.

International Letter Writing Week To Be Observed Here October 5-11

International Letter Writing Week will be celebrated in Goldthwaite during the week of October 5 to 11, Postmaster Fairman announced today.

Twenty-one years ago, realizing the importance of written communication, the Post Office Department joined in the observance of an annual letter writing week—an event celebrated to emphasize the meaning and value of letter writing as a link between people throughout the world.

Postmaster Fairman explained that by participating in both International Letter Writing Week and National Letter Writing Week this worthwhile objective is promoted between all peoples everywhere.

"As we all know so well," Mrs. Fairman said, "a personal letter is next to an actual visit, the most intimate means we have to communicate with our fellow human beings. Letters between our citizens and between peoples of different nations are a sure method of establishing friendly relationships and understandings.

"I urge all citizens of Mills County to join in this celebration of International Letter Writing Week. And at the same time, don't overlook your friends and relatives in America. Write them a letter too."

SOIL BANK—

soil bank, under which acreages allotted for cotton, wheat and other crops were taken out of production for one-year periods, will not be in effect after 1958.

After the farmer who has applied for a conservation reserve contract receives notification that his "bid" is acceptable, a representative of the county ASC committee will visit the farm, check the land to determine whether it meets all the soil bank requirements and measure the acreage. Then the contract may be signed.

Farmers who place all their cropland in the soil bank for either five or 10 years will be paid 110 per cent of the approved annual payment rates for their farms. This additional 10 per cent will not be paid on three-year contracts. Total annual payments under the new program are limited to $5,000 per person, regardless of the number of farms he may own.

In addition to the annual rental payments for land placed in the conservation reserve, the federal government will provide financial assistance for establishment of vegetative cover on the "reserve" land.

Tabor said he expects most of the soil bank contracts for periods beginning Jan. 1, 1959 to be signed by Dec. 1.
