

Bull Town Bulletins

By Bill Ellis

EVERY SO OFTEN, one of our good friends (?) makes a remark about how useless the paper is.

Just to set this type of person straight, we were brought the following item, which points out 101 uses for the paper:

1. Obtain information; 2. Advertise something you have to sell; 3. Look for something you want to buy; 4. Look for a job; 5. Hire someone for a job; 6. Line shelves; 7. Temporary rain hat; 8. Protect area under dog's feeding dish; 9. Training (housebreaking) animals; 10. Cover bottom of bird cage.

11. Protect car seat when wearing wet clothes; 12. Swat flies--rolled up; 13. Use to sit on wet grass at concerts, etc.; 14. Stuff under doors to protect from winter drafts; 15. Place in bottom of shoes in winter to keep feet warmer; 16. Use to start fires; 17. Use to wrap wet garbage; 18. Line waste paper baskets; 19. Place under baby's high chair to protect floor; 20. Place at door as mat for wet, muddy shoes or boots.

21. Bird feeder--place on top of snow and put feed on; 22. Use to wrap wet or soiled diapers on a trip; 23. Save and give to paper drive; 24. Place under car in garage to keep oil from floor; 25. Make car litter bag; 26. Use for makeshift table cloth at picnic; 27. Place by phone and jot messages in margin when you're short on paper; 28. Stuff in shoes to retain shape; 29. Place on floor or table when polishing shoes; 30. Spitballs.

31. Wrap fish when fishing; 32. Roll and use for torch; 33. Blot up water; 34. Light cigarette from campfire; 35. Pile up for booster chair for child; 36. Use a wad for an improvised ball game; 37. Make kites; 38. Put under car wheels when car is stuck in sand, snow or mud; 39. Poker for fire--tightly rolled; 40. Clean cobwebs--tightly rolled.
41. Place over ears under cap for insulation; 42. Roll and make a funnel; 43. Mark size of foot when ordering shoes; 44. Use small piece as support for wiggly table leg; 45. Make a large sheet-sized S.O.S. if lost; 46. Plug small holes in wall; 47. Use as a disposable plate when eating watermelon; 48. Use with folded edge down as dustpan; 49. Use between two layers of diapers to waterproof baby; 50. Use to stuff hats to make them keep their shape.

51. Place strips between toes when polishing nails; 52. Emergency pot holder; 53. Use sheet to pick up phone if hands are wet or dirty; 54. Dispose of small amounts of fat--makes fire burn better; 55. Sharpen pencils--run side of lead on paper; 56. Use loosely rolled to swat dog when training; 57. Use tightly rolled to chase off unwanted animals; 58. Use two small folded sheets to pick up broken raw eggs; 59. Use a folded edge to scrape mud from bottom of shoes; 60. Use sheet for fan.

61. Make paper chains; 62. Use folded edge to clean comb when brush isn't available; 63. Add several sheets with rolled up money to impress girl; 64. Place pile on muddy spots that must be walked on, as by door side; 65. Use to fish something out of a hard-to-reach place; 66. Use to blot lipstick; 67. Use for umbrella in sudden storm; 68. Make a lamp shade; 69. Place in loose shoes to tighten; 70. Make an emergency wick in a candle lighter.

71. Use to draw a straight line; 72. Place on upholstered seat when child comes to eat; 73. Use for bibs when eating spaghetti; 74. Put over face to insure privacy when sleeping--as in park; 75. Make ear plugs--wad; 76. Shred and use as confetti; 77. Make an emergency bottle cork; 78. Mark trails in woods with strips; 79. Use to stuff sand bags for floods; 80. Lay on ground and use to lay on to star gaze--no stiff neck.

81. Wave a sheet in a crowd to attract the attention of someone; 82.

Results Given For Bull Town Days Events

Winners were announced this week for some of the various events connected with the 1983 Bull Town Days.

There were a number of people who worked hard for the success of Bull Town Days. The Bovina Ambulance Service sponsored a trap shoot on the Larry Scott farm and made a profit of $551.50.

Winners in the tug-o-war event at last week's celebration were as follows: W.W. Farms team beat Dudley's in the finals. Team members on the winning team were: Lynn Read, Joe Black, Charlie Trimble, Kim McClaran, Ken Sorley, Terri Sorley, Buddy Hutto, Doyle Garner and Chuck Gilbreath.

Winners in the younger divisions included: 10 and under--Gymnastic Elite (Darla Stormes, Andy Stormes, Kory Mitchell, Cindy Quintana, Keri Mitchell, Mendi Rhodes, Corey Kirkpatrick, and Kimberly Kirkpatrick).

Eleven to 14 division: Sudderth Contracting (Todd Ware, Chad Clayton, Todd Glasscock, Todd Schilling, Robbie Stowers and Tamra Turner).

Winners of the Bull Run events were as follows: kindergarten through second grade, Matthew Williams with a time of 9:03.

Third grade through sixth grade was Corey Kirkpatrick, who ran it in the time of 8:34.

Seventh grade through eighth grade winner was Clay Dutton, who ran it in 7:20.

Adult female winner was Joanna Mesman, who ran the mile in 7:27.

Adult male winner was Buddy Hutto, who ran it in 4:42.

Parent/tot winners were Joe

Bradburn and daughter Courtney and their winning time was 9:03.

Approximately 700 people were served at Saturday evening's barbecue and also a good turnout was registered for the salad supper Friday night and lots of fine talent displayed at the variety show.

Seven contestants entered the Fiddler's Contest and trophies were awarded to: first place, Gary McClesky of Hereford; second place, Turner Paine of Farwell; and third place, Fred Chandler, also of Farwell.

Twelve teams entered in the softball tournament and trophies were awarded to the teams: first place, Budweiser (Clovis); second place, Coor's Lite (Clovis); and third place, Rhea team. Hometown players on the winning team were Ricky Shepherd and Harvey Shepherd. Bovina player on the Coor's Lite team that placed second was Richard Shepherd.

Two prizes were awarded to first and second place for floats in the Bull Town parade and they were: first place, Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church; and second place, Junior High Cheerleaders. First place prize was $50 and second place was $25.

Ribbons were awarded to those decorating the prettiest bicycle and tricycle. First place in the bicycle contest was Hugo Renteria; second place, Stacey Barron; and third place, Brett Thomas.

First place in the tricycle contest went to Jason Thomas.

Sheriff Car Is Approved

Sheriff Bill Morgan was given approval to advertise for a new car for his department during the regular meeting of the Parker County Commissioners on August 8.

Although the car was not in the budget for the year, Morgan explained to the court that he has taken in enough money by boarding prisoners from the overflow from Randall County's jail to more than pay for the car.

Kevin Deckard of Deckard Equipment Company, Amarillo, met with the court and discussed the lease/purchase agreement of John Deere Company as regards road equipment.

Motion was passed to pay boarding care bills for the county's foster children in the amount of $2,142.10. The amount will be reimbursed to the county.

Payment of an indigent funeral expense in the amount of $300 was also approved, to Blackwell-Ellis Funeral Home of Friona.

Request for right-of-way easement from Five Area Telephone Cooperative of Muleshoe was approved.

At the suggestion of County Treasurer Benna Felts, a motion was approved to reinvest $100,000 of Farm to Market Funds in a certificate maturing August 23, 1983. These funds were from a C.D. which was maturing August 9.

A bill in the amount of $55 for clearing of right-of-way for proposed Farm to Market Road 3333 was approved, as was a medical bill for $3.35 for treatment for a foster child not covered by Medicare.

Business Now Open

Bovina Fuel and Supply, Inc. opened its doors for business last week. Gaylon Rhodes and Don Murphy are new owners. Mrs. Gaylon Rhodes is the bookkeeper and Eddie Villarreal is service man.

The business will offer farm tire service, farm fuel delivery, keylock fuel and full service on vehicles with quality Shamrock products. Bovina Fuel and Supply will also stock Co-op oil, and Safemark tires.

Hughes Is Hurt In Accident

Kevin Hughes was involved in a one-vehicle accident Saturday morning. He suffered cuts and bruises and was first taken to the West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe by Bovina Ambulance. Later he was transferred to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Kevin fell asleep at the wheel of his 1981 Silverado Chevrolet pickup truck, causing total damages to the vehicle. The accident occurred five miles south of Bovina.

Kevin is listed in good condition.

Grid Seats Now On Sale

Reserve seats for Bovina High School's 1983 football games are on sale at the Superintendent's office. Price is $15.00 for the home schedule.

Those who had tickets in 1982 will be given first option at renewing their seats, but must claim their tickets by Monday, August 29, at which time all unclaimed seats will be put on sale.

OLDTIMERS.... Jerry Jones, center, former area resident and son of Bovina pioneers Clarence and Irene Jones, was a visitor at the old-timers' luncheon Saturday at the Senior Citizens Center. Shown visiting with Jones, who is an attorney in Dallas, are Lula White and Bill Bradshaw.

BULL RUN.... Participants in the first annual Bull Run are shown as they started the race at Third and Main Streets last Saturday. A good number of runners took part in the mile run. See story for winners in the various categories.

BIKERS.... The small fry on their gaily-decorated bicycles are an annual part of the Bull Town Days parade, and the Blade camera caught the main group as they came up Third Street.

WRECKED VEHICLE.... This is the Chevrolet pickup which Kevin Hughes was driving and was wrecked Friday night five miles south of Bovina. Hughes was hospitalized in Lubbock with injuries, but was in "good" condition at press time.

FIDDLERS.... Competition in the Old Fiddlers' Contest was keen, with a "fiddle off" required to determine several of the placings. One fiddler, with his accompanists, is shown during the competition.

GRID TIME.... Quarterback Richard Shepherd is shown getting away a pass against the Friona Chieftains in the scrimmage session last Friday at Friona. The Mustangs availed themselves well, holding the touted Chieftains to just one score, although failing to score themselves. Shepherd's passing was a highlight for the Mustangs.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

All reports indicate a good turnout for Bull Town Days and our thanks to the Bovina Chamber of Commerce for their efforts to make the celebration possible. Also, to the many, many, people who worked so very hard to make it what it was--We thank all of you.

NEWS AROUND TOWN....

Kevin Hughes is in good condition following his accident Saturday morning that demolished his 1981 pickup. He is a patient at Methodist Hospital but his dad, Dudley, says he will probably be released at the end of the week.

We want to welcome the Ernest Woelfels back home. They spent the winter in Chicago and on their way home had an accident that hospitalized both of them for awhile. They spent several weeks later with their son in Amarillo but did get to come home to Bovina Tuesday of last week.

Bud, son of Radford and Kay Venable, entered the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford last Wednesday and underwent surgery Thursday. He got out of the hospital Saturday and I talked with him. He said he is getting along fine and will be returning to school on Thursday.

Our deepest sympathies to Isabel Gilbreath and Pat Kunselman in the loss of their mother, Edna Kunselman, who passed away last Friday. Services were held in Pennsylvania, where she had lived for many years.

She was survived by ten children, 28 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren. Pat and Isabel flew to Pennsylvania to attend services.

Nell Roach suffered a broken hip when she fell at her home last Wednesday. She was rushed by Bovina Ambulance to the Clovis High Plains Hospital where she underwent surgery on Thursday. She is Sonny Roach's and Frances Lloyd's mother and she is getting along fine but will be hospitalized for several days.

Preston and Diane Nix were returning home from their honeymoon last Thursday and stopped by Bovina to visit friends and spend the night with Larry and Judy Hodnett. Preston was youth director for First Baptist Church in Bovina back in 1980-81 and is now youth pastor of the Plymouth Park Baptist Church in Irving.

Max and Fran DuBose and son Russell of Pampa were in Bovina over the weekend visiting with friends and taking in the Bull Town Days activities. Fran is the former Fran Jacobs and her parents are L.F. and Pat Jacobs.

Lola Grissom was in Bovina over the weekend visiting family and friends and attending the Bull Town Days activities. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L.M. Grissom. She is now living in Hereford.

Ruby Wilson had surgery on both knees and is a patient at Lubbock Methodist Hospital. She is reported as "getting along real well." She is in room 397.

The Senior Citizens will meet at the Center August 31 for their regular luncheon. You are asked to come and bring a friend. The Center will be open at 10 a.m.

Nadine Paine, her son and family, Kim, Kathy, Blake, and Scott, attended the Rundell family reunion August 6 at the Farwell City Park. Ninety-one family members and 12 visitors attended.

After talking to Jim Owens in the Lubbock Hospital about three weeks ago, I reported that he had been in an accident that crushed his hip. It was not his hip, it was his heel. Sorry, Jim. Anyway, he spent a week in the hospital and is now home and will be in a cast for sometime.

L.D. Knight entered the Clovis hospital this week suffering from complications caused from blood poisoning. I talked with his daughter Margaret Meason and she said he is getting along fine and he is in room 510.

Baptists Schedule Revival Sept. 4-10

Bovina's First Baptist Church will hold a fall revival meeting September 4-10, it has been announced.

Evangelist for the series will be Rev. Charles Davenport, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tulia. Rev. Geary Brogden, minister of music and youth at Friona's First Baptist Church, will be in charge of the music and youth activities.

Sunday services will be held at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Services Monday through Friday are at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., with lunch served at noon. Saturday will feature just one service, at 7:30 p.m. The Brotherhood will serve an evening meal Saturday at 6:45 p.m. A nursery will be provided at each service.

Rev. Davenport began his pastoral duties in 1958 at Dawn. In 1964, he became pastor at the First Baptist Church of Streetman (near Corsicana), where he also attended the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, graduating in 1967.

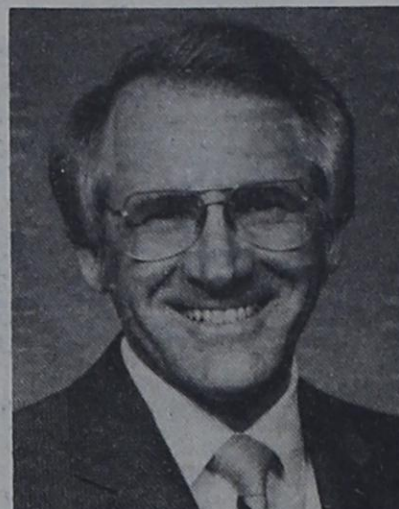

In 1967, Davenport moved to Claude, where he pastored the First Baptist Church. He moved to Tucumcari, N.M., in 1972, where he was pastor, and then to Tulia's First Baptist Church in 1974, where he has been for the past nine years.

Davenport has served on the executive boards of the Baptist General Convention of Texas and New Mexico, and is presently a member of the Christian Education Coordinating Board of the BGCT and is a trustee of the High Plains Hospital in Amarillo.

He has taught Bible at both Amarillo College and Wayland Baptist College. He married Valois Peek in 1956, and they are parents of three children: Kevin, Keith, and Kristi.

Brogden graduated from Amarillo Palo Duro High School in 1962. He holds degrees from Panhandle State University and Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth.

Brogden served Highland Baptist Church, Amarillo, 1968-69; First Baptist Church, Liberal, Kansas, 1969-71; First Baptist Church, Memphis, 1971-74; Second Baptist Church, Amarillo, 1974-76; and has been at the First Baptist Church of Friona since 1976.

CHARLES DAVENPORT

Geary calls his wife Sue his "co-partner" in counseling young people and young couples. They are parents of three children: Kevin, 17; Matt, 13 and Brian, 11.

He has led youth revivals, church revivals, youth camps, youth retreats, and concerts in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico.

Geary is a member of the Texas Singing Men, and recorded an album with the West Texas Singing Men. He recorded his own gospel album, entitled "I Will Serve Thee." He has sung for the Texas Baptist Evangelism Conference.

RIDERS....A parade wouldn't be a parade without horses, especially on Bull Town Days, and this year's parade drew a few die-hard riders. C.E. Trimble is leading out the local group of riders in the parade.

Tulia Tennis Meet Slated

The second annual adult tennis tournament will be held at Tulia September 10-11. The tournament is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and trophies will be given all first and second place winners.

Number one courts will be at Mackenzie Park in south Tulia. The open men's and women's singles begin at 8 a.m. Saturday, doubles at 1 p.m. Mixed doubles and over 35 events will begin at 1 p.m. Sunday.

Entry fee is $7.00 per person per event. No player may enter more than three events. Make checks to Tulia Chamber of Commerce. Send entry to Box 267, Tulia, Texas, 79088, or W.M. Tooley, Drawer 87, Tulia, Texas, 79088.

An earlier tournament sponsored by the Chamber played junior high and high school players. However, high school players may also enter this open adult tennis tournament.

Roll and use as a back scratcher; 83. Use to clean gutters on roofs; 84. Run a sheet under doors that tend to catch dust; 85. Use as fan to blow smoke away from your face when barbecuing; 86. Use a sheet to hide your face if you don't want someone to see you; 87. Crumple for sound effects on radio; 88. Use to wipe oil or grease from hands; 89. Wrap piece around frayed shoe lace ends and glue; 90. Use a small rolled piece to dial telephones.

91. Use to fan fires to make them burn better; 92. Use rolled up to beat rugs; 93. Place on floor under chair when cutting son's hair--saves sweeping; 94. Several sections on top of crank-type ice cream freezer prevents a cold seat when a child sits on it to keep it steady; 95. Cut into money size and pack under real money when paying ransom; 96. Use to hide behind when spying on someone--cut small hole for viewing; 97. Dampen, place on floor, and step on to pick up tiny slivers of broken glass; 98. Use to separate packages of meat from each other in home food freezers; 99. Wrap cold ashes in when cleaning fireplace; 100. Use for watching eclipse of sun (put hole in it and show on floor); 101. Carry around so Mom and Dad will at least think you're looking for a job.

Now--where else could you find that many uses for an item which only cost 20 cents?

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
I would like to publicly thank Mr. Mel Clark for his concern and help Monday night.
I had run out of gas just outside of Friona as I left my parents' home late that night. Frightened of being stranded on the road with a baby, I had just about despaired of anyone stopping to help, when Mr. Clark pulled over. He went back to Friona to call my dad, then returned to my van and offered to stay until my dad could get there.
It's nice to know Bovina's police are just as nice and concerned when off duty as they are paid to be, when on duty.

Thanks again,
Sheila Carson
