OAK GROVE

All of the peanuts have been thrashed and all the cotton has been picked but about 10 per cent and a few shocks of feed are standing in the field otherwise we are ready to start the new crop.

J. E. Cannaday in reported to be the first farmer in this community to start plowing for the new crop.

Tommy Cullwell and wife, Unita had the misfortune to wreck their cutomobile last Friday on the highway between Carbon and into the ditch and turned over. Mr. and Mrs. Culwell and their baby were caught under the wreckage and some passing motorists stop ped and lifted the car up and pulled the car out. No one was seri ously hurt.

Mrs. B. B. Poe spent last Sunday and Monday visiting in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Spencer of Cisco.

A. E. Milford arrived here from Cass county, Texas, a few days ago and expects to locate on one of the popular Eastland farms and help U. S. depress the depression. That is right, we think Eastland county is the best place in the world to do it.
