Attorney Gives Views On The Proposed State Amendments

By L. R. PEARSON

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform. All property in this state shall be taxed in proportion to its value," thus saith our Constitution, Art. VIII, Sec. 1. These commands provide restrictions on the powers of the legislature. They, at the same time, create and assure to all property owners in this state certain valuable rights vital to their welfare. The provisions are so manifestly fair and just as to suggest the thought that the framers of the Constitution were unduly mistrustful of the legislature in considering them necessary. Time, however, has no doubt previous experience had done, has amply demonstrated their wisdom. A campaign is now on to repeal in part the restrictions thus imposed. Certain gentlemen, by the radio, through the press and otherwise, are urging the people of Texas at the forthcoming general election to amend these provisions, thereby empowering the legislature to provide that taxation shall not be equal and uniform. Believe it or not, the power is deliberately sought to tax one man's property of a given value at one rate, and another man's property of the same value at a greater rate, or a less rate.

Automobile Factories To Jump Output

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 1.—America's automobile manufacturers prepared for an increased business, increasing their quotas and spending millions to handle them.

Ford stepped to the front with announcement of plans to produce at least a million cars for domestic use in 1935.

Other companies likewise were prepared to step up production, though they did not predict how much.

Ford recently announced an $18,000,000 steel expansion program. Packard announced it was spending $6,200,000 for expansion. These and other firms are spending many millions more for tools.

Automobile production this year for consumption in the United States and 107 foreign countries, will total about 1,800,000.

An ambulance was called to take him to Strawn, but he was dead by the time it arrived, the reports say.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlin and their two children, a boy of about five and a girl of two, had recently returned from a trip to Montana to visit Mr. Carlin's parents.

The decedent had been an employee of Jake Hamon in Ranger for a number of years and for the past six or seven years had been an independent operator. He had been a resident of Ranger for about 15 years.

Teasley of Fort Worth on the night of Oct. 16, escaped from the Ranger city jail Wednesday night by sawing the bars of his cell and then sawing bars of the run-around.

The escape was made early Thursday morning when Bonds Martin, city fireman, who was serving as night desk sergeant, went off duty. Martin, who is slightly deaf, had heard nothing during the night that caused him to suspect that Brown was attempting to escape.

After an investigation Thursday morning it was evident that Brown had torn a blanket into narrow strips, had tied a salt shaker to the end and had thrown out the window, where it was tied on back which were drawn over the window.

About midnight, Patrolman Brown in a lower cell block. Sometime between night and daylight he saw one end of a bar to the cell, the bar inside the cell and crawled through the small opening.

The prisoner then climbed to the top of the cell block where he could reach the window and sawed off five bars to complete his escape. He lowered himself to the ground on a blanket that was tied to the bars on the window.

The escape was first discovered when the blanket was seen hanging out the window. The hole in the cell, through which Brown escaped, measured only seven and a half inches by 11 inches, while the hole in the window, through which he crawled to complete his escape, measured but nine and a half inches by eleven and a half inches.

Brown was arrested Wednesday afternoon on suspicion when he tried to sell a 1933 Chevrolet car. He had had the motor removed from the car, which bore an Oklahoma license, stating that he was going to put it in a truck, and was trying to sell the body and chassis of the car, without a motor in it, when he was arrested.

BENNETT AND MARCH NEW FILM LOVE TEAM

Hollywood's newest and most glamorous romantic team makes its debut in the persons of Constance Bennett and Frederic March in "The Affairs of Cellini," the gay new 20th Century comedy, depicting the more colorful romantic escapades of the great artist and greater lover of 16th Century Florence, which United Artists brings to the Lyric Theatre Sunday.

When producers Joseph M. Schenck and Darryl F. Zanuck selected this popular pair to co-star they established what promises to become one of those happy Hollywood combinations that are the answer to every producer's prayer.

Pauline Lord, noted stage actress who makes her motion picture debut in Paramount's "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," coming Monday to the Arcadia Theatre, has been on the stage for over thirty years, yet never has played an ingenue role.

Making her screen debut in the title role of the picturization of Alice Hegon Rice's noted classic, the distinguished stage star is cast in the same type role that she has played so often, and so brilliantly, in the theatre.

In all of her best plays Miss Lord has enacted character parts, though the role often was the leading one in the play. "Anna Christie," "Samson and Delilah," "They Knew What They Wanted," "The Late Christopher Bean," and other successes found her portraying what one prominent critic has called "images of feminine desolation."

The stage star flatly rejected a number of offers from various motion picture studios until Paramount asked her to play "Mrs. Wiggs," a part in keeping with her stage roles.

Letters From Our Readers

TO THE PEOPLE OF EASTLAND COUNTY:

A great deal of interest is being taken by the people of Texas in regard to the Texas Centennial to be held in Dallas during the year 1936, and I am writing this letter in order to get the views of the citizenship of my district as to whether they favor this Centennial. The Centennial committee is asking for the sum of $5,000,000.00 and while I am heartily in favor of celebrating the centennial, I do not feel justified in voting for such a large sum of money. However, if the people of my district will instruct me to do for it, I shall be glad to carry out your wishes, as I have endeavored to do in the past. I feel that I am your servant, and not your master.

I realize that a good many people will be attracted to Texas for his exposition in 1936, and I believe the state will derive a great many benefits from it. As I see the problem, though, Dallas will receive most of the benefits, since the Centennial is to be held in that city. I do not believe that the taxpayers in general would realize benefits in proportion to the taxes they would be forced to pay in putting on this big state fair in Dallas. Furthermore, the deficit of the General Revenue fund is now about $7,000,000.00, and a total deficit of all the state funds is about $14,000,000.00. In addition, the state must pay off the $20,000,000.00 in relief bonds within the next few years. The subject of the Centennial, no doubt, will be one of the most important submitted to the Legislature during this special session. I am not opposed to the Centennial, but I do not want to burden the taxpayers for something from which they will never receive benefits in return. It seems to me that the legislature should be more interested in relief for the hungry than in helping Dallas to promote the Centennial.

CECIL LOTHEF,
State Representative,
197th District.

Mrs. Roosevelt would like a six month moratorium in the future. They will certainly welcome an even break—Greenboro (Ga.) Herald-Tribune.

Wool Being Sold In the Southwest

KERRVILLE.—Wool sales during the past two weeks were reported at Del Rio, San Angelo and Sonora, but the selling season has not started here.

For the past several weeks, livestock raisers have sought a plan whereby winter feeding may be carried on. Prolonged drought, particularly on much of the Edwards Plateau west and northwest of here, will necessitate the buying of feed.

Feeding of oats was expected to be more extensive this fall than the preceding because of the increased need for a grazing crop. "Feeding however" has been delayed by insufficient moisture. Ranchers said they, those who already have planted, probably will lose the seed because of lack of rain.

Water from Kerr county ranchman whose father brought the first flock of sheep to the county, said the present lack of feed was similar to other dry years when wool producers hoped for better prices. Real recently observed his 80th birthday.

Farmer Asks Rate For Big Family At Barber Shop

GROESBECK, Tex.—The final straw in the barbers' price war here was cast by a farmer.

When the price dropped to 5 cents per haircut, the farmer brought his 11 children to a shop. They needed shearing badly and he demanded a family rate. Price of haircuts in Groesbeck today was 25 cents.

Alameda School News

Alameda School Library
Among the improvements that have been made at Alameda this year is the building and equipping of a new library. It is located in one corner of the study hall, which is convenient for the students.

At the present time the library contains over 200 books, and more are being added from time to time. The books are of different kind and they are suitable for the various subjects taught in the school. The library is kept by different students at the different periods throughout the day. The librarians at the present time are: Eunice Rotan, J. A. Hart Jr., Billie Horn, Inez Horn, Edith Weeks, and Dorothy King.

Alameda Downs Desdemona
On Thursday of last week the junior boys of Alameda high school defeated the junior boys of Desdemona by the score of 13 to 0.

The first score came in the first quarter of the game when A. C. Underwood carried the ball over for a touchdown on a fake end run. The first half ended 7 to 0 in favor of Alameda.

The second and final score of the game was made in the last quarter when J. W. Melton, who substituted for A. C. Underwood, intercepted a pass and outran two of Desdemona's players 60 yards for a touchdown.

Cosch C. C. Browning and Coach Warford of Desdemona sent in a number of substitutes throughout the game.

Physical Education
In our school this year we have a physical education period three times a week. There are supervisors for each group. In grammar school there are three groups, and in high school there are two groups. We play a variety of games.

We are planning to start our boys and girls in basketball some time soon, either this week or the next. We hope to have a successful team.

Chapel Program
Each Friday afternoon there is a chapel program held in the Alameda high school auditorium. The members of the different grades are in charge of these programs, and this way a variety of programs are given.

Last Friday afternoon Mr. Morris Farrow, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades, supervised the chapel period. The program consisted of a short play entitled "Cavalier of the Days of the Week," song, "Beautiful Texas," a sack race, and a number of stunts. Pupils in his classes participated in the program.

This coming Friday, Miss Victoria Champion, high school English teacher, will have charge of the chapel program.

Ninth Grade Organizes

The Ninth grade class organized Oct. 19. The officers elected are as follows: Jack Bishop, treasurer; J. L. Fox, vice president; Billie Horn, secretary-treasurer, and Mr. C. C. Browning was chosen to serve the class as sponsor.

The first of a number of social affairs that the class has planned for the year was held last Wednesday night. The members of the class and some invited guests went on a weiner roast. After the food was disposed of the students played a number of games. This proved to be such an enjoyable affair that the class is looking forward to other social activities during the year.

V-8 Leadership Is Based on Engine Facts and Records

SOME things about an automobile are more or less a matter of opinion. But when it comes to the engine, you are dealing with the hard facts of power and its application. Either you have V-8 power or you don't have it.

You should know that experience and the records of performance are definitely in favor of the V-8 type engine. You need not depend on words—the record speaks for itself. It is something you can see as you "Watch The Fords Go By." Something you will realize even more fully when you drive the Ford V-8 yourself.

It isn't the difference between green or black or between velour and broadcloth upholstery, but a far-reaching difference in basic engine design. Only the V-8 can give you V-8 speed, power and performance. It costs more to produce, but Ford has made it possible to use this engine in a low-price car. Only the Ford gives you a V-8 engine unless you pay $2500 or more!

Texas Corn-Hog Referendum Shows Affirmative Vote

COLLEGE STATION.—Texas corn-hog contract signers voted more than ten to one in favor of the one-contract-per-farm program for 1935 and more than three to one in favor of the one-contract-per-farm program for 1936 according to the figures in the Texas referendum compiled by E. M. Regenhardt, extension swine husbandman. The actual vote was 16,343 favor of the 1935 program and 77 against it, while 13,106 favored the one-contract-per-farm program and 4,055 opposed it. Of the non-signers, 787 voted favor of the 1935 program and 736 non-signers voted for it, 327 voted against it. In direct contrast with the Texas vote of approval is the vote recorded in Kansas. Fifty-nine times there favored a 1935 program, but it was vetoed by a heavy affirmative vote in the eastern end of the state. Final results showed 17,429 signers voting in favor of it while 19,985 voted against it. Among the non-signers living in approximately one-half the counties, the count was 1,770 for and 4,130 against the program. It is estimated that not more than 30 per cent of the eligible voters cast ballots in the referendum.

The proposed one-contract-per-farm program was refused by a margin of 23,629 to 11,607 among signers, and 4,008 to 408 among non-signers.

Farmers Anticipate Credit Needs and Make Local Loans

HOUSTON.—Foresighted farmers in all parts of Texas are anticipating their credit needs for the coming growing season and already are making arrangements with their local production credit associations for loans in 1935, according to reports received by Tully C. Garner, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston. The practice of making arrangements before the money actually is needed has many advantages to recommend it, Mr. Garner pointed out, and the associations would like as many farmers as possible to make their applications prior to the crop production season.

Before making application to a production credit association, the prospective borrower should analyze his 1935 plans carefully: how many acres are to be planted to cotton, how many to feed and other crops, how much labor will be necessary and how much money will be needed for tractor costs or feed for workstock. After he has done this, he should be able to estimate accurately just how much money will be required and when he will need each of the installments of his loan.

By following this procedure, the applicant has no worry about where operating expenses are coming from or when he will get them. When he is ready to begin operations, his loan has been arranged and all details attended to and all he has to do is ask for his check. By budgeting his loan, the borrower affects interest savings that are sometimes surprising to those who have not used production credit before. Interest, which now is 5 per cent, is paid on each installment only for the time the borrower has use of the money, making a whole season's financing available at very low cost.

Cotton Option Checks Totalled 51 Million By Oct. 1

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Cotton producers who accepted options on government-owned cotton as part payment for participating in the 1933 cotton adjustment program had been paid a total of $51,016,815.46 through Sept. 30, John P. Payne, comptroller of the agricultural adjustment administration reported today.

This money has been paid producers under two methods of exercising the options with $12,074,070.57 going to those farmers who selected the direct sale of cotton method, and $38,942,744.89 going to those producers who exercised their options by participating in the cotton producers' pool.

Payments in Texas have totaled $11,475,113.27.

The banks which busted a few years ago because they didn't have enough money are now reported bursting with too much.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Planting cowpeas, terracing, and crop rotation enabled Byron Scott, Rains county farmer, to produce eight 600 pound bales of cotton on 12 acres even in a drought year, according to Roy King, farm demonstration agent, under whose guidance Mr. Scott carries on his soil rebuilding, moisture and conservation program.

Drought may have affected some people's food supplies but the members of the Greenvine, Prairie Hill, and Latium home demonstration clubs in Washington county reported 9,165 containers of fruits and fruit juices, vegetables, meats, pickles, jams, jellies and preserves on their pantry shelves and fall vegetables yet to can.

As a part of their clothing work 250 home demonstration club women in Cherokee county report that they have made 165 foundation patterns and by them made 225 dresses and slips; built 25 new closets and remodeled 100; made four sleeve pressing boards and two shoe racks.

Pooling and planting more than 100 acres of cabbage for carlot shipment, 114 members of the Galveston County Truck Growers' association are doing their bit to supply the country with green food this winter. Copenhagen Market and Golden Acre are the varieties being planted. A Kansas City firm has bargained for the output.

BEEVILLE.—Fifty-two varieties of canned food, totaling 1010 containers can be found in the 4-H pantry of Vera Ray, farm food supply demonstrator of the Clareville Home Demonstration Club in Bee county, according to Miss Lorena Yates, home demonstration agent. There are eight varieties of vegetables, seven of meats, nine of fruits and fruit juices, tomatoes and tomato juice, preserves and jellies, vegetables and fruit pickles, relishes, and three varieties of time-saving or emergency canned foods.

The value of her pantry is approximately $200. The cost, including the purchase of lumber for shelves, 350 tin cans, eight dozen jars, four dozen bottles, fruit for canning, and other items, was $28.25.

VICTORIA.—A cedar lined closet costing $6.20 was displayed by Mrs. A. V. Pargac, wardrobe demonstrator in Victoria county, to achievement day visitors recently, according to Mrs. Girtha Vest, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Pargac feels that the closet will be very practical as it protects clothes from silver fish and moths which are so destructive.

GILMER.—Mrs. Espie Spier, yard demonstrator in Upshur county, believes in rooting her own cuttings for her yard and now has 153 living in her cutting bed, according to Miss Lula M. Dilworth, home demonstration agent. Included among her cuttings are amur privet, abelia, salt cedar, mock orange, wax leaf ligustrum, cape jasmine, vitex, and juniper. She has put out nearly 20 native shrubs in her yard this year and has made other improvements.

BRADY.—In spite of the fact that drought has cut grain and feed crops to practically nothing, 15 McCulloch county 4-H club boys have a total of 59 club calves on feed, according to James D. Previt, farm demonstration agent. One club yearling is being fed by Richard Winters of Brady. These 40 young calves were started about the middle of August at which time they averaged 323 pounds each. Drought conditions had stunted them considerably, but they are showing a fast recovery on a good self feeder filled with whole oats and a mixture of maize, corn, and cotton seed meal.

FORT LAVACA.—Arch McDonald of Calhoun county decided that trench silos provided the best method of saving his grain sorghum, and so he has just finished his second trench silo this year, according to B. L. Herndon, farm demonstration agent. His first one was 130 by 10 by 7 feet and the second is about half this size. Both silos were built and filled at a total cost of $100.

FALFURRIAS.—The value of proving dairy sires has been shown again by Elmer J. Rupp, Brooks county dairyman, with Sophie's Agnes, Laddies 27th, according to Louis Franke, farm demonstration agent. This sire, once a member of the famous Lasater dairy herd, has been sold and resold several times by dairymen of this locality, and each time discarded as unsatisfactory. The figures of the U. S. Bureau of Dairy Industry show that the eight daughters of this sire in the herd of Mr. Rupp will average 377 pounds of butter fat a year as compared with the 285 pounds

Tax Certificate Pool Will Close On November 10

COLLEGE STATION.—November 10 has been tentatively selected as a final date for receiving surplus cotton tax exemption certificates for the national pool, according to an announcement received from the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Purchase of certificates from the pool, it was emphasized, would continue as long as the pool had certificates on hand.

E. L. Deal, manager of the pool, said it was felt that all holders of surplus certificates who wish to turn them into the pool will have had that opportunity by November 10. State allotment boards have been urged to assist producers who wish to turn in surplus certificates to the pool.

"Because we have tentatively selected a final date for receiving surplus certificates," Mr. Deal said, "it is now more urgent than ever that producers speed up the surrender of any certificates they wish to offer for sale through the pool."

The pool now has on hand orders for many more certificates than it is able to fill, Mr. Deal said. On all of these orders the purchasers expect to pay four cents a pound which is the rate fixed by Secretary Wallace as the standard selling price for surplus certificates purchased through the national pool.

Producers will be paid approximately $20 a bale for all certificates sold through the pool. When the pool is liquidated, each producer will be returned his share of any certificates the pool does not sell. These may be used next year if the Bankhead Act is effective for 1935.

Contempt For a 'Mere Cold' Is Not Justified, Says M.D.

AUSTIN.—"While the common cold is no respecter of seasons, increased prevalence is decidedly marked in the winter months. Unfortunately, familiarity with this condition has bred contempt for it. This is plainly indicated by the usual rejoinder, 'Oh! I've just got a cold'; the inference, of course, being that while a cold is an annoying matter, after all it is an insignificant affliction. This attitude undoubtedly has been the cause of many needless deaths, to say nothing of prolonged and expensive illnesses," states Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

"One's resistance to many diseases, including colds, can be raised by increasing one's vitality by observing the fundamental living rules, namely: plenty of fresh air, good wholesome food, neither too much nor too little, sufficient rest, and the avoidance of habitual over-indulgence of dehydrating stimulants, including tea, coffee, tobacco and alcohol.

"If, however, in spite of ordinary precautions, a cold is contracted, it will pay to consider it seriously. Every cold should be viewed as the possible beginning of a serious illness. That means promptly seeking a physician's advice and explicitly following his directions. If he orders bed, then bed it should be. Incidentally, complete rest is one of the finest ways to overcome a cold in short order."

Farmers Urged to Gather Supply of Sweet Sorghum

COLLEGE STATION.—"Farmers would be wise to gather by hand the seed of locally adapted varieties of sweet sorghums (cane) in sufficient amount to take care of their own planting requirements, because conditions indicate that there will be a shortage of planting seed next spring," according to E. A. Miller, Extension agronomist. Certain varieties

Petroleum Institute To Meet In Dallas

DALLAS.—A Texas city will be host to the American Petroleum institute convention this year for the third time since the birth of the organization in 1919.

The 15th annual convention of the A. P. I. will be held in Dallas, near the greatest oil field in the world, Nov. 12-15. The fifth such gathering was held in Fort Worth in 1924 and the 13th in Houston in 1932.

The National Trade Association of the petroleum industry met for the first time in Washington, D. C., in 1920. Chicago has greeted its annual conventions seven times—in 1921, 1927-28-29-30-31, and 1933. It has met in St. Louis twice—in 1922 and 1923—and in Los Angeles and Tulsa once each, 1925 and 1926 respectively.

NRA Has Secured Back Wages For Number of Workers

DALLAS, Tex.—Efforts of the NRA organization have resulted in the restitution to workers of $164,742.93 in wages to date according to H. P. Drought of San Antonio, NRA Compliance Director for Texas. This amount has been paid to 4,230 workers by 1,298 firms who had been paying their employees wages below the minimum wages established in codes, or working employees longer hours than codes permit.

"The Texas NRA organization has received 6,642 complaints," Mr. Drought said. "Of these, 1,389 were rejected when it was found no violation existed. Code authorities have been asked to handle 651 complaints, while our offices have adjusted 3,217."

There are two NRA Compliance offices in Texas. Sherwood H. Avery is the Executive Assistant in charge of the North Texas office, at Dallas, with resident field adjusters in Fort Worth, Waco, and Tyler. Ernest L. CHRISTIAN GROWTH

Luke 2:42-52; II Peter 1:5-8

The parents of Jesus, Joseph and Mary, were religious Jews who observed the laws and customs peculiar to their race.

Joseph adhered to the law which required the presence of every male Jew in Jerusalem at the Feast of the Passover.

Jesus was now a well grown boy of 12 years, developed physically, mentally and spiritually to an unusual degree. A boy was considered of age at the age of 13 or was called "a son of the law." He was dressed as a man and put on phylacteries for daily prayers. But at the age of 12 he must be initiated into the observances of the law.

Following the custom, Joseph, accompanied by Mary and Jesus, left their home at Nazareth and traveled to the city of Jerusalem to attend the Passover, the feast that celebrated the deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage hundreds of years before. It was now in the year of April, A. D. 8.

The Passover lasted eight days. The people traveled in groups. Joseph and Mary had traveled all day before they discovered that Jesus was not in the company of people.

They returned to the city in search of him.

"And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions."

They were happy to find him and must have had great joy in such a son who would seek companionship of learned men asking questions and understanding them in such a manner as to cause these men to be amazed at his wonderful intelligence.

But Mary was also mother and must have been frantic at his loss. She gently reproved him and Jesus gave her a puzzling answer: "How is it that ye sought me? Knew ye not that I must be in my Father's house?"

But Jesus returned to Nazareth with them and was always a dutiful son. Mary pondered his strange behavior in her heart. She could not comprehend everything concerning this child but she brooded over him in her heart until the great and complete understanding came years later.

The growth of Jesus is pictured in verse 52 of our lesson.

"And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men."

There we find the four essential steps of growth: "in wisdom," intellectually, stature, physically, and favor with God, spiritually, and men, socially.

It takes years to develop from babes in Christ to a full Christian manhood or womanhood. It is not attained by some magic but by working out the great work started by the Holy Spirit. The understanding of God's will in the life just be deepened to develop the real Christian life if one would use above the title of "a nominal Christian."

Peter, who labored, both in Jerusalem and Rome, gave us a perfect plan of growth found in II Peter 1:5-8, written in the year A. D. 68.

He first emphasized diligence in acquiring these steps of grace: faith, virtue, knowledge, self-control, patience, kindness, brotherly kindness, and love.

But if these are diligently cultivated a great promise is given.

"For if these things be in you and about, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Much emphasis is placed upon personality today. The personality of person teaching has much to do with bringing the truth home to the hearts of the pupils. It was the magnetic personality of Jesus from his Father that drew men to him. To have a vibrant personality Christ must dominate that life. It must have the abiding Faith, the Word of God, and prayer life to attain the growth as exemplified in our Golden Text: But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ (II Peter 3:18).

NEW DEAL FACES TEST IN ELECTIONS ON NOVEMBER 6

By EDWARD W. LEWIS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Voters in 47 states will join Nov. 6 in the first referendum on New Deal policies since Franklin D. Roosevelt's smashing victory in 1932.

The nation-wide poll is to elect 432 members of the house of representatives. Maine's regular jump-the-gun election last September sent two democrats and one republican to the house, a numerical alignment identical with that chosen by Maine voters two years ago.

Democratic congressional leaders are fighting to protect their vital two-thirds majority which enabled them to beat down almost all rebellion in the 73rd congress. If the democrats retain a bare two-thirds majority of 290 seats the administration may mount its unqualified triumph.

The average minority gain in off-year elections is 70 seats. Republicans are predicting an increase of from 50 to 85. Their gains probably will be much less than 50. Democrats insist that they will be as strong in the next house as they were in the last.

The 73rd house was composed of 311 democrats, 114 republicans, five farmer-laborites. There are five vacancies.

In California the gubernatorial candidacy of one-time socialist Upton Sinclair may effect the luck of the democratic congressional ticket. Likewise in Nebraska, due to a bitter democratic senatorial fight involving the Gov. Bryan wing, republicans may gain seats. A split in Michigan's democracy also suggests republican gains.

The farmer-labor third party situation in Minnesota and the La Follette progressive party campaign in Wisconsin are disturbing factors in congressional races in those states. The Guffey-Reed-Pinchot argument in the Pennsylvania senatorial fight may have repercussions in congressional districts.

Minnesota, Kentucky and Missouri elected their congressmen at large in 1932, and republicans are expected to pick up a few seats in those states now that redistricting is completed.

In Rhode Island, textile strike violence rebounded into politics. Massachusetts was scorched by a democratic senatorial primary

LUCKY GIRL

Her mother felt that family physicians and child specialists, and the hospitals must be right. A simple test that proves they are.

MRS. STRONG AND DAUGHTER, NANCY
"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin brought relief at once," says Mrs. A. G. Strong of 34-47 8th St., Jackson Heights, N.Y.

If anyone in your family is occasionally sluggish or constipated; especially any child, you should know this medical truth:

You cannot get safe relief with any medicine if you cannot regulate the dose. And to regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. With a liquid laxative, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition.

Why Doctors Use Liquid Laxatives
A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of natural laxative elements like senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves, not make matters worse.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drugstore. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better than you have in a long time.

If you will risk sixty cents to discover the natural, comfortable action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

Resinol

A SAFER WAY to relieve constipation in any child...

This simple experiment has often meant a changed child, mothers.

A test that is easily made, and should be made, when children are occasionally upset or constipated.

Doctors urge a liquid laxative for children. The child who has been convalescing in a hospital, will really come out with bowels working like a well-regulated clock. Hospitals give children a liquid laxative of suitable ingredients, suitable strength, and in suitable amount.

Children should never be given strong cathartics that are apt for adult use.

To avoid all use of mineral salts, whether they are salts, pills, or "candy" form. Even a month is too often to give child a cathartic containing harmful drugs.

The Proper Treatment
The sluggish child a liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative). California Syrup of Figs has the right amount for children's use, and this rich, fruity taste does not upset them.

It does not give any headachy, bilious or constipated, and a little less is repeated until bowels are moving regularly and roughly without need of help.

When you change to California Syrup of Figs instead of harsh mineral salts, you'll risk no more harm to your child's appetite, digestion, and general physical condition. You'll have a safer, more satisfactory result, too.

So, get a bottle of California Syrup of Figs from your druggist, and start tonight, if your child is constipated, giving a good, cleansing dose. Repeat as necessary, giving a little less each time. That's the secret of this treatment—gradually reduced dosage.

Here is a simple way of finding out if any youngster with irregular or insufficient bowel movements is in need of relief, or getting the wrong treatment:

THE "LIQUID TEST"
This is the way to relieve occasional sluggishness, or constipation in a child of any age:

First: select a liquid laxative of the proper strength for children. Second: give the dose suited to the child's age, and condition. Third: reduce the dose, if repeated, until the bowels are moving without any help at all.

An ideal laxative for this purpose is California Syrup of Figs which every druggist keeps in stock. Be certain that it is the genuine product, with "California" blown in the bottle.

sunshine and music, and made even the desponding to feel that a fuller and warmer summer, "the kingdom of Heaven" itself, was "at hand." Even so, Father, for it seemed good in Thy sight, and in our sight it is beautiful. To her who always sought with unselfish heart to give strength and love and hope to her companion; to her first to see the virtues and last to see the faults; to her who passed through the martyrdom of motherhood; to her who watched above an infant's couch with tenderest care; to her who guided little erring feet from childhood to womanhood; to her who possessed a quiet, unobtrusive loveliness that won surely upon the affections of those who knew her; to her so warm hearted, loving, calm serene and quiet; to her so kind and courteous in her demeanor to all; to her who knew God, who loved God, who served Christ, who grew in grace, in knowledge, and in truth, was pure, gentle, sympathetic—these were the glowing principals which gave this beautiful life its strength and glory. Oh, cruel death! in our anguish we cry, then—we look again and see beyond, for death is the teacher of immortality. Never to return! Say of these: "They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat, for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and lead them to living fountains of water, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." Our sainted dead are alive ever more. Death is swallowed up in victory—the grave is conquered—and Heaven comes to our thought with friendlier familiarity. This is more than sentiment; it is inspiration. It is strength that can carry the load of life; it is enthusiasm that makes sorrow itself a sacrament. I know that infidelity is a lie. It know it by the life of this sweet wife, mother and friend. It know it because the memory of her queenly life stirs every noble and tender emotion that ever flushed my heart. Do I not see her? Do I not know those soft beaming eyes shining with joy above all words? Can I be mistaken as to that voice whose subdued notes has so often enchained and repaid my attention? And so I have a word for the daughter and husband of this friend. She is dead, but being dead, she yet speaketh. Her body is mingled with its mother dust, but in the best and highest sense she has just begun to live. You may only see her now in dreams, but some sweet day soon to come you will see her face to face, and that will be heaven.

Her friend,
Mrs. John Matthews.

Thieves Visit At Three Residences

Thefts at three residences in Eastland apparently committed Sunday night or Monday morning have been reported. P. L. Crossley, district clerk, 1401 S. Mulberry, says thieves jacked up his car, taking a tire, wheel, gasoline and a hub cap. H. M. Hart, 1403 S. Seaman, reports a tire, wheel was taken from his car. Clothing in the house was also stolen. T. L. Cooper, county tax collector, 613 S. Mulberry, when coming to his garage Monday morning, found a tire, wheel and radiator cap missing from his automobile. He states the gasoline tank cap was on the floor, possibly indicating that thieves were frightened and did not go through with theft of gasoline as none was missing.

SCARVES AND EMOTIONS
Scarves are the indispensables of this year's wardrobe. They run the gamut of shapes, fabrics, sizes and, yes, emotions. They have only one thing in common in this year of green—they must be green either in whole or in part. Ostrich feathers edge a glittering accessory for an opera gown; sequins accent a filmy defiance to cold nocturnal winds—all in green and gold. A large filmy square of wool is paid, predominantly green, with just enough red to add interest to a green paper packet of cigarettes being offered to another fashion picture wearing a scarf which is really a tweed bib naively hooked in back. Colorado and Centennial Bills Lacking Support

AUSTIN, Nov. 1.—Bills for harnessing the Colorado river and for appropriating state funds to the Texas centennial lost ground in the legislature today.

In the senate a motion to refuse to concur in house amendments to the Colorado bill and ask for a conference committee was denied an immediate vote and postponed until Friday as an order of business.

In the house a test vote revealed 67 members were interested in plans to finance the centennial other than by state appropriation. Because only 75 votes are needed out of 150 to defeat it, the centennial's fate in the house was doubtful.

Senior B. Y. P. U. Halloween Party

A lot of fun was had by the Senior B. Y. P. U. members and their guests, at their Halloween party Tuesday night, in assembly-room of Baptist church.

Committee of hosts and hostesses included Misses Irene Williams, Rowena Cook, Geraldine Terrell, Allen Williams, L. J. Lambert Jr., and Terrell Coleman, the committee in charge.

Everyone was in costume and masked; Miss Irene Williams as the witch drew fortunes from the witch's cauldron, set in a bower of autumn foliage.

A ghost house, the entrance to the assembly-room, prepared one for the weird happenings to be, in the spooks floating around, and old clammy hands that grabbed those in passing.

A wingless bat, a horned toad, a sleeping beauty, and a horsefly, housefly and butterfly, prepared one for the demand to see the monkey, which was one's own reflection in a mirror.

Ducking for apples in tubs of water, and grabbing spices with the teeth, from apples swinging from the ceiling made plenty of exercise.

The room was shaded in orange and black lanterns, and the refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and fruit punch had plate favors of Halloween cats, and witches.

The after luncheon discussion was led by the club president, Mrs. T. J. Haley.

Mrs. H. C. Davis Hostess

Mrs. H. C. Davis entertained with a novel and delightful costume party in honor of the Pythian Sisters on Tuesday night at her home, decorated throughout in Halloween emblems of black cats, goblins, and with lights shaded in yellow.

Each guest represented a radio or screen star, and a program of impersonation of the characters assumed was given.

Mrs. Davis as Mae West was outstanding in characterization, followed by Mrs. Hayden Fry and Mrs. N. T. Johnson, black-face comedians, as the popular Amos and Andy.

Bobbing for apples in tubs of water, and a weird ghost house, were other diversions.

The hostess served Halloween refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream topping and coffee and candy goblins were plate favors.

Batch of Projects Sent to Austin

The largest number of work projects ever sent to Austin for approval in one week were forwarded last week to relief headquarters by the county office.

H. E. Driscoll, county administrator, enumerated the projects sent to Austin as follows:

Hatchery projects at Cisco, 42 men; lateral road project from Scartown to Dothan, 15 men; clearing lake Cisco, 62 men; concrete bridge at Rising Star, nine men; straightening, widening and clearing ditches to Lake Haganman at Ranger, 200 men; graveling and other work on Ammerman street in Eastland from where paved road leaves off to Lake Eastland, 81 men; sinking a water line on a 790 foot stretch is included in the project.

Forty-two applications in the rural rehabilitation program which were at one time sent to Austin and then sent back for revisions have been forwarded to Austin. Time for the rural projects were for one year and not as three, which by recent law is the time.

Other projects enumerated by Driscoll, which have as yet not been sent in, but will be are as follows: lateral road project from Lone Cedar road to Bankhead highway, east of Olden, 53 men; lateral road at Breckenridge-Ranger highway intersection, 53 men; levelling and shaping of football field at Rising Star, 10 men. Two other projects for Rising Star are the repairing of two stretches on two bus routes east and west of the city. Thirteen men will be employed after the project is sent to Austin, following changes in the project at the county office.

Driscoll Monday stated that estimates for relief requirements for the month of November were sent to Austin Oct. 25.

The goats must be killed, skinned and the hide salted and returned to the administrator's office to prove that the animal has been used for food purposes.

Date for the opening of the cannery has not been set.

"COME IN OUT OF THE COLD"

WINDS that freeze are like a sweet Summer breeze, when HANES is hugging your body! Get hold of a suit and shove your hand inside. The downy fluff feels as soft as a chamois . . . luxurious, pleasant, and warm! Imagine it curling comfortably up to your skin . . . when the snow starts to blow, and the sleet to beat!

Gentlemen, HANES is the Heavyweight Champion! Elastic-knit . . . it's limber enough to co-operate with every move you make. No matter how much you stretch and strain, HANES never hitches! Sizes are right . . . right to the dot. Buttons, buttonholes, cuffs, and seams sewed for keeps, not just sew-sew.
