Acting City Manger Named; New Council Takes Oaths

ing City Manager Monday night by the Goldthwaite City Council. The action followed the March resignation of Manager Don Petty who had held the position for two years.

Allen, who has been office manager and purchasing agent for the past year, assumed the temporary post as chief city administrator Tuesday morning. The duties of the office were given him by the council, including the handling of all personnel matters and the handling of the work load of the City employees. Recent resignation by three other City employees and the vacancies thereby created are to be considered by Allen.

Councilman Howard Campbell made the motion moving Allen up to acting City Manager. It was a unanimous decision. The City is to begin taking applications for a new City Manager immediately, and anyone interested in the position is urged to contact either Allen, City Secretary Glynn Collier

Mayor J. D. Harper for fur-

as cast in last Saturday's election here. J. D. Harper received 122 votes for Mayor and James Carter and Frank Bridges each received 129 votes for Alderman. The three new members of the City governing body replace Ray Duren, Donald Padgett and Ancle Morgan. The new officers were given the oath of office by Mayor Duren after which they were seated and the new council was in session. The newly formed council reorganized and elected Jimmy Smith Mayor Pro-Tem, to sit in the absence of Mayor Harper.

In other matters the council: ONE - Heard from Mrs. Judy Beavers concerning the proposed Farmers' Market to be staged during the summer at the property adjacent to Mills County Lumber on Highway 84. Mrs. Beavers reminded the council that only Mills County producers, selling Mills County produce, will be allowed to sell wares at the market. It is a project of the Mills County Family Living Committee.

TWO - Received a check for $2,118.00 for the City's revenue sharing money. THREE - Opened bids on a electric department. The low bidder was Saylor Chevrolet with a bid of $4,461.91. After a trade-in allowance of $600, the truck would cost $3,861.91 The tool bins will have to be reworked to fit the shorter chassis. No nine-foot chassis could be purchased, only eightfoot models.

FOUR - Heard from Nathan Carothers concerning the house formerly occupied by Sam Watson, City employee who resigned. The house was considered part of Watson's salary. He was also the primary custodian at the Sanitary Landfill operation. The council voted to rent the house at $90 per month, and agreed that Owen Taylor, who Carothers was appearing in behalf, would have first choice. After a phone call Taylor consented to the rent and will move in shortly. Tay-lor now resides in California.

FIVE - Heard from Charles Studer who was appearing before the council to voice his opinion about the way former Manager Petty was treated by the council. Studer said that the matter was not handled fairly and that he just wanted the record to show that was the way he felt about it. Studer' primary objection was that Petty was not given proper instructions and alternatives in SIX - Heard a budget report from Dale Allen who said the budget that was set up last July was running, through nine months, at 72.23 percent of collections and 74.47 of expenditures. Ideally, the budget would be at a 75 percent level. It was mentioned, however, that the City had not purchased a bulldozer for the landfill operation. This would push the expenditure part of the budget over the desired level. SEVEN - Approved the quarterly treasurer's report and the monthly operations report. The monthly operations report showed an overall gain of over $2,000 for the City coffers, however, it was a month that the City received a City sales tax check for over $6,000.

August, I imagine. I wrote the above statement about the rain on Sunday afternoon. This is Monday morning and it is raining cats and dogs, and is so dark I have to have my lights on to see. Looks like now it might not quit for a while. We need it.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Case of Tye, near Abilene, visited afternoon with Mrs. Lillian Plummer.

A group of Senior Citizens made a tour of the Johnson Ranch and other points a day last week. They left here at a.m. (on the new Senior Citizen bus) and arrived home in the very late afternoon. They really made a day of it, and they all had a good time.

Those who went were: Mr. and Mrs. Tee Dunlap, Callie Pyburn, Belva Cobb, Pearlie Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Long, Alma Spinks, Ruth Tullos, Lula Ethridge (Mrs. Fred) and Mr. and Mrs. Dumas.

Mrs. Billy Hobbs, David and Mandy of Brownwood, Mrs. Jack Cooksey of Palo Pinto, Lillian Plummer and Mary Edmondson visited Sunday afternoon with Dew and Dimples

Mrs. Gracie Lockridge of Brady visited in Mullin a day last week. I had a nice visit with her. She has bought her a nice home in Brady and she seemed to be real happy in her new location, although she still loves Mullin and the people
