Texas is Leading The Entire Nation In NYA Projects

AUSTIN.—Texas is leading the Nation in putting youths to work on NYA and WPA projects.

This was revealed in a communication to Lyndon B. Johnson, state NYA director, from Thelma McKelvey, secretary to the national advisory committee of the National Youth Administration.

Miss McKelvey's letter stated: "I have been accumulating figures on youth employment throughout the country and can truthfully and happily say you are the first to report any figure of this size. I thought you would be pleased to know you are 'number one' in youth employment."

The January report submitted by Director Johnson showed that 8,471 youths are at work, with 6,751 of that number of NYA projects and 1,820 on WPA jobs. The report also showed that 467 projects had been approved and $429,530 had been set aside for prosecution of the projects.

"Through the cooperation of the WPA, Texas Relief Commission and state and national employment services we have been able to attain this figure, and we expect to have 12,500 youngsters on the job by Saturday, February 22," Director Johnson said.

Latest totals at NYA headquarters show that jobs have been made available for 19,426 youngsters and that federal funds allocated for approved projects total $447,288.10.

Supreme Court Rules TVA Constitutional

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The supreme court today upheld constitutionality of the new deal's vast Tennessee Valley Authority experiment on all points placed in issue in the present test.

The vote of the supreme court to uphold the general constitutionality of the TVA was eight to one. The lone dissenter was Justice McReynolds. Four justices, however, presented a concurring opinion in connection with the majority decision, read by Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes.

The opinion of the court was so sweeping that one deal power and legal experts asserted it had given the right-of-way to the new deal's other experiments, such as Grand Coulee, Bonneville and Fort Peck.

Justice Louis Brandeis in a concurring opinion, said he together with three other justices, concurred in the opinion, but believed the Alabama Power company stockholders had no right to sue.

"The ruling upheld the right of the government to improve streams for navigation by dam projects," according to Edward J. Foley, Jr., chief PWA counsel.

In terse fashion Hughes upheld the following rights of the government:

1.—The right to build Wilson Dam, key structure of the TVA under war powers and powers of aiding navigation.

2.—The right to sell power produced at such dams.

3.—The right to build transmission lines to transport such power to a reasonable market.

The long-awaited opinion, delivered on the 60th day since the case was argued before the court, was believed by administration leaders to clear the way to wide and scattered "little TVA" developments.

New Explosions Shake Utica, N. Y.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 19.—New explosions shook the downtown business section of Utica today and flames shot from leaking underground gas mains.

Manhole covers were blown high in the air by the new blasts which occurred as workmen struggled in conduits to repair leaks which developed yesterday in a series of explosions that endangered the city.

National guards and police barricaded the business district, keeping out all except the men working to repair the damage.

One of the explosions occurred at the opening of a telephone conduit, in which five men were working. They were not hurt. The new flare-up of fire was confined to a single huge jet of flame.

ATTEMPT MADE UPON LIFE OF MRS. LIGGETT

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 19.—An attempt on the life of Mrs. Walter Liggett was made less than two weeks ago, the United Press was informed today, a few hours after Isador Blumenthal was acquitted of the assassination of her husband, Walter Liggett.

Mrs. Liggett, regarding it as gangland's answer to her continuance of the campaign which brought death to her husband, announced she would sell the Midwest American and leave Minnesota.

Mrs. Liggett said the attempt on her life was made soon after she testified in Blumenthal's trial and identified him as her husband's slayer.

A speeding car swerved toward her as she stepped from the curb in front of her office, she said.

"It was a deliberate attempt on my life. I am confident of that," the frail, dark-haired widow said.

Mrs. Liggett said she was threatened several times after her husband's death. She said she believed enemies of her husband planned "to make me an apparent hit and run victim."

Wet-Dry Status of Some Counties Is Still Doubtful

AUSTIN.—How many of Texas' 6,000,000 people legally can buy liquor in their home territory is "anybody's guess," officials of the Texas Liquor Control Board admitted today.

From the 6,000,000 must be subtracted the number of minors. Then the number becomes one of computing county, city, town, and precinct populations. If that is done the figures will still be wrong. Populations have changed and shifted since the 1930 census.

So far the Liquor Control Board has been unable to get an accurate map of wet and dry territory.

It is known that all parts of 33 counties are legal area for the sale of package liquor. It is known that liquor legally may be sold in parts of 35 others. It is also known that package store permits have been issued for places in 16 other counties on the supposition that the store is located in wet territory.

For practical purposes the board finds a thirst census unneeded. Before a permit is issued the applicant must advertise his application in 10 point type in a local newspaper. Board members are confident that after such notice there will be a protest if the territory is dry.

If there is a written, signed protest, there is an investigation. Anonymous objections are not considered.

From its present available information the board has a tentative wet map.

All of Aransas, Atascosa, Austin, Bexar, Brewster, Crane, Dallas, Duval, Ector, El Paso, Fort Bend, Gregg, Hudspeth, Jim Hogg, Kendall, Kennedy, Kinard, Liberty, Loving, Maverick, Menard, Moore, Pecos, Potter, Regan, Sutton, Terrell, Val Verde, Washington, Webb, Wharton, Willacy and Winkler counties are put down as wet.

Counties partially wet include Bastrop, Burleson, Calhoun, Chambers, Colorado, Dallas, Fayette, Galveston, Gillespie, Goliad, Gray, Guadalupe, Hardin, Harris, Irion, Kerr, Lavaca, Lee, Leon, Live Oak, Llano, McLennan, Medina, Nueces, Oldham, Presidio, Refugio, San Patricio, Shackelford, Tom Green, Upton, Waller, Ward, Williamson and Wilson.

Other counties in which package store permits have been issued but from official report of status is unrecieved are:

Blanco, Cameron, Chambers, Cochran, Comal, Culberson, De Witt, Falls, Jim Wells, Karnes, Kinney, Starr, Tarrant, Trinity and Victoria.

Cisco May Get State Park Soon

CISCO, Feb. 18.—The Texas Parks Board has recommended establishing a CCC camp here April 1 for the purpose of building the proposed Cisco state park, it was announced today.

The recommendation was made known to Cisco workers in a telephone conversation with Wendell Mayes, vice chairman of the parks board.

The CCC camps are to be shifted April 1. Establishment of a camp at that time would mean that Cisco had been sent a CCC group had finished its work at another place and had come here to build up the Cisco park.

In the telephone conversation, Mayes said that the parks board had recommended to the National Parks Service that it establish a Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Cisco in the next camp allotment.

Approval by the board at Austin sends the project to Oklahoma City to the regional headquarters. Literature on the park site, Cisco, and advantages of a park here are being sent to Herbert Maier, regional park director, it was learned today.

From Oklahoma City, if it gains the regional approval, the project will be sent to Washington. There the National Parks Service will be requested to give an approval to the camp location.

Congressman Thomas L. Blanton, who will be consulted concerning parks in his district in Texas, has promised Ciscoans that he will approve the camp location here as one of the first two to be located. The other, he has said, will be at Fort Griffin.

The park site has been donated after being secured by the city. It is the area comprising something more than 500 acres south and east of the dam at Lake Cisco.

HAUPTMANN IS SENTENCED TO DEATH FOR THE THIRD TIME BY JUSTICE TRENCHARD

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 19.—Bruno Hauptmann was sentenced today to be executed in the week of March 30 for the murder of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr.

Barring further reprieves, the new date means Hauptmann probably will die at 8 p. m. the night of March 31, as the customary time for executions in New Jersey is the Tuesday of the week scheduled in the death warrant.

For the third time Justice James W. Trenchard, who presided at the Flemington trial, signed a death warrant for Hauptmann. The action was taken at his home, where he has been suffering with a throat ailment.

Other developments were: 1. Political leaders said the Hauptmann case had "crossed the state boundaries" and was becoming a national issue that might affect the next presidential election.

2. Governor Harold Hoffman, friendly to the Hauptmann cause, indicated he might ask Dr. John Condon to return from a Panama vacation and answer questions regarding his purported contradictory statements. He was the chief state witness.

3. Samuel Leibowitz, famous criminal attorney, was expected to visit Hauptmann today to attempt to "get the truth" about the Lindbergh baby kidnaping and murder.

"The accomplishment of this organization will be to provide information to the public concerning the procedure to be followed in making repairs and improvements to their properties or in undertaking new home construction and to assist the public in arranging financing where required.

Lessons of Experience Often Painful Ones

One of the things that keep life from flowing along gaily like a babbling brook in a mountain meadow is the unfortunate fact that most of us can't seem to learn anything without first taking a good smack on the jaw.

We do learn, in time, but usually not until somebody has wiped up the floor with us. It is not for nothing that our language contains an old saying about "sadder and wiser."

Consider, for instance, the famous Gran Chaco War in South America, final obsequies for which are now being performed by diplomats around a council table.

Here, we were assured, was a war which flowed directly out of the ineradicable springs of pugnacity in the human breast. The people of Bolivia and the people of Paraguay wanted the war, insisted on it, refused to consider any compromise that might have avoided it. Or so, at least, we all were given to understand.

This fight finally ended in more or less of a draw, when the spectators climbed into the ring and stopped it. Negotiations for the return of prisoners recently were concluded, and long lines of emaciated war-weary veterans tramped through the streets of the Bolivian and Paraguayan capitals.

And here is the surprising thing. The populace of the two capitals received their returning heroes in a stony silence.

The war, in other words, was not popular with the man-in-the-street, after all. He had no cheers for his army when it came back home.

Kate Smith Enjoys Bob-Sledding and All Winter Sports

Bob-sledding, a fast and exciting pastime for those who enjoy speeding around dangerous curves at sixty miles an hour, is the newest addition to Kate Smith's list of winter sports.

The popular radio songbird is an ardent winter sports fan. Immediately after her Thursday evening A. & P. "Coffee-Time" broadcasts, she dashes off to Lake Placid in the Adirondacks, remaining at the resort until it is time to return to New York.

She enjoys sleigh-riding and tobogganing and recently began to ice-skate. Now that she has taken up bob-sledding, she contemplates mastering the intricacies of skiing. That, she confides, will be the next step.

"I felt much encouraged, when I finally succeeded in going around the skating rink five times by myself," she declared in an interview. "I fell down a few times, though, before I reached that point in my progress. The instructor says I learned skating so easily that skiing should come next on the program."

"Winter sports are all marvelous. The air is so clear and so cold. I come back to New York feeling like a new person. After a week-end at Lake Placid, I'm refreshed and full of pep. I attack my work with renewed vigor and enthusiasm."

Kate not only participates actively in sports—she is also in great demand as judge of various contests and races.

Recently she served as honorary judge in the Adirondack Bob Sled Club's annual intra-club race, in which forty-nine teams competed. The winners received the perpetual challenge trophy donated by Governor Herbert Lehman of New York.

Miss Smith plans to donate her own trophy next year, either as prize for bob-sled racing or as an award for general all-round excellence in the various winter sports.

The week-end of Feb. 21-22 will be a gala occasion at Lake Placid. The radio star will be judge for the annual international sports events, with hundreds of teams and individuals from the United States and Canada competing.

This is the fourth year of week-end visits to Lake Placid for Miss Smith. She started going there on recommendation of her physician. Recovering from an attack of pneumonia, she was advised to spend several weeks in "either a very hot or a very cold climate."

She chose the cold climate and spent nine weeks at the resort. Since that time, she has been a regular Lake Placid visitor, both winter and summer. Every week, the Thursday evening train from Grand Central station is held up ten minutes just for Miss Smith's benefit. The train is supposed to leave at 7:45 p. m., but the departure is delayed until the songstress arrives.

Up in the Adirondacks, the temperature sometimes drops to 36 degrees below zero but this extreme cold is exhilarating, Miss Smith claims. And when the moon comes over the mountain, at Lake Placid, the view is extraordinarily beautiful.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

(IF) THE GIANT METEORITE THAT STRUCK A SPARSELY SETTLED AREA OF SIBERIA, IN 1908, HAD FALLEN BUT SIX HOURS LATER, MANY LIVES WOULD HAVE BEEN LOST. BY THAT TIME, THE EARTH WOULD HAVE TURNED SO THAT THE FALL WOULD HAVE TAKEN PLACE IN A THICKLY POPULATED SECTION OF NORWAY OR SWEDEN.

THE ANCIENTS WORE EARRINGS BEARING MYSTERIOUS DESIGNS, IN THE BELIEF THAT THEY WOULD PREVENT EVIL SOUNDS FROM ENTERING THE EAR.

MORE THAN ONE-FOURTH OF THE BEARING LEMON TREES OF NORTH AMERICA ARE IN LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIFORNIA.

THE Siberian meteorite struck on June 30, 1908, and, so far as is known, not a single human life was lost. So great was the rush of air that forests were laid flat. A herd of 1500 reindeer was completely wiped out, and a farmer 50 miles away was knocked down by the force of the blast.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Searching questions are being asked of would-be gardeners by J. F. Rosborough, Extension Horticulturist, as the gardening season opens.

No cross-examining gardener can beat Rosborough when it comes to this questioning business—"were five loads of manure applied to each half acre of your garden? he asked (if not, rotted manure, leaf mold or rotted grain burrs can still be applied, he says. "Has the garden soil been plowed six inches deep?"

"Where there is excessive rainfall, is the garden ditched to prevent water standing?"

"In areas subject to wind damage, has a wind break been provided?"

"Is your garden large enough to provide 600 feet of row for each member of the family?"

As a reminder Rosborough never forgets to say that for each person in the family there should be 175 feet of potatoes; 150 feet of tomatoes; 150 feet of mustard, cabbage, green beans, carrots, or other leafy green and yellow vegetables; and then there should be 125 feet of such vegetables as onions, beets, and radishes.

"One alfalfa grower in Dimmit county has found it useless to try to grow this crop without inoculation," according to the county agricultural agent.

"Those 41 seed crops produced an average of 54 per cent more seed per acre than the same crops grown adjoining farms that were unterraced. Some of these crops were grown by the same producer. All field crop demonstrations in the county were demonstrations of conservation of soil moisture and soil fertility," his annual report reads.

The county agricultural agent also reports that 116 farms were terraced in this county during 1935 which amounted to a total of 11,670 acres terraced and 800 acres chiseled. The total value of this work was estimated at $117,600 which included the renovating of 16 tractors, 44 implements and 16 plows.

Cross Half a Continent and Return in 223 Hours

MEETING WITH western mountain roads for the first time, James Nicholson of Indianapolis (left) and John Ringhofer of Chicago (center), drove the Ford V-8 tractor and trailer unit shown above from Chicago to Los Angeles and return in 223 hours running time.

The trip was made in connection with a test run conducted by the Keeshin Transcontinental Freight Lines, Inc. The trailer carried eight tons of payload on the westbound trip and six tons eastbound. Stops were made only for fuel.

One particularly brilliant piece of work by the two drivers was when they made the run from Holbrook to Wickenburg, Arizona, a distance of 265 miles and including the difficult Yarnell mountain section south of Prescott, in 10 hours.

The unit climbed an 11 per cent gradient on the trip from Raton to the summit of Raton pass and another of 8.2 per cent extending about 500 feet on Yarnell mountain. Gradients of seven to eight per cent were met with frequently.

family garden, according to the annual report of Lorena Yates, Bee county home demonstration agent.

Twelve varieties of vegetables making a balanced diet were grown by Annie. She has canned for the family 711 containers.

Also Miss Yates reports that 38 girls grew gardens in Bee county. A total of 14,445 pounds of vegetables were produced for home consumption. The value of all the gardens grown by these club members amounted to $784.85.

BAY CITY—"That an appropriation for native shrubs is being developed in Matagorda county can be seen by the number of yard demonstrators, accompanied by their husbands, that have been found recently in the woods with spades and sacks for balling and burlaping shrubs," Leola Cox Sides, home demonstration agent, reported this month.

She reports that yupon, cherry laurel, sweet bay, cedar, Indian holly and coral berry are being used extensively for transplanting.

MUI-SHOO—"We know what subirrigation will do so that is why we have made enough tile for the whole garden this year," said Mrs. G. P. Howell, cooperator in the Enochs Home Demonstration club in Bailey county.

Two years ago, Mr. Howell laid 795 feet which sub-irrigates every shrub in the yard. He used old worn out pipe and cut a hole every 12 inches. Mr. and Mrs. Howell made 2,000 feet of additional tile this spring for one and one-half cents per foot.

Dr. Beskow Discusses Treatment of the Eyes

Optometry had a humble beginning as did other professions, according to Dr. E. A. Beskow, optometrist, of Eastland, who pointed out yesterday that mere eye testing by changing from one lens to another was all the practitioner of old knew.

"In the past 10 years," Dr. Beskow said, "great strides have been made. All the important developments and inventions for improvement of the vision, such as telescopic spectacles, have been done by optometrists."

Dr. Beskow said he formerly made seven different tests, while today he makes 21 tests in each examination. When these are completed he knows not only the glasses needed, but has an analysis of the visual condition of the patient, showing why he has difficulty in the use of his eyes. The tests show whether or not any systemic condition is involved, whether comfort can be obtained with glasses without eye exercises or training.

Dr. Beskow said he can give many patients comfort and ease in their work, through eye training with modern instruments. He is not selling glasses, but is selling his judgment, based on his experience in the care and preservation of vision.

BIG AIR ROMANCE "CEILING ZERO," CONNELLEE TODAY

One of the greatest romances of the air, "Ceiling Zero," a Mosmopolitan production, will be presented by First National Pictures at the Connellee Theatre, today, with James Cagney and Pat O'Brien in the sellar roles.

Based on the Broadway stage hit by Lieut. Commander Frank Wead, the play is crammed with thrills, laughter and love. It concerns the daredevil exploits of three war buddies who have joined the commercial flying forces, to carry mail and passengers in the face of death.

Not that they consider their work particularly hazardous, but these pilots frequently flirted with life and death against the orders of their superiors. For the first time in air pictures, the kee-wee, or ground man also gets an inning in the romance of the aviation field, and the extreme precautions to guard the safety of the planes by watching the weather maps and warning the flyers constantly by radio, is dramatized.

Outside of the romance of the subject itself, there are two triangular love affairs, one between Cagney, a pilot, June Travis, who has the feminine lead and plays the part of an air hostess, and another pilot, a part played by Henry Wadsworth, Cagney also has had an affair with a character played by Martha Tibbetts, who later becomes the wife of O'Brien.

other pilot, a part played by Henry Wadsworth, Cagney also has had an affair with a character played by Martha Tibbetts, who later becomes the wife of O'Brien.

For once Cagney does not get his girl, deliberately sacrificing her to his rival and taking that rival's place in a flight in sleet and snow which means certain death.

Others in the cast include Barton MacLane, Isabel Jewell, Craig Reynolds, Richard Purell, Carlyle Moore Jr., Addison Richards and Robert Light.

Howard Hawks, war ace, and director of "Hell's Angels," handled the production. Frank Wead, the author, also wrote the screen play.

More Laws Than The 150 Lost May As Well Be Lost

By United Press

AUSTIN.—Beside 150 "lost" articles of the State Penal Code, many other "laws" of the fat statute book have doubtful legal status.

Among them is the state anti-trust statute. The Second Court of Civil Appeals, Austin, has held that it is invalid and there is no apparent rush of state officials to seek a final ruling in the state supreme court. This could be done by a motion to advance the case.

The recent chain store tax law also is under fire. The contention is made that it is invalid because of discrimination. The contention has at least temporary court sanction. A blanket injunction against its operation was issued by a Dallas district judge. When the court will be pressed for a final ruling, Assistant Attorney General Pat M. Neff, Jr., was uncertain. He was hutting cases to support the act. Meantime the issuance of licenses under it was delayed.

A test of the railroad commission's powers over bus lines that operate in interstate traffic is pending in federal court. Its hearing twice has been postponed and now is set for Feb. 7.

A test of the railroad commission's powers over bus lines that operate in interstate traffic is pending in federal court. Its hearing twice has been postponed and now is set for Feb. 7.

The commission oil well spacing rule is still subject of litigation though the state supreme court has sustained the act that gives the commission power to regulate reasonably in this respect.

AUSTIN.—Rehabilitating crippled children is a task that goes on in good times and bad, although depression added to the duties of J. J. Brown, chief public officer providing such aid in Texas.

Brown is secretary of the Texas Society for Crippled Children, a private agency, and director of the crippled children's division of the State Department of Education.

Depression brought a considerable increase in the number of children suffering from rickets and other diseases caused from under-nourishment and lack of pre-natal care for mothers, Brown said. But the ravages of infantile paralysis and other diseases which leave children permanently marked are not confined to any economic period. Sixty per cent of all cases handled by the state and the society are from infantile paralysis.

Legal definition of a crippled child is "any person of normal mentality, under 21 years of age, whose physical functions or movements are impaired by reason of a joint, bone, or muscle defect or deformity, to the extent that the child is or may be expected to be totally or partially incapacitated for education or remunerative occupation."

In this classification fall some 20,000 Texas youngsters. Half of them must depend on the state to help correct their impediments and to train them for useful places in society.

Brown's tiny Austin office is placarded with statistics and pictures of youngsters needing help. Bus loads of cripples are gathered weekly in Texas towns and cities, then carried to hospitals for treatment.

The state director of such work points to the history of aiding such unfortunates. During Greece's "Golden Age," crippled and deformed were destroyed. A thousand years later they were feared as evil spirits. Five hundred years ago, the physically handicapped were ostracized.

Today the state not only literally "puts cripples on their feet," but provides vocational training.

Persons more than 16 years of age are eligible for state vocational training. In many cases training may be done best under actual working conditions. Brown therefore makes arrangements for putting such cripples at work in offices, stores, shops, factories, or mills.

Eastland Five Per Cent Fire Penalty Announcement Discloses Decrease

(Editor's Note: Announcement Friday from Austin by Fire Commissioner Raymond Moux that Eastland has been given a 5 per cent penalty on fire insurance in reality discloses that a former penalty has been reduced from 9 per cent, according to B. M. Collier of Earl Bender & Co., Inc., who prepared the following article Saturday.)

Incorporated towns and villages in the state are credited or charged on their insurance premiums in proportion to the amount of losses paid by the companies to the premiums collected.

This average is based over a period of five years' time, and it can readily be seen that if a town suffers a heavy year's loss, the penalty may run on for several years, likewise a year with few losses may mean a credit on your premiums for several years.

The premiums and losses for the city of Eastland for 1935 are not available, but we give below the premiums and losses for the four years preceding: 1934, premiums $27,329.35, losses $8,423.06; 1933, premiums $26,285.86, losses $18,584.90; 1932, premiums $30,501.69, losses, $36,084; 1931, premiums, $36,976.02, losses, $26,677.43. Thus it can be seen that the city's losses were around 74 per cent of the premiums paid to the companies. This ratio subjected the town to a 9 per cent penalty last year and as 1935 losses were light, the penalty for the coming year was reduced from 9 to 5 per cent.

Next year, 1931, which was a year with heavy losses, will be dropped from the count, and, unless the city sustains some heavy losses this year, we may count on at least breaking even and possibly get a small credit.

BRECKENRIDGE, Feb. 20.—With invitations mailed to about 500 oil men of the state and announcements of the banquet Saturday evening replies are beginning to be received in Breckenridge which point to several hundred attending the annual meeting of the West Central Texas Oil & Gas Association Saturday night.

Several outstanding speakers among independent oil men will be heard at that time, such subjects as proration, legislation and taxation to be dealt with. It was held here Tuesday that the matter of taxation, alone, is of vital importance to every oil man.

Each Puff Less Acid

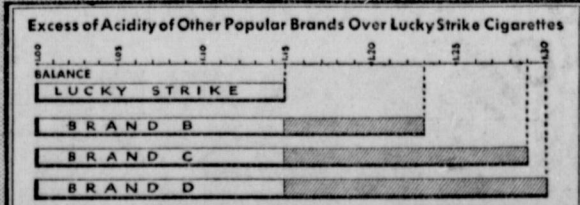

A LIGHT SMOKE OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO

Luckies are less acid. One of the chief contributions of the Research Department in the development of A LIGHT SMOKE is the private Lucky Strike process, "IT'S TOASTED." This preheating process at higher temperatures consists of four main stages, which involve carefully controlled temperature gradations. Quantities of undesirable constituents are removed. In effect, then, this method of preheating at higher temperatures constitutes a completion or fulfillment of the curing and aging processes.

Luckies are less acid

Recent chemical tests show that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

H. V. Davenport To Be Candidate In July Primary

Henry V. Davenport, commissioner of Precinct No. 1, has authorized this paper to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office he now holds, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Davenport has served two terms as county commissioner, and has established an enviable record while in the office. During his term of office many important matters have come before the commissioners' court for action, and the court has always acted in a manner that was thought for the benefit of the majority of people in the county.

The lateral road program, as sponsored and worked by Commissioner Davenport, has been one that has kept the roads in the best possible condition with the money that has been available, and he has worked hard to keep the roads in good condition.

In announcing his candidacy through the columns of this paper he said that he would attempt to see every voter in this precinct between now and the July primary, and would have an official statement to make through the columns of this paper later.
