

Varied Entertainment Offered in Connellee's Week's Bookings

An exceptional list of attractions will be presented at the Connellee for the coming week. Each of the four attractions presented will be outstanding for its particular type of entertainment and theatre patrons will find much variety in these attractions.

Opening today and continuing its run through Saturday the attraction, "Show Them No Mercy" will be presented. A timely film depicting the war on crime and gangsters by the federal government it tells you the story that is behind today's white hot headlines in a thrilling and convincing manner. An exceptional cast headed by Rochelle Hudson, Cesar Romero and Warren Hymer turn in excellent performances.

As an added short feature attraction "Starlit Days at the Lido" will be presented on this same program. This short subject shows intimate glimpses of many outstanding screen stars at play.

Opening Sunday for a two-day engagement the attraction "Wife vs. Secretary" will be the attraction. This racy screen romance from Faith Baldwin's widely read Cosmopolitan Magazine story has in its cast an exceptional group of outstanding screen stars. This cast headed by Clark Gable, Jean Harlow and Myrna Loy who are supported by May Robson, Hobart Cavanaugh and many others. Flawless in story, flawless in performance, and masterful in direction and smart dialogue, exceptional entertainment is offered in this attraction.

Opening Tuesday for two days the attraction, "Rose of the Rancho" will be presented co-starring John Boles and Gladys Swarthout. This attraction presents for the first time these two great singing stars in an exceptional musical epic of early California.

In addition to this attraction Tuesday night the third of a series of Eastland Talent Nights will be presented on the stage. Under the direction of Miss Wilda Drago, the Drago Ensemble and the Drago Harmony Girls will be presented in an exceptional program of musical entertainment. In addition there will be a Mystery Russian Dancer.

On Thursday for one day only the attraction "Soak the Rich" starring Walter Connolly will be shown. John Howard and Mary Taylor are in the supporting cast and furnish the romantic interest.

Wilda Drago's Pupils To Be Presented at Connellee Tuesday

The program for the third of a series of Eastland Talent Nights that are being presented each Tuesday night at the Connellee Theatre will feature the pupils from the Wilda Drago Studio of Music. Under the personal direction of Miss Drago, the Drago Ensemble, a violin choir, will be presented in a special selection of numbers. This ensemble composed of some 25 pupils of Miss Drago is well known for the individual talents of its members.

In addition to the Ensemble, the Drago Harmony Girls will be presented in a selection of vocal numbers. In presenting these two musical groups on this program the Thursday Afternoon Club, under whose sponsorship these programs are being presented, and the Connellee management, feel most fortunate in being able to secure such an array of talent for one of these programs.

The third number on the program will be a Russian dance by an anonymous person whose identity will be made known on the following program.

A portion of the box office receipts on these Talent Nights is to be used by the Thursday Afternoon Club for the Eastland Public Library.

LEAD IN NEW FILM SATIRE TO CONNOLLY

"Soak the Rich," a new satirical comedy written, produced and directed by Ben Hecht and Charles Mac Arthur, has been booked Thursday at the Connellee Theatre.

Walter Connolly, John Howard and Mary Taylor play the leading roles in the film, and prominent in the supporting cast is Alice Duer Miller, famous magazine writer, who turns her talents to professional acting for the first time.

"Soak the Rich" is a lively comedy of manners—the manners of university students of today, and the manners of the financiers whose endowments keep the universities running. Connolly is cast as an affluent old gentleman who has founded a university. Reports of student agitation on the campus drive him into fits of rage, but his rage is increased ten-fold when he discovers that his own daughter of Agricultural Economics, are lower than last year, and lower than during the whole years from 1929 to 1933.

LONGVIEW—Ras Reach of the Danville community in Gregg county began feeding 12 head of calves 110 days ago. These calves have made a gain of two and one-half pounds per day with an estimated feed cost of five cents per pound.

These calves are registered Hereford bulls and out of cows whose dams were native East Texas cattle demonstrates the fact that native East Texas calves can be fed at a profit and that the fleshing will be uniform over the body," according to Ross F. McSwain, Gregg county agricultural agent.

TAHOCA—V. E. Jones, Lynn county agricultural agent in his annual report says that the J. T. Owens family of the Edith community made a net profit above feed cost of $319.28 on turkeys produced during 1935.

The Owens family started the year with 10 breeding hens. One hundred and sixty-two poults were hatched and 131 of these reared to market size. Fifty-six of these birds were sold live weight, all grading number one, for $184.48. Fifty-one of these Fifty-one were home dressed and sold strictly on a quality basis. Forty-one of these graded prime and 10 choice grade. These 51 turkeys brought $180.50 and 12 were kept for breeding purposes and 12 of a late hatch are still on hand to be marketed.

"These turkeys," according to Jones' annual report, "were fed a balanced ration consisting principally of milo, corn, bran, shorts, meat scraps and milk. This ration was fed all during the growing and fattening period. In addition, the turkeys had excess waste grain around the barn and lots .

PALO PINTO—Nathalie Walker, farm fruit plot demonstrator for the Graford 4-H Girls club not only made plans to provide grapes, berries and fruits for her family but has already taken action towards getting a supply of grape vines, according to the report of Pauline Lokey, Palo Pinto county home demonstration agent.

Nathalie secured 24 grape cuttings, one year's growth, 12 to 16 inches long (8 to 10 buds), cut one-fourth of an inch from the bottom bud and one-half to one inch from the top bud. She then tied them in a bundle and buried them upside down in the ground four inches deep so that the ends will sear over. In February they will be put out in the cutting bed.

"The buds will then take root better than if just cut and put in the bed," Nathalie Walker stated.

McKINNEY—"It pays to have a hotbed in which to start the vegetables which require a long growing season," Mrs. Dona Lee Carroll, sponsor of the White Rock 4-H Club in Collins county, said.

Last year she had a tomato patch of 250 plants, and gave several hundred plants to her neighbors. All these plants grew in Mrs. Carroll's hotbed. From her patch, she canned 100 quarts of tomatoes, and made 32 pints of relishes and catsup.

At one time, she harvested 10 bushels of green tomatoes and gave away several bushels besides. Mrs. Carroll is now rebuilding her hotbed in which to start her plants this year, according to a report of Helen Dunlap, Collin county home demonstration agent.

Art Has No Concern With Political Ideas

It must be hard to be such a devout party man that you don't know whether you like a piece of music until you find out what the party authorities have to say about it.

No American is likely to get into such a fix, because neither the Republicans nor the Democrats, as such, pay much attention to the fine arts. But it is a real problem in Soviet Russia where the composer, Dimitri Shostakovich, has been denounced formally and officially for composing "un-Soviet" music.

Until a few days ago, Shostakovich was the darling of the radicals. His music embodied the purest spirit of Communism, and when capitalist outfits like the Philadelphia orchestra played some of it the world revolution drew perceptibly nearer.

But Shostakovich has gone off the front page and is back among the want ads, and no good Communist will listen to him.

S. R. Patterson Rites Conducted

Funeral services for S. R. Patterson, 70, truck farm operator near Eastland, who died Friday afternoon, were held Saturday afternoon from the Hammer Undertaking company chapel at Eastland with Rev. John G. Bills, pastor of the Church of Christ officiating. Burial was in the Eastland cemetery.

Patterson, an Eastland resident since 1926 when he moved from Hamlin, died while working on his truck farm when experiencing a paralytic stroke.

He was born Sept. 11, 1866 in Parker county. Survivors are nine children, Frank Patterson, Eastland; Mrs. Lottie Price, Deming, N. M.; Anthony Patterson, Eastland; Sterling Patterson, address unknown; Ollie Patterson, Deming, N. M.; Mrs. May Allen, Eastland; Raymond Patterson, Cisco; Mrs. Joe Hilburn, Eastland; and Jim Patterson, Huntsville; one sister, Mrs. Albert Smith of Burk Burnett; four brothers, J. C. Seventeen grandchildren also survive.

The proper treatment for a bilious child

THREE STEPS TO RELIEVING CONSTIPATION

ANY mother knows the reason when her child stops playing, eats little, is hard to manage. Constipation. But what a pity so few know the sensible way to set things right!

The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, must be carefully regulated as to dosage.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

The doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. The liquid laxative most families use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

was thrilled that Mr. Hoffman autographed her program for her memory book. Virgie, altho still in her early teens is a talented musician, and appreciates the beautiful in music. She has not only talent but these rarer qualities perseverance and stickability so lacking in most of us. She is quite popular in this and surrounding towns where she is always a welcome addition to any program. Because of her versatility, being an accomplished pianist, xylophonist and violinist, and because of her youth, ambition and talent this writer predicts a glowing future in music for her, and that a day will come when she will be asked to autograph for other music lovers.

Funeral services for Charles J. LeClaire, who died Wednesday of last week were held at the Church of Christ in Eastland Thursday afternoon, Feb. 27. The church was filled to capacity by friends and loved ones and a beautiful service was conducted by Rev. Bills, pastor of Eastland Church of Christ. Interment was in the Eastland cemetery. Mr. LeClaire who lived most of his lifetime in Eastland county was born in Llano in 1880. He lived in Olden a number of years before being transferred to Electra by the Magnolia Petroleum company. Prior to his connection with the oil company, he was a school teacher in this county. To those of us who know and love him, he needs no eulogy. He wrote his own on our hearts by his energy and using his time and helping those who were less fortunate. During the trying winter before there was any WPA, RFC or any other federal relief, it was this writer's privilege to work with him in community chest work, to learn the patience, the effort, the earnest desire to help that was in his heart for his fellow man. He is endeared to us all as a neighbor and friend. A neighbor who knew the meaning of neighborliness and a man who rated the name of friend.

R. L. Davenport To Be Candidate

R. L. (Bob) Davenport of Eastland has announced he is a candidate for the office of county clerk and has issued the following announcement to the voters of the county:

To The Voters of Eastland County:

In presenting my claims to the citizens of this county for the responsible position of County Clerk, I realize that every citizen is entitled to know some of my qualifications and fitness for this office and I therefore feel justified in submitting you something of my training and experience that in my judgment qualify me for public office.

I was born and reared in Central Texas and moved with my father to Eastland County in 1888 where I have resided continuously with the exception of two years spent in Fort Worth, Texas, where I was engaged in the mercantile business. I am a graduate of the Metropolitan Business College of Dallas and after completing this work I was employed by some of the leading mercantile establishments of Eastland as bookkeeper and accountant. I was elected to the office of District Clerk of this county in 1904 and served for two terms, and I point with pride to the record which I established as your public servant. I have had several years experience as manager of abstract companies located in Eastland in which work I became thoroughly familiar with the records of the various courts of the county and especially those of the office of County Clerk. I married in Eastland County and have reared and educated my children in the public schools of our city, and have at all times been interested in the development and progress of our community.

If the voters of this county feel that I am worthy and qualified for the office I seek, I would appreciate the hearty support and influence of every citizen.

Respectfully submitted,
R. L. (Bob) DAVENPORT

Today's Ford
is an exceptionally Roomy Car

There's a double advantage in having a V-8 engine in your car. It helps to give you fine-car roominess, as well as fine-car performance.

The Ford V-8 engine takes up less space under the hood because of its compact design. And it is positioned forward in the chassis, in accordance with the most modern construction.

More of the car's length can thus be used for passengers—extra inches of leg room are provided in both the front and rear compartments.

Wide seats are another reason for the big-car roominess of the Ford. All seats in all body types (except the individual bucket-type front seats of the Tudor Sedans) hold three persons in comfort. The 1936 Fordor Sedans have 3 1/2 inches more elbow room in the rear seat because the rear-quarter trim is recessed above the arm rests.

We'd like to have you ride in the Ford V-8 for 1936. Actual measurements will confirm your own impression of big-car roominess and comfort.

Time Erases Scene Painted by Sargent

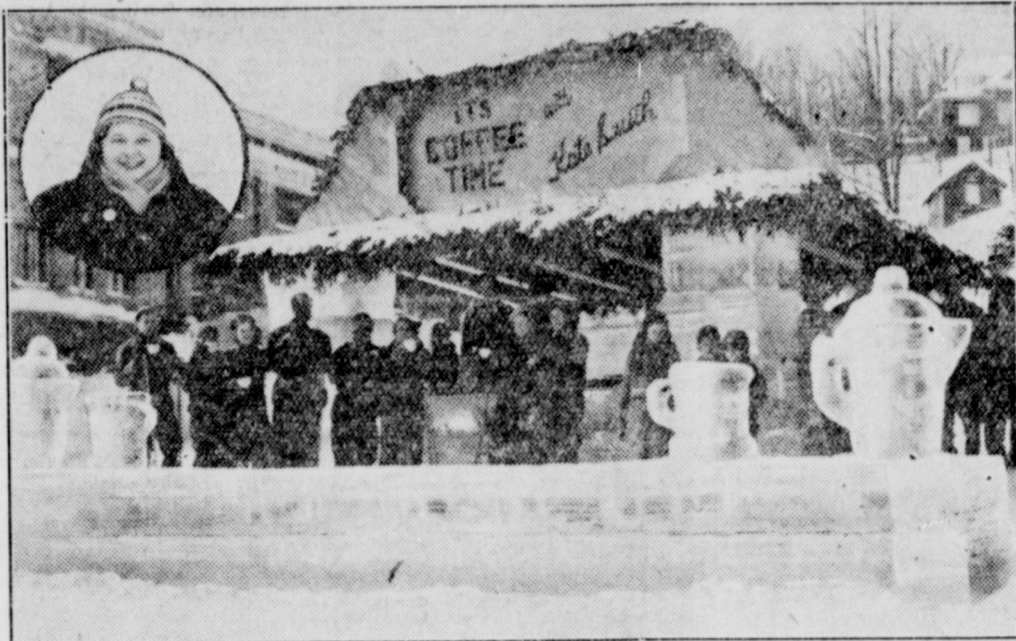

SOMERVILLE, Me.—A scene immortalized on canvas by John Singer Sargent has disappeared.

Sargent's painting showed an old mill on Somes Sound, with the schooner Katharine tied up at dock.

Years later the mill burned. The Katharine's masts were carried away in a gale and the ship itself later destroyed.

Now CCC workers at the site are completing a $25,000 dam to hold a tidal pool, provide a fishway and conserve scenic beauty.

State's Quota for WPA Workers is Completely Filled

SAN ANTONIO. — With the state's quota of 120,000 persons on Works Progress Administration projects realized, State Administrator H. P. Drought instructed the 20 district directors throughout Texas to cancel all outstanding requisitions for additional labor.

Tabulations of reports from the districts today revealed 123,941 employed as of the week ending Feb. 15.

Although there still remain some unassigned workers, most, if not all, of them were expected to be absorbed by the transfer of WPA workers to non-WPA projects and by vacancies created through jobs provided for project workers by expanding private industry.

"You should release workers to other federal agencies operating work projects as rapidly as possible so as to take care of those awaiting assignment," Drought reminded district directors.

Individual districts will continue to work employables on the basis of the number currently employed in each of the 20 districts, Drought said. Vacancies may be filled by those not now assigned, but the total number of workers in a district may not exceed the number now working.

Judge Davenport To Be Candidate For Dist. Judge

Judge George L. Davenport, judge of the 91st judicial district, is announcing through the columns of this paper today his candidacy for re-election, subject to the action of the democratic primary of July 25.

Judge Davenport in making the announcement, stated that he would have an official statement to make to the voters of Eastland county in the near future.

Judge Davenport has made an enviable record as a judge, having presided over the 91st district court, and at times being called to Dallas and Fort Worth to preside in cases there. Just recently it was announced that he would be the presiding judge in the trial of O. D. Stevens in connection with the Handley triple slaying. The trial will be held in Fort Worth.

Kate Smith Judge Of Bob Sled Races

Kate Smith, popular radio songbird, served as judge of the national A. A. U. bob-sled races and ski jumps at the gala winter sports carnival which attracted thousands of athletes and spectators to Lake Placid in the Adirondacks, the week-end of Washington's birthday.

Immediately after her Thursday evening broadcast, Miss Smith dashed up to the winter resort. The train at Grand Central Station was delayed 10 minutes, in order that she might be able to arrive from the studio.

Throughout the course of the three-day international contests, conducted Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 21, 22 and 23, Miss Smith was hostess at "Coffee Time" parties. More than 25,000 cups of coffee were served to the visitors.

Palaces of ice were constructed at the Olympic Arena, Olympic Ski Hill and Mirror Lake Skating Rink. Girls costumed in ski suits served hot coffee from themos jugs, during the hockey, speed skating, bobsledding and ski-jumping championship events.

An ardent winter sports fan, the radio star has served as judge in several previous races. Recently, she was judge in the Adirondack Bob-Sled Club's annual intra-club race, in which 49 teams competed. She plans to donate her own trophy next year, either as a prize for bob-sled racing, or as an award for all-round excellence in the various winter sports.

For the past four years, she has been going to Lake Placid. Whenever she is not otherwise engaged, she spends her week-ends at the resort. She has already mastered the intricacies of ice-skating and bobsledding. Her next venture will be skiing, she confides.

The Washington's Birthday carnival represented the highlight of the present season at Lake Placid. Hundreds of teams and individuals from all parts of the United States and Canada competed. Among the novel events featured on the program were dog-sled races.

INGERSOL, Ont.—His costume and his nerve combined to win Kenneth Revel, Woodstock, the $5 first prize in a carnival competition held here on an open-air skating rink in sub-zero temperature. Revel appeared as a cannibal. He wore a pair of trunks.

OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO — "IT'S TOASTED"

STANDARDIZED UNIFORMITY

The simple mechanical details of cigarette manufacture are of surprising importance. Upon them depend the physical properties of the cigarette, such as weight, size, firmness, moisture-holding properties, uniformity of fill—uniformity of product—all of which have a far-reaching effect on the character of its combustion and the constituents of its smoke.

In the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes all of these properties have been standardized with care for the perfection of A LIGHT SMOKE.

LUCKIES ARE LESS ACID!

Recent chemical tests show* that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

Box Car Homes are Built to Ease the Problem of Rent

TOPEKA, Kas.—The newest community addition to this city will be Westburg, a unit of 38 box-car homes on the outskirts of Topeka, now under construction. The idea to provide low-priced living quarters for poor families was conceived by Mr. W. R. Fish, whose husband died several years ago leaving her with a large tract of land west of the city limits. Mrs. Fish first attempted to build a bungalow court consisting of 63 small single-floor five-room dwellings. She was opposed by the city commission and planning board. She finally obtained permission from fire department officials to move 38 boxcars to the tract.

Each boxcar will be converted into living quarters to rent for $10 a month. The car will be partitioned into living room, kitchen and hallway. Regular bunks will be used as beds.

Each occupant will have a small plot of ground for a garden. He will be allowed to paint his boxcar home any color desired and accompanying decorations designed to improve attractiveness.

Mrs. Fish has been a consistent critic of high rents in Topeka, particularly for poor families and often has pointed out that too much relief money goes into the pockets of realtors as high rent instead of being used for food and clothing.

Allred Postpones Washington Trip

AUSTIN, Tex.—Gov. James V. Allred has postponed indefinitely a contemplated trip to Washington. He had been requested to head a committee of Texas lawyers and officials who sought to hasten approval of a federal grant and loan for a proposed state courts building at Austin.

A state appropriation for the building was made at the first called session of the 44th Legislature, in the belief that federal funds would be available to supplement the $200,000 state fund.

The appropriation act says that because the federal aid is obtained the appropriation shall lapse. Become "null and void" is the language of the act. But no time is specified for the lapse of the appropriation. In the absence of other provision the appropriation probably will be available for two years.

The trip to Washington was abandoned temporarily on advice from friends there that the time is not propitious to push the application.

An elaborate court structure has been planned to be erected if the grant is made. Texas Supreme Court quarters now are so crowded that filing cabinets take up most of the floor space. A site for the courts building is available without cost. The building is to be erected south of the capitol grounds on the west side of Congress avenue. The half-block site owned there by the state extends to Colorado street. The Colorado street end of the lot is directly in front of the grounds of the Governor's mansion. Originally the site was designated for a navy building. That was when Texas was a Republic.

State-Trained Men Who Are Crippled Make Good Records

(Editor's Note: This is the fourth of a series of stories on work of the state education department's rehabilitation division. Others will follow.)

AUSTIN.—State-trained men and women whose physical handicaps must be offset by special instruction have a record for success in the crafts that they practice. Average age of cripples cared for by the department of education's vocational rehabilitation division is 36 years. From sums varying from a few dollars to several hundred, the state makes them self-supporting and self-respecting. In some cases, the cripples who were once a burden on their families are able to help support their families.

Every Texas crossroads has someone thus aided. Occasionally, the state has only to furnish an artificial limb to make a person self-supporting and self-respecting. In some cases, the cripples who were once a burden on their families are able to help support their families.

Every Texas crossroads has someone thus aided. Occasionally, the state has only to furnish an artificial limb to make a person self-supporting. In others, tedious operations are required before sending the student through four years in college.

J. J. Brown, director of the rehabilitation division, now has approximately 40 "cases" attending the University of Texas and others scattered about in schools of the state. For most of those in Austin he furnishes part-time jobs—running elevators, typing, operating PBX boards—to help pay their expenses. Every department in the state government has at least one employe being aided by the rehabilitation service.

Random selection of cases from

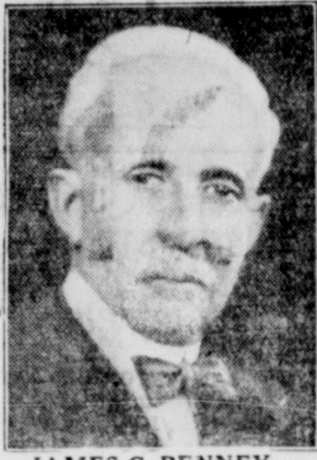

Brown's files tell interesting stories:

At Abilene—a man, 36, lost a leg in an automobile accident. He was married. The state paid for an artificial limb, spent $228 training him in a shoe repair shop. Now he has a successful business of his own at Buffalo Gap. Another 20-year-old youth in Abilene lost his leg and the state trained him to repair shoes.

At Fort Worth—a grown man had crawled all his life as a result of infantile paralysis. An operation enabled him to walk with the aid of a cane. He was trained in a bicycle shop and now is a leading bicycle mechanic in that city. Cost of his rehabilitation was $298.

In the same city on physical incapacitated youth of 23 was trained in a shoe repair shop. Under an operation to remove both legs. Now he walks with artificial limbs, goes to night school and supports her in the meantime by running candy and cigarette stand. His training cost the state only $30. Two classes of training are most taboo with the vocational vision. One is school-teaching, the other stenography. "There are too many school teachers now," Director Brown. The secretarial field also is crowded, he says. Some stenographers are training

Cotton Situation Is Reported Is Bureau's Verdict

AUSTIN.—What of the cotton situation? "Improved," was the verdict of Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, and noted cotton marketing authority. "Improvement began last fall when the government shifted from its policy of lending above market price to raises, to that of opening the channels of trade as a means of increasing consumption to raise price," Dr. Cox explained.

"The effectiveness of the latter policy, as contrasted with the holding policy, is best illustrated by what has happened in the last two years. When the 12 cent loan went into effect in August, 1934, the price of middling 7-8 inch spot cotton in New Orleans was 13.35 cents; and we were faced with one of the shortest crops in over 40 years.

"The indicated supply in the United States, counting carry-over and new crop, was only 16,941,000 bales. The price of cotton declined from that date to March, when the price broke to less than 11 cents in spite of the 12 cent government loans. As a result, the government took nearly half of that small crop.

"In the summer and fall of 1935, when the change of policy took place, the pressure of production both in the United States and abroad had increased. On Aug. 1 the indicated supply of cotton in the United States, counting carry-over and new crop, was 18,946,000 bales. The price of cotton was less than 11 cents. From Sept. 1 to Nov. 20 the price rose from 10.55 cents to 12.40 cents.

"Why did the price of cotton advance? There were two principal reasons: estimated production declined about a million bales, and, much more important, consumption in the United States and exports or disappearance were about a million and a half bales more than those for the same period of the preceding year.

"What has been the situation since the latter part of November? The rapid disappearance of cotton during the first four months of the year, plus a decline in estimates of production, resulted in a very tight spot cotton situation, which created premiums in near month futures by the latter part of November. These near month premiums tend to restrict both consumption and exports. This development gave the government an excellent opportunity to market a considerable part of its cotton, and during the last two weeks the Producers Pool has begun to take advantage of it.

"The development of a sound sales policy for the government cotton would be very constructive in the market at this time. The invalidation of the AAA and statements of high government officials have created uneasiness about the size of the prospective crop. Moreover, uncertainties relative to farm legislation and taxation are bearish on the market at present."

Teeth Better in Old Days Because of Care—Chaney

Answering a question which he stated is propounded dentists frequently, Dr. W. E. Chaney told Eastland Rotarians in a classification talk Monday at the Connelley hotel that people in past days had better teeth because of constant cleaning.

"They were always fooling with their teeth," Dr. Chaney said. With the use of self-fashioned tooth picks and quills the group who did not have modern devices to clean their teeth were keeping their molars in a healthy condition by constant care, Dr. Chaney said.
