WEATHER REPORT

No measurable rainfall to report.

A cool front moved in Tuesday morning and it looked like rain for sure. It triggered a light shower which almost settled the dust but it was short lived. The front pushed the cloud cover to the east and before the day was over the sky turned hazy and by nightfall there was a good strong West Texas sand storm over the entire area.

The wind was still blowing strong at 2:30 a. m. Wednesday but by daylight it had blown out and all was quiet — and dusty.

Charlie McLean and Lee Roy Stacy are co-chairmen for the drive, according to announcement by Don Geeslin, president, and Hollis Wiggins, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Several other members are helping with the drive and a number of members and other interested citizens have already made contributions to the drive.

Some of the services rendered and expenses involved during the 1970 football season include: purchase a seven man slide, $500.00; film and processing all games and scrimmages, $900.00; expenses for scouting opponent teams, $175.00; furnishing ice and cold drinks during home games for GHS players and visiting teams, $100.00.

Officials state they are pleased with the response to their drive and appreciate the public support. They feel that there are others who will want to contribute and they are asked to contact McLean, Stacy, Geeslin or Wiggins.

M. L. LINDSAYS HAVE HOLIDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lindsay had as their Thanksgiving guests, Mrs. Annette Jones and children, Cindy, and Roy Warren of Houston; and Miss Kathy Jones of Howard Payne College.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lindsay, and children, Terrye and Mark, Mrs. Evie Doggett, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Doggett, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crane.

They all had a nice time visiting and chatting about old times.

Marvin Lindsay also celebrated his 40th birthday. Mrs. Evie Doggett said she would not be able to do his washing like she did 40 years ago, time has changed, she said.

She said that in the old times, everyone had time to go wait on the sick and nobody has time for anyone now. She also said that she liked the old ways of life because everybody loved one another. She is getting old, but still loves to go and looking forward to having Christmas dinner with the Lindsay group.
