Merchants Entertain Saturday

National Cotton Week At United Dry Goods

An interesting display of cotton goods is on display in the windows of the United Dry Goods Store in co-operation with National Cotton Week. Texas cotton in Texas made products is the idea behind it all with all Texans. Mr. Davis local manager of the United, stated "My entire line of work clothing and almost all of our wash frock are made in Texas with Texas cotton."

New Business To Open in Eastland

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kilgore, formerly of Abilene, will, within the next ten days, open a ladies ready-to-wear store on the east side of the square, 104 1/2 South Seamen.

Mr. and Mrs. Kilgore have taken an apartment at the E. E. Woods home, West Patterson home, West Patterson Street, and will announce later the exact opening date of their new business.

Mr. Kilgore will operate a wholesale candy company and have an office at the above address, while Mr. Kilgore will be in charge of the ladies wear. She states, "The stock will consist of a quality line of merchandise at popular prices."

Community Singers Good Entertainers

The Community singing held on the square last Saturday night proved a large success in spite of the bad weather. Singers from all over the surrounding counties were present and a good program was presented.

After the program the singers went to the Texas hotel and had a chicken dinner. They all say it was the best they ever had. They showed their appreciation to the management by singing three songs in the lobby of the hotel.

These singings are well liked and it is hoped that we may have some more in the future.

EASTLAND LIONS TO ELECT OFFICERS

The Eastland Lions met Tuesday at noon at the Congelie Hotel. No entertainment was presented and the election of officers was held immediately after eating.

Bill McDonald was unanimously elected president. George Harper is the new first vice president; Ernest Jones is second vice president. Bert McGlamery was re-elected to office of Secretary treasurer. Judge Clyde Garrett becomes the lion tamer and H. C. Davis the tall twister. Three directors who were elected were: Hamilton McRae, Oscar Chastain, and Dr. W. S. Poe.

At this meeting a list of men were voted upon as prospective members. The men elected to the club will be notified.

Memorial Day Is Celebrated Here

Memorial Day was observed in Eastland Saturday in a fitting manner. Dr. H. B. Tanner, the Boy Scouts, and Campfire Girls leading in the ceremonies.

Flags were displayed on the public buildings and around the square. The chamber of commerce furnished the flags to be placed on the graves of the soldiers in the cemetery. Some 47 graves were thus decorated in Eastland cemetery as well as the Bedford chapel a short distance west of the city.

The Campfire girls followed at nine o'clock with an abundance of flowers that they placed on all graves having a flag. Soldiers of all wars were thus recognized.

At two o'clock a number of citizens, boy scouts and campfire girls assembled at the chamber of commerce and proceeded by auto to the bridge on the old Breckenridge highway over lake Eastland and held a little ceremony in commemoration of the sailors who lost their lives at sea.

Dr. Tanner addressed the assembly as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: We have gathered here this afternoon to honor the memory of the sailors who lost their lives at sea while engaged in war, on behalf of the United States this includes all the wars the country ever was engaged in.

Some sleep in marble cities of the dead, some in old fields and quiet lovely places, some lie in unknown graves, and many, oh so many, were buried at sea. It is to these heroes who lie in the bottom of the oceans that we pay tribute to at this particular moment.

They gave their all, and to day we give our very little. Life was as precious to them as it is to us. They gave their lives in defense of their country, and for principals vital to liberty.

We, as beneficiaries of their supreme sacrifice, pay a loving tribute to their memory by casting a fragrant flower into the water in appreciation of what they did. (campfire girls drop flowers in the water)

It was the glory and boast of the ancient Roman, that, in whatever part of the then known world his lot might be cast, the simple declaration, "I am a Roman Citizen" was sufficient to give him the respectful consideration of the people and the protection of their laws.

We, of our day have seen the flag of our country carried by our sailors to all parts of the world bearing a message of Liberty, Equality and Freedom until now the words, "American Citizen," means so much more than the ancient Roman saying.

To those of our soldiers, sailors, Marines and War nurses who lost their lives at sea, we cast a wreath on the waters in their memory, and say "Sleep in Peace, beloved heroes, until the day break and the shadows pass away." (Wreath dropped in the waters of the lake.

Local Golfers In Ranger Tourney

A local golfer, 18-year-old George Meridith, bagged the only hole-in-one in the recent invitation tournament at the Ranger club. He turned the trick on the No. 2 165-yard hole. This is George's first Ace and was doubly appreciated, coming during a tournament of that kind.

Eastland was represented in the tournament by a number of other golfers, among them being the Key family, Scott Key, Sr. and Jr. and Howard Key all turning in qualifying scores.

Mr. Floyd Daniels of Desdemona was in Eastland Tuesday. Mr. Daniels was formerly a resident of Eastland.

Mr. C. S. Coleman and Mr. Y. C. Bryson of Brownwood were business visitors in Eastland week.

Health Officer to Visit Eastland

Sanitary health officer, Carl Swearingen, of the State Health Department will visit Eastland in the very near future. He will inspect all groceries, markets, soda fountains, and all other places where food is handled for human consumption.

This should be sufficient warning to all proprietors to get himself and all employees in good condition and secure health cards for every one.

Sanitation is one thing that cannot be stressed to much. The health of the community depends on the sanitation. Let's make a good showing and have a good record.

STATE HEALTH OFFICER IS COMING TO EASTLAND

A letter from Dr. J. C. Anderson, State Health Officer, to the county health officers states that the serums to be used in drouth stricken counties for use to immunize against diphtheria, small pox and similar diseases could not be furnished, since the United States Health Department has said the supply had been exhausted.

Local authorities state that where immunization work has been started it would be furnished, but that where no shots had been given none could be provided.

It was also explained that the sanitation work and health nursing work being done would be continued.

Dr. Anderson stated that the offer by the state health department was made in good faith and that there was nothing that could be done about it.

MASONIC HOME BAND

The 24-piece band of the Masonic Home and School of Fort Worth was in Eastland Thursday. At 2 o'clock the band presented a program from the band stand on the square.

Dr. Tanner, secretary of the chamber of commerce, introduced the speakers. Mayor McCarty gave the welcome address. Wilbure Keth, chaperone of the boys on their West Texas trip, gave the response. The subject of his talk was "Masonry's Contribution to Civilization." One of the boys introduced the players and another spoke on the school system of the Masonic Home. Charles Hickey, of Fort Worth took the music director's place in directing the band. Many interesting pieces were played.

This program was well given and very much enjoyed. The band played at Cisco Thursday night.

Everett Grisham, son of R. N. Grisham, will return Sunday from Lexington, Virginia, where he attended the Washington and Lee University last winter.

B. S. Ramey purchased the new... Company.

The second big musical program will be presented on the square Saturday night by the merchants of Eastland.

This style of entertainment is proving to be very popular, large crowds are attending and all reports are that both old and young are well pleased.

This week Mr. Bond, who has been conducting a singing school here for the last two weeks, is combining the closing of his school with the regular entertainment of the merchants.

Mr. Bond states that about forty-five singers from all over the county will participate, singing gospel, negro spirituals, popular and comic songs.

There will be class singing, quartets, duets, and solos. The very popular Scranton male quartet will be heard.

In addition to the above musical numbers Eastland's Booster Band will finish out the entertainment with a variety of music.

It is very gratifying to the Eastland merchants to see the large attendance and extend a cordial invitation to all the people of the county to attend these free programs.

Night Work for Joan Crawford

Shooting schedules were turned topsy-turvy for filming of "Laughing Sinners." Metro-Goldwyn's picture-tization of the sensational Kenyon Nicholson stage hit, "The Torch Song" in which Joan Crawford will be seen Sunday at the Lyric Theatre.

Since much of the action demanded night and rain scenes, the bulk of the screening was done at night, the company reporting at 5 a. m. instead of the usual 8 a. m. Harry Beaumont, who directed the new Crawford picture, alternated the night and day work for the comfort of the cast and crew, Sunday holidays coming as a rest period between the night and day shifts.

Neil Hamilton and Clark Gable share leading man honors in the dramatic feature with the cast including Marjorie Riambeau, Guy Kibbee, Cliff Edwards, Roscoe Karns, Gertrude Short, George Cooper, George F. Marion and Bert Woodruff.

In the picture Miss Crawford plays the part of a cabaret entertainer who joins the Salvation Army after a bitter love experience, only to backslide into the old life when the man returns to her through a chance meeting.

Judge Cyrus Frost and family are planning to move back to Eastland. They have been living in Austin where the two older children, Jack and Wilda have been attending the Texas University.

Palatial Home for Vice-Presidents Offered to Uncle Sam

PLAN TO USE COTTON BAGGING TO COVER BALES

Riverside Mills in Georgia issues a challenge to the cotton industry to help itself by using cotton mixed with jute for bagging instead of the all jute covering heretofore used.

It is estimated that if this covering is adopted that it will create a sale for approximately 200,000 more bales of cotton.

There has been some effort along this line in the past, but for some reason it was never put into operation on a very large scale.

The question in our minds has always been why not? It seems that if for reasons of structure or lack of sufficient strength to stand the necessary punishment, some means could be worked out to overcome these objections.

It does look like unsound business for us to send to India for a wrapping to cover our cotton when cotton covering would do the work. Possibly England, one of our chief cotton consumers, might have had something to say about it because of financial interests in the jute business. Cotton is still King!

OUR GAS SITUATION

What is being done with reference to gas rates in Eastland? It is to be hoped that a movement looking to lower gas rates for the consumers in Eastland will be launched at an early date. Let us not wait until winter is here again before attempting to get a satisfactory rate adjustment.

We realize that our commissioners are confronted with numerous and complex problems, and we know they are giving thought to them and trying to solve these problems for the best interest of all concerned and when we ask the question it is not in the nature of a criticism.

We have no desire to see our gas company operate at a loss, but we believe that in view of lowered costs and reduced incomes from all other commodities a rate of fifty cents gross per thousand feet would be in line at this time. In fact, we believe it would be a fair rate to both sides of the issue.

While we do not have access to a statement of costs of operations, it stands to reason that some concessions could and should be made now.

Every individual has been affected through shrinkage of values and lessened returns on investments, drastic reductions in capital investments from shrinkage of values have been shown by all, and with a proper depreciation on capital investment as shown by the gas company we believe that at the suggested rate a fair return would be shown. LIVE AND LET LIVE.

LOYALTY TO OUR COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Are we, in our indifferent attitude toward our community organizations, not rapidly approaching the point of disloyalty to our own best interests?

If we are to progress and hold our place in a competitive way with every other community we must be fully alive at all times to those factors which effect our welfare.

The Moral support of each individual compromising the various community groups is very necessary to the proper functioning of any unit.

Our churches are and always have been a great factor in promoting the welfare of every community. Their influence can be traced throughout the intricate web of development and progress.

They have been first on the ground or among the first comers and have stayed throughout the entire process of growth and development. They remain steadfast to promote and advance our welfare under any and all circumstances.

As builders and citizens, regardless of Creed we are due them a certain amount of moral support in their efforts.

Our Schools and Colleges stand in the forefront in community development and the molding of our future citizenship.

Our Chambers of Commerce and Civic Clubs all have a function and are vital factors in our advancement and development of our community spirit.

We should lend them our support in the best of our ability. We may and possibly are limited in ability, yet there is some place in some capacity where we can each be of help.

Let us find that place, get our shoulder to the wheel and push forward when every opportunity comes.

Let us be loyal to our organizations that are so loyal to our best interests.

FARM MARKETING TODAY

Within the past decade there have been changes and improvements of numerous kinds to affect the marketing of farm products.

Improved roads and motor vehicles have enlarged the markets for farm products probably more than any other one factor.

By reason of this improved transportation practically anything on the farm today can be readily marketed at favorable prices.

Refrigeration has also entered into the matter, allowing the assembling and storing in quantities sufficient to make shipment to distant points of the perishable products that only a few years ago could not be satisfactorily handled.

The accessibility to the markets and the ease with which we can dispose of our products today should be an incentive to develop hundreds of small truck farms in Eastland county.

With marketing associations and other outlets for the products we should see in this county in the near future a transformation of numbers of our farms into modern dairy and truck growing farms producing a year round income instead of the old time regulation one-season return.

Eastland has undertaken to help out in the enlargement of the markets by organizing a marketing association for certain products that have not been profitable in the past for lack of an outlet.

As development and production progresses open markets for all surplus products will be found. Acres and acres of suitable soil are lying dormant ready to be transformed into productive tracts that will not only support, but produce a handsome revenue to those with the necessary initiative and energy to undertake the venture.

"WHERE ARE WE AT?"

Statisticians tell us that business is off about twenty-two per cent from normal. Savings banks report more savings deposits than ever before in the history of the nation. Some of the great factories are working full crews twenty-four hours per day, so they say. We have too much wheat, too much oil, too much cotton, too much money in some places, and none in others. We have about ten million idle men looking for something to do that will produce the barest existence and yet we have the greatest country in the world.

Where are we, and how did we get there? That seems to be the one great question bothering the minds of the profoundest thinkers today.

If we could only get an equal distribution of that seventy-eight per cent of the business that is left and get regular pay rolls once more, we would all get happy again in three months and forget 1930 and 31.

If some "wise guy" will just show us how to get all this we will set up a tin monument to his memory and proceed to forget his name in less than a year.

In fact, we might even elect Mr. Hoover again next year if he can get his commission form of government to working so that we can all get on somebody's pay roll before the election in 1932.

We have one of the biggest grain crops staring us in the face that we have ever had, and the outlook for other crops is about all that could be wished for at this time. We may not get such magnificent prices for the crops as prices go, but maybe we will get to help harvest some of it any way and by so doing get the bottom of the meal barrel covered before frost falls.

To the man who is producing these big crops it does not look very encouraging but there is one ray of light in the gloom and that is that there will have to be some help had to get the crops to market and that will possibly enable some of us to follow Mike Thomas' advice to spend what we have for the things we will need. Even if the farmer who produces the big crops does not have anything left after he has paid his expenses maybe there will be enough money in circulation to keep the wheels turning until we can raise a sure enough big crop.

The unemployment situation will be relieved in 1932 anyway as it is campaign year and somebody will have to do the work while the candidates are out garnering the votes.

All in all it don't look so blue. It will all come out in the wash, even the patches on my 1929 shirt.

Cattle Market Shows Decline

Through the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce the Record will print weekly farm and dairy news.

The following is taken from a talk by Mr. C. V. Whalin, Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

"Cattle prices, like the prices of many other commodities declined to new low levels this spring. Prices of all classes and grades of cattle moved downward in March and early April but they have been fairly steady during the past four weeks. Prices of the better grades of steers declined most. They began their downswing about the middle of last January. At that time the average price of choice steers at Chicago was well above $13. Now it is about $9. Part of the decline on these best cattle was seasonal and was due to the unusual seasonal increase in the market supply of long-fed steers. The drop in all cattle prices in early April, however, was unusually large for that time of year. From the last week in March to the third week in April prices of choice grade steers fell $1.25 per 100 pounds. This decline was due in part to relatively large marketings of cattle. The general weakness in consumer demand for meats also a contributing factor.

April receipts of cattle at seven leading markets were 6 per cent larger than in April 1930, 3 per cent above the 5-year April average and the largest for that month in five years. Inspected slaughter during the month was 9 per cent larger than in April last year and 1 per cent larger than the 5-year average. Receipts of steers at Chicago exceeded those of April 1930 by 21 per cent. Most of this increase was in medium grade steers, although the numbers of both good and choice steers were also larger than in April last year.

Ordinarily, in years of normal business conditions prices of the lower grades of cattle make a seasonal rise during most of the period from early February to June. This year the seasonal rise did not begin until the first week in March and it continued for only a short time. It was checked ed the middle of March in the case of common and medium grade slaughter steers and ended about the middle of April with respect to prices of the lower grades of cows.

The proportion of cows in the total slaughter supply this year has been below average each month, but in March the actual number slaughtered was about the same as in March last year because of the increase in slaughter of all cattle. There is rather conclusive evidence that the April slaughter of cows exceeded that of April last year. If this proves to be true it is the first increase over the corresponding month of the previous year since September 1928. This increase in cow slaughter together with the increase in April calf slaughter is evidence of a tendency on the part of the dairy industry to check expansion and may indicate the beginning of an effort by dairymen to reduce dairy herd numbers.

Heavy marketings of steers in April apparently resulted from the lack of confidence on the part of the many feeders as to the future of the cattle market. This was probably an important factor in cases where feeders would have had to purchase additional grain if their cattle were to be carried longer.

Demand for stocker and feeder cattle in April was below average and this resulted in increasing the supply of cattle going to slaughter. Stocker and feeder shipments during the month were 20 per cent smaller than in April last year. Weakness in the demand for stocker and feeder cattle is always a depressing influence in the slaughter cattle market because it not only reduces buying competition but increases the supply of cattle going to slaughter.

Wholesale beef prices have followed about the same downward trend as cattle prices although they showed a more pronounced tendency to rally near the end of April. Retail prices at New York declined in March but after Easter week they advanced slightly. In Chicago they continued downward in April. In most years average retail prices of beef in April are higher than those in March and prices in May are above those in April. The seasonal increase in prices is usually due to the larger proportion of the better grades of beef in the total supply.

Supplies of all cattle, and of the better grades in particular, during May and June will be determined to considerable extent by the reaction of growers and feeders to present low prices; also by the policy followed by dairymen in disposing of old and cull cows. Numbers of cattle on feed in the Corn Belt are smaller than last year, but there are considerably more, fed cattle still in feed lots in Colorado and western Nebraska than last year, due to the delayed movement from those areas. Supplies of grass fat steers in Texas are larger than last year and these will move in volume in May and June. If the Corn Belt continues to market heavily during the next two months and the movement of replacement cattle into feed lots continues light, the supply of fed cattle during the second half of 1931 will be relatively small. If there should be some pick-up in demand due to improved business conditions, a seasonal advance on fed cattle, at least as large as the average seasonal advance seems probable after June."

Mrs. Dottie Bond and son, J. T., of Ranger spent the day with Mr. H. R. Liles Sunday.

Mrs. Sallie Stamps of Abilene spent Saturday with her brother, Ar Liles and sister, Mrs. R. H. Liles.

Baptist Church Announcements

By W. T. Turner

"The mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire" will be the text of the message at 11:00 a. m.

"A sound of going in the mulberry trees," will be the text of the Sunday night sermon.

From these two highly figurative Old Testament texts the pastor will deliver two more of the series of messages on the Holy Spirit. God helping, and God leading, will be the theme of these two messages.

The Sunday School meets at 9:45 a. m. The average attendance for May was the highest in the history of the church for any one month except the months of March and April just past. Let us keep it up for the summer.

The Vacation Bible School which had an average attendance of about one hundred and twenty for the first three days will continue throughout next week. We are having a great time. New pupils will be admitted any time.

The closing exercises of the Vacation Bible School will be held one week from next Sunday night. A fine program of song and scripture drills will be prepared. All boys and girls who enter not later than Monday of the second week will be allowed to take part in the closing exercises.

The Women's Missionary Society will meet Monday at 3:30 to study the book of Revelation. The pastor will teach the lesson from the eighth chapter which will be from the sounding of the seven trumpets.

Next Wednesday night will be the time of the Monthly Business Meeting of the church. Let us have a full attendance at this meeting.

The pastor is planning to conduct an out-door revival in the South part of town sometime during the summer. Possibly another will be held in the West part of town. Definite dates and plans will be announced later.

COUNTY AUDITOR WEEKLY REPORT

The following article on county affairs was written by County Auditor W. S. Michael in an effort to keep the tax payers informed at all times on the operation of the county's business.

COMPENSATION OF COUNTY OFFICERS.—With a few exceptions, county officers receive their compensation from fees, and, therefore, the amount of their annual compensation depends on the amount of fees earned and collected. "Fees," as defined by the new Fee Bill, which became effective January 1, 1931, "shall include and apply to all fees and compensation whatever collected by officers in their official capacity." Articles 3883 and 3891 of the Revised Civil Statute 1925, as amended by the Forty-First Legislature, provide for the maximum annual fees that may be retained by county officers and for the disposition of fees earned and collected. The following quotations from these articles apply to Eastland County, and other counties in the same bracket.

"Article 3883. Maximum Fees—Except as otherwise herein provided, the maximum annual fees that can be retained by county officers mentioned in this Article shall be as follows:

2. In counties containing as many as twenty-five thousand and less than thirty-seven thousand five hundred inhabitants: County Judge, $2,500.00; Sheriff, $3,000.00; County Clerk, $2,500.00; District Clerk, $2,400.00; Tax Assessor, $2,400.00; Tax Collector, $2,400; County Attorney, $2,400; District Attorney, $2,500."

"Article 3891. Disposition of Fees. Each officer named in this Chapter shall first, out of the fees of his office, pay or be paid the amount allowed him under the provisions of this Chapter, together with the salaries of his assistants and deputies, and the amount necessary to cover costs of premium on whatever surety bond may be required by law. If the fees of such office collected in any year be more than the amount needed to pay the amount allowed such officer and his assistants and deputies, same shall be deemed excess fees, and in counties in which the population is less than thirty-seven thousand five hundred (37,500) inhabitants, such officer shall retain all of such fees, in addition to the amounts specified in Articles 3883 and 3883-A, until same amounts to twelve hundred fifty ($1,250.00) dollars, and of the remaining excess fees, such officers shall retain one-fourth of such remaining excess fees, until such one-fourth amounts to seven hundred fifty ($750.00) dollars; provided, that in no case shall any officer in such counties receive as total compensation in excess of four thousand five hundred ($4,500.00) dollars. All fees collected by officers named in Articles 3883, 3883-A and 3886, during any fiscal year in excess of maximum amount allowed by law, and of the amounts of excess fees allowed by this Article for their services, and for services of their deputies, or their assistants as herein provided for, shall be paid into the county treasury of the county where the excess accrued"

As an example, suppose a county officer earned and collected fees during the year amounting $14,000.00 and paid out of this amount $8,000.00 to his deputies and assistants and $500.00 premium on surety bond. Applying the statutory provisions as quoted above, the excess fees, the officer's compensation, and the amount to be paid into the county treasury, may be determined as follows:

Total Fees Earned and Collected	$14,000.00
Deputies and assts. Art. 3883	$8,000.00
Prem. on Sur. Bond Art. 3891	500.00
Max. fees allowed to retain, Art. 3883	2,400.00
Total	$10,900.00

Balance Excess Fees	$3,100.00
to be Retained by Officer	Deduct Spec. Amt. Retained by Off.—Art. 3891
	1,250.00

Balance of Excess Fees	$1,850.00
Deduct 1/4 Bal. Retained by Off.—Art. 3891	462.50

Bal. to County Treasury	$1,387.50
In this case the Officer's Compensation is:
Maximum Fees Allowed	$2,400.00
Spec. Amount Retained	1,250.00
1/4 Balance Retained	462.50

Total Compensation $4,112.50
Officers' compensation out of fees may be supplemented by an order of the commissioners' court, as provided in Article 3895, which reads in part as follows:

"Compensation for ex-officio services may be allowed by the commissioners' court to officers controlled by the maximum fee bill when in the judgement of such court same is necessary, provided the same shall not increase the compensation of the official beyond the maximum of compensation and excess fees allowed to be retained by him under the fee bill."

In the foregoing example, the officer's fees were not sufficient to make his maximum compensation of $4,500. If, in the judgement of the commissioners' court it was necessary it could allow the officer ex-officio compensation to the amount of $387.50, the difference in the amount of fees retained by the officer and the maximum compensation allowed by law.

Who's Who and Why

The fishing party composed of T. M. Spurling, Sam Newcomb, Bill Herrington, F. L. Spurling, Wade Dooling, H. C. Davis, and E. H. Dick are all up in the air and can't figure out who caught the most fish and who gets the free tickets in the Watch Your Step column.

It is believed that if the one telling the biggest story got the ticket we would not have had so much trouble awarding the ticket, but the bunch all agreed that it was a real successful trip.

They claim as follows—understand they claim—that they killed squirrels, caught three nice soft shell turtles and caught about 62 pounds of fish, the two largest weighing 12 pounds each.

This is just a starter. Come on fishermen, can you beat it?

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH NEWS

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, De-nounced," was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, May 31.

The golden text was from Jeremiah 20:13. "Sing unto the Lord, praise ye the Lord; for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil-doers."

The following passages from the Bible were included in the service (Deuteronomy 18:10-12): "There shall not be found among you any one that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or necromancy. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord."

This citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, (p. 104) was also read: "Christian Science goes to the bottom of mental action, and reveals the theodicy which indicates the rightness of all divine action, as the emanation of divine Mind, and the consequent wrongness of the opposite so-called action,—evil, occultism, necromancy, mesmerism, animal magnetism, hypnotism."
