

The Goldthwaite Eagle

ESTABLISHED 1894 AND THE MULLIN ENTERPRISE

They came wearily from Nazareth to the town in Judea that was the city of David or Bethlehem, to register according to a decree that had gone forth from Caesar Augustus that a census should be taken. They were Joseph, a humble carpenter, and his espoused wife, Mary, who was with child. The journey was long and tiresome, yet Mary uttered not a single word of complaint for her faith was great and her purpose to be fulfilled.

There were shepherds watching their flocks on the hillsides near Bethlehem. At first it was for them no more than a beautiful, star-lit night. But it turned into a night of wonder and these simple men were to be given as witnesses to the greatest single event in the history of life upon this earth.

Three wise men from the East, each a king in his own domain, were travelers into the night. They had long followed the light of a brilliant star, seeking the fulfillment of a prophecy. These kings of men were strong of purpose and they carried with them gifts of value. At journey's end, they hoped to kneel down and pay homage to an infant—a newborn child—the "king of kings."

When the angels appeared as messengers of great joy, the shepherds on the hillside were frightened. They were, however, men of simple faith and when the angels advised them to leave their flocks and go into Bethlehem in search of the newborn king, they left their watch and went forth into Bethlehem.

And so they came to the stable where Mary and Joseph had taken refuge because there was no room at the inn. The Wise Men who had followed the star, the shepherds who had left their sleep on the hillside, these men were witnesses to the Holy Scene—that Jesus, the son of God was born that night in a stable at Bethlehem. For generations, the story of the Holy Birth is told and re-told and it remains forever unchanged.

For 33 years, Jesus lived upon earth, setting forth the highest example of a life of humility, faith, obedience and dedication. He gave not only these years, but as well life itself and this great gift is the foundation upon which men today build eternal happiness. Christmas is the time for all Christians to recognize and remember this greatest of all stories.

NORVA C. KUYKENDALL

It's Christmas time—with last minute decorations to put up, gifts to wrap and holiday feasts to prepare. During the holiday season, managerial skills are really put to test, emphasizes Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist at Texas A&M University.

Actually, the art of managing the food budget is probably practiced more diligently before Christmas than any other time of year. These savings on the food budget help add the little extra touches and gifts for family and friends.

"All of this just goes to prove that careful selection and watching for good buys can ease the food budget any time of the year—and especially at the holiday season," Mrs. Clyatt adds.

Beef prices have made no significant change recently. To economize, look to slow-cooking chuck roast and various rolled roasts, stew meat and Swiss

Football Banquet Held Friday Night

The annual football banquet sponsored by the GHS Pep Squad honoring the Eagle football squad members and their coaches was held last Friday night in the American Legion Hall.

Carol Johnson, president of the Pep Squad, welcomed the guests and Jim Childress gave steaks. Ground meat for meatloaf and similar uses is an easy-on-the-budget buy. Country pork ribs and pork steaks are among the most economical choices in that meat.

Look to canned luncheon meats and prepared chili for additional economy. Fish sticks and portions, canned tuna and red salmon offer variety at reasonable prices.

Frying chicken is a good choice at most markets. Turkeys should be relatively good values. Egg prices are about the same as last week.

Hardy root vegetables—such as carrots, dry onions, potatoes, sweet potatoes, turnips and rutabagas—hold a dependable place in local stores. Other good choices are cabbage, squash, celery, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, and cauliflower.

Citrus tops the list of fruits. Apples, grapes and pecans are other good buys.

Rep. James Nugent
New Vice-Chairman Of FOI Committee

Representative James E. Nugent of Kerrville has been named vice-chairman of Freedom of Information Committee, it was reported here today.

The Committee, composed of members of the Texas House of Representatives, Texas Senate, and State Bar, State Press and State Broadcasters associations, is headed by Felix McKnight, editor of the Dallas Times Herald.

Bob Armstrong, also a member of the House of Representatives, is secretary of the committee.

The committee's work deals with pre-trial publication information.

Its function is to investigate needs in light of recent Federal laws enacted, so that public sentiment will not jeopardize an individual's right to a fair and impartial trial.

The committee, appointed by Governor John Connally, met in Austin this week and periodic meeting will be scheduled as needed, Nugent said.

VA Official Reminds Veterans About Insurance

"The finest Christmas present is future security for the family," Jack Cocker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office at Waco said. Pointing out that service-connected veterans have less than five months to take advantage of the re-opening of GI insurance.

Final deadline for application is midnight, May 2, 1966. Those World War II and Korean Conflict veterans who failed to buy GI insurance or who bought it and later dropped it now have the same chance to buy a new form of GI insurance provided they have a service-connected disability. They do not have to be receiving compensation payments from the VA to be eligible. The insurance is available in a variety of plans ranging from a low cost modified life plan to 20-year endowment. Further details may be obtained at any VA Regional Office.
