

WHITTLIN'

By DOLPH MOTEN

Cecil Sisk has been telling a weird story about an electric fence.

He installed an electric fence which came equipped with a built-in charge. We checked it out and he's right—the fence has no charge anywhere and still indicates that it's "hot" when tested with a gadget designed for that purpose.

Much of the fence, which is over half a mile long is directly under the major power line which runs southwest to northeast just south of Bovina. It's possible the fence is getting some "juice" from the big line, somebody figured. We don't know how that could be true, but with our limited knowledge of such things, we're not in a position to argue about it.

When we first heard the story, we didn't believe it, of course, and kept waiting for the punch line. But Tom Caldwell, who relayed the information to us in the first place, never did get around to smiling. He was serious about it.

Later, Cecil let us look over the fence until we were satisfied that it wasn't charged in the normal way.

The amusing part of the story, to us, anyway, had to do with the fence's construction. C. E. Trimble helped Sisk put it up.

During the installation, both of them were shocked a few times. However, they were both aware that the fence "couldn't possibly" be hot and were afraid to admit their feelings and suspicions to each other. They just thought, naturally, that their imaginations were stronger than usual that day.

Finally, when they were putting a gate in the fence, the shock got so strong Cecil could contain his silence no longer. So, he asked Trimble to do something to the gate. That's when each admitted to the other that the fence was hot.

At that time, they had the wire secured to a hi-line pole and figured the current might be reaching their fence through a ground wire on the post. But when they released it from the post, the charge was still there and that theory was dismissed. Otho Hammonds, the electrician, was consulted on the case. He went out and looked the fence over.

Being better informed about electricity and its peculiarities, he wasn't as impressed or as puzzled about the deal as some of the rest of us. He does admit, though, that it is a novelty. Such things have happened before and will happen again, Hammonds says. He confirms the theory that the charge comes from the power line above the fence. That line carries 115,000 volts and is a transmission line owned by Southwestern Public Service Co.

Hammonds checked the voltage on the fence and it measured 190. The current isn't strong, though, he pointed out, and therefore the fence is not dangerous to livestock which might come into contact with it.

This case is unusual, Otho believes, because few electric fences are built for great distances directly under a major power line. This is because the power line doesn't run true with section lines or other places where electric fences are normally built. The power line just runs cross country without regard to natural boundaries and, as a rule, there's no need for a fence under them for a great distance.

So, it was a fine story even if science does have an explanation for it. We'd have considered it downright spooky if we had been helping build the fence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Roming recently made a trip to the east which included a tour through Louisiana and Mississippi, finding Bovina, Miss., on their route, they stopped for a look and conversation about the town with the same name as this one.

Though the spelling is the same, Ralph says the Mississippians pronounce their Bovina BOVINEA. He says about 600 is the population of the unincorporated town which had many more people prior to the civil war.

It's near Vicksburg. The town received mention in (Continued on Page 7)

15,000 Head --

Feedlot Ready For Operation

Parmer County Cattle Company, located southwest of Bovina on Highway 60, is now ready to receive cattle, according to Stanley Klimek, office manager. The mill was put into operation at the cattle company last week.

Up to 15,000 head will be received, Klimek said. There are presently 3,000 head in the feedlot. Capacity in the future may reach 30,000 head of cattle, according to original announcements.

The feedlot now has 11 persons employed, including the general manager, Cap Naegle, the office manager, Klimek, three cowboys and the others in operating the mill.

Rations can now be mixed in the mill, Klimek said, consisting mainly of milo and alfalfa. Parmer County Cattle Company was incorporated in March, 1967 and construction started shortly thereafter.

ZEMRY BOOZER

At Baptist Church --

Zemry Boozer Rites Friday

Zemry Boozer, 60-year-old resident of Bovina since 1960, died Tuesday afternoon. He suffered a heart attack while working at his farm.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday in the First Baptist Church of Bovina with Rev. John Ferguson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Denver City and formerly of Bovina, and Rev. Ken Moore, pastor of the Bovina Church, officiating.

Burial was in Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery under direction of Calborn Funeral Home in Friona.

Mr. Boozer was born June 17, 1907 in Section, Ala. He was married to Mrs. Boozer on Dec. 28, 1937 in Mt. Pleasant. The couple lived in Alabama four years, where he farmed and worked in furniture-making and woodworking. They moved to O'Donnell in 1942, then lived in Goodland and Hale Center before coming to Bovina.

Ridgelea --

Open House Set Sunday

March 4 through 8 is Texas Annual Public Schools Week and all parents and interested citizens are invited to visit Bovina Schools and classrooms any day through the week, according to L. F. Jacobs, superintendent.

Highlighting the week will be open house on Sunday, March 3, from 2 to 5 p.m. at the new Ridgelea Elementary School, weather permitting, Jacobs said.

Everyone in the community and area is invited to tour the new building, which has been in use by the first two grades for the past few weeks. Teachers will be on hand during open house to meet the parents.

In addition, on Tuesday, March 5, parents are invited to eat in the main school cafeteria. That day has been designated as the one when extra food will be prepared for parents. However, no meals will be available to parents at Ridgelea Cafeteria.

Classes will not be held in Bovina Schools on Friday, March 8, since teachers will be attending their annual meeting that day and Saturday in Amarillo.

March 4th Final Day For Filing

No additional names has been filed for trustee of Bovina Independent School District Tuesday morning, according to Mrs. Zoe Clary, school tax assessor-collector.

Deadline for filing is Monday, March 4.

Three names were filed by petition last week, Lawrence Jamerson, Pat Kunselman and Leon Ware.

The terms of three trustees expire this year, Leon Grissom, B. L. Marshall and Leslie McCain.

Holdover members of the board are Grady Sorley, president, Don Murphy, Dean McCallum and Eddie Gayle Steelman.

Board members will be elected this year for the three-year term. Sorley and Murphy have one more year to serve, while McCallum and Steelman have two more years.

Trial Tuesday --

Vandals Break Windows Here

Trial for four adults and one juvenile was held Tuesday afternoon in county court at Farwell after the Latin-Americans were apprehended for breaking windows in downtown Bovina Sunday night, according to Deputy Sheriff Henry Minter.

In addition, two new "yield" signs on Second Street had been purposely bent to the ground, a truck mirror on a vehicle belonging to Billie Sudderth was damaged, and the yard of Howard Shook was driven over twice.

The windows broken by rocks and bricks were those at Venable's Store, Rhinehart and Hagens Real Estate, Fuller and Sons Slaughter House and the American Legion Hall. Four of the vandals are from out of town and one adult is a Bovina man.

All of the names of the men were not available in Bovina on Tuesday morning.

The vandalism was investigated here by the sheriff's office, Minter and City Marshal Ronald Mitchell.

21st Anniversary Event At Wilson's

Twenty-one sacks of groceries, valued at $20 each, will be given away Saturday during the 21st anniversary of Wilson Super Market in Bovina. Also to be given away during the drawing on Saturday will be 15,000 Gunn Brothers Stamps. The celebration begins Thursday and continues Friday and Saturday. The annual Young Mother

Hubbard Shurfine Sale will also be in progress in conjunction with the anniversary.

Borden's ice cream will be served customers all day Saturday during the event.

Customers may register as often as they wish on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, according to A. M. Wilson, owner-manager of the super market located on Third Street.

Winners do not have to be present to win. Listed on page three of this week's issue are items that will be on sale during the Shurfine celebration.

Wilson's Super Market moved to its present location on Sept. 2, 1957 on the corner of Third Street and Ave. E. The large brick structure provides ample parking space for customers, as well as a spacious store where grocery, vegetable, fruit and meat products are on display.

Employed at the Super Market are Mrs. Pat Bradshaw, Billy Whitecotton, Billy Smith, Kenneth Webb, Billy Roberts, all full time, and R. B. Riley, part time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilson opened their grocery store in Bovina in June, 1947 at the corner of Main and Third Streets.

Wilson Food Store remained in that location for 10 years until moving to the present building.

Volleyball Tournament Date Set

Bovina's annual outsiders volleyball tournament is being planned for the week of March 25, according to Roy Stone, athletic director in Bovina Schools.

He announces that the gymnasium will be open each night from 6 to 10 p.m. for teams wishing to practice.

Entrance fees will be $6 this year and teams wishing to enter should contact Stone.

The names of team members must also be turned in to Coach Stone. Substitutes will not be accepted this year, he said.

HISTORICAL COMMITTEE -- Working for a Bovina marker to be installed by the time of this year's Bull Town Days celebration in August are members of Parmer County Historical Survey Committee, who met at the First State Bank here Saturday night. H. W. Hardage of Farwell, third from left, is chairman.

By Committee --

Historical Marker Sought For Bovina

Seventeen Parmer County people attended the Historical Survey Committee meeting here Saturday night in the Community Room of First State Bank. H. W. Hardage of Farwell, chairman of the committee, announced plans to submit application for a historical marker for Bovina as the "largest inland cattle shipping point in the U.S." as stated in the 1904 Texas Almanac.

In addition, it is hoped the marker can also relay the fact that the XII headquarters were located in Bovina.

The marker's location has not been determined, but will probably be on U.S. Highway 60. Final decision of its location will be made by the State Highway Department, Hardage said.

The marker preferred by those attending the meeting is the largest available, 24 x 42 inches, at a cost of near $400, for which funds are already set aside. Hopes are that the marker will be installed before Bull Town Days in August.

Other business included adding more members to the committee. Emphasis was also placed on writing the histories of pioneer families in Parmer County.

The district president of Texas as Historical Survey Committee has expressed his intention of visiting the Parmer County unit, according to Hardage. A special meeting will be called at the time of his visit.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Windbourn Hardage of Farwell, Mrs. Orma Flippin of Friona, Windbourn Hardage of Farwell, Mrs. Edith Lillard of Friona, Miss Lola Goodwine of Friona, Mrs. Judy Cummings of Friona, Mrs. Wilma Moseley of Farwell, Hugh Moseley of Farwell, Nelson Lewis of Friona, Tommy Baird of Friona, Mrs. Mabel Reynolds of Farwell, Mrs. C. W. Dixon of Friona, Mrs. Pansy W. Ross of Farwell, Mrs. W. E. Williams of Bovina, Mrs. Mabelle Hartwell of Friona, W. E. Williams of Bovina and Clyde V. Goodwine of Friona.

On The Farm In Parmar County

By RONNY McNUTT
County Agent

This study, under the supervision of the Bushland Experiment Station, was conducted on an Amarillo Fine Sandy Loam soil. Donald Christian was the cooperater on this test. The farm is located one and one-half miles north of Lariat.

In this test, a comparison was made of yields from different time of applications of nitrogen under the two irrigation systems.

Visual differences between farrow and sprinkler irrigation observed in the field were not reflected in the yield. There appears to be no consistent differences between the two methods used in this study.

The check plot under the sprinkler method yielded 3140 lbs. compared to 3220 lbs. under the furrow method. Where all of the nitrogen was applied preplant under the sprinkler method the highest yield of 5440 lbs. was made from a 120-80-0 application. A high yield of 6360 lbs. was made from an 80-80-0 application with half of the nitrogen put on preplant and half side-dressed. The highest yield of 5180 was received from a 160-80-0 application under the furrow method.

Based on these data, the advantage of split applications over all-preplant appears to be due to something other than correcting losses due to leaching, according to Wendell Robertson, research associate at Bushland.

INSECTS, DISEASE MEETING
An educational meeting covering insects and disease of the major crops grown in the county will be held March 14. Meeting place will be announced later.

Know The Truth
By Lavern Stewart

Do they observe the Lord's Supper every Lord's Day where you worship? Eating the Lord's Supper was called "breaking bread" and it was done on the first day of the week, Acts 20:7. It was an act of public worship engaged in by the whole church when it came together on the day we call Sunday, 1 Corinthians 11:20-29. On this day Jesus arose from the dead, Mark 16:9. This act of worship is referred to as eating at the Lord's table, or as the "cup of blessing," the "bread which we break," and "communion" in 1 Corinthians 10:16-21. The one who worships like this on the Lord's Day shows thereby that he believes Christ died for lost man, and that he is looking for Him to come again to redeem the faithful. We have a command to take up the collection on the day that we meet to eat the Lord's Supper, 1 Corinthians 16:1-2. Many churches meet on the First Day of the week and take up a collection, yet they do not eat the Lord's Supper. Why, please? Why do one thing the Bible commands but not do the other? The same phrase occurs in both places, "upon the first day of the week," 1 Corinthians 16:1-2 and Acts 20:7. The objection might be raised that it does not say every first day, but neither did God say for the Jews to keep "every Sabbath Day, Exodus 20:8. They knew it meant every time the Sabbath came they were to keep it, and it came every week. Don't be "half safe" worship with us every Lord's Day where you can take the Lord's Supper.

4-H Food groups will soon be finished and time for the Food Show has been set for March 30. Bovina group has completed their food project according to report of Mrs. Earle Hise and Mrs. Wayne Magness.

Not all food projects for 4-H members consist of preparation alone. These 4-H members learn to compare prices, amount of food needed each day for good health, and how to plan good meals. This is important for the young group since more and more pre-cooked and partially prepared foods are being used in homes these days.

Sewing classes are progressing as planned. Bovina group will complete their workshop this week and Friona group is well on their way. Alteration of pattern and fit still seems to hold the "spotlight" in these classes. Many women sew to be thrifty, to have more and better fashions for less money. The creative desire can be satisfied through sewing also, and many like to sew for this reason. With spring so near, interest in clothes grows greater. Fabrics take the "spotlight" in vivid colors and new weaves.

FHA KING AND QUEEN -- Lynn Murphy and Cecelia Denney were named King and Queen at the annual Sweetheart Banquet Saturday night. They are seniors. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Denney.

Murphy, Denney Crowned At FHA Sweetheart Banquet

Members of Bovina Chapter Future Homemakers of America and their dates attended the annual Sweetheart Banquet Saturday night in the school cafeteria.

Seniors of 1968 were honored at the event.

Climax of the program was the crowning of the FHA Queen and King, Cecelia Denney and Lynn Murphy, whose identities were revealed at the banquet.

They were escorted by Eva Jo Clawson and Mike Grissom and crowned by Margaret Jo Venable and Bobby Redden.

The cafeteria and tables were decorated in a Hawaiian theme.

Following the invocation by Bobby Redden, Kathy Estes gave the welcome and Bill Caldwell the response.

Carl Harris, accompanied by Gina Clawson, sang two numbers. The "Leftover Five," composed of Harris, Miss Clawson, Bill Caldwell and Misses Zaida Donaldson and La-

Nelle Christian, presented vocal numbers.

The Baptist Quartet made up of Rev. Ken Moore, Earle Hise, Alfred Moody and Grady Sorley added to the musical program with two "barbershop" renditions.

Dinner was provided by Mrs. Elaine Glasscock.

Miss Pat Simons is sponsor of the Bovina chapter.

SE Panel Discusses Vietnam War Progress

A panel of women discussed "Challenges of the Progress of the War in Vietnam" at the Thursday afternoon meeting of Bovina Woman's Study Club.

Mrs. Henry Ivy was moderator. On the panel were Mrs. Rouel Barron and Mrs. Arnold Hromas.

Questions discussed by the panel included "Is the war political?" "Is it psychological?" "Can we withdraw?" and "Is President Johnson handling the situation as well as anyone could?"

Opinions expressed were that they would "hate to make a choice" in the situation, that the U. S. could not withdraw for its own sake, that the enemy should not be bombed with nuclear weapons, that Johnson is doing the best job anyone can in his position.

Mrs. A. E. Crump was hostess and served chocolate cake, nuts, coffee and tea.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. Rouel Barron, H. D. Bradshaw, J. R. Caldwell, Jack Clayton, Jimmie Clements, A. E. Crump, Roy Dodson, Arnold Hromas, Henry Ivy, Clarence Jones, Ovid Lawlis, Ronald

Another Great Step In Progress For Our Community

First State Bank OF BOVINA

Hold out on the phone company.

After 7 p.m., you can call anywhere in the country for a dollar.

All long distance callers worth their salt know that calling in the daytime is more expensive than calling in the evening hours. (Actually, most people call during the day, when we charge our regular rates.)

But long distance callers aren't interested in explanations.

The only thing they care about is calling for the cheapest possible price.

So to get more for their money, they devised a scheme you might call The Waiting Game.

The idea is to do just what the name implies: Wait and wait and wait and wait.

Because they know if they can hold out till after 7 p.m. or any time of the day on Saturday or Sunday, they can call anywhere in the country for a dollar or less.*

Which just goes to prove that anybody can afford to call long distance.

Provided they know how to play The Game.

"I used to use a very heavy starch, but he wants to rustle instead of going snap, crackle, pop!"

Worship without study degenerates into superstition; without work it becomes empty formalism. Study without worship loses its vitality; without work it becomes hypocritical, and hypercritical. Work without worship is drudgery; without study it is meaningless. I make this emphasis because people frequently substitute one of these three for all of them. One person attends worship but is not involved in any constructive study or service. Another is stimulated by the discussions but has never learned to worship or to work. Someone else is an activist, always at work but never involved in worship or study. Such limitations to the Christian life are pure heresy. To ever treat a portion of the gospel as though it were the whole gospel is to miss the gospel. In a day when God expects total discipleship as He did in every mans life of anyera gone by, today a partial faith is not enough.

THIS PIPELINE WAS BUILT BY THE ROMANS AND SERVED FOR 2,000 YEARS

This photo, from the Smithsonian Institute in Washington D. C., shows a section of the original aqueduct that served the water needs of the conquered city of Cologne, Germany. It was constructed in 80 A.D. by the engineers of Fabius Sabinus Titus, Emperor of Rome. The aqueduct extended 56 miles underground between Cologne, and Eiffel and served as the main artery for the Cologne water supply until the late 1920's.

THIS PIPELINE IS EVEN MORE DEPENDABLE !!

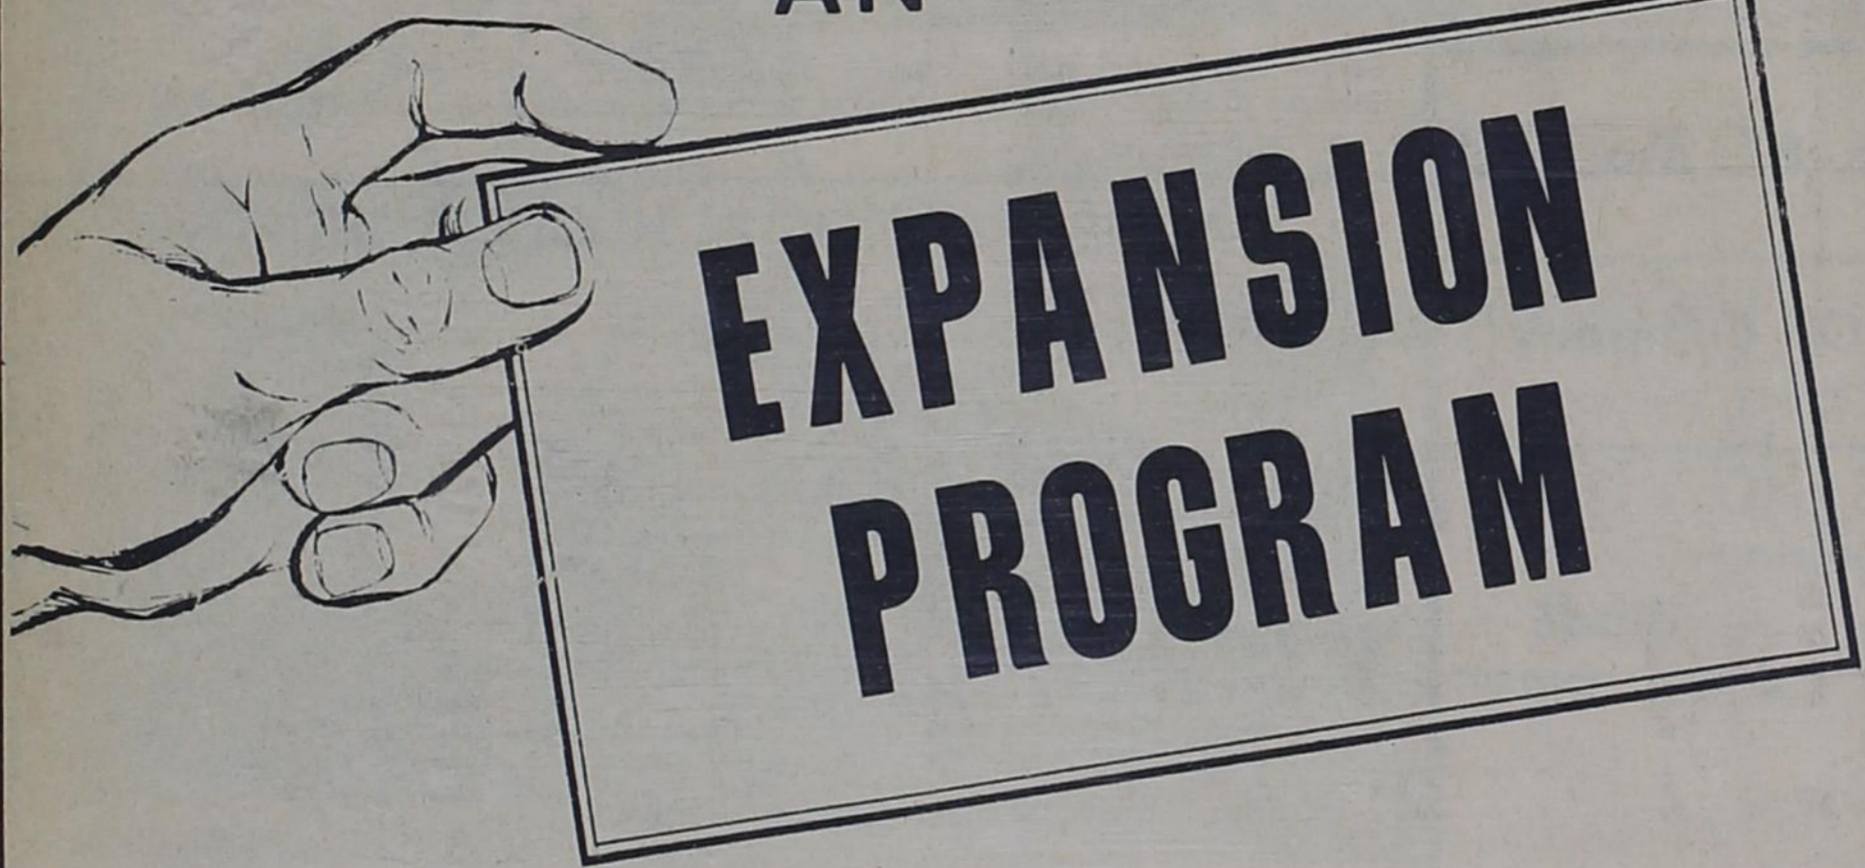

Because of modern materials and manufacturing techniques, Gifford-Hill-Western's LOCK-SEAL provides an even more dependable underground pipeline. The close tolerance design makes the pipe more suitable, and joint flexibility eliminates the effects of expansion and contraction due to soil conditions and temperatures. By combining a superior product with modern day design and installation know-how, you have an underground irrigation system that serves dependably year after year . . . generation after generation. LOCK-SEAL is the product, Gifford-Hill-Western is the Company . . . depend on them!

Engineer Says County Water Decline 6.72 Ft.

Parmer County's irrigation water decline was 6.72 feet during 1967. Frank Rayner, chief engineer of High Plains Undergrter Conservation District, pointed out this fact in a talk to Parmer County committee-men of the water organization Monday night.

Rayner said that the decline in 1966 was less than four feet. This year's decline was over a considerable portion of the county. The six-year average decline has been 4.39 feet per year.

In summing up his comments about the irrigation water level drop here, he said, "In Parmer County, the declines look bad, but you still have a lot of water."

The meeting, in Bovina Restaurant, was attended by some 24 people and gave water district officials an opportunity to get acquainted with two new Parmer County committeemen, Edwin Lide of Bovina and Guy Latta of Friona.

Other county committeemen present were Webb Gober of Farwell, Henry Ivy of Lazbuddie and Jim Roy Daniels of Lazbuddie, county committeeman-at-large.

Presiding at the meeting was Ross Goodwin of Muleshoe, who is the representative to the district committee from Parmer, Bailey and Castro counties.

Goodwin and Engineer Rayner discussed the progress being made by Water Inc., an organization independent of the water district which was organized last May in Lubbock with the purpose of promoting water importation to this area.

Rayner explained that the "preferred thinking" now is that the imported water will probably come from south of New Orleans, La. The water may not be available from further north on the Mississippi River, it was explained.

If the water importation plan becomes a reality, "it will be the greatest waterworks engineering ever designed by man," Rayner said.

Goodwin explained that engineering for the water importation plan is no problem. "The problem is people," he emphasized. "We need to be united as our effort is made."

Wives of county water district leaders were special guests at the session.

Class Has Salad Supper

Gleaners Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met Feb. 19 in the home of Mrs. Gayle Clawson.

Mrs. Ed Dendy, class president, presided at the meeting which followed a salad supper. Mrs. Clawson presented the devotional titled "Love."

Secret pals for the past year were revealed and the group exchanged gifts.

Attending the event, when group two was hostess, were Mmes, Edwin Lide, Travis Dyer, Norvell Strawn, Ed Dendy, Floyd Damon, Cecil Sisk, Richard Vaughn, Marlon Carson, Howard Looney, Arnold Thomas, Ronald Minyen and Clawson.

Scoopin' ---

By Pat Jacobs

Wheweee! We're all moved in, straightened, and ready for work.

In fact, things were in good shape when the ball began rolling Monday morning, and other than the fact that no news had been written at that time, everyone was pleased as punch.

So, every filler that appears in The Blade this week represents a few minutes spent in moving the newspaper to its new location.

Come see us.

Went by the historical survey committee's meeting Saturday night where discussion was being held on securing a marker for Bovina as the "largest cattle shipping point in the U. S."

Everyone there was enthusiastic. The only trouble was, with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams, everyone there was from Farwell or Friona. Seems Bovina didn't turn out too well for the meeting.

However, this surely doesn't mean that Bovina is not interested, since the committee is willing to spend around 400 bucks in marking the town as the county's outstanding historical spot. The committee needs Bovina's moral support.

What a breath of fresh air! We're speaking of the Joe Payne show that has recently made its way into television.

After hearing for years the placating of communism, the soft soaping of rioters and demonstrators, the making fun of God and religion, and the punches at morals and common decency via the picture tubes, it's so good to hear someone stand up for law and order, Americanism, and the principles of decent living without making them sound like "dirty" words.

Can't say we'll always agree with Joe Payne, but have sure enjoyed his intestinal fortitude so far.

Mrs. Sterling Donaldson's fourth grade students have been writing poetry. From time to time, we'll print a few of the better ones via this column. The ones submitted are by Mary Hightower, Wade Dendy, Beverly Myers, John Caldwell, and Duane Mitchell.

Leaves

In spring leaves are shades of green
As showers fill the air,
In summertime they freshen up
With blossoms in their hair.
Their colors change to gold and brown
As autumn breezes blow,
And when it's time for winter's sleep
They've snuggled deep in snow.

--Wade Dendy

How's that for a fourth grader?

this space back in September when Wayne W. Bates, a former resident of this Parmer County community, sent us some information about the Mississippi town and the origin of its name.

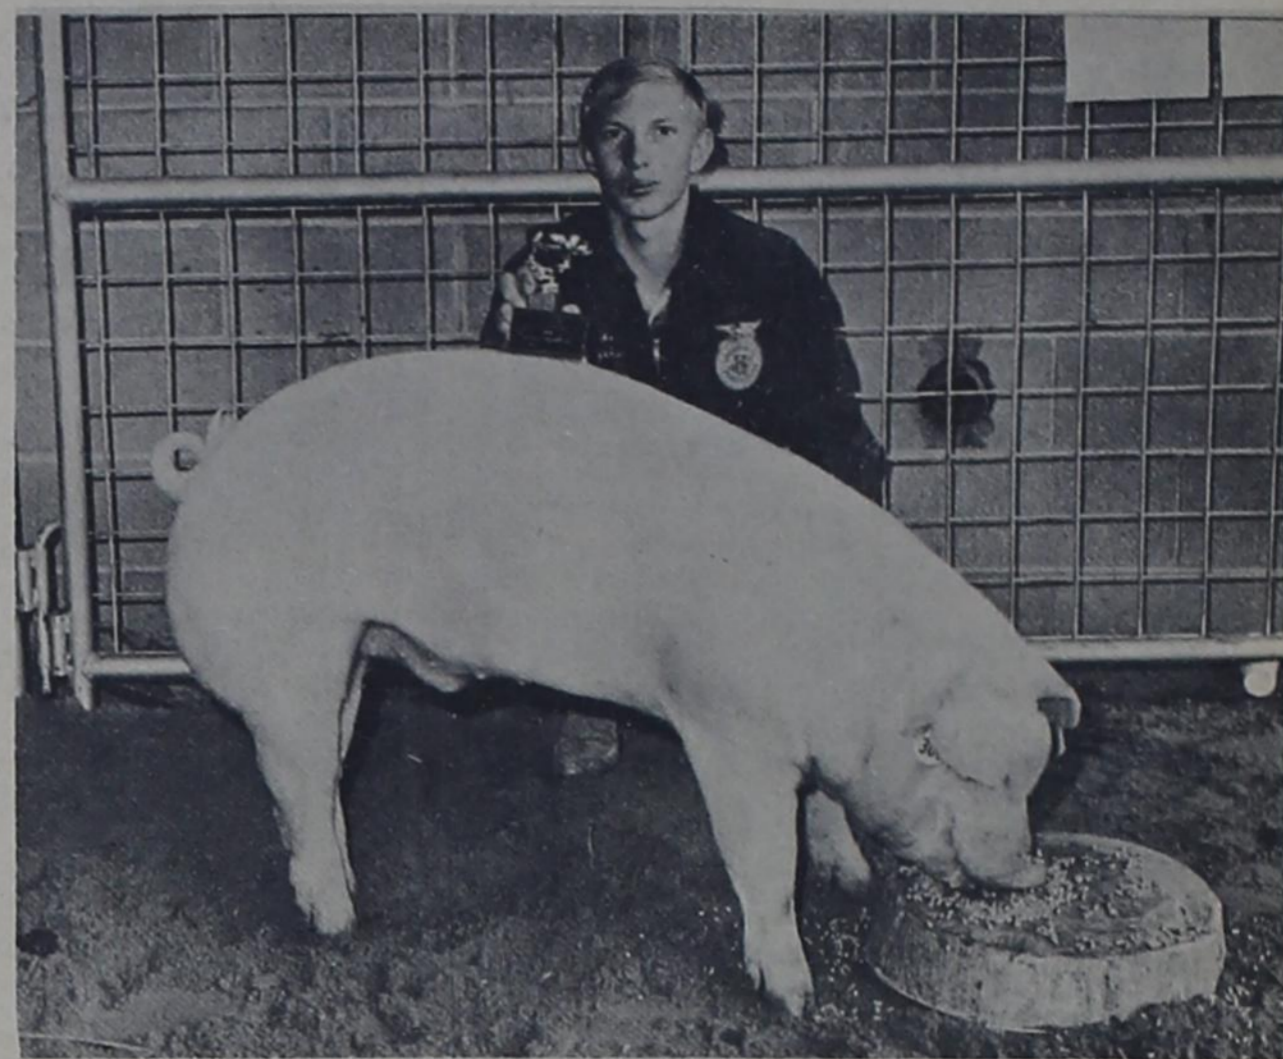

The names of the two towns came about for about the same reason---cattle shipping centers.

Ralph made some slides and gathered more information which it may be possible for us to use in a forthcoming issue.

Shortly after we wrote last fall about the Mississippi Bovina, we heard about a Bovina, Colo. and hoped we would come by still more information on that place.

Up to now, though, we haven't heard much about the well-named town in Colorado. Neither of the other two Bovinas have a post office, incidentally.

NEWS FROM THE SHERIFFS OFFICE

Sheriff Charlie Lovelace was in Hondo, Tex., last week to testify in a district court case. On his return trip to Farwell he brought Rickey Rando, who has been in the Hunstville Penitentiary for the past year, back to Farwell on a bench warrant. Rando will appear in district court on March 27 for a hearing on a new trial appeal as a habitual criminal. He has served one year of a life sentence in the Department of Corrections.

Rick Cooley, 30, was picked up by Parmer County sheriff's officials last week on a warrant from Franklin, La., on a charge of passing worthless checks. Cooley refuses to waive extradition and is awaiting an extradition proceeding.

In other news from the sheriff's office, two juvenile runaway boys from Amarillo were picked up last week. They were returned home by their parents.

Olin Burchett was arrested by Parmer County Highway patrolmen last week and tried in County Court by Judge Tarter, on a DWI count. He received a fine of $125 plus court cost and four days in the county jail.

Yield booster... Tuloma style

What is it?
It's a TULOMA special phosphate molecule. All new CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers in this area are made with this special phosphate... the longest lasting available phosphate form known in the fertilizer industry.

The chemistry involved may not be too important to you... but it is to your crops! Most of the nutrients enter the plant roots in a liquid form. New CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers are ready for immediate uptake--no need to wait for a rain. Also, special phosphate helps the plant get minor elements by a dissolving action in the soil. In addition, the special phosphates in TULOMA CROP-MATE resist the fixation process and stay available to the plants for a longer period of time. CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers are scientifically formulated to work faster, harder, and longer... real yield-boosters for you.

Come in and see our new plant. Let us give you more details about special phosphates, CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers, anhydrous ammonia, and TULOMA'S new CROP/GUIDE Plan. Or give us a call. It could result in greater yields... and a bigger bank account. Call today.
