Eagles Working Their Way Toward Season Opener With San Saba Dillos

The GHS Eagle varsity squad looked pretty good and really got after it in the first scrimmage of the season when they faced the AA Burnet Bulldogs on Eagle Field last Tuesday night, according to head coach Leslie Johnson. Two touchdowns were scored by the Eagles. One on a long pass from Johnny Johnson to Johnny Miller and the second on a two yard rush by Reggie Robbins.

The AA Burnet Bulldogs also scored two TD's. Coach Johnson stated this week that the Eagles made a lot of mistakes that need to be corrected in getting ready for the season opener next week. Thirty-three Eagles are reporting for practice on the varsity and "B" teams. The addition of a few more members coming out for workouts promises for a "B" squad look brighter, according to Assistant Coach Randy Baker who has charge of the "B" squad.

The Eagles have a few nagging injuries that may affect the first couple of games of the season, according to Johnson. Assistant Coach Eddie Lang stated that they need a lot of conditioning since the Eagles looked a lot better the first half of the scrimmage than they did the last half.
