Ranger Legion Banquet Speaker

Earnest S. Goens, of Tyler, Department Commander of the American Legion, has accepted an invitation to speak at the annual George Washington's Birthday Banquet to be held in the Legion Club Rooms in Ranger on Thursday evening, Feb. 20, 1936, at 8 p. m.

Commander Goens was drafted to serve as the Centennial Comnander at the annual Convention held in Dallas last September. He is in the midst of one of the busiest years in all the 18 years since the American Legion came into existence. He is in demand as a speaker on Legion and other public programs all over Texas.

Commander Goens is an upstanding citizen and an influential leader in the public life of Texas. "I am happy to respond to the invitation to be with the Oil Belt Legionnaires at the Ranger gathering," he stated, adding "The Posts throughout the Oil Belt of West Texas have always been devoted to the principles of the American Legion, and have been an inspiration to the Department Commander since my acceptance of this honorable office.'

"Only about one hundred of the natives lived in the village of Mermansk at this time," stated Davis, and the extent of the snow fall and snow drift was so great that it was customary for them to have toles or openings in the roofs of their houses so that they might emerge, should the house become overed. Uncle Sam Pays High For His Luxury, War

If you could look down the road far enough, you would probably get a glimpse of the banners of an army of pensioners, advancing on the citadel of Uncle Sam's treasury.

The bonus is a closed issue now. It has been signed and sealed, and awaits only its delivery-which will take place next summer, provided that the printing presses can bring has requested issuance of 51 suball those baby bonds through their infancy on schedule.

That would seem to make pensions the logical next step. If you live long enough, you will unquestionably see the demand for pensions made; and if future Congresses are like those of the past, you will probably see the demand granted, also-not immediately, perhaps, but long before the Washington monument is ready to crumble into

Now it would be very foolish to see in all this nothing more than an outburst of greed on the part of ex-service men. Pensions for ex-soldiers are an old tradition, in this country. Go back through all of our wars, and you will ment and the other count alleges find that the high private in the rear rank wound up as a he was killed by hanging. civilian on the government payroll, if he lived long enough.

The World War boys are simply following in the footsteps of the Civil War veterans, the Mexican War veterans, the veterans of the Indian wars, and all the rest.

And the important thing to remember is that this sort of thing is nothing more or less than one of the hiddent but inescapable costs of war. That's what you let yourself in for when you blow yourself to a fight

The administration at Washington estimates that the American government, to date, has spent $7,800,000,000 on its World War veterans. The new bonus will add substantially more than $2,000,000,000 to that. And if pen- Favors, Rising Star; Dude Morris, E. Starkey, R. D. Bowman, Oscar sions ever come, the figures will become astronomical.

But it is too late for us to start weeping about it now. The time to have worried about all this expense was in the Courtney, Carbon; Mole Berg, D. Hagar, Tom Goss, Bill Allen, spring of 1917, when our participation in the World War was still ahead of us.

The lads who went to fight the Germans for us in 1917 and 1918 didn't invent the pensions-and-bonus system; neither, it should be added, were they the ones who thought up the idea of drawing cards in the World War.

In other words, this colossal expense that goes dragging on and on long after war's dead bones have been laid to rest-it just comes with the bicycle. Declare war, and this is what you get.

Here's Real Help In Avoiding Many Miserable Colds

Unique Medication Designed to Aid Nature's Defenses in Nose and Throat, Where Most Colds Start.

PROVED IN USE BY MILLIONS

In the exclusive for mula of Vicks Va-tro-nol has been found a unique and successful aid in prewinter's threat to our comfort and health.

Va-tro-nol is especially designed for the nose and upper throat—where most colds start. It aids and stimulates the functions provided by Nature—in the nose—to prevent colds, and to throw off head colds in the early stages. Used in time—at the first nasal irritation, sniffle, or sneeze - just a few drops up each nostril - Va-tro-nol helps to avoid many colds.

Where irritation has led to clogged-up nose (a stuffy head cold or nasal catarrh) Va-tro-nol reduces swollen membranes-clears clogging mucus-brings comforting relief.

For Fewer and Shorter Colds Note to mothers—who guard the family's health: Vicks has developed, especially for you, a practical Plan for Better Home Control of Colds. This guide to fewer and shorter colds has been clinically tested by practicing physicians and further proved in everyday home. further proved in everyday home use by millions. Funeral services were held Sat-urday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Feb. 8, at the Olden Baptist Church, for Claude Clarence Yates, who died early Saturday morning at a Ranger hospital following a three weeks illness. Mr. Yates was well known and liked in this community, having lived here a num-ber of years. He was known for his honesty, straight forwardness and perseverance. He died at the age of 35, leaving a widow, Mrs. Nettie Yates, and two children, Charges, age 13, and Doris, age 7, who are extended the sympathy of the community in their time of sorrow. Clarence became ill while at work on a highway project, Tuesday, Jan. 14. The following Friday his condition being so much worse, he was removed to a Ranger hospital, where he underwent an emergency operation Saturday morning. From the first very lit tle hope for his recovery was held. Peritonitis developed and was fur-ther aggravated by his general weakened condition. Olden men attended him through the night hours and his wife was constantly at his bedside throughout the days Doctors and nurses gave unstintedly of their skill and care but to no avail and after three weeks of constant pain and suffering, and fighting a long and hopeless fight, he finally passed away very quietly in the early morning hours of Saturday, Feb. 8. His funeral services were conducted by Rev. K. C. Edmonds and interment was in Evergreen Cemetery, Ranger.

Mrs. Joe O'Leary, formerly Azalea Bockman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bockman of Olden, is seriously ill at her home in Michigan. She is being cared for by her sister, Johnnie Bockman, and although Mrs. Bockman has received word that her daughter has recovered from double pneumonia, she was advised that a serious throat ailment has developed and they are quite alarmed over
