

NATIONS DEATH TOLL REACHES 142 ON FOURTH

America's celebration of the Fourth of July under widespread police orders for a safe and sane observance resulted in 142 violent deaths, a United Press survey revealed today.

But the danger from explosives, once most feared on Independence Day, was reduced to the lowest point in many years. Only five fireworks deaths were reported. Many thousands, however, suffering injuries in firecracker and skyrocket accidents, the total running to almost 2,500 in New York city alone.

Airplane and traffic accidents killed more than 50 throughout the nation as highways were jammed with crowds. About the same number was drowned.

Cotton Not Hurt Yet By Drouth
WASHINGTON, July 5.—Cotton was not seriously affected by heat last week, but rain is now "rather badly needed" over a large western area, it was reported today.

Temperatures in the cotton belt were "only moderately high" but decidedly above normal in northern sections, the reports said.

Regional reports included: Texas crop holding up well considering the scanty soil moisture and remains mostly in good condition, though local deterioration is now reported from some drier sections.

Candidates Have Spent Much On State Campaigns

AUSTIN, July 5.—Several of the candidates for governor already have spent more than the total $10,000 they are permitted to use in their races, first period expense accounts show.

C. C. McDonald reported a total expense of $5,296, Clint Small reported expenditure of $4,787. Accounts earlier gave Allred's expense at $4,527, Hunter at $3,501, Edgar Witt at $5,283.

Being trapped for three hours in a school of 200 whales is bad enough, but what makes the story official is that they all got away—that is, the captain and his passengers did.

The umpire behind the plate makes 200 decisions during a baseball game, it is estimated, thus giving the fans 200 reasons for calling him a big bum.

PRIEST CELEBRATES 50 YEAR

Building Permits Showing Increase

AUSTIN.—The total volume of building permits in 37 Texas cities rose sharply during May to $2,857,000, an increase of 130 per cent above April and 115 per cent greater than May, 1933, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

The most substantial increases occurred in Houston and Lubbock which accounted for most of the rise that occurred from April to May. Other cities showing considerable increases were Beau, mont, Dallas, El Paso, Longview and Cleburne.

The increase in Houston was entirely due to a permit issued to one of the big oil companies for an addition to their headquarters in Houston, the amount involved being about one million dollars.

RANCH TO GET FIRST AUTO
LANDUSKY, Mont.—Isolated for 23 years, the Jim Kipp, ranch in mountains near here may see its first automobile this summer. At present, the only egress to the ranch is by means of horse—or a three-mile hike on foot from the D-Y trail. However, surveyors have laid out a county road which they hope to complete this year.

Vote Taken

decided to 173 committed to any candidate, in another county.

More than 20 per cent of those in Austin who were asked their preference in the race replied either that they had not decided, or that a final choice was yet to be made between two candidates.

And nearly all the seven candidates figured in the two between whom various individuals were yet to make their choice.

To avoid any possible undue weighting of the results, none of the canvass was made in the home county of the candidates.

The figures relate to July 1 preferences. They should indicate the starting-point at least of the final first-primary wind-up though any or all the apparent showings may be greatly changed by election day. The figures will afford the basis of much figuring as to second-primary developments, in the various combinations and permutations of the vote of candidates figured to drop out then.

For instance, the advocate of any one of the six high candidates could show that by getting certain percentages of the votes of the other four, against a run-off opponent, his candidate would win the nomination in August.

Move to Boycott Indecent Movies Started In Houston

HOUSTON, Tex.—A movement to boycott indecent motion pictures shown in Houston has been started here by the Legion of Decency.

The legion called for 20,000 Houstonians to assist in the drive against salacious movies by pledging themselves not to attend.

The Legion of Decency was organized locally last week when entimement throughout the state began to be voiced publicly.

Favorable reaction to the campaign and to the legion, sponsored by the Catholic clergy, is growing.

The Rev. George A. Wilhelm, pastor of the Holy Name Catholic Church and leader of the movement here for cleaner movies, said he was promised cooperation from the Ministerial Alliance and the Baptist Pastors' Conference.

Plans of the legion are to boycott the theater that insists on showing movies considered "indecent" until the management agrees to "clean up," the Rev. Mr. Wilhelm said.

"Cleaner movies are a real need and I am sure a favorable reaction will be forthcoming from the Alliance," Secretary F. C. Fields said. "We have discussed the matter and find that the project has our sympathy. We hope the force of public opinion will aid us to get cleaner movies and to uphold all morals."

The movies, Father Wilhelm said, are getting steadily worse, coming to "a climax this past spring with a number of indecent films."

"For years we have been urging the motion picture industry to cut out the rough stuff," he added. "But they laughed at us. We know that decent shows draw better crowds than salacious ones and we will prove that to the movie people with our Legion of Decency."

The legion is getting millions of signatures from right thinking people all over the nation, he said, and 20,000 pledge cards are being distributed in Houston.

Father Wilhelm said he was certain similar legions would be organized soon in other Texas cities which he understood were making similar clean-up drives.

"The movies have a wonderful opportunity for presenting worthwhile shows, but they have been debauched and put in the honky-tonk class," he asserted.

"Something terrible has happened to America since the World War, some sort of moral breakdown. It is time for America to wake up and get over the jazz age."

"We should end this deluge of rotten movies, indecent dances that have been introduced here from South America, and other phases of immoral attitudes."

The Legion of Decency added that in order to do this there should be an effort made toward temperance.

"I don't mean prohibition, because while that is a fine ideal, we know it is not practical."

State Senator Clint Small, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Texas, spoke before a large Fourth of July crowd at the Willows in Ranger Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Declaring that his gains in all sections of the state show that he no longer is considered a sectional candidate, Senator Small told voters that he would show no favoritism if he is elected to the office.

"Not trying to help the interest of all concerned is the best way that I know how is a sin," Small declared.

Clint Small and Mark McGee Speak To Ranger Voters

State Senator Clint Small, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Texas, spoke before a large Fourth of July crowd at the Willows in Ranger Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Declaring that his gains in all sections of the state show that he no longer is considered a sectional candidate, Senator Small told voters that he would show no favoritism if he is elected to the office.

"Not trying to help the interest of all concerned is the best way that I know how is a sin," Small declared.

"It is not my intention to misrepresent the facts to you and to cause you to exert your efforts in a vain and useless cause, but my support in other sections of the state is more encouraging every day. I have been fortunate to have a fine group of citizens in Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio and other down state cities supporting me."

"From Brownsville to Texarkana, my support is growing daily. In San Antonio I have been told that the men who are supporting me have a better organization than Sterling had four years ago when he carried Bexar county by a large majority," the Senator said.

"I have tried my level best to help this country; I have done my best to represent all of Texas to the best of my ability. If I am elected there will be no favoritism," he said.

Small declared the liquor situation in Texas is deplorable. "It should be the duty of the attorney general to enforce the dry laws as long as they are on the statute books," he asserted.

Small criticized those who would divert a part of the money going to the highway department to use in other governmental branches.

The address by Senator Small was followed by a talk delivered by Mark McGee of Fort Worth in behalf of Senator Tom Connally. He spoke briefly of the accomplishments of Senator Connally in the five years he has been in the United States Senate and urged the voters to return him to the post to which he was elected six years ago for the good of Texas and the entire citizenship of the state.

STATE RELIEF BOND ISSUE TO BE REQUESTED

DALLAS, July 5. — Former Governor James E. Ferguson announced today Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson definitely had decided to call a special session of the state legislature shortly after September 11th.

Alarmed over continued drought conditions, Ferguson said, the governor will ask the legislature to provide for issuance of the remaining $9,500,000 worth of state relief bonds.

The session will not be called until the run-off primary is out of the way and the state democratic convention set for September 11 is over, Ferguson said. But for the election, he intimated, the session would be called sooner.

"If the drought continues two weeks more there will be 200 counties needing relief," he asserted, "instead of the 96 now on the federal list."

"The condition is now statewide and only a five or six inch rain can help. Even a soaking fall over the state can't help the corn crop now."

"Texas will be faced with the most serious situation in its history if the dry spell continues much longer, coming as it does on top of a world-wide depression."

"The situation will be worse even than the blue days of last winter for any country that doesn't make a corn crop in adversity."

Bullock Revival Still In Progress

The Bullock revival meeting is progressing and will likely run a few days next week.

The Rev. C. J. Cloud is bringing great Gospel messages inspiring the people to strive to go in the way of right, light, and truth of Christ. During the first three days of the meeting the revivalist preached answering three important questions: "Why I Believe in God;" "Why I Believe in Christ;" "Why I Believe in the Bible."

He answered these questions by saying that he could not get along without God; that he could not get along without Christ; that he could not get along without the inspired word of God, the Holy Bible.

Everyone is cordially invited to come to worship God and hear Brother Cloud preach. He has been in the active ministry of the Methodist connection for 16 years, serving most of the time as pastor and part of the time as traveling evangelist.

2 Chron. 15:1-2
Asa, the name means physician, was the son of Alijah and Maacah, who was a descendant of Absalom. In the beginning of his reign he was forced to remove his mother from the position of queen-mother for her idolatries in licentious heathen fashion. He destroyed all foreign altars throughout the land and instructed the people to follow the true laws of Jehovah.

The first ten years of his reign were peaceful and employed in rebuilding the cities of Judah; strengthening the walls, towers and gates of Jerusalem.

He also gathered together and drilled a great army of 580,000 men armed with bucklers, spears, shields and bows.

Asa reaped the advantage of this wise preparation later when Judah was invaded by a million men from Egypt under General Terah. Asa's army was outnumbered two to one and had no war chariots to combat those of the Egyptian army.

Asa trusted in Jehovah and made earnest prayer for divine help. Jehovah heard his prayer and Asa with the aid of the Lord was gloriously triumphant over his foes. This was one of the most important and decisive victories in Hebrew history and was won because Asa obeyed and relied upon God.

"And the spirit of God come upon Azariah the son of Oded. And he went out to meet Asa." Azariah inspired and fervent prophet gave Asa the great message that governed the remainder of his life. "Jehovah is with you, while ye are with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you."

Asa thought of his great victory over the Egyptians and knew that he had sought and found God who had aided him in gaining the over such tremendous odds.

He listened to the solemn note of warning, "But if ye forsake him, he will forsake you." Doubtless he realized from past history that success and power was most trying to faith in great leadership.

The closing words of the message were; "But be ye strong, and let not your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded."

Asa could not be strong in himself but only as he relied upon God for divine help; his hands must not be idle but busy for the "King of Kings."

"For your work shall be rewarded." God is a rewarder of them that seek after him." William Jennings Bryan said, "without a worship of God there can be no respect for God's law of rewards. It is a disregard of God's law of rewards that has brought upon our nation its greatest burdens and threatens it with the greatest calamities."

Asa, how great his character, did not dismiss the prophet as a presumptuous man, but listened and took new courage.

To begin his new work he had them assemble from far and near, "together ah Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa."

This third month or month of Sivan our May-June early in which occurred the Feast of weeks. This was the second of every male Israelite was required to attend. Asa realized that to accomplish his great reforms he must have the cooperation of all the heads of families.

All united in a great assembly for God's blessing.

After a great sacrifice of seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep, "they entered into the covenant to seek Jehovah, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul."

It was to be no half-way covenant. They were sincere and happy with much rejoicing expressed in the music of trumpets and other musical instruments. They decreed death as the penalty of idolatry.

Asa made mistakes later in his reign, by not relying upon God to the fullest extent. But on the whole, Asa was a good king, reigning for forty-one years, honored and beloved by his people.

From the study of Asa's life we can take courage, renew our covenant with God and rely upon him to strengthen us to go forward in the battles of life. With a heart undoubted we can quote the golden text.

The Lord is my helper; I will not fear: what shall man do unto me Heb. 13:6.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that I will seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple. Psalm 27:4

Nerves Do they torture you by day? Keep you awake at night?

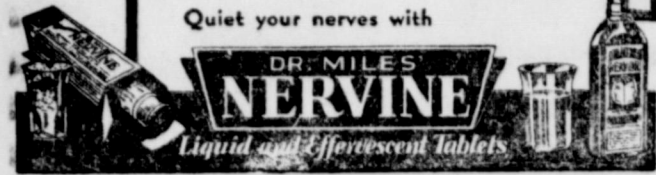

What is it that keeps hospitals open and doctors busy? NERVES. What is it that makes your face wrinkled and makes you feel old? NERVES. Nine times out of ten it's NERVES that make you restless, worried, haggard.

Nerves Do they make you Cranky, Blue--give you Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache?

When nerves are over-taxed, you worry over trifles, find it hard to concentrate, can't sit still. Nerve Strain brings on Headache. Nervous people often suffer from Indigestion. There may be absolutely nothing wrong with the organs of digestion, but the Nerves are not on the job to make the organs do their work properly.

Nerves Do they interfere with your work; ruin your pleasure; drive away your friends?

You're cheating yourself and the man who pays you if you work when your NERVES are not normal. You can't have a good time when you are nervous. You can't make or keep friends when you are keyed up and irritable. You may excuse yourself, but to others you are just a plain crank.

A Million V-8 Followers

... for the Ford idea of low-cost transportation

ON June 20th the millionth Ford V-8 was produced—finest of a long line of nearly 22,000,000 Ford cars.

26 years ago Henry Ford said, "We will build a motor car for the great multitude".

This basic idea has never changed. The name Ford is synonymous with dependable, sturdy low cost motor cars. The V-8 was the answer to the need of the modern motorist for greater speed and flexibility.

Without sacrificing one whit of traditional Ford owner economy and lasting performance, the V-8 has brought to a million owners the power and comfort previously found only in the most expensive cars.

New low prices for 1934 were put into effect June 15.

Dr. Sensabaugh was introduced and in a clever and searching talk asked for co-operation in the work, that had begun by Dr. Smith.

Bishop Boaz was formally presented and in his talk, stressed the following points in the work of the district: Evangelism, Finance, and Christian Education program.

The banquet closed with the singing of "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again."

The affair was in charge of the Sue Stanford Circle, and Merry Martha Circle of the Womens Missionary society of the Methodist church, with Mmes. H. O. Satterwhite, and Iola Mitchell, as general chairmen.

ARLISS HAS KEEN EYE FOR DETAIL

George Arliss, who has given the screen many unusual things in the way of characterization, enjoys a new experience in his latest picture, "The House of Rothschild," his first 20th Century starring vehicle which is the feature attraction at the Lyric Theatre Monday.

For seldom do the vagaries of the drama permit an actor to play father to himself as Arliss does in this Joseph M. Schenck-Darryl F. Zanuck presentation.

Takini for its plot the rise to world power of the Rothschild family during the Napoleonic era and stressing the loyalty and love between its members, this picture has been pronounced the biggest production in the respective careers of 20th Century picture and George Arliss, who plays both old JUMBO'S fame was due not only to his great size, but to the fact that he was an African elephant, a species which is seldom shown in circuses because of its fierce disposition. His advertised height was 12 feet, but a careful measurement made in 1883 showed him to be less than 11 feet.

Mayer Rothschild, the father, and Nathan Rothschild, the one of the five sons who did the most to win the family world renown.

There are more than seventy speaking parts in the film, the cast of which includes such screen luminaries as Boris Korloff, Loretta Young, Robert Young, Helen Westley, C. Aubrey Smith and others. Nunnally Johnson wrote the screen play which is based on a play by George Hembert Westley.

Watching Arliss as Alfred Werker directed him, during the filming of this United Artists release, one of the secrets of his success could have been easily realized. He is one star who works for the joy of his labors and to justify the large salary he receives.

While his contract requires that he be permitted to leave the set every afternoon at 4:30, he gives more of himself until quitting time than any young player whose career is still in the making. Every minute of the working day is concentrated on the picture, and even while snatching a brief relaxation between scenes, he is studying, studying; his mind never relaxes.

He has a keen eye for every detail of his production. He inspects the costumes of his fellow players as well as his own to insure their authenticity. He knows instantly whether the gold braid on the Duke of Wellington's uniform is right and the buttons on Napoleon's coat correct in number.

City Commission Defers Action on Gas Franchise

The Eastland Fuel Corporation, subsidiary of the Hickok Oil Corporation, which last Monday night presented to the Eastland city commission, an application for a franchise to build and operate a gas distributing system, in Eastland, re-presented the plan to the commission Tuesday night, the commission having taken no action on the matter Monday night.

The commission, however, again recessed the regular meeting without taking action on the matter to meet again Monday night at which time the matter of the new franchise will again be brought up.

At Monday night's meeting Commissioner Sherrill presided in the absence of Mayor Donald L. Kinnaird.

The fact that Mayor Kinnaird was absent and the further fact that members of the commission desired more time to discuss the proposition, were given as reasons for not taking any action on the new gas plant proposal.

Tuesday night Mayor Kinnaird was again absent and the commission again urged this and the fact that they had not had sufficient time to study the proposition as reasons for again deferring action.

Frank Williams, district manager for the Community Natural Gas company, which now has a franchise and operates a gas distributing plant in Eastland, was present at Tuesday night's meeting and told the members of the commission that he had authority to say to the commission the same rate and same advantages that Cisco receives. The Hickok people have been granted a franchise for a plant in Cisco and are making plans to start installation of a plant immediately. They are offering Cisco a 60 cent rate,

As the millions of World's Fair visitors saw tires made in the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, we asked thousands this question: "What do you value most in a tire?" Car owners from every state in the Union were interviewed—drivers of automobiles, trucks, and buses—and out of it all came one answer: "Give us Blowout Protection, Non-Skid Safety, and Long Wear, at moderate price."

Firestone engineers used every resource in developing a tire with these qualifications and selling to the public at a price in reach of every car owner. The answer is the new Firestone Century Progress Tire.

COMPARE QUALITY — CONSTRUCTION — PRICE

This new tire is in EVERY way the equal or superior of any other first quality tire built, regardless of brand — name — or by whom manufactured, or at what price offered for sale. Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store and examine it. We know you will be sold on the rugged quality. You will want to equip your car with these new tires.

Fort Worth Bathes Bare Woolly Chests

FORT WORTH.—Unlike those of New York and other eastern cities, Fort Worth bathers are baring their woolly chests without a grumble from objectors. Bare-chested bathers at New York's Coney Island are being haled into court and fined for indecent exposure, but not here. Since the city authorities held it permissible for men to wear only trunks, the one-pieceers have blossomed in profusion. "But we haven't had a single complaint," said Recreation Superintendent R. D. Evans. "People here are used to it, I guess."

"SCANDALS" AT LYRIC TODAY

At the Lyric Theatre today, Fox Film will have the distinction of presenting the first and only motion picture edition of the famous George White's "Scandals." The entire production was conceived and staged by George White himself. The film is reported to be as elaborate and as spectacular as any of White's previous successes on the Broadway stage. With the advantages offered by recent developments in talking pictures, White was able to produce a film that he says he could not possibly contemplate duplicating on the stage.

When White left for Hollywood he took with him his staff of song writers, dance directors and technicians. He also transported his gorgeous galaxy of original "Scandals" girls. The staff had been associated with White in his previous successes, and it was from them he anticipated the success that the film is said to be. The song writer, Jack Yellen, Irving Caesar, and Ray Henderson, all hit composers, have created ten melodic songs for this production. The dazzling dance in the eight revue numbers were directed by George Hale, past master at creating ultra-modern routines. Besides the song hits and revues, the film is enriched with fifteen comedy blackouts that give promise of being the high points of the production.

Interspersed with the song numbers, revues and blackouts is a romantic story involving the principals of the show. At one time, the romance threatens to ruin the show, but the clear thinking of the producer, who is George White himself, saves the show and brings happiness to a pair of lovers.

The cast with which White has surrounded himself is large, and is studded with an array of screen, stage and radio personalities. Among the most prominent are Rudy Vallee, Jimmy Durante, Alice Faye, Adrienne Ames, Cliff Edwards and Gregory Ratoff.

Produced by Robert T. Kane for Fox, the film was directed by Thornton Freeland and Harry Lachman. George White and Samuel Shipman wrote the story, and William Counselman was responsible for the screen play.

IRENE DUNNE COMING IN COLORFUL STORY "THIS MAN IS MINE"

In the RKO-Radio comedy-drama, "This Man Is Mine," which will come to the Lyric Theatre Sunday, Irene Dunne will be seen in what is promised to be an entirely new role for her.

This role, according to advices from the studio, is the forerunner of a series of more colorful characterizations than she has had in the past, roles designed to give scope for her native fire and animation.

In "This Man Is Mine," which was directed by John Cromwell and which is an adaptation of the stage success, "Love Flies In the Window," the star will be seen as a resourceful wife who not only manuevers to risk her husband to the tentacles of a siren, but also fights to recover him when he becomes a victim. How the wife teaches her errant mate an unforgettable lesson is said to give a new and unusual twist to the story as well as to afford the star an opportunity to display her dramatic talents to the very best advantage.

Ralph Bellamy will be seen as the unfaithful husband, and beautiful Constance Cummings as the woman who tempts him to leave the straight and narrow path. Others in the cast are Sidnel Blackmer, Kay Johnson, Charles Starrett, Louis Mason and Vivian Tobin.

Mastodon Skeleton Found In Mexico

JUAREZ, Mex.—Proof that ant animals of a by-gone era roamed northern and western huanhua was found in an area near Madera recently. U. S. Consul W. P. The skeleton is about five feet in length and is about the size of an elephant skeleton.

New Gas System Is Proposed For City of Eastland

The Eastland city commission Monday night will again take up for consideration the proposition submitted by the Eastland Fuel Corporation, recently organized by A. S. Hickok of Toledo, Ohio, to install a gas distributing system in Eastland. The proposition was first submitted last Monday night, then again Tuesday night, but was not considered and was passed until Monday night.

The plan to be submitted is as follows:

"At the request of a large number of the citizens of Eastland within the past few months, the Eastland Fuel corporation has decided to make the following proposition to the city commission and the citizens of Eastland:

If the Eastland city council and the citizens of Eastland indicate their willingness to support it, the Eastland Fuel corporation, a corporation organized by A. S. Hickok of Toledo, Ohio, proposes to install in the city of Eastland a gas fuel distribution system. Mr. Hickok is the president of the Hickok Oil corporation, which is the parent company to the Consolidated Gasoline company and the Hickok Producing & Development company, and the Breckenridge Gasoline company of Breckenridge.

This company proposes to install the gas system within the city of Eastland and to supply the system with gas at the city gate from wells in this immediate area in so far as practical. The distribution system within the city shall become the property of the city of Eastland when the net proceeds from its operation shall have paid back the cost of the system plus 6 per cent interest on the investment.

The company proposes to charge a rate of 60 cents net to domestic consumers, and furnish gas for commercial and industrial consumers at a substantial reduction which will be announced later; and to guarantee that 12 1/2 cents per 1000 feet of gas consumed by domestic and commercial consumers shall be applied toward paying out the investment. In addition to this 12 1/2 cents per 1000 feet, there shall be applied to the purchase of the plant by the city as much net profit as may be earned over and above that necessary for the operation and upkeep of the property.

After the plant has been paid out it shall become the property of the City of Eastland.

Under this arrangement the city will be able to obtain a reduced rate for gas and at the same time be paying a substantial amount on every 1000 feet of gas consumed, toward owning its own gas distribution system.

The installation of this system will require the expenditure of approximately $35,000 for labor. So far as is physically possible this labor will be recruited from Eastland and its immediate trade territory."

Vigilantes Watch Traffic Violations In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH.—In addition to keeping one eye cocked for motorcycle policemen, Fort Worth motorists now have to keep the other eye set for the vigilantes.

A lookout for the vigilantes, however, will be unavailing, as the members are secret. The vigilantes is an organization comprised of citizens who duty it is to watch out for traffic violators.

The organization, believed the only one of its kind in the state, was formed not only to curb traffic violations but also to reduce the number of automobile fatalities in Fort Worth.

The committee works like this: A member spots a violator. The member reports it to the committee. The committee sends the violator a letter of warning. The committee members keep check on the violator. Future offenses will be reported to the police.

Judge Harry Boynton commended the plan. He said police would follow-up the vigilantes and arrest violators when the driver was identified positively.

History of Texas Rangers Is Written

FORT WORTH, Tex.—A romantic and colorful history of the Texas Rangers has been completed by C. L. Douglas, Fort Worth newspaperman, and published by the Southwestern Press.

The book, entitled "Gentlemen in the White Hats," is a factual as well as picturesque relation of the famous Texas constabulary, dealing with such figures as Captain McNelly of the old time Rangers and Tom Hickman of the modern era.

An interesting chapter deals with Capt. Frank Hamer and his capture of Texas' most famous outlaw since Sam Bass, the murdering Clyde Barrow and his gun-moll, Bonnie Parker.

The author has been engaged in newspaper work for 11 years and has spent most of those years in Texas. "Gentlemen in the White Hats" is his first book.

Cavalry Has Beer; Infantry Has None At Encampments

AUSTIN, Tex.—The cavalry lads have a new one to pull on the doughboys when relative advantages of the service are the topic.

Troopers of the Texas National Guard had beer at their two-week encampment near Mineral Wells. The doughboys will have no beer at Palacios next month.

At least they are destined to go dry unless Maj. Gen. John A. Hulen changes his mind and orders. So far he has refused to permit beer at the Palacios encampment.

Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters ruled in favor of beer for the encampment of the cavalry brigade which he commands. It was at the canteen there both on tap and in bottles. Bottled beer was served for 10 cents. Mugs of draught beer were a nickel. Officers were not permitted to drink at the canteen. Beer was served as part of the officers' mess.

General Wolters says the serving of beer caused no disorder, was easily handled and seemed to please the personnel. Incidentally, the Palo Pinto county encampment was the first National Guard encampment at which beer has been permitted in many years.

General Hulen's chief objection to permitting beer at Palacios is said to be because many of the infantrymen are minors.

W. D. UPSHAW GIVES DRY TALK AT EASTLAND

Giving a scathing indictment of the "hesitating, vasualating, equivocating, fabricating politician" who winks a "wet eye" at wet Fort Worth and a "dry eye" at dry Eastland, former Congressman W. D. Upshaw, recent prohibition candidate for president, spoke to a large and enthusiastic crowd at a union service Tuesday night at the First Baptist church.

"Your honored Congressman, Judge Thomas L. Blanton, is not that kind of a politician," said the dry crusader, "and Senator Tom Connally with whom I also served eight years was like Judge Blanton, always on the right side of every great moral question. No man is fit to represent Texas or any part of Texas in Austin or Washington who stands for liquor in any form."

Speaking on the "Blue Coat and Red Flag," Upshaw declared, "The greatest battle that this nation has ever fought is not economic, nor industrial, nor political—it is a fight for the soul of the nation—it is a battle between the 'Blue Coat law and the Red Flag of Anarchy, and it is fitting to discuss this matter the night before our nation's birthday."

In describing the Communist parade that he saw in Indianapolis and the recent throng of a hundred thousand "Reds" in New York in a May-day parade, Upshaw said, "If I were President of the United States, I would issue an executive order from the White House that nowhere on the American continent, in any hall or any public parade should the red flag of anarchy ever be displayed. There is no room beneath the American flag for the heart that does not love it nor the arm that will not defend it."

Quoting the Bible verses: "Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood and established a city by iniquity; woe to him that giveth his neighbor drink," Upshaw said, "Liquor is just as poison as it was in the Bible days—just as poisonous as it was when outlawed by the eighteenth amendment."

"Liquor has coerced the legislation, corrupted politics, wrecked homes, debauched humanity and defied every law of God and man; and any politician that will stand for such liquor corruption, I say again, is not fit to represent the good people of Texas either in Austin or Washington," he continued.

"Building On the Rock of Ages" "If the moral forces of America recapture what they have lost by the repeal of the 18th amendment, we must not be afraid to declare that in the name of God we lift up our banner. We cannot build an enduring pyramid of civilization unless we lay the foundation on 'The Rock of Ages,'" he said.

"Liquor and religion do not mix," the speaker stated, "any more than liquor and gasoline at the steering wheel and you have a wreck like we are having every day under the 'New Deal' liquor, and if you mix liquor with religion and moral and political law you have a wreck just as fatal in public leadership. We can never win in this fight for Texas sobriety and national righteousness until we wash our hands of all parties and politicians that have liquor on their breath or on their platform. We must have parties and political leaders 100 per cent dry."
