Quietly, without red-tape, without hope of reward, without fanfare. The Salvation Army stands mobilized twenty-four hours of every day to extend help when help is needed, whether it be food or clothing for victims of disaster, shelter for the homeless, medical aid for the suffering, spiritual comfort to the bereaved and sick at heart.

To those without hope or faith; to those who seemingly are society's outcasts, The Salvation Army is ever a faithful friend, seeking to return value and meaning to life, giving courage and determination to start again, to work again.

Wherever there is need, there you will find The Salvation

For a moment Walton Daniel had me guessing when he said: "I thought sure when a fellow worked as hard as I did and grew a wonderful crop such as I did this year something would be in the paper about it, and maybe a a picture too.'

At first those with him had the same idea I did and tried to figure out what crop he might have in mind. After a little questioning it developed he was referring to the Bluebonnets.

You've got to hand it to Walton, he sure grew a fine crop.

APPRECIATION-The following note came to this desk from Mrs. R. C. Summy, secretary, Goldthwaite Girl Scout Association.

"The Goldthwaite Girl Scout Association would like to take this small way of telling you how much we appreciate the use of the column in your newspaper for Girl Scout activities.

"This column has many purposes and one is to stimulate interest in Girl Scouting and to acquaint the public as to what Girl Scouts do. We certainly do thank you.'

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

Find the strength for your life...

WORSHIP TOGETHER THIS WEEK

"I have never known a man to have faith in himself," goes an American adage, "unless he first has faith in God."

It takes such courage to face life . . . greater courage than any of us has alone. It takes such strength to accept success humbly, to overcome setbacks . . . greater strength than any of us has alone.

And yet the world is full of unacclaimed heroes and heroines . . . men and women who have, in the course of their lives, faced seemingly insurmountable obstacles and griefs. Faced them, and conquered them: If they were the kind of people who talked about themselves, they'd tell you . . . "I never could have done it without the help of God."

The strong Faith they called on to help them can be yours. Build such a Faith for yourself. Make it the firm foundation of your family's security and happiness. Begin this week to worship together at your Church or Synagogue. There you'll find the strength for your life.

I would like to take means of expressing my heart- Rockdale, Texas, felt thanks and deep gratitude to friends and neighbors for their many acts of love shown me during my stay in the hospital. Each beautiful flower, card, visit, phone call, prayer, or interest shown in any way in my physical welfare were deeply appreciated, and made me realanew the value of true friends. Special thanks to the doctors, nurses and hospital staff for their kind and attentive care. Again I want to say thanks for everything. May God bless each of you

Eugene and Musette Ingram. 5-12-1tp.

CARD OF THANKS

In appreciation of the many words of condolence, the beautiful floral offerings and the many kind deeds rendered during the illness and at the death of our loved one, we wish to extend our sincere thanks and gratitude

THE TRUTH

JOHN 8:32

Is baptism essential to salvation? It is plainly commanded. Acts 10:48 and 2:38. Salvation is promised to the baptized believer, Mark 16:15 -16. The apostles preached and practiced baptism for the remission of sins. Acts 2:38. Baptism is necessary to enter the kingdom of God. John 3:5. Baptism makes us free from past sins. Read Romans 6:17-18.
