FARM BUREAU MEMBERSHIP DRIVE-The Mills County Farm Bureau, which is staging its annual drive for members starting March 27, deserves the support of all those who derive their income directly or indirectly, from agriculture in this county. For the Farm Bureau has long been recognized as the "Voice of Agriculture" in Texas and over the nation

ing at the Mills County Court-Farm Bureau has earned the respect and trust of the Amerhouse on Wednesday of last ican people because it is fundamentally a "grass roots" organization which reflects the true desires and philosophy of the farm week. The organization is known as families of this nation.

Farm Bureau is a free, independent, non-governmental organization of farm and ranch families, united for the purpose of achieving collectively that which they cannot secure as individuals. It seeks solutions to agricultural problems on the basis of the issues involved - not partisan politics.

Farm Bureau is organized on the county, state and national levels. The 234 farm families presently enrolled in the Mills County Farm Bureau are among the 80,000 families holding memberships in the Texas Farm Bureau. The Texas Farm Bureau, now fifth largest state Farm Bureau in the nation, is affiliated with the American Farm Bureau Federation, largest farm organization in the world with 1,602,117 members in 50 states and Puerto Rico.

Farm Bureau policies are made at the "grass roots" level with each member given an opportunity to participate in policy development. Policies are not made by taking a poll. Instead, they are adopted after discussions, debate and exchange of ideas at county, state and national levels.

Farmers and ranchers cannot afford to be disorganized. The Farm Bureau affords them a chance to promote and protect their interests through organization.

THOSE OLD DAYS-Have you ever thought about what conditions may have been like some years ago?

You hear about the good old days, or olden times, and even sometimes hear someone talking about how nice it would be to move back a few years to those good old days.

When that comes up for discussion it may be considered as 25 years ago, 50 years ago, or even more.

Well, what do you think conditions were like say a hundred years ago? Or to be more exact 111 or 112 years ago.

Here is an example.

Odell Hopper, who operates Hopper's Nu Court, handed the Editor a clipping the other day taken from the paper at Kellogg, Idaho. It is an item that was reprinted from another paper dated the Lometa highway and wound 1942. It concerns a farm sale in Kentucky back in 1849, and reads up with its top demolished afas follows

"Having sold my farm and I am leaving for Oregon Territory by ox team, will offer March 1, 1849, all my personal property.

"All ox teams except iwo teams, Buck and Ben, Tom and Jerry; two ox carts, one iron foot of poplar weather board rails, plow with wood mole boards, 1500 ten-foot fence rails, one 60 gallon soap kettle, 85 troughs made of white ash timber, 10 gallons syrup, two spinning wheels, 30 pounds mutton tallow, one large loom, 300 poles, 100 split hoops, 100 empty barrels.

"One 32 gallon barrel of Johnson Miller whiskey seven years old, 30 gallons apple brandy, one 40 gallon still, two handle hooks,

At the end of six weeks Billy got his lighter cast for his broken leg. It was to be removed in two weeks, but it cracked. They had to put on another. The date of removal was then moved up to next Tuesday, March 21. This is a walking cast, so he very seldom uses his crutches now. His homebound teacher still comes twice a week and is keeping him up with his school work.

Carol Jean writes that time is flying for them. The Vinzant grandparents kept the children for them while they attended the Bible Lectureship at ACC in February. They have sold their furniture and have moved into a small apartment. They are taking some time off this next week so Don can go to Fort Worth to stay with his folks while he finishes his thesis on his Master's degree. Carol and the children will go to Beaumont for a visit. They will be back in Lamesa April 1. They will leave May 15 to visit their folks a week each before sailing June 1 for Brazil.
