

MAVERICKS TO PLAY RANGER BULLDOGS SAT.

The Eastland Mavericks will play their second conference game at home Saturday afternoon when they take on the Ranger Bulldogs, defending champions of the Oil Belt district.

The Mavericks played a good brand of football last Saturday when they played the Breckenridge Buckaroos to a standstill throughout the game, only to lose in the last few minutes of play on an intercepted lateral pass which gave the Buckaroos the ball on the six yard line.

The Bulldogs, though they have lost "Corporal" Jones, plunging fullback of last year who led them to victory, will have a good team of seasoned players, including Rankin Britt, all-district end last year, Aaron Anderson, who has taken over the fullback position and Joe Briley and Cleo "Speedy" Gray, fast backfield men.

Garrison, who played a splendid game for Eastland's Mavericks last week, will again be counted on to carry the brunt of the Eastland attack, while Tully, Taylor, Simmons and Mays along with the other Mavericks will be called on to help keep the team in the running in the district race.

The Bulldogs witnessed the Eastland-Breckenridge game last week and went back home knowing that they will be up against stiff competition here Saturday and will be trying throughout the game to stop the Mavericks, if they can.

"I know there is no more cordially loved man in Washington than the man who directs the senate and who did so much to put across the emergency legislation."

Says Employees Should Be Thankful They Work For U. S. Who Pays Regularly.

Federal employees seeking restoration of old pay scales will get no help from Congressman Thomas L. Blanton of Texas. In a telegram sent E. Claud Babcock, president Federation of Government Employees, Washington, D. C., he made his position on the matter clear, and expressed the opinion that "government salaries have been higher than they should have been and that those in the government employ should be thankful to God that they have positions with Uncle Sam who pays them regularly while many people are starving."

Congressman Blanton's telegram to Babcock follows:

"Abilene, Texas, October 14, 1933.

"Hon. E. Claud Babcock, President, Federation of Government Employees, Secretary, United Civil Service, Washington, D. C.

Replying your telegram just received stating that Senator Harrison assures you that cuts will be rescinded and reductions in salaries of government employees will be restored in coming session of Congress, and asking for similar assurance from me, regret that I cannot help you. It is my firm belief that government salaries have been entirely too high and out of all proportion to salaries received for like work in private positions. American citizens are tired of being told to pay some government employees three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine and ten thousand dollars per year, some of whom until recently were granted 30 days vacation on full pay, thirty days sick leave on full pay, no work on Sundays, numerous holidays including half of Saturdays, and generous retirement pay, all working under comfortable surroundings. Disabled veterans of all wars have been cut materially, and government employees must take their cuts the same as Congressmen and other citizens, with smiling faces, and be thankful to God that they have positions with Uncle Sam, who pays them regularly while many people are starving.

"Blanton, Congressman."

Clint Small Seen As A Candidate For Governorship

AUSTIN.—State Senator Clint Small of Amarillo is again in the picture as candidate for governor in the next race. Friends say they have been told he will enter the race. Small was on the brink during the last state campaign, but kept out when Gov. Ross S. Sterling announced for re-election.

What effect dismissal of the suits will have on the political fortunes of Attorney General James V. Allred puzzles Austin.

Some say it lets him out of a predicament; others that it is a blow.

"It isn't the first time I have had to appeal a case," says Allred.

A recent visit of Wright Morrow of Houston to Austin has revived the talk he may be a candidate for governor. He was urged to run before, but declined, saying it was too late in the campaign to launch a fresh candidacy.

The jury found the defendant guilty on both counts. Thompson had been convicted in the 91st district court on June 15, 1931, of car theft and his conviction for a second similar offense made it mandatory upon the jury to assess the maximum penalty which is 10 years in the penitentiary and this was done.

CHICAGO MURDERERS DIE IN THE CHAIR

Chicago is the second American city in point of population and wealth. Chicago in time bids fair to become the first metropolis of the republic. According to criminal statistics, 186 police officers have been slain in the second American city since the close of the World War. They were slain by outlaws. They were shot down in cold blood while in performance of duty.

Chicago had an awakening long before the coming of the Century of Progress exposition. Law abiding citizens, men both fearless and liberty loving, organized. They determined that crime should cease or be reduced to the minimum and that desperadoes that made Chicago their rendezvous should be exterminated. They voted Big Bill Thompson and his gang out of office. They elected as the chief magistrate of Chicago Anton Cermack, a splendid citizen who was shot to death by an assassin in the city of Miami.

Now ever since his death the courts of Chicago have been grinding. They have put behind the bars of the penitentiary hijackers and kidnapers and assassins of the so-called underworld of America. They have given the world its greatest exposition. They have waged a relentless war on crime and criminals. Now slayers of policemen convicted by juries of their peers are being sent to the electric chair, desperadoes who robbed the defenseless using firearms are not pardoned by the governor of Illinois. They are not furloughed. They are kept where they belong behind the stone walls of the penitentiaries of the commonwealth. Since the coming of October, two slayers of brave officers have paid the penalty. They were electrocuted in the "pan"—otherwise the electric chair. Three are in death cells awaiting the awful penalty.

Atty. Gen. Homer Cummings launched the nationwide crusade against crime and criminals. He named Joseph B. Keenan, a courageous and intelligent prosecutor, to direct the drive and the prosecution with the assistance of state officials everywhere. Well, the recent record made by the federal judge and federal prosecutors tells the story of the war against criminals who defy not only the federal but state authorities and who rob and slay without compunction of conscience. This is as it should be. It is said that to err is human but to forgive divine. It is a beautiful sentiment, but the social order should be safeguarded and the lawabiding men and women of nation and state should be protected at all times—and without counting the cost.

TAX EXPERT ACE INDICTED FOR INCOME TAX EVASION

William H. Malone is a prominent citizen and a prominent leader of the republican party of Illinois. He is the former chairman of the state tax commission and in his time held many important offices. In all his campaigns he was a champion of the "downtrodden and the poor." Now he has been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of defrauding the government of $59,580.13 income tax for the years 1929 and 1930. Insofar as Citizen Malone is concerned there appears to be a new deal on in the state of Abraham Lincoln for "the purification of politics and those who take down the ripe persimmons."

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

This column, "Behind the Scenes in Washington," is being conducted by Willis Thornton during Rodney Dutcher's vacation.

BY WILLIS THORNTON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—As the Supreme Court convenes again, to sit until May or June, attention is focusing on the "nine old men" who are almost certain to have to make vital decisions on the New Deal social legislation. Dean now of the court, the liberal Justice Brandeis is within a month of his 77th birthday on Nov. 13. By the way, Princeton University Press will celebrate the day by publishing a new book which will show how many of Justice Brandeis' dissenting opinions have won acceptance in Congress and in the Supreme Court itself.

Ages of the other justices are: Hughes, 71, Van Devanter, 74; McReynolds, 71; Sutherland, 71; Butler, 67; Stone, 61, Roberts, 55, and Cardozo, 63.

There is a total of 613 years of accumulated wisdom (or prejudice, according to your point of view) and sets definitely the average age of the "nine old men" at 68.

CONSIDERATION already is being given here to what would happen if the Supreme Court went the limit and threw out all the New Deal legislation, lock, stock, and barrel, as unconstitutional.

There would be undoubted inconvenience and confusion, but Congress would not be as helpless as many resignedly believe. Faced by such a situation before, the elasticity of our "rigid constitution" met the test.

Then followed several numbers by pupils of Mrs. J. C. Brewer, expression teacher of Gorman. Each pupil gave his or her part splendidly and added

Bratton, Fred Welder, W. C. Bedford, Mattie Henry, Dave Parks, Arnold Anderson, A. C. Moore, R. D. Wright, A. C. Robert and Mrs. Aaron Henslee as pianist. Davis, who is chairman of the fine arts committee, and who worked untiringly to make the program a success. NEW BANK LAW MAY HELP GET A BANK HERE

Banking Commissioner Q. a Visit Here Save New Measure To Restore Confidence Public Probably Lost in Banks.

Eastland's chances for obtaining a bank in the very near future have been much increased by the passage by the recent called session of the state legislature of the bank deposit insurance corporation bill, according to State Banking Commissioner E. C. Brand, who was here Wednesday.

Mr. Brand, who was in Eastland to confer with Messrs. Potter and Whitley in charge of the defunct Texas State bank of Eastland, is of the opinion that the bank deposit insurance measure just passed by the legislature will restore confidence many have lost in banks and that it will provide better protection for the depositor than the former guaranty fund law. He also believes that member banks, under the new law, will be in a position to better cooperate with the department in keeping banks solvent.

The bank deposit insurance corporation is to be composed of seven members, two to be appointed by each the governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker of the house, the banking commissioner to be ex-officio member and chairman. Members appointed in this manner are to serve until Jan. 1, 1935, after which time they are to be elected by the member banks.

The capital stock of the bank deposit insurance corporation is to be $25,000,000, and is to be provided by member banks. At no time is the capital on hand to be below $24,000,000. No charge of any nature is made against any depositor.

The law provides a guarantee of unsecured deposits in member banks as follows: Amounts up to and including $2,500 from Jan. 1, 1934, to July, 1934. After this date 100 per cent of unsecured deposits up to and including $10,000, and 75 per cent of all unsecured deposits above $10,000 and up to and including $50,000 and 50 per cent of all unsecured deposits above $50,000.

All state banks and state bank and trust companies, not members of the federal reserve system, are eligible to become members of the bank deposit insurance corporation upon application provided first that the state banking commission certifies to their solvency.

Another banking measure passed recently which Commissioner Brand believes will be a great help to banks as well as depositors, is Senate Bill No. 85, which provides that any state bank in case of a "run" or other unusual withdrawal of funds, may, by the approval of the banking commissioner, suspend all business for 30 days. The measure provides that the officials of such a bank, together with the banking commissioner and representatives of the depositors may together work out plans for reopening the bank, or in case it cannot be re-opened, for the liquidation of the institution in the best interest of all concerned.

Asked about the rumor heard in Eastland that a gas company had purchased or leased the Texas State Bank building in Eastland, Mr. Brand said there was nothing of that kind before the commission and that he had heard nothing of it.

Asked when another dividend from the defunct Texas State bank of Eastland might be expected, Mr. Brand said he did not know. He added, however, that he was looking into the matter now and that if one could be paid the department would do so, it being the policy of the department to pay such dividends as rapidly as possible, even though they were small payments, because the public was in need of money and a small payment now might mean more than a larger payment later to many people.

Methodist Push Drive For Funds
Leaders in the campaign to raise money to clear the entire indebtedness against the Methodist church were very hopeful Wednesday morning that the full amount will be raised.

"We are not going to quit until every dollar needed is raised," is the way one of the campaign workers expressed himself in regard to the drive.

According to those in charge of the drive for the $9,700 needed at this time. But several of the obligations are due now and more than $1,000 was turned in Sunday at the morning service. Others are paying their subscriptions, or part, and it is hoped that the major part of that already subscribed will be turned in by next Sunday in order that the obligations now pressing the membership can be paid off.

One of the most gratifying features of the campaign is the way a number of outsiders or non-members are subscribing. Many have resigned a subscription or extended a situation selves favorably in view of our "rigid" proposition met the test.

Gin Report Says Eastland County Ginned 3,322 Bales

According to a report received today from the department of agriculture, Eastland county had ginned 3,322 bales of cotton from the 1933 crop prior to October 1. This figure compares, the report said, with a total of only 51 bales ginned prior to October 1, 1932.

Audit for the City of Eastland

Dallas, Texas July 5, 1933

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners and City Manager, City of Eastland, Texas Gentlemen:

At your request, we have completed an audit of the Records of the City of Eastland, for the period from April 1, 1929 to March 31, 1933, and herewith submit our report subject to the following comments:

Receipts and Disbursements
All cash funds were carefully audited both as to Receipts and Disbursements, separate schedules of each fund and a summary of all funds being included in the attached schedules.

All bank accounts were carefully examined, deposits as listed on the City Records being checked into the bank statements and checks examined as to proper evidence of payment and cancellation, with proper reconciliation of all bank accounts made. A number of checks were found to be lacking proper endorsement, as follows:

Date	Payee	Check No.	Amount
12-6-29	Jose Bocardio	5617	$ 19.20
(Not endorsed by Payee, but by W. C. Marlow, City Clerk).
1-17-30	Joe B. Truly	5940	335.25
2-22-30	J. F. Turknett	6098	393.00
5-14-30	J. A. Jarboe	6402	100.00
6-15-31	E. B. Clarke	7783	50.00
6-30-31	E. B. Clarke	7820	50.00
8-31-31	E. B. Clarke	8004	50.00

In some instances, Daily Collections were held for periods of several days and deposits made on one day. This is a practice to be avoided as far as possible, though under present conditions with the banks in which City Funds are kept being located elsewhere, it is permissible.

Fund Accounts
During the period covered by our audit, the various fund accounts were not maintained and had to be reconstructed in their entirety.

Because of the fact that certain departments have been combined for bond purposes or other reasons, the fund accounts of those departments have been similarly combined.

The allocation of taxes to the various funds as made in the annual ordinance has not been adhered to, but we made no reallocation of the taxes to conform to the ordinances. In the greater part of the period covered, delinquent taxes were distributed on the same basis as current taxes. This is erroneous, as the distribution should be made according to the allocation of the year concerned. All Interest and Penalties should be allocated to the General Fund.

For the greater part of the period audited, all funds were kept in a common bank account, with the result that the present bank balance to the credit of the Interest and Sinking Fund is $19,475.57, whereas the fund balance is $33,264.80, a difference of $13,789.23. This indicates that such an amount from the Interest and Sinking Fund has been used for other purposes, which is a violation of law and should be remedied at the earliest possible time by the transfer of that amount from such funds as are available to the Interest and Sinking Fund Bank Account.

The Water and Sewer Fund shows a deficit of $3,557.64, whereas the bank balances to the credit of this fund show a total of $715.71, indicating that this fund has used $4,273.35 in funds properly belonging to some other department.

The Fire Department Fund deficit of $7,991.17 indicates that the allocation of taxes to this department is not sufficient for its needs. This is particularly true in view of the fact that on the fire truck note, payable to the Seagraves Corporation $1,500.00 is almost a year past due and $1,500.00 more was due on May 1, 1933; also, on the note payable for fire hose, $580.00 will be due on July 30, 1933.

The Board of City Development Fund shows a deficit of $7,766.42. At the beginning of the audit period, this deficit was $429.68; an average yearly expenditure of more than $1,800.00 over receipts from all sources. Casual inquiry among business and professional men of your city indicated that this Board was acting in the capacity of a Promotion Department of the Chamber of Commerce. As such, the payment of its expenses out of tax funds, particularly at a time when the city's funds were depleted to the point of causing a default on Bonds and Interest due, is subject to severe criticism. For example, there was an item of $1,000.00, covering a guarantee for the U. S. Marine Band, against which the City received from the sale of tickets $853.00. Also, for sewer, water and gas extensions beyond the City Limits to the grounds of Warner Memorial University, the Board spent approximately $300.00; the monthly salary of a Band Master and other items—all these are commendable within certain limits, but to engage in them while failing to fulfill prior obligations entered into is, to say the least, a questionable policy.

The Street and Bridge Fund shows a deficit of $4,916.01, an increase over the deficit at the beginning of the period of $1,951.67. We have included in the "Operations" of this fund, the balance of $2,000.00 due the R. B. George Machinery Co., of Dallas, due to them on the caterpillar tractor used in the maintenance of the City's streets. From correspondence in the city's files, it would appear that a verbal agreement had been entered into with this creditor to issue four Street and Bridge Warrants, each in the sum of $500.00, due serially Feb. 15, 1933, 1934, 1935 and 1936, bearing interest at 6% from February 9, 1932, the date of the purchase. Reasons for the failure of the then Board of Commissioners to issue the Warrants are not available to us, but proper action should be taken by the present Board to adjust this account. We have placed it in the City's Liabilities on its present status—an account payable.

The Park and Cemetery Fund shows a deficit of $11,301.89, $525.75 less than the deficit at the beginning of the period covered by our audit. Since this fund received a very small share of the Tax allotment, it would indicate this Department to be almost self-sustaining.

Revenues
The City's revenues from all sources suffered a marked and progressive decrease over the period covered by the audit. This was particularly true of Tax Collections. The sharp decrease in Tax Collections for the year 1931-32 was due without a doubt to the closing of the Texas State Bank, but was partially offset by the increase in delinquent tax collections in the year 1932-33.

For the latter year the decrease in current tax collections was unquestionably due to the general reduction in valuations on the Assessment Rolls for the year 1932.

The Water and Sewer Revenues showed a lower proportionate decrease than other revenues, but from our observation, we believe these revenues could be materially increased by a more rigid enforcement of the policy of immediately cutting off service in the event of non-payment by the consumer, applying the meter deposit to the bill due, and requiring a further deposit before resuming service.

Bonded Indebtedness

In the preparation of our schedule of Bonded Indebtedness, we found that the Bond Register of the city had not been kept up, either as to the retirement of bonds or the payment of interest coupons. This is a most important record and should be brought up to date as soon as possible. Cancelled bonds and coupons were scattered in various storage places in the City Hall. These should be assembled and carefully checked to make sure that the city has received and cancelled all bonds and coupons for which payment has been made and the bonds and coupons stored in properly labeled packages in the City Hall vaults.

The past due bonds and interest figures do not include any maturities on coupons due since March 31, 1933, which would add materially to the amount now in default.

In the course of our audit, we reviewed certain papers pertaining to the City of Eastland by the Security Benefit Association.

In the schedule of Bonded Indebtedness set forth above, the outstanding bonds of 1926 are shown with a total outstanding of $387,000.00 as against $396,000.00 shown in our schedule. These papers, also show an outstanding item of $9,000.00 in 6 percent Tax Anticipation Warrants, dated March 1, 1931, which we do not show in our schedule. We were unable to find any record of the authorization or issuance of these tax anticipation warrants, or of their sale or exchange for other bonds.

Tax Rolls
Numerous errors were found in the Tax Rolls, particularly for the years 1929, 1930 and 1931. The 1932 Rolls prepared by Mr. J. F. Little, the present City Clerk, showed a marked decrease in errors and his preparation of data for the year 1933 roll will serve to make that record a very accurate one.

In our check of the Delinquent Tax Rolls, we discovered many instances of failure to enter receipts for delinquent taxes, and in cases where a reduced tax was collected, failure to make the proper reference to the Minutes of the Board of Commissioners, wherein the reduction was authorized. In this connection, we believe it would be a good practice to establish and sustain a system whereby no receipts would be given for taxes so reduced until the Tax Collector (City Clerk) is given a written order from the Board authorizing the reduction, and this written order permanently attached to the duplicate tax receipt which is a part of the City Records.

In the collection of taxes, particularly of delinquent taxes, we noted many instances of reduction of taxes ordered by the Board of Commissioners. In the four year period under audit, the reductions authorized by the Commissioners on delinquent tax collections amounted to $12,676.08, and on Current Taxes, the reductions totalled $3,252.52. While this has become an established practice, it is our recommendation that it should be discouraged. In the event that taxes assessed are too high, the property owner has due recourse to the Board of Equalization for correction of the assessment. After that Board has met, tax payments should be held to be due as assessed and collection made on that basis. Any other course is decidedly unfair to the taxpayers who pay their taxes promptly.

As of the date of our audit, the 1932 tax roll, after all corrections were made, showed a total of $54,500.97, of which $26,798.95 had been collected and $27,702.02 remained uncollected. Since March 31, 1933, a considerable part of the latter amount was collected, the balance unpaid as of June 1, being a transfer to the delinquent tax rolls.

System
Various irregularities in the records have occurred from time to time, due to a failure to observe system in handling. For example, the issuance of a Tax Receipt as of a certain date, accepting therefor a post-dated check or a check redeemed by partial payments from the maker of the check, the actual receipt of the money being reported as of the day received, not coinciding with the date appearing on the Tax Receipt. This is a most irregular practice and even though authorized by the Commissioners in the past, should not be continued or permitted, since to anyone not knowing the attending circumstances; it would appear that the collector had received the money as of the date of the receipt and not reported it until, in some cases, several weeks later.

In the Accounts Receivable of the Water Department, there has been a practice of allowing credits for fast meters and other causes, but there has been no subsidiary record kept showing either the reason or the authority for these credits. The dangers of such a system were pointed out to the City Manager, and steps taken by him to install a new system of records to eliminate this. We also, noted that on the accounts of some former City employees credits have been entered, covering their monthly water bills and no record on the Daily Report of Receipts, either Cash received or credits allowed as of the date appearing on the account card. Since only a detail audit of all Water Department accounts, both as to billing and receipts, would reveal all such instances and the cost of such an audit probably be far beyond any possible recovery to the city, we would not recommend any such investigation.

A Trial Balance run of the Water Department Accounts Receivable as of March 31, 1933, shows a total of $10,506.85, which amount we have set up in the Assets of the City. The age and amounts of a considerable number of these accounts are such as to indicate that they are uncollectible. A careful check of the accounts should be made by some one fully familiar with local conditions and all accounts which are considered doubtful should be charged off. Recoveries on these accounts may be handled the same as current receipts, but the corresponding debit should be against the reserve for doubtful accounts.

In connection with these accounts, we noted that the collection of connection and transfer charges was not handled uniformly, being entered on the account card only when not paid in cash at the time of application for service. This, as well as all other items, should be entered on the account and some identifying notation made.

We also noted that on September 30, 1932, a Journal Entry was made in the amount of $1,650.00, charging off that amount in Meter Deposits, on account of the removal of the consumers from the city, but that credits to the customers accounts were not made.

This entry should be reversed and the deposits credited on the accounts. If more than sufficient to cover the balance on the account, the remainder should be credited to miscellaneous income; if not sufficient, the balance remaining on the account should be charged off as uncollectible.

Water Bond Purchase Account

The purchase by the City, out of Water and Sewer funds of eight water plant revenue bonds, not yet matured, at a cost of 90 plus accrued interest, appears to be a very irregular proceeding. Our investigation of this account revealed little beyond what appears on the City Records, which is as follows: On April 29, 1932, Check No. 1, Water & Sewer Account, Continental National Bank, Fort Worth, was issued to the First National Bank, Cisco, for their Cashier's checks in the amount of $3,659.33 for the purchase of Water Plant Revenue Bonds of 1926, Bonds No. 197, 8, 9, and 200 at 90 plus Accrued Interest. This Cashier's check was payable to Theo. Ferguson, was endorsed "For Deposit Only—Theo. Ferguson" and was deposited in the Fort Worth National Bank, April 30, 1932.

On May 3, 1932, Check No. 2, Water and Sewer Account, Continental National Bank, Ft. Worth, was issued to the First National Bank, Cisco, for a draft on the First National Bank, Ft. Worth, in the amount of $1,831.32, for the purchase of Water Plant Revenue Bonds of 1926, Bonds No. 195 and 196, at 90 plus accrued interest. This draft was payable to Theo. Ferguson, was endorsed "For Deposit Only—Theo. Ferguson" and was deposited in the Ft. Worth National Bank, May 5, 1932.

On March 28, 1933, Check No. 494, Water and Sewer Account, First National Bank, Cisco, was issued to that bank for a draft on the First National Bank, Ft. Worth, in the amount of $1,819.00 for the purchase of Water Plant Revenue Bonds of 1926, Bonds No. 193 and 194 at 90 plus accrued interest. This draft was payable to Theo. Ferguson was endorsed "For deposit only—Theo. Ferguson" and was deposited in the Ft. Worth National Bank, March 30, 1933.

Attempts to secure further information through the Ft. Worth Banks as to the disposition of these funds met with failure, the bank holding it to be a private account, not subject to our investigation unless ordered by the Courts after due legal procedure.

To sum up this transaction, the city purchased $8,000.00 worth of its own bonds which had not matured, paying $7,200.00 for them. The payments for these bonds were handled in a very round about and irregular manner and were paid to Mr. Theo. Ferguson, an accountant of Eastland, who had been auditing the books of the city for several years.

In view of the fact that the City was in default on a large amount of its indebtedness, this transaction was not only reprehensible but, in our opinion, illegal as well.

The price paid for these bonds, which was 90, was probably twice what they were worth.

We would recommend that the City take this matter up with its legal department for whatsoever action may be deemed best.

Permanent Assets
A general reappraisal and reduction in valuation of the city's Permanent Assets was made by the City Manager in cooperation with the Board of Commissioners during the course of our audit. These reduced values have been set into the Balance sheet. A separate schedule of these assets also appears as a part of this report.

Notes Payable
The Notes Payable appears on the books as $19,347.20, of which $17,047.00 is the balance due from the interest and sinking fund to the Water Department, offset by a like amount under Water Department notes receivable. The remaining portion $1,400.20 is a balance due the Texas State Bank on a note dated May 30, 1931. At the time of the bank's closing in October 1931, the city had several small balances on deposit in this bank. The State Banking Commission allowed all these balances, as well as the amount of the 1931 taxes and the September 1931 Water bill for the bank as offsets against notes due by the City. A number of small payments have been made on this note by the City since the closing of the bank, reducing it to its present balance.

Personal Bonds
We found no evidence in the course of our audit as to the existence of fidelity bond coverage on any of the City employees other than the City Manager. Mr. J. F. Little, the City Clerk, who acts in the capacity of Tax Collector and Water Department Cashier, stated to us that he was not under bond from the time he was appointed in October 1932 until after the present City Commission took office and appointed Mr. Parker as City Manager. Mr. Little is, at present, under a $1,000.00 bond, which, by reason of the amount of cash handled, we believe to be inadequate. A bond of $5,000.00 would be more nearly in line with the collections passing through his hands. The bond covering Mr. Parker, the City Manager, is sufficient for that office. Since these two are the only employees of the city handling the city's cash receipts, no other bonds are necessary.

Journal Entries
We have prepared journal entries, covering corrections and adjustments in your records, a schedule of which was sent to the City Manager separately.

Remarks
The condition of the records made it very difficult at times, to ascertain the true state of affairs. We have endeavored to give the City a thorough audit and to assist it in every possible way, in straightening out its records.

New General ledger accounts, as of April 1, 1933, have been opened and are being sent to you under separate cover. If we can be of any further assistance to you, please advise us.

VIOLATORS TO GET FINES AND TERMS IN JAIL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Fines and jail terms faced violators of recovery codes and agreements today.

President Roosevelt invoked the penal section of the national industrial recovery act last night in a sweeping executive order and delegated full powers to Hugh Johnson, administrator, to prevent violations of the law and force compliance with codes and agreements.

Johnson immediately supplemented the president's order with regulations placing those who display the Blue Eagle under the president's re-employment agreement on an equal footing with those for whom codes have been formed. His regulation also requires surrender of the Blue Eagle on demand.

House Took Burden From Governor On Salary Raises

AUSTIN.—Refusal of the Texas House of Representatives to ask Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson to submit state salary raises as a legislative topic of the special session was a clear cut victory for the administration strategists.

It lifted from the governor's shoulders any blame for not voluntarily taking such a step in line with the National Recovery program. "She now can say the house showed such opposition that submission would have been futile."

Rep. T. H. McGrigor of Austin, a Ferguson leader, made an illuminating observation to the House. "Disatisfied employes," he said, "can quit. Their places can be filled in 48 hours."

Most of the state employes are hold-overs from the Moody and Sterling administrations. The Ferguson men were greatly irked at the beginning of the administration to find few open places for the faithful. If present employes quit, Ferguson supporters can succeed them.

That thought probably had not occurred to most of the legislators who enthusiastically voted against taking up salary adjustments. They remembered the applause they received as economizers when state appropriation bills were reduced at the regular session.

Salary increase advocates reminded them that national recovery plans and prices were not then existent. One considerable group of employes rested more easily when salary adjustment was made a closed incident. The University of Texas had taken advantage of an appropriation bill provision to readjust salaries. This was a provision that school receiving federal aid might make the adjustments. Technically the University at Austin and Texas A. & M. college at Bryan are one institution. A. & M. gets federal funds. The attorney general ruled with the University that the appropriation bill provision covers both.

"The legislators wrote the appropriation act. They should not feel badly because we utilize its provisions," said President H. Y. Benedict of the University.

If salary readjustment had been taken up at the special session, some members of the appropriations committee were intent on reducing university salaries. The cuts might have reached even to President Benedict.

Auto Parking Lot Replaces Famed Inn

MONTREAL, Canada.—One of Montreal's most famous historic landmarks, the old St. Lawrence hall, famed internationally as a hostelry par excellence, noted for good foods and comfortable accommodations for 72 years, is no more.

Brick by brick a demolition company has carted away the out-moded hostelry here. "The old giving place to new" can be given that by the passing of the St. Lawrence hall. Where royalty in the person of the late King Edward VII dined and made merry on his visit to the city in 1861, a parking station for automobiles will soon be opened.

FALL FAILED TO INJURE BABE

DETROIT.—Wallace Graham, 19-months-old, was none the worse for a two-story fall from the home of his parents here recently. The baby was rocking in his chair near a window when he rolled over the windowsill and fell to the ground. He suffered no injuries, hospital attendants reported.

BIKES MUST HAVE TAIL LIGHTS

NEW ORLEANS.—Because of the number of bicycle accidents here recently, Commissioner Gommila has warned cyclists that their machines must have tail lights.

Acts 13:1-5, 13-15, 14:19-23
PAUL IN ASIA MINOR

"Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger and Lucius of Cyrene, and Mannen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul."

This the opening verse of our lesson sums up in a very precise manner the situation in Antioch at this time (A. D. 47-49).

The Christians were no longer just a congregation but an organized church. They proved this by setting to work to establish other institutions of the same kind.

Prophet means "foreteller" and also "fortteller." They had foresight into divine truth and proclaimed it to men. Teachers were not so exalted a people. Their work was confined to the declaration and explanation of religious truth.

These men were true to their conversion and worked faithfully, heeding God's call at all times.

"And as they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work where unto I have called them."

Things was a human and also divine commission. The prophets of the church through which the Holy Spirit had spoken were acting under this direction. The Holy Spirit went with these first missionaries.

"And from thence they sailed to Cyprus." Cyprus was only 70 miles from Antioch and the native home of Barnabas. He was widely acquainted there and also many of the Christians in Antioch had relatives and friends on the island. They could furnish the missionaries with letters of introduction. Cyprus is 110 miles long, 30 to 60 miles broad and mountainous. There were rich copper mines there and hundreds of Jews were working in these. Paul and Barnabas thought this would be excellent soil in which to plant a new church.

The whole story of this tour from Antioch in Syria in Antioch in Pisidia, Cyprus thence to Perga in Pamphlyia and north to Antioch is one of absorbing interest.

Their experiences were many and varied, working without rest, being thought gods, healing, and teaching, till at last "they stoned Paul." But Paul lived to yet bring the glad tidings to many Gentiles. He also changed his name from Saul, his Jewish name, to Paul, his Roman name.

The more study we devote to this calling, this journey, the more clearly we can trace the controlling force of the Holy Spirit in the inception and progress of foreign missions.

The Holy Spirit is found today to be the controlling force in the lives of our great missionaries, preachers, teachers and also Christians.

Meditation and prayer are the keys to this noble life. So many speak of their confusion in this day of swiftly moving life. There is only one way to avoid this. Daily opening of the Bible in prayerful meditation, ever listening for the still small voice.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.—Mark 16:15.

Canada Fears Rum Running Will Start

GREAT FALLS, Mont.—Revival of rum-running into Canada—a practice which 60 years ago directly led to organization of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police—is feared by border authorities when repeal is effective in the United States.

An excise tax of anything less than $5 a gallon on liquor in the United States would make bootlegging into Canada a very profitable business, authorities say.

In Vancouver a picturesque fleet of rum runners' boats has been built up by bootleggers, who found prohibition in the United States a strong aid to "business," with the end of the 18th Amendment believed in sight many rum runners now are considering the possibility of bringing cheap United States liquors into Canada.

Sixty years ago similar "traders" built up a tremendous traffic in "firewater" across the border from Montana into Alberta and British Columbia. The liquor went chiefly to Indians. To offset this trade Canadian forces decided to send a strong military force into the area.

The Mounted Police force was organized with an initial corps of 309 officers and men. They marched directly across country to Whoop-Up. Whoop-Up was the main stockade and gathering place of the whisky traders. In a single raid the place was wiped out, and a new fort established. This post became Ft. Macleod.

The drive against the liquor dealers was accomplished under great difficulties, a majority of the Indians occupying the area being savagely opposed to all intervention by white men. Eventually the troopers cleaned out the traders.

A brisk and happy morning hour

"A well of water"

ONE of the pressing problems before humanity today is that of obtaining a sufficiency of supply, and this need, so universally felt, seems to have become more or less ingrained in the thinking of men; for even if one's own requirements are provided for he cannot shut his eyes to the privations which seem to be the lot of many of those around him.

The machinery ordinarily employed in social service seems totally inadequate to meet the great demands of the moment, with the result that men are searching diligently for a new solution to this problem.

Through its teaching regarding the nature of God, Christian Science gives a definite answer to the question. With no uncertain voice it declares that God is the Father-Mother, the one intelligent cause of all that exists, and that in the infinitude of His love is to be found all that is needed for each one of His children.

It states that God is the Father-Mind, and that in infinite Mind there is abundant provision for every idea. It is inconceivable that God, the Life, the Soul, of all that exists, could withhold anything necessary for the well-being of His creation.

On page 2 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," the textbook of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Shall we plead for more at the open fount, which is pouring forth more than we accept?"

Christian Science leads us to look more closely into our own thinking, in order that we may correct it and thus obtain release from our difficulties. And in doing so we find that what is needed is not that God should give more, but that the individual should be receptive to what is already being poured out in abundance.

Perhaps one of the reasons this seems difficult is that we may be trying to multiply material objects, instead of opening our thought to spiritual ideas. God is Spirit, and His gifts are spiritual ideas; and as we receive these gifts in consciousness and realize the abundance of good, this right knowing becomes externalized in whatever seems necessary to supply the human need. It is requisite, then, to gain a perception of spiritual ideas, and honestly accept them as the only real substance.

The story of Hagar in the wilderness, recorded in the twenty-first chapter of Genesis, affords an illustration of this. There we read that Abraham had sent away advertising of this type, there are many other ways by which misinformation can reach the public. Undoubtedly there are many persons who, being thus detoured from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer, are fleeced out of much money for a cure," state Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

"There are but two ways of treating cancer. First, by surgery; and second, by the use of radium or X-ray. Treatment must be started early and in the hands of a competent surgeon. Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors and is used in nearly two-thirds of the cases. X-ray or radium is used to advantage in one-third of the cases. Frequently the two methods are combined. Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves, and diets are valueless.

"The great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency and it is unfortunate that the majority of those with cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond a permanent cure. No hope should be placed in fake cancer prophets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to your physician of any symptoms which may be suspected to be the beginning of cancer, should be relied upon. These symptoms are: Any unusual bleeding from any body opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body, any persistent more, particularly on the face or mouth and chronic indigestion. These conditions may not be cancer, but sometimes they are forerunners of the more common types of this disease. Where cancer is suspected, do not delay, but consult your physician at once."

Londoner died two minutes after the time he had predicted for his death. Death may be late, but it never disappoints.

Hagar, the bondmaid, with her child Ishmael, and that, after wandering in the wilderness until her supply of water was exhausted, she finally in despair laid the lad under some bushes and sat a good way off weeping. The narrative presents an appealing picture, for as this climax is reached it continues, "And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water." Now much of the significance of the story lies in the fact that Hagar had not seen the well. Eyes blinded with fear and misery, jealousy and resentment, do not readily perceive the present good. When she looked up, however, her vision became clearer, and that which appeared to be an immediate necessity was seen to be just at hand. This may help us to gain some vision of what Christ Jesus showed the woman at the well in Samaria, when he told her of the "well of water springing up into everlasting life." Does not this bring the comforting assurance that even those who have been accounted sinners may gain the perception of the healing waters of spiritual truth, and thereby find their true, unswollen life in Spirit?

It is well to take frequent stock of our thinking, that we may be aware of its nature. Are we accepting the doubts and fears, the resentful, miserable, confused thinking which constitutes mortal mind? This so-called mind can never see good, for it is not of God, and cannot recognize that which emanates from Him. Its suggestions are always based on evil or lack; but we do not have to accept them. We are free to turn from them; and as we do so and listen only for the voice of Truth, our perception of good becomes clearer, our sense of God's allness stronger, and we attain a richer concept of all-embracing Love, which gives impartially and unstintingly.

The basic fact of the infinitude of good must be kept constantly in thought. We need courage, devotion, and, above all, patience, continually to replace suggestions of material lack with the truth of Love's provision, and to hold steadfastly to this spiritual fact in the face of all evidence to the contrary. But, as Jesus gave thanks at the grave of Lazarus before the material sign of healing appeared, so we should thank God that, no matter what seems to be around us, we have perceived the healing truth which is as a well of water in the midst of a barren and thirsty land.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Baked onions are unusual and very good.
Kale Scalloped With Bacon
Two cups cooked and chopped kale, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 egg yolks, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-3 teaspoon each pepper and paprika, few gratings nutmeg, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 4 slices bacon, 2 tablespoons grated cheese, 2 tablespoons fine dried bread crumbs.
Cut bacon in dice and cook until crisp. Drain and keep hot. Combine kale with butter, egg yolks, salt, pepper, paprika and nutmeg. Put half in a buttered baking dish. Cover with minced onion and bacon. Cover with remaining kale. Sprinkle top with grated cheese and bread crumbs. Bake in a hot oven until brown and serve from baking dish.
Kohl-rabi is delicious served in a mock Hollandaise sauce.
Turnips in piquant sauce are so very good that one would mistrust their humble origin.
Kale scalloped with bacon is nourishing and appetizing.

A National Farm Strike Is Feared In Northwest

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 19.—A threat of a national farm strike was heard again today as the wheat-growing states of the north-west and sister states of Iowa and Wisconsin grumbled at the failure of farm products to reach cost of production levels in response to the agricultural program.
In Wisconsin and Minnesota the Farmers Holiday association, most militant of farm organizations, quietly has been polling its local units for sentiment on such a strike. The result, the United Press was told today, has been strongly in favor of the move.

Federation of Women's Clubs To Meet In Cisco

The Eastland County Federation of Women's Clubs meets Saturday at 2:30 p. m., in Cisco at the Laguna hotel.

This is the first year that the rural home demonstration clubs of the county have furnished the federation with a president. Mrs. Louis Pitcock of Ranger is the president.

The meeting at Cisco will be the first program of the season and all women of the county, whether members of the federation or not, are urged to attend.

A feature of the program will be reports from delegates to the A. & M. short course and the State fair at Dallas.

Cisco club women will furnish music for the occasion.

The program will also feature a national art exhibit.

Jr. Hi Bramhas To Play Cisco Midgets Today

In retaliation of their decisive and unexpected defeat of last week the Cisco grammar school Midgets are invading Eastland Friday evening for a game with the hard fighting junior high school Bramhas. Since it seemed that the Midgets were expecting a rather easy victory, but instead received a bitter defeat that they will be coming better prepared and more determined than they appeared 19 days ago. The Cisco boys learned too late that their aerial attack was quite effective and they will probably not wait so long to begin their passing in their next encounter. The Eastland team has been strengthened by the return of Roy Taylor as halfback.

Since these boys are playing with practically no equipment at all, there will be a small charge of 10 cents per person for all who wish to see the game in order to try to raise funds to start a junior athletic association. If we expect to have winning high school teams in the future, we must encourage our Junior High school boys of today. Let's all go out to Maverick field Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and help the Bramhas down the Midgets.

Eastland Meeting Is Attended By Noted Churchmen

Attendance at the Fellowship service at the Eastland Presbyterian church Wednesday evening was well though not largely attended. The Presbyterian congregation is not a large one. An interesting program was rendered and dinner was served.

Speakers for the occasion were Rev. Eugene H. Surface, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lamesa; Rev. S. P. Collins, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Cross Plains; Dr. L. B. Gray, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian churches at Ranger and Strawn, and Mrs. J. M. F. Gill of Abilene, president of the presbyterial. Mrs. Gill spoke before the dinner and the other speakers followed the banquet.

Dinner was served in the church parlors under the direction of Mesdames Jas. Horton, Larner, Roy Townsend, C. W. Geue, and J. LeRoy Arnold. Announcement was made that Rev. L. B. Gray of Ranger would preach at the Eastland church Sunday morning, Oct. 29, at 11:00 o'clock.

Youth Pays School Cost With Stories

KENOSHA, Wis.—Irving Wallace, 17, doesn't gamble, yet horse races and prize fights have proved sore things which paid his way through high school and built up a reserve for his coming college days.

The Kenosha high school senior began to sell stories when he was 13. A prize fight magazine liked his stories so well that it gave him a contract to write a series of five articles on immortals of the ring.

Wallace turned his attention to horse racing, studied the charts, developed a system and—instead of betting—told his friends about it. Their success with his system attracted attention of a racing magazine and Wallace was commissioned to write a series of articles and several turf stories.

In addition to other writing for profit Wallace also writes and edits copy for his high school paper.

Germany's Withdrawal From League Of Nations Viewed With Much Alarm Throughout All European Countries

Editor's Note: The following article on the broader aspects and possible repercussions of Germany's resignation from the League of Nations was written by Webb Miller, European news manager of the United Press, who for 17 years has covered all important international conferences. He is present in New York.

By WEBB MILLER
European News Manager of the United Press
(Copyright 1933 by United Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Final collapse of the great plans for establishment of a new world order as the outgrowth of the World War is hastened by Germany's resignation from the League of Nations and rupture of the disarmament conference.

Hope for a new post-war world system upon a world parliament to settle international conflicts peacefully instead of by slaughter, and hope for universal disarmament, international co-operation, arbitration of disputes, and treaties of conciliation and non-aggression are dealt a shattering blow.

Attainment of the aims for which millions marched into the "war to end war" and died seems more hopeless than at any time since the armistice.

Danger of eventual war is greater today than at any moment since 1918.

Nearly 8,000,000 men in the World War are armed and in training for war—millions more than in 1914. Nations are spending hundreds of millions of dollars more now in preparation for slaughter than ever before in history. More terrible and effective means of killing have been invented.

Today there are more potential causes of wars than ever before as a result of re-drawing the map of Europe by the Treaty of Versailles. Bitter economic wars throughout the world are breeding real wars. Reputations and defaults of international debts are creating new hostilities. The police of depression of the vanquished by the victor has engendered hatreds which will take generations to wipe out.

In the considered opinion of the writer who has been on the scene continuously since the Great war, the world is facing the most dangerous crisis of this generation. Germany's withdrawal has served as the detonator of explosive conditions which have steadily accumulated since the minute the war ended.

Only the coolest and effective statesmanship can avoid catastrophe and eventual European war. Germany's action paradoxically, may transpire to be the best thing that could have happened at this time. It may serve to shock public opinion and statesmen into squarely facing the dangers of the world situation and achieving reduction of armaments and rectification of injustices which rankle the defeated nations.

Hitler's abrupt abandonment of the League of Nations and the disarmament conference has shaken the delicate diplomatic equilibrium of Europe. Among some of the repercussions likely are:

Acceleration of the movement toward the pre-war system of alliances and "balance of power" with division of Europe into hostile armed camps.

Abandonment of the post-war scheme of big international conferences to discuss European affairs.

Strengthening of the present ententes and offensive-defensive alliances in anticipation of the possibility of war in the future.

Redoubled burst of preparation for "defense" and increases in armaments.

RKO-Radio Has Hit In "Ann Vickers"

Chalk up one on your list of best ten for RKO-Radio's "Ann Vickers," freshly made from the great Sinclair Lewis story that was published simultaneously in thirteen countries and eleven languages.

With John Cromwell as director, "Ann Vickers" becomes a living exponent of the modern women. The screen, of course, quickens the pace of the story of a woman's career and loves, while the background become more sharply de-world disappointed in love. Others in a capable cast are Conrad Nagel, Bruce Cabot, Edna May Oliver and Sam Hardy.

To Edna May Oliver, the tall comedienne, falls the task of providing quaintness, and as usual she more than makes good in the contrast role.

Settings and backgrounds are wide in scope and RKO-Radio has spared no expense to have them match the technical detail of the book. The virile, vital story of Ann Vickers fits into them like a glove and the entire production has been handsomely staged by the company that bid the highest for the screen rights to the "book" of the century.

Arlen, Morris Head Cast of Timely Film

Richard Arlen, Chester Morris and Genevieve Tobin head the cast of Paramount's "Golden Harvest," coming to the Lyric Theatre.

This is the first of ten pictures to be made by Producer Charles R. Rogers for the Paramount program during the 1933-1934 season. Also featured in the cast are Roscoe Ates and Julie Haydon.

Filmed almost entirely "on location," the picture contains some hitherto unphotographed scenes of the Oregon wheat fields during the harvesting season and the hectic excitement in the Wheat Pit of the Chicago Board of Trade during a raiding session.

In the picture, Arlen and Morris play the roles of two brothers, Walt and Chris Martin, born to the soil but lacking a real love for farming. Morris seeks a fortune in Chicago, becomes a big-time speculator in the grain he knows so well—as the "Big Bear" driving down the price of wheat. Unwittingly he causes the farmers to lose their lands, brings about foreclosure actions.

Arlen stays on the farm, and as the price of wheat drops, goes radical, organizes the farmers, brings about a farm strike to stop the flow of food to the cities. Morris sees in the strike a prime opportunity for "bulling" the market, combines with his brother ostensibly in the farmers' cause.

The human equation causes their failure. A crash brings about his financial ruin in a surging climax, but it brings to life again the brothers' loyalty.

Streamlined Buses Reach Fifth Avenue

NEW YORK.—The old argument over "which came first, the chicken or the egg," is finding a modern counterpart here in the problems facing industrial designers.

To be specific, the public's been wanting speed and the designers provided it, wrapped up in neat streamline packages. Now the fickle public likes the characteristic racy streamline profile, so even when speed isn't a factor, the purveyors to the public taste are dressing up their products.

The trend was brought out in the open on America's Main Street, Fifth Avenue, when the bus company operating jugsernauts for a nation's shoppers came out recently with a shiny new model catering to "streamline tastes" even though its speed is keyed to the most congested street on the continent.

"These changes are in keeping with the new demand for modern automobile design and the streamline effect," said Frederic T. Wood, president of the Fifth Avenue Coach Company.

Fashion Modes In Barrymore Feature

Striking gowns in the new mode are displayed to perfection by Frances Dee and Dorothy Jordan in their supporting roles with Lionel Barrymore in "One Man's Journey," depicting the career of a typical country doctor, coming to the Lyric Theatre.

Miss Jordan wears an especially attractive evening gown made of bagheera cloth and banded with sable. Simple, graceful lines and richness of material make this gown unusually lovely. A peach satin night gown, trimmed with alencon lace and featuring the little puffed sleeves, is also of stylish appeal, particularly as worn by Miss Jordan.

Mrs. Dee wears three exceptionally smart outfits in "One Man's Journey." One black chiffon dinner dress has a distinctive charm with its form fitting cut on bias lines, a touch of color in the two large cream and black crepe roses at the neckline and the leg-of-mutton sleeves which fit tightly at the wrist.

Another of Miss Dee's outfits is a tan ostrich cloth street suit with a separate cape collar of caracul, with which she carries a little barrel muff and wears a brown stitched wool hat. The third ensemble is of two-piece black crepe, trimmed with white linen which creates a startling contrast. The jacket has the new broad shoulders, and sailor collar edged with the linen. A chic little hat with brim of black stitched wool and crown of pleated crepe ribbon completes this ensemble.

All of these gowns were created by Walter Plunkett, fashion creator at the RKO studios.

Ciam Ban Lifted To Aid Jobless

BELOIT, Wis.—Removal of a 14-year ban on clamming in the Rock River to relieve unemployment has revived an old industry here.

The smell of cooking clams and huge piles of shells mark the location of scores of camps along the river banks.

Five or six bushels of shells a day is an average catch. They bring about $35 a ton "on the bank," or as much as $65 a ton delivered in the city. The shells run about 40 bushels to the ton.

Wilbur Hoffman, Rockford, Ill., who collected five tons of shells in ten days, has the record catch to date.
