Ten Donors Respond To Blood Drive Nov. 2

Ten donors responded to the monthly blood replacement program last Thursday. November 2, with six of donating to one of their classmates.

Dan Connally, chairman of the program, states that the response to the new schedule being open the first Thursday of each month has been good, but it dropped down somewhat this last time. He stated that more than likely with one more doctor in the area, and Two Men Posing possibly two soon, we will be using more blood components and will need more donors. At the present time. Arrested Last Week we are using about 20 units per month, which means we need 20 donors per month. Rev. Connally reminds everyone that a person can donate up to 4 times per year ithout any harmful effects.

Those donating this month were: Nan Roberts, Wincil Page. Ruth Johnson, Dedra Long, Walter A. Bryant, Becky A. Long, Carrie Gray, Sheila Vaughan, Kathryn Lewis. Charles W. Hill. Those deferred to a later date were Letha K. Clark and Mildred Hardcastle.

Activity on the local level was low, but congressional, senate and governor's races took the limelight.

Democratic candiate for Congress of the 11th district, Marvin Leath of Marlin, wor over Republican Jack Burgess, in a hard fought battle that went down to the wire. Leath garnered about 53 per cent of the vote over the district, compared to Burgess' 47 per cent. Leath carried Mills County by a slightly heavier margin nearly 56 per cent.

Mills County voters, tra ditionally Democratic, followed that same trend in the U. S. Senate race, voting for Bob Krueger over Republican John Tower. Tower, the incumbent, was ahead at press time Wednesday morning, but by only a small percentage statewide.

The identical situation happened in Mills County in the Governor's race. It appeared late Wednesday morning that Republican Bill Clements had narrowly won a victory over Democratic candidate John Hill for the state's highest office. However, Hill carried Mills County, but only by 31 votes, the closest margin on the

On the Mills County scene all candidates were unopposed in the election.

County Judge James Ledbetter, County Clerk Walter Bryant, Treasurer Dee Harris, Precinct 1 Commissioner Bill Bishop, Precinct 2 Commissioner Lewis Watson. Precinct 4 Commissioner Hawley Jernigan, and two justices of the peace, E. H. Thorne of Precinct 1 and Anna Lou Schlee of Precinct 6 were elevated to office. All local candidates were listed in the Democratic party column of the ballot.

It was a very interesting election, by historical standards, seeing many new

Goldthwaite City Council Reviews Cable Television Situation Locally

Council spent a lot of time at its regular meeting last Thursday night talking about cable television. The present system that serves the city, owned by Dean Bagley of San Saba, will be completely renovated future. beginning immediately, according to Bagley. He told the council that the system will be rewired and many amplifiers will be replaced.

Trees will also be trimmed if they touch cable lines. The Goldthwaite cable company asked for a rate increase about a year ago, but was denied it after one favorable reading because of the reworking not being done. The city has only the rate setting power over a cable vision system such as this. No other input can be made by the city.

G. C. Head of Goldthwaite, who holds a duly approved franchise to do siness in cable television here, was also at the meeting. He explained that currently he is having engineers working on esti mates of costs for construction and methods. He could not say at the time whether the system would economically work or be practical. It will be very expensive to build and would have to be delivered to about 80 per cent of the homes in the town to be financially sound.

Mr. & Mrs. Jay McClintock

Jacquie Kincheloe, McClintock United In Marriage October 28

Saturday, October 28, 1978, at 4:00 p.m., Jacqueline Elizabeth Kincheloe became the bride of Johnny Wayne (Jay) McClintock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Shepherd of Goldthwaite. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny LeRoy Mc-Clintock of Whitt, Texas.

Rev. Dan Connally performed the double ring ceremony at the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite. The chapel was decorated with candelabras and an archway of greenery and pink, white and burgundy carnations. Music for the ceremony was furnished by Mrs. Sybil Head of Goldthwaite.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Max Shepherd, the bride wore a floor length gown of soft po yester knit. Re-embroidered alencon lace and delicate seed pearls trimmed the high vaisted bodice accented by a sheer illusion yoke and high neckline. Matching lace trimmed sheer illusion complimented the upper half and cuff of bishop sleeves. Soft gathers extended from back hodice flowing into attached chapel train. Alencon lace covered the pill box headpiece with lace bordered fingertip veil of nylon illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, white spider mums, and pink roses atop a white Bible. Tracy Kincheloe, sister of the bride, was Maid of Honor. Her floor length dress was fashioned of pale pink taffeta covered over with pink chiffon, featuring a chiffon ruffled neckline and skirt. She carried a nosegay of white, pink, and burgundy

Kelly News by Mrs. M. C. Partridge

We finally got that long awaited rain - 2 inches. I'm sure the oat farmers are pleased as well as everyone else, except the pecan and peanut gatherers.

I visited in Evant last Sunday with some dear friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Spradley, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Piper, Mrs. Edward Perkins, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith. Mrs. Spradley is now in Houston taking therapy for malignancy.

M. C. and I were at the local hospital last Tuesday morning. We were able to visit with some more of our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Jones and Kay of Regency, and Mrs. J. W. Featherston. The waiting room is a good place to visit with old friends.

J. C. Partin has been doing some dozer work on the Holcomb and Hubert Berry

What will you do in 20 years when she runs to you and says, "He asked me to marry him and I said yes!"

Will you have to say, "I'm sorry honey, but I didn't plan ahead for this day and I simply won't be able to afford the wedding you deserve."

Or will you be able to tell her that you're happy that she's happy and that you've been planning for years to make that special day the happiest day of her life.

Plan ahead with a savings account. Add to it regularly and soon you'll have the peace of mind that comes only from financial security...

And you'll make your little girl a happy big girl some day.
