By BEULAH K. HICKS
Acts 16:9-15, 25-31

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved," the words of our Golden Text and the theme of all Paul's belief and messages.

"And a vision appeared to Paul in the night." A man of Macedonia, recognized by his manner of dress and confirmed by his speech stood before Paul, "beseeching him and saying, Come over into Macedonia and help us."

Paul forgot about his disappointment in his plans to go to Asia and followed the leadership of the Holy Spirit wholeheartedly. There was no hesitation.

"We sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel unto them."

"Concluding" represents a Greek word implying careful thought. Paul summed up his experiences and knew that the Gospel was the greatest help that he could bring anyone.

I am not ashamed of the Gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth, Romans 1:16.

Paul went to Philippi which was the chief city of Macedonia, but not the capital.

Sabbath came and Paul and his associates, finding no synagogue, went down to the river Gangites on whose side was a place of prayer. A prayer-place was usually a simple enclosure open to the sky and near where water could be easily obtained.

They sat down and began to teach the women gathered there. God opened the heart of Lydia, a seller of purple, probably a widow carrying on her husband's business. Lydia was a very forceful character for she and her household, children, servants and trade assistants were baptized.

She then invited the men of God to visit in her home. Again we glimpse the independence of Paul, who always paid his own way. He was reluctant to go. "And she constrained us." This is a strong verb in Greek, implying the overcoming of reluctance. She wanted to learn more of God from these men that she might, Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say rejoice, Phil. 4:4.

The text skips over to Paul and his party who had been beaten with rods, leaving them maimed and crippled and cast into the inner prison for healing a slave girl, owned by a company of utterances supposed to be fortune telling.

The outer prison was vile and the inner prison was foul beyond our imagining. There was no light, no fresh air, slimy, damp, with bad odors and swarming with vermin. Their feet were fastened in stocks so that they could not move about.

Paul did not forget his message. The prisoners heard their songs and prayers. "And suddenly there was a great earthquake." The stone building trembled until all the doors fell down.

The jailer sought death, thinking the prisoners had escaped. He glimpsed the protecting power of God and cried out to be saved. In simple, earnest words, Paul said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house, Rom. 16:31.

SWEDISH BIRDS GET HOUSES

STOCKHOLM.—Bird houses by the thousands have been set out by the Swedish government forestry service to get the birds' aid in the fight against insects. Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Ford and their sister, Miss Capitola Brown, visited relatives in Ranger on Monday.

Thursday afternoon a very delightful club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ellen Oldham of Gorman. For several years it has been the custom of the Gorman Excelsior club and the Desdemona 21 Study club to exchange programs, and this was the latter club's Federation Day program. A slow rain all that day interfered with the attendance but quite a good crowd was present and enjoyed the interesting talks on Federation objectives made by Mrs. Louis Pitcock of Ranger, president of Eastland County Federation; Mrs. James Horton, secretary of the sixth district Federation, and Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, president of the sixth district, both of Eastland. Another guest from Eastland was Mrs. T. J. Haley, a sister of Mrs. J. E. Walker and Mrs. Morrow of Gorman. The guests were greeted at the door by the hostess, Mrs. Oldham, who then presented them to Mmes. Pitcock, Horton, Perkins, Roy Ashburn and W. A. Sutton. While the guests were arriving several popular piano solos were played by Mrs. Aaron Henslee of Desdemona. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. W. A. Sutton, president of the Excelsior club, who welcomed the visiting clubwomen and turned the meeting over to Mrs. Roy Ashburn, president of the 21 Study club, who responded to the words of welcome and then led the program which began with the song, "Here's To Our Friends" by Mmes. Plummer Ashburn, D. E. Hoover, R. D. Wright, C. M. Bratton and Miss Nora Robert with Mrs. Aaron Henslee, pianist. This was followed by the talks by Mmes. Pitcock, Horton and Perkins, each of whom brought a most interesting message to the clubwomen. The same group of Desdemona singers rendered the song "Humoresque" beautifully. The closing number was a piano solo, splendidly rendered by Mrs. Aaron Henslee. Guests then were invited into the dining room where Mrs. Frances Moak presided at the silver coffee urn, and Mrs. J. E. Walker and Mrs. Ed Sutton assisted in the serving of dainty sandwiches, cookies, nuts and coffee. Those from Desdemona who went were Mmes. D. B. Parks, Mattie Henry, John Mendenhall, W. C. Bedford, C. M. Bratton, Fred Welder, R. D. Wright, D. E. Hoover, W. H. Davis, Aaron Henslee, C. W. Maltby, Roy Ashburn, Plummer Ashburn and Miss Nora Robert.

Oak Grove

OAK GROVE, Nov. 18.—Our farmers have been so busy thrashing peanuts the past two weeks that they don't say anything worth repeating, or go anywhere worth reporting or do anything else to get talked about. In fact they are the busiest bunch of fellows I know anything about.

Last Thursday morning a fine rain began falling here shortly after midnight and continued throughout most of the day. Sufficient moisture is stored in the ground to make fall plowing good for several weeks. A strong north wind accompanied the rain to send temperatures down to within less than two degrees of the frost line. Some of our farmers have not dug their sweet potatoes and this spell is making cold shivers run up and down their backs.

This writer was treated to a luncheon last Sunday with snap beans and new Irish potatoes fresh from the garden, besides the regular season's vegetables such as okra, onions, tomatoes, turnips, etc. "Boy you can't keep a good garden down."

Van Hall and wife of Flatwoods and Henry Johnson and wife of Cisco spent the day last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Hall and incidentally helped thrash nearly 600 bushels of peanuts.

Troy Cannaday and wife are spending a few days visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Kinnard of Shady Grove and while there will make up a crop of sorghum cane into syrup.

Blanton Says—

ing large travel allowances, and retired on pay after 30 years.

Government employes constitute the favored few. They are entitled to the same consideration shown other citizens, no more, no less. They have no political campaigns, pay out nothing to hold their jobs, and are not beset continuously with demands for contributions to this and that which congressmen must endure. Yet many draw better pay than some governors. In one state the governor draws only $3,000, in three states only $4,000, and in two states $4,500.

It costs the government $13,000 to put each cadet through either West Point or Annapolis. In the Record of April 8, 1932, I showed that able-bodied generals and admirals are retiring as young as 45, and commercializing their government training by drawing huge salaries from corporations, while also drawing retired pay for life from the government. I mentioned General James G. Harbord, on retired pay, and for years drawing a salary of $50,000 per year from the Radio Corporation of America. His prestige and chance to get army and navy contracts does it. I also mentioned General Herbert B. Crosby, then drawing $6,000 retired pay, and $9,000 salary as commissioner; General Mason M. Patrick then drawing $6,000 retired pay, and a salary of $7,500 as utility head; General Pelham D. Glassford then drawing $4,312.44 retired pay and $8,000 salary as police major, which situation since has been changed, and I gave an extended list of lawyers and doctors in one bureau drawing large retired pay and also large annual salaries. I showed in the record of April 21, 1932, that one bureau had 876 lawyers, some of whom through the workings of your employes' classification board had had their salaries raised from $1,500 to $8,000 per annum. The classification act of 1923, which raised many $1,500 salaries to $5,000, $6,000 and $7,500, was put over by just such pledges as you are now exacting from congressmen in vacation.

You entered civil service employment 10 years ago at a salary of $1,100, while as secretary of the civil service the government was paying you last August $5,600 per annum.

American taxpayers are tired of standing the tremendous overhead of government expense, national, state, county and city. They demand reductions. If you will send me a list of all your members who are dissatisfied with their government pay, and are willing to give up their positions, I will furnish from my district 500 qualified applicants for each position, who will gladly take the job at a lower salary. You had better let well enough alone. The people are waking up. They want pledges made to them and not to selfish groups. They want their new deal continued. They are backing the president 100 per cent in reducing expenditures.

Very sincerely,
THOMAS L. BLANTON.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED
Chick Collins and his wife, Connie, don't get any more of a wife in Panama, see entertainers in the city. Connie wants Chick to go to New York to try his chances there. But he refuses, stating they have no money. One night John Bradley, president of the American Broadcasting Company, is present in the city. Connie is introduced to him and he makes casual mention that if she is in New York he should see her about an audition. He knows her as Miss Eiley and does not know that she is married. She becomes enthusiastic for her husband's sake, for she thinks he has a great voice. On the strength of Bradley's statement, Connie leaves Chick over into going to New York. They are entering New York harbor.

HOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"How are you, Lib, old gal?" Chick grinned as he leaned over the rail. They were passing the Statue of Liberty. "Say, you're looking fine. What's that you're holding up there—a schooner of beer?" "Connie smiled. "Friend of yours?" "My first sweetheart." "Well, she's a nice girl, but she's where all ex-sweethearts should be." "What do you mean—on a pedestal?" "No. In the harbor." Chick grinned, then shook his head. "Look at that town! Isn't she beautiful." The New York skyline appeared like a miniature fairyland, with the noon-day sun making each window a pane of gold. "Uh-huh. And plenty of it, too." "Sure! This is the only place," said Chick. "The big town. Why, a fellow just goes to seed in a place like Panama." "You're right, Chick." "Certainly, I'm right. No question about it. It's the difference in climate, I guess."

"It'd make me feel cheap—keep reminding me I'm broke. Give me a knif, will you?" (Posed by Wallace Ford and Heta Twelvetrees.)

some money comes in. We can stand it till then." She looked at him appealingly. "Can't we, sweet?" Chick grinned. "Oh, sure—but I still think we should have gone to a hotel. You know you got to put on a front in this town. Everybody does."

"Even when they haven't got any money?" "That's how you get it," answered Chick. "What do they do when they can't pay their bills?" "I don't know—put it on the cuff, or write home for dough." "Well, Connie's voice was firm. "Well, darling, we're not going to."

Boys and Girls World Club
The beautiful teaching of inter-social relations in progress in the programs for the Boys and Girls World club of the Methodist church, is at present devoted to the study of Japan and Japanese children and is proving very interesting to the young people.

The club met as usual Wednesday afternoon in the classroom of the Methodist church, with Mrs. J. U. Johnson, director, assisted in the program by Mrs. Earl Bender.

A lovely talk of the joy of giving on Thanksgiving, and the meaning of the day, was interestingly related by Mrs. Johnson.

The children then sang the "Whisper Song," and read the Bible verse in unison, which they memorized, learning that God was the greatest giver of the world had ever had. The verse, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have life everlasting."

Prayer in unison by the children preceded the prayer song, "Father Bless Our Gift Today."

Following the devotional period the fourth of a series of Japanese stories were told, of "Honorable American Sam Comes to Ume," a story of an American doll given to a child in Japan.

Privett Gets 16 Years for Murder until about 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Sub-normal mentality, tender age of the defendant and self-defense were defenses offered by counsel for Privett. Thirty-six witnesses were offered by them to prove that Privett was only 16 years of age when the crime was committed and that he was of such low mentality that he was unable to distinguish right from wrong.

The state, represented by Criminal District Attorney Grady Owne, contended that jealousy over a girl prompted Privett to kill Dunson and that it was premeditated murder. Privett's testimony showed, took his gun, an off-brand revolver, went to the Dunson home and under the pretext that he wanted Dunson to go show him a house for rent, lured Dunson away from home and into the railroad yards in the outskirts of the city, where he was slain.

About three years of the time since the crime Privett has spent in the Eastland county jail. The jury verdict being more than 15 years makes it impossible for Privett to obtain bail while the case is being carried to the higher courts again. Judge J. Frank Sparks and L. H. Flew-ellen, attorneys for Dunson, will again appeal the case, it is understood.

At the two former trials of the case Privett himself took the witness stand. In the last trial, however, his attorneys did not ask him to testify.

Privett's parents live at Goldthwaite and were living there at the time of the killing. Privett is married testimony in his trials, was offered to show that he married first at the age of 13. He was divorced and was married again.

A letter written by Privett to his mother in which he told her that he had killed a man and wanted she and her rest of his folks to come to him at Ranger, was offered as testimony in the case.

No. 15757 SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Eastland.

By virtue of a certain Order of Court, issued out of the Honorable District Court of Eastland county, on the 26th day of October, 1933, by P. L. Crossley, District Clerk, of said Court, upon a judgment in favor of N. N. Rosenquest, for the sum of Twelve Hundred Forty-Seven and 63-100 ($1,247.63) Dollars and cost of suit, in cause No. 15,757 in said Court, styled N. N. Rosenquest vs. Mrs. Alice Crabtree, Arthur Crabtree, Fay Crabtree and Jimmie Crabtree, and placed in my hands for service, I Virge Foster, as sheriff of Eastland County, Texas, did on the 31st day of October, 1933, levy on certain real estate situated in Eastland County, described as follows, to-wit: Being an undivided fifty-two and fifty-nine one-hundredths acres (62.59 ac.) and beginning at the S. W. corner of a tract of land heretofore sold to Isaac Griffith out of the east half of Section No. 5, Block No. 6, East Texas Railroad Company survey in Eastland County, Texas, by H. M. Lightfoot and wife for the N. W. corner of this tract; Thence east with the said Griffith's S. B. L. 687 vrs. to a stone set in the ground for the N. E. corner of this tract; Thence South 515 vrs. to a stone set in the ground for the S. E. corner of this tract; Thence West with the subdivision line to a stone 680 vrs. for the S. W. corner of this tract; Thence North 515 vrs. to the place of beginning and being the same land conveyed by J. R. Murrell and wife to Joe Burkett by deed dated September 1st, 1915, recorded in Vol. 101 at page 2, of the Deed Records of Eastland County, Texas, to which reference is here made, save and except, a two (2) acre tract theretofore deeded out of the above described tract of land to the Oil Belt Power Company by Joe Burkett and others, by deed dated October 27th, 1920, of record in Vol. 111 at page 203, of the Deed Records of Eastland County, Texas, to which reference is hereby made for a more particular description of said two (2) acre tract.

Former County Assessor Makes Money on Flowers

P. L. Parker, former Eastland county tax assessor, has a flower shop at the corner of North Green and West Patterson streets. A good portion of the flowers sold in this shop are grown by Mr. Parker in the back yard of his Eastland home.

When Mr. Parker first opened his flower shop he, like all other florists of this section, ordered his flowers from the larger cities. Mr. Parker didn't like the idea and immediately set to work converting his spacious back yard into a flower garden; he had truck load after truck load of fertilizer hauled in until the soil was made as rich as he desired it; then he arranged to irrigate the plot. This is done by turning the city water on and allowing it to run until the ground is thoroughly soaked.

Planting of the various varieties of flowers, shrubs and trees, including pecan trees, was then begun and has been kept up until today this small plot of ground is producing enough to largely supply the flower shop in addition to growing many times the amount of vegetables the family needs for their own use.

One thing Mr. Parker has accomplished of which he is justly proud is the producing on his plot of ground of some very beautiful large chrysanthemums that compare favorably with those shipped in from Colorado and California. Putting aside a small plot of ground which he had prepared for growing chrysanthemums by fertilizing it and building a canvas house over and around it, Mr. Parker sent to Colorado and obtained seed or cuttings for his chrysanthemums and put them out. This was in May and now he has a house full of as pretty flowers as one will see anywhere, which proves that one can grow almost anything in this section that can be grown anywhere if they will only give it the time, thought and attention.

Mr. Parker says his experience with flowers and vegetables on his small plot of ground in the heart of the city, has convinced him that any medium sized family can make a living and more on as little as three acres of ground if they handle it properly and if water can be obtained at a reasonable price.

"The fact that the land you are on is poor doesn't spell failure if you want to succeed," Mr. Parker says. "You just have to work a little harder and perhaps spend a little more money, but the land can be made as fertile as you desire it," he said.

Laugh Making Trio Coming In Talkie

Jack Pearl, famous "Baron Munchausen" or radio, Jimmy Durante of "Schnozzle" fame, and Zasu Pitts, whimsical comedienne of the Pitts-Todd comedies and many a feature picture, are the laugh-making trio heading the most remarkable all-comedian cast in history in "Meet the Baron," the picture that introduces the radio star to the screen. It comes Sunday to the Lyric Theatre.

The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy with music is a hilarious story dealing with the sanguinary adventures of "The Baron" and "Durante in a girls' college. Miss Muffitt is the head chambermaid, and she and "The Baron" fall in love while Jimmy proceeds to rump the college dean, played by Edna May Oliver.

Ted Healy and his stooges are in charge of the campus. "The Baron" and Durante arrive aboard a sea-going elephant. Pearl and Miss Pitts have a screamingly funny love scene in an icebox. The "college girls," beautiful singing

"I'M NO ANGEL" TYPICAL MAE WEST SENSATION

Mae West in a new Paramount picture, "I'm No Angel," comes to the Lyric theatre for a midnight matinee Friday night.

That is real news for picture fans.

Miss West soared to the greatest heights of popularity any screen actress ever has attained, revolutionized feminine styles as the result of her last film, "She Done Him Wrong." The imagination fails in an attempt to figure what her latest picture will accomplish. For it is superior to her first starring film in every respect—story, star performance, excellence of production, wisecracks and songs.

Miss West gives a splendid performance—she portrays a colorful character, Tira, a hardboiled, carnival dancer who becomes a New York sensation. On her rise to fame and fortune, she vamps any number of men, finally ending up besieged by her "tall, dark and handsome," a society millionaire.

She sings five sensational songs, dances the "midway"—a spectacular variation of that same shimmy which, we are told, she herself originated; wears lovely clothes, and she scintillates with wit in an hilarious courtroom scene.

Since the movies were in their swaddling clothes, no star ever has so completely dominated a film as Mae West, but Paramount cleverly has surrounded her with a capable cast including Cary Grant, Kent Taylor, Edward Arnold, Ralf Harold, Gregory Ratoff, Dorothy Peterson, Gertrude Michael, Russell Hopson, William B. Davidson and others.

"I'm No Angel" was made from a story by Miss West herself, the tale of Tira, a carnival dancer.

She becomes famous by putting her curves into a lion-tamer's act, goes to New York as the Million Dollar Beauty. Cary Grant, a society millionaire, falls in love with her, and they are going to be married, when crooks frame her, and he breaks the engagement. She sues Grant for breach of promise, collects $250,000 in an amusing trial. But they still love each other, and after the heavies try to kill Mae by turning a killer lion on her, Grant discovers she has been innocent of all wrongdoing and the film ends happily.

LUCKY

Mae West takes Grant like Grant took Richmond! It all happens in Paramount's "I'm No Angel," which comes to the Lyric Friday night at 11 p. m.

Will Rogers Is "Doctor Bull" In His Latest Film

Will Rogers comes to the Lyric theatre beginning on Monday in his latest picture for Fox Film, "Doctor Bull." It is the screen presentation of the famous novel by James Gould Cozzens, "The Last Adam," best-seller and recent Book-of-the-Month selection. It is reported as the most powerful vehicle the popular philosopher-comedian has had on the talking screen.

The story concerns a physician in a small town who, in addition to ministering to the health of the community, acts as its unofficial father confessor. None of the town's secrets escapes him. He knows the inner life of every one of its inhabitants. But it is not as a gossip that he finds himself interested in the private lives of the village. He is a mellow gentleman to whom everyone's reactions are an interesting bit of human document.

The film does not present the story of one character. Like "State Fair," the last of the Rogers screen plays, it deals with many characters, each typical of its kind. It is more than the story of one town. For it is the story of thousands of similar towns all over the country.

Vera Allen, star of the New York stage, has the leading feminine role opposite Rogers. She was specially engaged for this role, and advance reports of her performance have been so favorable that she is considered destined for a brilliant career in pictures. Others in the cast are Marian Nixon, Howard Lally, Berton Churchill, Louise Dresser, Andy Devine, Rochelle Hudson, Tempe Pigott, Elizabeth Patterson, Nora Cecil, Ralph Morgan, Patsy O'Byrne, Veda Buckland, Effie Ellsler and Helen Freeman.

The screen adaptation of the Cozzens novel was made by the well known novelist and playwright, Paul Green, Pulitzer Prize winner of several seasons ago, who was also responsible for the adaptation of Phil Stong's "State Fair" for the screen.

"Doctor Bull" was directed by John Ford.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Nov. 12.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. . . . Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 15:53, 58).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When false human beliefs learn even a little of their own falsity, they begin to disappear. A knowledge of error and its operations must precede that understanding of truth which destroys error, until the entire mortal, material error finally disappears, and the eternity, man created by and of Spirit, is understood and recognized as the true likeness of his Maker" (page 252).

Laugh Making Trio Coming In Talkies

Jack Pearl, famous "Baron Munchausen" or radio, Jimmy Durante of "Schnozzle" fame, and Zasu Pitts, whimsical comedienne of the Pitts-Todd comedies and many a feature picture, are the laugh-making trio heading the most remarkable all-comedian cast in history in "Meet the Baron," the picture that introduces the radio star to the screen. It comes Sunday to the Lyric Theatre.

The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy with music is a hilarious story dealing with the sanguinary adventures of "The Baron" and his "sister" in a girls' college. Miss Durante is the head chambermaid, Pearl and Zasu Pitts fall in love with the college dean, played by Edna May Oliver.

Ted Healy and his stooges are in charge of the campus. "The Baron" and Durante arrive aboard a sea-going elephant. Pearl and Zasu Pitts have a screamingly funny love scene in an icebox. The "college girls," beautiful singing

"I'M NO ANGEL" TYPICAL MAE WEST SENSATION

Mae West in a new Paramount picture, "I'm No Angel," comes to the Lyric theatre for a midnight matinee Friday night.

That is real news for picture fans.

Miss West soared to the greatest heights of popularity any screen actress ever has attained, revolutionized feminine styles as the result of her last film, "She Done Him Wrong." The imagination fails in an attempt to figure what her latest picture will accomplish. For it is superior to her first starring film in every respect—story, star performance, excellence of production, wisecracks and songs.

Miss West gives a splendid performance—she portrays a colorful character, Tira, a hardboiled, carnival dancer who becomes a New York sensation. On her rise to fame and fortune, she ramps any number of men, finally ending up besieged by her "tall, dark and handsome," a society millionaire.

She sings five sensational songs, dances the "midway"—a spectacular variation of that same shimmy which, we are told, she herself originated; wears lovely clothes, and she scintillates with wit in an hilarious courtroom scene.

Since the movies were in their swaddling clothes, no star ever has so completely dominated a film as Mae West, but Paramount cleverly has surrounded her with a capable cast including Cary Grant, Kent Taylor, Edward Arnold, Ralf Harold, Gregory Ratoff, Dorothy Peterson, Gertrude Michael, Russell Hopton, William B. Davidson and others.

"I'm No Angel" was made from a story by Miss West herself, the tale of Tira, a carnival dancer.

She becomes famous by putting her curves into a lion-tamer's act, goes to New York as the Million Dollar Beauty. Cary Grant, a society millionaire, falls in love with her, and they are going to be married, when crooks frame her, and he breaks the engagement. She sues Grant for breach of promise, collects $250,000 in an amusing trial. But they still love each other, and after the heavies try to kill Mae by turning a killer lion on her, Grant discovers she has been innocent of all wrongdoing and the film ends happily.

LUCKY

Mae West takes Grant like Grant took Richmond! It all happens in Paramount's "I'm No Angel," which comes to the Lyric Friday night at 11 p. m.

Will Rogers Is "Doctor Bull" In His Latest Film

Will Rogers comes to the Lyric theatre beginning on Monday in his latest picture for Fox Film, "Doctor Bull." It is the screen presentation of the famous novel by James Gould Cozzens, "The Last Adam," best-seller and recent Book-of-the-Month selection. It is reported as the most powerful vehicle the popular philosopher-comedian has had on the talking screen.

The story concerns a physician in a small town who, in addition to ministering to the health of the community, acts as its unofficial father confessor. None of the town's secrets escapes him. He knows the inner life of every one of its inhabitants. But it is not as a gossip that he finds himself interested in the private lives of the village. He is a mellow gentleman to whom everyone's reactions are an interesting bit of human document.

The film does not present the story of one character. Like "State Fair," the last of the Rogers screen plays, it deals with many characters, each typical of its kind. It is more than the story of one town. For it is the story of thousands of similar towns all over the country.

Vera Allen, star of the New York stage, has the leading feminine role opposite Rogers. She was especially engaged for this role, and advance reports of her performance have been so favorable that she is considered destined for a brilliant career in pictures. Others in the cast are Marian Nixon, Howard Lally, Berton Churchill, Louise Dresser, Andy Devine, Rochelle Hudson, Tempe Pigott, Elizabeth Patterson, Nora Cecil, Ralph Morgan, Patsy O'Byrne, Veda Buckland, Effie Ellsler and Helen Freeman.

The screen adaptation of the Cozzens novel was made by the well known novelist and playwright, Paul Green, Pulitzer Prize winner of several seasons ago, who was also responsible for the adaptation of Phil Stong's "State Fair" for the screen.

"Doctor Bull" was directed by John Ford.
