New Bandmaster With Awards

G. W. Collum, new bandmaster of Eastland High School, with awards won by participation of his former Cisco bands in national and district contests.

Best Band In State Is Aim of G. W. Collum, New Bandmaster

"I hope to build one as good if not the best school band in the state in Eastland," was the way G. W. Collum, new Eastland High school band director, expressed his aims Saturday.

"The prospects so far are quite encouraging in this ambition," the new bandmaster stated.

The goal Collum has selected for the Eastland school was reached several times in his tenure as band master in Cisco. For three successive years the Cisco band won first place in Class A in the West Texas annual school band contest. The band was a participant in the National high school contest at Tulsa in 1931.

Mr. Collum studied piano and harmony under Anthony Stankovitch and his early teaching experience was in this field.

After studying band and orchestra instruments at a Chicago school of music, his teaching has been in that field.

Some of his former pupils are now directors of bands. Many are professional musicians.

The band for Eastland is in stages of organization and by football season will be thoroughly able to match against any in the district, it is predicted.

The Collums have taken residence in Eastland. Their two daughters are versatile in the musical line. Their son, Glenn, was a member of the Cisco high school football team last season.

Eugene Grace Boosts The Soldiers' Bonus!

If the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars decide that enactment by Congress of a bill for a cash bonus for war veterans is in the bag, now, as a result of the activities of the Senate Munitions Committee, one can hardly blame them.

First of all, Eugene Grace testified. Mr. Grace drew down something like $3,000,000 in bonuses during the war period; but he thinks that workers in munitions plants in future wars should get a soldier's pay, he feels that it would be very unfortunate if the same rule were applied to executives, and he believes that the demand for the soldiers' bonus now is "very unfortunate."

Then the investigators began to get curious about the doings of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, which operated during the war as a subsidiary of Bethlehem Steel. During the war Charles Schwab, who held 37 per cent of all voting stock in Bethlehem Steel, was director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, which was letting government shipbuilding contracts.

First they examined a war-time letter written by an admiral in the navy, charging that Bethlehem demanded high prices for its ships and refused to stand behind delivery dates.

Then they looked at a report from a special examiner for the Fleet Corporation which asserted that the "enormous profits" made by Bethlehem showed that Bethlehem's contracts "were unconscionable and against public interest."

Next they dug into Fleet Corporation records showing that while other shipbuilders were averaging a profit of $10 a ton on ships built for the government, Bethlehem was making $49.50 for a profit of better than 20 per cent. Furthermore, the examiner pointed out that this 20 per cent profit was not profit on Bethlehem's invested funds, but on a cost that had to be financed by the Fleet Corporation itself.

Now when you add all of this up you get a fairly ugly picture. It is the sort of picture which probably is unavoidable in war-time, unless some new and drastic method of controlling the munitions industry and its profits be adopted; but it does put the soldiers' bonus bill in a different light.

INTELLIGENCE NEEDED FOR A GOOD KITCHEN

The same intelligence which is applied to the planning of a workshop or a business office may now be used in making the kitchen a better place to work in, according to Mrs. Johnetta Howard, nationally known authority of foods and economics, who will be presented by this newspaper in the Happy Kitchen Cooking School at Eastland on March 21, 22 and 23.

The old type of drudgery in the kitchen are no more—gone never to return—and what a boon to the housewife! There is something she is able to boast about as being far superior to mother's or grandmother's day!

Women have been known to walk miles in a poorly planned kitchen in the course of a single day. Exercise is, of course, a splendid thing, but the woman who gets her only exercise in the kitchen will find herself a nervous wreck at the end of the day.

So we might say that the old kitchen has had its face lifted, and is keeping step with progressive modern ideas—and the new kitchen has become a delightful workshop, thus doing its bit and adding materially to the progress of this modern age.

Mrs. Howard will tell you how all these things are accomplished with the least possible effort when the Happy Kitchen Cooking School comes to Eastland, and whether you are a bride of a month, or a grandmother, or just a young housewife, or one of middle age, you'll enjoy these programs on the age-old, but deservedly popular theme of cookery.

There are many short cuts and main roads leading to culinary success and perfection, and the Happy Kitchen Cooking School and this newspaper will show them to you, through the medium of this nationally known expert. Plan to attend every session. No admission fee and no obligation.

He said he and Doggett agreed before the robbery they would "split 50-50" and Doggett would split his half of the robbery proceeds with Mrs. Howell.

From Cecil A. People of Eastland Counties.

Attending to write of my district or three weeks, result of heavy calendar business before failed to do so. Miss Gilstrap serving on five committees in this course, this takes up most of my time, both day and night.

I want to say to my friends and constituents that I have failed to reply to some of their letters, and for this I am asking forgiveness, but my reason is that, in the first place, I am too busy, and in the second, it would take too much stationery, stamps, and stenographer's time. Since I was elected on an economy platform, I do not feel justified in spending the taxpayers' money except when absolutely necessary. For this reason, when any of my friends fail to receive an answer, please do not consider it a reflection, but a part of an economy policy for the State.

There is now pending House Joint Resolution No. 1 which calls for the repeal of the Dean law to be submitted to the people of the State. The question is now before the members of the House as to whether the State of Texas should have a complete monopoly on the liquor business or license dealers to sell it. I doubt if any man in the House knows what is best, but I do think this must be submitted to the people, as the Democratic platform asks that this question be submitted to popular vote.

Another subject of importance, in my mind, is in regard to the public utilities. I have already introduced and passed through the House, what is known as the Lotief House Bill, No. 46, a strictly anti-monopoly bill dealing with the utilities question which is now before the Senate. Everyone interested in the welfare of our State should write to their senator and urge the passage of this bill. It will solve the utility question, and open up direct and free competition.

The public utilities of this state have been making money by the millions while the average citizen has been facing starvation and the government has been compelled to feed thousands. Everything has come down in price except the public utilities, and in some instances, the price of this commodity has risen so that the poor consumers have been unable to pay their gas bills and have been forced to do without gas. The towns of Hamlin, Anson, Stamford, Haskell, Rule, and all that section of the State, are now paying as high as $1.50 per 1000 cubic feet of gas, when, as a matter of fact, the gas companies are buying their gas all over Texas as low as 1 cent per 1000 cubic feet and rarely ever for more than 5 cents. With such conditions, I think the government must get in between the consumer and the utilities, and put a stop to such highway robbery. This utility crowd is placing the value of their property for rate-making purposes at such a high figure in order to yield them 10 per cent as a profit, but when rendering it for taxation, they place it at a low figure. The only way to remedy this situation is to place them under intangible assets. I have already joined with Mr. Tennyson of Wichita Falls in signing a bill placing them under such a law. This is in line with Governor Allred's recommendation. If the state had been able to collect fair and just taxes from the big corporations and utilities, it certainly would have been in good financial condition.

Governor Allred, in his message, assured the legislature that the pipe line companies of this state have made a clear profit of 78 million dollars. Just think of this tremendous amount of money made in the lean year of 1934! When the Governor spoke of this profit by the pipe line companies, I hollered "Lord help us!"

There is a large delegation from Dallas and other cities, headed by former lieutenant-governor, Edgar Witt, of Waco, and Bill Kitrell, formerly of Cisco, who are lobbying for a three million dollar appropriation for the Texas Centennial. They claim that the people of Texas will make more than that from the tourists of other states who will attend the Centennial. I do not know if I will feel justified in voting for a three million dollar appropriation when we have hungry people to feed. If the people of Dallas want to have a big picnic, let them pay for it, instead of the taxpayers of the state. This will be their party, not ours.

In conclusion, I want to urge the people at home to please write their views on any pending legislation, and if I am too busy to answer, it will mean that I am trying to serve you.

If there is anyone in my district who desires appointment as notary public, write me, and I will see that you obtain it.

I remain,
Your faithful servant,
CECIL A. LOTIEF,
Rep. 107th District.

Praise For Eastland Schools and Recommendations Given in Report

Words of praise for the Eastland public schools is shown in the report of School Supervisor Miss Opal Gilstrap, who thoroughly inspected all classes of the Eastland system March 5 and 6.

The report, announced Thursday by P. B. Bittle, superintendent of Eastland schools, recommended that the schools ask for reinstatement in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The report of Miss Gilstrap was as follows:
1. That the plan to provide adequate facilities for the negro children of the Eastland School district be highly commended. With the new plant it will be entirely possible to have a curriculum offering commensurate with the needs of these pupils. It is hoped that some industrial work can be maintained. The administration is to be commended for devising plans whereby this school program may be carried out at a minimum of expense.
2. That the elementary grade libraries be improved as soon as the income will permit. Just now this deficiency represents the school's greatest need. It is believed that with adequate library facilities a real interest in reading can be developed throughout the grade schools.
3. That as soon as conditions will permit the school ask for reinstatement in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
4. That the plan to continue to stress handwriting through all grades be highly commended. Some decidedly effective work is being done in this field now.
5. That the school be encouraged and commended in the effort to reinstate the music and home economics courses.
6. That the board members, the patrons, the faculty and the student body be highly commended for maintaining superior standards and for displaying a splendid spirit despite the many reverses that the school has experienced during the period of economic strain. The visiting supervisor was impressed with the effort made to maintain standards through all grades and to provide equally for all schools.

The following items are included:
Glen Cox, Harold Gene Harkrider, Reba Jane Fox, Billy Fay Mitchell.
2A—Martha Lue McDonald, Bill Shirriffs, James Swindall, Ray Roper, Paul Gibson, Betty May Jones, Charles Beskow.
3B—Jean Allen Pegler.
3A—Cone Johnson, Jo Whitson Tucker, Doris Hennessee, Jean Marie Hurst, Jamesetta Little, Estelle Williams.
5A—Louise Davis.

Rotary Assures of Cooperation In Safety Drive

Assurance that the Rotary club would co-operate in a soon to be presented safety campaign was given M. C. Myers and Ernest Daniels, state highway patrolmen, after the former spoke at the weekly luncheon Monday.

Patrolman Myers, citing the results obtained in Coleman, Balingler and San Angelo, recent campaign sites, stated approximately 30 per cent of all cars' equipment was found to be deficient.

The campaign, originating with the Lions club, will likely be presented March 23, the patrolman indicated.

Highway patrolmen of the district will officiate at a safety lane where brakes, lights, steering gear and other equipment will be inspected. Motorists will be given a ticket that will be checked later by patrolmen to observe if motorists have repaired previous notated deficient equipment.

Stickers and other matter necessary for the campaign will be jointly purchased by civic clubs of Ranker and Cisco, places likely to have campaigns also, it was indicated.

The city of Eastland will co-operate in the campaign.

Praise for the patrolmen and their work was given by J. E. Lewis Cr.

C. A. Hertig, club secretary, read a letter from Walter Gray, city manager, who thanked the club for efforts in clean-up week, stating five trucks began Monday picking up debris gathered by residents for disposal.

Mrs. Howard Says Income Planning Is Good Policy

A budget plan in the hand is worth twice the money in the purse, according to Mrs. Janetta Howard, nationally known authority on Food and Home Economics, whose personality will be the leading feature of this newspaper's Happy Kitchen Cooking School on March 21, 22 and 23.

Accurate division and planning for spending the income, be it large or small, means fewer expensive mistakes, says Mrs. Howard; also it means better food and clothing, less work, time for more reading, study, friends, recreation when done with a system or well-conceived plan.

The family budget for the young couple or the couple of any age tells you what your money can and will do for you. The home says Mrs. Howard, is the biggest departmental business in the world; and yet in the majority of homes there is no definite plan for budgeting the income so that the family may get the most out of life.

Mrs. Howard's views on budgeting are interesting. No plan will apply for all; but this expert on home management will be glad to advise you just how you can divide your income according to your requirements with a view of getting the last penny's value out of every dollar.

Watch for this newspaper's Happy Kitchen Cooking School, and plan to attend every session. No admission fee and no obligation.
