A Ranger ambulance took the girls to Ranger shortly after the accident was reported.

'Hard Luck' Tattoo Traps Suspect

A detective stopped Gail Gilmore (above) on the steps of a Baltimore lodging house and asked for a match. By its light he saw the letters H-A-R-D L-U-C-K tattooed on the lodger's knuckles. That was Gilmore's hard luck, for he was assigned to the pastorate of the First Methodist church at the recent conference in Houston.

Mavs May Realize Life's Ambition

Eastland Mavericks Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock will have the "opportunity of a lifetime," when the Cisco Lobos invade Welch field.

Since Eastland has been in the Oil Belt football sector it has not ever defeated Ranger and Cisco in the same season. The Mavericks are nearer this realization this year than ever. The game with Ranger resulted in the Mavericks gaining its only victory to date.

While many believe Cisco a set-up, still other declare that the Lobos will not allow their previous defeats to impress them in any manner Friday afternoon. Cisco will be fighting to stay from the Oil Belt cellar, for which it is apparently doomed with Ranger unless a victory is obtained from Eastland.

The Mavericks have been arch foes of the Lobos for years. Eastland hasn't been defeated by the Lobos since 1933 and it is striving to maintain that record. Last year the Mavericks tied with Cisco and the year previous hammered their way to a 28 to 7 victory. In 1922 the team tied.

Junior Red Cross Reports Growth During Past Year

Few organizations could equal the record for growth and achievement shown by the American Junior Red Cross, a branch of the adult Red Cross functioning in the leading schools throughout the country, according to J. E. Spencer, Chairman of the Eastland Chapter, Red Cross.

Since its inception during the early World War years, Mr. Spencer declared yesterday, the Junior Red Cross has enjoyed a phenomenal growth both numerically and from the standpoint of influence among the youth of America. Today the organization consists of 8,352,298 members in 34,882 elementary, junior high, and high schools, 599,055 of these members representing the rapid growth of the Junior society during the fiscal year.

Helping disaster victims by contributions to the Red Cross flood and tornado relief fund this past spring, as well as supplying several thousand blind children with stories in Braille were two outstanding activities in which the Juniors have been especially helpful.

Many thousands of dollars for disaster relief were given by Junior members this past year, and a new record was established both in the total amount of money for disasters raised, and in the number of Junior members who have participated in the work of the organization during this twelve months' period.

From the National Children's Fund—a fund administered by the Junior Red Cross and built on contributions by the Juniors—appropriations have been made to buy playground equipment and books for children in communities particularly hard hit by disasters, lunches for school children in hurricane districts and libraries for schools where books have been destroyed by catastrophes of various kinds, as well as for schools in mountain or rural areas whose funds will not permit such purchases.

One project which moved throughout the year under impetus of great enthusiasm was that of providing at least one story in Braille for each child in state schools for the blind. Covers for the Braille manuscripts were made by hand by the Juniors, and the cost of materials was met from the Children's Fund. The Juniors also provided more than 52,000 menu covers to be supplied mess rooms of ships of the United States Naval Fleet at Christmas time.

In the 36,000 schools where American Juniors are to be found, international friendship and understanding have been fostered through the exchange of photograph albums, letters and hand-work between our students and those of many other countries, thereby stimulating an interest in children of other nations which would be hard to inculcate in any other way.

Chattel Mortgage Increase Shows Credit Easier, Times Better Here

Better business conditions for persons in various occupations are interpreted in the increase of chattel mortgages filed in the county clerk's office the first 10 months this year over a similar period in 1935.

Miss Genevieve Truly, deputy clerk, checked the books and the results showed an increase of approximately 25 per cent over last year. A total of 5,966 chattel mortgages were filed the first 10 months of this year, compared to 4,863 for a similar period in 1935.

EASTLAND FIRM TO DRILL IN VICINITY OF CHASTAIN WELL

A new location five miles south of Ranger and between that city and Eastland, regarded as a promising territory for oil development, has been made by Hoffmann and Page of Eastland.

In the same territory from which Garvin Chastain of Ranger had production which attracted the attention of all county oil men and resulted in a well with initial production of over 750 barrels daily, the Eastland firm staked location for the No. 1 Brashear-Fox, E. Finley survey, 330 feet of the south line and 330 feet west of the farm lines. The land was leased from the Eastland Investment Company.

Almost side by side, Lone Star Gas Company and Hickok Producing and Development Company are drilling one mile north of Cisco. Lone Star's No. 2 J. G. Boggs, section 83, H&TC survey, block 4, 520 feet east and 1,508 feet of the section lines, was reported drilling past 150 feet.

Hickok's well, No. 2 Charles Kleiner, section 83, H&TC survey, block 4, 300 feet east and 1,508 feet south of the section lines, was drilling past 415 feet.

Six miles north of Eastland, States Oil Corporation was running 10-inch casing at 926 feet on its No. 5 J. W. Henderson, section 8, H&TC survey, block 4, 825 feet north and 330 feet west of

The figures are interpreted as showing people are in better shape this year and credit conditions easier. The increase also shows a big pickup in installment buying of things which the average person can do without when times are hard.

Chattel liens against furniture, refrigerators and washing machines reveal a pick-up in demand for home goods, officials say. Automobile liens are numerous in the recordings, too, registration of new cars in the county indicate.

Lower Prices Are Expected on Cotton

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—"In the face of a large world carry-over of cotton, it is obvious that American cotton farmers may expect to encounter lowered prices if they greatly increase production in 1937," W. E. Morgan, Texas Extension economist, said in commenting on the Outlook Report from Washington, D. C., that the world supply of cotton is the largest in three years.

"The increase in world supply is due to marked increase of production in Russia, Brazil and China." The tendency toward lowered prices, however, would be offset to some extent if the general price level continues to rise or if there is further improvement in demand for hite staple, Morgan said.

An encouraging fact as part of the general outlook on cotton "is that government figures indicate the cotton and supply situation is favorable to maintaining prices of cotton seed and cotton seed products at higher levels this season than last.

"A point worthy of consideration," Morgan said, "is that improved quality of Texas cotton would tend to strengthen the competitive position of American cotton and to make it more salable at home."

The feat is regarded as amazing because he plays two of the most trying positions in two of the most strenuous sports. He is a backfield man and in hockey plays defense.

His endurance is ascribed to his physical development and powerful legs. His 5-foot, 11-inch frame packs 186 pounds.

Acid treatment of Panhandle Refining Company No. 1 E. H. Webb, lot 3 of the Bronson subdivision, William Van Norman survey, Eastland county, increased production from one to 10 barrels of oil.

This was shown Thursday from records in the oil and gas division office of the railroad commission at Eastland.

One hundred and sixty-five quarts of acid were used in the 65 feet of sand thickness. The depth to the top of the sand formation was 3,320 feet.

No report has been received from the same company's shooting of No. 1 L. A. Hightower, William Van Norman survey, block 2. Two hundred quarts of nitroglycerin were to be used in an effort to step up the present production of two barrels daily. Formations to be shot were 2,940 to 2,970, 3,028-3,050, and 3,110-3,140.

Plugging record has been filed for Robert A. Holt's No. 1 Payne, section 60, H. & T. C. survey, block 2, Comanche county.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Great Britain will protect her shipping in event of a blockade of Spanish ports, Anthony Eden told the house of commons today.

Asked if British ships would be protected on the high seas if carrying goods to Barcelona, which the Spanish rebel government has threatened to blockade, Eden asserted:

"The rules would normally govern international action on those actions will be pursued by his majesty's government in the fact of legitimate British entry."

He promised he would seek specific assurances from Italy and Germany that their recognition of Gen. Francisco Franco's government would not mean they regarded themselves free to supply arms to the nationalists.

A thick concentration of loyal warships in the Mediterranean was reported. This was regarded as a sign Madrid is preparing to defy the threatened blockade of Barcelona and other ports and, if necessary, to challenge the insurgent fleet to a test of naval strength.

American Parlor Fun Still Holds Its Lure

George S. Parker, who has been inventing and marketing parlor games since way back in the pre-lotto era, emerges from the wrack of the election land slide to remark that the ancient and genteel sport of playing games around the living room table is going just as strong as it ever was.

The sport seems to have begun, according to Mr. Parker, back in 1843, or thereabouts, when someone brought out a game called "Mansions of Happiness."

This game swept the country, and then gave way to a variety of successors; and, somehow, to hear Mr. Parker call the roll on these succeeding games is to get a picture of a homely, "comfy" side of American life that goes on, uninterrupted, through wars and depressions and complaints about the decline of the American home.

"After 'Mansions of Happiness'—and wouldn't you like to know what that game was, and how it was played?—there came such old favorites as crokinole and caroms, in which you snapped little doughnut-shaped pieces of wood around a polished board and made your fingers sore.

And then, around 1890, someone brought out tiddle-winks, and sober citizens spent hours trying to snap one bone disc into a glass cup with another bone disc.

Do you remember flinch—that card game played with an amazingly thick deck of cards numbered from one to fifteen? And bamboozle, a weird variant of it? And rook, and pit—which used to cause much loud yelling and squeals of excited laughter—and that darkly intellectual card game, authors? And that strangest of all card games, lost heir?

Lost heir if you can remember it, was nothing in the world but ancient game of 500, played with a special deck.

But they liked to play cards, just the same; so these other card games were brought out, to take the curse off an enjoyable pastime.

Then we come down to modern times, with mah jongg and the revival of backgammon—and, more recently, with monopoly. All these, like their predecessors, remarks Mr. Parker, held a peak of popularity for about two years and then faded—except that monopoly is still going strong.

And what about it all? Well, Mr. Parker says that while games come and go, the habit of playing them goes on undiminished. It is about as strong in summer as in winter and it doesn't change much from one generation to another.

To divert us, we have autos, movies, radios, and a lot of other things which our grandfathers did not have. But grouping about the living-room table in an eager family circle, is a diversion that never loses its appeal.

FEATURES OF THE 1937 FORD V-8 CARS

APPEARANCE—Distinctive modern design. Headlamps streamlined into fender aprons. Modern lid-type hood. Larger luggage space and spare tire concealed within body. Interiors entirely new. Slanting V-type windshield opens in all closed cars.

BRAKES—You want two things in a modern braking system. Dependability—and soft pedal action. The Easy-Action Safety Brakes in the new Ford give you both, with "the safety of steel from pedal to wheel." Cable and conduit control type. Self-energizing—car momentum is used to help apply the brakes. About one-third less pedal pressure is required to stop the car.

SAFETY—All-steel construction. Top, sides, floor and frame welded into a single steel unit of great protective strength. Safety Glass throughout at no extra charge.

COMFORT AND QUIET—By every modern standard of design, the 1937 Ford is a big, roomy car. Extra space in the body where you want it—not taken up by the engine under the hood. Comfort of the Ford Center-Poise Ride is further increased by smoother action of the long-tapering springs with new pressure lubrication. New methods of mounting body and engine, and other refinements, make this a quieter car.

After about two months of efforts by the members of the Methodist Missionary society, the "21" Study club and the Eastern Star chapter, a work-room was opened here Thursday with ten women being employed at sewing. For some time a few of the women had been going to Gorman to the work-room, which was very inconvenient, and they and the others eligible for work are glad to have a place here to be employed. The work-room is located in the store building belonging to Mrs. Ayres, a place that is in the main part of town and is very convenient for those who are working there.

On Tuesday of last week four school buses filled with 112 pupils and a number of teachers and parents, left here at 4 o'clock in the morning for Dallas, where they all enjoyed the Centennial. tion the parsonage committee reported that some of the furniture needed re-upholstering and draperies were needed for some of the rooms. They also reported that the house had been left in good condition by the outgoing pastor's family. Mrs. Preston Sparks led the Outlook program and Mrs. W. C. Bedford presented the bulletin of missionary news. Others taking part on the program were Miss Mollie O'Rear, Mrs. C. O. Bragg and Mrs. S. E. Snodgrass. Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at the Church of Christ over the remains of Almond Beardon, who had passed away Wednesday night after a short illness. He was born in Desdemona on Sept. 29, 1878, and lived here nearly all of his 58 years, though he spent some time in Arizona and two years ago he took a trip around the world. The pastor of the Comanche Church of Christ conducted the funeral and gave a message to relatives and friends. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Simpson, of Phoenix, Arizona. Pall bearers were his boyhood companions. Numerous and beautiful floral offerings covered the grave as tokens of love.

New Industry Tax Bringing Sharp Comment of Press

SAN ANTONIO—Evidence that the tax increases on industry, voted by the legislature during its recent special session, are bringing unfavorable publicity to Texas was cited today by Porter A. Whaley, vice president and general manager of the Texas State Manufacturers' Association, in calling for a "united front by Texas to uphold the industrial prestige of the state."

First Circus—First Picture for Heir to Tobacco Millions

First picture ever published of "Dickie" Reynolds, 3-year-old son of R. J. Reynolds, who recently came into a $30,000,000 inheritance, the exclusive photograph at the right above was taken the other day as the youngster visited his first circus with his parents at Winston-Salem, N. C. Photographed on the same occasion were "Dickie's" mother and father, left. Mrs. Reynolds, formerly Bliz Dillard, is the granddaughter of "Old Bill" Taylor, bitterest rival of R. J. Reynolds, Sr., in the days when the Reynolds tobacco fortune was founded.

"I have on my desk," said Mr. Whaley, "editorial clippings from many newspapers in Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Washington and other states which substantiate the statement I made a short time ago that 'unjust and unreasonable legislation would make outside capital fearful of entering the state.'"

"For example, the Boston News Service, a leading commercial news service, in commenting on our recently enacted omnibus bill, said:

"Our state solons, vying with Washington, are doughty levers of taxes, notably in Louisiana and Texas just now. In Texas a solon would lift all sorts of tax rates, beginning with oil, gas and sulphur and going on to whiskey, malt and salt and would add 8 new taxes including 10 percent on amusements and a 2 percent gross tax on hotel rooms costing over

$2.00 per day. It would be a levy both stiff and sweeping."

"The New York Journal of Commerce has this to say: 'Excessive taxation, it has long been recognized, defeats itself by killing the sources of government revenues. The present efforts to raise sulphur taxes in Texas constitute a case in point * * * Other states which have pension systems in effect have spared their natural resource industries from burdensome taxation on this account and Texas could doubtless find a way out of its difficulties without having to seriously threaten the competition of one of its great industries.'

"These are only a few of the many comments being made in papers outside the state on the Texas tax situation," declared Mr. Whaley. "It is obvious to any thinking person that this publicity is doing Texas considerable harm and will defer the establishment

Rats Are Economic and Health Problem

AUSTIN, Tex.—That rats not only destroy property, but carry disease germs, is a well known fact. Prompt and effective measures by the United States Public Health Service for killing and rat proofing buildings have saved this country from serious epidemics, such as occurred in the Old World in past generations.

"It has been estimated that in the United States, rats and mice each year destroy crops and other property valued at over $200,000,000," Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, said, "and even this large amount of money seems small compared to the human misery and loss of life which these small pests may cause."

"If rats are in your home or business house, kill them as soon as possible. Because rats increase so rapidly it is useless to expect more than temporary relief from campaign of riddance restricted to killing only. To be of lasting benefit the work of building rats out of their shelters and away from their food supply must go along with that of trapping, poisoning and other means of eradication.

"Rats eat every known food, both animal and vegetable. The removal of garbage, rubbish, trash, and similar material is of importance in rat control as it affords shelter as well as food.

"In recent years the use of 'red squill' as an effective rat poison has placed in our hands a most effective weapon. In case human beings or domestic animals should eat the bait containing 'red squill' they would vomit and rid themselves of the poison, but it seems that rats cannot vomit and they die of progressive paralysis which kills in from one to four days, thereby giving them time to take to the open, as they commonly will.

"A thorough and systematic campaign to rid your neighborhood and community of rats will not only save money but will preserve your health and that of your family."

Olivia de Havilland is co-starred. The picture, said to be one of the greatest ever produced, has a big cast of name players as well as 15,000 extras who participate in the spectacles.

HALF-BACKS LAUGH-BACKS

DEED CLOWNS MAKE NEW TRIUMPH FILMS' MERRIEST There are riotous runs and dizzy drop-kicks, foolish forwards and cuckoo coaches, hilarious half-backs and tuneful touchdowns in the Twentieth Century-Fox giddy Gridiron musical "Pigskin Parade" opening today at the Connellee Theatre.

The picture which features Stuart Erwin, Johnny Downs, Arline Judge, Betty Grable, Patsy Kelly, Jack Haley, the Yacht Club boys, Dixie Dunbar, Anthony Martin and Judy Garland, is a crazy caper with a procession of wacky songs and a never-ceasing barrage of looney laughter.

More melodious than "Thanks a Million," more side-splitting than "Sing Baby Sing," "Pigskin Parade" turns loose a legion of dancers and their singing pals in uproarious yarn of a fresh water college that plays the big game the season amid a tidal wave of titters with the powerful Boole-Boola team—just because some boy mailed the right letter to the wrong place!

The invitation to play against the unbeaten Boole-Boola isn't meant for Yipee University at all, when Yipee's youthful coach, Jack Haley and his wife, Patsy Kelly, receive it, they shoot in their acceptance before it is sealed.

Meanwhile, Boole-Boola, in an effort to make the ludicrous match bear worthwhile, immediately goes under way a gigantic public campaign to convince the world the great strength of their unknown opponents, particularly stressing their phenomenal forward passing attack.

Patsy, taking the hint, prevails on Jack to put the school's championship basketball team in the backfield with surprising results.

Tossing the pigskin oval around in a bean bag, the Yipee boys in the morale of their foes, then proceed to mop up one powerful team after another. On their sweep national fame, until the star halfback is knocked out for the season through an injury.

That's where the morose Stuart Erwin, a muscular hill-billy who can throw a muskmelon farther than Washington tossed that silver dollar, comes in to save the day. Erwin is drafted as the new Yipee forward-passing star and really proves to be a marvel, even though he draws the line at wearing shoes no matter how rough the game. After a series of hilarious games Yipee and Boole-Boola lock horns for the big game, which works up to a rib-racking climax of mad mirth in one of the craziest football games ever seen in a harried coach's wildest nightmares. What a scream! What a team! The college cut-ups strut their stuff to create a laugh smash, a song and dance flash, another tune touchdown in the Twentieth Century-Fox hit parade.

'CHARGE OF LIGHT BRIGADE' AT THE CONNELLEE SUNDAY

"The Charge of the Light Brigade," Warner Bros.' stupendous production suggested by the immortal poem of Alfred, Lord Tennyson, comes to the Connellee Theatre Sunday with an all-star cast headed by Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland—and over fifteen thousand extra people. The absorbing story of which the charge of the Light Brigade makes the sensational climax begins in India, where two brothers, both army officers, are rivals for the hand of a beautiful Scottish girl. The girl is betrothed to the elder, but during his absence, fighting on the frontier, she falls in love with the younger.

She struggles against this love believing herself obligated to her fiancée, but when she finds that both of her lovers have been ordered to the front against the Russians in the Crimea, she confesses her love for his brother to her betrothed, at the same time expressing her fear that the man she loves will be killed in battle.

The elder brother and superior officer promises he will keep the younger from danger, and carries out this pledge when he sends his brother back to headquarters with a note to the Commandant telling him that he deliberately changed an order for retreat into an attack, he himself riding to his death on the battle field.

Besides Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland, the distinguished cast includes Patric Knowles, Henry Stephenson, Nigel Bruce, Donald Crisp, David Niven, J. Carroll Naish, Walter Holbrook, Scotty Beckett, George Regas, Colin Kenny, Gordon Hart and Helen Sanborn.

Michael Curtiz directed the picture from the screen play by Michael Jacoby and Rowland Leigh.

RUGGLES AND BOLAND ROMP THROUGH MARITAL COMEDY

What may be expected to happen when a happily married husband takes the advice of a love expert and starts a love affair just to keep his wife's nervous system properly tuned by keeping her slightly jealous, will be revealed on Sunday when "Wives Never Know," the comedy starring Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland, opens at the Lyric Theatre.

The love expert in this instance, is dapper Adolphe Menjou, a novelist who considers himself too wise to get married but who is willing and eager to give advice on the subject to anybody else who would take it. He works his way into the happy household of Ruggles and Mary and spreads the seeds of discord. The fact that Ruggles is a model husband and has never done anything to disturb Mary he calls sheer selfishness. Such conduct, he tells the startled Ruggles, deprives the wife of two birthrights—the right to experience the subtle joys of jealousy and the right she has to feel the great exultation which comes with forgiving her mate for his transgressions.

Anxious to keep Mary happy, Ruggles gets himself mixed up with an actress, lovely Vivienne Osborne. This affair leads to all sorts of complications and, far from bringing the result promised by Menjou, results in a broken heart for Mary. Ruggles tries to explain but to no avail.

In a final attempt to shake himself free of the entanglements and complications which his experiments into jealousy led him, Ruggles connives to trick Menjou into marriage. This he accomplishes in a hilarious climax which is one of the high spots in entertainment for the current season. Menjou finds himself married, Mary experiences jealousy and forgiveness, and Ruggles, pillar of respectability, finds himself reestablished as the First Husband of his community.

Forgotten Team Of University Is Really a Winner

AUSTIN — The University of Texas swimming team, five times conference winner, is the "forgotten team" of the university. Comparatively few of the eight thousand-odd students enrolled in the university know when the swimmers leave on a trip, where they go, what records they break, or when they return. Notwithstanding the lack of student interest these particular athletes continue to train harder and work harder to win honors for the school than any rose bowl football winner. And in spite of this they do not seem to want a place in the sun. They seem to be satisfied with the keen competition.

The swimming team was organized in 1931, and immediately won the conference championship, competing against teams from SMU, TCU, Baylor and A. & M. For five years they have repeated, and have usually played to a crowd of only a few score students. For the past two years the team has been coached by Tex Robertson, former University of Michigan star, who coaches without pay in order that he can retain his amateur status. Robertson has done much to improve the team since coming to Austin. Through his efforts Adolph Kiefer, Olympic backstroke champion from Chicago, entered the university this fall. Kiefer was discovered and developed by Robertson in Chicago. Robertson also has been active in bringing many outstanding stars from high schools and junior colleges to the university during the last two years. Outstanding candidate for the varsity this year is John Crouch, Hondo. Crouch, as a freshman, competed, unofficially, last year with varsity swimmers during meets and bettered their record-shattering swims with ease. He is expected to lead the squad in honors during the 1936 season. With Crouch came twelve other promising freshmen swimmers and divers. As a nucleus for his 1936 squad, Robertson has Rollin Baker, 1935 captain, who holds the conference record in the 50 and 100 yard free style swims; Jack Tabb, Thurman Talley, Leroy Bursey, divers; Lee Allison, diver; and Johnny Keough. Carrying the heavy diving assignment for the Longhorns will be Joe Bowling, Gulf AAU diving champion. After five years of conference and inter-sectional "Y" meets, Robertson hopes to take his squad to the national meet this year for the first time. He believes his team is equal to the big teams of the nation. A successful tour of Midwest and Eastern cities last year bears him out in this.

Federal funds received amounted to $219,381,000; $20,366,000 was derived from counties and other local sources; $55,883,000 from sale of bonds and notes; and $16,562,000 was appropriated from general funds or derived from miscellaneous sources. Other expenditures for equipment, administration, state police and interest on highway debt brought the total expenditure for state-administered highways to $713,066,000. Retirements of bonds amounted to $55,756,000 and $79,533,000 was transferred for use on local and park roads or was used for non-highway purposes.

Bids Are Called For Leases On the Prison Farm Land

HOUSTON—A state board in charge of prison farm land has called for bids on 1,615 acres nearest the Wilkes & Smith No. 2 wildcat well in the Lockridge area of Brazoria county which has just been completed.

Attorney General William McCraw, State Land Commissioner J. H. Walker, and Col. W. A. Padlock, chairman of the Texas prison board, form the leasing board. Several major oil companies, lacking "protection" acreage in the Lockridge oil field near the well, owned by the Gulf Oil Corporation, were expected to bid strongly for the prison farm land.

The state holds a total of 15,000 acres in the new oil area for use as prison farm land which is less than a mile from the wildcat well to the northwest.

Previous oil tests eliminated other directions from the field as extension possibilities.

Land under the prison board's charge, which yields oil, is located in Fort Bend county. Several small wells in the Blue Ridge field return revenue to the state, Padlock said.

Victor McLaglen says he has been soldiering all his life. Many people do it only on the job.

Now Ease Neuritis Pains Fast

For Amazingly Quick Relief Get Genuine Bayer Aspirin

If you suffer from pains of neuritis what you want is quick relief. Genuine Bayer Aspirin tablets give quick relief, for one reason, because they dissolve or disintegrate almost instantly they touch moisture. (Note illustration above.)

Hence—when you take a real Bayer Aspirin tablet it starts to dissolve almost as quickly as you swallow it. And this is ready to start working almost instantly... headaches, neuralgia and neuritis pains start easing almost at once.

That's why millions never ask for aspirin by the name aspirin alone when they buy, but always say "BAYER ASPIRIN" and see that they get it.

Try it. You'll say it's marvelous.
