PRIZED FIG—In addition to reports of good grain, grass and prospects for corn and maize in Mills County this year we now also have a report on the Fig crop.

TIPS FOR BOAT OWNERS—

1. Keep the passengers in your boat down to a safe number. Don't overload.

2. Don't overpower your boat. Your dealer can tell you what size motor is safe for your boat.

3. Equip your boat with safety items. A life jacket for each passenger and a stern light are musts. Recommended also are anchor, oars, boat hook, extra line, fire extinguisher, first aid kit, and tool kit. ☆ ☆ ☆

For the millions of Americans who will spend their summer holidays camping, hiking in the mountains, or just picnicking, there is this advice:

1. Camp, preferably, in an authorized area where the water supply is certified safe.

2. If you camp on private property, get permission from the owner first and make sure the water supply meets minimum health standards.

3. Pitch your camp so your waste will drain away from the water supply, not toward it.

4. Check with local health authorities or pharmacists what insect hazards there are in the neighborhood. The latter will recommend the right repellants.

5. Learn what poison plants there are in the locality in order to stay away from them — touching as well as eating.

6. Learn something about the wild life in the area—large animals that may be dangerous, small animals that carry rabies, and poisonous snakes.

7. The area around a campfire should be cleared completely for a radius of at least 10-feet. When you finish with the fire, douse it with water, then shovel dirt on top of it. Smokers should make certain cigarette, cigar, or pipe ash is completely extinguished.

8. Household cooking vessels won't work well on campfires. Special camping vessels—a kettle with legs and frying pan with removable handle—will cut down on burns, scalds, spilled and ruined food.

9. Keep axes and knives in leather sheaths when they are not in use. Use only implements with sharp edges.

10. Chop logs with a V-motion and keep feet off the object being chopped. Instead, brace with some other blocking material.

11. Many creams and lotions contain special ingredients to screen out the ultra-violet rays of the sun. Use these liberally even after the skin is well tanned, for even then excessive ultra-violet sun rays can cause skin cancer.

12. Take along a first aid kit and a Red Cross First Aid Textbook. The latter can be obtained at your local Red Cross chapter. ☆ ☆ ☆

RAM TAKES TOUR—Our correspondent from Chappell Hill community has furnished us with this interesting item about a Ram leaving a truck and touring some of the business districts a few days ago. She reported the following:

"O. A. Evans did some shopping and purchased a nice muley Ram sheep at the local sale. On his way home he stopped at Schwartz Grocery to do some more shopping. While he was away the sheep jumped out of the pickup and went over to Fisher Street to Loy Long Grocery and then on next door for a tour of Steen Hardware Store. We think he was a very wise sheep, since Mr. Bob Steen is a sheep rancher and president of our Mills County Fat Stock Show."

MRS. AARON E. HENSLEE, JR

Miss Nelda Lynn Yeager And Aaron E. Henslee Jr. Repeat Vows

Miss Nelda Lynn Yeager and Aaron E. Henslee, Jr., exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 24, at 8 p. m. in a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church at Goldthwaite. The Reverend J. T. Ayers of Brownwood officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin C. Yeager of Goldthwaite are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron E. Henslee Sr. of Desdemona.

Dr. Mae Branom, organist, played traditional wedding music. Miss Gay Behymer of Dallas sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over net and taffeta. The basque was designed with a rounded neckline and cap sleeves. An inset Empire of studded chantilly lace encircled the waist, forming the back panel of the skirt which fell into a chapel train. Studded medallions of the lace were applied on the skirt of the princess lines in the skirt. The veil of bridal illusion fell to fingertip length from a crown of studded lace.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli flowers, centered with white gardenias and showers of lily of the valley. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Joe Gilbreath of Denton was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Carson Loving, sister of the groom, of Lingleville, Mrs. Gene Lee of Hamilton, Miss Gail Parker of Cleburne, and Miss Nelda Jean Sherwood of Goldthwaite. They wore red silk organza dresses with matching hats and shoes. They carried white fans with garlands of red carnations and ivy leaves. The miniature bride, Miss Vicky Sparkman of Stephenville, wore a white silk organza dress styled after that of the bride.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

OUR AMERICAN HERITAGE

The dauntless soldiers at Valley Forge, the courageous far-sighted leaders who signed the Declaration of Independence . . . And the many others who helped make our history, have won for us the Four Freedoms, and independence, which "July 4th" symbolizes. Let us not forget this important heritage! . . . It is "The American Way of Life!" . . . Let us guard it as it must be guarded, this day and every day by being alert, responsible citizens. Have a Happy Holiday!

it's two o'clock in the morning...

Sometime in the next hour, the first of several sets of worried parents may lose a son. Is he racing down a highway? Or just about to turn safely into the driveway?

As a parent, have you ever awakened, focused sleepily on the clock, looked into your child's room, noticed the empty bed? It's a problem that's part of having children . . . and having them grow up.

But it makes you wonder if something's been left out in your guidance.

Perhaps it is Faith—strong religious Faith. Your example and your training should give your child the strength he needs to face the perplexing experiences all growing youngsters meet. Goodness requires strength. Strength needs Faith. Faith grows through worship.

A Moment With The Bible

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strong- hold of my life: of whom shall I be afraid?" — Psa. 27:1.

Fear is one of the most terrifying things we humans encounter. Even our bravest are oft times the subjects of fear.

But thanks be to God, he becomes the Christian's re- fuge in the most trying hours. God cries out, "I will not leave you nor forsake you."—Heb. 13:5. With this blessed promise, the Chris- tian is able to say, "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil."
