HAVE YOU NOTICED that the nation's chief executive has been noticeably absent ever since the November 8 election?

Bill Clinton took off to an Asian trade conference, hoping those leaders hadn't noticed the complete and utter defeat that Clinton's Democrats suffered on election day in his homeland.

And when he surfaced this past week in Hawaii for a "vacation," Uncle Bill was still trying to put a "spin" on the election results that would favor him during his coming lame duck session.

"What I think the American people were saying was that they want us to work together to change our country," Clinton said in one of his rare media contacts since the election.

This prompted a popular radio talk-show host to comment: "He still doesn't get it. The American people want change, all right, but they definitely said on November 8 that they didn't want Clinton to be a part of this change."

One poll indicated that 69 percent of the American people say the nation is heading in the wrong direction. And most of them indicate that the Clintons and their liberalistic stance, are the main reason for the country's straying down the wrong path.

When you recall that the president's first big effort was to force the issue on gays in the military, then the appointment of a surgeon general who pushes the program to distribute free condoms to our young people and hints that she favors the legalization of some illegal drugs and an Attorney-General who orchestrated the brutal murder of 80 people in Waco, it's not too hard to see why the silent majority rose up on November 8 and knocked down almost every Democrat that was on the ballot.

One of the few Clinton programs passed during his first two years, the crime bill, has been ridiculed as being woefully lax in punishment, and being far too much of a welfare-state bill, with one of its main features being the "Midnight Basketball" proposal, which makes about as much sense as applying Vicks Salve to a raging cancer.

Clinton's appointees have tried to weaken child pornography laws and to strike down the death penalty.

As we see it, voters took a long look at the Clinton presidency, his programs and appointees, and said in effect, "Enough is enough."

Clinton can remain in denial if he wants to--and many political experts feel that as an incumbent he will still be the Democratic nominee in the 1996 presidential election. That's well and good.

Clinton, like charismatic leaders Jim Jones and David Koresh, won't mind leading his fellow Democrats into an utter and complete suicide as he continues down the path of liberalism.

As one writer said this week, if Clinton can cause as many Democrats to lose as they did this past November 8, without being on the ballot himself, think of what will happen when his name is at the top of the list in 1996!

A number of Americans may have indicated they wanted change when they voted for Clinton in 1992, but we feel sure that they didn't have in mind a complete 180-degree about-face for the occupant of the oval office.

And as they evidenced in the recent polling process, the Silent Majority isn't likely to sit at home and not vote as they may have in 1992.

Many states passed amendments or propositions favoring term limitations during the November 8 election. And the American electorate, by and large, reminded the politicians that in the end, the voters can effect their own version of term limitations, when their hired help continues to go against their wishes.

Cotton Harvest Is At Mid-Point

Cotton harvest is about half over in Parmer County, according to all the ginners. There had been 34,994 bales ginned, as of Monday afternoon. Last year at this time, there had only been 21,289 bales ginned.

Wayne Smith, owner and manager of the only cotton gin in Bovina, said the cotton is fantastic this year due to the excellent summer weather conditions, even though it got off to a slow start again, due to the weather. He added that the price has also stayed good.

In the Bovina area, A.T. Morgan brought in the first bale of cotton on October 15. The first bale last year was brought in on October 26. The first bale last year was harvested by Don Murphy.

Gins serving the Parmer County area are: Friona Co-Op, Bruegel Brothers, West Hub Gin, Clay's Corner, North Lazbuddie, Bovina Gin, Lariat Gin and Farwell Gin.

Bovina JV Teams Win Tournaments

Bovina's junior varsity teams each swept all three of their games in their local tournament last Thursday and Saturday, to win first place trophies.

Adan Perez and Francisco Nieto each scored 14 points on Thursday.

Marie Pesch Honored As Top Athlete

Marie Pesch grew up in Bovina, a West Texas town of about 1,500. Her athletic skills, however, were good enough to get her noticed by the University of Texas Longhorn basketball program.

But Marie didn't limit her skills to the hardwood. Since the age of 16, she had also been excelling on the slow-pitch softball fields around the state.

Pesch began playing in Class "B" leagues as a 16-year-old -- traveling to Clovis, New Mexico, because there weren't enough competitive teams in the Bovina area -- and soon moved up to the top classifications.

While a student at Bovina High School, Marie was one of the main cogs for the Fillies team which won several district titles.

Three years into her Lady Longhorn cage career, however, a severe back injury cut short her stay with UT athletics. Marie, however, wasn't through with sports.

She went full-tilt into the softball scene.

Marie, now in her seventh season with the Cannan Illusions, plays catcher and is a utility player with the squad. She was All World in 1989, 1990, 1992 and 1993, and an ASA Most Valuable Player in 1991. In 1993, Pesch claimed the Best Offensive Player and finished with the most home runs by an Illusions player.

Additionally, Marie is an assistant coach with the Cannan Illusions Class "B" Texas Heat softball team, which was ranked No.1 in Texas and No.4 in the nation.

Marie, who earned two-time All-America honors as a Co-Ed outfielder, continues to participate in various city league teams.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pesch of Bovina.

as the boys' team rolled past Vega, 75-45.

Tony Beauchamp scored 14, and Alfredo Vara and Nieto each scored 13 in the early game on Saturday, to pace the Mustangs to a 79-56 win over Lazbuddie.

Nieto scored 15 points, and Martin Reyna and Perez backed him up with 14, as the team downed Farwell, 77-58 for the tournament title.

The JV girls downed Vega, 35-30 on Friday as D'Ann Jones led with seven points.

The JV Fillies outscored Morton, 60-47 Saturday morning, as Miss Jones pumped in 27 points, including three baskets from three-point range.

Bovina nudged Farwell, 53-22 in their final game, as Miss Jones again led with 20 points and Rachel Turner added 14. Twelve of Miss Jones' points came again on three-point baskets.

"Join The Team" Spot the Hazards!

One of the most important fixtures in the conduction of electric current are those familiar utility poles. These sturdy giants hold the wires high above the ground, out of the reach of children and livestock. Once in a great while, however, weather conditions or accidents will dislodge or break one of these poles, causing the wires to sag or break, and resulting in extremely hazardous conditions. Should you come across a damaged or fallen utility pole, contact Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative immediately. Crews will be dispatched at once to correct the situation. If possible, remain on the scene to warn others of the hazard until repair crews arrive. Responsible Electric Accident Control Today is everyone's concern.

Happy Homemaker

By JUNE FLOYD

About fifteen years ago, someone in the family of the late J.W. and Mary Baxter came up with the idea of publishing a family cookbook.

The outcome of this idea was an attractive book with a lot of helpful information pertaining to cooking as well as many many good recipes.

At the time the books were distributed at an annual family reunion, Calvin and Ann Martin were our across the street neighbors. They gave me one for a birthday present.

I've been using "Cookbook-Favorite Recipes From Our Best Cooks" since that time and am happy to share some of the recipes with our readers.

I can wholeheartedly recommend the first four recipes this week. Ann Martin, who is presently living in Creston, Iowa, was a wonderful cook and made cookies often. She was also a good neighbor and shared samples of her baking with all of us in the neighborhood.

DREAM BARS

Ann Martin

1/2 cup oleo
1 cup flour
1/2 cup brown sugar
Blend with a pastry blender or fingertips as for pie crust. Press or pat in an unbuttered 9"x13" pan. Bake until light brown, about 10 minutes, in moderate oven at 350 degrees.

1 cup brown sugar
1 cup white sugar
2 eggs
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon soda or 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
Pinch of salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

1-1/2 cups coconut
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Beat eggs slightly, add brown sugar. Now, add flour, soda and salt. Fold vanilla, nuts and coconut into the mixture. Remove flour and butter mixture from the oven, immediately pour second mixture on the top of the first, spreading evenly. Bake 20-25 minutes in 350 degree oven. Cool and cut in squares.

CRISP OATMEAL COOKIES

1 cup brown sugar
1 cup white sugar
1 cup shortening
2 eggs
2 cups oatmeal
1 cup nuts or coconut or both
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups Wheaties
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream sugar and shortening. Add eggs and dry ingredients; lastly oatmeal, Wheaties, coconut and nuts. Roll in a ball about the size of a walnut and bake on ungreased cookie sheet about 20 minutes or until brown.

APPLE BARS

1/2 cup oleo
1-1/2 cup sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
3 cup apples, chopped fine
1 teaspoon burnt sugar flavoring
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1-1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup nuts

Cream sugar, shortening and vanilla. Add beaten eggs and dry ingredients. Pour into a 9"x13" greased pan and bake at 350 degrees 25-30 minutes. Frost with powdered sugar frosting while warm.

SUGAR COOKIES

1-1/2 cups sugar
1 cup shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon cream of tartar

Cream sugar, shortening and vanilla until fluffy. Add beaten eggs. Sift flour, soda and cream of tartar together. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture. Drop batter by teaspoonfuls on a cookie sheet and press with a fork. Bake in 350 degree oven 10 or 15 minutes or until brown.

Another former Friona resident and member of this family, Janiece Bock Baxter, contributed the following recipe:

DATE SKILLET COOKIES

1 cup sugar
1/2 stick oleo
1 teaspoon vanilla
Dash of salt
1 cup chopped dates
2 eggs, beaten
Angel flake coconut
2 cups Rice Krispies
1 cup chopped pecans

Combine first four items and cook, stirring constantly, until thick. Remove from heat, add Rice Krispies and nuts. Let cool. Butter hands and form mixture into small balls. Roll in coconut and refrigerate until firm.

Marilou Truitt Baxter, widow of Charlie Baxter, often baked cookies for her children, grandchildren and others. One of her favorite recipes which appeared in the book was for:

NO BAKE OATMEAL COOKIES

2 cups sugar
1/2 cup milk
4 tablespoons cocoa
1 stick oleo
3 cups quick oats
3/4 cup nuts or coconut

Boil sugar, cocoa, milk and oleo for 1 minute. Remove from heat. Add oats, nuts and coconut if desired with vanilla and salt. Drop by teaspoonfuls on waxed paper. Makes 3-4 dozen.

Sandy Massey submitted a recipe which is sure to make a hit with beginning cooks--or more experienced ones who desire to make something different. However, this isn't something you will want to start if you are short on time.

Her husband, Ted, was born here, but moved to South Dakota with his parents, Marvin and Dorothy Robbins Massey, when he was small.

CEREAL COOKIES

Melt in slow oven--200 degrees--in a covered pan for two hours:

1 package almond bark
Remove from oven and add
2 cups Captain Crunch cereal
2 cups Rice Chex
2 cups Spanish peanuts
2 cups mini-marshmallows
Mix well and drop by teaspoonfuls on waxed paper.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE SPITEFUL KING!

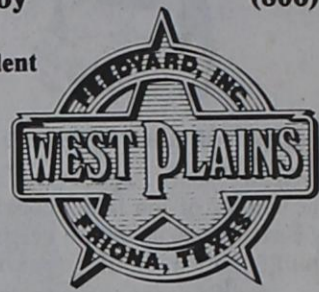

KING NAHASH OF THE AMMONITES, SHORTLY AFTER SAUL HAD BEEN MADE KING OVER ISRAEL, CAME UP AND BESIEGED THE TOWN OF JABESH-GILEAD. THE MEN OF JABESH, WANTING NO WAR, OFFERED TO SURRENDER THE TOWN TO NAHASH AND SERVE THIS AMMONITE KING! (1 SAM. 11:1) OBVIOUSLY, NAHASH WAS A SPITEFUL MAN, FOR HE WOULD NOT ACCEPT THIS PROPOSAL UNLESS EVERY MAN IN TOWN CONSENTED TO LOSE HIS RIGHT EYE! PROBABLY KING NAHASH WANTED TO INSULT THE ISRAELITES, IN THIS MANNER, BECAUSE IN THE DAYS OF MOSES THE AMMONITES WERE FORBIDDEN BY LAW TO EVER ENTER INTO THE CONGREGATION OF THE LORD!

THE ELDERS OF JABESH RECEIVED A WEEK'S RESPITE IN WHICH TO SEEK HELP. WHEN THE MESSENGERS OF THE TOWN REACHED GIBEAH, WHERE KING SAUL LIVED, THE PEOPLE WERE HORRIFIED AT THE NEWS! KING SAUL WAS SO ANGERED THAT HE KILLED A YOKE OF OXEN AND SENT PIECES OF THE SLAIN ANIMALS THROUGHOUT ISRAEL WITH THE MESSAGE THAT ANY MAN WHO DID NOT JOIN HIM TO FIGHT KING NAHASH WOULD LOSE HIS OWN OXEN IN THE SAME WAY! (1 SAM. 11:7) NATURALLY THE RESPONSE WAS TREMENDOUS -- THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN ANSWERED THE CALL! SO, SPITEFUL KING NAHASH DIDN'T HAVE HIS WAY WITH THE MEN OF JABESH-GILEAD, FOR KING SAUL AND THE ARMY OF ISRAELITES ROUNDLY DEFEATED THE AMMONITES!

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

It is true that many Texas citizens will become a statistic during this holiday period and that many planned gatherings will be ruined by these tragedies.

No matter how good a driver we may be, just remember that we cannot control the person that we are meeting on the highway. We have no guarantee that that person has not dropped a cigarette, had a cardiac arrest, tanked up on booze or hopped up on pills.

Let's drive as if each driver will always do the unexpected and in this manner we may live to enjoy not only Thanksgiving but other holidays.

It is only one more month until Christmas and we wonder where and how the time could go so fast, but it is just around the corner.

NEWS AROUND TOWN...

Rose McCain recently returned from Beverly Hills, California, where she helped her sons, Ben and Butch set up their new home. The McCain Brothers hosted a highly-rated TV news and weather show in Oklahoma City for nearly thirteen years.

There was a management change at their station, an ABC affiliate, and the brothers' show was cancelled.

The McCains have relocated to the Los Angeles area and are looking at opportunities in the entertainment industry.

While in California, her sons took Rose to Wolfgang Puck's restaurant, "Spago", the Santa Monica Pier and the Chinese restaurant, "Chin-Chin."

One day for lunch they took her to Steven Spielberg's "Dive Restaurant," which appears to be a submarine. She said it was very interesting. She said they worked hard for a few days and had fun the rest of the week.

We express our sympathies to the family of Leora Garner. Funeral services were held Monday morning. She was survived by two sons, Jamie Earl Davis of Gales Ferry, Connecticut and Keith Garner of Bovina. Also two sisters and a brother.

Sam Stormes' mom, Grace Stormes, is hospitalized in their hometown of El Reno, Oklahoma. She suffered a stroke and a heart attack. Sam has been with his mom since November 2. Sam's wife, Ella Jo said they are expecting Grace to go into Rehab this week if all continues to go well.

I called Larry Hammonds who is now in Amarillo at the apartment where his mom has been staying for several months. He said he is getting along real well and has no pain. The only problem is his eyesight and he is going for tests next week on his eyes.

It has been a year since Larry underwent surgery for 22 hours to remove a brain tumor at the University Medical Center in Lubbock and then spent time at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock for a time.

He then went to Amarillo and spent several months in the Advanced Care Center. After the surgery Larry had a trachea in his throat for several months and they fed him through tubes in his stomach.

He said he had to learn to talk again after they removed the tube. He sounded real good on the telephone and said he will be anxious to get home to Bovina.

Funeral services were held on Monday for Ginny Blankenship of Oklahoma Lane. She died Saturday after a lengthy illness. Survivors include her husband, one son and one daughter; also three grandchildren.

I talked with Joe Olvera, manager of the grocery store and he said the repair work is completed on the grocery store. He said a company from Lubbock did the job. They took up the sidewalks, filled in the space below the building and repaired the tile floor on the inside. So, everything is safe once again.

Arthur Kent of Sudan, a former resident of Bovina, died Wednesday, November 16 in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. Friends said they lived here about 25 years ago and farmed about five miles southeast on the Sam Sides farm that he owned.

Arthur was only in the hospital about a week before he died. He was married to Dorothy and the couple had one son, Benny, who suffered a massive heart attack and died November 13 of last year. This was their only child.

Arthur was survived by his wife, stepmother, three brothers, and several neices and nephews.

Rita Mast is scheduled to be released this week. She had surgery for a hip replacement three weeks ago and has been in Rehab at Bivins Rehab Center in Amarillo. Friends said she is getting along real well.

Thank you for helping with the Scoops, have fun during the holidays...Scooter.

Varsity Cage Action Underway Locally

Varsity basketball is well underway at Bovina.

The Fillies won their game at home November 15 over Lazbuddie, 53-41, then won a 47-35 decision over Olton at Olton Friday, November 18.

Sally Noriega scored 22 points and Amber Willard and Lisa Hromas each had 12 points to pace the team in its win over Lazbuddie.

Miss Noriega scored 13 points, Miss Willard 14 and Lisa Hromas ten as the team toppled Olton.

The Mustangs hosted Lubbock Roosevelt on November 15, and dropped a 92-46 decision. Lance McClaran scored 13 points to lead Bovina's offense.

The team dropped a 69-61 decision. Olton jumped out to an eight-point lead at the end of the first quarter, 20-12.

In a very unusual situation for basketball, both teams scored exactly the same number of points in each of the final three quarters, 13-all in the second, 17 each in the third and 19 for the fourth.

McClaran scored 20 points to pace the Mustangs, backed up by ten points each by Arnold Reyna and Jimmy Bonham.

Thrifty.

Everyone who owns a home of any size in Texas has asked those timeless questions, "How can I lower my home energy bills? How can I lower my taxes?" One answer is propane. Propane is the fiscally correct energy fuel that cooks your food, heats your water, dries your clothes and warms your home. Propane won't waste your hard-earned dollars and it won't pollute our Texas skies. Propane. The clean choice. The clear choice. It can lower your home energy bills. We'll get back to you about those taxes.
