

Bull Town Bulletins

By Bill Ellis
WE MAY SOMEDAY forget the year it happened, but the Ellis family's annual retreat to the mountains in Cloudcroft, N.M. will undoubtedly be known as our "Bear Trip."

Our sons, Stan and Rick of Lubbock, joined us, as we three guys horned in on Mom's annual trip to the mountains to take a week's painting class.

From the moment we checked into the Spruce Cabins on Sunday, we were alerted about "the bear."

"We have a community bear, and it was spotted early this morning at our dumpster just up the hill," said the cabins' manager as she checked us in. We thought that sounded interesting, but just went about our business. As it turned out, the dumpster was just a stone's throw from our cabin's front door, across the driveway.

Two days later, as we parked and started toward the entrance to one of Cloudcroft's local eating establishments, another vacationer came running out the door, camera in hand. She excitedly asked us "Did you see the bear?!" It just came across the highway there, and was visiting the restaurant's dumpster.

We joined the lady in looking around the corner of the restaurant, but the alleged predator was nowhere to be seen. It went that way for the better part of the week. Certain members of Carol's art class would chirp "I went walking early this morning and saw the bear at such-and-such a place."

We began to think that it was all just an act that the local folks were putting on, joined by those who'd been there a week or so, to make the newcomers think there really was a wild bear roaming the vicinity.

Thursday night, son Rick went down the hill to the phone booth outside the Spruce office. (We think there are only two telephones in Cloudcroft--this one and the one at Allsup's!). He said he wanted to call a friend back in Lubbock. About 45 minutes later, Ye Editor dispatched older son Stan to go see about his brother. "He's talked long enough," we opined, bolstered by the fact that he was using our phone credit card.

Somewhat later, the boys came bursting into our cabin, all out of breath. "We saw the bear!" they said in unison, going on to explain that Stan had to jump into the phone booth with Rick when he saw the Cinnamon-Red animal sauntering toward him down the motel driveway in the glare of a pickup's headlights. When she decided that everything was "kosher," or whatever the term translates into bear lingo, the four-legged attraction moved on.

Carol and I enjoyed their story, figuring by now that, while our offspring at least got to see the elusive varmit, that might be as close as we'd come to see it. For one thing, Ye Editor made a point of looking out our window at the dumpster every morning, as soon as he roused, sometimes making 2-3 trips to the window--and no bear.

For our last night, we went up to The Lodge for a meal at Rebecca's, and also to watch a gorgeous sunset, blessed with a table next to the restaurant's full-length window.

Later, after shooting almost a roll of film each on the sunset, we were walking across the hotel parking lot, when Mom thought to herself "I don't remember there being a statue of a bear on a large pedestal, at the entrance to the hotel parking lot."

Shortly, the "statue" moved, and the community attraction opened a flap and disappeared into the dumpster, later emerging, and posing for a couple of minutes before another guy came along and scared him off.

In spite of the fact that it was almost dark, Stan managed to get 3-4 pictures that definitely prove that "We saw the bear." Next day, we could pack our bags a little more satisfied. Our trip had been just about perfect. (It was a big dude, tool)

Community Worship Service Was Big Success

The Community Worship Service at City Park on Sunday morning, July 3, was well attended. Guest speaker, Chaplain Gino Bartmess, preached on "Living God's Righteousness Daily" from the Old Testament prophet, Amos 5:18-27. Chaplain Bartmess has been on active duty at Cannon Air Force Base since June of 1992.

Born in Oregon, he joined the Navy at age 17, serving in California, Virginia, and Tennessee, as well as on the carrier, USS America. In 1980, Bartmess came to faith in Jesus Christ and entered the seminary in 1986. He served for several years with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention as a church planter in Vermont before becoming a Chaplain. Gino and his wife Tammy have two sons and a daughter.

Other highlights of the service included a dramatic presentation by Randal Stephens, Youth Director at First United Methodist Church, which was received with a standing ovation.

Debra Beauchamp and Dorothy Sorley sang "God Bless America" beautifully. The choir, directed by Grady Sorley, presented "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Cindy Venable accompanied them on the electric piano.

The veterans present were recognized and presented a red carnation boutonniere provided by Sue Fowler. The veterans were honored for their service to our country, and the boutonnieres were given in memory of the late Joe Fowler, who had also served in the Navy.

Veterans recognized, their years and place of service, are as follows:

Army: Gene Ezell, 1944-46, Philippines; Dean Hastings, 1944-46, Philippines and Japan; John F. Dixon, 1951-53, Fort Smith, Camp Chaffar; Donald Dale, 1965-67, Vietnam; Herbert Schueler, 1953-55, Korea; James Clayton, 1961-62; Jack D. Patterson, 1942-45, European Theater under General George Patton; Bob Owen, 1952-54, Ft. Hood, Texas; Lt. Col. Don Carpenter, 1962-82, two terms, Vietnam; Earl F. Whitten, 1955-57, Ft. Ben Harrison, Indiana and Ft. Hood, Texas; Robert E. Wilson, 1941-47, European Theater.

Navy: Leslie McCain, 1944-46, Pearl Harbor and Marshall Islands; Webb Gober, 1942-45, Pacific Theater; J. T. Hammonds, 1943-46, South Pacific; Billy Sides, 1944-46, Pacific Theater; Stan Miller, Vietnam.

Air Force: Herman Hodges, 1960-65, Philippines, Alaska and Amarillo; R. D. Looney, 1971-75, Maxwell AFB, Alabama.

The service in the park was followed by a picnic. Richard Grisham and Steve Venable express thanks to all who worked to make this Annual Community Service a success.

Couple Takes Cruise To Alaska From Canada

By Virginia Rhodes

Thomas and I started off our summer with an Alaskan trip. The trip started with a drive to Albuquerque where we caught the plane to Seattle.

While in Albuquerque, we visited Bessie Trimble at her new home there. At the Seattle airport, we saw Billy and Carolyn Richards from Austin who were also touring Alaska. From Seattle, we then flew to Vancouver.

What we saw of Vancouver was a city lush and green. Many of the homes had hedges ten feet high or higher, which provided privacy and shielded them from street noise.

We boarded the Shy Princess which serves 1200 people there for a seven-day cruise of the Inside Passage which included Hubbard Glacier and College Fjord in Prince William Sound.

Ports of call were Ketichan, Juneau, and Sitka. Ketichan, it is the center for the Tglinkit Indians, it is the salmon and totem pole capital of the world. We visited a salmon hatchery and saw the same totem pole carver who was on Good Morning America.

Juneau is a very small town accessible only by water and air. Mendenhall Glacier is in the center of a state park there. A helicopter tour took us over numerous glaciers in the Tongas Range. While walking on the glacier, Thomas lost his "Pioneer" cap when the wind blew it into a crevice.

Visitors can hear the water running underneath the surface of the glaciers and view blue pure ice. The pressure of ice forces out all air so that blue is the only color that is refracted.

Sitka is rich in Russian history. The Russian Orthodox Saint Michael's Cathedral is located there. We toured it and learned some about the five Russian cities that produce laquer ware which is hand finished. Tourism and fishing are the main industries.

Dining on ship was quite an experience. As Thomas says, "Only one meal a day from early in the morning until the midnight buffet." Dining companions were a couple from Georgia and three ladies from Philadelphia. We enjoyed more laughter than any other group.

On the seventh day, we disembarked and had a bus trip to Anchorage. On the way we stopped on Portage Glacier and Lake, a truly spectacular park.

From Anchorage we flew to Fairbanks. Highlights in Fairbanks were a gold mine where we panned for gold, viewing a portion of the Alaskan pipe-line, and a riverboat trip up the Tanana River to an old Chena village of the Athabascan tribe.

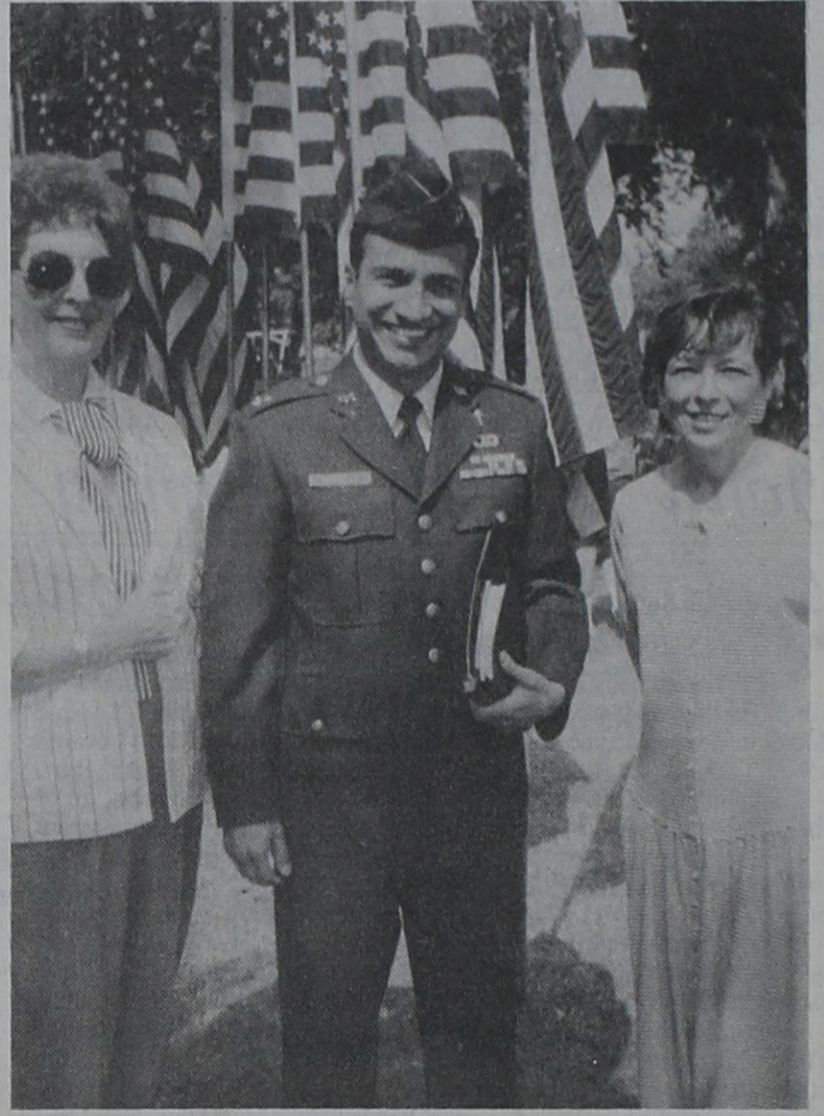

We visited Mary Shield's home. She was the first woman to complete the Iditarod. She had her dogs in harness with a sled and showed how they worked. While there, she autographed her book, Sled Dog Trails.

From Fairbanks we rode the ultra dome rail to Denalie Park where we spent one night. An afternoon trip by bus into the park afforded us a superb view of Mt. McKinley which is most often shrouded by clouds, but we had two clear days to see it. We also saw doll sheep, moose, many caribou, ptarmigan and one brown bear.

The return trip to Anchorage by dome rail provided excellent viewing of the rivers, trees, and natural beauty of the area.

Anchorage, with half the population of the state, is the largest city and is somewhat comparable in size to Lubbock. It is home to the world's largest float plane base.

On Saturday morning we boarded the plane for our return. The trip was a rewarding experience that I highly recommend.

SUE FOWLER AND BRENDA WILSON greet Chaplain Gino Bartmess from Cannon Air Force Base in Clovis. Chaplain Bartmess delivered the message for the July 3 service. Sue Fowler provided veterans with red boutonnieres in memory of her husband, Joe Fowler. Brenda Wilson helped by singing in the choir.

Happy Homemaker

By JUNE FLOYD

Fresh, canned, frozen and pickled vegetables have long been important items in the diets of all members of Roy and Eva Miller's family.

Since Roy's retirement from farming, he has grown gardens of gigantic proportion and during the producing season the couple's children and grandchildren have spent a lot of happy hours together eating and storing food for later use.

This week we're borrowing vegetable recipes from the Miller-Roysden Cookbook-Generology.

How about pickles for a starter?

DILL PICKLES-DELICIOUS

Eva G. Roysden
Donna Miller Mears

Pickling cucumbers
3-4 garlic buds
Slices of bell pepper
2-3 small hot peppers
Fresh dill
3-4 small onions
Grape leaves

5 cups water
3/4 cup rock salt or pickling salt
1 cup cider vinegar

Pack fresh select cucumbers in sterile jars each with garlic, peppers, dill, onions and grape leaves. Pour boiling liquid over cucumbers and seal. Let set in dark storage place 2 months.

ICICLE PICKLES

Eva G. Roysden Miller

Select large choice yellow cucumbers. Peel and remove seeds. Cut into finger length sticks. For seven pounds of sticks, use:

2 tablespoons whole mustard seed
8 cups white vinegar (4-6% acidity)
1 tablespoon celery seed
1 cup sugar

Soak cucumbers in 2 gallons of water and 2 cups slaked lime in enamel pan or crockery jar for 12 hours or overnight.

Wash 3 times in clear water and soak in ice water for 3 hours.

Combine rest of ingredients and bring to a slow boil until sugar is dissolved. Add cucumbers and soak overnight. Use a large pan and cook covered for 35 minutes. Fill sterilized jars and pour syrup over pickles leaving 1/2 inch head space. (Pickles can be colored red or green if desired.)

Cap jars. Process five minutes in boiling water (covered). Store in dark place.

(Hint: I've substituted yellow squash for mature cucumbers in a recipe I have for Red Cinnamon Pickles and no one who ever tasted them could tell the difference.)

CRISP BREAD AND BUTTER PICKLES

Mary Lou Glass

4 quarts thinly sliced cucumbers
4 large onions, thinly sliced
1/2 cup salt
2 quarts cracked ice
5 cups sugar
5 cups cider vinegar
1 teaspoon turmeric

1 scant tablespoon celery seed
2 tablespoons mustard seed
1 scant tablespoon ginger

Combine cucumbers and onions: sprinkle with salt and cracked ice. Cover with weighted lid and let stand for three hours. Drain thoroughly. Rinse well with cold water. Place in large kettle. Add remaining ingredients. Bring almost to a boil, stirring frequently. Do not boil. Pack in hot sterilized jars and seal with hot lids. Yields 8 points. Water bath for fifteen minutes.

OKRA PICKLES

Eva G. Roysden Miller

6 cups cider vinegar
2 cups water
1 cup salt
1 or 2 garlic buds

Pack okra in sterile jars and cover with hot liquid and seal. Let stand about 2 months before opening.

Question: Does anyone happen to know why recipes sometimes read "let set" and other times we read "let stand"? If you happen to know the answer, please clue me in.

SWEET PICKLES

Amanda Mason Miller

2 cups lime
7 pounds cucumbers--sliced crosswise

Mix two cups of lime and two gallons of water. Soak cucumbers for 24 hours, stirring occasionally. Soak in crockery or enamel ware. Remove from lime water and rinse three times in cool water. Soak 3 additional hours in ice water. Remove carefully to drain. Make syrup:

2 quarts vinegar
1 tablespoon salt
8 cups sugar
Green coloring

Stir until salt and sugar are dissolved. Pour over cucumbers. Let set 5-6 hours or overnight. Add pickling spices to taste. Boil mixture for 35 minutes. Fill sterilized jars with slices and pour syrup over cucumbers, leaving 1/8 inch head space. Seal jars.

Sorry folks! Seems that I've used up all the space allotted to us this week. Maybe next week we will feature other vegetables.

Immunization Clinics Set

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

AMOS, THE PROPHET

THE NAME AMOS MEANS A BURDEN, OR A BURDEN BEARER. THIS PROPHET FROM TEKOA, IN THE TERRITORY OF JUDAH, WAS A MAN OF HUMBLE BIRTH. AS A HERDSMAN, HE DOUBTLESS SPENT MUCH OF HIS LIFE IN THE WILDERNESS THAT EXTENDED FROM THE VILLAGE OF TEKOA ALL THE WAY TO THE DEAD SEA. WHEN NOT ENGAGED AS A HERDSMAN, HE FOUND OTHER EMPLOYMENT AS A DRESSER OF SYCAMOR TREES, PRUNING THE FOLIAGE AND PICKING ITS FRUIT FOR PACKING. (AMOS 1:1, 7:14, 15) FROM THE KNOWLEDGE THAT AMOS DISPLAYS WITH DISTANT PLACES AND EVENTS, IT IS EVIDENT THAT HE WAS USED TO HARD WORK, IN MANY CATEGORIES SUCH AS DRIVING SHEEP AND CARRYING HIDES AND WOOL AS FAR AS DISTANT EGYPT AND DAMASCUS. ODDLY ENOUGH, ALTHOUGH A MAN OF JUDAH, HE WAS CALLED UPON TO PROPHESY IN THE NORTHERN KINGDOM OF ISRAEL! HE APPEARED AT BETHEL WHERE THE TEMPLE HAD WITHIN IT ONE OF THE GOLDEN CALVES, SET UP BY JEROBOAM (AMOS 8:14). AMOS SPOKE WITH SUCH BOLDNESS AGAINST THE SINS OF THE KING AND THE PEOPLE THAT HE IMMEDIATELY MADE A GREAT NAME FOR HIMSELF.....

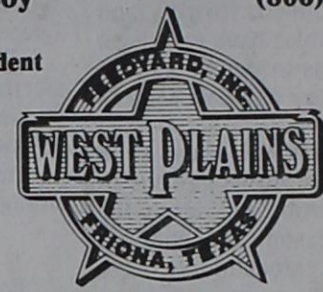

... AND, WITH GREAT COURAGE, BERATING THE HIGH-BORN, AND THE KING, HIMSELF, WHENEVER IT WAS APPARENT THAT THEIR WAYS HAD BECOME SINFUL AND THEY WERE LEADING THE PEOPLE AWAY FROM THE LORD AND INTO THE PATHS OF FOLLY AND WICKEDNESS!

Senior Citizens Have Meeting Here June 29

The Bovina Senior Citizens had their monthly business meeting and luncheon on Wednesday, June 29.

They had a covered dish luncheon, visited, played games and had a business meeting.

Among the business discussed was having a community covered dish luncheon during Bull Town Days. People in the community will be invited to attend and bring a covered dish. Bull Town Days will be on August 19-20.

Members of the senior citizens group who attended this month's meeting were: Julia Leake, Sid Lloyd, Erra Jamerson, Ethel Johnson, Dorothy Ellison, Maesie Flynn, Geraldine Ware, and Joe Looney.

One guest attended, LaTrelle Miehler, who recently moved to Bovina from New Mexico. She is the daughter of Dorothy Ellison.

Seems the hot weather is still with us with little chance of rain. The annual hazard of heat-related illnesses becomes a health concern throughout the U. S. and health officials warn that elevated temperatures, particularly when combined with high humidity, causes about two hundred deaths from heatstroke and thousands of cases of heat cramps so do be careful, especially if you are working in the heat on a daily basis.

NEWS AROUND TOWN: I

visited with Austin Jones, grandson of Paul and Ola Lee Jones, and he had recently flown in from Florida. He said he was on a small propeller plane coming in from Dallas to Lubbock and because of the high temperatures the plane was unable to land. They went back to Dallas for another five and one-half hours. They arrived in Lubbock at 12:30 that night. Austin has had a good visit with his grandparents and left on Wednesday to go back to Florida.

Our deepest sympathies to Lawrence Gray. His only sister, Annie Bell Savage, 83, passed away and funeral services were held Tuesday at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Clovis. She was survived by her brother, one step-daughter and step-son and several grandchildren.

Burial was at the Bovina Cemetery.

Thomas and Virginia Rhodes and Dorothy Ellison attended funeral services for Ruby Ellison in Brownwood last week. Pat Read and Janeen Grissom also attended.

Virginia met her son Alan and his family in Abilene and accompanied them on vacation which included Schitterbahn in New Braunfels. It is a fantastic water park, according to Virginia.

They also visited NASA and attended the Astros game.

Thomas met them in Houston and he and Virginia attended her niece's wedding. A family group of 21 spent a day at Astroworld. Among the members were their daughter Rhonda and her daughter Ragan from Denver who returned to Bovina with Thomas and Virginia. They stayed until Monday so Rhonda could attend her class reunion. Among other activities were a day at Ute Lake, a trip to Lubbock and visiting with grandparents and cousins.

St. Ann's Society will hold their annual garage sale on Saturday, July 9 beginning at 8:30 a.m.

The sale will be held in the Parish Hall at 401 Third Street.

Many clothes and other items have been donated for this annual fund-raising event.

Krysta Cockerham and Jimmi Dawn (J.D.) Jones recently attended a basketball camp at Wayland for a week. They were roommates. Krysta is the daughter of Wes and Charolette Cockerham and J. D. is the daughter of Joe and Denise Jones. The girls reported having a great time.

Pernie Free was released from St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo where she spent several days. She said she came home a week ago Thursday and is feeling much better.

Howard Kelso was still a patient on Tuesday and was hospitalized a week ago last Tuesday. The doctors think that he was bitten by a brown recluse spider. Kelso said they had sent a biopsy of the skin to Dallas but had not received word about the test run. He said he is feeling good and they have to keep his foot elevated.

Flossie Rhinehart's nephew, Clifford Lee of the Houston area came by and spent a couple of nights with her and they had a nice visit.

Flossie was also telling me about her brother and sister-in-law, Cecil and Jessie Sisk, former residents, now living at Woodland Park, Colorado. They have recently driven to Minnesota to visit with daughter Judy and her family.

Sam and Shirley Garrison attended a family reunion held recently at Lake Greenbelt which is north of Clarendon. The families brought camping trailers and tents. Eight of Sam's brothers and sisters were there and members of their families. They were: Elmer of Pampa; Elba Chandler of Oklahoma City; Billy Bob of Bedford, Texas; Cleta Green of Oklahoma City; Lela Waddill of Childress; Dwight of Perryton; Sherry Wagner of Fritch; and Sam of Bovina.

All of Sam's family were present with the exception of one brother who lives in Blythe, California. He had recently undergone by-pass surgery and was unable to be with the family.

Shirley Garrison said she went to Ralls one day this week and spent time with her dad, Lois Stone.

On Tuesday of the week, Sam's brother Dwight of Perryton came by for a short visit. He is a supervisor at the telephone company.

Congratulations to Rouel and Thelma Barron on the birth of a great-grandson, Jerod Ray Anderson. He was born June 23 with a good start at eight pounds two ounces. His parents are Jeff and Marissa Anderson of Littleton, Colorado. The Barron's have three great-granddaughters and now have a great-grandson.

CARD OF THANKS

Firefighters of Bovina, Friona and Rhea,

Once again, words cannot express adequately the gratitude we feel for your devotion and dedication to the people who are at the mercy of the elements. May you keep in mind, as you strive to protect the material treasures we have, that the most precious possession we have is our life. Material things can be replaced--lives cannot. May God always hold YOU in the palm of His Hand, as you strive to help others.

Thank you again,
The Donald Dale Family
