Science has come up with an

kind of plastic that solves

According to authorities, the

As the particles become part

They say the plastic won't

I wonder how many grocery-

More Cows, More Milk . . . Fertilizer Use
Increases . . . Broiler Prices Advance . . . Citrus Harvest Active.

Texas cows produced almost five tons of milk each during 1972. Total milk production in Texas this past year was up four per cent from a year ago. Total milk production was 3,381,000,000 pounds.

The milk cow population also increased slightly, from 355,000 in 1971 to 358,000 in 1972. Average production per cow in herd, including dry cows, was 9,444 pounds in 1972, up 320 pounds from 1970.

But the nationwide average per cow production was 10,271 pounds. Total milk production throughout the nation during 1972 amounted to 120 billion pounds; this is 1.5 per cent higher than the previous year.

FERTILIZER use in Texas continues to climb. Total amount of fertilizers applied on Texas farmlands during 1972 was up almost 200,000 tons over 1971.

Types of fertilizer are divided into three categories: mixed fertilizer, primary nutrient fertilizer, and secondary and micronutrient fertilizer.

Mixed fertilizer utilized in Texas totaled 1,312,535 tons; this is up 11 per cent from 1971. Primary nutrient fertilizer amounted to 1,200,733 tons, which is six per cent above the 1971 use. Secondary and micronutrient fertilizer applied amounted to 1,100 tons which was down slightly from the 1971 level.

Amounts of fertilizers used in Texas during 1972 include: nitrogen-712,135 tons; phosphate-280,292 tons; potash-112,045 tons.

Anhydrous ammonia fertilizer accounted for 39 per cent of the nitrogen fertilizer used in 1962; ammonium nitrate accounted for 25 per cent, and ammonium sulfate accounted for 14 per cent while nitrogen solutions accounted for 13 per cent.

Superphosphate made up 20 per cent of the directly applied phosphate materials.

CITRUS harvest continues in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Harvest of grapefruit is active, and moderate supplies of early and midseason oranges will be available this month.

Condition of citrus trees is good. Recent freezing weather caused little to no damage.

AUSTIN, TEXAS — They didn't separate "church" and "state" in the Capitol city last week. You might even say they got "engaged."

The Texas Conference of Churches met in Austin for its fourth annual Assembly of Representatives — and enjoyed discussing a good round of political issues along with the ecumenical resolutions.

A "state" breakfast was held for officials of Texas' governmental bodies, and humorist Cactus Pryor allowed that "mixing ministers with legislators and getting a little religion might help the office holders and benefit the state."

Some of the issues of "politics" and "religion" were controversial, and the leaders of most of Texas church bodies seemed to enjoy their encounter with governmental leaders. But, tax exemptions for property owned by churches have become an issue in most states, and church officials seemed to be wary of pressing political issues too far into the "never-never" land of lobbying.

The Conference leaders did discuss resolutions on the forthcoming state constitutional convention, welfare education and reform, public school financing and public education.)

One of the most controversial resolutions concerned the Farah strike and collective bargaining. OPEN MEETINGS BILL — The open meetings bill encountered a swarm of suggested amendments during a four-hour hearing before the Senate Jurisprudence Committee.

School board and university regents representatives proposed changes which Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena accepted, in the main, as "good faith" attempts to make the bill workable.

Some amendments also were proposed by media representatives.

The measure went to sub-committee. Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who attended part of the hearing, said he is hopeful of Senate passage.

NEWSMEN'S BILL — Hearings on the "free flow of information" bill, commonly called the newsmen's privilege bill, has been set for March 13 at 2 p.m. in the Lieutenant Governor's committee room.

FEDERAL INVESTIGATION — Treasury Department agents' questions about state government, bank charters and water districts provided Texas legislators their major topic of conversation last week.

At least four House members and three Senators reported being interviewed by the Treasury sleuths on a variety of topics. Some took the inquiries seriously, while others treated them as a joke or a "fishing expedition."

Regular state investigator agencies were not taken into the federal investigators' confidence.

"I feel safe in saying we haven't been contacted," said Atty. Gen. John Hill.

Sens. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas and Robert Gammage of Houston were among senators who talked freely of their questioning by a "T-man" in a trench coat. Rep. Lane Denton of Waco said he had also been queried about a number of subjects late in Jan. but declined to provide details.

Mauzy said he had been informed the Treasury Department has a special task force on corruption of public officials. He said an agent identified as R. R. Caldwell told him he was a member of a task force that conducted an investigation of Louisiana state government which resulted in convictions of some officials.

According to Mauzy, the agent spent more time asking him about creation of special water districts in Harris County than anything else. He said he was also questioned as to whether he knew anything about how bank charters were awarded, if he had knowledge of legislators taking bribes, how state colleges acquired land and let contracts and if state purchasing is done on competitive bids.

Some legislators joke that one of the T-men wore a Nixon tie clasp and didn't ask any questions about Republicans.

There may have been more kidding if legislators didn't remember another federal agency — the Securities and Exchange Commission — that bared 1969 stock dealings by high state officials which led to conviction of former House Speaker Gus Mutscher for bribery.

Legislators questioned recently were assured they weren't under investigation.

COURTS SPEAK — The State Supreme Court agreed the family of a pilot killed in a crash at Dallas 6 years ago should collect damages due to an admittedly-faulty propeller.

A Harris County doctor won reversal of a life sentence for designated state Republican speaker's bureau director.

NINE HUNDRED WANT TO REWRITE CONSTITUTION — A selection committee to pick a 37-member commission to re-write the state constitution soon found too many people want to help.

The six top officials on the committee went to work late last week trying to reduce the list of 900 nominees or volunteers for commission membership to 37.

Members of the commission must make their recommendations for constitutional reform by November. The legislature will convene as a constitutional convention next January.

SHORT SNORTS
The Senate confirmed Joe D. Carter's reappointment to the Texas Water Rights Commission, but postponed action on Maj. Gen. Thomas Bishop as adjutant general.

Recommendations of the National Water Commission as they relate to agriculture would depopulate rural areas, destroy productive capacity and drive down farm prices, claims Agriculture Commissioner John White.

The Legislature paid special tribute to new World heavyweight boxing champion George Foreman of Houston.

Attorney General Hill has been called on by the Senate to drop appeal of the Texas legislative redistricting case.

Exemption from ad valorem taxes applies to residence of all those over 65 in spite of age of others interested in the homestead. Hill ruled in an opinion.

The Board approved a $695 million state spending program for 1974 which would mean an overall budget of about $1 billion. The LBB budget proposal, said Board staff members, would reduce welfare spending overall by $150 million, considering lost U. S. aid.

COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE BILL ADVANCES — A bill to permit accident victims to collect damages though they were partly at fault moved through the House of Representatives in spite of warnings it might raise insurance rates.

The legislation, backed by Texas Trial Lawyers Association, would set up a so-called comparative negligence system. Juries would find percentages of fault and award damages in proportion to negligence of the parties to accidents.

Among other measures approved by the House was Speaker Price Daniel Jr.'s proposal to require speakership candidates to disclose their campaign financing.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Briscoe named former Sen. Joe Christi of El Paso to fill a vacancy on the State Board of Insurance created by Senate rejection of Ray Kilpatrick who had been appointed by former Gov. Preston Smith.

Briscoe also announced these appointments:
Judge Tom Coleman of Houston as chief justice of the First Court of Civil Appeals at Houston; Mrs. Carmen Hicks of Bandera to the Bandera County River Authority; William Garland Button and Cam F. Dowell Jr. of Dallas (reappointments) and G. C. Morris of Austin to the East Texas State University Board of regents; R. B. McGowan Jr. of Pecos (reappointment) to the Pecos River Compact Commission.

Mrs. Cathy Ward of Austin was reappointed to the Texas State Board of Agriculture.

Legislators questioned recently were assured they weren't under investigation.

Get The Most Out Of Your Beef Dollars

AUSTIN — With everyone beefing about the high cost of beef, the Texas Department of Agriculture has come up with some information on how to get the most out of your beef dollar.

"It's all a part of our March and April promotion program for beef as well as turkey and onions through the Texas Agricultural Products — TAP — program," Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

Information on how to stretch your beef dollars includes:

1. A beef chart showing the cuts of beef and cooking instructions for the various cuts.
2. A pamphlet "Stretching Your Beef Dollar" is available which goes into detail explaining how to best utilize beef.

This and other information on beef can be obtained free by writing John C. White, Texas Agriculture Commissioner, Tex. Department of Agriculture, Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

The TAP promotion program for beef will include distribution of 16,000 posters relating to beef as well as television and radio spots. Information will also be distributed for the second annual Texas Grain-Fed Beef Cook-Off, a statewide contest which last year attracted more than 7,000 entries.

Top prize is $500 for the best way to prepare beef, with $200 for each category winner. The contest is divided into three categories: tender cuts, less tender cuts, and variety cuts. Entry blanks may be obtained at local retail food stores or by writing to the Texas Department of Agriculture. Deadline for entry is April 30th.

In addition to beef promotion by TAP during March and April, special emphasis is also being given to turkeys and onions. "Turkey is a year-round favorite now among many people, but it is also a special at Easter time. TAP promotions will feature Easter turkeys," White said.

Special out-of-state promotion programs are slated for onions. Wholesalers in southern states are being mailed information on the availability and quality of Texas-produced onions.

With spring drawing near, many homeowners will be testing their "green thumb" and pitting in gardens. However, before taking that initial step, consider a control program for soil pests that may attack plants.

Soil insects can give home gardeners a lot of trouble. Most common are wireworms, white grubs, rootworms, cutworms, mole crickets and stalk borers.

Applying an insecticide two to three weeks before planting your garden will eliminate most soil insect problems. Recommended insecticides include chlordane and diazinon. Chlordane should be applied at three to six pounds of actual material per acre while diazinon should be applied at two to two-and-a-half pounds of actual material per acre (Broadcast). Diazinon may also be banded at one pound per acre.

Both insecticides are available in either the spray or granular form and should be worked into the top three to five inches of soil.

Additional information on controlling insect pests in the home garden is available at the county Extension office.

Home gardeners complain each year about root knot nematodes in their tomatoes, okra, beans and other vegetable crops.

These microscopic worms may be the reason for sickly plants that do not respond to fertilizer or water. Nematode presence can be recognized by galls and knots on plant roots.

If nematodes have been a problem in the past, treat your garden this spring before planting. The most widely used chemical for nematode control contains dibromochloropropane (DBCP). It is available at nurseries and farm supply stores.

No special equipment is necessary for treating home gardens. Liquid materials can be applied with a quart fruit jar with a ten-penny nail hole punched on each side of the lid—one to pour from and the other to let air into the jar so the liquid will pour evenly. Pour the proper amount of fumigant diluted with water into each 100 feet of open furrow at least 6 inches deep.

Granular DBCP can be sprinkled by hand into the open furrow, but be sure to wear rubber gloves.

For row treatment, place the fumigant in a 6-inch-deep furrow directly under seed rows or transplant row.

Broadcast treatment can be made by opening a 6-inch-deep furrow using a hoe, spade or other implement. Furrows should be no more than 12 inches apart from center to center. A broadcast treatment is much more effective than row treatment; however, more fumigant and expense is involved.

Whether using the liquid or granular material, cover the treated furrows immediately to seal the fumigant into the soil. This can be done by digging a weighted board over the treated area. Then sprinkle the soil lightly with water.

American Cancer Society Crusade Set For April 9

Is 45 million times too many times to say something that might save thousands of lives? The American Cancer Society does not think so and will be distributing that many special leaflets entitled "Annual Check-up! It's a Lifesaver," for its 1973 educational and fund-raising Crusade on April 9.

"We intend to help save more lives here in Mills County so we hope to put a leaflet in every home," declared Mrs. Lois Hudson, chairman of the local ACS Crusade.

The leaflet stresses it's wonderful to feel great and that is the "perfect time to see your doctor for a checkup including tests for cancer."

The current facts on the cancer problem show that more than 222,000 Americans will be saved from cancer this year. But medical science already has the knowledge to save another 111,000 who will probably die but might have been saved by earlier diagnosis and prompt treatment.

Early detection is crucial because while cancer is still localized in its first stage, it can usually be successfully treated. Once it begins spreading to other parts of the body through the lymph and blood systems its management becomes increasingly more difficult.

The ACS leaflet urges all Americans to do as did the 1,500,000 Americans alive today who've been cured of cancer. "They gave their doctors a chance to detect and treat their disease in time."

The final reminder gives the seven warning signals of cancer that require the prompt attention of a physician:

1. Change in bowel or bladder habits
2. A sore that does not heal
3. Unusual bleeding or discharge
4. Thickening or lump in breast or elsewhere
5. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing
6. Obvious change in wart or mole
7. Nagging cough or hoarseness

"This little fact-packed leaflet will be distributed nationally by our more than 2,000,000 volunteers," Mrs. Hudson said. "We of Mills County urge everyone to fight cancer with a check-up and a generous check to the American Cancer Society. We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime."

Sanders Rites Conducted February 22

On Thursday morning, Feb. 22, 1973, Mrs. Aleene (Pat) Sanders passed away in her home at 606 Storeywood Drive, San Antonio, Texas. Her passing was sudden, although she had been in ill health for several years. "Pat" as she was affectionately known, was born in San Antonio, Texas, on July 17, 1910, where she had spent most of her life. She attended Main Avenue High School there. She was employed as a civil service employee at Kelly Air Force Base from December 6, 1941 until her disability retirement on March 20, 1960.

November 8, 1958, she was married to Mr. Walter W. Sanders. He owns and operates the old M. J. Sanders Farm, one mile west of Mullin. In recent years Mrs. Sanders and Walter had spent a lot of time in Mullin. These friendships she cherished dearly.

Mrs. Sanders had been a member of the First Presbyterian Church most of her life. Funeral services were conducted from the Chapel of Prayers, Roy Akers Funeral Home in that city with Rev. Ted Miles, Pastor of the Lakeview Baptist Church officiating. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Walter W. Sanders; a son, Charles Easton Logan; a grandson, George Easton Logan and her mother, Mrs. Carrie Lillie all of San Antonio.

She was laid to rest in the Roselawn Cemetery in San Antonio on Saturday afternoon, February 24. The pallbearers were: Kenneth Sanders, Ralph G. Davis, Glynn Sanders, John O. Grounds, H. C. Doerr and Ralph A. Keyes.

Out-of-town relatives attending the services were Mr. Kenneth Sanders, San Francisco, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sanders and Michael, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Sanders, Mullin; Mrs. Lucille Jenke and Mr. Prentice Sanders, Austin; Mrs. Julia Seabourn, Maquette; Mrs. Willis Sanders, Dallas and Mr. Odis Berry, Hamilton.

Marvin Hunt On Distinguished List At TSC

Marvin Hunt was named as a "Distinguished Student" during the spring semester of 1973. The selection was based on his having no grade lower than "C" and having earned a grade point ratio of at least 3.25 as a full-time student during the fall semester 1972.

Marvin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunt of Moline Route, Goldthwaite.

Alligator vs. Shoemaker

With ecology in mind, a state legislature banned the sale of alligator skins within the borders of the state. In short order, a maker of men's shoes went to court with the following objection:

"This law is unconstitutional. True, the state does have the power to protect consumers. But here they are not trying to protect consumers. They are trying to protect alligators. That is beyond the scope of legislative authority."

However, a court ruled that the measure was indeed within the "police power" of the state.

"Protection of animals," said the court, "is necessary not only for their natural beauty and for biological study but (also) for the key role they play in the maintenance of the life cycle."

Not long afterward, a shoe dealer tried another line of attack on the same law.

"It hurts our chances of making a living," said the dealer. "It destroys our property rights without due process of law."

But again the court upheld the legislation. The court said the shoe dealer simply had no "property right" to begin with in the wildlife of a foreign country.

These cases illustrate the legal issues that have arisen out of efforts to preserve "endangered species." As a rule, courts have looked with favor upon such efforts.

Nevertheless, if the state may act on behalf of animals, it may also act on behalf of hunters. In another case, lawmakers decided to introduce a special breed of deer into remote sections of the state—for the benefit of sportsmen.

Some residents opposed the plan, partly because of the harm the deer might inflict upon the flora and fauna of the region.

But after a court test, their objections were overruled. The court said the state's police power included the right to make the state more appealing and more profitable as a recreational area.

"WHAT YOU WANT . . . WHEN YOU WANT IT!" Goldthwaite

THE MILLS MINISTER

BY GORDON TALK, Pastor of First United Methodist Church, Goldthwaite, Texas

How Jesus healed people we do not know. That He did something, and that it seemed like work, is obvious from the fact that His critics were opposed to healing on the Sabbath, for it was work to which they objected. Often He said words that were helpful, "but, in the case of the woman with an issue of blood, there were no words at all. The very proximity to Christ seems to have given the poor woman what she needed.

We get some idea of how numerous the acts of healing were when we see that one story, that of the poor woman, comes in the midst of another. Christ healed one while He was on his way to relieve a second sorrowful situation. We may be sure that the gospels tell only a few of the human stories, just as they include only a few of the parables. Because life can go wrong at so many points, there is no end to human tragedy and the needy cases will always press upon one another. Christ was gay with the publicans and sinners. He feasted more than he fasted; but He was also in constant touch with all kinds of pain and disappointment.

The woman who was healed so suddenly is representative of the many of this world who have ample reason for discouragement. Her physical disability had continued unabated for twelve long years, years in which she had gone to many physicians, but with each succeeding hope blasted. The consequences of much fruitless medical care was that she impoverished as well as ill. She was only one out of a great throng about Jesus, but He, recognizing that a genuine contact had been made, sought the woman out, and treated her as an individual rather than as a merely part of the faceless crowd.

The most remarkable feature of this appealing account of relief is that, according to Christ's own words, the healing agent was the woman's own faith. Christ did not consciously help her, because she was healed before He was aware of her presence, but she was healed because her own faith was so great. As she gave herself, unreservedly, to the power she felt in Christ's person, she became a new person, because faith itself is miraculous. Though we have absolutely no idea what the limits of a powerful faith may be, we must never let our faith be an end in itself. What the poor woman had was not faith in faith, it was faith in Christ. Faith is a word that requires an object. We recognize that mere faith is not an adequate answer to human ills, when we realize that we can have faith in that which is unworthy. If we have faith in Christ and give full attention to Him, we do not need to worry about the effects. They will take care of themselves.

In 1860, the capital of Missouri was moved to Marshall, Texas.

Longhorn cattle were brought to Mexico by the Spaniards in 1521.

Easter Seal Appeal Letters Delivered In County

Easter Seal Appeal letters are to be delivered this week in Mills County according to Glynn Collier the Easter Seal Representative of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. As Representative of the Easter Seal, Collier serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also serves as Treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Mills Co. The Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs, and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal. The Society also provides for research in to the causes and cures of crippling conditions, finances public education programs, and provides scholarships for training of professional personnel to staff rehabilitation centers.

Collier pointed out that all these programs are important if Texas is going to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation services for its own disabled citizens.

During 1972, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services for 16,572 children and adults who were in need of assistance. Easter Seal services are available to any disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, and who do not qualify any other assistance, Collier added.

The Easter Seal Campaign will continue through Easter Sunday, April 22.

Mullin Community News

BY MRS. JOHNNIE HOLLAND

We have a new norther in Mullin this morning. It is all cloudy and looks like it could snow. When August gets here, all hot and dry, we will all be wishing for weather like this. The sun does look good when it can find a place to "peep out."

Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Sanders and Mrs. Albert Jenke of Austin attended funeral services last Saturday afternoon in San Antonio for Mrs. Walter Sanders. Mrs. Sanders passed away suddenly at her home in San Antonio.

We have so much sickness now. The hospitals are all full. Mrs. Dew Shelton is in the hospital in Brownwood. Shorty Pafford is in the hospital in Goldthwaite and has been quiet ill.

Bruce Stewart's mother, Mrs. Stewart and daughter of Corpus Christi visited here over the week end with Bruce and Susie. They also visited with Mrs. Marlon Kirbo. Also Larry Kirbo of Austin visited here over the week end with relatives.

Mrs. Houston Duren and Mrs. Bobby Davis visited Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Milton Stanley. Visitors in the Burt Lockett home Sunday were Mrs. Elvie Lockett, Opal Lockett and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Rascoe all of Granbury.

Mrs. Clara Pafford entered a nursing home in Goldthwaite last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Effie Blassengame returned to her home Monday near Lubbock after an extended visit here with her daughter, Juanita Hart and family.

New sewing "gadgets" on the market reflect a current sewing boom. The new offerings all make sewing easier.

A few of these include the hem clip, automatic tailor tacker, tape stitching guide and automatic buttonhole cutter.

Like giant, flat bobby pins, hem clips slip over the edge of the folded hem. In this position, they hold fabric edges together while the hem is being evened.

Hem clips also serve as measuring guides since they are made in quarter-inch segments. A baster—or automatic tailor tacker—consists of a threaded bobbin attached to a clear dispensing case. To use, thread needle in the dispensing case and stitch until bobbin empties.

The tape stitching guide is exactly what it sounds like. The adhesive backed tape has measurements graduated in increments of an inch to help home sewers topstitch or measure for buttonholes become uniform.

This device features a special fine steel blade with a groove lock in grooves automatically sized and set for standard buttonholes from one-half to one inch. It comes complete with a cutting block.

TRAFFIC DEATH RECORD "IMPROVES"

Automobiles kill more Texans every year. In 1971 the death count was 3,594. Yet the death RATE in relation to miles driven went down a tenth of a per cent—to 5.1 for each 100 million miles on the road.

The gain—from 5.2 to 5.1—was not enough. For one thing, the "gain" was actually a loss of 34 lives; deaths in 1970 were "only" 3,560. Only a 4% increase in miles traveled saved the Texas scorecard from a brutal beating. The estimated economic loss was the greatest ever: $1,045,000,000.

Traffic safety experts haven't given up. They still have hope of achieving the Department of Transportation's goal: Reduce the death rate by one-third by 1980. Priority safety programs are hopefully plugging away at the deaths-per-100-million-vehicle-miles figure. It will have to drop to 3.6 to achieve that one-third reduction.

These priority programs are pretty basic: —Safer cars. —Safer roads. —Safer drivers.

Safer driving means, among other things, more sober driving. Seven per cent, rated as "problem drinkers-drivers," cause an estimated one-third of highway deaths.

Clearly, we must keep these problem drivers off the road. And the best way to do that is to keep them out of automobiles. Research is being directed to that end. It should be supported.
