Wind Gusts Blowing Cloud Dust Off Connellee Field Reveal Mavericks Earnestly Practicing With Petty

Dust being stirred up every afternoon at 4 and after at Connellee park—when it settles or is blown away by gusts of wind—one sees what S. J. Petty, Maverick coach, is endeavoring to work up into shape for the San Angelo game, Sept. 22. Monday afternoon, John Garrison, captain, was the first to report for practice after school work. The boys, from all indications, are earnestly working now. The coach has given stringent training orders and all the boys are abiding by the coach's rule. Only one-half cup of water is given the boys during the practice each afternoon. Good-natured, yet earnest, the boys go through the paces with the determination that there're going to get somewhere this year. Garrison was questioned about an Abilene fullback, who the questioner said, weighed 210 and could run the 100 in 10 flat. "If he can run it in 10 flat, then I can go it in 9.8," was Garrison's reply. And such seems the spirit of the entire team. They go through the paces with confidence. If they are admonished by the coach they strive to do their utmost and Monday succeeded in practically every instance. Garrison practiced at his passing, 15 yards, 20, and so on. The lighter ball means nothing to him, if anything he can do it better, it can be gripped considerably better, squad members say. H. L. Hart, assistant coach, took the backfield group off to the south end of the field while Petty instructed the line material in the ability to block and tackle. Fair tackles were gotten off Monday. Tackling, the coach instructed the boys, should be done in a safe way, one that insures stop of the ball carrier and yet is of a type that will not injure either of the party. Taylor, Hart and Garrett, from the practice, indicate if they make the first squad will be such to keep their opponents on the alert. Blocking practice was gone through for considerable time and the boys showed constant improvement. Thirty-odd boys were on the field Monday. Truman Brown, Ben Mackall and Albert Martin, Billy Shoopman should get somewhere with the team, observers indicated. The boys have the weight and power seemingly surges and manifest itself in every move. Mackall is the younger brother of Ed and Bill, two who in past years were mainstays of former Eastland Maverick teams. Development of limberness was practiced Monday by the boys who ran through the tires strewn about the south part of the field. Watching on the practice Monday were several who lettered at Eastland high in past years. Ed T. Cox, one-man team; "Mock" Watson, and "Chili" Oberby were among the spectators. Though the team as a whole measures up as a light aggregation, they should develop shiftness by their lightness and bolstered by the five lettermen, Frost, Garrison, Bagley, Tully and Cook, there is no reason they can't make a niche in Oil Belt football this year. The top hat is gradually disappearing from London. Streamline seems to be today's international byword.

The telegram read, "Stop all cattle purchases stop send report by letter immediately of purchases up to date." The suspension of all buying was interpreted by officials in the county cattle buying headquarters as one by which officials may take inventory of purchases to date and plan more equally future allotments for counties. Workers had bought half the county allotment for the week, 500, up to Wednesday when the halt order was received. Carbon and part of the Okra territory had received the workers Monday. Portions of the Scranton and Colony territory received the workers Tuesday and Wednesday, respectively.

Wireless Operator of Morro Castle Tells of Trouble Among the Ship's Officers

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Chief Radio Operator George W. Rogers, who sat at his key in the smoke-filled radio room as the S. S. Morro Castle burned beneath him, told a federal inquiry today an S. O. S. call was not flashed until about half an hour after parts of the ship were burning. "They are running around on the bridge and I can't get intelligent co-operation out of the men," Rogers quoted his first assistant as saying after being sent to the bridge for instructions. The testimony brought out that George Alagna, his first assistant, now under arrest in New York, had had trouble with the ship's officers, including Acting Captain W. F. Warmas and was going to be fired when the vessel reached New York. "What were they afraid of in regard to this man Alagna?" asked

RAY NEWNHAM TELLS HOW "SILLY DREAM" BROUGHT PROSPERITY BACK TO NORTH DAKOTA TOWN

Delivers Talk

At the request of a number of members of the Ranger Rotary club, who heard the program Wednesday, in which Ray Newnham presented a talk on his recent trip through 13 states, this paper is today presenting the talk, in full. It is full of interesting facts and good sound wisdom, and should prove as interesting to the readers of this paper as it did to the members of the Rotary club. Mr. Newnham's talk in full follows: Thought you would be interested in a few observations that I have made over a trip covering 13 states. Needless to say, every state was just about as dry as ours, and some of them worse, except for a small portion in northwestern Illinois. All should see A Century of Progress. The cost is nominal. However, if you can't stand a lot of walking, or you are lazy, you would not see it. Think Texas made a serious mistake by not having an exhibit in the Hall of States, especially in view of the Centennial. Surely no other state has more to boast of in natural resources, productivity, variety of production, diversity of climate and potential wealth unsurpassed, and under our six flags its history is the richest of all. A lot of this country I have traveled over before, but in this trip I was trying to get an inspiration—a new vision—a new lease on life. I am sure that each of you have asked yourselves the question, in these last four or five years: "What is the outcome? What do I have to look forward to, and just what will be my position when the thing finally terminates?" And I am sure you are still asking yourselves that same question. So far, no one has been able to answer it for you satisfactorily; everybody has an idea what might help, but no one so far has solved the problems that confront us, and that's just as true in other parts of the nation as it is here in our little community. We feel that we have a different situation here, than what they have elsewhere, with our declining population, payroll, property values, etc., and you ask what can be done to save me and mine under such conditions. Well, first of all someone has got to believe it can be done, and then find the way to do it. You know it is only during adversity that we do anything worthwhile; it was during adversity that our state was born. It was during adversity in 1917 during the worst drouth this country had had since the 80's that three or four dreamers got together, and induced a corporation to drill four test wells 3,000 feet deep each, which was almost an unheard of depth at that time, and was considered a very foolish experiment, as well as a costly experiment. There was no more reason for drilling for oil here at that time than there is for drilling in east Hong Kong now. Using our insights, it of course doesn't seem foolish now, but I assure you it was considered very foolish at that time. Who is going to start the ball rolling next time? Some more dreamers just like the ones who started that time, and the balance of us are going to have to quit knocking and bellyaching—starting pushing and boosting. At one time we all co-operated here, everybody worked to the same end. The Chamber of Commerce, the city administration, the citizenship at large, and we were loathe to criticize any project, that someone was trying to put over, even though we might not agree with it. Now if one tried to put over something, you say "selfish." There always has been self-preservation in everything. Now for the inspiration I got when I visited South Dakota. We entered the eastern edge at Sioux Falls and drove the full length of the state. Sioux Falls has 30,000 (Continued on page 4)

County Fair Looms As Best Yet, Head Chairman Declares

"The best fair Eastland county ever had," the slogan adopted by committees working on the fair, Sept. 19-22, looms as an absolute reality, H. C. Davis of Eastland, general chairman of the fair, declares. Interest shown by committees from other towns in the county and interest in the entertainment is without parallel, the chairman has declared. Plans for concessions by various committees in Eastland have rounded up into their final stages. Eastland groups who will have charge of various booths and the articles for sale and their entertainment features are as follows: Eastland fire department, paddle wheel, cigarette pop, pop corn and money table; Pythian Sisters, novelties; Knights of Pythias lodge, kiddie car ride and professional negro dodger; West Ward School P.-T. A., ice cream and novelties; Rotary Club, horse race wheel; Lions Club, ducking stool; Boy Scouts, dart board, milk bottle game, and hamburgers; American Legion, snow cones and bingo game. The ducking stool has in the past been one of the most popular features of the fair. Many persons take keen interest in seeing prominent men of Eastland submerged in several feet of water, past fairs have shown. Programs will be presented by county-wide talent every night during the fair, Davis says.

Goat-Sheep Buying Starts Next Week, Is Expectation

Hey Taxi! To The Relief Offices

AUSTIN, Sept. 12.—If a woman calls a taxi, gets in and directs the driver to take her to a relief commissary, it will be no novelty in Texas, believes State Representative Harold Kayton, San Antonio. It's already happened there. One woman used the same taxicab to go to three different commissaries and get supplies, he said. Handling relief in Texas will only add more "clients" to the list already under care of the state board of control. There are 19,000 permanently under the board's care in various state institutions.

A special venire of 70 men will be summoned this week to appear at the 88th district court Oct. 1 when a petit jury will be selected for the trials of Mary Lou Howell, Clifford Doggett and Elmer Van Cleave in connection with the death of L. F. Threet, rancher, near Cisco, who was found on his ranch in an unconscious state resulting from a bullet wound in his head, Aug. 15. The rancher died the following day in a Cisco hospital. Frank Judkins of Eastland will represent Mary Lou Howell in the case and Frank Sparks of Eastland will represent Clifford Doggett. The state has appointed C. D. Spain and Milton Lawrence of Eastland to represent Elmer Van Cleave. The trio, who are all in the Eastland county jail, will be tried under the charge of murder. Judge B. W. Patterson stated Wednesday. Order of the trials is dependent upon any of the defendants making motion to sever or expression of desire to be tried after another of the party. If none make motion to sever the cases will come in the order the indictments were filed or in a manner in which the court prefers. The state will likely ask invocation of the death penalty. District Attorney Grady Owen stated Wednesday.

Human Skin Kills Germs

CHICAGO, Ill.—Man's skin is the most remarkable disinfecting agent in existence, experiments of University of Illinois medical research scientists indicate. A series of tests under the direction of Dr. Lloyd Arnold of the University College of Medicine, showed that 98 per cent of thousands of bacterial which had been placed in contact with human skin disappeared within ten minutes. Dangerous bacteria, such as those of lockjaw, boils, typhoid and dysentery, vanished as quickly as did the more harmless ones. "However, the skin has certain minute never-sterile areas where the germs do not disappear," Dr. Arnold reported. "Four such areas are under the fingernails, the thin line which marks the junction of the lip with the membrane lining of the nostrils, and the rim of the eyelid where the outside skin meets the inside lining. Dirt most completely destroys the disinfecting qualities, the experiments further showed. The percentage of bacteria which disappeared for unclean skin surfaces was almost negligible in every case, the scientists found.

Thirty-one persons in Eastland county have received employment in the county sanitation project which started Friday for nine weeks duration, is under the supervision of the state and national departments of health, J. G. Reagan of Cisco, county foreman, stated Tuesday.

The program is a miniature replica of that which was discontinued several months ago and projects for the most part are those of construction of pit privies and septic tanks, the director of the program said.

Persons who desire construction of the type the department concerns itself with have been advised by the director to send their applications in early as the rule of first come, first served applies.

'WE'RE RICH AGAIN' SPIRITED COMEDY OF NEEDY ARISTOCRATS

Studded with ridiculously funny situations, RKO-Radios breezy comedy, "Were Rich Again," will come to the Lyric Theatre Sunday for Austin, Friday and Saturday with a cast of mirth-provokers that includes Edna May Oliver, Billie Burke, Marion Nixon, Reginald Denny, Joan Marsh, Buster Crabbe, Grant Mitchell and Gloria Shea. It is the screen adaptation of the stage successes by Alden Nash, "And Let Who Will Be Clever."

It tells the story of a demure country girl whose ambition is to be of service to others. In helping them, she also helps herself. And how!

She finds her aristocratic city relatives besieged by persistent 'process servers, and at the same time in the throes of preparing for the wedding, three days hence of the older daughter. The harassed household consists of a dumb but likeable swimming champion. The prospective bridegroom, and the good-looking, arrives simultaneously with the country cousin, and from this point on things begin to hum.

This girl Arabella Sykes from West Texas, figures out each step as she comes to it, but all her moves are directed toward the one goal—to get her man. How she goes about accomplishing this divides the fun "We're Rich Again" with the antics of the sporting grandmothers.

The locale of the story is Santa Barbara, California, but the scenes were filmed against the backdrop of one of the lovely homes in Beverly Hills. Incidentally, Buster Crabbe, champion of the last Olympic Games, does some beautiful diving and swimming in the picture. William Seiter directed the film.

Touch Teaching The Deaf to Hear

PITTSBURGH.—Deaf persons are now learning to hear through nerves of touch at De Paul Institute here.

By practice sensitivity of nerves in the chin may be increased, Sisters of Mercy found. Deaf patients are trained to distinguish from the fingers or the neck to the brain.

Difficulties are countless at first, Sisters said, but after preliminary training progress is rapid. The speaker must be close to the patient when speaking. Sensations must be stronger than average.

The sounds conveyed are "pure and rich," Sister Bernadette, who is in charge of instruction, said. Children, therefore, can learn to speak as well as normal persons.

Fingers are first trained to pick up sensations. They are held against the cheek of the speaker until sensitivity is increased. Afterward the speaker talks while standing close to the patient.

Six-year-old patients within three months learn 600 words, an increase over the normal child's vocabulary.

Sisters at De Paul first heard of the method at International Congress of the Deaf, Trenton, N. J., a year ago.

Isaiah, the regal prophet, whose had seen the King of Glory, whose name means "Jehovah saved," prophesied during the B. C. 755 to B. C. 679 in salem.

by oppressing the poor so that their lives were shortened by misery, poverty and soul sickness.

How grand are the words of the remedy! How they must have set the hearts of the true seekers to song!

"Wash you, make you clean, cease to do evil, learn to do well, seek justice," are some of the phrases it contains, ending with a gracious promise.

"Come now, and let us reason together, saith Jehovah: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow."

Then he again warns them that all will be well if they will but listen.

"But if refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it."

You shall eat of goodness and kindness with God but of violence and unhappiness in disobedience.

This picture must be in the hearts of pastors today who study and yearn for the membership of the church to be in their places, consecrating their lives to God, living in his presence.

What an upward sweep Christianity would take, were there no prayers from which God hid his eyes because of the evil in the heart behind it.

There are many ways to commit murder. Unkind words habitually spoken, crushing the life of some timid person down into soul-sickness until they have lost their will-power is the most common method. A few kind words would have kindled that soul into a living flame.

Do we dare to lay our hearts open to Christ that he may show us the hidden evil there? Do we cling to that which is evil or that which is good?

If we would have our prayers answered and have blessed peace in our hearts, we will come close through prayer, study and meditation until we can hear the still small voice and answer in humility, "Here am I, send me."

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart.—Psalm 24:3, 4. Golden Text.

Henry Methvin Is Held In Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 13.—Louisiana officers today retained custody of Henry Methvin, former Texas convict, who "put the finger" on Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker.

Efforts of Smith county authorities to return Methvin to Tyler for questioning failed when Caddo parish officials decided to hold him on charges in connection with the robbery of a Montgomery, La., bank.

Methvin was arrested here several days ago for the first time since Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson gave him a pardon in return for his assistance in setting the trap in which Barrow and Parker were killed last May.

VIOLENCE IS RAMPANT IN RHODE ISLAND

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Federal troops are being mobilized at Governor's Island for service in Rhode Island textile centers today. Men at the Governor's Island ferry said they understood four companies from the first battalion and one of the second battalion had been ordered to be prepared to move.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 13.—Two National Guard companies were ordered to duty in the Albemarle district by Adjutant General J. B. Meggs this afternoon. A tense situation was reported. Trouble was expected when night shifts go on at 4 p. m.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 13.—Federal authorities have virtually completed arrangements for the use of federal troops in maintaining order in the Rhode Island strike area.

Federal troops will be called into the area as soon as the legislature's approval of the request is obtained, Gov. Theodore F. Green said.

Troops were being prepared for emergency service from several concentration points in the first and second corps areas.

All troops it was understood, would be ready to move at 3:00 p. m.

It was reported Secretary of War Dern and Major General Connor, Commander of the First Corps Area, were enroute from Boston to Providence to make a first hand survey of the situation but this was denied at Boston.

Whether the president orders out federal troops will depend largely on their report.

The governor revealed President Roosevelt personally called him relative to the strike situation.

"He said he was getting in touch with Washington to have all information ready and all preparations made to respond to any call for federal troops that the state might make," Green said.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Textile strike leaders refused today to recall pickets in Rhode Island in response to a request from Gov. Theodore F. Green.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Sept. 13.—The first killing in the New England textile strike occurred here today in a clash between National Guardsmen and 5,000 strikers in which six others were shot.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 13.—Company I, of the 169th Infantry, was dispatched today to Mechanicville, where it was reported trouble was anticipated at the Uncas Finishing Company.

New Attempt To Swim Lake Erie

SANDUSKY, Ohio.—Florence Brushaber, 18, who dared to try swimming across Lake Erie, most treacherous of the Great Lakes, will try again soon, she said.

Miss Brushaber, after swimming 14 of the 33 miles across the lake, faintly gave up her first attempt when stomach cramps overtook her after dark as she battled the waves.

Miss Brushaber's first attempt was from Point au Pelee, Ont. She was to have crossed to Cedar Point on the Ohio mainland. Dr. Henry Lehrer, her physician, attributed her illness to improper dieting before entering the water.

NUDISTS SHORTEN LIVES

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Nudists are making a serious mistake by exposing themselves, so entirely, to the rays of the sun. Dr. Carl Loeb holds that sunlight increases the speed of metabolism and causes the human body to age more rapidly when given in such an "overdose." Although the human body requires some sunlight it does not warrant the complete and consistent exposure, as advocated by the nudists, he says.

Eight-Year-Old Boy Is Genius at Hard Problems

By United Press

AUSTIN. — Martin Grossman Ettlinger is 8 years old and goes to school only half the time, but already works intricate mathematical problems and will enter the tenth grade shortly after he celebrates his ninth birthday, Oct. 5, of this year.

He is the son of Dr. H. J. Ettlinger, professor of mathematics at the University of Texas.

Dr. Ettlinger little dreamed when he announced to his mathematics class in 1925 that he was father of a new born son, that the youngster would follow in his footsteps and work difficult calculus problems before he was 9 years old. The boy has developed so rapidly that he is allowed to attend school only half the time.

Young Martin will enter the University of Texas as a freshman when he is 11, even though he still will be restricted in the time spent in school. His father already has arranged for the boy to enter the university when he completes high school work.

The youngster has read all the childrens classics and adventure stories and now occasionally turns to heavier literature which might cause trouble to more mature minds. He is almost as well rounded as other children in his developments. Scholastically, he surpasses them easily and has made straight A grades in all subjects.

Martin rapidly learned all mathematics taught in the city schools, and dropped the course. He found the mathematics easy which his father prescribes for freshmen in the university, so has taken up calculus during the summer. He also is interested in chemistry and knows much of the theory of this subject.

His parents fear he might be injured, so refused to let him experiment in the laboratory. He will commence this work under supervision when he enters school this fall.

One of Martin's most astounding feats is the rapidity with which he reads. Tests show his average rate is 1900 words a minute. He sometimes reads as fast a 2,200 words. Equally impressive is the fact that he retains most of the knowledge he acquires when reading at such high speed.

When three and one half years old, Martin attended kindergarten. He began first grade work when 5, skipped to the third grade when he was six. He was in the ninth grade at 7. Were it not that he has been slowed down to half time, he would be graduated from high school at 10.

Martin Ettlinger enjoys other diversions besides studying. He is interested in model airplanes and keeps his parents busy finding new designs for him.

France Planning Palace of Wine

PARIS. — A palace of French Wine is about to be inaugurated here, due to interest in wine as an every day beverage.

It is planned to make the palace both an artistic and a business center, and to glorify wine in a manner which hitherto never has been attempted.

Every wine produced in France will be available to sample, or to purchase. Reserves in the palace cellar will enable speedy delivery direct to the consumer.

With a restaurant specializing in cuisine which sets off French wines in the best manner, it is hoped that the casual visitor will obtain the groundwork of a complete education in the subtle art of wining and dining.

Pellagra Is Still Prevalent In Texas Dr. Brown Says

AUSTIN.—Six hundred and 45 Texans died last year of pellagra, declared Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer. Pellagra is a disease that is caused by lack of the proper foods. It comes on slowly and may not be recognized until the victim begins to have a sore mouth, stomach trouble and reddening and scaling of the skin. When these symptoms appear the disease has been present for some time.
The longer a patient has pellagra the harder it is to cure, so one should be on the lookout for the early symptoms such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning of the feet and hands. The disease may become so severe as to affect the mind.
Pellagra is not contagious. As long as a person eats enough of the right kind of food and is not otherwise diseased, he is in no danger even if he lives with a pellagra patient.
The prevention of pellagra depends upon eating the right kind of food at all times. To make sure that the diet is right, it should always include plenty of milk daily, some fresh meat, and as many fresh vegetables as possible. Tomatoes, whole wheat products, salmon, brewer's yeast and fresh fruits are especially valuable. Having provided these essentials of a proper diet, the rest may be arranged according to family and personal likes. In this way pellagra may be avoided.

start off with a new hat that reflects the fashion mode. It doesn't seem to matter if one has to build her wardrobe from last season's clothes, because the hat must be new and up to date. And although advance news on fashions, as on anything else is apt to be upset any minute, there are certain hat trends for which to watch.
Crowns of street and sport hats deeper in the back, but still shallow at the front seem to vie for first place with the wider brimmed hats turned up at the back and worn slanted over one eye. The classic small felt with a pointed or boxy crown is an addition to the fall mode. Then the berets! Whether stiff, formal or crushed like a pancake on the side of the head, these "little reflectors of personality" will captivate you as will the new clips, feathers, bands and bows used so discreetly as trimming.
Let's give the hats as well as ourselves a break! Don't go "so-phisticated" in hats when your entire ensemble reflects girlish enthusiasm. Use discretion!

Huey P. Long Wins in Election At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—Sen. Huey P. Long became a figure of greatly increased national significance today as a result of his victory over the local political machine in yesterday's primary.
But the fight was not over. The old regulars, in control of New Orleans for several decades, were believed planning litigation on the grounds Long's election commissioners counted the votes.
Long brought in the militia, seized the office where votes were registered, scrapped some 25,000 allegedly illegally registered voters. His two congressmen won nominations and his candidate for the supreme court and the public service commission also won.

Presbytery Started 1884 at Eastland

A historical paper Wednesday the closing day of the Alabama Presbytery fiftieth anniversary meet at Baird, presented by Eugene H. Surface of Lumberton stated that the Presbytery was organized Nov. 28, 1884, at Eastland. On the opening date of the Tuesday, Rev. L. B. Gray of the Grey spoke on "The Church of Today."

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep... Vigor... Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.
If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amounts of burning and discomfort, the 15 miles of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swelling and aches, rheumatic pains and dizziness.
If kidneys don't empty 3 times every day your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait until it's too late. Get DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, a doctor's prescription... which has relieved and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.
But don't take chances with strong stimulants or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to injure and irritate delicate tissues. Look for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS... the old reliable that contains no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-McMillan

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us sluggish, grouchy and no good for anything. What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile does not digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 1/2 of our food decays in our 25 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every 6 minutes.
When our friends smell our bad breath that we don't and we feel like a whipped smelt, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you want for 25c. ©1934, C.M.Co.

population, the largest town in the state. The next largest town is 10,000, and there is only one of that size. The next largest town is 7,000, and there is only one of that size. Only 40 miles of hard-surfaced road from one end of the state to the other, being their principal highway. The country is barren, desert looking all the way, and of course sparsely populated. The homes in the country are the worst I have ever seen. It made me think of that old boy who was living out in West Texas in the 80's, during the drouth, and before he got ready to leave he wrote on his shack, with a piece of chalk: "Two hundred miles to a railroad, 50 miles to the postoffice, 30 miles to wood, 20 miles to water, six inches to hell. God bless our home. Gone to live with the wife's folks." But, anyway, we journeyed on through this barren country to the bad lands, which of course are still more barren and properly named.
We came to Rapid City, in the Black Hills, which is the center of a once prosperous mining district, whose mines of course by this time have been depleted, and a number of them shut down. It, like this country, is not adaptable to farming. In fact it is not nearly as good farming country as this, and I understand that they found themselves in much the same condition that we find ourselves here, and they were asking themselves the question, "What can we do to keep this community alive?" But somebody who thought it could be done thought out a plan that was available to almost everybody in western United States, but during adversity when something had to be done, they started to work on the plan. They built a hotel in the Black Hills which hadn't been so very well patronized. In 1927 they, together with their United States senator, invited President Coolidge to use it as the summer white house. Sometime in 1927 there was a bill introduced in congress, which passed both houses and was signed by President Coolidge, to carve the busts of Washington, Lincoln and Jefferson on those rocks on Mount Rushmore. They have already been working there five years; they will be working about 10 years more before they finish. Washington is about completed; when they finish Jefferson and Lincoln they are considering trying to carve Theodore Roosevelt also. This of course has brought a nice payroll to the city, but best of all it has brought thousands of tourists to the city, and it will bring thousands more throughout the years to come, and I am sure that there are thousands of rocks in the states of Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Montana, that would be just as acceptable for this purpose as Mount Rushmore, and most assuredly they are located in more accessible places, where there would be paved roads leading to them. This, my friends, if it were not a realization, would sound like the silliest dream of all. What will pull us out of the hole here? Some silly dream just like the above, when we have made up our minds to work together for a common good.
In concluding, fellows, what I have been trying to say is let's all stick together as we have in the past; let's pull for the city in which we live, and when a dreamer comes along, and one will come, let's join hands with him and go on down the line for a bigger Ranger, a better Ranger, and a city which we will all be proud to call home. I thank you.

Fertilizers Cut the Costs for Farmers When "Blended"

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"Blended" fertilizers are one answer to the quest for a cheaper source of satisfactory nitrogen for cotton fertilizers.
If enough sodium nitrate is used the acidity of ammonium sulphate, a mixture of these two relatively inexpensive sources of nitrogen produces as good yields of cotton as when the more expensive organic sources of nitrogen, such as tankage and cottonseed meal, are used.
This is the result of experiments in the southeastern cotton belt, by Oswald Schreiner and J. J. Skinner of the division of Soil Fertility, U. S. Department of Agriculture, reported today before the American Chemical Society, meeting in Cleveland. Blending works equally well with the concentrated fertilizers, now coming into more general use.
These findings are economically important because they place inexpensive inorganic and synthetic nitrogen products, when properly balanced with basic materials, on a par with crop producing value with more expensive organic compounds from animal and vegetable wastes. The organic materials cost, on the basis of 1934 prices, is almost three times as much per unit as the inorganic.
In the experiments, two thirds sodium nitrate and one third ammonium sulphate gave much better results than one third the nitrate and two thirds the sulphate. The former mixture also gave as good yields as one part sodium nitrate, one part ammonium sulphate and two parts of either dried blood, cottonseed meal, fish scrap or tankage.
Another experiment showed that over a period of three years, full applications of fertilizer at planting time gave slightly higher yields and, naturally, lower labor costs than split or delayed applications. This was true whether the source of the nitrogen was sodium nitrate, ammonium sulphate or urea. Similar results have previously been reported by the Alabama and Georgia stations.

Let's Talk About Clothes

DENTON, Aug. 13.—Did you ever watch an artist chipping away at a cake of soap? Smoothing off the rough edges, chipping away here, rounding out there, and all of a sudden an exquisite little statue shows up. Well, that's exactly what happens when you go to select your hats!
A tilt over the right eye lends a certain note of sophistication to your entire being while one of those little "off the face" hats that proved so popular this summer seem to accentuate the girlishness and bursting enthusiasm of your individual personality. Variety is the spice of personalities and every hat you try on expresses a different one.

STATE EMPLOYEES ARE UNEASY ABOUT JOBS

OFFICIALS PUT NEW PEOPLE IN JOBS

Who Have Served Time May Be Re-elected in Positions.

Sept. 10.—Uneasy lies the average state employee. Changing administrations hunting for new people to put in to do what they will do next

There will be a new attorney general probably new heads in other state departments. Officials always have been nervous and staunch practice "to the victor belongs the spoils."

Hard Headed Negro Seeks New Opponents

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Life has been a long series of hard knocks for "Baby" Anderson, 65-year-old Nashville negro. Taking licks is sport, however, to "Baby"—he claims to be the champion "head-butted" south of the Mason-Dixon line.

"I don't aim to bruise my head on nobody," smiled "Baby." "I uses my head. I've made many a nigger holler quit. All you got to do is to have the hardest head."

The negro, now a porter in a local meat market, came to the United States from Jamaica when a lad. During the Spanish-American war, he went to Cuba and the Philippines. Later, he "head-butted" for five years with Ringling Brothers circus.

Anderson's pride is the assertion that he never has found a skull he could not outkick. His last encounter was three weeks ago in Atlanta. He won a 20-cent wager in that battle of heads, but has gained much larger sums for conquering opponents with his concrete-like head.

Former V. President Recalls 1874 Drouth

TOPEKA, Kan.—Speaking of drouths, Charles Curtis, former Vice-President of the United States, has seen some of them before. He wrote to a friend here: "I feel sorry for our people. I think I know what they are going through. I remember a number of drouth years in Kansas, but the one I will remember the longest was in 1874."

"I stood in the streets of Louisville, then the county seat of Potawatomi County, and saw covered wagon after covered wagon go through town every day for weeks. They were going back to Missouri and Indiana and other states.

"Then I went in a covered wagon and horseback some of the way from Louisville to Wichita. The crops had been burned up by the hot winds. The streams and waterholes were dried up. Homes had been abandoned. Dead cattle and horses were strewn along the way. I never want to see such a sight again."

Governors Called Out the Guards In Many States

State governors, exercising greater power over the National Guard units of their states than the president does over the federal army, have "called out the guard" in 26 states at various times within the last year.

So great is the governor's power over the National Guard that he can become a virtual military dictator, according to Henry E. C. Bryant in an article in the current issue of the magazine, "Today."

The article said that the call for guardsmen most frequently has been to intervene in strikes, as was recently the case in California, Oregon, Minnesota, Alabama, Ohio, and Wisconsin. But they have been summoned for a variety of other tasks: To protect governor's families, to hunt escaped prisoners, to patrol summer camps for wealthy children, to protect public property, to enforce state laws, to seize voting lists (in Louisiana), to enforce the authority of a governor whose right to office is questioned (North Dakota).

Although the federal government furnishes $35,000,000 a year to provide equipment, rent money, maintain National Guard property, for payrolls and summer camp expenses, the War Department has almost no power over the various units. Thus, when observers protested that use of the National Guard to seize voting lists in Louisiana was beyond its functions, the War Department could not have acted even had it wanted to, the article said.

Use of the National Guard in strikes often has resulted in bloodshed. An exception was at Kohler, Wis., model industrial community where strikers welcomed the guardsmen after two of their number had been killed. The guardsmen dismantled machine gun units at the Kohler plant.

Elsewhere—in San Francisco, Minneapolis, Toledo and Portland—and the presence of guardsmen antagonized strikers and led to violence, use of firearms and bayonets and tear and nauseating gas.

Moody Argues Cigaret Tax Law

AUSTIN, Sept. 11.—Former Gov. Dan Moody today closed a four-hour argument in district court, most of which was an attack on validity of the state cigarette tax statute.

The former governor appeared as one of the counsel for former Attorney General Claude Pollard, charged with consenting to the use of counterfeit cigarette tax stamps. Moody's effort was to quash the indictment. He urged Judge W. F. Robertson to declare the indictment insufficient and also to hold the law invalid at once so it may be corrected at the present session of the legislature.

Charters Granted In Texas Increase During August

AUSTIN.—New charters granted Texas corporations during August rose sharply from July, both in number and capitalization, but were somewhat below those of August, 1933, according to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

The number of new charters granted during August totaled 119, a rise of 13.4 per cent from July but a decline of 3 per cent from August last year while capitalization of $2,200,000 represented an increase of 10.2 per cent over a month ago, but a drop of 15.6 per cent from last year.

Corporations with capitalization of $5,000 or less, of which there were 56, showed an increase of 40 per cent over July and 2 per cent below last year while the four with capitalization of 100,000 or more was the same number as in July but 20 per cent below August a year ago.

Groups showing an increase in comparison both with July and with August last year were: Oil, real estate-building, and out-of-state permits.

BOBBIT ASKS DEMOCRATS IN VOTE ON LIQUOR

GALVESTON, Sept. 11.—A demand for submission of prohibition promptly to the voters of Texas was made in the keynote speech of R. L. Bobbitt of Laredo, at the state democratic convention here today.

Bobbitt made the speech as temporary chairman of the convention. "Our party is a liberal party, believing on fundamental principles of local self government and state rights and we are going to stand for those principles," he said.

"The people of Texas are more interested in bread than they are in hogs and herring than they are in hooch and horsing." "They are more interested in the wide and just safeguards around the homes and the schools than they are in boxing arenas, pool halls or any scheme of so-called legalized gambling."

"Let us promptly submit the question to the voters and then as honest democrats who believe in the majority rule, abide by the results."

A number of disagreements appeared in prospect. Tom Love, Dallas dry, was ready to fight submission.

A proposed plank condemning horserace betting also may cause a scrap.

Selection of Jim Kilday of Houston as permanent chairman may be fought by the delegation from his own county, though Tom Connally, who was opposed to his selection, has said he will not fight Kilday.

Ford to Build Huge Steel Mills Soon

DEARBORN, Mich., Sept. 9.—Henry Ford is today in full swing on the final move that will give his industry an absolutely independent supply of the 36 different kinds of special steels which it requires.

The move involves the building of two huge new steel mills, installation of a vast amount of special machinery and sufficient additions to his present power equipment to drive the new mill. The construction will require eight months to complete and will cost between $12,000,000 and $13,000,000.

When the new mills are ready, Ford can produce 3,000 cars a day without buying a pound of steel in the market.

He will have attained a position, so far as steel supply is concerned achieved by no other private manufacturer in the world. All other great manufacturers using steel are dependent on outside producers—even the great European and American Ordnance and railroad equipment manufacturers.

Ford's move will tend further to make the Detroit area a great steel producing district by the addition of 500 tons of finished steel a day.

Workmen have already nearly completed the sinking of the caissons for the foundations of the two big mills which will be erected to the east and west of the present open hearth and steel mill buildings. That to the east will be a continuous cold strip mill capable of turning out sheets up to 84 inches wide; that to the west a continuous hot strip mill, turning out strips 48 inches wide.

Built of steel and brick in the same design as the present steel mill, the new buildings will provide 229,400 square feet of floor space and this, together with 64,500 square feet of floors in the present buildings will be required for the new operations. They will provide sheet steel for Ford bodies and frames.

The buildings alone will cost $650,000. Into them will go special machinery and equipment costing more than $6,000,000—a 54 inch blooming mill, huge reheating furnaces, roughing mills, hot finishing mills, cold mills, 500 feet of continuous pickling tanks and several annealing furnaces.

The plants will give employment to 500 additional men.

To produce the additional power needed to drive the new mills will involve a practical duplication of the present Rouge Plant power equipment. Orders for turbo-generators to cost $2,000,000 were placed a few weeks ago. They will be housed in space provided years ago in the present powerhouse. In total this will go a new high pressure boiler and turbines, condensers, metering and control equipment, feed and circulating pumps and other machinery will bring the total cost of the new power development well above $6,000,000. The combined cost of power and steel developments will be approximately $12,750,000.

The present steel productive capacity of the Detroit area, including the Newton Steel company at Monroe, is approximately 6,000 tons a day. Ford's new operations will increase this production by 25 per cent.

Texas Woman, 63, Is Still Able to Handle Ranch

BAY CITY, Tex.—Mrs. May Cleveland is 63, a little wisp of a woman but even now she can twirl a lariat, throw a half-breed Brahma or slap on a branding iron with the best of the vaqueros.

"A cow and a horse, that's all I know," she said. "And I'd rather be dead, yes, I really had, than not to be able to handle my own cattle."

But from appearances she does not have to worry about that for several years at least. When branding season comes she dons a ten-gallon hat, bit-rovved spurs, high boots and riding pants and goes out on the range to help in the branding.

She is one of the last of the old order of cattle-women reminiscent of Amanda Burks of the last century, the so-called cattle queen of Cotulla who drove herds of South

Texas cattle over prairie trails to northern markets.

Mrs. Cleveland comes of hardy stock. Her father was Norman Savage, early day cattleman. Her own grandmother, back in the late 40's killed an Indian with a rifle down near the old town of Matagorda.

She was born and reared in Matagorda county where her grandparents settled during the war with Mexico in 1847. She has known the range all her life.

And a short conversation with her is convincing that she inherited a large quantity of her grandmother's qualities.

"A good cow pony and a six-shooter, they're the best friends the cattleman ever had," she said.

Then she will relate the story of her "best cowpony," how it would keep the mother cow away while Mrs. Cleveland applied the branding iron to the calf. The pony was so adept, she recalled, that only on rarest occasions did the cow ever succeed in putting the woman vaquero to flight.

The calves of the Brahma cross-breed are difficult to handle, because of their strength, especially for a woman. But Mrs. Cleveland "knows the tricks of the trade."

She has been in the saddle since childhood, ridden virtually every kind of horse known to the South Texas range and in all her life has never been thrown but once, she said.

Cattle thieves still infest the ranch. Mrs. Cleveland resorts to the old method of handling cattle thieves, the six-shooter, an important bit of the code of the old West.

"Somebody has been stealing our calves," she said. "My son's going down to the pasture tonight to lay out and try to catch 'em at it."

Then turning to the son, she advised him in that code of the old West: "Take the six-shooter, and if you catch 'em just send into town for the undertaker."

Wonder what the rattlesnakes will do for thrills now that biting evangelists is going out of style?

Veterans Making Artificial Lures

KERRVILLE, Texas, Sept. 10. Profitable hobbies among patients at the U. S. veterans hospital at Legion include making artificial lures for fishing, and extensive use of the hospital library.

Paul F. Carrington, patient from San Antonio, is a devotee of angling and carves out his own game-fish lures. He has named his favorite "Tom Thumb," which is a minnow whittled from cedar and painted bright colors. Carrington has caught bass as long as 20 inches with his hand-made bait. He frequently adjusts hooks, spinners, and colors after trying out the lures.

Louis J. Magenis, native of Ireland, also a patient entered from San Antonio, reads books and newspapers and follows world affairs. He considers William Butler Yeats the greatest poet his native land has produced. Magenis has done newspaper work on the Poughkeepsie Evening Enterprise (N. Y.), and the Del Rio Evening News and San Antonio Express in Texas.

Tuesday, when studies began at Eastland high and other schools, was confined to assignments given by the teachers and other than late registrants enrolling, bore all the earmarks of an ordinary school day.

'Methodism in Texas Is Pastor's Subject'

"Methodism in Texas" was the subject of Rev. Rosemond Stanford, who returned last week from the Texas Methodist conference in San Antonio, at the morning services of the Methodist church Eastland Sunday.

Growth of the Methodist church is shown in figures presented by Rev. Stanford, three Methodist missionaries in 1933; today 241 white Methodists, 1,000 Mexican and negro. There were five annual conferences with 1,000 Methodist preachers, Stanford states.

Proposed to Aid Producers of Farm Raised Oil

WASHINGTON.—A program to 1,000,000 dairy, livestock, cotton and other farmers by reducing surplus of more than a billion dollars of home-grown edible fats oils in storage was announced by the newly formed Institute of American Fats and Oils.

The organization is composed of representatives from the cattlemen and cotton sections of the country and is headed by C. O. Moser, formerly president of the National Cotton Co-operative association.

Despite the drought, which has reduced the supplies of cottonseed, corn and livestock, and which has also affected the dairies, there is a growing surplus of domestically produced oils," Mr. Moser said. "It is our hope to make this oil available in foodstuffs, to the public at reasonable prices and to help relieve the tremendous burden represented by the surplus of oils now in storage."

Mr. Moser said, "The program for the elimination of cheap oils which have entered competition with American oils and with butter, and the removal of trade barriers which exist and which seriously handicap interstate commerce in food products manufactured from oils, is a startling paradox to the abundance of edible fats, the American public consumes far less than the amount required for normal health," Mr. Moser asserted.

The department of agriculture estimates that the annual need of a person for fats is 52 pounds. "Of this, the department says, 36 pounds should be in the form of table spreads. Last year, the per capita consumption of table spreads was only 20 pounds. If it were brought up to the normal requirements, a huge part of the surplus of American oils would be wiped out, and the cash income of the farmers, the original producers, would approach the 1929 income, from which it has fallen to less than half."

"The sad part of the business," Mr. Moser continued, "is that while there is sufficient fats in storage to provide energy producing food for 25,000,000 people for one year, fully 25,000,000 people, according to an estimate of the department of agriculture of Iowa, are doing without the recognized table spreads, butter and margarine. This group is either unable to purchase butter or is prevented from buying margarine because of the restrictions set up by the federal and state governments."

To protect producers of butter, the Institute of American Fats and Oils advocates the elimination of foreign produced oils, and to make margarine available for more people it advocates free trading among the states for a product manufactured entirely of American-grown oils.

"Our program," Mr. Moser said, "will still provide a more ample control of margarine than is set up for any other food product, will protect butter from unfair competition, will provide an outlet for the surplus of American grown oils, and will relieve the consumer of unjust and discriminatory taxes on his table."

To bring the truth and force of these facts to the attention of federal and state lawmakers and the public generally, is an educational task beyond the financial ability of the impoverished farmers, according to Mr. Moser. Recognizing the common interest which they have with the processors and manufacturers of the finished products in increasing their consumption, the representatives of the farmers concerned recently met at Chicago, and invited the processors to join with them in setting up the Institute of American Fats and Oils.

The following officers and directors were elected: C. O. Moser, New Orleans, pioneer co-operative marketing leader and for many years president of the cotton co-operatives; president; F. E. Mollin, executive secretary, American National Livestock association, Denver, vice president; C. G. Henry, general manager, Mid-South Cotton Growers association, Memphis, treasurer, and Rae Epstein, formerly assistant secretary, the American Cotton Co-operative association, New Orleans, secretary and assistant treasurer.

Other directors are: B. A. Stufflebeme, president, Texas Co-operative council, Dallas; T. H. Gregory, president, National Cottonseed Products association, Memphis; H. R. Davison, vice president, Institute of American Meat Packers, Chicago, and John F. Jelke Jr., manufacturer, Chicago.

Lois Dowdle Cobb, well known home economics authority, lecturer and writer, and former president of the Southern Agricultural Workers association, has been appointed home economics adviser.

OLD CLOCK ACCURATE
CENTERVILLE, Kan.—Frank McGee's father bought a grandfather's clock from a peddler who passed the McGee home at McGee's Mills, Pa., in 1832. When Frank moved to Kansas he had a stone alcove built in his house for the clock, where to this day it runs as accurately as it did more than a century ago.

A "Prune Deal" Rules Idahoans

BOISE, Idaho.—The New Deal has brought a "prune deal" to Idaho this year, according to Henry McBirney, president of the Prune Growers' association.

Marketing regulations now in effect establish the following prices below which no prunes can be sold by local dealers:

- $.325 on suitcases.
- .375 on faced lugs.
- .575 on jumble half bushels.
- .625 on faced half bushels.
- .675 on four-basket crates.

The local Idaho dealer and shipper is tied hand and foot to maintain this market for the grower, McBirney said, and it is up to the grower to see that it is lived up to. If the grower sells at a lower price to outside sources, he can make it possible for some organization to wreck the entire set-up.

A man has been found who remembers Dr. Wirt, but he couldn't explain why, except that he has a good memory for the most obscure facts.

Teachers Interest Shown for Degree Work in Eastland

Interest has been manifest by teachers of Eastland, Carbon, Olden and Morton Valley in taking study towards degrees from Dr. D. M. Wiggins, Hardin-Simmons professor, Abilene, who may instruct weekly in Eastland, W. P. Palm, Eastland high school principal, said Tuesday.

Mr. Palm, who is aiding Dr. Wiggins in rounding up those who may take a course, believes that possibility of the instructor making regular trips to Eastland a boon to teachers who may study and make headway for degrees.

Selection of Dr. Wiggins study, which if he comes, will be made by registrants in the course, has not yet been decided, Palm stated today.

San Angelo Game Daylitter, Night Game Out, Petty

Eastland Mavericks will play the San Angelo Bobcats on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 22, in San Angelo, in lieu of the night engagement, Coach S. J. Petty announced Monday, because, the coach said, the Bobcat light installation would not be completed by that date.

The San Angelo engagement marks Eastland's ice-break on the season schedule. On the horizon is the Breck-Eastland game, Oct. 12, Eastland's first conference game.

Izaak Walton League Urges Game Shelter

LINCOLN, Neb.—Inclusion of a program to provide wildlife feeding and nesting grounds within the shelter belt project recently approved by President Roosevelt is advocated by the Nebraska Izaak Walton League.

Ever since the president's shelter belt project was announced the Izaak Walton League has been recommending planting of an undergrowth of shrubs, berry-bearing bushes and smaller trees, in order that song and upland game birds and small game might be provided with adequate cover and with attractive nesting and feeding grounds.

The league has been informed that U. S. forest service now is planning to include the planting of shrubbery in the tree belt.

35 LETTERMEN IN OIL BELT COMING OUT

Thirty-five lettermen in the Oil Belt football district are coming out this year for their respective teams, according to information available.

Eastland has five lettermen being coached by S. J. Petty and H. L. Hart. Lettermen: Captain John Garrison, fleshy quarterback; Derold Tully, one of the heaviest members of the Maverick squad, fullback; Clifford Cook, center; D. C. Frost and Billy Joe Bagley, sturdy guards.

Ranger's eight lettermen have built to date the threat that they will be among the Oil Belt leaders. Five of the eight are regulars and two of them the principal stars of last year meless. Those returning are Captain Aaron Anderson, fullback; Rankin Britt, end; Jacoby end; Warden, guard; Walsh, tackle; Bunton, center; Westbrook, end, and Billy Payton, tackle.

Breckenridge has nine lettermen. It is thought that possibly the team which has been out of the top place since 1930 will this year lead the district. Lettermen, Captain Bernice Collins and James Cadd, ends; E. E. O'Rear and Kenneth Russell, tackles; Bob Pitzer, guard; Spud Taylor, quarter; Elton Hodges, Dale Hall and Earl Clark, halves.

Moco Magness this year is gone. Tackle and center positions will be left to the newcomers. Cisco has six experienced performers. Dexter Shelley's some 30-odd squad at present, it is said, will ably fill the three positions left to the incoming football players. The six, Sentell Caffrey, Popeye Bensley and Frank Shackelford, backs; Norris Littlepage, center; Gerald Markett, guard, and Theron Graves.

Abilene's team has five lettermen and is augmented by a few who lacked a few quarters last year to earn their letter. The five, H. J. Jones, center; Eho Howell, guard; A. W. Balfanz, end; Benton Collins, tackle; Gervis Galbraith, back.

Brownwood, with one of the largest squads in the belt, has only two lettermen, these being Edward Stanley and Ralph Hickles. They are matched against Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio, one of the strongest teams in the state last year. Jew Keeling replaces Coach Gene Taylor, who has assumed the

COLMAN BACK—HE'S "DRUMMOND" AGAIN

Ronald Colman returned from a year's vacation to bring an old friend back to the screen of the Lyric theatre, where "Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back," begins a two-day showing Monday.

Ever since Colman made the earlier talkies, "Bulldog Drummond," the filiguing public has retained a fond memory of the dashing Capt. Hugh Drummond whom he first portrayed in that picture. Drummond also holds a fond place in Colman's heart, for it was in the creation of this character that he scored his greatest screen hit.

It was pleasant news to the star, therefore, when Joseph M. Schenck and Rarryl F. Zanuck informed him that they had purchased "Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back," as his first starring vehicle under his new contract with their 20th Century Pictures.

The story is based on the latest novel by H. C. McNeile, depicting the further exploits of the lovable adventurer. The excitement starts when Drummond attempts to unravel a completely baffling mystery for a beautiful young girl whose uncle disappears strangely in the London house of a sinister Oriental prince.

Loretta Young portrays the girl, Warner Oland plays the prince, Charles Butterworth is seen as Drummond's not quite bright friend Algy, and Una Merkel appears as the bride Algy deserts on her wedding night to dabble in mystery with Drummond. C. Aubrey Smith plays Inspector Nielson of Scotland Yard who contributes complications.

Roy Del Ruth, who directed "The Terror," the talkie's first mystery thriller, handled the megaphone on this hair-raising sequel, which Nunnally Johnson, who was responsible for the brilliant screen version of "The House of Rothschild," prepared for the screen.
