custom in those days. The family and social life of a doctor were planned around when babies were due, and many times plans were canceled or postponed. Dr. Campbell was known to "stay for dinner" while waiting for a baby to arrive or for a patient to pass the crisis of a serious illness since distance prohibited his going back and forth, and several have told the story of his sleeping in a swing or bed on a porch for part of the night while waiting. Many interesting stories and anecdotes relating to Dr. Campbell's practice exist. It is impossible to attempt to tell them all, but a few can be recalled that portray a picture, familiar to all who knew him - of "Stump-water" as he was lovingly called by some

Many diagnosis were made and treatment administered by Dr. Campbell on the sidewalks of Goldthwaite, and many children and adults were taken into the office to have a sore throat mopped with silver nitrates He always wore a vest and a coat and the pockets were stuffed with calumel packets and other medicines which he might need quickly or if he met someone on the street who was ill.

For years he kept no books and sent no statements - and was paid often during the hard times with chickens, eggs, sausages, hams and feed for his horses. After money became more plentiful, people paid doctor bills for years back and often his vest pockets bulged with crumpled one dollar bills collected on the street. He was a contented man and had no desire to amass a fortune. His greatest pleasure was his family - above all his grandchildren, first a granddaughter and then a grandson. Dr. Campbell's love of the great outdoors afforded him the pleasure of many hours spent hunting, fishing and camping. There were other hobbies to help relieve the grueling tensions and demands on country doctor. He was an avid race horse enthusiast, and in partnership with Sam P. Rahl raised race horses for a time He spent many hours playing dominoes and also played the violin for years. Dr. Campbell participated in numerous community, state and national activities. He was the local Santa Fe physician for years, and through his association with this railroad was instrumental in getting the Mills County Hunting and Fishing Club established at Lake Merritt. In 1921, he was authorized by the City Council of Goldthwaite to negotiate with the Santa Fe for a purchase of land south of town in order that a well might be dug to furnish water for the city of Goldthwaite. He helped establish the Fair Grounds and Racing Association in Goldthwaite. He was Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Trent State Bank for several years and was active in the Masonic Lodge. He was President of the Brown, Comanche, Mills and San Saba Medical Society and County Vice-President of the Texas Medical Association. He was the Medical Examiner for the Selective Service Systems through World Wars I and II. Numerous times former classmates in Medical School and friends in Scott and White Hospital in Temple urged him to join the staff there, but he pre-ferred his life in Mills County. Campbell was a godly Dr. man. He was a close personal friend to ministers of all denominations and the strength of those friendships was evidenced at his funeral when representatives of all faiths, Catholic and Protestant, requested that they be allowed to participate in the service. He saw many travel through "the valley of the shadow of death" but was able to help postpone that journey through his skills and knowledge. Although he was not the first, nor the only beloved doctor in Mills County or Goldthwaite, Dr. James Milton Campbell was one of the very early doctors in the area and typical of the "horse and buggy" ' country doctor of his time. His dedication, unselfish devotion to his profession, and love for humanity left a mark on this county that will live forever.

Annual Audit Accepted By GISD Trustees

The Goldthwaite Independent School District Board of Trustees met Monday night in regular session. The board approved the audit for the 1975-1976 year as suband Williams, Certified Public Accountants of Waco. The spokesman for the auditing firm told the board that the Goldthwaite audit was all in mitted by the firm of Talbert order and that he could not criticize the methods used in accounting or record keeping. He went on to say that out of some 31 school districts audited by Talbert and Williams, the Goldthwaite district was in the best overall financial condition. He cited several reasons for the district being in this position. High collection levels maintained over the years was the first he mentioned. In other words, the low delinquency rate for the collection of taxes. The GISD has a low bonded indebted ness figure, causing the local district to be able to spend more on local maintenance and less on interest for bonds, and the bonds in use are at a very interest rate. The fact that the local district has not had a rapid increase in students over the past few years has aided considerably in the district's ability to weather the inflationary storm.

The board heard from persons concerning the possible unjustifiable punishme nt of an elementary student. After much debate, the board unanimously voted that the punishment was justified and that the teacher would not be reprimanded in any way.

In other trustee business Rev. and Mrs. Ben Welch of Goldthwaite were at the meeting to discuss the school's forma tion of a more worthy tennis program for the school. Board member Wendell Tucker was the spokesman for the program on the board. It was pointed out that the tennis sport has grown enormously in the past few years and that a broad tennis program is a very worthwhile program for the school consider. Local student desire to participate in tennis has been shown many times. The immediate need is for the students who qualify for tournaments, about 8-12 per year, to be allowed to have excused absences from school, as long as they are accompanied by school representatives and maintain scholastic require-ments as in other sports. The tennis tournaments usually will take the students out of class for one day (Friday) for each tournament

No action was taken on the tennis program, with the proposal to be discussed at the next regular board meeting in November.

Eagles Fall In Homecoming Game, Travel To Ranger Fri.

By STEVE BREAZEALE

So close, but two points too far. The Bangs Dragons squeaked out a close game Fri-day night by beating the Goldthwaite Eagles 14-12. Bangs led throughout the entire game, but in the fourth quarter the Eagles began to fly by scoring two touchdowns. With 44 seconds left, trying a field goal to win but falling off to the left, the game ended. Never let it be said that the '76 Eagles gave up, but just let it be said that time was quicker.

In the first quarter, Bangs opened the scoring when fullback Bill Brush went around right end for 77 yards and a TD. The extra point was kicked by Wes Byler to make the score

In the second quarter, linebacker Mike Yancy blocked a David Miller punt, caught the ball, and raced 34 yards for another Dragon TD. Byler again kicked the extra point. In the fourth quarter the Eagles came flying back. Quar-terback Jett Johnson threw 25 yards to end David Miller for the Eagles' first score. A try for two fell short. Then Goldthwaite held and on second down halfback Mike Williams took the ball off end and ran 32 yards down the sideline to score. A try for two failed again. Then, with 44 seconds left, Jim Smith attempted a 32 yard field goal. It was just about a foot too wide to the left and the game ended with Bangs running ou the clock.

Halfbacks Tim Spradley and Mike Williams had great night: running the ball, with 131 and 138 yards respectively.

Office Skills Classes Begin

Beginning October 25 there will be a class for persons in Mills County who want to learn bookkeeping and typing. This class will be taught again by Donna (Cox) Sanders. The class will meet at the same time as the other adult classes are meeting — Monday and Wednes-day during football season, and Monday and Thursday after that. The classes meet for two hours each evening, from 7:00 to 9:00. A Nurses Aide class will be offered as soon as a teacher is hired for that position. The teacher must be an L.V.N. or R.N. and willing to devote 4-6 hours eachweek. Please contact Mrs. Ben Welch at 648-3275 if interested.

Anyone who has not register-ed for the G.E.D. classes and who is interested can come at any time. This is true because instruction is completely individualized. Of course, this is not true of the Office Skills and Nurses Aide classes. Reg-istration for these classes will close after the first week.

The organizational meeting was called to order with the attention directed to their president, Tamra Long, and then to their song leader, Cindy Ynostrosa, who led the traditional singing of the FHA song. Mr. Bill Harlow then presented a very enlightening and helpful program on discipline. He covered many different aspects and involved several situations on this matter. The girls really appreicated a good presentation such as this.

After the closing of Mr. Harlow's interesting talk, the business began. The FHA and FFA are taking a trip to the State Fair in Dallas, Saturday, October 16. The girls took this time to discuss the trip. They decided on the time for departure, extra expenditures, etc. These girls are eager and full of determination, vigor and action. Highlights

We were thrilled by the music of HAZEL MOSLEY, COLQUIT MILLER AND BUSTER ABLES recently when they brought their nstruments in for an evening of music and dancing. It was ever so much fun to watch MITZI and JIM do so many pretty dance steps. They will return on Monday night, Oct. 18, and also on the 25th to make merry for us again. This time we are looking forward to having JULIAN EVANS added to the quartet with his famous drums. We welcome Mrs. Ruby Kattes back to the home. Al-

hand last Tuesday to write letters for us. We had saved some of them up for Maxine. Our thanks also to Mrs. Pearl Hickman who helps write letters. All of these courtesies and helps from volunteers are always appreciated at HILL-VIEW

All of the residents enjoy the string band on Saturday night. Mrs. Stanley Bessent showed pictures that they took of some of our residents recently.

Some things you might not know about Hillview Manor residents:

Mrs. Lena Brown was able to return from the hospital, for which we are grateful.

Dru Huckabee goes about constantly doing good by helping her neighbors. She actually LOOKS for things and ways to help.

Mr. Tom Stokes (our Austin resident) has mastered the art of Skip-Bo. He was an avid chess player when he came to Hillview. but now he thinks Skip-Bo is fun, too.

No one, and we mean NO ONE. enjoys the bus trips like Albert Tiemann. (Thanks, Mr. Edwards).

Charles Frary is the busiest boy alive! He loves to work with leather, re-do old fur-niture, work in the yard, you name it Mrs. Alice Waggner stays sweet and composed no matter what the day brings. Says she enjoys living in the home.

If you happen to be around about dark each night, you will catch a glimpse of our sweet little Gertrude Neely making her way to the back door. Says she loves to look out over the hills and say her goodnight prayer.

Mrs. Lou Rothwell is excited about a visit from her son who lives in the state of Washington. Why Not??

Mr. Henry Curtis is our new-est resident. Welcome, Mr. Curtis.

Is that a parable of life for you? Is there a feeling that maybe you have been carrying the ball in the wrong direction? Living hard and living fast, but you have been carrying the ball in the wrong direction, toward the wrong goals of life? If you realize that to be your situation, the coach is ready to put you back in the game. If we confess our sins, he will forgive us and point us in the right direction.

ATTENTION CONCERNED CITIZENS! The Mills County Committee on Aging will sponsor a Christmas Bazaar in early November at the Mills County Youth Center. The Bazaar will be a county-wide affair and the Com-mittee asks that items such as handcrafts, canned foods, baked items, etc. be donated for sale at the Bazaar.

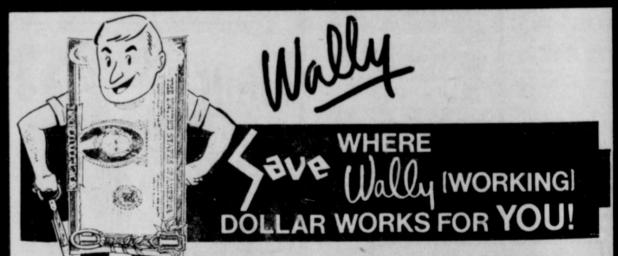

All proceeds from the Bazaar will go toward the purchase of a senior center for this county. We must raise matching funds to obtain the money we received in our grant. This must be done within one year or we will lose the grant. Please be thinking of this and help us get our fund-raising off to a good start. The county bus trips will soon begin again.
