If farmers vote "yes":

1. The price of wheat will be pegged at $2.00 per bushel or about 84 per cent of parity for who comply with program

2. There will be a mandatory acreage reduction of 10 per cent.

3. Payments will be made for diverting wheat acreage and for devoting it to a conservation use

4. Additional voluntary reductions may be made. If farmers vote "no"

1. Price support on wheat will be $1.19 per bushel or 50 per cent of parity for those producers planting within acreage allotments. 2. There will be no limit on marketings.

All farmers who have produced more than 13.5 acres of wheat in at least one of the last three years are eligible to vote, Reese said. Complete in-formation on the proposed wheat stabilization program can be obtained at the county agent's office, or by contacting Mills County ASC Office Manager Lee Tabor.

NOTCH IN THE BELT-From The Saturday Evening Post: "It may turn out that the Teapot Dome scandal of the sizzling '60's will be Urban Renewal. In cities from coast to coast, areas of historic interest, pleasing architecture and gracious living are of a sum approximately $15,000 being condemned as 'substandard, blighted, deteriorating, or by Walter Fairman, a Youth plain 'slum'. Then as John Crosby put it in a recent column, 'real- Center that will be accessible to estate speculators come in loaded with federal money and vast all of Mills County will be estabpowers and vast responsibilities. They can throw you out of your home, pay you a condemnation price for a house whose mortgage thwaite on the site of what has you've been paying off for twenty years and construct a perfectly hideous anthill in its place, which is called luxury housing'.'

An interesting question that arises here is just why the federal taxpayers—a category which includes millions of people who don't live in urban areas, and have little or nothing to do with cities-should pay a large part of urban renewal bills. If a community wants to rid itself of a slum district, that is the communities' business - and the communities' responsibility. It's hard to see why, for instance, a farmer in Texas should be forced to contribute to a dubious project in New York City or Portland, Oregon.

Finally, the current arms build-up makes all possible belt- Bill Shipp donated the ginning Southwest Texas State Teachers tightening in Washington essential. Urban renewal should be a notch in that belt.

DEEDS MUST FOLLOW WORDS-The reaction of Senator Byrd of Virginia to the Administrations' program for a vast increase in our military capabilities should find support among all who are interested in the fiscal integrity of the country.

As reported by the Associated Press, he praised the President's States Soil Conservation Service 9 o'clock Saturday night. speech as "a powerful statement of the American position." How- was announced officially this ever, the report continued, "Byrd said it will mean 'huge deficits week. The appointment becomes or huge taxation' unless Kennedy is willing to curtail 'all non- effective at the beginning of defense expenditures' including all those he recommended when next month.

Senator Byrd, of course, referred to non-defense expenditures which can be abandoned or postponed without weakening the nation's power to defend itself and, if necessary, take the offensive. These include any and all expenditures of the "welfare state" category. We have reached the point where we simply can't afford any more Big Brother government, and where individuals will have to do a better job of dealing with their own problems, and re-learn the fact that Washington is not a bottomless pit of money to be handed out for the asking.

The President has spoken often of the need for sacrifice. The parents of a daughter, Mary words must now be reflected in deeds, by government as well as

BACK DOOR SPENDING-The federal budgets are coming perilously close to the $100 billion-a-year mark. One reason is Kate Page of Goldthwaite and what is known as "backdoor spending." This is a procedure by paternal grandparents are Mr. which a federal agency may obtain funds for a project or program and Mrs. Monroe Fletcher of Rt. without previous or later annual scrutiny by the appropriations 3, Goldthwaite. The Fletchers committee of Congress

A current example is found in the housing bills, which carry price-tabs of close to six billion. As the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey points out, this is a type of spending "over which Congress has little or no say-except to pay the bills as they come due." And that amounts to an abandonment of one of the most important duties laid upon Congress by the Constitution,

If there ever was a time when every item of expenditure demanded the closest examination and control,

A Moment With The Bible

Whose prayer will God answer? "The supplication of a righteous man availeth much its workings" (James 5:16). "For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil" (I Peter 3:12).

Consider these passages: He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be an homination" (Prov. 28:9).

We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth" (John 9:31).
