NEW COUNTY RELIEF SETUPS EXPLAINED BY H. E. DRISCOLL AT MEETING HELD IN EASTLAND

At a meeting of all county relief officers, held in the county commissioners' courtroom at Eastland Thursday night, H. E. Driscoll, county relief administrator, outlined new plans for Eastland county relief setups which will eliminate much of the administrative expense in the county.

Relief offices at Ranger, Cisco, Rising Star and Gorman will be discontinued in the near future, Driscoll explained, and the entire relief administration will be handled out of two offices, one in Eastland and one in Carbon.

The Ranger, Cisco and Eastland offices will be combined at Eastland to handle the relief work in the northern half of the county and will be in charge of the 955 cases in that section.

The Rising Star and Gorman offices will be merged at Carbon and will have supervision of the relief cases in the southern half of the county totaling 400 in number.

The Eastland office will be under the management of J. W. Wilson, at present relief officer at Ranger, and the Carbon office will be managed by Wortham Seale, at present relief officer at Rising Star.

J. A. Wells has been appointed to assume, today, the duties of case work supervisor of the Eastland county relief board, and W. E. Moore, present work supervisor, has been appointed as assistant case work supervisor.

Because of the centralized control so necessary the new works program coming up, this merger has been made, Driscoll explained, and to greatly reduce the administrative and overhead expenses of the relief operations in Eastland county for both work relief and direct relief.

None of the present case workers, numbering 13, will be dismissed, Driscoll said, and in most cases they will be retained in their former relief territories.

Case load tabulations as of April 4, 1935, showed 2,504 on relief, while at present the number is 1,355, Driscoll pointed out at the meeting. Four case workers were dismissed on July 11, while on July 12 three additional case workers were transferred to the rural rehabilitation department and out of the supervision of the Texas relief administration.

ENJOINS BOARD OF ENFORCING SCHOOL ORDER MANY DEAD IN CHINESE FLOOD AREA

County school board members were enjoined from enforcing an order of their creation which would detach 1,137 acres from the Cross Roads district to Alameda by 91st district court Monday morning.

The court, in which Judge Geo. L. Pavenport presided, did not enjoin the board from attempting to make the contemplated change by legal methods.

Testimony was presented by plaintiff school board members to show that the county board did not serve notice to trustees of the Cross Roads school of the detaching order.

Law holds, it was shown, that notice is required to be given by a school board of any change as that attempted by the county group and that an election is necessary for its determination.

The county board or its superintendent, C. L. Eldridge, did not appear.

Frank Judkins represented the plaintiff. Cross Roads school district board men Eudy and R. L. Hise appeared at the proceedings.

New Resident

T. E. Warden of the land department of the Lone Star Gas Company, who moved to Eastland from Mineral Wells to make his home.

T. E. Warden of the Lone Star Gas Co. Is a New Resident

Eastland became the home of another Lone Star Gas Company family early this month when T. E. Warden of the land department moved here from Mineral Wells in order to be more centrally located in connection with his duties. Mr. and Mrs. Warden and their two children, Martha Nell, 8, and Jim Tom, 6, have taken up residence at 1207 South Cedar.

Warden represents the company land department in a wide territory extending west from Fort Worth and south from Wichita Falls where he has worked for the past six years. He has been with the company more than eight years and is well known in the Eastland area. Because of the central location of Eastland and educational advantages here, he plans to make this city his permanent home.

"For the first time in many months, I have been able to be with my family practically every night because of the central location," he said. "We have always liked Eastland and are happy to become citizens of such a progressive city."

Practically every Lone Star Gas Company department operating in the West Texas division is now represented in Eastland by one or more families. In the West Texas area there are more than 500 Lone Star employees, many of whom trade in Eastland.

In the years the company has operated in and served this area, more than $5,000,000 has been paid out for salaries; $10,000,000 for gas; $1,000,000 for materials and supplies; $1,300,000 for drilling contracts, and $717,000 for ad valorem taxes to city, county, and state—a total of more than $18,000,000 spent in the development of this area, according to officials.

J. A. Bearman of Cisco was a visitor in Eastland Friday. Winston Castleberry was a visitor in Cisco Thursday. Miss Florine Richardson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Richardson, who was operated on for appendicitis at the local hospital Wednesday evening, is reported recovering rapidly.

DIZZY HEIRESS BESTS "MUGGS" IN COMIC FILM

For the character Patricia Ellis plays in Damon Runyon's "Hold 'Em Yale," coming Sunday to the Lyric theatre, "there's something about a uniform" that just drives her crazy.

Miss Ellis in the leading feminine role of this new Paramount picture plays a dizzy little heiress who marries every man she meets who wears a uniform, much to the disgust of her father and the discomfort of his payroll—after having bought off five or six husbands.

Some of Mr. Runyon's "citizens of Broadway" figure on cutting in on this nice little graft. So, with Cesar Romero dressed in a phony aviator's garb they entice the little girl away from home and decide to hold her until her father comes through with plenty.

The little girl turns the tables on them however, forces them to eat her cooking, wash their necks, spruce their appearances and generally makes life miserable for these "hard citizens."

When they try to get rid of her, they discover that her father won't take her back, but wants her married off to a boy at Yale.

In the comedy final sequences the gangsters take charge of the Harvard-Yale football game, contrive to make the prospective groom win and finally get rid of the "doll."

Directed by Sidney Lanfield, "Hold 'Em Yale" features Cesar Romero, William Frawley, Andy Devine, Warren Hymer and George E. Stone as members of the Broadway gang, and Larry Crabbs as Miss Ellis' final choice.

GRACE MOORE BRINGS HONOR TO THE FILMS

The movies have more than come into their own! And this fact is made public by no less than the Society of Arts and Sciences, for the venerable society's award to Grace Moore for "vitality affecting our national culture at the present stage of our evolving civilization" gives ample proof that the motion picture is an intelligent art and a great potential cultural influence.

This is the first time that motion pictures have been so honored, and, in the past, only one other woman has been awarded the society's medal—Eva La Gallienne, for her contribution to drama.

Maintaining the same splendid calibre of artistry, lovely Miss Moore comes to the Lyric theatre on Monday in Columbia's dramatic musical, "Love Me Forever," featuring Leo Carrillo and Robert Allen. In winning the award, Miss Moore automatically raised the standard of film entertainment several notches, and "Love Me Forever" is an excellent example of the demand for film fare finer in every phase.

The list of distinguished recipients of recognition from the society in the past accentuates its departure from tradition in looking to the field of popular entertainment for the current nominee. The previous recipients are:

Thomas Alva Edison, Case Gilbert, James McKee, Carrell William Crocker, Jay Downer, Frank Damosch, John Philip Sousa, Madison Grant, Governor W. J. Kohler, Gilbert N. Lewis, William White Niles, Harlow Shapely, Albert A. Michaelson and Robert A. Milliken.

Besides the society award, Miss Moore is also the winner of other singular laurels. She is the only American actress to be honored with a plaque in the foyer of the Opera Comique, Paris—the "hall of fame" of French theatrical circles. She is, also, the only colonel on the staff of Hill McAlister, governor of the state of Tennessee. This rank was bestowed upon her following her screen triumph in "One Night of Love."

JOE E. BROWN IN "ALIBI IKE" OPENS AT LYRIC TODAY

Joe E. Brown is coming to town today. He appears at the Lyric theatre in "Alibi Ike," Warner Bros.' home run comedy, based on the popular story by Ring Lardner.

Joe, in the title role, is both a crack pitcher and the best batter of his club. He has an alibi for everything—not just for mistakes—but for plays any other player would have been proud of.

Joe falls in love with the sister of the captain's wife, but when he alibis on his romance, the girl hears him and turns him down cold.

Thrills follow in which Joe is kidnaped by a bunch of crooks, but he escapes, and the romance is patched up by the players in one of the most comical climaxes imaginable.

"Lease Hounds" Active As Swabbing Shows Breck Men's Wildcatter Near Albany Good For 250 Blbs. Per Day

In Breckenridge the well is interpreted as opening up a new oil era in Stephens county. Pitzer & West have spent about $25,000 on the well and have leased over 5,000 acres on the George DeLafosse ranch, which is midway between Breckenridge and Albany. The nearest producing pool is five miles north of Ibox.)

ALBANY, July 18.—On swabbing gauge after drilling approximately two feet of the pay in Shackleford county's deep oil test, the Pitzer & West No. 1 Geo. T. DeLafosse, eight miles east of here, the test showed 15 barrels for the first hour and 12 barrels for the second, being estimated as good for 250 to 300 barrels per day as it is.

Operators have definitely decided to acidize the well which is bottomed at a total depth of 4,452 feet after correction of steel line measurement. After striking the show from the Ellenberger lime last week, the producing string of five-inch pipe was cemented and the large pipe was pulled. At noon the well was cleaned out, and after deepening two additional feet no increase in oil was encountered. Gravity of the oil is 42.6.

A large crowd turned out today for the opening of the test and a considerable amount of royalty and leasing play took place. One of the largest transactions was the purchase of a quarter royalty on 480 acres northeast of the well for a cash consideration of $4,000.

Latest location has been staked by A. A. Michaels, Wichita Falls independent operator, 14 miles northeast of the deep test, on the west edge of Stephens county in the S. P. survey No. 4. It will be a Strawn sand test on the Florence J. Whitney land, scheduled to drill to a depth of 2,100 feet.

Pioneer Teacher Of Texas Buried

CISCO, July 18.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Augusta Mason, 91, pioneer teacher of this part of the state, were held Wednesday at the First Baptist church. Rev. Charles Alexander of Eastland, her former pastor, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. G. W. Parks of Roscoe.

Interment was in Oakwood cemetery. Mrs. Mason died Tuesday afternoon at her residence, 500 West Ninth street, after an illness of a week.

Mrs. Mason was the first woman in Texas to pass an examination and qualify as a public school teacher, which she did in Harrison county at the age of 16.

During the Civil war, Mrs. Mason, then Miss Augusta Trammell, led religious services for her community, in the absence of her father, William Trammell. At the time there were no hymn books in the community and the only song which all the people knew and could sing was "On Jordan's Stormy Banks."

She taught school for 33 years before her marriage to W. A. Mason at Meridian in 1893. She was in Moran the day of the Cisco cyclone but came here the following day to aid in the caring for the injured and in rebuilding the city and, with her husband, made her home here. Mr. Mason died in 1908.

Immediate survivors are a brother, A. A. Trammell of Almagorda, N. M., and a sister, Mrs. J. W. Thomas, with whom she was living at the time of her death.

Active pallbearers were J. M. Witten, E. J. Poe, S. E. Mittson, F. B. Altman, Algie Skiles, and F. E. Shepard.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Farms and ranches alongside of Texas highways will keynote Centennial visitors' impressions of the state.

The Centennial Farm and Home Demonstration Contest announced by the extension service is an effort to enroll every family living on a Texas highway in one great big reception committee to create a "smiling countryside" welcoming visitors to the birthday party.

Response to the announcement of the contest has been inspiring. Dallas News representatives met it when they went out to raise $2,500 for prize money for the contest. Commercial firms gave generously to stimulate enrollment in the state-wide movement to improve the homes and farms and ranches by which the state will be judged in 1936.

Newspapers all over the State have joined hands in cooperation with The News as representing the city where the principal Centennial event will be celebrated. Good editorials and generous inches of space are being given to promote the movement. Radio announcers on commercial programs are telling about it.

The sister State of Oklahoma plans to "pretty up" the highway leading into Texas.

Extension Service agents aided by the men and women and boys and girls who have worked with them heretofore are helping Texans on the highways to make plans for improvements based on Extension Service standards for country homes of comfort and beauty.

Everybody wants the contest to be a success because Texas will be host to the nation in 1936. Texas pride is involved. Texas pride is our pride. The nation's opinion of the homes and farms and ranches of Texas matters to every Texan. So enrollment will not represent alone a desire to win one of the big prizes but will be a measure of Texans' love for their state.

KOUNTZE—Tomato growers in the Votaw community in Hardin county realized more than $30,000 from the 1935 crop which amounted to 44 cars, according to W. P. Barrett, county agricultural agent. Due to the late freeze, growers were forced to market this season in direct competition with the Valley and north Florida crops.

The shipment this year was the largest number of cars ever shipped in one season. The next largest season was the 1934 crop which amounted to 34 cars. Although only 10 more cars were shipped in 1935, the 1935 crop returned to the growers three times as much actual cash, Barrett said.

DALLAS—An average production of 25 eggs per hen per month has been reached for the second time this year by the flock of C. A. Luper of Dallas county, according to Dale Merwin, county agricultural agent. For the month of May, Luper's flock of 71 white leghorn pullets averaged 25.5 eggs each, while in March they averaged 25 eggs each.

The flock is entirely composed of last year's pullets. The hens consumed an average of 4.7 pounds of mash and 3.4 pounds of grain each during the month and had access to green alfalfa all the time.

SAN SABA—By using barn fertilizer on their land, Charles Lee and John H. Traweek, San Saba county 4-H club boys, have both exceeded their fathers in the production of corn. Charles Lee planted his corn in three foot checks, manuring each hill. He will make seven or eight bushels more per acre than his father who planted his corn on unfertilized land.

John H. Traweek planted three-foot rows thick, which he thinned to a stand by cutting out the weaker stalks. He will average 10 bushels or more per acre in excess of the amount produced by his father. His father planted his corn on the same kind of land but planted less per acre to avoid thinning.

ELDORADO—"By using four feed sacks which were given to me and a card of bias tape for which I paid two cents, I made a two-piece dress for myself," says Mrs. F. M. Bradley, wardrobe demonstrator for the Eldorado Home Demonstration Club in Schleicher county. Mrs. Bradley made the dress by her foundation pattern. The dress was trimmed by adding a tie of brown material already on hand and a brown buckle which was taken off of an old dress. "This dress cost me about 5 cents, including the cost of the thread with which it was sewed," Mrs. Bradley said.

RICHMOND—From the sale of eggs laid by her 12 hens, Clara Legemann, 12-year-old president of the Lamar 4-H Club in Fort Bend county, paid all of her expenses for club work and has come out with a total profit of $23.69 for the year, according to Miss Loris J. Welhausen, home demonstration agent.

Twenty-five cents of her money went for seed to plant her garden. An incomplete report on this demonstration shows that she has used fresh 73 pounds and canned 31 quarts of vegetables and seven gallons of berries valued at $16.25.

In addition she has made five dresses, two slips and two cup towels. These are valued at $10.15 but cost only $3.05. Clara remodelled two clothes closets, but she spent no money on that work.

Clara still has the 12 hens, and has 16 fryers in addition.

PALO PINTO—Seven pounds of new cotton plus one worn out mattress equals one good mattress for a child's bed in the home of Mrs. A. C. Newberry of the Village Bend Home Demonstration club in Palo Pinto county, according to Miss Pauline Lokey, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Newberry took the old mattress which was filled with shoddy, short cotton, added seven pounds of new long staple cotton after the old was well aired, beaten and fluffed; and then washed the tick and remade it. There was no cost to the renovation.

FIRST WOMAN'S SAFETY UNIT IS ORGANIZED

Believed first of its kind in Texas, a safety unit composed of women of the Illinois Pipe Line company organized at the home of Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin in Eastland this week, it was announced Saturday.

The organization will be under the supervision of J. P. Sutton, chairman of the industrial relations Board of the Ohio Oil company of Findlay, O. Explanation of her work as a Red Cross nurse was given by Mrs. E. O. Townsend, who gave demonstrated emergency first aid. She took as her subject, "Picnics."

Mrs. McLaughlin explained purpose of organization of the safety unit.

With Mrs. E. O. Samms of Ranger as leader, a round table discussion was held on "Some Do's and Don'ts of the Canning Season."

Judge One of Last Of Old Six-Gun Men of XIT Ranch

DALHART, Tex. — Judge J. Early Moore, of Dalhart, former cowhand, trail boss and frontier statesman, is one of the few remaining men in the dwindling ranks of that pioneer six-gun regiment of the Old West—cowboys and trail bosses of the famous XIT ranch.

He is believed to be the only man who has rounded up and worked cattle on all seven divisions of this historic ranch, and who ever drew salary from four divisions.

Born in Tennessee, he came to Naruna, Texas, near Lampasas, when 7 years of age. He walked three miles to school to sit on backless benches of split logs. "My father offered me a college education because I was slightly crippled, but I had cowpunching on the brain," he said the other day.

"In the spring of 1886, after a year in college, I quit and went with Brown and Williamson's trail herd from Lampasas to the XIT Yellow House headquarters near Lubbock.

"Though only 21 I decided I wanted to be an XIT division manager and took a job at Yellow House. For a month we branded a thousand cattle a day."

After two years the veteran cowpuncher said he decided that he should have remained in college, and he re-entered, only to yield again after two years to the lure of the open range.

In 1892 he was made trail boss on the Montana drive in which more than 12,000 yearling steers hit the trail. On this drive dangers beset the way, storms and stampedes claiming several lives.

In his reminiscences Judge Moore said he wished he had been born 30 years sooner when "there were a lot more opportunities in the cattle business—no fences, more range."

Western States' Business Best, Traveler Finds

EASTLAND, Texas, July 15.—Business is best in the western states, asserts Ralph Simmons, who has been in all states in the past two years, selling encyclopedias. In California, Nevada, New Mexico and other states in the western section, Simmons found a greater sale for his books and observed business conditions vastly better than in the east and south.

sight of the trip, he stated, was the Grand Canyon. He described the Boulder dam project at Boulder City, Nev., as imagination inspiring. Machinery is being used on the project which has never been used before, he stated.

"There are more gambling houses in Reno, Nev., than regular businesses," he observed.

While dust storms were raging in the southwest, the air was filled with salt at Salt Lake City, Utah, Simmons stated.

He met Zane Gray, western writer, and his sons, on the trip. In New York he thought "The Little Church Around the Corner," a simple edifice bulwarked by skyscrapers on every side and scene of marriages of many actors, as unusual, marked by its simplicity.

He will continue his travels following a visit with Eastland relatives.

Two Negroes Are Hanged By a Mob

COLUMBUS, Miss., July 15.—A mob of white men numbering less than 50 today lynched two negroes who allegedly confessed two attempts to assault a white farm woman.

The negroes were taken from two deputies. The mob, in seven or eight cars took the negroes back through Columbus toward Alabama before carrying them out a side road and hanging them to a tree.

Paducah Principal Selected As Eastland High School Executive

From a field of 50 applicants, W. G. Womack, Paducah high school principal, has been selected by school board members as the Eastland high head, P. B. Bittle, superintendent of Eastland schools, announced Monday. The new high school principal was selected after a personal appearance before Eastland school board members and high recommendations from many. He was principal at Paducah high for eight years, and for three years at Forney in the same position. Womack was unanimously re-elected this year at Paducah. Graduate of Texas State Teachers college at Commerce, with the bachelor of arts degree, Womack is married and has two children. Mr. Bittle stated he would likely arrive in Eastland Aug. 15, preparatory to start of school in September. The high school vacancy was created by the resignation of W. P. Palm, who heads the Stockdale

DEEP OIL TEST IS SCHEDULED SIX MILES SOUTH OF CISCO

CISCO, July 13.—A deep oil test of more than usual interest is scheduled to start around Sept. 1, on a block of 3,000 acres six miles south of Cisco where A. A. Wisdom of Houston has secured a lease on which he will sink a 3,500 foot well.

The block lies south and west of the Lutheran community, west of the Humble Schor well and between the Schor and the W. T. Leveridge farm on which a well in 1926 found a good showing of oil. The Schor well was drilled about 1918 or 1919 and was completed for a heavy gasser. From the first the Schor has supplied Humbletown was gas. It still does.

Although a number of tests have been drilled in this area, none have been drilled immediately in the direction from the Schor (northwest) that the new test will be sunk. East of the Schor and on the C. B. Stancell tract east of the Rising Star highway, a well drilled by the Humble in 1925, had a showing of oil.

Lying between the Schor, with its large and consistent gas production, and the Leveridge tract, with its excellent showing of oil, the proposed test will be watched with considerable interest by oil men as possibly determining the location of a new pool. The acreage for the test was blocked by Ed Parsons, well-known Fort Worth operator who has operated extensively in the Ranger field.

Indicative of the interest that producers are taking in the territory south and west of Cisco is the fact that the Phillips Petroleum company has had a crew of men core-drilling for months over the territory from three miles south and west of Cisco to Seranton. The company is reported to have taken quite a bit of acreage.

CISCO, July 13.—A. S. Hickok No. 1 C. R. Tittle, Section 37, spud on a 1200-acre block a mile or more south of the Noodle creek pool. The well is located 660 feet from the west line and 660 feet from the north line of the C. R. Tittle farm. It will be a deep test for oil.

Block 19, in the southern part of Taylor county is rigging up to ers on the Gowan well hit the pay and report a nice showing of gas and oil. The well is reported good for about a million feet of gas and there is oil in the pay, but in what quantities is not known. The Gowan opens a large block of country north and east of Gorman and offers indication as some play in that section of the country. Cement was run in the Thompson well to shut off the water and the eight-inch casing pulled. The plug will be drilled out within a short time.

GRAHAM, July 13.—The States Oil company of Eastland spudded its Stoffer No. 1 this week. The well is located approximately two miles south of Ranger and across the road one mile from the old location of Oil City.

Mrs. J. E. Newlands of Columbus, Kan., is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. J. Fiensy.
