RANGER MAN KIDNAPED AND ROBBED TODAY

J. A. Boler, owner of the Boler Grocery and Market, North Oak street, Ranger, was kidnaped and robbed by bandits early this morn- ing, being released later in the morning near Caddo, in Stephens county, after being relieved of be- tween $600 and $750 in cash and his automobile. Early this morning Boler went to his grocery store to open it for business and three robbers were waiting for him, according to the report made to the Ranger police department. Two men forced Bol- er to drive his car while the third followed in another car, and fleeing through Strawn into Stephens county. Near Caddo the men released Boler after taking his car keys and left him to walk. He walked to Caddo, where he telephoned to Ranger, telling of the kidnaping and robbery, and Chief of Police Jim Ingram sent Patrolman Guy Pledger to Caddo to investigate the robbery. This was the second robbery of the Boler store within recent months, burglars having broken into the store and removing about $300 from the safe on a previous occasion. Earlier in the morning Boler had thought that he heard some- one around his home, but thought little of it. This morning he went to work, as usual, to open the store early. Other members of the fam- ily, who also aid in running the business, went to work later in the morning and found the safe empty and Boler missing. They immediately notified police, stat- ing that they feared for his safety as they had heard prowlers during the night and feared that he might have been kidnaped or killed. Shortly after 8 o'clock Boler telephoned from Caddo and the officer was sent there in the Ran- ger police car to get him. Court costs were agreed to be paid for by defendant. Sureties of defendant were re- leased from all liabilities on ac- count of reply bond executed by defendant. Case of Jarecki Manufacturing company vs. Sinclair Prairie Oil Marketing company, garnishee, was dismissed in 88th district court last week on suggestion of plaintiff.

Deputy To Be Placed in Ranger, Haley; Gives Reason None There "For Period of Twelve Months"

"There will be a lawful bonded deputy in the city of Ranger dur- ing the rush period for the purpose of registering automobiles," tax assessor-collector Tom Haley an- nounced Saturday. "My reason for not placing a deputy in the city of Ranger for a period of twelve months, is as fol- lows:" State Highway Department, Mo- tor Patrol Division, Austin, Jan- uary 8, 1935. Subject: Issuance of License Plates. Mr. Tom Haley, Tax Collector, Eastland, Texas. Dear Mr. Haley: Replying to your recent inquiry with reference to the establish- ment of branch offices in East- land County, you are respectfully advised that the latter part of Section 10 of House Bill No. 6, passed by the Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature pro- vides in part . . . that no person shall be authorized or permitted to collect any license fees under the provisions of this act except the Tax Collector or a duly authorized and appointed Deputy. If these branch offices are in charge of an authorized or ap- pointed Deputy who is properly bonded, there would be no com- plaint as far as this department is concerned. I might state that during the past few years we have experienced a great deal of trou- ble in cases where Tax Collectors would name some one in towns other than the county seat who was not an appointed and bonded Deputy to issue automobile licen- ses but who would charge extra fees from the general public for making these registrations. I am of the opinion that should you appoint agents of this kind that it would, in a matter of time, place you in an embarrassing position, as there are no provisions on the statutes for a Deputy or agent to collect these excess fees. To be right frank with you, the State Highway Department does not approve of appointing such agents. Yours very truly, L. G. Phares, Chief, State Highway Patrol. "I am going to try to take care of the situation in the City of Ranger and Cisco the best I can for the convenience of the citizen- ship of both of the cities," the tax collector said. WORM IS SIGN OF SPRING AUBURN, Me.—Whether or not the groundhog saw his shadow, a more potent sign of spring was seen by Ernest H. Knolle. Knolle was digging snow away from his home recently when he saw an angle worm working itself out from the ground.

Davisson Favors Gasoline Raise, Lower Auto Fees

George A. Davisson, repre- sentative from Eastland county, fa- vors an increase in the gasoline tax, submission of a constitutional amendment to the people on old age pensions and a decrease in the automobile license fee, according to a letter received Saturday. "I have received petitions with approximately one thousand names attached to them, asking me to support a resolution giving the people an opportunity to vote for constitutional amendment for an old age pension. I am co-author of House Resolution giving the people an opportunity to vote for constitutional amendment so that they may determine whether or not the legislature shall pass an old-age pension. "I am co-author of House Bill No. 71, which will reduce the auto- mobile license to one-third of its present value. The bill originally called for a $3.00 flat rate, but due to the great amount of oppo- sition in the particular committee to this flat rate, we were forced to accept the aforesaid amend- ment. We intend to amend the bill further on the floor of the house and hope to conceive the bill in its final passage with a flat $2.00 rate. "I am going to devote all my ef- forts to the passage of House Bill No. 483, which levies an addition- al one cent gas tax to retire coun- ty bonds."

Baird Man Is Charged With Two Offenses

Charles Russom of Baird Mon- day was in Eastland city jail fac- ing charges of drunkenness and reckless driving after hitting and allegedly damaging Elmo Hill's au- tomobile Saturday night in East- land. Hill reported to Eastland offi- cers Bob Ball and Elon Reeves Saturday night an unknown driv- er, on the wrong side of the road, came down West Commerce onto the Eastland square and struck his automobile, and did not stop. Hill's automobile was reported to have been knocked 35 feet. From the description given by Eastland officers, Cisco officers early Sunday morning arrested Russom and placed him in jail, where nightwatchman Ball picked him up later. Ball had gone to Cisco earlier in the evening, thinking the driver had gone in that direction after hitting Hill's car. After striking the car, the Baird man, about 22, went to a private dance in Eastland, starting to Baird later. KILLED MANY RABBITS HERINGTON, Kan.—Dr. H. D. Mosier and Frank and Hogan At- kinson, who went to Hoxie, Kan., to hunt rabbits, reported they killed two and a half tons of the ani- mals in one week on one section of land.

Legislators Will Attend West-Tex. Parley of Judges

Between 40 and 50 members of the Texas Legislature are expect- ed to attend the West Texas Judge and Commissioners meeting in Brownwood March 29-30, Judge Clyde L. Garrett, president of the association announced Saturday. Coke Stevenson, speaker of the house, and William C. McCraw, at- torney general, will attend the meeting. County commissioners Arch Birt, Henry Davenport, N. G. Crawley and R. O. Jacobs will likely attend. The association was formed in 1927 at Lubbock. The Eastland county judge is a charter member.

Parties Agree On New Settlement, Case Dismissed

Dismissal of suit of Jarecki Manufacturing Co. vs. Arnold Kirk et al after annulment of previous judgment was ordered in 88th district court last week. Settlement parties agreed to was for plaintiff to receive $1,100 from defendant Kirk et al. The former judgment awarded the plaintiff on an. 2 provided for payment of $1251.95. Court costs were to be paid by defendant, ac- cording to the agreement.

There's something about a Chesterfield —

There's one thing I especially like about Chesterfields—entirely aside from the fact that it's a milder cigarette—and I've heard a number of people say the same thing ... While I'm smoking Chesterfield I never get little crumbs of tobacco in my mouth—the tobacco doesn't spill out and that adds a lot to my pleasure of smoking them ... I notice more and more of my friends smoke Chesterfields.

Chesterfields are Milder. Chesterfields Taste Better.

Law Enforcement and the Citizen

All law-abiding citizens are interested in the eradication of crime and the punishment of criminals. John Edgar Hoover is the director of the division of investigation of the United States department of justice. State courts and agents of justice are reminded that the strong arm of the federal government has been placing criminals behind bars or sending them to bloody graves.

John Edgar Hoover is a remarkable man. He appeared before the chamber of commerce of the State of New York and delivered a pointed address on law enforcement and the duty of the citizen. He handled his subject "straight to the shoulder," so to speak.

Many of the famous criminals of America had their ideots in Texas and Oklahoma. These criminals had their sympathizers or abettors or advisers everywhere, peaking of the cost of crime annually, Director Hoover says: "This all sums up into one conclusion. This is your expense. This is the bill you must pay."

Because of that theory, the American state legislature has two houses. All reason for the division has vanished; what we have now is best described by Senator Norris, who calls the two-chamber legislature "as useless as a wogon with five wheels."

"A bill once referred to a conference committee cannot become law unless it is agreed to by a majority of the conferees. Thus it is within the power of the conference committee, in secret and without a record vote, absolutely to prevent legislation and to kill or to modify at its pleasure any proposed legislation within its jurisdiction."

The world would be better off if a lot of people would spend more time attending to their own business instead of trying to take care of their neighbor's business.

Cheaney Will Have An All-Day Rabbit Drive Wednesday

A big rabbit drive is to be conducted at Cheaney, at the "Old Cheaney Stand," it was announced today by L. H. Perrin, a resident of the Cheaney community. Everyone in this section of the country is cordially invited to be present to take part in the drive, which will start at the old Cheaney school.

It is hoped that one of the largest rabbit drives in this section can be staged Wednesday, as two other drives have failed because of the lack of attendance, and an appeal is made by the citizens of Cheaney to everyone who can turn out for this event.

Appeal Is Made To County Officials To Aid In Relief

AUSTIN, Tex.—State Relief Director Adam R. Johnson, forced to carry on relief work this month under a curtailed budget, appealed to county officials to "do the best you can with what you have."

The state director and members of the State Board of Control have been harassed by delegations and telephone and telegraph messages from city and county officials seeking more relief funds.

"We haven't got any more money," said Johnson. "On the basis of this month's allotment, we still owe the counties approximately $2,300,000."

"State funds made available by the legislature amounting to $750,000 became available today and federal officials wired us they will forward $750,000 for general relief for the last half of March as they promised previously to do."

In addition to this, we have left in the bank approximately $368,000 of federal and state general relief funds. All of this adds up to $1,868,000, or nearly half a million less than we need to supply relief requirements."

Johnson said it might be necessary to transfer balances from more fortunate counties to those in dire need, and that in any event "we will have to drain the till" to make ends meet.

Future allotments, he said, depend upon the fate of the relief bill now in the national congress. Until the federal emergency relief administration receives a new appropriation, its funds are being supplied to a limited extent from the public works administration.

State funds also have been materially reduced, the final $3,500,000 of state bond money to be made available $750,000 in March and April, $400,000 for each succeeding month through November; $700,000 in December.

"We realize the counties are disturbed about the amount of relief funds they are receiving, but we are turning over every dime to them as fast as it comes to us," Mr. Johnson said.

Counties were requested NOT to send delegations to Austin seeking more funds and approval of work relief projects wherein the state is called upon to pay material costs. "We just can't pay out any money for materials at this time," Mr. Johnson said.

Those desiring to have toilets built should notify their zone relief officer, it was stated.

L. C. KEEL IS ARRESTED IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Word was received in Eastland today by Sheriff Virge Foster that L. C. Keel, formerly of Ranger, and who is wanted in connection with the robbery of filling stations in Stephens and Palo Pinto counties, was under arrest in Oklahoma City.

According to the message Keel was arrested in Oklahoma City Monday night and was being held pending arrival of Eastland county officers. Sheriff Foster stated today that Steele Hill, deputy sheriff, would be sent to Oklahoma City immediately for the prisoner. It was not known whether or not he would fight extradition.

Keel has been sought by officers since he was connected with the robbery of three filling stations on the night of Sunday, Jan. 13.

Word was received in Ranger of the robberies, one of which was at Metcalf Gap in Palo Pinto county, and two Ranger officers awaited the quartet of bandits near the city limits. When the car came into sight they took up the chase, firing several shots, several of which hit the car, but the robbers lost their pursuers when they hit a dirt road and stirred up so much dust they could not be followed. Later the car in which they were riding was found abandoned north of Olden after it had been burned.

The bandit car had previously been stolen in Olden and other 'getaway car' had been stolen in Ranger.

Three of the four were arrested and were tried and sentenced in the district court at Breckenridge. The confession of one of the three arrested implicated Keel, who had been missing from his home in Ranger since the night of the robberies and the gun battle.

Doxy Bill Is Passed In House

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The house today passed the Doxy bill, exempting farmers growing three bales of cotton or less from terms of the Bankhead cotton act.

The measure now goes to the senate. It originally contained provisions extending the Bankhead act through 1936 and 1937, but these were deleted by agreement on the bill.

Interpreter Used In Trial of Suit

Two languages were heard in 88th district court Monday morning—Spanish and English.

Case of Isabel Soto vs. Metropolitan Life Insurance company by jury trial began for the second time, it having resulted in a mistrial in February in the same court.

An interpreter, Ernesto de Santos, was used by attorneys to question witnesses. Soto's daughter was interrogated this morning by Santos via of R. N. Grisham, attorney for the plaintiff.

Soto is suing for alleged injuries sustained while in the employ of the Texas & Pacific Railway company June 18, 1934. The amount sued for is over $1,000. In plaintiff's original petition he claimed he had been in employ of T. & P. for twenty years.

Refusal of insurance company to pay claim for the alleged injury is the plaintiff's basis for trial.

Leeke, Henry and Young of Dallas represent the insurance company.

AS A CEREAL

OR IN COOKING

it's FINE either way!

It's so handy to have a package of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the kitchen. Serve it as a cereal. Use it also as a wholesome ingredient in your muffins, breads, omelets, waffles, etc.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" to aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also rich in vitamin B, as well as iron, an element of the blood.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct common constipation, due to insufficient bulk in the diet. In severe cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

The "bulk" of ALL-BRAN does not break down during digestion as does that of leafy vegetables, and is therefore more effective for furnishing the needed "bulk." It is a delicious laxative food . . . far better than patent medicines.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

TITLE II OF FHA ACT FOR REFINANCING, BUILDING OF HOMES EXPLAINED FRIDAY

For benefit of citizens of Eastland and section who may be interested in obtaining financial aid under Title II of the FHA act, Rufus J. Lackland, assistant to State Director T. B. Yarbrough, Friday answered an even two dozen questions on separate aspects of the urban-home aid plan.

Lackland, with R. E. Sikes, also of Fort Worth, executive assistant for the Northwest Texas districts, arrived in Eastland Friday, on a tour of Sikes' district. The two attended a meeting of directors of the Eastland National Bank, the Eastland FHA chairman, F. V. Williams, and others interested. The meet was held in the balcony of the Eastland bank afternoon.

The Eastland bank is making its application to the Fort Worth office of the FHA to qualify as a lending agency, it was stated.

As preface to his answers on the title, Lackland stated that Title II specifically provides for the creating of a mutual mortgage insurance system making available funds for new urban construction or refinancing of existing urban homes. Title I provides credit only for financing improvements, repairs and modernization on real property, he pointed out.

Attending the Eastland meeting were W. C. Campbell, Albert Taylor, Grady Pipkin, Milburn McCarty, Cyrus Forst, R. L. Perkins, W. Boaz of Fort Worth, Grady Pipkin and Carl Springer.

Eligibility

Queries fired at Lackland and his answers are as follows:

(1) What is the insured mortgage plan? A.—A new mortgage system created under the national housing act under which mortgage lenders are insured against loss through a mutual mortgage insurance fund applying to a standardized form home mortgage lending.

(2) Who can borrow under this system? A.—Any responsible person with a steady income and a good credit record.

(3) To whom does the applicant apply? A.—To any lending institution approved by the FHA to make insured mortgage loans.

(4) What kind of property may be financed by an insured mortgage loan? A.—Any property primarily to be used as a residence, provided it meets the simple requirements as to location, character of neighborhood, and type of construction.

(5) What is the maximum amount of a loan under an insured mortgage? A.—Not more than a maximum of 80 per cent of the appraised value of the property, land and dwelling included, and not more than $16,000 in any case.

(6) What is the major requirement as to location? A.—It must be in an urban community with the usual services, such as water supply, sewage and paving. It must be in a reasonably stabilized section, and the property must conform reasonably to the general character of the neighborhood.

Taxes, Insurance

(7) What type of construction will be approved? A.—Construction types customary to the locality in which they are to be used will be acceptable generally, if constructed of materials and methods of proven durability and suitability. New materials and methods will not necessarily be excluded, but will be approved on satisfactory evidence of durability and marketability.

(8) How much the mortgage loan be repaid? A.—In equal monthly amounts.

(9) What do these monthly payments cover? A.—Interest on the outstanding balance of the loan, payment on account of the principal of the loan, the service fee, and the estimated monthly proportion of the annual taxes and insurance premiums on the property and the mortgage.

(10) What insurance is required? A.—Fire and other hazard insurance protecting the interest of the lender as well as the borrower, and the mutual mortgage insurance, the basis of this new system.

(11) Does this plan apply only to new dwelling constructions? A.—No; it applies equally to present dwellings conforming to the standard requirements under the new plan.

Advantages

(12) Does this mean the applicant can refinance his present home now carrying an old-style mortgage under the new mortgage plan? A.—Yes.

(13) What advantage would this give the borrower? A.—It changes his obligation under his present mortgage to pay large sums or one lump sum at maturity date, into an obligation to pay off in convenient monthly payments over a term of years usually substantially longer than provided in his present mortgages. It makes possible the merging of a first mortgage with the second mortgage if there is one at present upon his home. It eliminates the necessity of refinancing his mortgage at more or less frequent intervals. It reduces the cost of his mortgage financing.

(14) How does it reduce the cost of mortgage financing? A.—By setting maximum permitted rates of interest for the type of transaction contemplated and maximum permitted fees for appraisal and closing the mortgage; also by eliminating the necessity for recurring appraisals and closing fees now necessary when refinancing the present type of mortgage.

(15) How much time is the borrower given to repay the insured mortgage loan? A.—Whatever time is reasonable under the circumstances applying in his case, up to 20 years.

Private Money

(16) If future circumstances permit, can the borrower pay off the entire mortgage in full before it matures on the monthly payment basis? A.—Yes.

(17) Can the borrower secure an insured mortgage and levy another mortgage on the property? A.—No.

(18) Does the government provide the money under the insured mortgage plan? A.—No, it is private money, loaned by approved institutions who are simply beneficiaries under the mutual mortgage insurance fund administered by the FHA.

(19) What does the borrower do first to replace his present mortgage with an insured mortgage on his present home? A.—See his bank or building association or insurance company. If it is not an approved institution, write the FHA office in Fort Worth and secure the name of an approved institution. Then see it; secure a mortgage application form; fill it out.

(20) What happens next? A.—The lending institution will determine whether it desires to make the loan. If so, it will submit the application to the FHA for approval. If approved, the institution mortgage? A.—Not necessarily; in many cases it will be possible to borrow enough more to provide money for modernizing or other purposes.

Change Here, One There, Presto! A New Home, Claim

Mrs. Johnetta Howard, nationally known expert on foods and home, economics who is being brought to Eastland by this newspaper to conduct its Happy Kitchen cooking school on March 21, 22 and 23, has very definite opinions about the proper conduct of a home, learned from years of experience in all parts of the country.

"Now and again we hear the expression 'better homes and apartments,'" says Mrs. Howard. "What reason is there why your own home cannot deserve that somewhat snobbish appellation 'better'? It needs only a twist here, a turn there, and your household takes on the air of being progressive and modern. And it makes life so much more interesting.

"And it's a simple matter—just getting your everyday living quarters into line with common-sense methods, doing away with the foolish and tiresome waste of motion and mind that brought many of our immediate ancestors to their graves long before their time.

"There is a good deal of unnecessary bother and pain in this world because some enlightened mind has as yet failed to give a certain problem intelligent attention. Engineering brains applied to the hundred and one humdrum chores of housekeeping have succeeded in revolutionizing the housewife's daily grind. And nowhere perhaps is this change so noticeable as in the kitchen."

During her various appearances here Mrs. Howard will tell you just what she means. She will tell you how to avoid the drudgery that makes cooking anything but a delight. She will tell you how to cook your foods, how to equip your kitchen so to get the very most out of it with a minimum of effort; and numerous other things. Admission to the Happy Kitchen Cooking School is absolutely free—and no obligation.

(21) Is the applicant limited under the new plan to borrowing only what he owes under his present mortgage? A.—Discuss the matter in general with an approved lending institution. After receiving information desired, make a mortgage application as outlined above.

(22) What happens next? A.—If the location and type of house and the mortgage application are approved by the FHA, it will give a firm commitment to the lending institution that it will insure the mortgage when the job and transactions are complete. With this commitment made, the applicant can secure a construction loan and proceed with construction.

(23) Will having an insured mortgage prevent a borrower selling his house? A.—No.

Monthly repayments, including principal, interest, premiums to insure the mortgage, service charge to the borrower, taxes and hazard insurance, would run approximately $11.90 per thousand dollars per month, Lackland declared.

CIVIC CLUBS SPONSORING SAFETY CAMPAIGN SATURDAY

On Saturday the Lions and Rotary club of Eastland are sponsoring a safety campaign to be conducted by officers in the State Highway Patrol of the district. The campaign or drive is part of a statewide movement in response to demand for safer driving and has been put on in various parts of Texas. Towns where the campaigns have been conducted include Fort Worth, Dallas, Brownwood and San Angelo.

Ranger, Eastland and Cisco are to have the drive on consecutive days, Cisco on Thursday, Ranger on Friday, and Eastland on Saturday.

Patrolmen Morgan Myers and Ernest Daniels will assist other patrolmen of the district in the campaign.

Cooperation of the move with many civic organizations has been indicated.

The state law requires that every automobile have two burning headlights, one burning tail light, adequate brakes, horn in working order and steering gear in working order. In other words, the driver should be in control at all times and it is for that reason that the concerted drive is being made.

Under the plan, every car in town, if possible, is driven through a safety lane composed of nine or 10 state patrolmen who are lined up in some block set aside for that purpose.

The first officer inspects the brakes, the next the lights, the next the steering gear, etc., until at the end of the line the automobile is given a sticker bearing the legend, "O.K." or a sticker printed in red telling what is needed to make the car safe for city streets or for highways. The owner of a car that cannot pass inspection is given a summons to court with a three-day grace period in which time he may have the defect repaired and have the summons destroyed upon proof of such repair.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garner, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henry of Ranger visited Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Jones, Saturday.

To Explain Fireman Short Course Work

Chief Frank Williams, instructor in the Fireman's training school conducted by A. & M. College at College Station, will be in Eastland Monday, March 25, to explain phases of the short course and extension lessons of the school.

Fire Chief A. W. Hennessee states that attendance from neighboring towns will likely be registered.

Effort is being made to accord towns who take an interest in short course fireman's work a reduction in their insurance rates.

DUST STORMS RAGING OVER THE MID-WEST

One of the worst dust storms in history rolled across Kansas and Nebraska today, halting traffic and forcing people to stay within their homes.

At noon the dust storm swept into Missouri and Iowa.

There were no clouds in the sky at Kansas City at noon, but the sun was obscured. Twilight existed at Omaha at noon. At this hour the storm appeared to be abating in western Kansas.

The storm was so severe in several places that roads were blocked and patrolmen refused to let motorists risk their lives on the highways.

Thousands of tons of dirt swept through the air. When the wind slackened it settled to half an inch or more. It sifted into offices and shops and cinderfoot and settled on the hair of those on the street.

Wet towels around windows did little to keep out.

Husk O'Hare and Orchestra Will Play At Lake Cisco Dance

It is with pleasurable anticipation that the dancing public of Ranger and surrounding territory is looking forward to the engagement, on the evening of March 26 at the Lake Cisco pavilion, of Husk O'Hare, "The Genial Gentleman of the Air."
For the past six years this famous orchestra has been broadcasting over both the National Broadcasting company and the Columbia Broadcasting system, on their nationwide hookups; having recently completed engagements at the Tulsa hotel, Tulsa; Lowry hotel, St. Paul; La Salle hotel, Chicago; Skirvin hotel, Oklahoma City, and the Canton Tea Gardens, Chicago. It was only possible for the Music Corporation of America and Lloyd Hughes to secure this attraction for this territory because they were en route to the Pacific coast, where they will fill a long engagement.

Featured by Husk O'Hare are the Three Burke Sisters, who have sung their way into the hearts of millions of radio listeners, and who will thrill the crowds that come to dance to Husk O'Hare.
It has been found necessary to use the Lake Cisco pavilion for this attraction because of its large size.

BONUS BREAK IS WIDENED IN THE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The breach between advocates of the Patman and Vinson bonus bills widened today in the house as debate progressed on the $2,000,000,000 measure.

Patman forces won a victory when the house approved without a record vote a rule which will permit a roll call on the bill sponsored by Representative Patman.
The American Legion, backing the bill by Representative Vinson, democrat, Kentucky, fought for approval of that measure which would leave to the treasury the method of financing the cash bonus. Speaker Byrnes indicated a vote may not be reached before next week.

Darrow Claims NRA Formed For Big Business

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The NRA was "gotten up to help big business," Clarence Darrow declared today as he testified in blunt and homely phrases before the senate finance committee.

"I found that NRA was gotten up to help big business and couldn't help big business unless it took it away from the little fellow," he said.
He told of the work done by the NRA review board and said, "when I felt I wasn't wanted any more," he returned the unspent portion of his appropriation and "went home."
"I had nothing against General Johnson then or since," he said, referring to the fiery exchange between the review board and the NRA administrator at the time the Darrow board reported last summer.

Ranger Raid Leads Into Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Mar. 18.—Axe swinging rangers, led by Captain Tom Hickman, swooped into Fort Worth today, raided two establishments and had the "heat on" signal flashing frantically to every hot spot in town.

Their first call was at the Alamo Tavern, where they seized 250 cases of fancy whisky.
Then they jumped to a downtown pharmacy and smashed 185 cases of liquor in the alley behind the building.

"What is the most important feature to look for in buying a refrigerator?"

LOWE DEFENSE TODAY PAINTS GARRISON AS AGGRESSIVE, LOWE AS TROUBLE AVOIDER

Milton Lawrence, defense counsel for Jep Lowe, on trial for murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Seaman Garrison, today called witnesses who described to jurors previous difficulties of the defendant and deceased.

Testimony of the defense was purported to show, it was thought, to jurors that Garrison was always on the aggressive, at the same time painting Lowe as a man who endeavored to ward off trouble.

Jack Tindall, Eastland horse trader, told of seeing Garrison with others on the night of the alleged shooting, stating that some of the party was intoxicated.

Mrs. J. M. Jolley of Abilene, sister-in-law of Lowe, told of a meeting of Garrison and the defendant at the county fair in Eastland, in 1933.

Stating that the parties had to be separated because of the appearance of a skirmish between them, she stated she heard Garrison state, "I'm not satisfied with the deal I got at your house."

Bill Cawley of Eastland stated that he, seeing the incident, heard Garrison tell Lowe, while the former held a knife, "I'm going to get you — out."

"He was either crazy or drunk," Cawley told jurors.

E. L. (Loss) Woods, deputy sheriff, told jurors that he took Garrison away from Lowe and took his knife.

Describing being warned of the fair difficulty, someone told him, "they're having trouble in the crowd."

"There were three or four mixed up. Lowe and Garrison, both of them, were there. Seaman had a knife in his hand."

"I can recall Lowe telling Garrison, 'you better go away from here, some one is going to be hurt.'"

O. D. Lovell of Comanche, at the time of the fair a resident of near Carbon, told of the same incident, adding that he was one of the persons separating Lowe and Garrison.

R. B. Reagan, Eastland barber, told of Garrison coming into his shop on the night of the alleged shooting, stating he had heard Garrison tell another, "Why I believe you're drunker than I am."

Elmer Lawrence, owner of the shop, under the interrogation of his son, Milton, corroborated Reagan's testimony.

Others called by the defense today included R. A. Taylor, Walter Evans, Frank Settle and Frank Jones.

Late Tuesday afternoon, Wilson Lowe, about 26, son of Jep Lowe, testified that his father was threatened by Seaman Garrison.

Young Lowe said Garrison met him and his father on the Eastland square before the shooting Nov. 17, telling Jep Lowe he would "beat him into a pulp if he didn't leave town."

Bill Garner of Olden testified he was nearby and heard the conversation.

The state was expected to resume this afternoon. It rested its case Tuesday afternoon after city and county officers related that Lowe admitted he had shot Garrison some time after the alleged conversation, and handed them his gun.

NOTES SENT TO GERMANY IN PROTEST

Last-minute developments in the European situation today were:

Paris—France decided to force a showdown on Germany's rearmament, refusing to recognize her right to do so without the consent of nations which signed the Versailles treaty.

Geneva—League circles were perturbed by France's action and a special session of the council was expected.

LONDON, March 20.—Great Britain, France and Italy acted today to present a solid front toward Nazi Germany in the rearmament crisis.

An Italian invitation was accepted for a preliminary conference at Paris Saturday and another to be held after Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, visits Adolf Hitler and Anthony Eden, his right-hand man, goes on from Berlin to Moscow and Warsaw.

France sent its own note to Germany, protesting the new army service law and made the decision to inform the League of Nations of Germany's violation of the Versailles treaty.

The French cabinet also decided to send Foreign Minister Laval to Moscow as soon as possible to make certain of effective French-Russian co-operation.

Joachim Von Ribentrop, Hitler's disarmament expert, who was said to have started for London to negotiate secretly, today was believed to have been recalled at Munich by Hitler.

BERLIN, March 20.—The horrors of aerial bombing and gas warfare were portrayed to Berlin today.

In the Kreuzberg section an aerial defense show was staged.

Four hours after a theoretical attack with explosives and gas bombs, several thousand workers organized into all types of technical squads, labored in rubber and asbestos suits, gas masks and other protective devices, combating the effect of the "attacks."

Residents were required to remain in their houses, away from windows or in stuffy, bomb-proof cellars until emergency squads arrived to "rescue" them.

It was the first chance the rescue squads, long organized, have had to practice. They performed with remarkable efficiency.

PARIS, March 20.—The French army must be strengthened, Etienne Flandin told the senate today as the result of the European arms crisis.

His talk came shortly after the cabinet had drafted a note of protest to Germany. Speaking in the senate on the pending extension of French military service, Flandin defended the measure.

He said that in addition to increasing the term the government is also trying to promote more enlistments.

"The 12 army corps and 36 divisions which Germany created March 16, were not suddenly created but existed for a long time," he said.

Rabbit Chases Dog To Make News

CLEBURNE, Texas.—When a dog chases a rabbit, that's not news, but when a rabbit chases a dog—that's something.

A woman entering a cafe here accompanied by a small fox terrier. The dog immediately set upon a pet rabbit kept by the cafe owner.

Trapped in a corner, the rabbit turned, and after administering a sound beating to the dog, chased him into the street.

EVERY INCH A KING

Raised to the throne by a revolt against his uncle, King Ananda of Siam has rebelled against his 15-cents-a-day allowance. The 11-year-old ruler, shown in the traditional regalia of Siam's royal court as he will appear when crown in May, demands the ante be made 25 cents a day. He premises modern fire departments as an inducement.

20 Million Pints Of Food Canned In Texas In 1934

COLLEGE STATION.—A total of 20,326,883 pints of food was canned in 1934 by 67,699 rural women and girls working in 3,335 home demonstration clubs in 144 Texas counties, according to figures compiled here from the reports of home demonstration agents. These women also cured, dried and stored 13,658,446 pounds of food in addition to the amount canned. The total value of all the food thus preserved was $3,598,634.44.

Because of this food preservation work and the work of those who have pioneered in the home canning of fruits, vegetables and meats, the Relief Administration was able to secure cooperation and supervision which resulted in the establishment of 551 community canning plants and 21 Federal meat canning plants having a total output of 58,28,318 cans of food.

In carrying on this food work, rural homes were improved by the building of 11,813 pantries with 122,461 feet of shelving; the making of 12,469 recipe files; the addition of 6,630 steam pressure cookers and 1,878 sealers; the digging of 1,011 cellars and 511 storage pits; the building of 1,029 smoke houses; the preparation of 6,442 hotbeds and 1,546 coldframes; and the installation of 2,440 subirrigation and 2,896 surface irrigation systems.

More than 6,126,643 pounds of vegetables were produced for home use, some to be canned and some for serving fresh. The home fruit supply was increased by these women and girls who planted 16,251 fruit trees and grape and berry vines.

Rural homes were further improved by the planting of 195,584 trees and shrubs. Other improvements were: 9,103 lawns sodded and 106,219 cuttings rooted for 1935 planting; 17,017 bedrooms improved in comfort, convenience and appearance; 7,038 walls and 14,788 pieces of furniture refinished; and 1,553 mattresses and 13,137 comforters made.

Food, shelter and clothing each had its place in home demonstration work. In clothing work these women and girls made 366,996 garments and 14,980 foundation patterns, and kept clothing accounts which indicate that the average annual clothing expenditure for the adult woman was $32.01, and per person in families was $24.95. In the interest of better care and storage of clothes, they improved 4,318 clothes closets.

To aid in financing their improvements, these women and girls produced and sold $30,346.03 worth of food and handcraft products which met the standards of sanitation and health set by the State and Federal public health authorities, and of quality and excellence set by the Texas Extension Service.

Working through the agency of their county home demonstration councils, the women cooperated in surveying 57,000 rural homes to determine the need for improvements, looking to the development of a nation-wide better housing movement. They also cooperated with the State health department in a campaign for better rural sanitation including drainage for mosquito control and the establishment of pit type toilets for the control of flies and hook worms, looking to the eradication of malaria and typhoid fever and other human diseases.

And finally, they helped advance 114,002 non-club member families on the road to living-at-home, and 66,095 other families were helped to conserve surplus food in community canning centers.

Activities of the H. Demonstration Clubs of County

Yard Plan

A yard plan is essential as a pattern in making dress. This is the first thing Mrs. J. G. Stuteville, yard demonstrator for the Dan Horn Home Demonstration club, is doing in her demonstration. Mrs. Stuteville has a cutting bed in her garden where she is rooting plants to use in planting her yard by the plan. In addition to the rooted plants she will use some of the following native materials in her screen and foundation plantings: wild plum, red bud, sumac, agrita, cut leaf sumac and honey suckle. The yard plan includes the lawn, walks, drives and underpinning for the house.

Storage for Clothing

"Build the clothes closet from the ceiling to the floor and use the upper part for storing quilts or other bulky articles and bedding," says Mrs. O. O. Wolfe, Class 1 wardrobe demonstrator for the Peak Home Demonstration club. Mrs. Wolfe has built a new closet by this plan, and made it large enough to take care of the family wardrobe. A rod was used to hang garments on, shelves on one side to supplement drawer space, the inside painted white to furnish more light. The paint furnishes a smooth surface which is disliked by moths. The complete cost of the closet has not been completed, but will not be more than $8 or $10.

Right to Appoint Supervisors Is Retained In House

AUSTIN, March 20.—The house of representatives today refused to take away the right to appoint 16 school supervisors and give it to the state board of education. The decision came in connection with a rural school aid appropriation of $10,000,000. Representative Alfred Petsch, Fredericksburg, argued for the change. "Ten million dollars is too big a fund to let any elective officers disburse," he said. The amendment was tabled 89 to 38. The house was still working on the rural aid bill at recess. If completed before night other appropriation bills will follow.

A Maid and Her Two Flying Friends

This looks like a pretty happy trio, but Margaret Lindsay is just beautiful enough to bring a lull to the verbal and sometimes fistic battles of Jimmie Cagney and Pat O'Brien. This photo was taken during the screening of "Devil Dogs of the Air," the Cosmopolitan Production released by Warner Bros., and coming to the Lyric Theatre on Wednesday. Frank McHugh is very much in evidence in this thrilling story of Uncle Sam's flying marines.

Fugitive Returned To Coleman County

Sheriff Frank Mills of Coleman county was in Ranger Wednesday afternoon to transport Joe Watson, who was captured Tuesday night by Ranger police, back to the Coleman county jail. Watson, accompanied by another prisoner, broke from the Coleman jail two weeks ago and had been sought by county officials over Texas for some time. Tuesday night Ranger officers learned he was in the city and made the raid in which Watson was captured.

How Texas Cities Got Their Names

The city of Cisco was established at its present location at the junction of the T. & P. and Texas Central railroads, in 1880, when the Texas & Pacific was being extended to El Paso. The town was named for John Cisco, a director of the T. & P. railroad. Before that time, however, there was a small trading center about one mile west of the present town known as Red Gap. It was this town which formed the real beginning of Cisco. The town site of Red Gap is now covered by the waters of Lake Bernie, one of the three lakes near Cisco. In 1919 there was much oil activity here and many improvements in the town were made. Cisco's big dam was constructed and an inexhaustible supply of water impounded.

Want to Know How to Cook?

If you are a young bride and anxious to make a small cut of meat look like a luxurious baked loaf, then go to Mrs. Johnetta Howard's cooking school, on the roof of the Connellee hotel, where she will tell you about how to do this and many other things, tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

If you are a lady who has tired of skillets and pans, and thinks there's nothing new under the sun in cooking, visit Mrs. Howard's demonstrations and you'll change your mind.

Not only will she show you these practical effects in cookery, but also how to garnish dishes, set your table, and make three pence do the work of one.

There will be also a display on the Connellee roof, of the neat, inexpensive ware for the kitchen, the comfortable shoes and hose, and the oftentimes hour saving for the clubwoman, in the canned goods arrayed.

Rag Benefit Sale

A rag sale for "Benefit of Society for Crippled Children," will be held in Eastland county at an early date and Eastland is asked by those in authority to send all their spare things, old rags, hose, etc.

VOICE IS KEY TO CHARM SAYS GRACE MOORE

"Voice is a highly important part of personality," declares Grace Moore, ravishing singing screen star, "and my advice to American girls, whether they aspire to careers as singers or as actresses is seriously to cultivate their voices."

Miss Moore is starred with Tullio Carminati, great screen Romeo, in "One Night of Love," operatic career picture, coming to the Lyric theatre Monday.

"To me Margaret Sullivan has an outstanding screen personality largely because of the distinct and pleasing impression made by her voice. She has perfect diction, enunciation, and the most charming richness of voice of any screen actress. It is perfectly obvious when one sees and hears her in pictures that she has devoted much time and work to voice cultivation."

Miss Moore, a native of Jellico, Tenn., began her voice training by church singing. Much of the credit for the thrilling quality of her lyric soprano is given to her study and use of foreign languages. The richness of her voice fits delightfully into the exotic foreign atmosphere of much of the picture, which has for its background beautiful villas, intriguing student homes, and the old world charm of Milan, Vienna, Naples, the Mediterranean, and New York.

One of these fair mornings Edmond Herring is going to wake up with a time bomb lighting off a couple tons of nitroglycerin, and when that stuff goes off it sure pops.
Since when did L. J. Lambert have to start holding Kathleen Cottingham's head when they were out riding.
It was either Ralph Mahon or Parker Brown out with Evelyn Collum Tuesday night. We wonder how that makes Bob feel.
And then Kate said, "Johnny" yours still my football hero. And to think she admitted it right out in public.
We often wonder if H. A. McCannies ever gets anywhere at the rate he walks. I bet he has to start out for school every night at midnight in order to get there by 8:55 the next morning.
We are still looking for the time when we can find Bill Bagley agreeing with someone.

We certainly would like to know just where Horton stands at the present.
Could it be possible that Benny Kate and Curtis are getting what you might call a pretty good case? Tobe Hart has dropped the former flame, and whether you believe it or not he now has a knack for writing letters. Her address is

So until we find a better dance team than Olivia White and "Country" Williams so long.

WATCH KIDNEYS SAME AS BOWELS

Wash Out Your 79,200 Feet of Kidney Tubes
Your bowels contain only 27 feet of intestines, yet the kidneys contain nearly 10 million tiny tubes or filters which would measure 79,200 feet if laid end to end. Therefore, it is just as important to watch the kidneys as the bowels. Kidneys are working all the time and are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and poisonous waste out of the blood.
Healthy persons pass thru the bladder 3 pints a day and get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter. If you pass less than this, your 79,200 feet of kidney tubes may be clogged with poisonous waste. This is a danger signal and may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, setting up nights, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.
Kidneys should be watched closely and need cleaning out the same as bowels. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, an old prescription, which has been used by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to wash out your 79,200 feet of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.
