Lone Star Request For Rate Increase Granted By Council

Lone Star Gas Company's application for rate increase of 5.4 cents per MCF in each step of its rates for residential and commercial users of natural gas in the city of Goldthwaite was approved by the City Council Monday night.

This action was taken by the council after the matter was delayed and postponed for the past two months since application was made by Lone Star on March 29.

The matter was brought before the Council again Monday night by Lone Star district manager A. Raesener and L. J. Ward, local manager. They informed the council that 229 out of 255 towns and cities had already granted the request.

Lone Star made application for rate increase in all of the cities and towns where the company operates after the Railroad Commission of Texas issued an order on February 15, 1960 authorizing an increase in the city gate rate to be paid to the Transmission Division of Lone Star Gas Company by the Distribution Division for gas to the Distribution Division for use by residential and commercial consumers.

The rate increase requested by Lone Star is the same amount that the Railroad Commission granted the Transmission Division. Lone Star application contended that it was only a matter of passing on the rate increase that the Distribution Division has to pay the Transmission Division.

tested and fought for more than a year before the Railroad Commission by the Texas League of Municipalities.

Lone Star Manager L. J. Ward pointed out that the rate increase will cost the average residential customer slightly more than one cent per day. Mr. Ward emphasized "that the approved increase will only offset the increased cost of gas to the Distribution Division at the city gate." "The rate in effect in Goldthwaite prior to the Council's action," Ward pointed out, "was based on our 1951 cost of service, yet the costs of serving our customers had increased continually since that year. In addition to the increase of 5.4 cents in the city gate charge, prices costing $100.00 in 1951 now cost $159.30; meters are up from $100.00 to $126.70; vehicles, $100.00 to $140.29; and payroll cost per employee, $100.00 to $151.60."

Since the rate increase had already been approved by the Railroad Commission the Council felt that it had little choice in the matter except to grant it.

After the council voted to grant the request Mayor Y. B. Johnson registered his personal feeling on the matter with a veto. The Council then voted to over-ride the mayor's veto to settle the matter.

Ward informed city officials that the new rate will go into effect with the meter reading on July 20.

Miss Delores Thomas of Farmington, New Mexico, has arrived to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid-ney Thomas and Kenneth.

VIC'S . . .

SOLILOQUY

PUZZLE—The Dog and The Rope.

"Ever hear this one?" asked the smart young fellow of a group of school boys. "A dog was tied to a rope about 14 feet long. Twenty feet away was a fat, juicy bone. What did the dog do?"

"Oh, that's an old one," answered one of the boys. "You want one of us to say, 'I give up,' and then you'll say, 'That's what the dog did.'"

"No, you're wrong, for the dog got the bone," explained the smart one.

"Well, then," ventured one of his listeners. "How DID the dog get the bone?"

Well, how DID the dog get the bone? That's just it — how DID he?

A FISH STORY WITH A DIFFERENT SLANT—This time of the year it isn't unusual to hear a few fish stories. And by the way, some of the boys come up with some pretty LONG ones too.

Now comes one with an entirely different slant.

You've got to give credit where credit is due, or give a man his just dues.

You hear about how good a fisherman a fellow is and how long or heavy fish he caught—even once in a while the catch gets longer and heavier with each re-telling.

But when a fellow comes up with a story about how poor a fisherman he is that's when it goes right down my alley. That's like me, and right away I feel that I have company as a fisherman.

Adrain Long of Big Valley just had to tell it on himself.

He met his neighbor, Dewey Tucker, down the field one day not long ago and they commented, "Why don't we do a little fishing tonight?"

It sounded like a good idea and they set out with plans for placing some lines out for the night.

They got, or maybe I should say, their wives, Pearl and Frances, got the bait ready and they were all set.

That evening they went to the river and Adrain picked out what he thought was a prospective site and said: "I guess I'll just put my line out here." His neighbor said: "Well, guess I'll just put one out up here and maybe one down a little lower."

The next morning when they went to run their lines the neighbor had a 30 pound cat on one of his lines and two six pound cats on the other. Long got the short of it—his line didn't have a thing, not even a little fish.

In commenting on the experience he said: "That beats all. We had identical bait, set out lines right there in the same area and he got 42 pounds of catfish and I got nothing. That's the kind of fisherman I am."

KILLER ON THE LOOSE—There's a killer loose, and if we don't nail him quickly, we may never get him. The killer is the tuberculosis germ. We have the weapons—modern drugs. We must use them now or we may not have another chance.

Why the rush? Drugs that fight disease when they're first used fail to work after a while because the germs develop defensive tactics. If that happens with the TB germ before the thousands of people with active disease are found and treated, we shall have lost our opportunity to wipe out this dread disease. Remember that TB is infectious. One person who has it can give it to many others, who in turn infect still more people.

The TB problem is so crucial right now that the U. S. Public Health Service and the National Tuberculosis Association held a conference at Arden House in Harriman, New York, to find ways of dealing with it. They recommended an all-out country-wide community effort to find all people with active TB and treat them with modern drugs until they are no longer infectious. You may be called upon to help. Don't hesitate. TB is everybody's problem.

Oh, I almost forgot to tell you. The dog was tied to the rope, but the other end of the rope wasn't tied.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION ADMINISTRATION SUCCESS | GREAT STRIDES MADE ON ITS 25TH BIRTHDAY

By HENRY CATHCART
Central Press Association Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—Twenty-five years ago, with a characteristic jaunty smile and a typical wisecrack, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed his famous Executive Order 7037, that order created the Rural Electrification Administration, one of the most far-reaching of all New Deal social reforms.

FDR affixed his signature to many epochal pieces of legislation, but perhaps none has had more vast impact than creation of the REA. It has literally changed the face of America.

When the governmental lending agency was created, only 11 per cent of America's farms had electricity. Today, that figure has soared to over 97 per cent, according to REA officials.

America leads the world in electrified farms. Over 17 million rural persons now have electricity and the high output of America's farms represents our greatest advantage over Russia in the cold war.

American rockets may sputter while Russian ICBMs roar, but an overlooked but most comforting fact is that poor Soviet farm production limits any extended Russian advance. Soviet farms, lacking labor-saving machinery and particularly electricity, have lagged far behind in production goals.

It takes 50 per cent of all Soviet citizens—nearly 90 million persons—to barely produce enough food to feed the Soviet empire. And an army, as Napoleon so aptly put it, still starves on its stomach.

America, on the other hand, has about 15 million persons working in agriculture—less than 10 per cent of our citizens—and we produce vast food surpluses!

A sizable amount of the credit for this belongs to the REA. The government agency has had a stormy but impressive history. It was created on May 11, 1935, by FDR's executive order. Morris L. Cooke, a Philadelphia engineer, was named first administrator.

REA became permanent little more than a year later by congressional action. The late Senator George Norris of Nebraska sponsored the REA bill in the Senate. Rep. (later Speaker) Sam Rayburn of Texas, was its House sponsor. The bill was signed by FDR on May 20, 1936.

The National Rural Electric Co-operative association, which represents 957 rural electric systems constructed with REA financing, reports that more than $3.5 billion are invested in plant and equipment to serve more than four million farms.

As the REA fetes its 25th birthday, some highly-improved economies stand behind rural consumption of electricity.

According to Dr. Paul Nelson, staff economist of NECA, the rural users of electricity (farms use far more electricity than the average home) will spend $1 billion more than $1 billion during 1960 for appliances. Most popular is the food freezer. Rural folk will buy 760,200 of them this year.

A mountain of 558,000 electric ranges, 302,400 electric blankets, 579,800 dryers—and a whole flock of skyrocketing purchases will be made. This, REA supporters declare, will give the whole economy a shot in the arm.

There's no question about it—FDR really started something

THE TRUTH

JOHN 8:32

Among the authors of the Bible were kings, farmers, mechanics, scientific men, lawyers, generals, fishermen, ministers, priests, a tax collector, a doctor. Some were rich, some poor, some from the city, some from the country.

With all of these various men of different stations writing over a period of some 1500 years, one great fact should stand out. They wrote what God instructed them to write. They could not have produced the Bible by themselves.

Miss Corrine Henry and her mother are here for the summer from Kermit where Corrine has been teaching.

Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., Mills County School Nurse, is attending the work shop for Texas school nurses at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth.

By MRS. HOUSTON DUREN

Most Girl Scout troop activities usually cease with the close of Day Camp. However, several events are planned for this summer.

TROOP 9, the oldest Brownie troop, were unable to have their "Fly-Up" ceremony before the close of school, so they plan to have this ceremony in connection with an out-of-doors program. The date is still to be decided.

TROOP 5, the Intermediate troop which was late to register, plan to complete as many as possible of the badges they have already begun. These girls are trying to make the First Class rank by September. They completed the "Outdoor Safety" badge during Day Camp, as well as working off two or three requirements on several other badges. They need only one requirement on "Outdoor Cook." They also plan to do the "Swimmer" badge this summer. One member of the troop, Sandra Arnold, is working on the Curved Bar rank. Sandra will be ready for Senior Scout work this Fall. They are planning to have one other out-of-doors event.

SENIOR TROOP 8, the Mariners, carry out most of their activities during the summer months. This summer's program plans include the following requirements: to have an overnight camp in primitive or semi-primitive setting; to fulfill the requirements for the Red Cross Swimmer and Senior Life Saving certificates; and to learn to handle a motorboat correctly. Later on they will lay up a boat for the winter. Howard Campbell will assist the Mariners with these requirements.

SENIOR TROOP 1, are planning an overnight camp the latter part of July, and possibly other out-of-doors activities. There will be two Senior Troop 1 girls going to the primitive Session of Woodmen of the World Camp—Kincheloe and Kinchee Karen Summy and Betty Sutherland and Wasserman from Troop 3, will attend the Camp Session at Woodmen. We will keep you as to the activities of Scouts. Both Senior Troops met Monday night, the final session of the Cross First Aid Course for transporting persons were discussed and constricted. Both Troops appreciate of every Jernigan has done with this training.

GOING AWAY THIS SUMMER?

Travel light. Take no more clothing than is absolutely essential. Traveling with light luggage is lots easier these days with all the new fabrics and finishes which make clothing so much easier to care for.

Make a plan and build your wardrobe around a basic color scheme. Well chosen separates and such small accessories as scarfs, flowers and jewelry help vary your costume.

Take the type of clothes you know you like to wear. As useful as separates are to most women, if you don't like to wear them at home you won't like them away from home. The same thing applies to knitted suits and dresses. They're ideal for packing but remember you want clothes ideal for wearing, too.

Be practical but not drab. When in doubt, don't take that extra dress.

Words of the Wise

The world will never have lasting peace so long as men reserve for war the finest human qualities. Peace, no less than war, requires idealism and self-sacrifice and a righteous and dynamic faith. —(John Foster Dulles)

APPETIZING ITEMS ON THE MENU—Kirk Dambork, 9, can hardly wait to cook that brook trout on a camping trip near Jackman, Me. Three adults with him came away without a nibble. At bottom, ice cream is on the bill of fare for Cheryl Ann, a three-year-old chimp in Winston-Salem, N. C. She was fighting the effects of a spring heat wave that hit the Southeastern states.

WANTED BY THE FBI

JOSEPH CORBETT, JR.
Corbett, one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives," is wanted for escape from the California Institution for Men, Chino, Calif., where he was serving a 5 years' life sentence for murdering an Air Force sergeant. A Federal warrant was issued at Los Angeles, Calif., on March 21, 1960, charging him with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement for murder.
A white American, born on October 25, 1928, at Seattle, Wash., Corbett is 6 feet 1 inch to 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 160 to 170 pounds. He has light brown hair, hazel eyes, a fair complexion, a medium build, and has worked as a clerk-typist, laborer, warehouseman, laboratory technician, and alkyl-resin cooker for a paint manufacturer. His two upper front teeth slant inward and he wears glasses, reportedly being extremely nearsighted and capable of seeing only close objects without them. He has a mole under his chin and a C-shaped scar on his right thumb.
Corbett, once a premedical student, is interested in scientific matters, avidly reads technical and travel books, and is intensely interested in firearms and target practice. He reportedly has a superior general intelligence and generally lives quietly and neatly but becomes erratic when drinking alcoholic beverages.
Convicted of second-degree murder, he is considered armed and dangerous.
Anyone having information concerning him should immediately notify the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which can be found on the first page of local telephone directories. WFO 261200-2

Questions And Answers About Social Security

Question: I have recently purchased a small bakery, which I will operate with the help of 3 employees. I understand that I must report my earnings and withholding tax and social security tax to the Internal Revenue Service at the end of each calendar quarter, but I am not sure about the proper way to report my own earnings and taxes.

Answer: When you file your Form 1040, Individual Income Tax Return, after the end of the year, you will report your net earnings from your business, if $400 or more, on a Schedule C, Profit From Business or Profession, and pay 4½% social security tax on your earnings up to $4800. WEST HOMEMAKER WINS $100 YEAST BREAD PRIZE WITH 'SUNSHINE ROLLS'

'Wouldn't be without Gladiola Hard Wheat Flour,' says Mrs. Charles Smaistrila

"Helen's Sunshine Rolls"—brought to golden-brown perfection in the busy kitchen at 303 N. Marable Drive, West, Texas—have earned for Mrs. Charles Smaistrila the June $100 first prize in Gladiola Flour's yeast bread Baking-Recipe-of-the-Month contest.

11 CASH PRIZES EVERY MONTH HERE ARE EASY CONTEST RULES

1. This monthly contest is Gladiola's way of stimulating the exchange of good yeast bread recipe ideas between you and your neighbors here in the Home Baking Heart of Texas. Anyone may enter except employees (and their families) of Fant Milling Co., its affiliated companies and its advertising agency.
2. Write down your favorite yeast bread recipe using Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour. List all ingredients, then explain briefly each step in the procedure.
3. Cut off the strip that says "Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour" from the folder enclosed in every bag. Send it—with your recipe—to Glad Times, Sherman, Texas.
4. Send in as many yeast bread recipes as you wish. Mail each recipe in a separate envelope enclosing a Gladiola strip as explained in Rule No. 3.
5. Each month's recipes are judged separately, with an independent, graduate home economist as the final judge. Recipes received in June will be eligible for prizes to be announced in September.
6. For the outstanding recipe received each month, Gladiola will pay $100. Half the prize money—$50—goes to the winner. The remaining $50 goes to the church of her choice as her special contribution.
7. Ten other yeast bread recipes will be chosen monthly for $10 Honorable Mention prizes.
8. All recipes submitted become the property of Fant Milling Company, Sherman, Texas, with full publication rights. Recipes cannot be returned.

The winner is donating half her cash award to the bake sale fund of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Sacred Heart Number 829.

'Flour is Main Thing'

"I never really thought my rolls would win $100," says Mrs. Smaistrila. "There's nothing fancy about them, and they're quite simple to make. The main thing, just as in all yeast breads, is to start with Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour."

"I wouldn't be without it in my kitchen. Nobody can make good yeast dough with an all-purpose flour. Your dough should be smooth, strong and elastic—not the sticky, lifeless kind. It should rise evenly, without a scar, and hold all that good yeast flavor. That's why Gladiola Special is a must."

GLADIOLA SPECIAL HARD WHEAT FLOUR

Known for Her Baking

This month's honored home baker has two daughters, one son and 11 grandchildren. She's an enthusiastic flower gardener, but her favorite interests are baking and cooking.

Though Mrs. Smaistrila is modest about her kitchen skill, your Glad Times reporter found she's widely known in the community for her delicious rolls and bread and her traditional Czech and German dishes.

Suggests Recipe Book

"A grand idea," says Mrs. Smaistrila of Gladiola's baking recipe contest. "It's a thrill to win a prize, of course, but it's even better to keep getting those good yeast bread recipes—a new one every month.

"Some day I hope the Gladiola people will publish a whole book of prize recipes—including all the honorable mention winners, too."

Gladiola's Baking Recipe of the Month

From Mrs. Smaistrila: "Helen's Sunshine Rolls"

1 cup milk, scalded	2 tablespoons lukewarm water
½ cup shortening	1 teaspoon sugar
½ cup sugar	2 cakes compressed yeast
1 teaspoon salt	3 egg yolks

5 cups (about) sifted Gladiola Special Hard Wheat Flour

Melt shortening in scalded milk; add sugar and salt and stir to dissolve. Cool to lukewarm. Dissolve the teaspoon of sugar and yeast in lukewarm water. Add yeast and egg yolks to cooled mixture and beat. Add about half the flour and beat thoroughly by hand or an electric mixer. Add remaining flour gradually, beating well, to make a medium soft dough. Place in a greased bowl, cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. Punch down and divide brush dough with melted margarine or butter. Cut each circle into 12 wedges; starting with the wide edge, roll each wedge and place, point down, in a greased shallow baking pan. Brush with milk and sprinkle with poppy seeds if desired, or brush again with melted butter. Let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 24 rolls.

BAGWORM CONTROL TIME IS HERE

Bagworms are, or soon will be, active in all parts of the State. The time to obtain good control of these pests is when they are young, as chemicals applied after the worms are grown gives the board to consider the budget carefully.

no control. After hatching the larvae immediately start to feed on the foliage of ornamental plants. The young worms spin a silken bag about themselves and as they feed attach bits of foliage to this bag. The worms carry this bag with them as they move about. When the worms are grown, this bag is one and a half to two inches long and affords the worm almost complete protection.

In September the female worm deposits her eggs in the bag and then dies. The bags should be picked from infested plants and burned because the eggs for next season's worms go through the winter inside the bags.

A 10 per cent toxaphene or 4 per cent malathion dust as a control is recommended. Lead arsenate, toxaphene or malathion spray can also be used. Remember, these chemicals are effective only if used when the worms are young.

USE OF HERBICIDES ON PASTURES

Weeds compete with pasture and meadow plants, often reducing yields by 50 per cent. Chemical weed control is one of the cheapest and fastest methods of control, thus accounting for large acreage of pastures being sprayed each year.

Although herbicides are important tools in weed control practices, they must be used in a safe manner to avoid harmful residues and in a manner established by Federal regulations. This is necessary to protect the best interests of the users, persons making recommendation, manufacturers and all other people concerned.

The recommendations of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will be revised to comply with current laws and regulations in effect.

of these agricultural chemicals, the Food and Drug Administration has the authority to establish residue tolerances. "Each pesticide chemical has the equivalent of a zero tolerance until some specific action is taken by regulation to establish a higher tolerance or an exemption for its residue."

Residue tolerances have not been set for any herbicides recommended for use on pastures or meadow plants to be consumed by livestock since their use is registered on a "no residue" basis. This would automatically give herbicides to be used in this manner a zero tolerance on the harvested or grazed crop. It is not presently known how to recommend the use of these herbicides to eliminate the possibilities of residues on forage plants.

GUIDANCE

Lincoln's most famous speeches in his congressional career were based on the words of the Bible and as its title, "A Word Against Himself."

necessary, to perish with it. If it is decreed that I should go down because of this speech, then let me go down linked to the truth. Let me die in the advocacy of what is just and right."

Lincoln's own words show his dependence upon divine guidance.

"I now leave . . . with a task before me greater than that which rested on Washington. Without the assistance of that Divine Being who ever attended him, I cannot succeed. With that assistance I cannot fail. Trusting in Him who can go with me and remain with you . . . let us confidently hope all may yet be well. To His care I commend you, as I hope in your prayers you will commend me."

Last week the weather sure was warm and most of the farmers were working in the fields. W. A. Ratliff baled hay, O. A. Evans plowed maize and A. L. Crawford plowed cotton. Hugh Nowell, A. R. Whatley, Ol Brown and O. L. Harris combined gain.

Charles and Raymond Eller were business visitors at Lometa stock sale last Friday.

William G. Crawford did some fishing at Lake Merritt and caught three cat fish. They weighed five, five and one-half and six pounds. He presented this scribe with some fish.

J. S. Ivy helped William Ivy with the grain crop. Mrs. Ivy has been doing some visiting and enjoying some of the good eats, which folks have around during visiting time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Vance are moving to their new home at Clovis, New Mexico. Mrs. Vance is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Creek. She did some fishing last week and reported good luck. We wish the Vances much happiness in their new home.

Elder and Mrs. Richard Worley were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans. They all attended church at Mullin Sunday and Sunday night.

BONN BONNY LASSIES—The West German government in Bonn has eight good-will ambassadors in these smiling fashion models, who arrived in New York on a German jet airliner. The girls will travel as far as Los Angeles and San Francisco to show the latest in designs by members of the German Fashion Institute. In the group are Sigrid Mehlig, Marie-Luise Frankenberger, Dido Ackermann, Elinor Busse, Marianne Klawonn, Margareth Srb, Liz Schapper and Liz Zwingmann.

George and Pearl Crawford visited Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eldon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bramblett, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans, Mrs. A. C. Petty were recent guests of Bob and Ruth Reynolds.

Melvin Tiemann of Rankin spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tiemann, and Alvin G., who accompanied him home.

Mrs. Douglas Humphries and Mrs. Don Humphries were at the farm Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Petty and son visited his mother, Mrs. R. C. Petty. They also called in the O. A. Evans and J. C. Bramblett homes during last week.

Mrs. Lilla Jenkins, longtime resident of California and Mrs. C. V. Whatley visited old friends, neighbors and relatives at Lometa.

up together and I can imagine what a happy reunion they had.

Our hearts were made sad when we received the news of the death of W. A. Elms. He had been sick a few weeks. He was a resident of this community and a breeder of registered Angora goats. He was a good kind neighbor, always visiting the sick and helping with any project that was of benefit to the community. He always won his share of prizes at stock shows. We will miss him. We extend our sympathy to his loved ones. May the Lord bless them in their hours of sorrow.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Whatley were their son, C. V., and wife of Odessa, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Shepard and three children of Breckenridge.

Mrs. A. R. Whatley and Mrs. C. V. Whatley visited old friends, neighbors and relatives at Lometa.

Long Cove News

(Delayed)

We had a nice shower of rain Sunday morning about day-break. It will help the gardens and crops but won't be so good on the oats. Lots of combines are running "full steam."

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown and son of San Antonio spent from Thursday to Saturday in the Enoch Godwin home. Mrs. Godwin and Mrs. Brown visited Mrs. John Conratt Thursday night. Mrs. Conratt is not doing any good.

Mrs. Bill Manning attended the funeral of Mrs. John Drew in Lometa Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Drew's daughter, Ethel Criswell, taught school here at the Cove three years some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Leggett's baby daughter spent three days this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Norb Stockton visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nance in Abilene Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Manning attended Mrs. Inez Garrett's musical recital in Lometa Thursday night. Mary Jo had a part on the program and the recital was enjoyed by everyone present.

Mrs. Lillie Stevens, Mrs. Olga Massey of Brownwood and Mrs. W. F. Hill Sr., of Zephyr visited Mrs. Enoch Godwin Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. J. T. Fisher Sr. and Mr.

Bunch of Lometa completed work this week on a new sleeping porch for Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hill. Sure does look nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Godwin spent Friday at Lampasas with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith and family.

Keep the news coming from San Saba Peak, Rena. We enjoy reading all the news.

Mary Jo Manning accompanied Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Morrison of Lometa to a family reunion at Brownwood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burks of Hobbs, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Krempin of Lampasas and Mrs. Eric Neely of Evant were guests Sunday of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Conratt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cockrell of San Angelo and the Marcus Criswells of Wisconsin were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Smith.

Mrs. Orville Hale of Brownfield is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Conratt. Bud Conratt has been on the sick list recently. Hope he is soon up and on the go again.

SEVEN DIE AS BRIDGE FALLS ON RACING CAR—The remains of British driver Chris Threlfall's racing car lies amid the wreckage of an overpass which collapsed on top of it in Aix-les-Bains, France. Threlfall, 30, was killed instantly and six persons standing on the span also died. At least 50 persons were injured as the spectator-jammed overpass fell. Four drivers behind Threlfall were able to brake to a halt before they hit.

Donations of Mills County people to the 1960 Heart Fund have made possible gifts of $300.00 direct to the Texas Heart Fund Research Program in the three Texas medical schools and $201.00 to the Texas Heart Association. Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., has announced. The $201.00 donation will be divided between the national and Texas research programs.

In addition to these gifts, $150.00 has been made available to the Childress Clinic and Hospital in Goldthwaite for the purchase of equipment needed by heart patients.

For the new 1960-61 year, Mrs. Lois Hudson has accepted the Campaign Chairmanship. She will announce her assistants later. Mrs. Stokes will continue as Mills County Educational Chairman.

Although the Heart Fund actively solicits contributions only once a year, it is in operation the year around. Anyone who would like to make a special contribution in honor of or in memory of a friend or loved one, especially those with heart ailments, may leave their contributions at the Mills County State Bank or with Mrs. Stokes. A suitable acknowledgment will be made to the family of the person who is being remembered.

While heart disease is still far and away the greatest killer in America today, giant strides toward conquering it are being made by the dedicated physicians and scientists whose efforts are supported by the research programs of the Heart Associations.
