Ten elected by home demonstration clubs as delegates to the annual farmers short course July 20-25 at College Station will be unable to attend because of lack of accommodations, Miss Ruth Ramey, county home demonstration agent, said she had been advised Wednesday.

Already Miss Ramey has secured the names of 11 delegates from the county and another is to be named at a meeting of the Flatwood home demonstration club.

The county group, including 4-H club members and members of the agent staff will leave Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. W. Grieger will represent the Flatwood home demonstration club in a state wardrobe contest to be held at the course. Her expenses will be paid by the county federation of women's clubs.

The county federation also will pay expenses of Mrs. Elbert Ezzell of Reich, who won the trip as a co-operator in the wardrobe contest.

Mrs. J. M. Dillon will be the Reich club's delegate. Mrs. O. A. Hinman will be the Ranger Co-Worker Club's delegate. The Morton Valley Club has named Mrs. Guy Stoker as its representative.

Miss Cornelia Faye Stewart, assistant to Miss Ramey, listed the following as delegates from 4-H clubs: Wilda Ruth Ledbetter, Scranton; Glenn Duckett, Morton Valley; and Lorraine Bird for Flatwood. Miss Duckett's expenses are to be paid by the Morton Valley club.

Results of CC, Bankers Work In Agriculture Pointed Out When Two Service Clubs Meet Jointly

Tangible results of the cooperation of chambers of commerce and bankers of the county in extension service agricultural work were pointed out by speakers at a joint session of the Rotary and Lions clubs in Eastland Monday.

The specific occasion was the visit of nine 4-H club boys who Monday morning received registered jersey heifer which they purchased by cooperation of the county's chambers of commerce and bankers.

Speakers — including County Agent Elmo V. Cook, Assistant Agent Hugh F. Barnhart, Rural Rehabilitation, County Supervisor George I. Lane, Eastland Banker Albert Taylor and Eastland Chamber of Commerce Secretary M. C. Davis — traced the purchase as one of the results of chambers of commerce paying portion of the expenses of an assistant to the county agent.

The assistant agent, said County Agent Cook, is responsible for an increasing number of activities of boy 4-H clubs, of which Barnhart is in charge.

The 4-H club members, said Barnhart, will use the animals for demonstrations and will exhibit them at the county fair and centennial this fall.

Rev. Charles W. Estes, Eastland Presbyterian pastor, exhibited several types of soy beans and commented on the calf purchases. Rev. Estes stated the animals were purchased in Denton county, his former residence, cheaper than current prices elsewhere. He also announced a meeting of the Denton County Jersey Club starting Wednesday.

Donald Kinnaird, Lion president, presided.

Other visitors were J. E. Meroney, secretary of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce; L. N. Miller, conservation assistant, Eastland; P. G. Caudle, Cisco; G. J. Lane, Dickens county agent and Herman Tyler, Eastland.

Four-H boys were Cecil Caudle, Flatwood; Glenn Justice of Flatwood; Guy Lystra of Flatwood; Buster Wheat of Morton Valley; John Gideon of Colony; Jack Walker of Alameda; Albert Bennett of Kokomo; James Dean of Alameda and L. R. Higginbotham of Kokomo.

Pay of WPA workers under the new program remains the same although the hours have been decreased, according to announcement of the scale by county officials Saturday.

All divisions in the program formerly worked 140 hours per month.

Under the new scale, retroactive for all payroll periods on projects which started after June 30, the hours and the rates will be as follows: Common laborers, $24 per month for 96 hours; semi-skilled laborers, $36 per month for 80 hours; and skilled laborers, $48 for 64 hours per month.

Though Income Low, RA Clients Have More Stock

An increase in the amount of livestock owned by low-income farmers is one result of the first year's work of the Resettlement Administration, which ended with the month of June. Official summaries received by George I. Lane, county supervisor, covering the period to May 1, show that Resettlement borrowers in Eastland county purchased 311 horses and 77 mules, 147 dairy cattle, 192 hogs, and 2,335 chickens.

These livestock purchases accounted for $49,736 of the $151,846 loaned in this county. The loans were made to 309 families, of which 305 were white. They included 1,629 persons. The average loan was $459 per family. Loans for machinery totaled $4,978, harness, $372, food $40,924, clothing $1,063, feed for livestock $10,233, seed $9,707.

Loans bear 5 per cent interest, and are repayable in one to five years, depending upon the kind of goods purchased. Twenty-five per cent of similar loans made by the Texas rural rehabilitation corporation in 1935 have already been repaid, although loans were made only to those farmers who had been denied credit by all other agencies.

He also advocates developing the rural schools for rural children, that school officials be informed of the exact amount of rural aid they are to receive at the time the school is visited by the supervisor in order that budgets can be planned, and economy in the travel expenses of the superintendent and his aides.

Suggested Farm Sites Inspected

Dr. D. A. Conner, head of the experiment station at A & M with four members of the experiment station board, spent Monday in the vicinity of Rising Star inspecting sites for the location of an agricultural experiment station to be located in accordance with a bill passed at the last session of the legislature somewhere within the territory covered by the western cross timbers belt. According to the provisions of the bill the farm is to be located in one of four counties, Brown, Comanche, Eastland or Callahan.

The committee is made up of Jos. Kopecky, Hallettsville, Chairman; R. V. Davis, Plainview; Dr. J. T. Lawson, Bowie; and Dr. Conner of A & M. The committee was accompanied by Dr. W. T. Carter of the U. S. Soil survey commission, who made tests of the soil on the farms shown.

According to Kopecky, chairman of the committee, it is likely that a definite location can not be made until the legislature meets in January at which time an appropriation for equipment and other things will be made.

When the state land office decided to lease the hay for drilling, the officials should have adopted a uniform course. If they believed the waters covered a large store of oil, they should have accepted the largest combination cash-and-oil offers. But if they were not sure that oil was there, they should have taken the offers that meant the most cash on the barrel-head.

"Such haphazard methods make possible the practice of favoritism in giving leases and emphasize the importance of having at the head of the department a man who has had practical business experience and who has an understanding of the oil industry."

Unbusiness-Like Policies Charged By W.H. McDonald

DALLAS, July 14.—Procedure inconsistent with good business practice in the leasing of Galveston bay was charged today by William H. McDonald of Eastland, candidate for state land commissioner.

Diplomats Are Found Holding Hot Potato

If you will keep a close watch on the diplomats of the English-speaking world these days, you will discover that they are making every effort to perform an undignified and gracefully. They are trying to get their fingers off a very hot potato.

For England, the potato was grown in Ethiopia and dug up by that spirited agriculturist, Benito Mussolini.

Mussolini sent troops down into the ancient homeland of the Queen of Sheba, and the British lion began to bristle and growl. A fine spirit of international idealism swept the British Isles, a spirit fused with the traditional anxiety lest outsiders poach on British preserves.

The fleet was sent to the Mediterranean and the air was filled with solemn warnings about the terrible things that would happen to an upstart nation that dared defy Great Britain.

But Mussolini filled the air with more potent things—to wit, up-to-date bombing planes, from the cockpits of which keen-eyed young Italian pilots could peer down on a singularly helpless British fleet. And it wasn't long before the British discovered that it wasn't their day to fight.

Mussolini blandly defied England's fleet and ignored her threats, Ethiopia today is solidly his—and British statesmen are trying to find a neat way of retreating from a position they cannot possibly hold.

But if their plight is pitiful, consider the situation at Washington.

A few years ago the Japanese marched into what is now Manchukuo, bayoneted the nearest inhabitants, and said that they had come to stay a while.

The American State Department announced solemnly that it was all wrong and contrary to public morals, and that America would never, no never, recognize any ill-gotten gains that had been acquired by force.

And sooner or later our diplomats will have to take their hands off the hot potato which they no nobly picked up. Already they are preparing to give Mussolini's conquest a back-handed sort of recognition. That similar recognition of Japan's conquest must eventually follow is extremely likely.

For a high moral attitude in international politics does little good, these days, unless you are prepared to go to the mat with horse, foot, and guns to support it.

London and Washington made the mistake of adopting the attitude without having the faintest notion of using force to make it good. A dignified retreat now is their only choice.

All they get out of it is a new sense of realism in international relations.

Lights Transform Fair's Midway Into Fairyland

Spectacular as it is by day, the Midway of the Texas Centennial Exposition, Dallas' $25,000,000 World's Fair, is turned into a veritable fairyland when its unique lighting system is turned on.

Centennial Midway Has Wide Variety Of Attractions

By JAY WELLS

United Press Staff Correspondent

DALLAS, Texas.—"And why, you ask, have artists and sculptors from the Jays of ancient Greece down to the Texas Centennial Exposition glorified the nude body of a woman?"

"I will tell you—It's because it's beautiful to behold."

"Step right up, ladies and gents! We appeal to your artistic sense—and we also appeal to your twenty-five cents. Step right inside—you get so close to these beautiful ladies that it's uncomfortable."

"Everyone admitted except the youngsters under 18, and the old men over 80. The youngsters just don't understand it, and the old men just can't stand it!"

And if you believe this spiel of the dark-haired Paris Peggy, and are captivated by the way she rolls those eyes you pay two-bits and are on your way to see the Midway at the Texas Centennial Exposition.

Peggy and her pals hold forth in the Streets of Paris, where Mona Leslie does the apple dance (only the apple is more the size of a basketball) and Captain Bradley dives backward from a 100-foot tower into a 6-foot tank of water tude that he absolves the management from any responsibility if he misses.

Maybe you don't care for Mona Leslie—although most people do. All right, step right down to the Streets of All Nations. Mile Corrinne is the main attraction there. Black in Kaufman, Texas, where she grew up, Corrinne was known as the little Bessie girl. But at the Centennial, she is Mile Corrinne, originator of the apple dance—and a little gal who thinks that clothes are all right in some kinds of dances but not worth a whoop when you want to peek 'em in.

This midway at the exposition isn't just a nudist show, however, even though any description of it must begin with the undraped form.

Over at Admiral Byrd's Little America clothes are very much in Distorted human beings who drive nails through their cheeks, and pegs through their noses make you shiver in Bob Ripley's Believe-It-or-Not exhibit.

But you don't like creepy-looking freaks? Fine, just step down to the Midget Village. The folks there are smaller than you and I, but you'll love them. When that pint-size cop asks you if you want to get your picture taken with little Mae West, tiny and darling, you pay a dime and a nickel and get the photo. If Mae West likes you, she may put her arm around you. And there's a girl who dances and sings "Goodie, Goodie" to equal any movie star.

In case you have trouble visualizing how a man looks when he dies in the electric chair, visit Warden Lewis E. Lawes' crime exhibit. Lots of women can't watch it—and some men can't, either—but if you can stand it you'll try to keep out of trouble forever after. They also point a moral down at the Showboat, with that old mellerdrummer called "The Drunkard." For downright entertainment, this correspondent lists the Drunkard at the top of the Midway attractions. You hiss the villain, cheer the hero, weep with the heroine, and sing at the top of your lungs when the red-neck bartender leads "The Man on the Flying Trapeze."

Why Gulf is the Gas for July

THE "DOG DAYS" start in July. Hot, sticky days that play hob with your car's mileage—unless you use a fuel tailored to the weather. If you don't want part of your gas to go out the exhaust unburned, wasted—get That Good Gulf in July. It's specially refined for summer driving—"Kept in Step with the Calendar." And that's why all of it goes to work, none of it goes to waste. Try it.

"Kept in Step with the Calendar" GULF THAT GOOD GULF GASOLINE

Tempting cold dishes—created by the chef of the famous Hotel Shoreham in Washington, D. C.

The appetizing array of cold cuts shown below is a feature of the July menu in the fashionable Louis XVI Dining Salon of Washington's Hotel Shoreham. Here Camels and good food go together. As Robert, watchful maitre d'hôtel, observes: "Camels are the outstanding favorite at the Shoreham."

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER in the National League's postseason—"Gabby" Hartnett. "I can smoke as many Camels as I like," he says. "A Camel with meals and after sees my digestion right!"

ON THE GO. Bill Ferguson, star salesman (right), says: "Camels give me an extra sense of well-being."

MISS UVA KIMMEY, daring girl parachute jumper. Miss Kimmey says: "I'm a Camel smoker. I like to smoke Camels at mealtime. They make food taste better and encourage digestion in a pleasant way. Camels don't jangle my nerves."

Camels add zest to eating—they set you right. No wonder smokers say:

"For Digestion's Sake... Smoke Camels!"

MEALTIME often finds us in a state of rush and tension. The excitement and nervousness slow down the flow of digestive fluids. Remember, then, to pause for a Camel. When you smoke Camels at mealtimes, the flow of digestive fluids is helped back to normal. Alkalinity is increased. You experience the well-being that follows a meal well digested. Camels are gentle on your throat and they never get on your nerves. Enjoy them often for their cheery "lift"... for their unequalled taste... for digestion's sake. Camels set you right!

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

MACHINE-SHOP FOREMAN. John A. Merritt (far right) says: "When I've finished my meal, I shove back my chair, take out another Camel, and enjoy myself. Camels set me right! They've got everything!"

ON TEXAS FARMS

Under the non-interpretative title of "program planning project," men and women in the rural communities of Texas have been meeting during the last six months and analyzing land use customs on Texas farms and ranches.

The object of this work, which was inaugurated by the Extension Service, is to start a flow of live information from the farm to the Department of Agriculture, and the method was for small groups of neighbors to meet and, using prepared schedules, map their own and the whole community's land use.

Two hundred and four counties having been engaged in this work, 70 of these counties made out schedule seven which had to do with gardens, orchards, and sweet potatoes, all for home use.

Figures compiled for the state from these 70 counties are very revealing; 31,641 acres more of orchards are needed in these 70 counties to supply fruit for the home tables; 20,716 more acres of garden are needed in these 70 counties to supply vegetables for home use; and 6,128 acres more of sweet potatoes are needed by the families in these 70 counties.

In realizing these figures which he has assembled from the county reports, George E. Adams, assistant state agent, who has had charge of this project comments: "These are not the findings of county agricultural and home demonstration agents, but of the men and women who themselves live on Texas farms and ranches. Having come to the conclusion that they need this additional acreage in food for home consumption, it is logical to expect that 1936 will see a considerable increase in home gardens and orchards."

LOCKPORT—"The cans of food in my ventilated pantry never sweat nor rust," said Mrs. E. T. Scallorn, home food supply demonstrator of the Dale Home demonstration club in Caldwell county, recently.

Each pantry shelf is made of three boards, four inches wide and set one inch apart to allow for passage of air current.

A rectangular piece of about 18 by 10 inches was cut out of the floor near the back and screen wire placed over it. In the ceiling, near the front of the pantry, another hole has been cut and screened.

Mrs. Scallorn says that places for the warm air to pass out of the attic near the roof should be provided.

"The draft of air from under the house, through the pantry and out into the attic, cools the product and lessens the loss," this demonstrator commented.

FORT WORTH—Ready cash from the sale of 4,000 baby chicks and fryers has filled the pocketbook of Mrs. T. R. Linberg, poultry demonstrator for the Everman home demonstration club in Tarrant county, according to Mary Powell, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Linberg received 25 cents per pound for the fryers on foot and 30 cents per pound dressed.

BALLINGER—Mrs. R. J. Wood, yard demonstrator of the Bethel home demonstration club in Runnels county, has made an attractive setting for her house, according to Myra Tankersley, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Wood began her yard improvements by moving her flower beds from the front yard and unsightly objects from the back yard. Her sons dug up the yard and sodded it. Native stones were brought up from the river and two walks were made.

A rose garden has been made at the side back of the house. Many foundation plantings have been put out. She has spent $2.35 on her yard so far.

SAYERS—Robert Crow, a 4-H club boy in Bexar county, interplanted one and one-half acres of white corn with cowpeas as a club demonstration, according to H. F. Schlemmer, assistant county agricultural agent.

"This corn is making excellent growth," Schlemmer commented in a recent report, "and now appears to be making a much better crop than usual because of the interplanting."

As a pure strain of corn was planted, Robert Crow expects to select seed corn from this acreage for the entire farm for next year's crop and to feed the balance to a brood sow and a litter of pigs as an additional club demonstration.

HEARNE—Thirty-seven acres of alfalfa have proven the most profitable crop of its size on the Deming farm near Hearne, according to an account given V. L. Sandlin, Robertson county agricultural agent by John Brock, manager of the farm.

Brock stated that over 100 Polian China hogs have been pastured on the alfalfa for over a year and that from 20 to 60 young hogs have grazed it constantly and yet it has been necessary to mow some of it several times to keep it tender.

The farm manager says that there has been little expense for feeding the hogs, and that swine sales have amounted to over $1,000 since Jan. 1, 1936.

Island, on his last trip there in 1776.

Varied contributions to the museum, however, have widened its scope to include such relics as a hat worn at George Washington's inauguration, the first O'Riley telegraph, a 2,000-year-old Japanese maiming ring, the first Chicago typewriter, and a silver teapot once owned by George Washington.

The museum's most valuable piece is a Martin Luther translation of the Bible, printed at Zurich, Switzerland, in 1527.

The largest object in the museum is a Stanley Steamer, built in 1895. Royd E. Caylor is the present curator of the museum.

BUFFALO, Texas—Buffalo completed its first jail just in time. It was completed one afternoon. That night six persons were put behind the bars.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain. Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O.—A museum which began in 1929 as an exhibit of American pioneer relics, has grown to attract such wide interest that its visitors' book bears names from every state and many from foreign countries.

The Wyandot National Museum was founded on the first floor of Upper Sandusky's courthouse, through the efforts of Dr. F. H. Lang, who contributed his own personal collection of considerable value.

Founded primarily as a pioneer museum, the collection has, among other pieces, a powder horn carried by Daniel Boone on Battle

Arkansas Gives Century Review

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—"Welcome Stations" are being built by the Arkansas Centennial Commission where all major highways enter the state, to acquaint visitors with the Centennial and to obtain information of points of interest in the state.

Side-by-side are being built a 1936 modern cottage and an 1836 log cabin to show progress made in the state. The cottages will have souvenir information booths where souvenirs will be sold. The cabins will be built of hand-hewn logs, constructed without nails.

The log cabins will resemble those seen in pictures of the Arkansas Traveler, except that the roof will be whole.

They will have a dirt floor, open fireplace with cooking crane, a single postbed with leather thong for a mattress and perhaps a split bottom chair or two—all hand made—a typical pioneer home.

An old fiddler, playing square dance tunes, will be on duty at all times for entertainment of travelers through the federal theater project now operating in the state.

In the cottages will be large panels of pictures of various beauty spots. Their locations will be shown on a huge map that the tourists may study at their leisure.

If the stations are successful, they probably will be erected at the Texas Centennial Central Exposition at Dallas, and at other points throughout the United States in an effort to advertise the centennial, authorities say.

Kidnaper In Prison Works On Invention

STILLWATER, Minn.—Prison walls have failed to retard the inventive efforts of Albert A. Robbins, serving a 25-year prison term as "finger man" in the Leon Glickman kidnaping in St. Paul.

Robbins now believes he has perfected a practical plan for a "portable" thermo-cold camp refrigerator for hunters, fishermen, motorists, picnickers and vacationists.

Plans for his invention were placed before the state pardon board in connection with his application for commutation of sentence.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

PHILADELPHIA—This year's political conventions resemble religious revivals for many of the delegates.

In Cleveland there were those who believed very sincerely that they were sitting in on a rebirth and moral regeneration of the Republican party.

Here in Philadelphia the speakers kept insisting that the New Deal was embarking on a holy crusade against the hosts of darkness and that only its victory could preserve the welfare of the common people.

It would be much easier to believe in the altruism of those politicians if you didn't know who they were.

One of the biggest differences between the two conventions is the fact that the Republican meeting was crowded with ex-officio holders gazing wistfully at the feed-box. Whereas, among the Democratic delegates, the postmasters, little cabinet members, senators, governors, bureau chiefs, mayors, U. S. marshals, district attorneys, sheriffs, and other officials—grimly determined to hold on to their jobs—were conspicuous in their preponderance.

THE Democratic party is such a hodgepodge of differing types of groups and individuals that no one can give any single explanation of how it is possible to keep such a group together.

Contrary to popular opinion, however, it isn't anywhere near as much the desire for a $50,000 or $10,000 job which keeps most of these people driving on toward political preference, but rather the desire for power and honor—the satisfaction of being a big shot in the old home town or state.

The Democratic party, which professes a greater idealism than the G. O. P., is the party of Senator Bob Wagner of New York, whose heart beats for his fellow men as regularly as that of any politician who ever came to Washington.

Senator George Norris of Nebraska, elected a Republican, not much independent of all senators. All the outstanding Washington lobbyists, including the several ex-national committeemen who have made fortunes these last years by selling their influence with Democratic officials—and all of them came to Philly.

Rex Tugwell, whose heart is in the right place, no matter how screwy you may think he is. The assorted characters of the late Huey Long's machine in New Orleans, some of them until recently under criminal income tax indictments, but all basking under the White House smile since they promised to go along.

And so on for a long time, not forgetting many others who see the New Deal as a great moral-political awakening.

ONE thing most of the delegates didn't get too enthusiastic about was the extent to which the party seemed to be the party of Farley in radio speeches, platform speeches, press conferences, and all over the place, Farley was enjoying his big moment.

Word went around that his ears would be cropped after the convention, but many wondered whether it wouldn't have been best not to let the country get the idea that the New Deal was synonymous with "Farleyism."

Home Refineries Use Bulk of the Oil From Texas

By H. J. STRUTH
Petroleum Economist

Sixty-seven per cent of the crude oil produced in Texas is converted into manufactured products by refineries located within the state, according to figures just released by the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association of Texas. This information is substantiated by figures for 1935, compiled by the U. S. Bureau of Mines and the Petroleum Administrative Board, Washington, which show that Texas produced 391,997,000 barrels of crude last year of which 262,925,000 barrels were utilized by home refineries, the products of which were shipped to other states or consumed within the state.

The Texas oil industry provides a large labor payroll which is materially augmented by home manufacture of petroleum products through its 197 refining plants located at strategic points throughout the state. This is of paramount importance to the people of Texas since the encouragement of home industry affords additional employment opportunities for labor which might otherwise be diverted to other states. As a result many thousands of persons are gainfully employed by these refineries which process Texas crude oil for gasoline, kerosene, fuel oil, lubricants and score of other valuable products which are constantly in demand throughout the world.

In contrast with the oil industry of Texas, which utilizes two-thirds of all the oil produced in industries which, according to the state, are the cotton and wool Texas Almanac and Industrial Guide for 1936, ship out of the state nearly all of the raw material produced. Only 3 per cent of all the cotton produced in Texas, according to this authority, is actually consumed by Texas cotton mills. This means that of the latest annual cotton output aggregating 2,406,000 bales, only 72,180 bales were utilized by home industry. In the case of wool production, in which Texas leads the nation, all of the raw product is shipped out of the state, none being consumed by the Texas manufacturing industry. The Texas Almanac states, "There is not even a scouring plant in Texas, and it is estimated that freight charges on grease and dirt, alone, costs the wool growers $750,000 a year in sending its wool to market." The neighboring State of Oklahoma, according to 1935 figures of the Petroleum Administrative Board, refined 57,422,000 barrels of crude oil in its home refineries, but shipped out to other states a total of 126,000,000 barrels. This means that Oklahoma utilizes only 29 per cent of its raw material against 67 per cent which is consumed by Texas oil refineries. A balance sheet of the Texas oil industry shows that crude oil is shipped to 20 other states as well as to numerous foreign countries. Texas also receives crude oil from Oklahoma, Louisiana and New Mexico, as well as some foreign oil, a portion of which is re-shipped in interstate and foreign commerce.

Texas leads the world not only as the largest producer of crude oil but also as the largest manufacturer of petroleum products. In 1935 Texas produced 40 per cent of the nation's crude oil supply and its 197 oil refineries processed 27 per cent of all the oil manufactured into petroleum products in the United States. This combination of leadership in raw material and home manufacturing makes the Texas oil industry a vital influence in the economic welfare of this great state and exemplifies the popular slogan, "What Texas Makes Makes Texas."

State Tax Rate to Be Determined by Tax Board Soon

By GORDON K. SHEARER

AUSTIN, Tex.—What burden to 16 cents. That is hardly likely Texas tax payers this year will become known this week. Several months ago a reduction was in sight. Then the State Board of Education apportioned an additional dollar to schools. That used up more than $1,500,000 which it was thought would be on hand as a surplus to start computing the new rate.

The state school tax will depend on what the Board of Education does this week about the 1936-1937 apportionment. How much

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Decades ago, a railroad magnate, one Vanderbilt, stirred up much resentment when he coined a slogan—"The public be damned!"

In case you were thinking that long strides of enlightened progress have been made since, your attention is called to the reason there is no longer any federal co-ordinator of transportation, whose job was to point out methods by which railroads could save lots of money by modernization and elimination of waste.

Incredible or not, railroad executives, railroad labor, and even federal officials charged with regulating the railroads ganged up to block continuation of the office of Co-ordinator Joseph B. Eastman. They didn't say the public could be damned, but that was the effect.

EASTMAN was empowered to order railroads to consolidate facilities and otherwise cut out waste. Rather than be dictatorial, he gave the industry a chance to effect these ends by itself.

But he kept urging methods of modernization, standardization, and cheaper buying, and suggested solutions for the problem of facilities made obsolete through buses and trucks.

Railroad executives, under leadership of J. J. Peley, decided Texas tax payers this year will become known this week. Several months ago a reduction was in sight. Then the State Board of Education apportioned an additional dollar to schools. That used up more than $1,500,000 which it was thought would be on hand as a surplus to start computing the new rate.

The state school tax will depend on what the Board of Education does this week about the 1936-1937 apportionment. How much the other variable taxes will be already is known—they will be the maximum possible under the state constitution.

The school apportionment is the amount per scholastic to be given schools by the state to supplement local school taxes. There are approximately 1,555,000 names on the scholastic census. Each dollar apportioned takes $1,555,000 out of the treasury.

The state ad valorem tax for general revenue will be 35 cents on each $100 of assessed value. The tax to pay Confederate pensions will be seven cents. Last year the state school tax levy was 20 cents.

It was believed that this year the school levy could be reduced to 16 cents. That is hardly likely since the extra $1,555,000 that would have been on hand will be gone. How much the tax will be depends on whether the Board again makes an initial allotment of $17.50 or allots $18.50 or more. The Attorney General ruled that $17.50 is not a maximum.

Formal setting of the tax rate will be made by an automatic tax board. Its members are the Governor, State Comptroller, and State Treasurer. Their board duties are strictly ministerial. So much so that the board is designated the Automatic Tax Board.

The board must follow a formula. Money unexpended under current appropriations becomes a nest egg for another year. The school apportionment is part of the needed amount. An estimated revenue from special taxes is arrived at by taking the receipts for half of the present year and the last half of the preceding year.

This, too, is deducted from the total of money needed. Valuations are received from county tax assessors and a tax levied large enough to produce the net amount needed.

The state automatic tax board is expected to meet July 20 to do the computing. Expected is the word. Usually the time is postponed because the reports of values are not complete. A second notice has been sent out by the State Comptroller to Tax Assessors asking speed. Reports already received indicate that the valuations are running about the same as those a year ago when the total was $3,191,608,320 (b) after deducting homestead exemptions. Special taxes are showing a decided increase. Tax relief, if given, will come from them.

Boys In Canoe On A 3,200 Mile Trip

By United Press
INDIANAPOLIS—Two Indianapolis boys are paddling a canoe today on a 3,200-mile trip to Phoenix, Arizona.

Everett and Paul Dye, 20 and 19, respectively, embarked on White River, south of Indianapolis, determined to reach Phoenix in time to enroll in the University of Arizona next fall.

The trip will be made in easy stages, with plenty of camping for hunting and fishing enroute.

Heading south from Indianapolis, the boys planned to follow the White River to the Wabash, then on down into the Ohio and finally along the Mississippi to New Orleans.

From the Louisiana city the itinerary includes the Teach Canal to Orange, Texas, then down the Sabine River to the Gulf of Mexico. The boys plan to paddle through the Inter-Coastal Canal and the Bayou to Houston, Tex.

The trip from Houston to Phoenix will be made by automobile.

Nine years of canoeing, principally in Indiana waters, prepared the boys for the long journey.

Everett was graduated from high school in 1933 and Paul a year later. They have been working saving money for the trip and for their college education.

HUGE INDUSTRY VISIONED FROM NEW PLANT TO DISTILL ALCOHOL FOR MOTOR FUEL

First of what is expected to become a chain of plants to produce power alcohol for automobile fuel from grain and other farm products, this factory is ready to begin production at Atchison, Kan. At left, workmen are installing the huge stills, and at right is shown the plant itself, with one of a battery of 100,000-gallon fermenting tanks. General use of such fuel is expected to relieve strain on the decreasing supply of oil in the ground and create a use for surplus farm products.

By NEA Service
ATCHISON, Kan.—Years of talk about alcohol-bearing motor fuel are crystallizing here into a group of buildings, huge tanks, and intricate machinery. What is expected to be the first of 500 "power-alcohol" plants strung across the farm belt is nearing completion, and the fuel will be on the market soon. The Chemical Research Foundation, incorporated after the World War to take charge of certain foreign and industrial patents, is directing installation of the alcohol plant here. But it owns none of the plant, which is being built under the name of the Bailor Manufacturing Co.

Orders are already on hand, reports Dr. Leo M. Christensen of the Foundation, to absorb the 10,000-gallon-a-day capacity of the factory. It is estimated that this will utilize the production of 50,000 acres of farm land. Such crops as sweet potatoes, artichokes, corn, rye, wheat, oats, barley, molasses, potatoes, and soy beans are the commonest products used in making the alcohol. The industrial alcohol obtained by distillation of these products is denatured with fusel oil and other lubricating media, and then blended 10 or 20 per cent with regular automobile gasoline. Value of such blended gasoline compared with regular motor fuel is still in dispute but should not be generally adopted and the Atchison plant be only the first of a country-wide chain of such plants making fuel-blending alcohol from farm products, it is expected that three things will be accomplished: 1. Employment for up to a million or more men. 2. Utilization of surplus grain supplies and a wider market for farm products. 3. Conservation of the rapidly dwindling reserve supply of petroleum.

The nearly complete Atchison plant will also leave a byproduct from corn, consisting of protein cattle feed. It will market its product throughout Kansas, Iowa, and South Dakota. In the last-named state, alcohol-blend fuel is already being used to some extent in automobiles. The aim in establishing a string of plants similar to the one at Atchison, is, of course, to eliminate freight rates in shipping the grain and farm products to the plant and in distributing the fuel. Dr. Christensen sees the possibility, if a fuel of 10 per cent alcohol blend should come into general use, of jobs for 1,000,000 men and a market for the product of 25,000,000 acres of farm land.

Drives Million Miles Without Accident

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—To drive a million miles is something that is rarely achieved, except by only a few persons. To drive that many miles without a major accident is even more rare. To drive this distance without even scraping a fender seems almost an impossibility. Yet B. W. Gibbs, a Gulf salesman of Collingswood, N. J., has just completed such a record. During 19 years of driving motor vehicles in his work for Gulf, Mr. Gibbs has covered over a million miles, over all kinds of roads, regardless of surface condition, without a single accident of any kind.

This unusual record is all the more remarkable because Gulf tabulates as chargeable accidents even such minor mishaps as damaged fenders.

History Shown In Choir Needlework

By United Press
LONDON.—Two hundred women have completed a five-year task at Winchester Cathedral by refurbishing the choir with cushions and kneelers. They have produced embroidery which is expected to last at least 500 years.

The history of the cathedral has been recorded in woolen thread. Medallions worked into the designs record major events. The device's connection with shipping is indicated by a cushion design showing a liner leaving Southampton harbor—with tugs and airplanes.

Central West Texas Oil Field

NEW DE LAFOSSE TEST WELL BEING STARTED

BRECKENRIDGE.—After hard luck in one test and failure in another, Pitzer & West of Breckenridge still have faith that a new producing area can be opened in the Ellenberger line on the George DeLafosse ranch, and today are preparing to start their third test in that section, just over the Shackelford county line west of here.

Paul Pitzer said Monday the site is being cleared and derrick being moved on. The third test is to be located 600 feet southeast of the original well. The test, if a producer, will open for development a new oil section near Breckenridge.

It will be in the center of the west line of the north half of T. E. & L. survey No. 1,550, and 650 feet southeast of the No. 1 DeLafosse drilled by Pitzer & West about a year ago.

The first test showed an initial production of 300 barrels of high gravity oil in the Ellenberger line before shooting off the casing necessitated junking the hole last July. The lime saturation was found at 4,453 feet, making an initial flow of 63 gravity crude, light green.

The second test on the same fee was drilled a half-mile to the north last winter. It encountered hot sulphur water in the Ellenberger and was plugged. Pitzer & West originally blocked 5,400 acres in eastern Shackelford, centering around the 2,500-acre DeLafosse ranch.

After the original hole was junked, Humble bought a half-interest in the block. Magnolia Petroleum company and O. H. Chapman of Waxahachie are the only acreage holders inside the block.

NOW IT'S AN AIR-FLOW BIKE

Now that the Air-Flow motor cars have proved their worth, designers have developed an Air-Flow bike embodying the same stream lines (note the similarity of the sloping line at rear of auto and bike) and the easy riding features as well. The bike, introduced by Montgomery Ward, has a new spring action provided by the shape of the frame itself and a special three leaf spring at its base. Speedometer and combination horn and headlight are built into the light but strong duralium frame.

Girl Joins Chorus To Find Out How Chorus Girls Live

By MARY KNIGHT
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK.—"General" Sherman lines us up for the day's work out. I was fourth from the end on the back row, blushing at my scanty costume.

I knew my legs ought to be a few inches longer and struggled to stretch myself upwards. It was a real job—but fun.

Annapolis and West Point men don't know anything about discipline that a music hall rockette does not find out during her daily work out. The "General" is Emmet Sherman. She is captain of the dance, but everybody calls her general on account of the Sherman part.

"All right, Beula, let's get going," said Gene Snyder, assistant to Russell Markert, the director. Gene gives us the works and Russell comes in to put on the finishing touches. Beula has been playing the piano for them for 8 1/2 years.

We did some preliminary putters, including Kicks, Knee Circles and Arm Swings. We worked at five steps from 9 a. m. until 12:30 p. m. when we got an hour off for lunch.

I had lunch with some of the girls in the cafeteria and was shocked at the quantity of food they ate.

"Diet!" they gasped in response to my query as to how they kept themselves in shape. "We eat four times a day—and you will too after you've been through this routine for a few days. You work it off faster than you put it on."

While we were waiting upstairs, after the performance, to start another round of practice, I made a list of the rules and regulations the chorines are required to fulfill. Here they are:

Height: five feet, four to six inches.

Weight: 116 to 118 pounds

(some exceptions at 105).

Waistline: slender and curving out to practically no hips.

Age: 16 to 25 (this is not definite because some start very early and stay as long as they keep their figures—or until they get married).

Education: high school. They would take a girl without this much if her intelligence and figure stood the tests.

Angles, calf and thighs: The leg from toe to hip must be long and taper gracefully. Actual inch measurements do not matter.

No jewelry allowed on stage.

No drinking under any circumstances. Smoking and chewing gum are permitted.

Must be on hand one half hour before schedule begins. Two latenesses and your salary is docked for a week.

Proving that the last shall be first—in the matter of war debts, you always find the Finnish up in front.

A soft answer turneth away wrath, but not if it's "Guess who's calling."

Birth of Child On Isle of Corsica Started Centennial

By GORDON W. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN.—When Jose Navarro was born on the Isle of Corsica, the Texas Centennial, including Fort Worth's frontier celebration, was really started. Jose was the father of Jose Antonio Navarro, participant in the Texas Revolution. Navarro county was named for him. Corsicana, its county seat, was named for Corsica because Navarro's father had been born there.

Texas advertising clubs met in Corsicana in 1923. The town's name brought up the topic of Texas history. That brought up the question of how its centennial should be observed. A committee was named with Lowry Martin, Corsicana publisher, at its head.

The committee called on Gov. Pat M. Neff. He called a state-wide mass meeting. It created the original "Texas Centennial Governing Board of One Hundred."

The committee kept the idea alive. As centennial year approached it was decided more than a committee was needed. The constitution prohibited private grants. The committee launched a campaign to change the constitution. The amendment authorized a state grant for centennial observance. No amount was specified. Generally $5,000,000 was suggested as the proper sum.

Then began a fight before the legislature—so bitter at times that the whole project seemed doomed.

Most dangerous obstacle was rivalry of communities for the celebration. Unable to agree themselves, legislators passed a remarkable act.

The Democratic concealer was called Farley's show. This must not be confused with the Zigfield Farleys.

We note that renomination was extended to a John N. Garner. That man is here again.

TRY A WANT-AD—IT ALWAYS PAYS!

TWO WEEKS WITH PAY

Vacation time is here. The family car is piled high with baggage and you're off for two weeks ... to the seashore, the mountains, the lakes ... or maybe you'll play gypsy and wander the world with a road-map.

But no matter what you do, or where you go, you'll need to stock up before you leave. There'll be many things to buy—sunburn lotion, bathing caps, a traveling bag, a new tire. There'll be many things to plan—places to see, and places to stop.

Read the advertisements first—the travel advertisements which mention hotels and comfortable places to eat and sleep. Read the advertisements of Vacation Specials—equipment that you must have if you're going to enjoy every day away.

It's surprising what a help the advertisements are. They tell you of savings ... they post you on the newest improvements ... they remind you of things you might have forgotten ... and they make your two weeks with pay, pay MORE!

That smile registers Frank Wycoff's satisfaction over placing third in the 100-meter final to gain his third Olympiad.

Japan Extends Search for Oil

By United Press
 SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—California petroleum interests are following with extreme interest extensive operations of the Japanese government in developing a new oil region in the Southern Pacific.

Even should these efforts meet with any considerable degree of success, California producers declare it would take a great many years before a new field in the Southern Pacific would seriously menace the market for California oil.

According to the information available to western oil circles, Japan is concentrating its efforts for the time being in Java, Sumatra and Borneo. To date only slight success has been achieved. While some oil possibilities have been discovered, it is declared that nothing has been found to justify the hope of any great exploitation.

In Borneo, according to the information received here, two companies have been producing a total average of 13,640 barrels daily during the past year.

Common Policy Followed
 The present effort of Japan to intensify its search for a nearby source of oil is being sponsored, according to local advisers, by the ministers of Japan's Army, Navy, Foreign Affairs and Colonies. They are declared to be in accord on a common policy of exploiting crude oil production outside of Japan.

This combine has been formed by Mitsui, Mitsubishi and Sumitomo interests to operate under the new fuel policy of the Japanese government. It is capitalized at $6,000,000 yen or approximately $15,000,000. Preliminary expenditures of 1,000,000 yen have been authorized.

Companies to Merge
 The first concrete step in the Japanese control of the crude oil sources already discovered and in operation calls for consolidation of the Mitsui Trading Company and Borneo Oil Company, which would become Japanese controlled. The former has marketing experience and the latter engineering surveys that would become the basis not only of future efforts for finding new fields, but of the disposition of any and all product that might exceed Japan's own needs.

The new fuel policy of the Japanese government, local oil interests have been informed, is an outgrowth of recent demands for reform in the conservation of national resources. It is also part of the systematic policy of Japan to become as self-sufficient as possible in all primary products in the event war would cut it off from outside sources.

California oil producers, however, declare they feel no apprehension of any immediate competition. They point out that Japan's

Lingo of Drug Addicts Reveals Tortured Minds

NEW YORK.—The strange position occupied by the drug addict in American underworld life is revealed by David W. Maurer of the University of Louisville after years of what he calls "academic snooping."

In a publication by the Columbia University Press, Maurer makes the distinction between addicts and other underworld characters.

The lines of the addict provides insight into his psychology and his underworld life, according to Maurer. "Coasting," "floiting," and "to go on a sleigh ride" are all expressions to denote the exhilarating sensation produced by cocaine. "All it up" also indicates the state of being under the influence of narcotics.

He learned that a "virens" is a feigned spasm enacted in public in the hope a physician will administer narcotics.

Other words having related meanings are "Brody," "cart-wheel," "figure eight," "twister," "swing-ding." To "make a croaker for a reader" is to persuade a physician by one means or another to write a prescription for narcotics.

Nonaddicts, people with no criminal connection, and taxpayers are "do-right people" and are also designated by the term "square John." A person, not a confirmed addict, who indulges in an occasional shot of dope is called a "joy-popper." However, "joy-popping" is usually the beginning of permanent addiction, comments Maurer. An opium pipe is a "joy stick."

A "panic man" is an addict who is desperate for narcotics because of deprivation.

"Deadwood" is the thing an addict fears most. It means to be trapped by an agent posing as a "panic man." Many addicts find it difficult to resist a plea for dope from another addict who is desperate.

"A hang in the arm" is a shot of narcotic, most commonly morphine or cocaine, injected directly into the vein, as contrasted to "skin shot." The term also appears to be generalized, however, and may indicate any injection of narcotics.

"When morphine is used, the addict is usually conscious of an unusual and very satisfying clearness of the mind. Cocaine and heroin produce tingling sensations of varying degrees, usually of great intensity and extending over the entire body. This type of shot is not used as a rule by the amateur; the hardened addict uses it almost exclusively."

WPA Wage Rates Cover Wide Range

SAN ANTONIO.—Wage rates ranging from 20 cents to $1 per hour will be paid workers on Texas Works Progress Administration projects during the new program officially started July 1, it was announced today by State Administrator H. P. Drought.

Employment division officials were completing schedules of hourly rates established for four general occupational titles in the 20 Texas districts. As a result, Texas workers will be paid the hourly wage prevailing in their communities for the type of work they are doing instead of the security wage which they received under the first WPA program. Prevailing hourly wages throughout Texas, it was established, range for the four occupational titles as follows:

Unskilled labor, 20 to 35 cents; intermediate, 40 to 50 cents; skilled, 65 cents to $1; professional and technical, 75 cents to $1.

Provided for by the congressional act which prolonged the life of the WPA, these rates are subject to adjustment in communities where they are found to be in error, Drought said. Data obtained from federal, state and county agencies, labor groups, trade unions, employers and their organizations, municipal authorities and other related groups were used to establish prevailing hourly rates of pay.

"I should like to make it clear that prevailing hourly wages are determined in the communities themselves and not by the WPA," Drought declared.

Although in most instances workers will be paid a higher hourly wage, monthly earnings of individual workmen will remain the same as under the first program. These earnings, therefore, will range from a minimum of $21 for unskilled workers in rural counties to a minimum of $75 for professional and technical workers in metropolitan counties.

Payment will be made only for time actually worked, but workers will be allowed every reasonable opportunity to make up time lost due to weather conditions or temporary interruptions in the operation of projects in order to earn scheduled monthly earnings at the determined hourly wage rate.

As in the first program, maximum hours of work for project workers will be eight hours per day, 40 hours per week and 140 hours per month.

"Briefly," Drought said, "adoption of prevailing hourly wage rates will mean that in most instances workers will be required to put in fewer hours at their tasks but their semi-monthly pay checks will bring them the same amount of money they earned as security wage workers. The hours to be worked at the determined hourly rate by any worker will be sufficient to total the monthly
