Another Business Change-

A deal was closed yesterday evening, whereby Locke Bros. and C. C. Stockstill becomes owners of the Wells S. C. Osborne Dry Goods stores in Miami, and Wells Bros becomes owners of a section of fine South Plains land.

The stores will invoice over in something like 60 to 90 days and the new owners take charge, and by the way, would not attempt now to tell you who would be the owners in the next 30 days, judging the future by the past few weeks trading-However we are sure that if Messrs Stockstill and Locke takes charge, we will have two good stores. Wells Bros. have given nothing out yet as to what they will do, more than they will remain in Miami, which we are glad to state. They have been here for several years and made a good success of the dry goods business.
