EAGLES AT LLANO

The Goldthwaite Eaglettes, 5-0 for the season, pulled in another victory, topping Llano 31-28. Phyllis Wesson netted 11 points, followed by Diane McKenzie with 10.

Eaglette defense, Mary Muse, Marsha Lee, and Melissa McLean, held the Jackets to only 28 points, the most scored on them this year.

Point totaling again showed Mike Conradt up front netting 18 points. Llano's experienced team showed coordination in team play. The Eagles go up against Priddy Friday to try and even up a 2-3 season.

"B" Team action gave Goldthwaite another victory of 30-25. Mike Wright led the Eagles with a 16 point total. Eagle defense of Langford, Knight, Bessent, Tanner, and Kirkpatrick helped to give them the winning margin.

Next Week Saturday Is Last Day For County Stock Show Entries

Entries for the 29th annual Mills County stock show must be in by next week Saturday, December 31, according to R. L. Steen, president of the Mills County Livestock Breeders Association.

The show is sponsored by the association and will be held in the show barns in Goldthwaite on Friday and Saturday, January 13 and 14, 1967.

New catalogs, advertising the 1967 show and giving more detailed information with program for the two day event, are now being distributed. The new catalogs can be secured from officers of the association and from the county agent and vocational agriculture teachers of the county.

Entry cards have been distributed to the county agent and vocational agriculture teachers in Goldthwaite, Mullin, Star, and Priddy. All 4-H and FFA members are asked to get their entry cards filled out and turned in as early as possible.

Entry cards are also available through Mr. Steen at Steen Hardware for breeders and club members.

PREMIUM MONEY STILL WELCOME
Stock show officials are still in a receptive mood when it comes to the subject of contributions for financing the show and paying premiums.

Contributions are still coming in and show treasurer Glynn Collier, stated Monday that the outlook is bright — but a few more checks will be needed and will certainly help the cause along.

Those who have not made their contribution to support the 1967 show are reminded to get that check in now.

The Bend community was thrown into a state of anxious excitement one day last week, when it became known that a mad dog had bitten several innocent children. No one knew the dog was mad. However, it was decided to call Dr. S. W. Rimmer, county health officer, who advised that the dog's head be sent to the Pasteur Institute at Austin and an investigation showed that it was mad. When this was learned all of the children were carried to the Institute promptly.

Effects Of Living

By LIDA BYRNE

Young parents can not be reminded too often to teach their infant to say "water" when training it to speak other words. They can be crying on account of thirst. Show it the container with the water, speaking the word "water."

Also, since we are getting a drought in this section of the country, let us not forget to keep a supply of water in reach of fowls and animals. A reward can be gained for so doing.

Proverbs 11:25 tells us in part: "And he that watereth shall be watered also himself."

We have received some cold weather, but no rain. The temperature was 18 degrees here early Sunday and J. C. Bramblett reported 17 degrees early Monday morning.

A. L. Crawford attended the Murray Cox farm program at Goldthwaite last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nowell were business visitors at the Lometa Stock Sale Friday.

Billy, Lynn and Mack Oxford gathered mistletoe for the market during last weekend.

O. L. Harris visited Dan Long at the local hospital Thursday afternoon.

A large crowd attended the open house for Mr. and Mrs. Stone Shipman last Sunday.

Lynn Oxford has been helping F. H. Tiemann strip cotton and from all reports the cotton crops are almost harvested.

A number of neighbors gave Mr. and Mrs. David Ivy a helping hand during last week. Some broke land, others sowed grain and gathered corn. Mr. Ivy remains a patient at the Comanche hospital and is reported to be recovering satisfactorily at present.

Alvin Hill of Brownwood and Alphis Hill of Winters spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans and gave them a helping hand by hauling and sawing wood, seeing after the water works and livestock. Other guests in the Evans home Sunday were Elder James Fife, of the Mullin Church, A. L. Crawford and William G. R. G. Ivy of Fort Worth, Knox Coffy and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bramblett.

Our community was made sad when we learned of the death of two pioneer residents, Bob Cockrum and Mrs. Grover Dalton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Knight and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Allen and daughters were supper guests Saturday night of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford visited Miss Lola Stevens Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Stevens visited several folks at Childress & Cruzosa Clinic & Hospital Saturday.

We wish all the sick folks a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berry visited a number of folks at the Heritage Home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Oden visited Grover Dalton and his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Cornelius, at Mullin last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurst Porter of Hamilton were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nowell Friday.

Wayne Ratliff of Denton and a boy friend were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ratliff.

C. B. Fisher was on his way to list a few days. Mr. and Mrs. V. Whatley gave Mr. and Mrs. Fisher a helping hand and kept the children and got them to school every day.

I visited Mrs. Sam and found her doing fine.

Santa's coming your way, sounding a note of good cheer.

PEACE AT CHRISTMAS

Through the years, the everlasting beauty of Christmas sparks the spirit of mankind with joy anew and rekindles the hope for true peace in the world.
 May the deep meaning of His life be remembered to give us guidance toward a common goal of brotherhood and love.
 It is with thanks for the gracious considerations of our many good friends that we extend our sincerest wishes for a most joyful Christmas to everyone.
